

Out of Context: Majin Buu Supplement

V1 By DeverosSphere with grammatical assistance from u/GenericDPS

This document can be used as a supplement in any Jump that would not otherwise have the Buu subspecies of Majin within its continuity.

By taking this Supplement, you have chosen to be a member of the Majin Buu subspecies and you will enter into that continuity as a Drop-In, awakening as steam escaping a Sealed Ball.

+1000 CP

If this Supplement is instead taken as an Isolated Jump, you may select a setting of your choice, even if it doesn't have a Jump Document, and use this document as a ten year long Jump.

Origin:

Though Majin Buu was known as a cheerful and childish being, that was only 1 of the 3 states of Majin Buu.

Innocent Majin

You are a large, pure-hearted Majin, possibly due to an accident from absorbing something you shouldn't have absorbed.

Chaotic Majin

You are raw unbridled chaos, a childish manifestation of destruction and madness, a representation of the wild storm of nature.

Corrupted Majin

You are putrid corruption, a festering wound, an embodiment of evil taking on an emaciated form deprived of the good within others.

Perks:

Note:

To get a Booster: Perk you will need to purchase the complimentary Perks as an example:

Almost Unique -??? CP

Something Rare Booster: Something Unique

In order to get the Perk Something Unique, you need to take both the Almost Unique Perk that it follows and the Something Rare Perk that is commented before the boosted Perk.

General Perks:

Gummy Guy - Free (Cannot be taken with “Uub Nijam”)

You gain a Majin Buu subspecies Alt-Form where your body is made from an amorphous, shape-changing, gum-like material that takes on a humanoid form with various skin tones and an antenna on your head. You may choose the colour of the materials you are made from, including Majin Buu Pink and Majin Titima Blue.

Unnecessary Hunger - Free

You no longer need to eat food, drink liquids or breathe in order to survive, but you greatly enjoy consuming tasty treats, mainly candy, cookies, ice cream, and pudding. Due to their amorphous bodies, Majin can eat large amounts of food without any discomfort and can not die from age.

Magic - Free

You are inherently magical and possess the passive potential to use any form of magic. Some forms of magic have a cost for using them, such as them taking something from you in exchange such as joy or a memory instead when you cast magic at most you will feel as though you have done physical exercise with most spells being as taxing as gentle walking but more extreme high end magic feeling as though you had run a marathon. You are able to instinctively use your magic and can aid its growth through repeated use but without training and education you may find yourself limited to basic tricks.

Ki Control - Free

You possess an odd ki signature that makes it hard for others to tell how strong you are. You are able to manipulate ki naturally, allowing you to fly and fire ki blasts as an instinctive action.

Unsealed Origin - Free (Cannot be taken with “Uub Nijam”)

This is an Out of Context Origin Perk. At the start of a Jump, you can use this Narrative Perk to set your entry into the setting as if you were sealed within an object such as a lamp or object of interest.

Dynamic Entry - Free (Requires 3 “Out of Context Origin Perks” from other Supplements)

Using this Narrative Perk, you can dynamically craft your method of entry into a Jump as a Drop-In.

Self-Assembly -100 CP

With this, you gain an extra Majin Buu subspecies Alt-Form similar in appearance to Super Buu. Your body is able to easily reattach any separated body parts back onto your body without discomfort or pain simply by touching them. If your arm were severed, you would be able to pull it back to yourself by force. It would then return to its proper place like a jigsaw puzzle, allowing you to reassemble your body from scattered pieces.

Gummy Guy Booster: Recreation

You are now able to reabsorb and reassemble any separated body parts through physical contact with the detached pieces. Should any pieces be missing or destroyed, they will regrow over the course of a few hours. This allows you to perfectly regrow from every particle of your body so that even if only a fragment of your material remains, you will be able to eventually fully regrow. However, doing so is tiring and painful.

Mini-Me -200 CP

You are now able to separate your body into multiple smaller copies of yourself. Each copy will contain an equal portion of your mass (e.g. splitting into three would result in each copy containing one-third of your total mass), all of whom are proportionally as large as the others. Should any of the copies be destroyed, their memories and experiences will be shared with the others and any lost mass will regrow over time. If you wish, each copy can recombine into the original, gaining the combined knowledge and experience the copies earned.

Recreation Booster: Smart Part-Of-Me

You have conscious awareness and control over your entire body, even the parts that have been separated from you. This means that the whole of your body has a sort of intelligence of its own that acts as an extension of yourself, all of which you will continue to have a mental connection with regardless of distance. None of these minds will distinguish themselves from you, instead acting more like a form of multitasking. For all practical purposes, this means that if your arm exploded and was scattered around an area, you would be able to see through and move each piece as if it was still attached to your body.

Majin See, Majin Doo -400 CP

So long as it is possible for you to learn how to use a technique or ability, you will be able to learn them simply by seeing others use them. However, your capability to use the copied technique or ability may be rudimentary, resulting in it being a weaker version of the technique or ability without practice or repeated viewings.

Smart Part-Of-Me Booster: Mimic You

You can now instantly mimic any physical aspect of others on sight, such as changing your appearance to add features you wouldn't normally have like wings or a tail. You can also save the appearance of others as you have seen them, utilising their features in order to create a custom body for yourself that you can switch to instantly. You can also choose to have separate parts of you to regrow into full-sized bodies and have them take on an appearance of your choice.

Absorption -600 CP

You're able to use magic to engulf someone by using any part of your body to shrink and absorb them into yourself, gaining their knowledge, powers and abilities. The body part that absorbs them does not need to be attached to you, but you won't gain your target's abilities until you reattach it. When absorbing someone, you take on the physical and/or mental traits of the person you have absorbed.

Mimic You Booster: Instant Replica

You are now able to regrow any and all lost material almost instantly. This acts as a form of pseudo-immortality; even if your body is completely destroyed, you will shortly reappear fully formed. This also acts to protect any powers or abilities you possess. If they are lost or damaged, you will be able to regrow a distinct replica of how that power previously functioned.

Majin See, Majin Doo Booster: Lord Of Order

You have tapped into a true state of order, allowing you to both understand the order and structure of anything you perceive as well as reinforce it. You can tell when events have been planned out or were happenstance, as well as discern the chain of events required for the event to take place. You can also reinforce order, stabilizing any kind of reaction you target including chemical, magical and dimensional. This can range from single molecules to cosmic scales so that no unexpected factor alters results. Additionally, when absorbing others you can toggle what physical and/or mental traits you take from the person you have absorbed.

Lord Of Order Booster: Lord Of Absorption (Requires "Lord Of Purity", "Lord Of Chaos" and "Lord Of Corruption")

You are no longer required to absorb a whole person to gain their power, strength and ability, you can instead absorb something as small as a hair, nail or even blood. Additionally, whenever you absorb part of someone who has a special ability relating to foreign power sets - including but not limited to digital manifestation, mutant powers, soul expressions or spirit energy - you gain a perfect copy of that power specifically and can mimic the capabilities of others with that powerset. So long as you have absorbed part of someone with at least basic access to that system of power, this allows you to copy a wide variety of otherwise unique power sets such as Digimon Attacks, Cursed Techniques, Intrinsic Magic, Personas, Quirks, Semblances and Stands.

Innocent Majin Perk Tree:

Bigger Belly On The Inside -100 CP (Free for Innocent Majin)

Your internal structure is a thousand times larger than your external appearance would suggest, allowing you to store anything you can insert into your body and remove it later without harming either in any way. You also gain an extra Majin Buu subspecies Alt-Form, similar in appearance to Fat Buu.

Healing Light -200 CP (Discounted for Innocent Majin)

You can instinctively wield your magical nature in order to perform healing techniques that can close wounds, heal damage, and restore someone's physical condition, stamina and ki to rejuvenate them to full strength.

Sealed Tight -400 CP (Discounted for Innocent Majin)

You are now able to use any energy you possess - including mana, stamina or ki - to perform a power sealing technique, blocking any type of power your target possesses. You can select one or more types of power they possess including magic, physical augmentations and some natural abilities, blocking the target's access to that resource until you release the seal. You can also completely block the target's access to esoteric abilities altogether, but can not restrict their abilities below the level they need in order to survive. The more powerful the target is and the more types of power you wish to block, the more energy you will need to expend to block it. This will not prevent the target from growing in strength should they try to gain power again, but unless they can break the seal, they will be unable to access their lost power.

Majin See, Majin Doo Booster: Pocket Monster

You are now able to use your energy to seal a target into an object, putting them into a dreamless sleep. The more powerful the target is, the more energy you will need to use in order to seal them. While they are sealed, they will not need food, drink or air, but they will continue to age. Any object an entity is sealed within can be used as enchanted equipment, allowing those who wield them to draw out their power and wield it for themselves. Should the object be destroyed, the target will be released from their seal.

Master Of Change -600 CP (Discounted for Innocent Majin)

You are now able to produce a beam that will change the material of anything you hit with it. You could change any object or person into any other type of object - such as chocolate or explosive materials - with them optionally retaining the same general shape and size. This will affect anyone struck by the beam regardless of their strength, but they will retain their abilities and consciousness while transformed, potentially allowing them to attack. The user usually announces what the attack will turn the victim into before using it.

Absorption Booster: Divine Creation

You have tapped into true creation, allowing you to use the divine power of the Kaiōshin and perform true creation. You can manifest various forms of matter and energy from nothingness, but you will need to plan your creations' consistency, or the materials might be unstable and fall apart with potentially disastrous results. You will be able to create simple objects such as basic solid poles or cubes without thought, but with time and practice you would be able to create an exact replica of the universe, including people and objects with ease. The materials and objects you create are not restricted by what already exists within the universe and, so long as it is stable, you could create new resources that cannot naturally exist.

Healing Light Booster: Lord Of Purity

You have tapped into a state of purity, allowing you to sense the quality and impurities of anything you perceive. You can then strip out any impurities within anything you target, such as removing curses from an object, exercising demonic possession or breaking mind control. Not all purity is good; you can separate things into their pure state, allowing you to divide the aspects of your target - including personalities, powers, consciousness - as separate copies of the target. This can be done as a temporary change that leaves a connection between the sections or as a permanent action with the separated components unaffected by one another.

Chaotic Majin Perk Tree:

Short Destruction -100 CP (Free for Chaotic Majin)

You can choose to compress your form, becoming smaller while also compacting the power within your body. Even if you shrink down to 1 cm, you would still possess your full strength and durability. You also gain an extra Majin Buu subspecies Alt-Form, similar in appearance to Kid Buu.

Shifting Concept -200 CP (Discounted for Chaotic Majin)

Through your magical nature, you can change your physical form by instinctively reshaping your features, growing additional limbs and changing your body proportions as you see fit. Though these alterations can change your physical form, they won't have much of an effect on your capabilities. Making yourself more muscular or looking like you made from a durable material will not affect your physical capabilities. Growing or shrinking your physical size, however, will affect your weight and how much of your strength you can utilize.

Eldridge Anatomy -400 CP (Discounted for Chaotic Majin)

You are able to alter your body's gum-like material into different states of matter, shifting any part of yourself into a solid, liquid, gas, or plasma state, all while still retaining relative connections and maintaining your identity. You could turn your arm into a liquid and it mix into a river, moving it through to the other side before reforming it as a solid, or you could turn your whole body into a mist to fly into the sky, merge with a cloud and rain wherever you wish, all without any discomfort or pain.

Majin See, Majin Doo Booster: Altered Matter

Rather than just taking on different states of matter, you can now transform into whatever material you have previously touched. You could change any part of your body into a combination of diamonds, coal, vibranium, wood and skin without losing any functionality. You can also permanently detach some of your transformed matter, effectively destroying that part of your body so that it remains that material indefinitely.

Targeted Power -600 CP (Discounted for Chaotic Majin)

You have almost impossible aim; you always hit what you're aiming for, even if you don't know where they are. When you designate a target and fire a projectile, it will always hit the mark regardless of where that target is, all while taking the path of least resistance. If you target multiple things with a single shot, such as every human being on Earth, your projectile will split apart before raining down and hitting every single one of them.

Absorption Booster: Unleashed Destruction

Before creation comes destruction. Your power is no longer that of a mortal, but of true destruction. Yours is the power of the Hakaishin. You can now produce energy that is not only capable of destroying objects and worlds, but also concepts and ideas. When used to destroy something, this energy completely erases it from all timelines and dimensions unless the target has some form of protection, such as immortality or a time ring. This erases bodies, souls and even non-corporeal beings such as ghosts. Given time and a greater understanding of this power, you could both bypass any protection and learn to wield it in such a way that simply intending something's destruction will destroy it. Eventually, you could even apply this retroactively, completely preventing the target from ever existing to begin with.

Shifting Concept Booster: Lord Of Chaos

You are no longer limited by the physics of whatever reality you find yourself in. You cannot be broken either by the fundamental rules of a universe or when those rules are discarded. Existing outside of the limiting dimensions of mortal beings, you can travel in directions that most can't even see. All of your perks, powers and abilities will expand to account for this extra-dimensional space. You will adapt to perceive and process things outside of normal dimensional spaces without harm, even if these sights would normally cripple mortal minds. Finally, you can control how much your presence disrupts the natural balance of things and if your true visage warps the minds of others with a sliding toggle.

Corrupted Majin Perk Tree:

Flat Chance -100 CP (Free for Corrupted Majin)

You can manipulate your physical depth, allowing you to flatten your body. While parts of your body are flat, you can become sharper without losing any durability, allowing you to slide through cracks, avoid strikes as though you were dodging them or use any of your limbs like blades. You also gain an extra Majin Buu subspecies Alt-Form, similar in appearance to Evil Buu.

Darkest Minds -200 CP (Discounted for Corrupted Majin)

Through your magical nature, you can naturally tap into the darker aspects in the minds of others. You can release and manipulate any malevolent aspects within them, forcing them into submission by dominating the malevolent desires in their heart, using it like a carrot on a stick.

Broken Body -400 CP (Discounted for Corrupted Majin)

Whenever you look at something, you instinctively see what parts of it are vital for it to function. This allows you to see the easiest way to cripple, disable or destroy any target. You also understand how to emulate any special weaknesses the target has, enabling you to emit sounds which cause the target severe pain, project a power-disabling radiation or take on properties to prevent their abilities from working on you, such as turning into yellow wood.

Majin See, Majin Doo Booster: Impersonation Of Power

When looking at something, you are able to tell what makes it strong, whether it is a magic weapon, a transformation or even the ability to absorb sunlight in a specific way. You are able to mimic this power, creating your own version of the ability. You could make a Buu Blade equivalent of Excalibur from ki, your own Super Majin Form using fake Majin-S-Cells or even create an artificial Stand using a combination of ki and magic. Though this impersonation of power will not be the same, it will mimic the same processes which may result in the strengths and weaknesses occasionally overlapping, but not always.

Spreader Of Night -600 CP (Discounted for Corrupted Majin)

You have gained an innate connection with darkness, allowing you to see in shadows as if they were a gentle, glowing light. However, you are not just at home within the darkness; you can feed on light in order for darkness to grow. When opening your mouth, you can choose to suck in any form of light, draining its reserves while bolstering your own. When used on an enemy with light-based abilities, they are drained of their light energy and aura, resulting in their energy reserves weakening unless they stop producing light. When used on a natural source of light, such as the sun, the area would continue to slowly dim as you draw in more light, potentially to the point of pure darkness. If you consume more energy than your body can contain, it will cause you to swell up and release it all in one explosion, destroying the surrounding area and scattering parts of your body.

Absorption Booster: Devouring Demon

There is a light within all things, and now you can devour it. You can manipulate and gather all forms of energy from anything, including plants, animals, objects, people, the atmosphere and even the world itself, consuming it to strengthen yourself. You can select a specific target, steadily draining their energy without them even being aware. With this parasitised energy, you can awaken the power to make yourself more than merely a Majin, becoming a Dark Demon God. Your features will grow more demonic as you gain additional markings, as well as a demonic tool formed from your essence, such as a staff, a hammer, or a sword with a crystal orb. The form your demonic tool takes will be unique to yourself. This demonic ability can undergo further transformations, increasing your power as you gather more energy.

Darkest Minds Booster: Lord Of Corruption

You are able to passively see the malevolence and corruption within all things, allowing you to not only draw out the energy of this corruption but also warp it to suit your intentions. You can either corporealize this corruption in order to draw it out and manifest it as a monstrous creature or, if your target has enough corruption within themselves, change them directly. Regardless of which you choose, the resulting creature's appearance will match the corruption it was born from and it will be yours to command.

Items:

Any lost or stolen items will return to you after a week in the same condition as when you last had it.

Baggy Trousers - Free

You gain a set of Majin Clothing consisting of baggy white pants, a black belt with the Majin symbol, black arm coverings and black boots, optionally you may also choose for your Majin Clothing to include a Bandeau, a Cape or a Waistcoat. All your Majin Clothing will share the same benefits your body gains from your perks, powers or items, as though they were a part of your own flesh and may change depending on who you absorb.

Sealed Ball - Free

This Sealed Ball, a big, brown cocoon with vein-like bulges on it, can comfortably contain anything within it. When something is sealed within it, it is kept in a state of unconscious stasis until enough energy is injected into it, at which point it will split in half, shooting smoke out.

Drawbacks:

Uub Nijam +300 CP

You will need to work with Jump-chan to determine how this meshes with your current setting. Additionally, you will not be able to acquire the Items listed in this document.

Clone Problems +300 CP

While you would normally be the only member of the Majin race within the Jump, it seems that a number of the clones Android 21 created have joined you. Aside from their darker colour, these Kid Buu clones look identical to the original. Unless they are attacked or come across another Majin, they will simply roam without becoming hostile.

Something You Absorbed +300 CP

- Evil Buu is an emaciated grey Buu who seeks to consume you. Evil Buu has access to all of the Free General Perks, as well as all of the Corrupted Majin Perks.
