

Generic Houtengeki Jump

It's a place forged by the will of Houtengeki. You know what that means? WAIFUS.

location

Fantasy World

Some fantasy world with waifus, really just go get what you came for.

Origins

Drop-in – free

It's just you.

Local

You were born here, in a wonderfully generic fantasy land filled with stacked waifus. What a time to be alive.

Age 1d8 + 10 or 50cp to choose anything within the human lifespan.

Gender

You may become female for free or become male for 50cp.

Perks

There are no discounts, only waifus.

Houtengeki Style – free

A toggle that makes the world as if illustrated by Houtengeki, women are all beautiful and a lot more stacked and men are... actually where ARE the men?

The Basics – 100

THE BASICS. Basic martial and survival training so you don't die a week into the quest for waifus.

Stacked – 100

Like a brick house in the middle of Canada. You might be a mountain of muscle, soft and curvy, have fluffy jackal ears on the top of your head or even dirty elf ears. Any aesthetic chosen will somehow manage to look good.

Head Pat Fiend – 200

A waifu without head pats is a sad one, you are really good at giving head pats and physically 'handling' waifus in general.

Sultan Jumper – 400

Brass Balls and steel swords make a kingdom, also charisma but the brass balls help. You've got the chops to do as jumper does to go forth and conquer, for wealth, glory, and power. Outfight, outwit, and outdo them, for waifus.

Waifupocalypse – 600

A dangerous forbidden power has fallen into your hands, waifu creation, as the terrible god Houtengeki you can create waifus from things, whether it be a rock or angry goddess all shall bend to your overwhelming might. Created waifus can be taken as followers on your chain for no cost.

Items

Outfits – 100

A surprisingly bottomless amount of outfits for waifus.

Fancy Rugs – 100

Valuable rugs from the middle east or some other desert. They aren't magical but damn if they aren't comfy.

Precious Materials – 200

It's a pile of jewels, gold, and other valuable materials.

Magical Shit – 200

A sword, staff, boomerang? That seems the sort of thing they might have here. Anyway its not jumping right if you don't have a magical stick to shake at people.

Waifu Palace – 400

An opulent palace fit for a king, sultan, or really important person. More than enough space to house any waifus you might have.

Companions

Import – free

Import a companion as a waifu for free. They gain the benefits of Houtengeki Style, the Basics, and Stacked.

Local – 50

for 50cp you can grab any local and take them on a chain with you.

Drawbacks

Big Tiddys + 100

Everyone here has the same bodytype, there is no variation but stacked waifus.

IT'S A TARP + 100

Waifus? No that's too good for jumper, you get traps instead.

Cardboard + 200

Any waifus from here will have a shallow personality, little better then talking to a dog.

ALL BY MYSEEEELF + 400

Any companions you have can no longer be imported and you are stranded here by yourself without anything from other jumps.
