

Poka The Blind Girl Jumpchain

You arrive in a small, unnamed town in America. Your parents quickly enrolled you to the only school in town. As you are introduced to the classroom, you are assigned to sit at the back of the classroom beside a tiny, pale girl. As you get to know each other, you realize that this girl, Poka, is blind and is being bullied by her classmates.

Will you be a Victim like Poka?
Will you be a Bully like a certain Blond Girl?
Will you be a Friend instead?

You receive a 1,000 CP stipend to spend on this document.
Spend it wisely.

Drawbacks

I'm Blind, Not Deaf [+100] - Like Poka, you've lost your sense of sight. You may gain +100 CP for each additional sense you lose.

Poka, The Misanthropic Blind Girl [+100] - Poka The Blind Girl is now Poka The Misanthropic Blind Girl. Due to years of bullying, humiliation, and embarrassment from everyone in her life, she is more cynical and distrustful of people in general. Befriending her will now be harder. Good luck.

Depression [+200] - You find yourself constantly feeling sad and quickly lose interest in anything. I hope you have companions who can stick with you through 10 years of depression.

Blond-sama, please step on me [+200] - You have this irrational need to be bullied and humiliated by Blond Girl. You find yourself becoming her chair, licking her dirty shoes clean, and doing similar things to show her your demented version of love. Note, if you're a masochist and would do this without taking the drawback, you won't earn any CP.

The Dog is going to die! [+400] - You find yourself feeling huge amounts of dread at the tiniest hint of something going wrong, even if it doesn't make sense. You will feel as if you're suffering from imagining shitty situations, even though nothing bad is happening at all.

Pain and Suffering [+400] - Every single kid now looks down on PWDs. 'Normal' kids will go out of their way to make sure that Poka and other kids with disabilities suffer and have a shitty life. That somehow includes you, even if you don't have disabilities. This doesn't affect you, your companions, and PWDs so you can make your own friend group and go through this shit together.

No Jumper, YOU are Poka [+600] - You are stripped of your powers and are forced to go through everything Poor Poka has gone through.

Final Choices

You have three choices.

1. Stay Here and live within Poka's World
2. Go back to your universe, taking with you everything you earned in your chain
3. Move on to another Jump and continue the chain.

Supplement Mode

You can use this jump as a supplement to another jump or a setting without a jump. Here are the rules:

- CP is separate between either jumps. CP gained from drawback stays in the jump it was gained from
- Background and setting between both jumps are mixed. You decide how much or how little they crossover
