

psych

Show by USA Network, Jump by Aehriman

*I know, you know, that I'm not telling the truth.
I know, you know, they just don't have any proof.
Embrace the deception, learn how to bend
Your worst inhibitions tend to psych you out in the end.*

Shawn Spencer, part-time anything, full-time man-baby was trained to be hyper-observant from a young age by his detective father, Henry. Shawn's own rebellious years and difficult relationship with his father precluded his joining the force... until he got stuck in an interrogation room after calling in a tip and pretended to have a psychic vision. Now, he works as a 'psychic detective' along with his lifelong and much abused friend Gus.

Have 1,000 con points (cp) to survive the mean streets.

Locations

Santa Clara, California, the day Shawn gets brought into custody.

Age, Sex, Etc.

Pick whatever you like as far as age and sex, ethnicity. etc.

Perks

These cost 100 points unless otherwise stated. You get 4 Tokens which can be redeemed to get anything you want here for free, though things costing more than 100 cp will take two tokens to purchase.

Police Academy (free) You have graduated from the police academy with distinction and have all learned all the skills expected of a rookie cop. If you were not already, you are physically capable of meeting all the qualifications.

Nerves of Steel (free) When all is chaos and screaming and shooting, you never lose your cool. You don't freeze or hesitate, you don't react impulsively, you decide and act.

Bad Vibes: You have a peerless instinct for when things are about to go wrong. Might give you time to get out, or at least pick a better place to stand when the shooting starts.

Bullshit Detector: You can tell when someone is lying to your face. What you do about it, that's up to you.

Civilian Career: Choose an ordinary job, like cooking or carpentry or something. You get 10 years of experience with that career and updating credentials that'll allow you to practice it elsewhere in the future.

Crowd Control: You can't reason with a mob. Except for you, you can shake people out of the groupthink and get them to consider what they're actually doing, to feel guilt. That's a rare gift.

Defensive Driving: You learned how to drive extremely well. Any vehicle you get behind the wheel of seems half again faster and more resilient. You have an exceptional mental map for roadways and quickly learn the best shortcuts.

Encyclopedia Brown: You have a perfect memory. Every face, every fact, every figure you encounter, you can recognize and remember exactly how and where you encountered it. You can also read a whole page in little more than a glance.

First Responder: You may not be an EMT, but you aren't far behind, having trained in emergency and trauma medicine, you know how to set a bone, stop bleeding, and can keep people alive until the handoff to the professionals.

Internal Affairs: You have a nose for rooting out corruption within the force. You can spot a dirty cop with ease and know who you absolutely cannot trust.

Interrogator: You know how to question a suspect, how to keep to a theme and make yourself utterly terrifying, how to spot a lie and entice the truth.

Marksman: You are one of the best sharpshooters to ever wear a uniform. Even firing from the hip you're more accurate than most of the SWAT guys taking a few seconds to line up the target just right.

Provocateur: You know just what to say to really get under someone's skin, and get them to swing first. You can be amazingly immature and annoying and mostly not get flack for it.

One Loose End: Sometimes the cover-up just exposes more holes. No matter how clever the conspiracy, there will be a clue to its existence, and you are guaranteed to stumble over it at some point. Plan your next moves very carefully.

Quick Study: You pick up on new skills and information about three times as fast, and easily synergize different things you know.

Resilience: You have the guts of an action hero. Shot? Just a flesh wound, walk it off. Broken rib? Won't stop you from winning the fight. You can take punishment like a pro. Just remember sometimes it's better to stay down.

Roguish Charm: Crazy theories and wild, probably illegal antics drive the show, but nevermind that. You get results, and as long as that continues, your bosses will turn a blind eye to your personal failings and blatant abuses of the system. Nor will people who confessed turn around and sue for whatever you used to get them to.

Self-Discipline: The worst part about the seventies has to be the waiting. No convenient internet to just look things up, you've got to wade through logbooks and reference materials. Still, you can be endlessly patient, that's how you catch the rabbits.

Solid Cover: When you take shelter you can be assured it will stand up to a bullet or a few, even if it's behind a parasol. You are skilled at finding cover and fitting yourself to it, even if you need to suck in your chest to hide behind a lamp post.

Sherlock Scan: Shawn's signature, almost. Whenever there's an anomaly or odd detail, it jumps out at you as if highlighted or glowing.

Stealth: It isn't easy getting close enough to an alert cop during a firefight to neatly heart-shot him in the back. But you manage just fine.

Super-Sniffer: Like Gus, you have a nose the envy of any bloodhound.

To Serve & Protect: People trust a policeman, until they learn better. You are charismatic and effortlessly reassuring. People feel they can come to you with their problems.

Items

100 cp unless specified, you can also spend your tokens here.

Piece: You have a firearm that can never be found in a patdown, and never jams or runs out of ammo.

Badge: This marks you as a member in good standing with the constabulary here, or wherever you land. The paperwork will all be in order too, yet you never seem to get assignments.

Blueberry: A compact car that gets serviced and repaired automatically overnight, never runs out of gas. If you want fins, flame decals and spinning rims, go ahead, but it'll still be a compact. Never ask what happened to the Cranberry.

Candy Dish: An ever-full bowl of candy. If you get bored, you can change the type by requesting it once a week.

Cell Phone: A sad necessity of the modern age. You have a phone that updates to at least match the best available, which cannot be lost or broken or stolen. Always has full battery and bars.

Connections: A good cop knows people, the retired guy at the diner who likes people-watching, that guy you let off once. You have a network of friends, snitches and stool pigeons who are very good at keeping you up on the street-level side of major events.

Go Bag: A bag packed with two changes of clothes, a knife, two bus tickets out of town that are always valid on the next bus, and $3,000 in cash or an equivalent in local currency.

Home: A large and well-furnished suburban house. How are you managing this on a policeman's salary? Nobody will ever ask, same for utility bills and taxes.

ID: All your background paperwork, already handled. License to drive, social security card, passport, state and/or national ID, and a whole history that should stand up to even intense scrutiny.

Income: Regardless of whatever else you do you get about $150 thousand per year, the maximum salary for a Detective. In future Jumps this updates to the local currency and equivalent purchasing power.

Pineapple: Or a different fruit, if you prefer. You can always find one when you feel like snacking, and nobody particularly objects to you nabbing one from the breakroom, cupboard, their desk...

Psych Office: Your own office space, in an enviable spot downtown or on the boardwalk. No worries about rent or bills.

Teddy Guns: You have guns stashed all over your house, in your car, any place you own where you could have reasonably hidden a gun, you can produce one from. Never seems to be there when other people look though.

Companions

These also cost 100 points unless otherwise stated.

Recruit Anyone: Free! Anyone you want to recruit in this world is free to join you as a companion if they agree.

Partners: You can import all your companions, and they'll get 600 points to spend. They also get the 4 Template tokens, same as you got.

Drawbacks

Each of these grants 200 points unless otherwise stated.

Bail (+0 cp): You can leave when the show ends.

Wunza (+0 cp): A psychic detective? Whatever. Feel free to supplement this to any other police procedural, even if you need this to visit the setting.

Call ACAB: Because at the end of the day, All Cops Are Bastards. What, did you think wearing a badge would make you one of them? Besides a couple named characters, everyone on the force is now racist, violent, on the take or some combination of the three. They will never believe you, never support you, and if you go around asking too many questions, well, that's how cops die heroically in the line of duty.

Hotel California: You'll stay an extra 10 years here. This can be taken twice.

Munchies: You're always craving, always snacking. Why, you'd drink a dead man's yoohoo or take a hospital sandwich from a patient.

Power Lockout: You can't use powers from outside of this jump in this jump.

Item Lockout: You can't bring items from outside the jump into this jump. Your Warehouse is barred to you.

Companion Lockout: Your companions can be imported and buy things, but they can't enter the jump with you. They'll be in stasis instead.

Under Investigation: The cops suspect you strongly of something. If you're a cop, it's Internal affairs that's all up in your business. Be very careful lest the weight of civilization itself turn against you.

Who? What?: The blizzard of music and movie references is gonna mostly fly right over your head.

Ending

What will you do now? Stay here? Go home? Move on to the next jump?
