Magical Gyarus Milk Me for Mana 0.1

By saiman010

Introduction:

Welcome, Jumper, to a world where magical girls are real!

In this reality, the spotlight is on the Starlight Girls—a team of magical heroines whose outfits follow the, uh… finer traditions of hentai logic. Their so-called "armor" is more like a bikini with some frills and ribbons thrown in, leaving plenty of skin on display. Boobs? Out. Butts? Barely covered. Perfect for the viewing pleasure of a certain demographic. And lucky for them, they're at least an 8/10 in looks, making them prime material for ahem personal enjoyment.

But here's the fun part: in this world, magical girls don't just fight evil—they need support. And one of the best ways to empower them is by filling them with mana. And how do you transfer mana, you ask? Simple! You get as horny as possible and act on those desires with the magical girls themselves. That's right—this world runs on full-blown hentai logic.

So, with that in mind, take this 1000 CP and enjoy your stay. In more ways than one.

Starting Location:

Fortunately, the locations in this world are perfect replicas of those in our own. Therefore, you have the freedom to choose where you would like to start your journey in this parallel world. Whether it's a bustling city, a quiet countryside, a coastal town, or a mountainous region, the choice is yours. Each location presents unique challenges and opportunities for you to utilize your magical abilities to protect humanity from the monstrous threats.

Origins:

Before diving into this world of magical girls and hentai logic, you'll need to choose your Origin. Each Origin defines your role in this world and how you interact with its unique mechanics. By default, you'll start at 17 + 1d20 years old, so you could end up as anything from a fresh-faced newcomer to a more experienced player in this magical (and very hands-on) society.

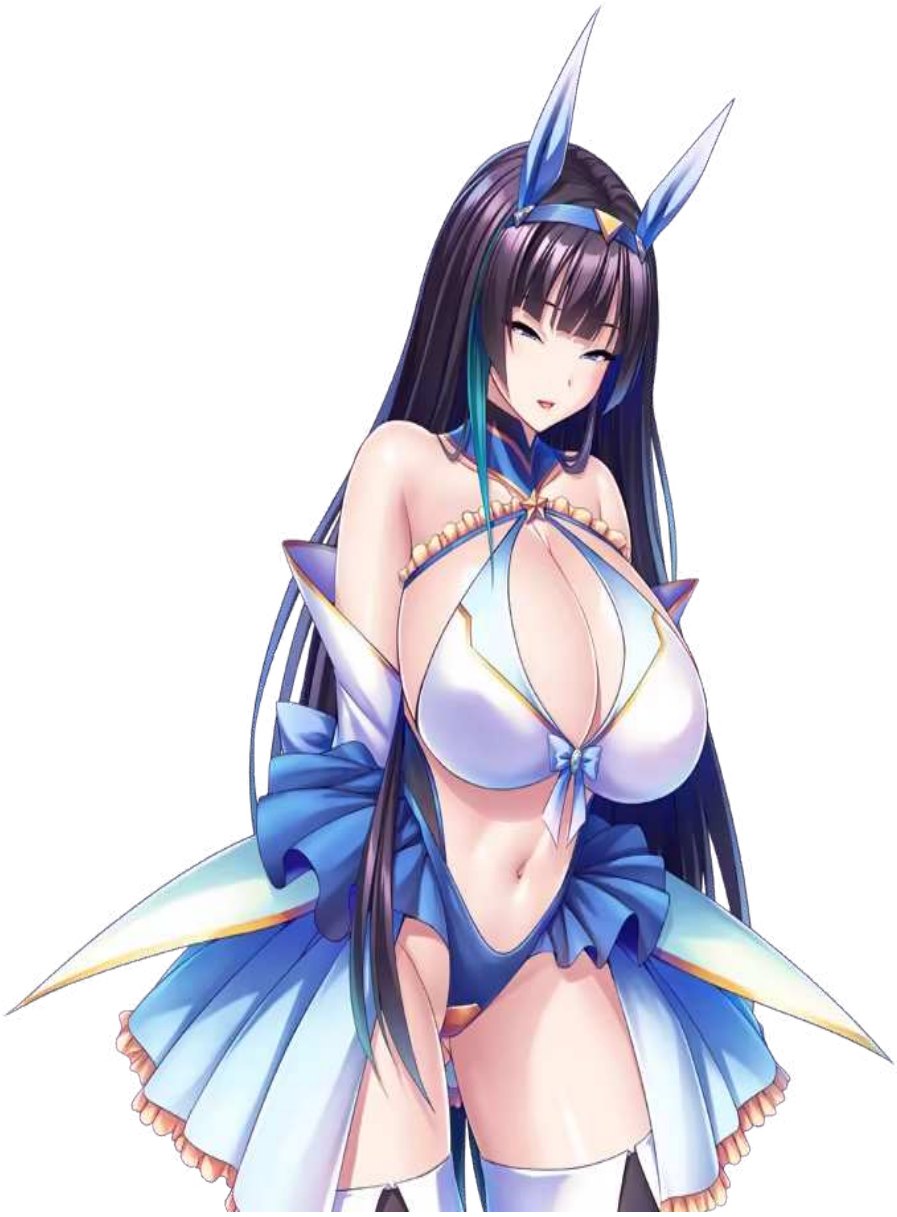

Want to switch things up? You can freely change your gender upon arrival, so feel free to pick whatever suits your preferences. Additionally, if you'd rather enter the world with no pre-existing connections, any Origin can be taken as a Drop-In, allowing you to start fresh without prior knowledge or attachments

Mana Battery
Looks like you're not one of the flashy heroes, but don't worry—you're still vital to the cause! As a Mana Battery, you serve as an essential power source for the Starlight Girls, providing them with a special kind of support. You see, in this world, the more arousal and desire you generate, the stronger they become. That's right—your very existence fuels their ability to banish evil and protect the world.

Whether it's by cheering them on, offering encouragement, or… ahem more direct methods of mana transfer, you are a booster in the truest sense. So embrace your role, keep the magical girls charged up, and make sure the forces of darkness never stand a chance!

Starlight Girl
Congratulations! You are now a magical girl (or boy, if you prefer). You embody the classic magical warrior archetype—except for one tiny little detail: your outfit looks like it was designed by a hentai artist with zero restraint. Frilly? Sure. Ribbons? Of course. But modesty? Absolutely not. Your so-called "armor" is more of an excuse for clothing, leaving you on full display for the world to admire.

Still, it's not all bad! You get flashy magical powers, the ability to fight evil, and a starring role in this very cultured story. So go on, magical girl—strike a pose, yell your transformation phrase, and get ready to protect the world… in the most exposed way possible!

Perks:

Perks of teh same origin are discounted and 100Cp discounted perks are free.

General:

Hentai Beauty [Free]
Just like many characters in this world, you have an appearance that turns heads and makes hearts race. You start with a minimum attractiveness of 8/10, ensuring that you're at least a certified hottie. Your body shape is completely up to you, though by default if you are female —thanks to this world's hentai game influences—you're blessed with a voluptuous form featuring large, head-sized breasts (or an equally exaggerated physique of your choice). If that's not your style, you're free to adjust your proportions to better suit your tastes.

Hentai Armor Logic [Free in this world / 100 CP to take with you]
In this world, the scandalously skimpy armor worn by the Starlight Girls isn't just for show—it's actually practical and fully functional. Thanks to hentai logic, your armor provides complete protection no matter how much skin it leaves exposed. In fact, the less it covers, the denser and stronger the defensive buffs it grants!

While this perk is free during your stay in this world, bringing this unique brand of defense to other settings will cost 100 CP. But with this perk in hand, no matter where your adventures take you, you'll never have to choose between fashion, fanservice, or function—you'll always have all three!

No Battles, Just Hentai Time [Free in this world / 100 CP to take with you]
Let's be real—the true focus of this world isn't dramatic battles or intense combat, but the "interactions" between magical girls and their supporters. And by "interactions," we of course mean sex and any perverse acts the supporter can dream up. To keep things from getting too interrupted by pesky monsters, this perk ensures that monsters will only attack the city once per week at most. The rest of the time? It's all about that sweet, uninterrupted hentai time.

If, for some reason, you actually want more monster attacks (why?), you can freely toggle this setting on or off to increase or decrease encounter rates at will.

While this perk is free during your stay in this world, you can take this hentai logic with you to other settings for 100 CP, ensuring that no matter where you go, battles never get in the way of the real action.

Mana Battery:

Mana Booster [Free for Mana Battery / 200CP for other]
Your existence is paramount to help the magical girls in their duty to fight evil. As now, your very existence leaks out mana that, when absorbed by a magical girl or magicinas in future worlds, not only supercharges their attacks but also inverses their stamina significantly. The catch and fun part from your end is that this mana ability's application is actually more potent the more perverted and active you are to the magical girls. So, a simple kiss will be a small boost. But if your thing is actually rape role-play with your victim bent in doggy style with an anal plug while wearing a ripped maid outfit, well, that magical girl is now supercharged and can easily destroy a city with ease.

Moreover, the Mana Booster's power can be further amplified by exploring different levels of perversion and lewd acts. This could involve group orgies with multiple magical girls, humiliation, and even the use of various sex toys. The more creative and depraved the sexual encounter, the greater the boost to the magical girls' powers will be.

Accepted Pervert [100CP]
The nature of your abilities often treads a fine line, where actions intended for personal gratification might be misconstrued or even criminalized in a less understanding world. This perk ensures that your interactions with magical girls or magicinas, provided they have willingly consented, are viewed through a far more lenient lens. Any perceived perversions or unconventional acts undertaken together will be dismissed as the eccentricities of lovers seeking unusual thrills and passionate experiences. The authorities and wider society will simply shrug them off as the follies of intense, albeit perhaps strange, romantic entanglements.

Good on the bed [100CP]
Alright, listen up, buttercup! So you're a newbie in the nookie department? No sweat off your sparkly magical girl uniform! This perk is like having cheat codes for the bedroom. Even if your experience boils down to awkward hand-holding, the moment your fingers graze your partner, BAM! Instant happy shivers. It's like your touch is made of pure pleasure pixie dust. Now, here's the kicker: the more you figure out what makes your partner tick (and maybe learn a few fancy moves along the way), the more intense their pleasure gets. It's like leveling up your lovemaking skills, turning those initial delightful tingles into full-blown fireworks.

So, don't worry about fumbling around; you're guaranteed to get a great reaction right from the get-go, and it only gets wilder from there!

Beauty Magnet [200 CP]
Let’s be honest—when you’re in a world where people offer themselves up to you for power boosts, you really don’t want to attract the wrong kind of attention (shudders). Thankfully, with this perk, you never have to worry about that! Anyone willing to be your personal toy for mana transfers will be a minimum of 8/10 in attractiveness, ensuring that only the most aesthetically pleasing options come your way.

Orgy Stamina [200 CP]
Supporting magical girls isn’t a one-time thing—you might need to boost multiple girls at once to maximize their power. Lucky for you, this perk ensures that you have the stamina of a hentai protagonist!With this, you can effortlessly handle up to six magical girls at once, keeping them fully charged for two days straight without breaking a sweat. No soreness, no exhaustion—just pure, unrelenting endurance. Whether you’re fulfilling your duties or indulging in some personal fun, you’ll always be ready for more!

Magical Protective Piercings [400CP]
You gain the ability to create magical nipple and crotch piercings that, when worn by your partners, serve a dual purpose. Firstly, they emanate a potent aura that significantly amplifies your partners' sexual arousal, making them incredibly receptive to your advances and desires. Secondly, these piercings act as formidable anti-rape shields. Should any creature attempt to sexually assault your partner, the piercings will trigger a protective effect. For male attackers, this often manifests as immediate erectile dysfunction upon contact with the accessories. In the event of attempted penetration, the piercings will instantaneously transform into an impenetrable chastity belt, physically safeguarding your partner's sensitive areas from the attacker's physical violation.

Stamina and Injury Recovery [400 CP]
Your role as a supporter just got even more powerful! Not only can you boost the strength of magical girls, but now you can also heal all injuries with nothing more than a simple touch. No need for potions, spells, or rest—just a single caress, pat, or ahem more intimate contact, and any wounds, fatigue, or battle damage will instantly vanish. Of course, since this world runs on hentai logic, it's probably best if your healing involves some level of skinship for maximum effect. With this power, magical girls can fight without fear, knowing that you'll always be there to "restore" them in all the best ways!

Harem Maker [600 CP]
Looks like your mana is even more addictive than you thought! Now, whenever you go all the way with someone (yes, all three bases), they will completely fall in love with you—not just as a passing crush, but with absolute devotion. Once this bond is formed, they will see you as the most important person in their entire world. Your desires, needs, and commands will always take priority over anyone else's, ensuring that your lovers remain forever loyal and eager to please. Congratulations, you now have the power to build the ultimate harem—one that will never leave you, never betray you, and always be ready for more!

Fetish Imprinting [600CP]
You now possess the intricate ability to weave your desired fetishes into the very essence of your partners through the act of sexual intimacy. These imprints are profound, altering aspects of their being at a soul-deep level. For magical girls, this can manifest in a myriad of ways: their transformation sequences might evolve to produce outfits that are far more revealing and erotically charged, perfectly aligning with your specific tastes. The very nature of their magical attacks could shift, their elemental affinities or offensive maneuvers becoming something that resonates with your personal preferences. Furthermore, you can subtly enhance their physical forms with alluring bestial features, such as graceful bat wings, playful cat ears, or a sensuous, fluffy tail, adding to their unique charm.

The progress of this imprinting process is visually represented by a heart-shaped cloth tattoo that gradually forms on their crotch. As your intimacy deepens over time, this tattoo will become increasingly defined, and once it reaches full completion, the fetish imprint will be permanently established within their being. However, due to the delicate and potentially disruptive nature of soul alteration, a partner can only undergo this imprinting process once per year, ensuring their well-being and the stability of the changes.

Starlight Girl:

Magical Transformation [Free for Starlight Girl/ 200CP for other]
As a magical girl centered universe , you now possess a stunning transformation scene where radiant light envelops you, accompanied by a captivating theme song playing in the background. During this transformation, your clothes and hair undergo a dramatic change, allowing you to choose any style and accessories you desire. Rest assured, no matter how elaborate or impractical your chosen attire may be, it will never impede your ability to engage in battle, ensuring both style and functionality as you harness your magical powers.

In this world, the attire of magical girls often aligns with what would be typical in a hentai-inspired setting. You may choose to wear a super-tight skin suit that showcases your entire figure or an outfit with minimal coverage that just barely conceals sensitive and private areas.

In addition to the aesthetic transformation, your body undergoes significant enhancements, achieving peak human levels of strength, agility, and speed. You've also gained an identity-jamming ability, which helps protect your secret identity while transformed. This ability scrambles any attempts to identify you while you're in your magical form, ensuring that your true identity remains concealed from prying eyes.

Mana [100 CP]
Congrats! Unlike those lesser magical girls who need wands, artifacts, or "special support" to fuel their magic, your power comes straight from your own internal mana pool. This gives you a much deeper connection to your magic, kinda like a witch or a high-level magician, making you way more self-sufficient and dangerous in a fight. Your spells hit harder, explode bigger, and generally cause way more magical mayhem than those of your peers—because why settle for cute little sparkles when you can be dropping magical nukes instead?

Mana Absorption [100 CP]
Sharing is caring, especially when it comes to mana! You now have the ability to absorb magical energy directly from others, as long as they're willing participants (which, let's be honest, they probably are). And if you manage to fulfill their deepest, darkest desires during the exchange, your absorption rate doubles, giving you a massive boost to your mana reserves. Not only does this make you unstoppable on the battlefield, but it also means you'll be developing some very... "close" relationships with those who want to help recharge you. Magic has never been this intimate!

Hand-to-Hand Combat [200 CP]
Forget wands and pointy hats, your magical girl style is all about getting up close and personal! You've traded spell circles for swift jabs and mystical kicks that pack a punch harder than a grumpy unicorn. Your fists fly with the grace of a caffeinated butterfly and the force of a toddler tantrum, each strike carrying a divine oomph that can tell magical shields to take a hike and give normally invincible baddies a serious owie. Blocking and dodging? You're like a hyperactive squirrel in a hurricane, making you a surprisingly tough cookie even when you're just using your own amazing self as the ultimate weapon – who needs a sword when you've got a spiritually charged roundhouse kick?

Being a Good Sex Slave [200 CP]
So, you're not just any old minion; you're the romance guru of the master-slave scene! You've got a knack for keeping things spicy but also super comfy, like a pair of well-worn (but ethically sourced!) shackles. You're the master of the feels, the whisperer of sweet nothings (and maybe some naughtier ones, depending on the day), making sure your master feels like the absolute top banana. Got a kink that's a little... out there? You're probably already two steps ahead with a feather boa and a twinkle in your eye. Whether it's planning a surprise tickle attack or just knowing when to bring the comfy slippers after a long day of ruling (or being ruled), you're the MVP of making sure the power dynamics come with plenty of cuddles and maybe some subway shenanigans.

Yandere Love [400 CP]
Forget subtle flirting, your idea of showing affection is more along the lines of a full-blown, glitter-infused obsession! When you set your sights on someone, it's less "swipe right" and more "know their blood type and favorite brand of socks." Stalking? Just enthusiastic observation! Breaking into their place for a naked cuddle? A surprise slumber party! Memorizing their schedule down to the minute? Efficient time management for future dates (that they may or may not know about yet)! And if your beloved ever tries to play hide-and-seek on the entire planet, don't worry, your super-stalker senses will kick in, because true love means always knowing where they are, probably within a five-mile radius and possibly peering through their window with a heart-shaped telescope.

Around the Block [400 CP]
Honey, you're not just a magical girl; you're a vintage magical girl, like a fine wine that's seen some serious spell-slinging and monster-mashing! You've been around the magical block so many times, you practically own the street. Battles? You've got more war stories than wrinkles (which, by the way, are probably just strategically placed power lines). Betrayals? You saw them coming from a mile away, probably while sipping tea and petting your battle-scarred familiar. Your magic isn't just powerful; it's got the wisdom of a thousand grumpy wizards, and your strategies are so cunning, they could outsmart a room full of riddling sphinxes. Enemies don't just fear you; they probably have nightmares about your legendary side-eye, and allies respect you so much they offer you the last slice of enchanted pizza. You're not just a master; you're the grand dame of magical mayhem!

Erotic Magical Girl [600 CP]
You gain a transformation with a lewder , more seductive twist. Your transformation sequence is highly stylized, incorporating lewd and provocative elements that emphasize your allure and mystique. The resulting form exudes an aura of a slut, beauty and power, with an outfit and abilities reflecting your tainted nature.

This transformation not only enhances your physical and magical even further capabilities with using your horyness as fuel so that even demon lords are challenge for you. but also amplifies your presence, drawing attention and admiration even from enemies. While this form showcases your form as a sluth , it also serves as a reminder of the corrupted strength that lies within.

Elemental Lord [600 CP]
You have become a master of one elemental force—fire, water, earth, or air. This mastery goes beyond mere control; you are an avatar of your chosen element, capable of summoning and wielding it with unparalleled power. Natural disasters of your element are yours to command, and your affinity with it grants you immunity to its effects.

Your elemental prowess also enhances your presence in NSFW universes, allowing you to use your chosen force for subtle influences, such as creating intoxicating environments or overwhelming displays of power. This position cements you as a force of nature, feared and revered in equal measure.

Other Powers:

Magical Girls in any universe have access to a wide variety of powers that blend traditional magic with combat-oriented abilities. Here are some of the types of powers they might possess. Each cost 200CP unless stated otherwise.

Forcefield [Free]
The magical girl's outfit, though elegant and often ornate, may lack direct defensive features, leaving them seemingly vulnerable. However, this is countered by an invisible yet impenetrable forcefield that surrounds their body. This barrier is a constant, subconscious shield that absorbs or mitigates incoming damage, from physical strikes to magical assaults. The forcefield grows stronger with the girl's focus and emotional intensity, sometimes shimmering with their chosen colors or symbols when struck. As long as they remain transformed, the forcefield is active, ensuring they can engage in battle with confidence and resilience.

Bind [Free]
The ability to cast binding spells gives the magical girl an edge in controlling and subduing foes. These spells manifest in various forms, from glowing chains of energy to enchanted ribbons that wrap around enemies, immobilizing them. The magic is versatile, allowing for precision targeting of specific limbs or creating wide nets to ensnare multiple adversaries. Beyond simple restraint, bindings can disrupt magical conduits, preventing enemies from casting spells or channeling power, rendering them helpless in the heat of battle.

Magic Missile [Free]
Channeling pure mystical energy, the magical girl can unleash destructive magic missiles at her enemies. These projectiles are highly adaptable, varying in size, shape, and power depending on the user's intent. They can home in on their targets with unerring accuracy, weave through obstacles, or split into multiple smaller blasts to strike multiple foes. The color and energy signature of the missiles reflect the magical girl's theme, creating a visual spectacle as they rain devastation upon their enemies.

Doppelganger
This power allows the magical girl to conjure a weakened clone of herself, possessing roughly half of her power. The doppelganger is an invaluable ally, acting as a distraction in combat, assisting with tasks, or filling in for the magical girl in her civilian life. While not as powerful as the original, the doppelganger shares her agility, knowledge, and basic abilities, creating a seamless extension of her presence. This ability allows for strategic misdirection, doubling the magical girl's effectiveness in both combat and day-to-day responsibilities.

Dimension Shoots
You now possess the ability to snipe any target of your choosing with projectiles you shoot, that can turn invisible, capable of traveling through dimensions and through all objects until they reach their intended target. These projectiles can inflict damage upon either the physical body or the soul of the target, providing you with unparalleled precision and lethality.

Dimensional Jump
Whenever you slash into the air, you can now create portals that allow you to travel to places you have been before. There is no limit to how far you can travel with this ability, granting you unparalleled mobility and the power to instantly traverse vast distances.

Dust magic
You now possess the ability to create dust shields using particles around you, forming strong barriers that are resistant to all forms of magical attacks. These shields act as formidable defenses, capable of withstanding powerful mystical assaults and providing you with a reliable protection against supernatural threats.

Poison Specialize
You now have the ability to conjure up various forms of poison, which you can use for different purposes depending on your needs. Whether you aim to heal yourself and your allies with restorative toxins or to kill your opponents with deadly venom. You can also create poisons that paralyze, sedate, or weaken enemies magical abilities , as well as antidotes and elixirs that mend wounds and boost vitality. This skill provides you with a powerful toolset for both combat and support roles.

Possession
You now have the ability to possess someone through any medium of your choice, allowing you to control their actions as you see fit. Whether it's through a phone call, the internet, a VHS tape, or any other type of media, you can infiltrate their mind and body.

Memory Alterations
You now possess the ability to alter memories with precision and subtlety. Initially, you can modify or erase small fragments of memories, such as specific conversations or minor events, making them seem as if they never happened. As your skill develops, you will be able to implant new memories, reshape existing ones, and even create complex and believable false narratives in someone's mind.

Precognition
You now have the ability to look 10 seconds into the future for every battle. This precognition allows you to see where your enemies will be on the battlefield, making their movements predictable and easier to counter. With this foresight, you can anticipate attacks, dodge incoming strikes, and position yourself strategically to gain the upper hand.

Reading and Writing
You now possess a magical book that grants you the ability to copy and learn any technique you have ever seen. However, the more complicated a technique is, the more difficult the requirements will be to master it. Additionally, if a technique requires other prerequisite techniques, those will not be automatically added to the book. You will need to acquire and master those prerequisites through other means before you can fully utilize the advanced technique.

Slowdown
You now possess the ability to slow down time within a radius of 300 meters around you. This power allows you to delay the reactions of everyone within this range by 5 seconds. This means that while you perceive time at its normal speed, everyone else around you experiences a delay in their ability to react to events or changes in their environment.

Tracking
You have gained the magical ability to track anyone on the mortal plane as long as you possess their scent. With this power, you can locate your target anywhere on the same planet, regardless of their location or attempts to conceal themselves. This tracking ability extends across vast distances and through various environments, allowing you to pursue individuals with precision and persistence.

Upgrade
You now possess the ability to temporarily boost all of your abilities by 1.5 times their normal effectiveness. This boost is repeatable and stackable to yourself, and can be applied to yourself every 10 seconds allowing you to enhance your capabilities multiple times in quick succession. However, there is a limit to how many times you can stack this enhancement: currently, your limit is 10 stacks.

Dream Manipulation
The magical girl can enter and manipulate dreams, stepping into the subconscious of others. Within this dream realm, she can plant ideas, inspire courage, or unravel the fears of her allies. For enemies, she can sow confusion or create nightmarish landscapes, weakening their resolve. This power is as much a tool of psychological warfare as it is a method of providing comfort and guidance, making the magical girl a guardian of both waking and sleeping worlds.

Wind Rush
Harnessing the boundless power of the wind, you command the skies with an unmatched ferocity. Your magic conjures fierce, tornado-like currents capable of sweeping enemies off their feet, scattering their formations, and redirecting attacks with gale-force precision. In its defensive form, Wind Rush creates a vortex barrier that deflects incoming projectiles and slows advancing foes, granting you and your allies valuable breathing room. When you focus your power offensively, the tempest you generate can tear through even the sturdiest defenses, rendering your enemies helpless in the face of your wind’s unrelenting might.
