Origins

Discounts!!!!!!

Hero

You're Lonk now. Go fuck up Ganon and then date the princess unless she friendzones you and you have to settle for a farm girl with big milky.

Princess

You don't do anything except get kidnapped (unless you become a ninja).

Bad Guy

You just exist to get your ass whooped by Link. That's rough, buddy.

Perks

Mandatory - Big Booty

You have a gloriously fat ass. This is not optional. This is not a request. This is not negotiable.

Hero

100PP - Errand Boy

You have a goddess for a GF and you sort people's mail for them.

200PP - Kinda Hot NGL

You get mad hoes.

400PP - Courage

You're really good at sword stuff and you press on even if you're scared. Yeah, that's pretty much your whole thing.

600PP - Plot Armor

Your gamer goddess gf bails you out of any trouble because chicks dig pointy ears.

Princess

100PP - Sit This One Out

You can sit on your exceptionally fat ass and things around you seem to just resolve themselves.

200PP - Down Bad

You're also really hot NGL and you can sing and you're really smart and you're good at diplomacy and

400PP - Ninja

You're a ninja now.

600PP - Holy Wife-er

You're really good at magic and holy magic to the point you can disintegrate Ganon 1v1 but you still don't do crap.

Bad Guy

100PP - Spooky

You're really scary and evil looking. You're kinda being typecast here.

200PP - Goon Squad

Evil dudes just seem to flock around you for some reason. Probably the scary part.

400PP - Evil Magic

You can shoot ping pong balls and corrupt folks and resurrect the dead and shit.

600PP - Power

You've got the triforce of power which makes you totally jacked, gives you infinite energy, makes your evil powers stronger and lets you turn into a big pig. This is all real awkward if you aren't actually evil. Like nobody's just gonna give you a job at the local market if they know you can summon the undead and bring thunderstorms on them. Plus Link's gonna kick your ass.

Items

Hero

100PP - Tunic

Clothes that let you travel around not naked but still let you show off your ass.

200PP - Instrument

Plays magic music and potentially creates time paradoxes.

400PP - Gear

Stuff you need to do dungeons like a hookshot or a boomerang. Includes bombs.

600PP - Mastah Sword

Like the third or fourth strongest sword that exists but it counters Ganon and we gotta sell that merch so here ya go.

Princess

100PP - Robot Schematics

NEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEERRRRRRRDDDDDD!

200PP - Loyal Steed

You just know.

400PP - Castle

A castle that will not in any way be taken over by the villain at any point.

600PP - Goddess Bow

A bow that's pretty much better than the master sword in every conceivable way. You're still not allowed to do anything.

Bad Guy

100PP - Organ

Even your instruments are scary and evil.

200PP - Trident

The least beloved weapon. Mostly because it's a fishing implement, but that didn't stop the scythe.

400PP - Evil Castle

Wait, this is just the other castle but you filled it with mobs, added a lava moat and painted it black!

600PP - Goons

Unlimited mooks to throw at your enemies, not that it'll slow down Link much.

Companions

100PP - Companion Import

Companion import. 600PP.
