

STAR WARS XXX • A PORN PARODY •

V1.0 By u/Only-Cellist2989 & u/tales2tellu

A Long Time Ago, In A Galaxy Far, Far Away....

Dirty Force-empowered sluts are running around fucking everyone and everything!

This isn't the Star Wars you know and love/hate.

This is the universe of Star Whores: The Legendary Blowjob, A.K.A. Star Wars XXX: A Porn Parody.

The name really doesn't matter—what does matter is that there are lightsabers and a lot of fucking.

Here's 1000 CP to help you out, kid.

Origin:

Jedi Gigolo: The light side of the Force is about self discipline and keeping your spirit pure. By pure I mean keeping your "virginity" with oral sex total not counting somehow, like a Catholic schoolgirl. This religion has been a part of your life since you were a kid, giving you a very positive outlook on life, Padawan. Jedi are also all about self-sacrifice and protecting others, so you're a very generous lover.

Randy Inquisitorius: The dark side of the Force is all about giving into your darkest desires, seeking the most impure and tainted...butt stuff. You got me right, ass play is the path to real power of the Sith. You were a Sith's butt slave until they sensed a glimmer of the Force within you and now you're their Apprentice. As a Sith, you're all about your own power, pleasure, and pain. True Sith are true hedonists.

Civilian Slut: Just a normal person raised in this galaxy full of sex-addicted people and that whole Sith/Jedi war. Maybe normal isn't the right word, but close enough. You're the pizza delivery man of this universe, and someone just ordered the extra large sausage.

Booty Hunter (Drop-In): You know this part: no memories, no connections to this place, and nothing holding you back. Unless you want someone to tie you up, of course.

Race & Age:

Pick from Human, Twi'lek, Chiss, Miraluka, Mirialan, Sith Pureblood, Mikkian, or Zabrak
Pick any age from 18 to 70. (Legal fucks only! No pedos in the Star Wars Porn Parody!)

Locations:

You can choose to start in your origin's home, or roll a 1d6.

1) Tython: A peaceful world covered with green forests and one man made landmark, the Jedi temple. If it wasn't for all of the oral sex I would call this the most boring place in the galaxy. This is the origin world of Jedi Gigolo.

2) Korriban: A red, dusty dirt ball with little living on its surface. The only thing not covered in dust is the Sith Academy and the Valley of the Dark Lords. Both have statues of long dead Sith and oversized sculptures of butts everywhere. This is the origin world of Randy Inquisitorius.

3) Nal Hutta: A swamp and industrial wasteland whose name literally means "Glorious Jewel". Yep, the Hutts and their world are both disgusting in every way shape and form. At least there's plenty of natural lube here (ew). This is the origin world of Booty Hunter.

4) Alderaan: This planet will go boom one day. Until then this place is beautiful and the people love to either fuck or argue all day. It's the Italy of the Star Wars universe. This is the origin world of Civilian Slut.

5) Manaan: A planet with one artificial nude beach and water covering the rest of the whole thing. I think the planet has a native race called Selkath or something, but who gives a shit look at that beach with all the naked people.

6) Dantooine: An outer rim world known for its grassy fields, rivers, and large freshwater lakes. If you look around long enough maybe you could find a ruined Jedi temple and brothel. You're more likely to find one of the local farmers fucking a bantha.

Perks:

General Perks:

Stunning [100]: As a porn parody we are obligated to cover the beauty perks as soon as possible. This perk makes you a 8/10 or 9/10; you have both a good-looking face and a body built for bedrooms.

Force-sensitive [200 Free for Jedi Gigolo & Randy Inquisitorius]: You have access to the Force power section of this jump. You have a very basic understanding of how to use the Force without the deeper connection of the Light or Dark side of the Force.

Implants [400]: Want bigger tits, lashes, lips, a fat ass, or a huge cock? As long as it's biologically possible feel free to move the sliders up or down as you like.

Void In The Force [600 incompatible with Force-sensitive]: How the hell does this work? You are a void in the Force, something that shouldn't even be possible. Worlds without the Force like Nathema can't support life and even droids. So a person that nulls the Force just shouldn't work, but somehow you do. As a result all Force powers are nullified upon hitting you. Anyone trying to sense you with the Force will be unable to perceive you. The more someone relies on the Force the more trouble they will have even being near you.

Jedi Gigolo Perks:

Ashla [100 Free Jedi Gigolo, requires Force-sensitive]: You understand how to draw from the Light side of the Force. Making you aligned with honesty, compassion, selflessness, enlightenment, self-sacrifice, and a very strong oral fixation. Starting Form III: Soresu and you know how to use a Practice Blade. The Practice Blade is a dildo.

Helping Hand [200 Discount Jedi Gigolo]: The Jedi order is well known for always being willing to give a helping hand. A helping hand job that is. You have a truly supernatural level of dexterity for skills like aiming a blaster, handling a lightsaber, fingerbanging a pussy, and jerking a penis.

Soft Touch [400 Discount Jedi Gigolo]: Any Force power you use on a person has a soothing effect. You can control the level of the effect by turning it off or cranking it all the way up to orgasmic. So yes, if you used Force Choke you could make it so pleasurable that they would forget to try to resist or develop a strong autoerotic asphyxiation fetish.

Deep Inside [600 Discount Jedi Gigolo]: The final part of your training as a Jedi is to master the deep mystery of the Force and your throat. The holy art of deep throating is the greatest of all the Jedi teachings. No longer burdened by a gag reflex, or the need to breathe thanks to the Force supplying you with all the air you could ever need. This has given you access to Light side power that other Force users simply can't swallow. Tutaminis, the power to absorb any energy touching you be it lightning, blaster bolts, lightsabers, fire, magic, ninjutsu, chi, etc.

Randy Inquisitorius Perks:

Bogan [100 Free Randy Inquisitorius, requires Force-sensitive]: You understand how to draw from the Dark side of the Force. You can draw power from raw anger, hate, fear, and butt lust! Hate sex has never felt so good! Starting Form VII: Juyo and you know how to use a Warblade. The Warblade is a butt plug.

Clean Door [200 Discount Randy Inquisitorius]: You no longer have to fear finding a dirty hole. From now on any anus you are trying to put your cock, strap-on, or tongue in are always miraculously clean. This also applies to your anus with an always-on function, so your partner can enjoy themselves just as much. As a side effect you never have to wipe after shitting. The Dark side truly does lead to powers some might call unnatural...

Clap [400 Discount Randy Inquisitorius]: The Incredible Hulk can clap his hands together to create a shock wave to knock back his enemies. You have a similar ability. Thanks to all your anal training you can clap your ass cheeks together making the same powerful shock wave. I know what you are thinking, wouldn't this damage my trousers if I use this. I am sorry to say, yes you will have to buy new trousers every time. That's why Sith masters wear assless chaps. Now clap those cheeks!

Unnatural Secrets [600 Discount Randy Inquisitorius, requires Force-sensitive]: The forbidden secret lost to the sands of time, recovered by little old you. The ancient Sith drew their power from more than just hate and butt lust, but something far more unnatural. Ass-to-mouth. This grants access to unique Dark side powers that other Force users simply can't ever reach. You know, the ones next to the prostate gland. This includes Force Drain, the ability to pull the target's life essence from their body and depositing it into, you healing your wounds.

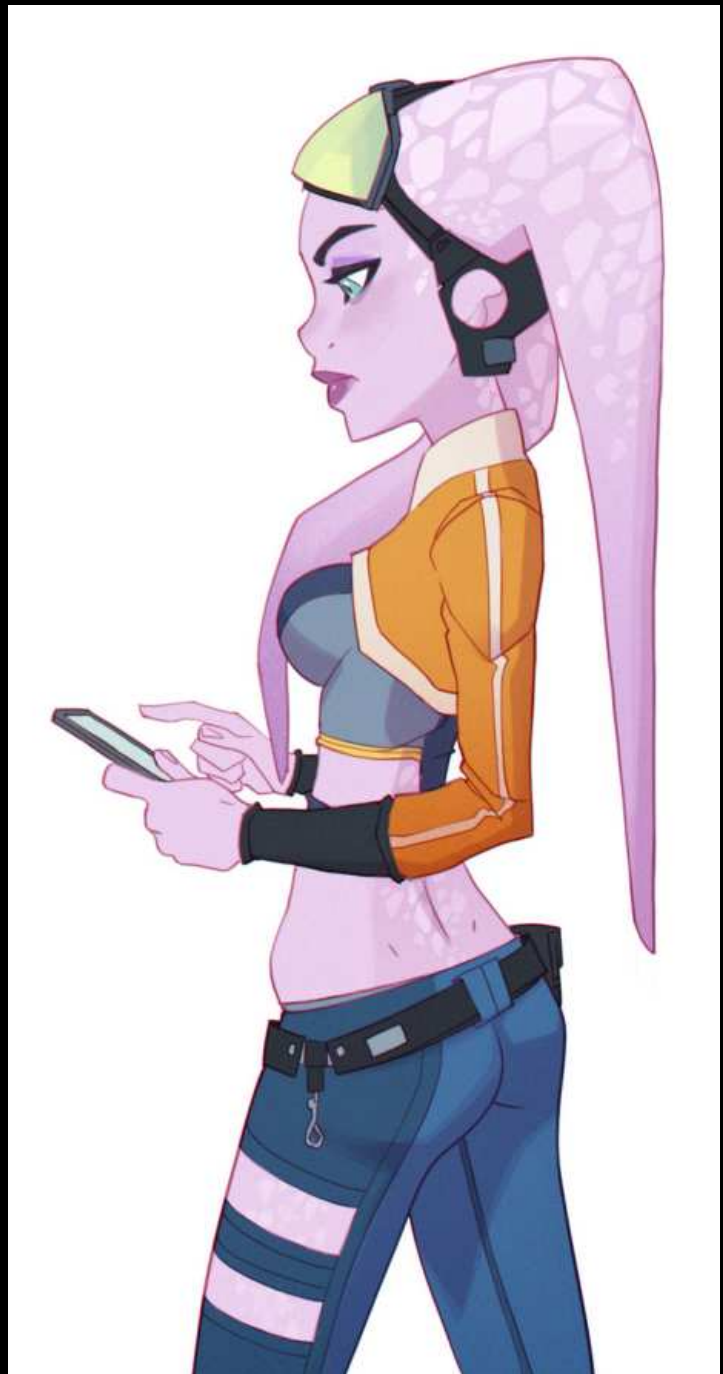

Civilian Slut Perks:

Drivers License [100 Free Civilian Slut]: You can drive a speeder bike, land speeder, starfighter, and most starships. All of this legally as you have a driver's license. Which also means you have a free backseat to mess around in whenever you want.

Missionary [200 Discount Civilian Slut]: The Sith and the Jedi are so obsessed with the paths to Force they both have forgotten how to make babies. You know how to fuck nasty with more than just relying solely on oral or anal. Your bedroom skill would put 95% of the real world pornstars to shame and about 50% of the perverts of this galaxy.

Spank Bank [400 Discount Civilian Slut]: Earning money on the side by selling your sweet ass is really fucking easy in this galaxy. So I am going to make it even easier for you by making you highly skilled at subterfuge, persuasion, and of course seduction.

Breeder [600 Discount Civilian Slut]: You can mate with any sapient species and still produce healthy offspring. Regardless of the fertility and sex of your partner you can either knock them up or be knocked up by them. Dealers choice on that one. Wanting to bang out some kids with a asexual species would be funny right? Either way the pregnancy will not last more than 3 months for you or your partner, resulting in a healthy mixed-species child.

Booty Hunter Perks:

Outlaw [100 Free Booty Hunter]:

A set of skills to help you start. Blaster pistols, flamethrowers, mini missiles launcher, grenades, and basic understanding of tech skills are all from the perk. Of course, tech also includes a full arsenal of toys that would make any sex shop blush.

Rogue [200 Discount Booty Hunter]:

A helpful set of skills to avoid getting stabbed or shot to death. Sneaking, slicing (hacking), pickpocketing, haggling, and intimidation all at a level that shows you are a true master(bation). Your sneaky hands are skilled at getting into places they shouldn't be.

Tracker [400 Discount Booty Hunter]:

Being able to track your prey across the galaxy with little to really go on. You can sense (with the Force?) the target of your hunt no matter where they go. Hell, post Jump this can be across the multiverse without ever losing the sense of the distance between you and them. This doesn't mean you can necessarily get to them without some real work. Never again will you lose track of that one-night stand that you'd really like another round with.

Harem [600 Discount Booty Hunter]: You can turn yourself into a beacon of lust for anyone with the same fetishes you have, your preferred gender, preferred species, and are DTF. The area effect is toggleable from the room you're in to all the way up to the whole planet you're on. Thankfully, this has a built in toggle or you would never get any rest.

Force Powers:

Requires a purchase of Force-sensitive to buy anything from this section.

Force Sense [0 Requires Force-sensitive]: You can feel the world around you through the Force. It's the most basic of the basics, but without this nothing else would work. You can also feel when the people around you are in heat or ovulating.

Force Push/Pull [100 Requires Force-sensitive]: Very basic telekinesis, but you gotta start somewhere don't you. Very useful for masterbating or doing a handjob without getting your own hands dirty.

Novice Lightsaber Training [100 Requires Force-sensitive]: Yep, you can hold a lightsaber without a risk of cutting off your own head. Or hair/tentacles. Or genitals. You are well versed with the Form I: Shii-Cho and not much else.

Force jump [200 Requires Force-sensitive]: Did you really think only Mario can jump good?

Force Persuade [200 Requires Force-sensitive]: Let's be honest, this is just mind control. The so-called Jedi Mind Trick is pretty fucked up if you think about.

Journeyman Lightsaber Training [200 Requires Force-sensitive]: You have a good hold on Form I: Shii-Cho, Form II: Makashi and Jar'Kai and have dipped your toes into the others.

Force Barrier [400 Requires Force-sensitive]: Make a spherical energy shield around yourself that blocks energy-based attacks like blasters, electricity, and fire, or have it block mundane attacks like bullets, arrows, and people. This power is easier to use and less draining to use if you are drawing from the Light side of the Force. This can also be a useful barrier against organic matter, if you forgot your condom/dental dam.

Force Choke [400 Requires Force-sensitive]: The coolest thing Darth Vader did during the movies was to choke someone with just his mind. This power is easier to use and less draining to use if you are drawing from the Dark side of the Force. Do I even need to make a kinky joke here?

Expert Lightsaber Training [400 Requires Force-sensitive]: Now we are talking! You would make a fine Jedi Knight or Sith Warrior with this level of skill. Form I: Shii-Cho, Form II: Makashi and Form III: Soresu, Form IV: Ataru, Form V: Shien, Form VI: Niman, Form VII: Vaapad, and Jar'Kai all at the level that would impress even the most dickish lightsaber trainer.

Force Stasis [600 Requires Force-sensitive]: Literally the only cool thing Kylo Ren ever did was show off this power. Allows you to freeze the motion of an object, immobilize people, or even hold a blaster bolt in mid fucking air! It's also a useful power if you forgot to bring the restraints for BDSM night.

Force Speed [600 Requires Force-sensitive]: Wanna go fast? This isn't complicated, it's just broken so have fun. Also applies to your hands. Be your own vibrator!

Force Heal [600 Requires Force-sensitive]: You can, with some concentration, time, and power of the Force, heal any wound short of instant death. The worse the wound, the harder and longer it will take, but hell anyone looking will just think it's a miracle and they're not really wrong. This power is easier to use and less draining to use if you are drawing from the Light side of the Force. Remember, aftercare is important!

Force lightning [600 Requires Force-sensitive]: Thor, Zeus, and Palpatine all share one thing in common: being ladies men. Wait, no there are two, it's shooting lightning bolts from their fingertips. This power is both useful in combat and for torturing a kid from a sandy shithole. Milder shocks can be fun in bed as well. This power is easier to use and less draining to use if you are drawing from the Dark side of the Force.

Master Of The Lightsaber [600 Requires Force-sensitive]: The absolute master of every single lightsaber Form and variant ever heard of, even a few you may have just created yourself. You are the single greatest lightsaber master to set foot in this horny galaxy. No one can wield that dick extension like you can!

Strong In The Force [800 Requires Force-sensitive]: Not everyone has the same strength in the Force just because they're Force-sensitive. Most can tap into a little bit of this pool of power. You, on the other hand, have power on par with Palpatine and Yoda, not necessarily as knowledgeable, but when you use any Force power it hits just as hard.

Lust Unleashed [1200 Requires Force-sensitive]: This is where things start getting crazy. Immense power equal to Vaylin and almost equal to Tenebrae, a prick that consumed the planet Nathema. You're so strong you're going to be making massive waves in the galaxy just by the sheer amount of people shitting their pants after sensing you. But just because you have the raw strength to do it doesn't mean you know how to do it.

Items:

Jedi Gigolo Items:

Monk Stuff [100 Free Jedi Gigolo]: A Jedi practice blade, some Padawan robes, and a golden cock ring.

Laser Fleshlight [200 Discount Jedi Gigolo]: A lightsaber fleshlight; just don't forget which end has the blade come out. The handle will start matching your skin color and the blade can be green or blue. You can replace the crystal later if you want.

Knightly Armor [400 Discount Jedi Gigolo]: Heavy synthweave armor plates with a bitching cloak. The armor can block some blaster bolt shots, but you need to keep in mind in order to not limit your movements there is a lot of room in between each plate. You can also detach the crotch plate whenever you need.

Brothel Temple [600 Discount Jedi Gigolo]: Your very own Jedi temple that doubles as a specialized oral-only brothel. You gotta pay the bills somehow and have all the monks give head isn't a bad idea. Has a group of about 100 NPC initiates and 10 NPC monks of a gender and species ratio that's up to you.

Randy Inquisitorius Items:

Leather Stuff [100 Free Randy Inquisitorius]: A Sith warblade, Sith apprentice robes with a leather harness underneath, and a butt plug attachment for your warblade.

Double-Ended Dildo [200 Discount Randy Inquisitorius]: Double sided lightsaber dildo. Never forget, everything's a dildo when you're brave enough (and can Force heal)! The handle can be any color you want, but the blade must be red. You can replace the crystal later if you want.

Gimp Suit [400 Discount Randy Inquisitorius]: Full body latex Sith gimp suit. Don't fear, the suit is assless and has synthweave armor plates on it. If you add a cap you would look like a proud Sith Warrior ready for a fight. The best part is you can fuck without having to take your armor off.

Slutty Academy [600 Discount Randy Inquisitorius]: Your very own Sith academy with less of a focus on hate and more on the butt lust. Has a group of about 100 NPC acolytes and 10 trainers of a gender and species ratio that's up to you.

Civilian Slut Items:

Maintenance Kit [100 Free Civilian Slut]: All the tools to fix whatever you're driving or whoever you're riding. Whenever you open it, you will always find the exact tool you need at that moment.

Big Black Speeder Bike [200 Discount Civilian Slut]: Looks great, goes fast and doesn't need any roads. As you are paying CP it will never need to be refueled and if destroyed or stolen it will appear in your warehouse 12 hours later.

Nice Ride [400 Discount Civilian Slut]: A XS-67 limited edition Corellian luxury prototype freighter, cherry apple red. This thing screams two things: more money than brains and midlife crisis. It has the fastest hyperdrive on the market and is decked out for comfort above everything. It also has 2 sex protocol droids on board to serve drinks on the flight. As you are paying CP it will never need to be refueled and if destroyed or stolen it will appear in your warehouse 48 hours later.

Hutt Casino [600 Discount Civilian Slut]: It doesn't have to be Hutt themed if you don't want it to be. No matter the overall theme, this place will make you a truly stupid amount of credits. It has a staff of about 200 employees and half are slaves.

Booty Hunter Items:

Hunter Stuff [100 Free Booty Hunter]: A quarterstaff, 2 blaster pistols, mini missile launcher, 5 grenades, Vibroblade, gauntlet energy shield, and light Durasteel armor. Also includes a pouch with a strap-on, thunder beads, handcuffs, nipple clamps, a Vibrator Blade, and a condom.

Gauntlet [200 Discount Booty Hunter]: A Cortosis gauntlet for your non-dominant arm. This is a great piece of gear as it's anti-lightsaber and rare enough that very few have even heard of it let alone fought against it. It can block any lightsaber blade, but not the heat from it.

The Good Shit [400 Discount Booty Hunter]: You want to look cool as hell and not die in 5 seconds? Then I have the armor for you. Full body heavy Beskar plate armor. This is as good as it gets. Armor that can stop a lightsaber (for a time) and looks so fucking cool. It's a Mandalorian design and will catch their people's eyes as no outsider is allowed to wear it and live. This stuff is so rare, most veteran Mandalorian only have a few small pieces in their armor if they have any at all. Wear this and any Mandalorian will either want to bang you or kill you. Probably both!

Slut One [600 Discount Booty Hunter]: Nope, not just a renamed Slave One ship. This is a Kuat Drive Yards D5-Mantis Patrol Craft with oversized heavy laser cannons and power core meant for a much larger ship to power them. This damn thing punches way above its weight class, but at a cost: the energy output lets everyone's sensors spot you like a flare in a dark room. Also includes a special room for prisoners. Some call it a holding cell, others call it a sex dungeon. As you are paying CP it will never need to be refueled and if destroyed or stolen it will appear in your warehouse 48 hours later.

Companions:

Normal rules apply to max 8 companions.

Import [50 Each]: Bring a friend over, they get 600 CP and can pick a origin & species.

OC [50 Each]: What to make a brand new friend? Same rules they get 600 CP and can pick an origin & species. Unlike the import opinion the OC's can pick up drawbacks for more points.

Drawbacks:

You may take up to 600 CP worth of drawbacks for extra points.

Supplement Mode [+0]: It's time to mix this place with another Jump. This probably will not end well, but it could be really funny.

Slave [+100]: You're starting this Jump on Dromund Kaas (not on the list), enslaved to a rich dickhead. If your origin is anything other than Drop-in, then you were raised here as a slave.

Either way, you will not get anything you purchased here until you escape the planet and/or kill your “master”.

Quick Shot [+200]: You blow your load way too fast in both the bedroom and with your Force energies. Only long hours of training will help you get over this problem.

Asexual [+400]: You have zero interest in sex. If you are a Force user you are going to find it harder to draw from both the Light and Dark side as both derive part of their power from sex, or at least they do in this place.

Vader [+600]: Got your legs and arms cut off. Most of your body is covered in burns. Except your genitals. (I am not heartless.) No magical healing bullshit can fix this, but at least you can plug in cybernetics without any problems. Be as imaginative as you want with the shape of said cybernetics.

Ending:

Thank you for taking the time to read my horning space adventure.

Stay: Jedi, Sith, and porn. What more could you ask for?

Go Home: Probably a good idea after all this.

Continue: Go forth and lightsaber your enemies.

Notes:

- Still not sure how I can get wife u/tales2tellu to correct my horrible writing. (Honey, the trick is to be a wonderful, kind husband. And lots of bribes.)
- Post Jump you become a conduit of the Force, able to access the power no matter what universe you travel to.
- There are a hell of a lot more Force powers out there that I haven't listed and if you find someone to teach you, maybe you can learn them too, but I am not listing them all.
- What is the timeline you may ask? Around the old republic time maybe. Who cares, it's porn.
