

V1.2

INTRO

Deep within the mountains of blue there's a university that's perfect for you, where education is priority one. Get a major in knowledge while you minor in fun! BMS! BMS! Who is BMS?

You are.

Welcome Jumper to Blue Mountain State. A state college with a football team that has maintained its status as a perennial powerhouse while its students have maintained the proud tradition of partying their collective asses off. Laws get broken regularly, a truly obscene amount of alcohol is consumed, and if you never get laid you are doing something very wrong. Even the mascot gets around and he's among the least likable people in fiction by my estimation. So good luck jumper, and remember you can't have pregnancy scares if you only ever do butt stuff.

Take these 1000 College Points and godspeed.

ORIGINS

We're keeping it simple and sleazy here, folks. You can choose whatever origin you'd like. Want to be a new student? Done. Want to be on the coaching staff or maybe a professor? Done. Want to be a returning four year starter with all sorts of history here? Go ahead. Speaking of history you can choose to have had a life in setting before arriving or you can be a Drop-In. If you go Drop-In all of the loose ends and paperwork will be tied up and nobody's going to ask any questions or dig too deep. It's not that kind of place.

Additionally you can choose the length of your stay here that would make the most sense for the origin you selected, up to 10 full years. You have my blessing to Van Wilder your way to a full decade of college somehow if you'd like.

PERKS

Perks operate on a floating discount system given the lack of strict Origins above. You have two floating discounts for each price tier and any 100CP perks that are discounted become free. You cannot discount the same perk twice. All perks marked with an asterisk may be purchased multiple times.

The Shriek – 100CP

Now you can scream like a teenage girl. Pretty impressive if you're a giant football player, and just as funny as it is unexpected. This increases your lung capacity and expands your vocal register as well as giving you enhanced comedic timing and an instinct to know when using your new skill would be the most effective to get a laugh.

Full Tilt Full Time – 100CP

Like a certain blonde behemoth you have the capacity to just absolutely fucking SEND it every time. Whether a new endeavor or your 10,000th rep at practice can give it your all every single time without mentally tiring. This does nothing to keep your body going but you will never take a rep off or lose focus unless you choose to.

It's Not Even About Slapping Asses – 100CP

Any time you want to show your appreciation for someone's actions you can just give em a little pat on the tush. It will always be appreciated and never seen as harassment. If you slap ass enough it will reinforce positive behaviors and build trust. So get out there and let them know they did a good job. Be a good team mate.

Golden Arm – 100CP*

Let's be honest for a second. Most of the joy of coming here is not for the football. However the football is going to be there, so why not be really damn good at it? Just 100CP and you'll be blessed with the physical gifts/talent/skill/knowledge to make you the undisputed greatest current player at your position in the country, as well as being in the conversation for the greatest to ever do it at this level. Despite the perk name alluding to a QB this purchase can be applied to any position. With two purchases for the same position you will now be guaranteed to be the best to ever do it in the college game. Can be purchased multiple times, and for different positions if you feel like being a two-way threat.

The World Has Opened Up to Me In Ways You Can't Even Imagine – 100CP*

You are now very attractive. A general 8/10 in whichever archetype you'd like. Tall dark and handsome, suave and sophisticated, cute girl next door, beefcake. Whatever air you'd like to give off you now do so and you've got the face and body to support it. If you would prefer, instead of a general whole body boost you can opt to give the whole benefit to one body part and really make it incredible, a pure 10/10. Also since this is college and you have more important things to worry about let's make it so all of your hygiene needs are always met and you smell and taste as good as you look. With a second purchase of this perk you become an 11/10 and are undeniably the most attractive person on any mundane earth.

It's Called a Tactic – 200CP

You're now the master of the underhanded deed. Poisoning food. Leveraging cheerleaders to tire out the other team. If there's some manner of gaining an unfair advantage out there you're aware of it and you're probably pretty good at pulling it off. Which means you can also see them coming a mile away when anyone tries to pull it off against your own team and save your buddies' asses. You're welcome.

Welcome to Freshmen Hell Week – 200CP

Hazing. It's inescapable in the genre and it's also pretty goddamn stupid. Or it was before you took this perk. Now any hazing you would otherwise expect to have to go through is side stepped. Whether you're somehow exempted entirely or you can power through it safely and unbothered is up to you. No one will comment on this exempt status or hold it against you. Alternatively if you want to be on the other end you gain tremendous skill at hazing people. You know exactly how to push people to their breaking point and keep them there without ever risking them actually breaking.

HOW ABOUT I JERK YOU OFF?! - 200CP

Because there's no refuge quite like audacity. You now have the ability to think on the fly and come up with unorthodox ways to get yourself out of trouble (that you probably absolutely deserve to be in). Throw a beer on a guy three times your size? Threaten to jerk him off. Get the whole bar into it. This won't save you every time but it will get you out of tough situations a lot more than it should.

Bro Down! - 200CP

Look, some times you forget to call. Some times you just don't want to. Either way, getting onto peoples' bad side is going to happen eventually. Good news is you don't have to stay there. When you're on the outs with someone all it takes to set things right is one good hang out to squash all of your issues. Bring some kind of refreshment as a token of good will and spend a few hours together and any and all issues will be settled by the end of it. Somehow. Gotta love TV.

You Put So Much Effort Into Slacking Off – 200CP

It's almost inspiring. When you want to you know exactly the minimum amount of effort to put in to get by in your endeavors. You find clever and inventive ways to dodge extra responsibilities when they don't suit your tastes. Additionally, when doing the bare minimum this complete lack of motivation to achieve something better somehow makes you endearing. Nobody holds it against you and some folks even find it sexy. Now get out there and give it your some.

Say My Name – 400CP

This is it. The Sex perk in the college sex comedy jump. The seduction skills to take down an entire volleyball team INCLUDING the lesbians, the oral skills to get a girl off so hard she pops a condom full of coke, the hand stuff skills of a professor's grandmother, and much like a certain pent up drugged up running back you now have the sexual capacity to go all night. Enough to wear down even a seasoned pro like the cougar or a dozen sexy college cheerleaders. I'll even throw in the skill to make an hours long sex marathon be mind blowingly pleasurable the whole time for however many people are involved instead of ever getting boring or causing discomfort. If there was a Heisman handed out for throwing hip you'd take it in a landslide. Oh and since I'm feeling generous immunity from STDs and total fertility control sprinkled on top.

Marathon Monday – 400CP

This is it. The substance abuse perk in the college sex comedy jump. This is going to come in clutch considering how much partying you're likely to be doing while you're here. You now have the ability to consume drugs and alcohol from sun up to the next sun up with no negative consequences. Any psychedelic trips you have will be positive and never harrowing. Trip hard enough and you'll go on a vision quest with supernatural guidance delivered at the end. Any come down will be gentle and never make you bummed out. No addictions. No blackouts. Hangovers are a thing of the past. Your judgment, while still capable of being impaired, only ever seems to lead you to shenanigans instead of tragedy. On top of all that you'll never fail a piss test.

Team Building Olympic Games – 400CP

When a group of people you're a part of that work together for a common cause are struggling, you now have the solution. Gather everyone in the group together, do a truly ridiculous amount of drugs, and have a competition. By the end of the night team chemistry and motivation will be at an all time high. Interpersonal issue will be settled. Moving forward that team will have a huge boost in skill and will to push through what comes next and will maintain it through the 'season', however you want to quantify that. It worked for the '43 team.

PARTY AT THE GOAT HOUSE! - 400CP

You can throw one hell of a rager. Any party you host is now guaranteed to be a banger. All attendees will have the times of their lives and the vibes will be immaculate. No OD's, no alcohol poisoning, no fights, and everybody dedicated to living their best life. House parties, dances, nights out at a bar, all fall under this perk. Best of all you can just keep throwing them, and nobody will ever get tired of it. You could throw an all night black out rage fest every night for a decade, and even if someone attended every single one they'd have as much fun at the last one as the first.

I Know At Least Seven Girls That Boned Him to Get Good Grades – 400CP

Bad News: People in positions of authority that leverage their status for sexual favors are morally reprehensible. Good News: You can be one if you want to. With the purchase of this perk you can now be assured that any position you hold with any measure of authority over another person can be used to solicit sexual favors. The person being propositioned is much more likely to accept and you are fiat backed to ensure all of these dalliances stay between the people involved.

Superman's Brother: An Expanded Theory of Reality – 600CP

Seems like you did in fact come here to play school. You have an impressive intellect, impressive enough to be able to write papers that when published generate a buzz in the scientific community. School will be a cake walk for you as long as you put in the minimum effort and show up. Where you really excel though is in your ability to teach people. You could teach the dumbest player on the BMS football team to a 4.0 average over the course of a couple of tutoring sessions.

And If I Do That I'll Go Top Three? - 600CP

You have the ability to get a boost to your abilities by abstaining from your vices. Whatever your poison is if you can hold off you can get big benefits. Giving up something slightly meaningful like a favorite snack would give you a small boost whereas giving up something you truly love doing would triple your abilities for as long as you do not cave in. The improvement is not instantaneous, taking a number of hours to ramp up and as your abilities improve so does your craving for what you now can't have. Also note that while your boost in performance has a cap the boost for the cravings does not and will continue rising and rising. Keep it together Jumper, don't disappoint the Boz.

225 and Three Scores and I'll Rock Your World – 600CP

Trading is a fundamental part of the human experience. Bartering. Promising sex so you're golden ticket boyfriend puts up a good stat line and makes it onto Sportscenter. This perk gives you a general boost to haggling/commerce and the like but a very specific, very powerful boost when it comes to making deals regarding performance based incentive. "If Party A completes this goal, then Party B will award Party A with this payment". Whether you're the one doing the performing or the one doing the paying out when you strike these deals it is much easier to get favorable terms. This means you can do more and demand less or demand more and offer less, in either case the other party doesn't seem to notice they're getting screwed, even if this deal doesn't deal with sex.

Shut Up, I'm a Football Player – 600CP

The football players at BMS get away with...a lot. Like, I know this is a comedy but geeze they definitely put that kid in a coma. Well now you can too. From now on you have a certain carte blanche socially, legally, and any other which way-ally you can think of that allows you to get away with most anything short of murder. Getting into an active crime scene? Check. Being an insufferable dick? Check. Strolling into a strip joint or bar underage? Check. Actively glorifying and participating a culture that treats women like garbage but somehow always having a date? Check twice. This is a broad spanning protection and it would normally fade away as you left college, but since you bought the perk it never will.

One Win Closer to JoePa's Record – 600CP

You are now an elite at a profession of your choosing. If you choose college football coach then you're now among the greatest coaches that ever lived with the capacity to win more national championship rings than you can wear on one hand. Whichever profession you choose you have the skills to get the job done and carve out a legacy no one can argue with. Including the skills to sweep any controversies of how you got there so far under the rug nobody cares any more. Just look at that win column, goddamn.

ITEMS

You have four floating discounts in this section, and you can use multiple discounts on a single item if you'd like. Any items discounted below 100CP are free. All items marked with an asterisk may be purchased multiple times.

Billy – Free

Literally a goat. The BMS Mascot will now accompany you on your journey. Doesn't age, doesn't need food or water. Just there to put out a good vibe. Everybody loves this guy. Surprisingly easy to pick up and carry around.

Can You Feel That? - Free/100CP

Obligatory soundtrack perk. The college sex comedy genre as a whole tends to have some decent background tracks and now you can listen to them whenever you want. You control whether only you can hear the music or if it broadcasts from you, and whether people find that odd or just roll with it. Additionally you can hear specific tracks at will or set it to a thematic default that will play appropriate tracks to go along with the events that are occurring. As a final bonus this soundtrack perk can combine with any others you pick up and work together however you'd like it to. This is free for the duration of the jump or you can pay to carry it with you.

A Little Something Extra in There For You – 100CP*

A fat wad of cash you get at the beginning of every month. Whether this be your salary as a professional, daddy's direct deposit as a lacrosse player, or a paper bag from a booster the bottom line is that you've got 10,000 dollars headed your way in perpetuity. Each purchase doubles the amount you receive.

Red Lamborghini – 100CP*

A beautiful machine you'd have a hard time driving slow. This red rocket never runs out of fuel and any damage it receives is repaired after a 24 hour period. Once a week an absolutely gorgeous woman with real daddy issues will approach you and pay you 100$ to give you a blow job in the car. If you want a different sports car you're welcome to pick that one instead with all of the same benefits. Want a fleet? It's your CP, friend.

Oil Change Kits – 100CP

Look, not everybody is blessed enough to have perks to make them pass a piss test. Those poor souls are saved with the arrival of these little beauties. Using one of these up to three days prior to any drug tests allows the beneficiary to test clean of any illicit substances. You get as many as you need when you need them and as an extra bonus using the kit causes no pain and you don't have to source clean pee from grade schoolers because that's included in the purchase. Jesus, this show some times.

Fake ID – 100CP

Because fuck waiting until you're 21. This ID will get you into any establishment that would have an age restriction and allow you to purchase any substances that are likewise inaccessible to a younger crowd.

Nerds – 200CP

What you have here is a small group of highly intelligent, motivated, and loyal college students. They have all kinds of tech and scholarly know how and they're genuinely dedicated to helping you out however you can. Whether they're doing your homework for you, tutoring you, or helping orchestrate an impressively complex blackmail of one of your professors you can count on them to get the job done. These ones you can even be friends with and there will be no concerns about any uprising.

Cheerleaders – 200CP

I know what kind of man you are. Here's a dozen sexy college cheerleaders. They love to party, they're all compatible with you on a romantic and physical level. They love to share and participate in activities together. And they're actually elite cheerleaders on top of that. Feel free to sub in physical expies of any famous cheerleaders from fiction you'd like.

Oksana – 200CP

Banging this thing is like banging a sunset over the ocean. Like having sex with a waterfall. Like banging a girl made of slippery gold. Like doing a silk bag full of puppy ears. Like banging a chocolate souffle. What we have here is the pocket pussy to end all pocket pussies. You can stick your dick and sometimes your balls in this and be guaranteed to have an incredible experience. As a bonus since you're paying CP for this, there is no risk of STD transmission from communal use, there is never any social stigma attached with using this, and there's never any clean up.

Holy Cow, Look at all These Drugs (And Hooch) – 200CP

A truly ridiculous amount of drugs and an equally ridiculous variety as well. Enough of every party drug in existence to allow an entire hard partying fraternity/football team to party hard for a whole week. Oh, also beer and liquor of every variety you can name. The drugs also come with a handy briefcase that will never be searched by law enforcement and fits much more inside of it than it should, if you want to take some things to away games. All goods restock every day.

Rabies – 200CP

Now hear me out. Only losers do steroids these days, but some times you need that little extra oomph. Injecting a small amount of this into your haunch will make it so for the next 6 hours all of your physical abilities are improved by double. Boosted performance with no drawbacks. Well except, for a little drooling and the mild desire to howl a bit. It gives you the edge you need and it's undetectable.

Icicle Enema – 200CP

This right here is certainly something. This item has two benefits. The first is that when you administer this to anything with a rectum, via that rectum, it will immediately have any and all health issues resolved. The second benefit is that when administered it will provide a euphoric sensation better than any drug and a level of surprising enlightenment. Using two does double the effect. Make sure you lift that leg.

The Goat House – 200CP/400CP

A college kid's dream. You can pay 200CP for an exact copy of the house from the series, or 400 to upgrade to a full mansion. This property can be imported at the beginning of any jump to a college campus of your choosing and no questions will be asked or issues will arise from its arrival. It can be like it showed up overnight or you can decide a history for the space in that world. This is a house that's always stocked with food and drink with the rent paid up and the utilities covered. The house is self cleaning, self repairing, filled with the everything you could want in a frat house including games, the most comfortable furniture imaginable, and an endless supply of alcohol. Especially of note is that any parties thrown here attract beautiful women and are immune to ever having the cops called to ruin the fun. Finally the perks 'PARTY AT THE GOAT HOUSE!' and 'Marathon Monday' apply to anyone paying you a visit while they're here. If you happened to throw a party here AND you have those perks they would work multiplicatively and guarantee the greatest college party ever thrown, every single time.

Dear Old BSU – 400 CP

College never has to end if you never leave it, and with this purchase you can take it along with you. You are now the proud single owner (somehow) of a state college, including the entire campus and everything within it. It generates a pretty tidy profit somewhere in the range of a few million a year you get to stuff in your pockets, but the real benefits aren't the cash. This campus is now your domain. All people here respect and admire you like a certain dean wish they would for him. Much like the school from the show anyone who attends the school is guaranteed to have a great time, and unlike the show any degrees from here carry significant weight and are considered as prestigious as any in the world you currently reside in. The teaching staff is elite and guarantees a wonderful well rounded education. And the sports teams? Elite facilities and reputation making recruiting relevant talent a breeze. National contenders, every year. You have a lavish apartment at the top of the administration building where you can always stay for free.

COMPANIONS

Import – 100CP/400CP

Again let's keep it simple and standard. Spend 100CP for a single companion that gets 600 CP, the same free background rules you received, and discount structure. Or if you're going for the full set of 8 then I'll cut you a deal and only charge you 400CP.

Canon – 100CP

Anybody on this crazy ride that you'd like to take along with you can be bought a ticket for 100CP. As a bonus before they leave the setting they can spend 600CP with the standard discounts as they see fit.

You Pussies are in Love – Free

A girlfriend? In College? Why would anyone have a girlfriend in college? Well because some times there's girls like this. This girl and you just immediately clicked. Stumbled upon each other one day and fucked each others' brains out. In the ensuing post coital hangout you discovered you were actually a lot alike. Shared hobbies and beliefs. Had truly insane chemistry and ease of being around one another. And when it came time to the point you'd usually part ways or self-sabotage your way out of what was happening you two just decided not to do that. Physical description up to you, skills and whatever else up to you as well. Bottom line they are a smoke show you truly connect with and there's a chance at something amazing here if you want it.

Oh Captain, My Captain - Free

Thad is a lot of things. Funny, incredible athlete, huge bastard, to name a few. Now you can have him accompany you across the multiverse to bang sloots and drink booze. He doesn't have any special perks or abilities but he does give it his all for what he cares about and helping you along your journey is now at the top of his list. He's got a good heart, he's just kind of a coward and a moron and those things can be worked on if you choose. You don't have to take him if you don't want but c'mon what's the worst that could happen?

DRAWBACKS

Totally Legal Supplement (Mode) - 0CP

Feel free to use this jump as a supplement to go along with any jump for settings you can justify BMS being related to. Fanwank as you see fit. The two jumps keep their separate pools of CP and drawbacks only apply to the CP total of the doc you took them in.

Can't Hang – 100CP

You're not very good at this whole partying thing. If you drink more than a beer you're going to be vomiting aggressively. If you take any drugs you're going to feel awful for days. I mean I guess you can party sober still. That's going to be sort of a 'cold light of day' thing to see all of this without booze goggles, though.

Lent Sammy money – 100CP

You probably shouldn't have done that. Sammy now has it in his head that he owes you, and he is a bit of an extremist moron. At some point in the future he is going to 'help you' to settle the debt and it's going to be a disaster. Expect it to happen at the worst possible time, lead to mental distress, and cause some serious property damage. You won't learn your lesson though, and this will happen once a year for every year that you're here.

Third String – 100CP

Strap in because it's going to get weird and it's not going to be in the fun way. You are now socially awkward, kind of gross, and treated very poorly by your peers. If slumming it is alright by you then take these points, but you just accepted a hell of a ceiling in a jump where you could get up to some pretty crazy shit otherwise. Sounds like that next drawback might be right up your alley.

Backup Mentality – 200CP

Scared of the spot light. Expectations better be set real low if its you stepping up to the plate. All of your abilities are reduced to a fraction of their usual and you experience severe anxiety any time you're asked to perform anything more intensive than your daily routine. Any other scenario, any time you're challenged? You're a shell of yourself.

A Beautiful Word, Just Rolls Off the Tongue – 200CP

You have syphilis. For the duration of the jump it cannot be cured or it's symptoms alleviated. You have fiat guarantee that it won't progress past a medium inconvenience for the duration of the jump. You can definitely still spread it though, so watch that.

It was on the front page of the paper – 200CP

Suddenly, that teflon status your reputation might have enjoyed has come to an end. Now, all of the things you do that would be considered bad press become bad press, literally and metaphorically. Every form of news correspondence on campus during this jump has coverage of your ill deeds. Word of mouth will spread these tidbits around campus of this bad news and knowing it's out there will always affect your mental well being. If you mind your p's and q's and keep your nose clean congratulations this is free points. But are you really going to live like a choir boy at BMS?

29 yards on 24 touches – 300CP

Maximum effort, minimum payoff. For the duration of the jump no matter how hard you work you will only see minimal return on your blood, sweat, and tears. Every endeavor, every project, football or otherwise, will wind up being an awful time sink and at best only wind up with mediocre results.

Erections Will Tear the Stitches – 300CP

For the duration of this jump any sexual arousal of any kind will cause you intense physical pain. Even if you wouldn't normally experience sexual arousal, or have genitals, any situations you find yourself in that could sexually excite the average college student is going to be excruciating. Probably a good time to remind you this is a raunchy comedy series.

I'm This Pretty Girl's Daddy – 300CP

Every person you pursue in this jump, romantically or sexually, will have unfortunate human baggage. Whether that be their actual father or an overbearing friend, there will always be a person that involves themselves in the relationship you're attempting to have. This will be awkward and uncomfortable, and ruin any chemistry you'd otherwise have. If you're very, very persistent you could probably make something work but it's going to be an awful time.

Changelog
