

Ayanami Dai

V 1.1 By Apocbox

音無先先と温泉♡

Tokyo - 3, the city of the future, is home to the international organization NERV, whose primary purpose is to fight the giant alien monsters known as Angels, using similarly giant robots known as Evangelions. Of course, such robots need pilots, the first of which is Rei Ayanami, a rather stacked girl whose looks and disposition, which seem to be okay with fucking pretty much anybody, make her extremely popular.

Take this 1000 points to spend. You will stay here for 10 years.

ORIGINS

Choose your age and sex for free

Busty Pilot

Either one of the potential pilots or an actual one with an assigned Eva, depending on your purchases. Whether you are a slut or not, you are probably still rather popular.

Interested Citizen

Well, if she is so easy, why shouldn't you indulge? You are one of the many people attracted to Rei. Whether you have already slept with her or are only planning on it is up to you.

Perks

Perks are Discounted to their respective origins, perks worth 100 are free and the rest is 50% off. Free Perks are optional.

General

Mogudan Style - Free

Well damn, look at these huge boobs. I mean, those are some serious honkers. A real set of badonkers. Okay, I'll stop. You see, women in this world and the future one, if you so desire, are quite a lot more stacked than usual in both the tits and ass departments. Sex feels quite a bit better than before, and you are immune to STDs. You can also control your own fertility, being able to set it anywhere from zero to a hundred with your partners believing you are using protection if it's set to the minimum. Finally, you and your partners are always clean, both inside and out, when it comes to sex.

I Could Do This Forever – Free/600

Sure spending all your free time fucking Rei sounds good and all, but what about getting Tanged? As it turns out, not a lot of people want to get turned into orange liquid. Thankfully it seems time works wonky here. The main plot can be almost perpetually delayed through continuous sex with important people of this world. Which is probably how Rei can just fuck off to the countryside once in awhile without anyone raising a fuss. This perk is free for the duration of the jump but can be retained by paying 600 points, which will allow you to continuously delay the plot through copious fucking of the named characters and keep the world in a semi-perpetual state of nothing major happening.

Busty Pilot

The Girl Everyone Wants To Fuck – 100

Not only are you insanely hot, being an easy 10/10 according to most people, but the way you fill out any clothes you wear is honestly kind of ridiculous. Like they just look painted on with your nipples easily showing through multiple items of clothing. And no one can even scold you for it since you are technically dressed decently; it's just how your body is.

Could You Let Me Stay Here For The Night? – 100

People are okay with you paying for things in unconventional ways. Mainly through sex, with it being their first consideration, but doing chores or helping out in other ways also counts. But sex is a far more cost-efficient way of payment.

Tantric Therapist – 200

There are quite a few things to be stressed about in this world, even before you consider the fucking Kaijus. And sex with you is an extremely great way for people to relax and feel better. Hell, you could probably help someone through their deep-seated psychological issues with a few long sessions of passionate fucking.

Dere If You Dare – 200

You can freely select a single anime character archetype, like kuudere, tsundere, or something else, and fill it out aesthetically to a tee. People who are even halfway appreciative of it will see you in a far greater light, and those that actually like it will probably worship the ground you walk on. Prepare to have a giant fan club pretty much anywhere you go.

Embodiment of Sexual Desires – 400

Is there a single guy that doesn't want to fuck Rei? Don't answer that; it's obviously no. And now you seem to share that similar legendary status, with you just triggering the "I want to fuck you" parts of the brain of any and all people that you want. Even if you aren't that good looking or have a repulsive personality.

Fourth Child – 400

Look, there just aren't that many pilots, you know? You're unique. You're valuable. You're a hero. And as long as you do your job, you're not really someone with issues like the icky social and legal consequences of having a harem, having sex in public, having a new partner every day, or similarly harmless yet normally unacceptable escapades. People will make excuses for you because you're a hero. The government will make embarrassing videos disappear because they need you. Even your romantic partners are far more understanding about 'open relationships' because you're a good person who can be trusted, aren't you? And certainly nobody will try to stop you, perish the thought. Nobody's getting hurt, after all, you least of all. This works better the more unique and irreplaceable you are but mysteriously keeps working even once all the giant monsters are defeated. Maybe it's gratitude?

Born for This – 600

Ah, shit, right! The fucking space kaijus are attacking Tokyo-3 on the regular. That's a thing. Well, a good, or maybe not so good, thing is that you can actually contribute to destroying them, with you not only being able to pilot Evas but also doing it so well people's jaws will hit the floor. And it's not just the local giant robots you are good at piloting but any other future mechs as well. Even if they have some sort of special requirements to control them, you could just ignore them and go be a total badass.

Sacred Territory – 600

Did you know that humans are actually made of Tang and are held together by a magic field? Well, not exactly, but it's kind of close. Angels and Evangelions have so much more energy than humans and are capable of manipulating this so-called AT field, and so can you now. Not to the same degree, of course; you are not a giant monster and can't survive an N bomb being dropped on your head, but having a barrier that will protect you against most conventional firearms is still good. What's better is your ability to mess with the fields of other people when you are in close proximity to them and, with it being the "light of their soul," affect their minds and bodies to a lesser degree. You will start with only doing minor things focused mostly on sex, like increasing someone's sensitivity or changing their body shape slightly, but can improve through training.

Interested Citizen

Nice Oji-San – 100

People who are younger than your apparent age, as well as people who you are responsible for, like students, see you in a far more positive light, trusting and liking you more, and the effects are even more pronounced if they fall into both categories.

Jumper Sensei – 100

Not only are you actually great at teaching, being able to hold the attention of even the most ADHD-riddled brats, but you are also capable of drilling even the hardest concepts into the heads of your dumbest students. And you are even better when it comes to teaching people about sex, with them grasping most things on the first try and being really into you praising them.

Even Though I Dislike Him – 200

Well, there are a lot of big-dicked guys around here that Rei fucked, but yours is certainly the biggest. Not only is it long and fat, but it is also able to stretch your partners far beyond what should be possible, transforming pain and damage into pleasure. It's no wonder that with such a cock, Rei would want to fuck you again and again, even if you have a shitty personality or bad looks. Interestingly, dick pics are also an incredibly effective flirting method for you now. If you don't have a dick, you can either get one or have similar effects apply to your pussy, making it the best hole around.

She Finally Became Mine – 200

No, she didn't. Those guys need to stop deluding themselves. My dudes, do you know how many boyfriends and fuck buddies she has? You, though, never have to fear your partner engaging with other people unless it's something you want. Just make them confirm that you are in a relationship and they will never cheat on you, even if they previously would have.

Unwatchful Eye – 400

People really shouldn't be allowed to fuck around with the Evangelion pilots that much, but somehow you keep getting away with it. As long as you do not permanently harm them, the authorities are either blind to your lewd antics or just don't give a shit even if it's really important people you are having fun with, like the Eva pilots, famous actors, or even the president.

Watermelon Farmer – 400

Well, I'll be damned; you are not just some random old guy but actually a spy. For who? Ah, who cares? What matters is your skill, making you an incredible actor and infiltrator, being able to get into even the deepest parts of NERV undetected. What's more is that your plans have an interesting quality of becoming more likely to succeed the more you tease those around you with them without revealing too much information. Go be vague about your actual allegiances and goals and acquire quite a bit of plot armor.

Not A Smear – 600

What the hell does some homeless man do when a giant robot and an equally giant space dildo start fighting? Fucking die? Because who the fuck would let some nobody in the shelter with the good folk? This is Japan, after all; if you don't have a house, you deserve to be treated like shit. Well fuck them! You'll just sit and watch. And somehow not die? Huh, it seems all the conflict and destruction, be it small- or large-scale, seem to avoid you as long as you aren't directly involved.

Build - An - Eva – 600

Before Second Impact things like giant robots and soul-powered force fields were the stuff of science fiction, but it turns out that what people thought were the laws of physics were really just guidelines all along. You know better than to be held back by conventional thinking: you're a bona fide mad scientist, and your mad brilliance pushes the limits of what's possible even further. The catch is that this madness is fueled by depraved inspiration and works best when used for lewd applications. Sure, you can build a giant robot with enough manpower and resources, but the more you want to push beyond the limits of conventional science (whatever that means for the world you're in), the more depraved the end result will have to be.

Items

Items are Discounted to their respective origins, items worth 100 are free and the rest is 50% off. Anything can be imported into a fitting item (Weapon into a weapon, tool into a tool etc.). If lost or stolen you get them back in an hour. All items can be bought multiple times, with free items costing 50 after first purchase. You can combine compatible items like A and B.

Busty Pilot

Varied Ware – 100

Where the in the hell did Rei gets her clothes? Probably gifts from all her suitors. You also have a wide variety of clothes, from school outfits to gym clothes to some casual wear. All extremely well made, perfectly suited for you, always clean, and extremely sexy.

Flattering Suit – 100

…Is this really appropriate? Specifically designed for synchronizing with giant robots, this plugsuit is ideal wear for piloting your Eva. It also looks like it's basically painted on, being really quite excessively flattering, not that anyone thinks it's inappropriate, even if they might… have a look. And despite the fact it's a layer of stuff between you and the world, your sense of touch works through it just fine, like a second skin, even though it's quite sturdy. Somethingsomething minimal barriers between you and your Eva, I suppose. It also has discreet access points for, uh, let's say 'convenience'. Yes, convenience. Don't want to have to go through the whole rigmarole of taking it off just to go to the bathroom, after all.

Fan - Club – 200

Well, I guess that's a bonus for being hot and saving a lot of people. You have a few dozen people who worship the ground you walk on, mostly consisting of middle-class people, but there are a couple of richer and more influential people. They look generally like what you would find attractive and will do anything you ask. Respawn a day after death.

Get Out Of Class Free Card – 200

Because you're an Eva pilot, of course you need to not be in school; you have a world to save! Or some tests to run or ugh… I don't know people to fuck? You can use this ticket to legally and without questions skip out of any official work/study once a day. Doesn't actually require the emergency to be used.

Dummy Plug – 400

Although most dangers the angel presents are of a more direct kind, there are some that can fuck with your head. Not to mention some random creepy scientists who could also probably do some shit. Not to worry, as any time some mindfuckery happens, it will be shifted onto this computer containing a copy of your mind. It will display exactly what and how it affects it, and your attacker would not notice anything wrong, thinking you are under their control.

Cozy Apartment – 400

While Rei originally lived in some rather shitty place and Shinji had to share the flat with Misato in her trash-filled place, you have a swanky penthouse. You never have to pay bills for it, with it always having water, electricity, heating and gas, even if the entire civilization collapses. The bedroom is especially nice, with a giant bed perfect for both beauty sleep and a fucking marathon.

Evangelion Unit - 0J – 600

Your very own giant biomechanical robot in your chosen colors and design that only you and people you allow can pilot. May or may not contain the soul of your mother/clone of you inside of it. Has an S Engine installed, providing it with limitless energy as well as an ability to go into a controlled Beast Mode and even more powerful Berserk Mode if you pass out. Loves you a lot and can even protect you when not piloted, like shielding you from falling debris when you are close by.

Clone Tank – 600

This bulletproof glass container is filled with LCL and 12 copies of you. Their appearance can be somewhat customized, like altering the size of breasts, height, and apparent age, but they will still look like you. You can freely swap between any of these bodies by entering the tank, and in case of your death, your mind and soul will automatically move to one of them. It will take a month for the tank to create a new body, but the process can be sped up if you provide your previous dead body to it.

Interested Citizen

Stable Income – 100

You aren't exactly stacked, but you very much can quit your job if you want to. Each month you are provided with some nice sums of cash, allowing you to live an upper middle-class life and periodically splurge on some nice things.

Official Uniforms – 100

This set of clothes that you can freely design can be established as an official wear in any institution or company, with no one asking questions about it. You also have a few on hand that you can similarly make any of your students, be they official or not, wear without question.

Smile For The Camera – 200

This camera can both fly within a couple dozen meters and become invisible at your command. Both visual and audio quality are frankly absurd, and it can automatically pick perfect angles to film things the way you want.

Personnel Files – 200

Once a month you can choose a single individual, group or organisation to receive comprehensive information on. The fewer people there are, the more info you get, with a single person having info about them that they themselves might not know, like fetishes and kinks or forgotten history and past.

Money Making Scheme – 400

Running an organization like NERV does require some real dough, and favors from people on top do not hurt either. To get such things, they pimp out custom-made Rei clones to their sponsors. You have the technology that can allow you to do the same. With a small DNA sample you can not only perfectly replicate anyone but also change their bodies and even upload memories and alter their minds the way you see fit.

An Average School – 400

Nothing interesting here, no sir. No current or potential pilots for the Evangelions to see here. Well, to be frank, this institution of your choice does attract a large number of both extremely hot people as well as talented and even special individuals like The Children. All the students here are extremely easily influenced by you, and all the staff ignore any inappropriate relationships you have with them.

Magi 69 – 600

A set of three extremely powerful AI-powered supercomputers that can do basically anything, including taking over other systems if connected to other existing computers unless they're defended by similarly powerful cybersecurity. And that if the defending system is run by a neutral AI, if it doesn't have one or the AI is gendered, this trio can easily overpower it, probably with some sort of hacking-sex-analogy. May or may not make that AI switch sides to you to get more of that Magi cyber dick.

Dead Sea Scrolls – 600

An ancient set of manuscripts that can show you how to achieve any sort of specific goal, with you being able to set a new one each year. For some reason, the path to reaching it is primarily done through copious amounts of sex, seducing people, and other salacious activities.

Companions

Companions can't take drawbacks.

Original/Import 50 for 1, 200 for 8

Make someone original in this world or import a previous companion. They get an origin, freebies and the discounts along with 1000 to spend as they please.

Canon 100

Take any individual as long as you can convince them to go.

Drawbacks

Drawbacks trump the perks and items from this jump and the previous ones. They last for your entire stay here but disappear when you finish the jump. Take as many as you can handle

Verse + Free

Well, there were a few versions of Evangelion, so you can choose which one this world operates on. Is it the original anime? Maybe Rebuild, manga or the Anima novel? Or some mixture of them? You can choose freely.

Specific Issue + Free

Mogudan did quite a few doujins of Rei; hell, the guy was pretty much obsessed with her in the past. Some of those are somewhat contradictory, and so you can choose which are canon here. Maybe you like the less stacked Rei from his earlier works?

Extended Stay + 100 per

Stay for 10 more years. Can be taken as many times as you want but you only get points for the first 4 purchases.

Ugly Bastard + 100

You are lucky that Rei exists and is the way she is, because if you want to get laid, you probably don't really have other options with how really fucking ugly you are.

Doll Face + 100

Are you actually a doll, or is it some sort of physiological condition? Because the thing is your face is constantly stuck in the same neutral expression. Hell, even if you were cumming your brains out or tortured in the most horrific way possible, you would still have the same look on you.

Actual Problem + 200

You are so addicted to sex that you could genuinely accidentally kill the world because you thought that fucking during an angel attack was a good idea.

The Object Of All The Guys Fantasies +200

Even if you do not look that hot, there are a lot of people who you would find creepy and/or disgusting who want to fuck you for some reason, and they would do a lot of questionable things to get some quality time with you.

Right Now?! + 200

It's like the universe itself does not want you to have fun, as whenever you try to relax or fuck around, some serious shit that needs your attention happens. The amount of times you would get caught with your pants down when an Angel attack happens is frankly ridiculous.

She' ll Do Whatever You Say + 200

Whether it's a product of your weak will, brainwashing, or some fucked-up upbringing, you do not see anything wrong with letting people fuck you, even if you would have normally been disgusted by them. Hell, you still are disgusted; you'll just keep quiet about it while they fuck you.

A Teacher Who Ayanami Rei Tries Her Most To Avoid +200

Your personality and looks do not seem to matter much as people whom you find attractive for some reason start to dislike you and you can't change their opinions of you in any way.

I Have To Get Myself Injured Again + 200

Uhm... Are you sure that pussy is worth it? Like, there are a lot of fish in the sea, and besides, she'll sleep with you anyway if you just ask or pester her enough; you don't need to do it. Well, shit, here you go again, doing something absolutely braindead because you think it's the only way for you to be with a person you like.

I' m Fine With It + 200

It seems any of your romantic or sexual partners, for whom you always develop feelings even if you normally wouldn't, are serious whores, liking to sleep with other people, and you for some reason refuse to stop them or break up with them, tolerating their behavior. Even if it tears you up inside.

Angel Magnet + 300

Well, with all the fucking Rei gets into, it's kind of easy to forget that there are these whole-ass giant aliens attacking the city once in a while. The aliens that now, for some reason, seem to have a real big hate boner for you, constantly trying to kill you first whenever they arrive.

The Final Choice

First of all any mental, psychological, physical or supernatural traumas that you acquired here or anywhere else are gone. If you want them gone that is. Take this toy versions of local version of Ayanami Rei for free.
