v1.0, 8 June 2021*

Greetings, interdimensional jumping guy! My name is John Notwoodman and I am here to welcome you to the SilvaGunner King For Another Day tournament! What is that, you say? Well, the King For Another Day tournament is a tournament where various people compete to be able to gain control of the SilvaGunner channel for a day!

+ 1000 Choice Points

Backgrounds

Age is irrelevant and can be changed for free if you want to, and you can change your gender for 50 CP. All backgrounds are considered a drop-in, giving you no new memories.

Contestant

Be one of the challengers competing for a chance to be the King for a Day!

Staff

Just like Monika or Mr. Bean, be a member of the King for A Day Enterprises's crew! Or maybe you want to be like me or Unregistered Hypercam 2 and host!

Bonus Character

Oh, you don't want to compete or have responsibilities? Some of our visitors and audience members like the Cool Meme Team and Niel Cicierega actually show up in our studio from time to time!

Perks

Now to get to the fun stuff. Some girl who is named "Jump-Chan" told me to give these to you, "in order to help you" or something.

As usual, perks from your background get a 50% discount, and you can have both 100 CP perks for free.

Contestant

Fundamental Ripping Techniques (100 CP)

To even have a shot at being the King for a Day, one needs to first learn how to rip high quality video game rips. With this, you learn how to make music, and insert your themes in it just like SilvaGunner.

Iconic Theme (100 CP)

If one doesn't have a theme of their own, how could the voters even know what they represent? You can choose or make one song or leitmotif of your choice, and it will be associated with you. Someone would listen to it, and know it's yours in an instant. This would also count as a soundtrack perk, so you can use this leitmotif or theme in anything that uses your soundtrack perks.

Funny Mixer (200 CP)

ahahahaHAHAHAHAHA! HE'S A MIXER! Ahem. Not only are your music memes, you are a meme yourself! Just hearing your name makes people who know of you laugh so loud. You're so funny that you're so memorable. Fortunately, this meme will all be in good fun, not something that will bring you down.

Vote Responsibly! (200 CP)

The audience's perception of you is pretty important in this tourney. And sure enough, you'll need to rack up as many votes as possible. If you convince people to vote for you, they will be more inclined to vote for you instead of your rival. You can influence people more easily, and they'll know that you're a better choice than your opponent, so technically they'd still be voting responsibly.

The Best of Your Kind (200 CP)

The ones fighting for the chance to be the King for A Day are the best of their kind. But what about you? What are you good at? If you buy this, you're going to get a lot better, among the best in this world! However, note that you can only purchase this once. You can only be good at one skill, period.

Graduate of the College of SLAM! (400 CP)

Music is not only your hobby, you have actually studied music theory and learned how to apply it into ripmaking. Choose a genre of music, you have mastered everything there is to know in that genre and know how to spice it up even more. Just don't get too confident, just because your opponents are just a DJ, a crab, Pitbull; just because they're not graduates doesn't mean they're inferior.

Algorithm of Life (600 CP)

The Algorithm smiles on you for eternity. Just like Mariya Takeuchi, you have the power to bend the Algorithm to your will. You will be more lucky and everything you do will be more recognized, but that is not the main perk. The Algorithm will let you rewind or slow time by up to an hour per day, making it possible for you to fix your mistakes or get a quick counterattack on your foe. If you could stretch this enough you may be able to reach the powers of Mariya Takeuchi, able to warp herself through time!

Missingno. (600 CP)

It seems like you've gotten some glitchy powers from Missingno. Everything you touch gets more corrupted, giving simple life to inanimate objects is a possibility and even warping the perception of others who perceive you, even in text. It is not as powerful as Missingno. itself, but it's still dangerous. This is a double edged sword, so use it carefully!

Staff

Charming Host (100 CP)

The one who hosts King For Another Day has to be handsome and charming - like me, John Notwoodman! You'll have a great voice and a handsome face, everything you need to be the host.

Cog in a Machine (100 CP)

The King For A Day Enterprises needs lots of workers to ensure that its operation is as high quality as possible. If you work hard, even just as a lowly servant in a large enterprise, you can rest assured that your work will pay off eventually and you'll reap lots of rewards.

BE THE KING (200 CP)

You have your own theme already, right? Now this theme would be your rallying cry. It will cheer all of your fans and get them ready for what you want, whether it be the start of your grand tournament or to charge in a war. You say you don't have one yet? Just make one! Alternatively, Or you could skip all that and go straight for that menacing aura! Being able to frighten your opponents in a fight by playing your own theme music would certainly weaken them!

gr8 inter view skill (200 CP)

You're gonna be so great at interviewing people that you'll be able to get people to spill details so easily. Sure, they'll still keep secrets they're too protective or embarrassed of, but with you they'll feel comfortable talking about anything else, anyone from the mute robot's friend to one of the mightiest people in the universe.

DUDE, WELCOME TO THE TEST POST. (400 CP)

Enjoy your stay, man. You have a knack for finding things that would ordinarily be out of your reach or that you're not supposed to be able to find due to a lack of credentials, the obscurity of the thing in question, or other reasons. Those inside it not paying too much attention will think you being there is normal until you give yourself too much attention. So you could infiltrate a secret hideout and if you're careful, make it out alive.

Jumper's MOJO!!! (400 CP)

Here at King For A Day Enterprises, we always keep an online transcript of each and every interview and event so everyone can see it. If you get this, you can make a transcript of any event you have experienced. Everyone who sees this will treat this as factual information, so yes, you can also use this as court evidence and not just to remind yourself of events. The MOJO!!! will also contain files for everyone you'd like to keep track of which will update every time you discover something about them.

Crowning Ceremony (600 CP)

Have you found someone as worthy as you? Let them be King for a Day! You can let someone borrow any or all of your powers and perks for a while. Doing so will let them use it for themselves! Similarly, you can let someone experience your rank or title for a day and nobody will care! (As long as nothing bad happens, of course) Actual crown optional, but it'd be stylish!

Bonus Character

Promoted from Beta Mix (100 CP)

Just because you started out as a bystander doesn't mean you'll stay that way. If you want to, you can get the perfect position for you in the plot, and you'll cross paths with the main characters a lot, and maybe you'll help them too. This can be toggled on and off, as maybe you just want to relax.

The Rest See The Better (100 CP)

Some scoundrels like Niel Cicierega insist on doing heroics even though they'll inevitably fail. You'll get his determination and strong resolve to get things you want to see done, and nothing will stop you... except you realizing it is a bad idea.

And Above Everything, Is This Lore?!?!?! (200 CP)

You have a knack of having really easy access to the lore of a given setting. Not only do you have the opportunity to easily learn whatever the history of wherever you end up in, you always find new information about what you really need just when you need it, often through rumors spreading to you or a YouTube video appearing at just the right time! Perhaps, even get leaks from future events to supply to the Leaky Diaper?

Lo-Fi 8-Bit High Quality Beats to Train and Relax To (200 CP)

Listening to music, whatever genre it is, even metal, will help you train and relax. And not only that, you'll be even better when you train with music than without music. Just ask that lo-fi girl who hangs around occasionally, she studies like 24/7!

BOP THE BAG (400 CP)

The Bag is a living training dummy just like the Sandbag of that one game called Smash Bros, and it can take hits easily, will not say anything, and can easily recover from bruises and damages. Like it, you can now take punches without suffering much or getting a pained expression, so you can keep fighting, and you can also recover from minor bruises easily within hours instead of days.

Time to Finish the Fight! (400 CP)

Are you an interdimensional traveller who checks on and visits another universe to take a break from the chaos in another? Wait, you are! Then this is perfect for you: it allows you to take a momentary break from everything, maybe you just want to have a momentary relaxing beach trip without being interrupted, or just want to check on how a friend is doing for a while. The plot will resume after that break, and that's when you'll be able to finish the fight!

Calming The Storm (600 CP)

You probably have already encountered lots of world threats and apocalypses during your time as a jumper, right? Fighting them is not the only way you can defeat them. If you cheer or support the heroes who fight against the threat, you will give them a big boost of energy and power that they can use to defeat them. Not only that, but if more people help you, the more the heroes are helped.

Source List (0 CP)

Every character has to have a list of source music to base their rips from! Select a condition. You get up to five thousand random music tracks from that condition, which you can play whenever you like. The bigger the condition, the less music there will be for you to pick from and the more random the music selection is. So yes, “all music” is valid, but you’ll have a hard time sorting through it and you may end up not having anything good to use. Also, you may only get this once, so pick wisely!

There Will Be A Touhou Album (100 CP)

Some fans believed there will never be a Touhou album. Those fans were proven wrong! Anyway, this, as I’ve heard, makes the impossible possible. Not the “pigs flying” impossible, but ones that can theoretically happen but are so unlikely it’s impossible, it can happen with your intervention. Now this only affects you and what you do, you cannot affect other people with this.

Stage Select - Mega Man 3 (200 CP)

You have so many songs now, what if we MIX them all together and create a masterpiece? This perk is perfect for that! You’ll be able to mix and match songs and leitmotifs together to form one coherent song with the same beat. But I heard, the true power of this comes from if you have many song-based powers. Apparently, you’ll be able to use the power of all of them at the same time just by using this, and even better is that you can control each of these powers separately!

DUEL ZONE (200 CP)

If you fight someone, you may choose to get a perfectly fair battlefield. Your powers will be made as powerful as theirs, and skill and knowledge will be valued higher than sheer power alone. If you are stronger than them however, your powers will be weakened to allow them to take you on fairly, and vice versa. This perk can be toggled on and off if you wish.

Jumper's All-Star Summer Festival (300 CP)

You want to bring the grand fun from this world wherever you go? Great! This perk is perfect for you then! It allows you to create spontaneous daily events every once in a while, about one per month or so. And once a year, you can create up to three months of constant events! And what's better is that you can even turn, say, a boring beach trip, into a really fun and unique experience for everyone!

Items

Jump-chan also told me to give these to you. They look cool, I wish I could have all of them.

Contestant

Personal HOBaRT (100 CP)

HOBaRT, our chef, is a pretty great cook and could cook just about anything we ask for. I'll give you one of your own if you get this, and it'll mix your food up! Just throw some ingredients in his bowl and it'll make your food after a while! By the way, this HOBaRT isn't sentient unlike ours, and won't talk even if you made a living glitch interact with it.

Pirate Radio Station (200 CP)

DJPK has this cool radio station in Tokyo-to which he uses. And for a possible king, he came prepared! And you'll have one too, allowing you to have a radio station playing your favorite beats and high quality rips all the time, including bumpers and (only the best) advertisements!

Metal Jumper (400 CP)

Ajit Pai has this huge mech that he used ever since he was snapped by Thanos during King For A Day. It has some cool features, like having a fidget spinner and stuff. And you? You can have a mech too, you don't need to die to get one. But if you ever find yourself turned into ashes, you can always return to life with this mech.

Gaylord Hotel (600 CP)

This is the same hotel we rented during the tournament proper. Every year some big music event happens here and some of the expert rippers actually went here to join and talk about making high quality rips... anyway, this giant hotel is enough to fit everyone competing in the contest and all of their friends, as well as the usual visitors who are here not for the contest. It has a room for events and stuff, and a cool rooftop with a party already set up there!

Staff

Nerf This! (100 CP)

Look, let's go through this quickly. This is just a video that I use to get rid of people or force them to talk when I need them to. I dislike it, but it's a really useful tool nonetheless, so I can't just not have it.

SLAP THE NUTS (200 CP)

Finding yourself in need of some training? How about you slap some nuts? This door in your Warehouse will lead you to a cybernetically generated training room, where you need to use your agility, intelligence, and power to SLAP THE NUTS! Slap all of them, and you're sent back out feeling very trained. It will change itself to give you the most optimal training it can give you, and you can even edit the rooms to help you finetune your training!

Haunted Mansion (400 CP)

Haha! Now this is a mansion! If only this was mine... Anyway! You have a haunted mansion now, with lots of rooms for all the guests you want to invite. Maybe you want to set up a murder mystery? A fine idea! It can be placed anywhere in the world once you leave this, or just have it in your warehouse.

The Crown (600 CP)

Yes, a replica of the crown I have and will give to the King for A Day. This crown is brilliant, and makes people look at you and go "Woah, that guy's the champion!" In addition, wearing this crown gives you a day of legitimate control in just about anything, so you can take over the SilvaGunner channel to post your own high quality rips, or do something else. Also, Jump-chan says that overuse of the crown's power will corrupt and kill you and that using it only once a year is safe, but I don't really believe that.

Bonus Character

mashup cave (100 CP)

Oh, this? It's just a little home for you to settle in this world. Not really the most glamorous mansion, but it does its job well and is kinda comfortable? Ask VvvvvvaVvvvvv, he had a really grand mashup cave to upload all of his low-quality rips.

Spare KFAD Invite (200 CP)

Who left this invite lying out in the open? So, Jump-chan says that this invite is for you to sneak into King for Another Day, and then it will transform itself into an invite into whatever prestigious event or tournament is taking place every few months or so? That's an interesting item, would be great for me!

UNO™ Reverse Card (400 CP)

I don't know how the Cool Meme Team got hold of this, this is a pretty rare artifact, but they have it. So anyway, you can use this card to hurt others if they hurt you. So say, if someone runs you over with a car, the reverse card will make them feel like they have been run over instead, and you'll be safe! When you use it, you'll be given another UNO™ reverse card the next year.

The MF Like Button (600 CP)

A real artifact, the MF Like Button is a symbol of love. If you use it well, you can channel the people's love of something into a power that can do anything! If you are ever faced by an ominous figure who threatens to purge all anime, you can use the MF Like Button and channel the anime fans' love to seal him away! Warning, however. I heard the guy who did just that had to die - and so will anyone who uses this without lots of stamina.

Undiscounted

Rip Laptop (0 CP)

A laptop to rip all the high quality rips you would want to make. Comes with music software, all of the music perks you have including the ones below if you bought them, and infinite battery! Doesn't come with experience, however.

Arrangement Collection (0 CP)

This collection has every single arrangement from both King For A Day tournaments! This even includes one you make! Also, it doesn't just have these, you'll also be able to get all of the rips the winner makes in their takeover! And all these for free! What a deal!

Rip Collection (100 CP)

And you're still not satisfied with that? How about this: every single SiIvaGunner rip that has ever been made, and how about we sweeten the deal even more? I heard those peeps named TimmyTurnersGrandDad and VvvvvaVvvvvvr have been making lots of rips too, how about we add their rips here too? And all these for just a hundred points! Another sweet deal!

LOADING MAXIMUM QUALITY (100 CP)

Still not satisfied?! Here's another deal: this is a huge mix of songs all from the highest quality SiIvaGunner rip: the MAGFest Rave Mix. But this isn't just an ordinary album. When you leave this place, you find that the album now is filled with a lot of songs from the jumps you previously visited as well as jumps that you visit in the future. A mix of up to 5 minutes each of the highest possible quality rips of the places you go.

Companions

Supporters (0 CP)

How many companions do you have again..? A lot? Then perfect, let them come into the studio! Wait, what do you mean, “which 8 will I pick to join me”? Of course you can bring everyone in, doesn’t matter how many you bring! Although, side effect: they’re not going to get any bonuses from this. You just get to bring them in.

Promoted Fan (100+ CP)

And you want more? Here’s more. For every 50 CP you spend here, all of your companions get 100 CP to spend on themselves, starting with 100 CP for 200 CP for your companions. Sadly, no discounts, they said. And- wait, why is Jump-chan calling me? You can only have 8 companions get this bonus? What?!

Join the Team (100+ CP)

Alright. You may want someone here. Whoever it is, you may take them with you for the ride for just 100 CP each!

Fumo (50 CP)

Alternatively, you can get a fumo of someone for cheaper than that! They’re alive, yes, and not only are they small and plushy, they’re also cute! Sadly, they only count as followers.

Drawbacks

Still, a thousand points aren’t enough? Why not inflict some damage onto your chances of winning by taking some drawbacks? Not too much though, the note here reads “600 CP”.

King for A Day (0 CP)

Normally, Jump-chan only has you booked for a stay of one and a half years, from early 2019 to the end of summer 2020, from the time we send out invitations until the conclusion of the Summer Festival, where the King’s day will take place. However, they are willing to extend this: from 2018 until the end of 2021. Catch the original King for a Day live, or maybe participate in it as well!

Ten Years of Ripping (0 CP)

You wanna go even further? Okay! You can also stay here for an entire ten years instead, from the events of 2018, King for a Day and another Day, the Summer and Winter Festivals, all the way to 2027 which... I don't know what'll actually happen that year, I don't have future vision unlike your benefactor.

:12_Snake: :right_facing_fist: :26_DonChan: (100 CP)

Cannot be taken if you are not competing. You're now infamous within the contest's fanbase and may be unlikely to win, and not for your rip's quality (or lack thereof). No, they hate you because you've done something that may be caused by your instincts or reflexes, and is not something that you would normally do, like punching someone so innocent like Don-Chan.

Jumper Has Ligma (100 CP)

The infamous disease that has infected many, including Ninja Fortnite, Goku, and many more. And now, you have it too. I think. Basically, you'll feel sick a lot of times even though nobody can detect anything, and I mean nobody, including our resident Dr. Piccolo. I swear, if you take this just to build up for a joke...

Mute (100 CP)

Simple perk. Like Quote, you can't speak. This description is long, but does it really need to be?

Grudge of the Titan (200 CP)

What have you done? You have angered Thanos himself! Well fortunately, he has signed a contract with Disney to not snap you to dust and ashes so things can be worse, but as one of the most powerful contestants, having Thanos in the list of people who hate you is not what you would want.

Bring in the Despair! (200 CP)

Neither would you want Monokuma to hate you. He looks like a cute teddy bear but he might as well be the embodiment of despair, due to all the pain and suffering he dishes out. Unlike Thanos, you won't be in for much of a beating, however you'll face a lot of mental torture, enough to make you snap and cause you your own set of problems.

I've come to make an announcement (200 CP)

Instead of being on the receiving end of a grudge yet again, you're on the giving end. This time, you get angry very easily, and tend to be rather disproportionate with those, to the point that you'll make a three minute long bizarre announcement to urinate on the moon (or winner's bracket, or whatever) just to get your revenge. Funny, yes, but it gets you nowhere.

Mario (600 CP)

Who is Mario? I too don't know, but it says here that he's... "a hero-plumber whose brother is Luigi"? But Luigi has no brothers! Anyway, it says that you're "gonna suffer the same fate as him sooner or later", I don't know what that means but okay. But it's gotta be serious, says here "You have to get out of this predicament or your chain will end here."

End

So, it's been a long time, Jumper. Glad to get to know you well during the short time we've been together. Anyway, your benefactor says you have the usual three choices here: return, stay, or continue. But then again, that's not even a question, right Jumper? You know what you're going to pick.

Notes

- While this Jump takes place during King For Another Day, it also takes inspiration from various other parts of SilvaGunner, like the Summer Festival. Most perks based on them are undiscounted or in the Bonus Characters' perk tree. And then there's a couple (DUDE, WELCOME TO THE TEST POST and Snake punching Don-Chan) that, while they are from KFAD, primarily reference something from the SilvaGunner fan Discord.
- You can have all of your companions in the KFAD jump, however only up to 8 can gain their own CP using Promoted Fan.
- You cannot use Missingno. to give life to basic objects, only stuff that look like living things (living dolls are possible) and things with enough personality (which means you cannot use it to give life to Personal HOBaRT)
- Yes, your benefactor is telling the truth. Using The Crown's power more than once a year will cause you to be corrupted by the crown's power, basically turning you into a vessel for it. Yes, the Crown is sentient. This would happen to Unregistered HyperCam 2 later during King For Another Day.
- Time to Finish the Fight! has a limit of a two weeks break.
- Gaylord Hotel will give you the KFAD incarnation of it, instead of the one in real life. That doesn't really change much though.
- If you watch SilvaGunner, you know the video the perk Nerf This is referring to. If you don't, you shouldn't.
- SilvaGunner alone has 14,000+ uploads, so you cannot use Source List to get all Silva rips. If you really want rips, just get Rip Collection, it's cheap and also gives you TTGD and VvvvvvaVvvvvvvr rips.

- The Uno™ Reverse Card only works when you are holding it, like how you use a Minecraft Totem of Undying, for example.
- You can get the SiIvaGunner MAGFest Rave mix and all tracks in it from both Rip Collection and LOADING MAXIMUM QUALITY, however a copy of it obtained through Rip Collection will not update per jump, unlike the one from LOADING MAXIMUM QUALITY.
- Taking the drawback Mario will cause you to disappear from the whole SiIvaGunner timeline sometime after KFAD2 and cause a chain end if you do not manage to escape from limbo by the end of the jump, which is possible by the way. Missingno's powers can't help you in this limbo.
- You may take any character that has appeared in SiIvaGunner lore or any character who is heavily related to an existing SiIvaGunner meme (for example, taking the Among Us Impostor is possible due to Among Us being a frequent meme in SiIvaGunner, or Freddy Fazbear due to the recurring rips of Circus - Five Nights at Freddy's)
- Yes, all descriptions are written in John Notwoodman's point of view.
- wood man and John Notwoodman are different. It may seem obvious from the names, but many people thought they were one and the same due to the latter's name. Yes, both look similar, the only difference is that John has a green mustache and a top hat.
- If you have any local multiverse dimension-hopping powers, you can hop to Grandiose City from the KFAD studio. Both are in the same multiverse, both are part of SiIvaGunner lore, and wood man actually travelled between KFAD and Grandiose City.
- Uh-oh, you just got beaned! Tag your friends to totally BEAN them!
