Dubious Adult Essences

An Essence Meta CYOA NSFW Jump by SpiritualStill, with credit to LJGV/Sin-God's Template
Version 1.0

Hello, Jumper. Welcome to a world you are likely to be familiar with: 2020s Earth. But look beneath the surface, and you'll soon realize that this is one of the myriad worlds influenced by the Essence Meta, a CYOA where some are given access to potions that grant them reality-shaping powers. In this Jump, you have become an Essence Entity: someone who has imbibed an essence and claimed its powers for yourself.

Of the essences you have been given the chance to imbibe, it appears that they revolve around the usage of several lewd or perverse blessings of some questionable capabilities.

Please take this for the sake of purchases: +1000 Essence Points (EP)

Origins

Starting Location

All origins start this jump somewhere on Earth, standing outside of a supernatural location where essences are sold. You initiate this jump, having just attained your powers, empty essence bottle(s) in hand, your body coursing with the power you've acquired.

Age, Gender, and Sex

You can determine your age and gender freely for the purposes of this jump, with there being an age floor of you being at least 18 years old.

Essences

The exact descriptions of all essences, including their authors, will be copied and pasted in the notes section of this document. All origins here confer the status of Essence Entity upon you, the details of which are revealed in an appropriately named perk. Each origin also confers the full power of the given essence, giving you fiat-backed access to the essence's powers from here on out. You can opt to be a drop-in if you wish.

Bolded passages in an essence's description, if there are any, help signal differences from base essences that exist as ways to balance the essence for a jumpchain story.

For the purposes of inclusivity, you may fully ignore any and all language in the Essences that specify sex, gender, and sexuality, changing them to fit your personal desires. It's keyed to your sexual preference and your identity, so have fun.

Essence of the Bitch Breaker [+200 EP]
That's a crazy name, but not necessarily inaccurate. This makes you, in essence, an effective god of sex and the ability to be a massive womanizer. It's certainly helpful, but it's not especially supernatural, at least compared to the others present.

Essence of the Hentai Bastard [Free]
Now you too can be an ugly bastard with inexplicable karma! This gives you all the bells and whistles of being a hentai bastard, including improbable skill in sex, and several powers inspired by tropes surrounding the concept.

Your transformed state has been altered for the purposes of Jumpchain's balance. It starts out as merely 10x stronger than your current state of strength, but as you train and grow using it, it will eventually grow to be over 100x stronger.

Essence of the Erotic Empower [200 EP]
Arguably the strongest essence here, because in addition to sexual prowess and porn logic, you receive the ability to empower your partners through sex, and while there is a limit to how much they can grow at once, there is no real limit as to how many times you can choose to empower them.

Perks

Origins get their 100EP perks for free, and the rest are discounted to 50%.

General [Undiscounted]

Essence Entity [Mandatory and free, though you can permanently remove it at the end of the jump if you wish]

All essence imbibers become Essence Entities. Essence entities are biologically immortal (the good kind where sickness doesn't affect you and you stay eternally in your physical and mental prime, though you remain just as vulnerable to violence as any other creature), receive a free aesthetic makeover within the bounds of their previous species (as well as restores you to peak health, if it is somehow relevant), and have a curious sort of luck when it comes to finding other creatures like themselves and the supernatural more broadly. This slate of boons comes with the fact that each essence entity has a distinctive supernatural… scent that others can learn to identify if they encounter a specific essence entity enough times, but you are also quite good at sensing the supernatural signatures of other creatures. Over time, you can learn to hide this scent and become better at masking your supernatural presence.

Essences that give you a respawn method only allow you to respawn once per jump. If it's relevant, the "Restores you to peak health" clause of this takes effect again at the start of each jump.

Adult Conveniences [Free]

Some of the essences here offer some of these benefits, but essentially, this is the porn biology perk. This grants you absolute control over your fertility, removes your refractory period, and gives you the ability to draw nourishment from sex (allowing you to ignore stuff like the need for food and water so long as you have sex instead), as well as protecting your bloodline from the negative effects of incest.

Multi Essence [100 EP if you want just another essence, 200 if you want the discounts as well. Each essence you acquire with this requires separate purchases.]

This perk is primarily for granting you access to the other essences, which will also give you access to their full power, their abilities becoming fiat-backed parts of your toolkits. If you purchase the more expensive version of this for a given essence, you essentially, for the purposes of this jump only, get another origin; that of the additional essence you purchased with this perk. This does not give you more discounts in future jumps.

Essence Alchemist [400 EP]

This is a curious skill. This power lets you alchemically brew essences, doing so based on your own powers and memories, as well as the powers and memories of the willing or those who cannot resist. This saps the energy of any affected individuals but does not actually deprive them of the memories and powers that go into individual essences. It takes experiments to know what constitutes a good essence and what you can create with existing abilities, as well as those you get in the future. Still, this ability allows you to pretty easily share your perks and empower allies.

Essence of the Bitch Breaker Perks

Good on You [100 EP]
So how exactly did that fellow over there join you? It's a question that might have mattered before, but no longer does. When someone joins your harem, nobody questions the phenomenon, regardless of history, social station, or method of having them join. You'll also never be persecuted or otherwise socially scorned, either.

Bedpost Notches [200 EP]
Previously, this essence ensured nobody would care about how many partners you had. With this, the more people you have sex with, the easier it is to seduce others. Perhaps they happen to find your evidently proven record arousing.

Power Gifting [400 EP]
With your children, you are able to decide how much or how little potential they receive from you and the other parent, whether it be the two of you combined or some lesser percentage. Additionally, your children receive copies of your perks, though you can toggle how strong they actually are.

Unfair Advantage [600 EP]
This essence already makes you sexually irresistible to those you are attracted to - so why not make it irresistible in general? Anyone who fits your sexual preferences finds you impossible to resist in most circumstances. If they have something like absolute defense, you can bypass it. If they've got absolute piercing or mind control, it won't stick. If they are an ice queen or literally emotionless, you can still sweet-talk them.

Yes, the usefulness of this does, in fact, scale with your sexuality and general freakiness. So long as you would be down with having sex with them at least one time in a neutral environment (AKA without this ability incentivizing it), this will take effect.

Essence of the Hentai Bastard

Comic Book Strength [100 EP]
Hentai villains can, at many times, be unreasonably stronger than most. This is reflected in the essence by giving you capabilities on par with Captain America as a human being, letting you surpass pretty much any athlete out there. You now receive this proportional boost in all physical parameters, making you the super soldier of whatever alt-form you possess.

Instant Loss 2koma [200 EP]
Dunno how you won so easily, but I can't deny the results. If you are able to definitively defeat someone (For example, you have at least a 75% chance of victory), you can skip all of the fighting and simply have them defeated, unable to fight back, and optionally in the middle of you fucking them.

Lucky Bastard [400 EP]
Like any good hentai character, you are unusually gifted at coming across extremely beautiful women that you would be attracted to. These women might be unusually powerful, lonely, or looking for something new - perfectly ready to fall into your lap with just a little bit of pushing.

Weasel Your Way Out [600 EP]
You can get away with practically anything, huh? Well, at least once anyway. At any time where your journey would meet its end, be it through death or failing some major event or scenario, you are able to turn back time to then and try again at it, with full knowledge intact. You may do this every ten years or once per jump, whichever comes first.

Essence of the Erotic Empowerer

Rejuvenating Pleasure [100 EP]
By having sex with your partners, you are able to heal them, restore all stamina and magic reserves (should they or any equivalents be applicable), heal all wounds, and purge any sort of disease. Naturally, this works both ways, and you experience this as well.

Erotic Gift [200 EP]
You don't have much control over what sort of strength your partners receive, but you can share what you have with them. Through intimate connections, you are able to create lesser copies of your perks or skills to give to your partners.

The Rule of Intimacy [400 EP]
Sex is, ultimately, a form of intimate contact. From now on, the more intimate you are with someone, the more they grow in strength. It's naturally going to be much less of a boost than sex will, but even things like holding hands can increase the power of you and your partners.

Orgiastic Rites [600 EP]
If sex with one person is good, why not sex with many people? When you have an orgy, the amount of power given to your partners is both increased incrementally with each member added, but everyone gets the same level of power increase. With you, you receive a reflection of increased power relevant to each partner.

This naturally influences your other abilities in different ways. If you restore your partners' stamina, you actually supercharge them. When gifting perks, you can create copies for everyone and even copy their own skills to give to others. And of course, being cuddly and cute with multiple folks winds up gathering a lot more power than usual.

Items

Items may be imported into similar - items, weapons to weapons, clothes to clothes, etc.

Any item alterations and upgrades made will be maintained between jumps and are fiat-backed.

All origins get their 100 EP items for free, with subsequent purchases being 50% off, and all other purchases for that origin are discounted by 50%.

Building complexes, unless stated to have an in-world location, will be placed near your starting location in-jump for your stay and will be attached to your warehouse after the jump is complete. They can then be imported into future jumps as desired.

Essence of the Bitch Breaker Items

The Perfect Fit [100 EP]
You've got a nice pair of clothes that happen to shapeshift to fit any occasion. They happen to feel nice and temperature-controlled regardless of how it looks, and accentuate your body to always look perfect.

Nice House [200 EP]
You get a good house in either an urban area or the middle of nowhere. It is fairly modest on the outside, but the inside grows to accommodate any partner that you get, getting more rooms as needed. It's also got wi-fi, a nice reading area, a living room, a kitchen, and multiple bathrooms.

Child Center [400 EP]
Hey Jumper, do you like having kids? While the previous option grants you a daycare naturally, this one is a cut above the rest. In here, any children you have (or otherwise care for) will have their wants and needs met, their education in all things properly fulfilled, and it serves as an environment where their gifts can develop nicely. It is run by staff of your preferred gender.

Essence of the Hentai Bastard Items

A Picture to Remember [100 EP | Free for Essence of]
Certainly an unorthodox method of blackmail, assuming it's blackmail at all. Whenever you have sex with someone, you get a picture of the encounter. Upon showing them the image, they are flooded with feelings from said encounter, and they are considerably more compliant when you show it to them.

Literal "Fuck You" Money [200 EP | Discounted for Essence of]
I have no idea why you have this money, but don't question it. You receive a passive income of $1,000,000,000 a year. This is tax-free, nobody questions it, and it will immediately convert to whatever currency you need at a given time.

Easy Target [400 EP | Discounted for Essence of]
What's easier than getting someone attractive right in your lap? The answer is someone extremely powerful who falls into your lap! Once per jump, a supremely important figure of your preferred gender will appear and wind up in a position that maximally benefits you. You will instinctively know who they are, and it is practically impossible to screw up getting them for yourself, and they will help you to the best of their ability.

Essence of the Erotic Empowerer Items

Bottle of Spum [100 EP]
I don't know if this is especially helpful to you specifically, but you have a (specifically clear) mini fridge that seems to have an infinite supply of your semen. It's perfectly fresh at all times and maintains the same nutrition as before. I'm sure your partners will appreciate it.

Nice Bed [200 EP]
A nice bed that can be summoned anywhere, and even if you are out in the woods, it comes free with a tent. This bed is very large, and the most comfortable in the whole universe. While in it with someone else, the love you have with them will dramatically increase. The bed also has some spatial warping effects, and seems to grow the more people are on it, with the ability to teleport people who'd like to leave it without having to crawl over everyone.

Sex Temple [400 EP]
A modest-sized temple (which may or may not have yonic imagery) that you happen to control. When having sex or performing other intimate acts inside the temple, both pleasure and empowerment are magnified.

Companions & Followers

Companion Import/Companion Creation [50-200]
With this, you can spend EP to import companions into this jump, giving them 600 EP and the ability to pick and choose origins, perks, and items of their own. You can also create a companion using this, whose origins, perks, and items will be picked by you, who will exist in the setting and join you along this journey. You spend 50 EP per person you do this for, or you can spend 200 EP and create or import 8 such individuals.

New Friend [50]
This is the option to recruit someone you met here. By taking this, you get a token that, if you give it to someone, allows them to instantly understand what a chain is and what it means to be a companion, and who is given the chance to come with you. If they say no, you get the token back, it is recharged, and you can give it to someone else. Each investment of 50 EP here gives you a new token. Each unspent token is refunded at the end of the jump.

Drawbacks

Another Universe [0 CP]
This is a supplement toggle. With this, you can attach this jump to another one and fuse the two settings into one to whatever extent you wish.

Extended Stay [Varies]
For each purchase of this, your time here is extended 10 years. This can be used up to three times for 100 points each time you take it, and after that, you can use it to simply extend the duration of your stay here without buffing your points.

Lockdown [Varies]
You lock out out-of-context items, companions, powers, your warehouse, or any combination of the four. This can be reduced in intensity, making you lose access to your other perks, companions, items, or warehouse, but not all four, in exchange for dropping how many points this gives you. If you only lose access to one of the four, you only get 200 points; if you lose access to two out of the four, you get 400 points; if you block access to 3 of the four, you get 600 points; and if you lose access to all four options, you get a full 800 EP. Companions can still be imported and receive builds, but they won't be able to be active during this jump if the companion lockout is selected.

Power Acclimation [+100 EP]
This drawback causes you to not immediately understand how your powers work. You possess a rough understanding of your powers but do not understand every detail about them, and need to experiment to figure out their full limits.

Chuuni [+100 EP]
Ah, yes, this thing. You now suffer from Middle School Second Year Syndrome. This unfortunate malady causes you to experience delusions of grandeur that are tied to your chosen essence(s). This is not great, but it can be overcome with willpower and an appropriate sense of self.

Rumor Mill [+100 EP]
Somehow, people will invariably discover your powers. Not everyone will believe in them, but some will, and those people will spread rumors regarding your strange abilities.

Essence Entities Galore [+200 EP]
This makes this world much more interesting. With this drawback, other essence entities are guaranteed to both exist and to, eventually, find out about you. They aren't guaranteed to be hostile, and many will be friendly, but essence entities are as diverse, morally and intellectually, as humans. A clever jumper could see this as a fascinating opportunity… These essence entities will appear even in isekai worlds, though this won't make them more or less dangerous than they were/would have been on Earth.

Very Superstitious [+200 EP]

Many modern people do not believe in magic, and even those who do are often in awe of it. This changes that. Over the course of your time here, more and more people begin to believe in magic and begin to fear it, as many people did in the medieval past. And people have a history of trying to destroy what they can't understand.

Shops Abound [+200 EP]
It turns out you weren't the only one who wandered into an essence store. And annoyingly, not everything that came out of these stores was human, or even essence entities. Monsters snuck out of stores throughout the planet and are now wandering around freely. Many of these creatures will have oddly thematic features and abilities.

Essential Nature [+400 EP]
Your chosen essence(s) have a powerful effect on your personality. You want to use the essence you chose as your origin regularly, and frequently fantasize about how using its power could make your life easier. You need powerful willpower to soldier through this effect and resist it fully. You can often resist this in the day-to-day moments, but when you get really tempted, it'll be quite easy to succumb to temptation for even a second, and that can be long enough with the right essence to do something life-changing to someone.

Essence Thief [+400 EP]
There's a trickster roaming around targeting essence entities. This individual can steal essences and is capable of identifying essence entities at a glance, but it is also an arrogant brat and likes to taunt people, so you might be able to force it to give back something it's stolen. Still, this little trickster is unpleasant and skilled and can absolutely steal your essence abilities, even overriding protections they'd normally have, due to the powerful nature of this trickster's powerset. Vendors don't like this asshole either, so there's a chance that you can team up against it if you find someone whose essence entity friends have been victimized, but the later in the jump you try to act, the more this gremlin will have stolen, making it all the more dangerous. Abilities stolen from you are naturally restored at the end of the jump, but unless you get them back from the trickster, they remain sealed away for the duration of the jump.

Anti Essence Squad [+400 EP]
Essence-empowered creatures are far from unknown, at least to the governments of the world. Many people in the secretive agencies tasked with monitoring and watching the supernatural flatly do not trust Essence Entities. Somewhere near where you start this jump, there will be local government agents interested in intercepting you and learning about your abilities. Whether or not they can do so is up to your OCP, as their abilities are surprising and diverse, but very largely focused on essence silliness. For the duration of your jump, these people will be interested in you. How you deal with them is up to you. Sufficiently powerful governments have more resources than other governments do, including quite possibly aligned essence entities of their own.

Predatory Essence [+600 EP]
This world is the hunting ground of a particularly nasty creature empowered by an essence. At the base level, this essence is something on par with the essences here, which can be incredibly dangerous but take finesse, knowledge, and resources to wield properly. For 800 EP, the essence is much worse in terms of what it can do, perhaps something like the Essence of the Assassin. For 1000 EP, you face a truly nightmarish foe, a creature with powers on par with the essence of the unnamed darkness or the essence of the anti-immortal, potentially apocalyptic enemies.

Malicious Vendors [+600 EP]
So did you… steal your essence, dear jumper? Because you really pissed off the people who run essence shops. They've banded together to sell your foes, or even just your targets and neighbors, essences based on the adventures you've had to give people a shot at beating you with the powers you've encountered before now, and this includes the powers you've gained in past jumps. If this is your first jump, they'll send generically powerful martial and magical essence entities after you, such as creatures empowered by the essence of the warlord or the essence of the sorcerer lord. At first, they'll want to keep you alive and drag you to their lairs to turn your memories and powers into the basis of new essences, but if you overcome them enough, they'll just want you dead.

Final Choice

You have three choices …

Go to the next Jump
Continue onto the NEXT GREAT ADVENTURE!!!!!!

Stay
Stay and enjoy your current life.

Go back
Tired of your travels and want to rest back home, well then this is for you, grab this ticket back to your starting point and go see old friends.

Notes

The name of this jump was originally the Dubious Lewd Essences Jump, but decided that it should have the same naming scheme as u/Sin-God/LucianoLogic's Adult Essence Jump and Another Adult Essence Jump

It should be obvious, but this is a work of fiction, and I do not condone any explicitly or implicitly dark action you can theoretically perform with this. Jumpchain is for the purpose of having fun and fulfillment in whatever way you want. I saw the Essence of the Bitch Breaker, thought that was the most outrageous name ever, and committed to the bit.

Image Source: https://www.deviantart.com/luna4s/art/Love-Potion-785461117

Going to reiterate this here for those who scrolled down to see the essences: For the purposes of inclusivity, you may fully ignore any and all language in the Essences that specify sex, gender, and sexuality, changing them to fit your personal desires. It's keyed to your sexual preference and your identity, so have fun.

Additionally, though I have slightly changed the text, it's only for clear grammatical errors, and nothing beyond that has been changed.

-There are two large archives of essences. One, the original, can be found here. This is what is referenced below. The other, far more up-to-date, one is by Number96 over on Questionable Questing, and the latest version can be found here. It is ONE document, at over 3,000 pages, but it's also got leagues more essences.
-While some drawbacks guarantee that other essence entities exist in the jump in ways that are relevant for you, if you opt not to take the drawbacks, you can assume that other essence entities exist in the jump, but it'll be on you to track them down.
-Essence of the Bitch Breaker (by Xcv45, Part 3 of the Essence Meta Network GDocs).
Essence of the Bitch Breaker

- You have a supreme bitchbreaker that gods of sex and virility would be proud to have, an utterly massive and magnificent phallus that inspires deep awe and lust in all but the most strong-willed of women, with your testicles being just as mighty. You won't have any trouble fitting it in whatever hole you want, though. Whoever you stick it in won't feel any pain, but will feel incredible pleasure instead. If you are female, this makes you a futanari (testicles optional).

- You have no refractory period whatsoever, can stay hard for as long as you like, and produce truly massive loads of semen (easily over a gallon, but you may reduce the amount to "merely" enough to flood a woman's womb full). Your virile seed is amazingly thick and potent, ensuring that siring children will always be easy, even on women with low fertility.
- You have nigh-inexhaustible sexual stamina, being easily able to fuck for days on end without rest. You never run out of sexual fluids; your orgasms will be just as strong and plentiful by the 100th time as they were the first time.
- You and your sexual partners operate on porn physics, ensuring that they never get harmed, no matter how roughly you fuck them, how big your dick is, how much cum you pour into them, STDs are never a problem, and so on.
- Your enjoyment of sex will never decrease, and you gain a healthy libido and confidence in yourself. Optionally, you may increase this libido to whatever levels you desire and give yourself any fetishes/kinks you want.
- You may have an aura of lust, inducing arousal in women towards you and heightening their sensitivity while lowering their inhibitions. This can be toggled on and off and controlled to affect only certain targets (such as those you find attractive). Willpower can influence their ability to resist the effects, but proximity and time of exposure to it massively increase the difficulty of resistance.
- Your sexual fluids are a supercharged aphrodisiac to women. The smell or taste of it is addictive and incredibly pleasurable to experience, whether it is on the skin, through the nose, and especially so when you cum inside them.
- You have godlike skill at sex, allowing you to bring your partners to multiple screaming orgasms no matter how willing or unwilling they may be with little to no effort on your part, as well as the power to mind break anyone through orgasms, the more you make them cum, the easier it will be for you to make them into the exact sort of cum toilet you feel that they're suited to become. You can very easily leave women you fuck an ahegao'd mess, even if they are goddesses of pleasure or succubi. Heart-shaped pupils are optional, though on by default and only temporary.
- You have supreme talent at making women yours, whether this is by romance, seduction, or overwhelming them with pleasure until they can no longer resist and submit to you. Your sexual and romantic conquests will never mind being part of your harem, you having multiple partners or fucking others, and so on. You having a harem, being a known womanizer, and the like will never be a turn-off to potential romantic/sexual partners.

- You have immunity to illnesses and diseases (not just limited to STDs and STIs) as well as an incredible resistance to toxins, poisons, and various other health hazards.
- Your offspring will always be born strong and healthy. It is impossible to stop or prevent your offspring from being born without killing the mother (or you allowing it). These pregnancies will always be safe and easy for the mothers and will never have complications. Any half-breed offspring you have will always have just the right amount of fusion to be attractive instead of monstrous. Your children also seem to always be able to tell that you are their parent.
- No matter how much they may hate you, the women you impregnate are assaulted by powerful maternal impulses that compel them to lovingly raise the children you sire on them to the best of their ability. Such women will immediately know you are the father the moment they become aware of the pregnancy.
- Your children will inherit incredible potential from you (and their other parent, if it matters) along with a considerable talent with women. In addition to this, your male children will always have big dicks, and your daughters will grow up to be at least as pretty as their mothers.
- You can always tell your descendants within at least five generations of yourself when you see them, automatically knowing they are so even if you have never met them before (or even just by seeing the pregnant mother).
- You may choose for you and your line to never have any sexual interest in each other or in close relatives, unless there is sufficient separation. This is on by default. You may also make specific exceptions when taking the essence.
- Women never truly forget the pleasure you inflict on them, no matter how much they may want to. A girl you ravished a decade ago could then be happily married for years, but as soon as she meets you again, she'll be afflicted by arousing memories of you fucking her.
- Regardless of what clothes you are wearing, you can comfortably fit and hide your genitals inside without problems, unnoticeable at all unless you want it to.

-Essence of the Hentai Bastard (by 24caratcoal, Part 2 of the Essence Meta Network GDocs).

Essence of the Hentai Bastard

By drinking the Essence inside this opaque bottle shaped like a woman's face in an ahe-gao expression that seems to look a little different every time you look at it, no matter the reason you looked away from blinking to leaving the room, you gain-

-A body that runs on porn physics, your dick could be the size of an elephant, and it would still fit inside a girl, though she might be a little stretched out afterwards

-Access to porn logic capable of leveraging many situations to your advantage, ranging from convincing people to do what you tell them even if they shouldn't, to allowing you to smooth-talk your way out of legal trouble should it arise, and more. It's like a sort of perverted charisma that allows you to walk up to some random strangers house with your dick stuck inside a pizza box and convince them to let you in even if they know that they really shouldn't, or that lets you convince the judge that raping someone until they have hearts in their eyes actually does count as retroactive consent no matter how hard they fought you or how many times they said before hand.

-Your actions may no longer have any appreciable consequences for yourself if you so choose, allowing you to escape any sort of punishment or retribution that you might otherwise have coming- even if the source is a supernatural being, force, or phenomenon that would ordinarily be unstoppable or inescapable.
-Hentai Vision, which lets you see the kinks, sexual history, desires, intent, diseases, and damn near any other bit of information that might be relevant to a person. It will unfailingly let you detect suitable partners, people you want to avoid, or disguised hentai monsters.
-Immunity to illnesses and diseases (not just limited to STDs and STIs) as well as an incredible resistance to toxins, poisons, and various other health hazards. Go without bathing for as long as you'd like; you still won't get sick- that said, people do appreciate good hygiene, so you might want to be considerate of other people.
-A one-time body resculpting to make you look however you want (though it defaults to a standard "ugly bastard" appearance based on what you currently look like, you can easily change this so that your looks can be anywhere from a 1/10 to a 10/10 and anything in between) that removes any and all injuries, illnesses, and defects that you may have previously had. This can let you be a shota, a little girl, or a grown woman if you want, but it's restricted purely to humans.
-Comic book style peak human capabilities on par with Captain America, making you stronger, faster, and more enduring than even the greatest athletes.
-A big dick, how big is up to you (Optional, but there by default)
-Unlimited stamina and sexual fluid production
-No refractory period, you can get hard and stay hard for as long as you want with no medical consequences
-Super powerful pheromones that you can control at will that will make whoever you desire more submissive, compliant, and aroused, while making others wary of crossing you (and optionally more aroused as well). They can also make it impossible for anyone else to get an erection for a set length of time after smelling them if you so desire. How this makes you smell is up to you.
-Godlike skill at sex, allowing you to bring your partners to multiple screaming orgasms, no matter how willing or unwilling they may be, with little to no effort on your part
-The power to mind break anyone through orgasms, the more you make them cum, the easier it will be for you to make them into the exact sort of cum toilet you feel that they're suited to become. Heart-shaped pupils are optional, though on by default and only temporary.

-A cleansing touch that will allow you, at will, to clean your partners inside and out at will to whatever degree you choose; this also works on yourself. Scents and tastes can optionally be left behind even if you cleanse someone entirely, if you so choose.
-An instinctive knowledge of how best to blackmail, extort, exploit, or do various other nefarious things to people without getting caught. You might be able to talk your way out of jail time, but it can still be very annoying if your victims try to squeal. This, combined with a healthy dose of porn logic, will keep them nice and compliant until they accept their fate.
-The power to slowly and subtly reshape your target's body in any way you desire while you're having sex with them. Don't like that tattoo on your partner's shoulder? Get rid of it after just a few orgasms. Are their breasts too big or too small? Make them just right while you ride their ass. Want that annoying/bratty boy to be more girly? They'll be ready for bikini season before they know it, so long as you fuck them hard enough, it's up to you if they keep their penis and how much of it they can keep.
-The ability to instantly conceal your eyes in shadow, making you look more mysterious and/or intimidating while also allowing you to perfectly conceal your identity, no matter how clear it would otherwise be that it's you. Optionally, this can also make you harder to notice, becoming like a background character that nobody questions, lurking around until you do something to draw attention to yourself. You can extend this effect to anybody you're actively having sex with. Yes, you can use this to rob a bank if you really want to, but that's a lot more work and far more dangerous than just finding some rich person to fuck into giving you their fortune.
-A plain-looking stopwatch, if you desire, that allows you to pause time at will. Using it makes you immune to aging while time is stopped. While in use, you can freely interact with the world, allowing you to reposition people as you please without risk of harm to them from your direct actions. They won't fall until time is resumed, no matter what position you put them in. Pushing them will only cause them to fall as far as the floor you're standing on. Any actions you take to pleasure someone will cause their bodies to physically respond to your touch, but they won't feel anything until after you resume time at which point you can decide how fast they feel everything you did to them while they were pause ranging from being in sequential order from start to finish at the actual speed that you did it to them to everything all at once to give them potentially the most intense orgasm they might ever experience or anything in between. It's also great for taking naps, but don't expect to get through any doors that operate on electronic locks unless they're only held closed by a magnet.
-An alternate form that you can change into at will; there are no limits on what this can be. You can be a centaur, an elf, an orc, a minotaur, a tentacle monster, or whatever you desire. Your physical strength is only limited by the dimension you're in. On your birth Earth, you can only be about 100x stronger and more durable than your baseline form, whereas if you were to go to a world like DC, you could go toe to toe with a Space-Coked up

Kryptonian under a blue sun and still rape them into a mewling fucktoy if you're so inclined. You can change back and forth at will in front of whoever you want, and nobody will connect the dots if you don't want them to- that said, you should probably expect screaming and panic if you suddenly turn into a mass of writhing tentacles in the middle of a crowded city.

-Essence of the Erotic Empowerer (by Adudefromthesea, Part 3 of the Essence Meta Network GDocs).

Essence of the Erotic Empowerer.

By drinking from this suspicious, genital shaped bottle, you've become an Erotic Empowerer!

- Your body is elevated to the peak of your species in terms of physical attributes, while also becoming supernaturally attractive. This comes with a free cosmetic change if you want to modify your appearance, but no matter what, you will always be beautiful and often find yourself to be the hottest person in the room.
- You become supernaturally good at sex and foreplay, able to instinctively know what your partner needs or wants to bring them to the peak of pleasure. Your new skill vastly surpasses even ultimate gods and goddesses of sex, making you able to turn pretty much anything into an extremely satisfied ahegao puddle.
- You gain infinite stamina while having sex or engaging in sexual activity; the worst you'll even get is 'satisfyingly tired', but you can decide to make it so you don't feel tired at all.
- Porn logic now affects you, and you have absolute control over the intensity to which it's affecting your being. Things like refractory period control, snug fit no matter the genital differences, mind-break, guarantee pregnancy, guarantee not pregnancy, moral degradation, lowered inhibition, rape-turn-love, and many, many others are now possible to you as long as you adjust the porn logic intensity.
- Your cum has become highly nutritious and has acquired a divine, always-adjusting taste that will always affect the drinker's taste sense in the best way possible. The taste itself already make it slightly addictive, but it does have addicting properties beyond that, if you're not careful you might turn your partner into a junkie for your cum, but as this is likely to happen, you can decide if they're going to be a non-functional junkie only living for their next fix, a functional junkie able to go on with their life but away feeling a strong and often irresistible craving for it, or a high functional junkie that is capable of not letting the constant craving affect their lives.
- You can empower your partner through sex; this can mean granting them new abilities, skills, and powers, or just enhancing what they naturally have.
- As a rule, you will always make your partner more powerful or more versatile, hence the name 'empower', and you are free to decide how this empowerment will manifest. But you are limited to your partner's current strengths and potential for growth; a quick explanation would be, ‘You can’t turn a normal housewife into a goddess of battle in one session; you need multiple sessions to do that.’ Basically, while you can empower them to be stronger than what they are, you can only do that to a reasonable degree. But of course, this degree changes depending on the partner; a normal housewife becoming stronger is different than a Demigoddess becoming stronger.

- Because sex is a communal act, you are also empowered by your partner's empowerment. However, because it’s only a reflection, you do not have control over how you yourself are going to be empowered. The results are not completely random, however, it depends on your partner, and the empowerment they are receiving, for example if you partner is a fire mage by nature it might mirror that and grant you fire base magic, or if you are in the process of empowering our partner with legendary sword skills, it might mirror that instant and grants your similar, but different swords skills. It is always based on your partner or the empowerment they received.

-Big credit to A4 (Emerett, Itō, Beni, etc.) on the Discord for help making the essence citation section a bit more efficient. Appreciate the help, homie!
