Welcome Jumper, to a land of debauchery; to a land ravaged by conflict, to a land of incredible inequality. Humanity fell, and rose again, stronger and stranger than ever. Welcome, jumper, to…

For the next ten years, you will live in the alternate universe of r/futadomworld and the setting of the excellent game Futadom World: Binding Sim by u/Xalimata, a place where a new gender of futas has dramatically altered the way most of the world works. If you're unfamiliar with the setting, here are a few pointers:

Futa cum contains binding chemicals, which have a variety of differing effects on men and women:

For men, they are addictive and reduce IQ, making any bound male into a docile, easily manipulated, submissive sex-addict. Each male and each futa is different, and reactions can range from becoming the perfect, adoring trophy-partner to becoming a drooling, sex-addled husk.

For women, fertility is dramatically increased, bodily fluids like lactation and genital wetness increase to incredible levels, and IQ is reduced dramatically. However, unlike males, these effects are not permanent, and will fade with time.

Of course, for futas, there are no effects whatsoever.

If you're going to spend your life here, you might want this: 1000 Choice Points

Gender

You may choose your gender freely, and your choice will inform your origin later.

Male:

You are a male, a second class citizen in the new world. If you're lucky, a loving futa might make you her own. If you're unlucky… well… let's just hope it doesn't come to that.

Female:

Increasingly an oddity in this world, females are rare but often prized for their… unique reactions to futa cum, and are commonly kept as livestock and breeders. Still, it's not out of the ordinary to see a female housewife or mother, even now.

Futa: (200 CP):

You are a futa, the dominant people of this world. You have rights far in excess of anyone else in this world, and an entire religion has sprung up justifying and glorifying your people's dominance.

Age

Choose any age between 14 and 40, at your discretion. Should you be underage, you will receive a family for free in the companion section.

Location

You may choose your location freely from anywhere in the Futa Empire.

Futas may receive 200 CP to start outside the Futa Empire and somewhere in the Free Male States. All others must pay 200 CP to do so.

Origins:

Each gender may choose between two origins appropriate for their particular situation.

Male Origins:

Unbound:

You're an unbound male, a hot commodity in the Futa Empire. You'll have horny futas eager to bind you from here to the other end of the empire. I hope you brought condoms.

Male Independence Faction:
You're having none of this! As a member of the underground, radical male rights organization, the Male Independence Faction, you're a part of a highly secretive terrorist organization bent on the destruction of the Futa Empire. Male Rights Now!

Female Origins:

Free Woman:
Women are a rather uncommon sight these days, as most are kept as dairy and breeding fodder. You however, are an exception. You're one of the significant minority of women living a free life.

Dairy Cow:
You're one of the majority of women in this world, kept perpetually hooked on futa cum, locked up and more often than not knocked up as well, used for breeding and and milk.

Futa Origins:

Citizen:
You're a proud citizen of the Futa Empire! At the start of the jump, you will have no bound males to your name. Better get busy!

MREA:
You're a member of the Male Rights Enforcement Agency. A secret police force dedicated to upholding the rights and privileges afforded to males in the Futa Empire. Of course, in practice, this far more closely resembles ensuring the oppression of males at the hands of benevolent, if ultimately dictatorial, futas.

Perks:

Undiscounted:

Have You Heard About The Cat That Surfs?: 0 CP
You have heard about the cat that surfs.

Public Use: 0/100 CP

This is a world debauched by sex, and as such sexuality tends to be extremely open and unashamed. People will flirt, grope, and even have sex publically and openly. All of it is considered entirely normal. All origins and genders receive this normalization free for the duration of the jump.

However, for a one-time cost of 100 CP, this cultural quirk can be extended to future jumps. This won't have an immediate effect, but you'll find that in future jumps those around you for extended periods of time will gradually become more open about their sexuality, eventually capping off at what would be considered normal for futadomworld. Additionally, any cultures, religions, societies, or nations you found can similarly be open about sex and sexuality, regardless of where they originate. This effect can be toggled on and off, and the open sexuality cap can be adjusted as you desire for any organizations or societies you use with this perk, although it cannot exceed Futadom World's.

On and On and On: 0/150 CP

This is a porn jump, after all. In the real world, most people would be exhausted and entirely sexed out after a few times a day. Not here. You, and those around you, have an absolutely voracious sexual appetite. While you'll never need to have sex if you don't want to, you could have sex all day, every day, and never get sore, chafe, tire, or even get fed up with the experience. Sex will never be boring, never lose its charm, never grow mundane, and never ever cause any unwanted physical issues. These "porn physics" additionally may apply to anyone who spends regular contact with you, and in future jumps any members of religions, nations, cultures, or societies you found can similarly receive these benefits. This can be toggled on and off at will.

This perk is free for all origins and genders for the duration of this jump, and may be purchased for future jumps at a cost of 150 CP.

Total Immunity: 0/300/600 CP

Well this is… Unusual. You're extremely resistant to all but the mild aphrodisiac effects of futa cum. You're absolutely a medical anomaly and one that certainly threatens the legitimacy of the Futa Empire. While this is very useful, be careful who finds out. For an additional 300 CP this can be upgraded to total immunity.

In future jumps, you'll find yourself similarly resistant to any unwanted effects of similar mind-altering chemicals, including drugs and alcohol, or totally immune to said effects if you bought the upgraded version.

Futas receive this perk free for the duration of this jump, but will still need to spend 600 CP if they wish to retain the mind-altering chemical immunity in future jumps.

More like In-Your-Endo: 50 CP
This is a world of, if nothing else, absolutely gratuitous innuendo and sexual euphemism. With this perk, you can pun with the best of them. You will always have an absolutely endless supply of sexual humour and bad jokes for any situation. This does nothing to make it less gratuitous.

Drinking is magic!: 100 CP
You can really hold your liquor! You're a heavy drinker and it takes a lot to get the better of you.

Alternatively, you can choose to be a terrible lightweight, but always get drunk in a cute, harmless way that people find endearing rather than gross or obnoxious. If you choose this version, there will always be someone on hand to help you out once you're drunk.

Also this makes you better at oral sex for some reason.

Male Perks:

Trappy: 100 CP
In this world, masculinity is a rarity. The males considered most attractive are often those considered cutest and most feminine. Thankfully, you're most certainly that. This perk means that any alt-form you take can, at your behest, bear an adorable, feminine cuteness that can make even the ugliest ogre something people want to just sweep off their feet.

Cross-Dressing Master: 200 CP
It's a male's job to sit there and look pretty, and damn if you aren't good at your job. You always know just what to wear, just how to wear it, and just how to flaunt it. No matter what, you'll always be able to draw eyes just from how incredibly you pull off just about anything you choose to wear. In addition, in cultures that have taboos regarding cross-dressing, people seem far more lenient whenever you're involved. Look cute enough and just about anyone would be willing to look the other way.

I am a Dick Palace: 300 CP
There's no other way to put this Jumper, you're a damn good lay. Whenever you're on bottom during sex, you know just how to please your partner in such a way as to make them feel like they must have wandered into some dionysian paradise. At will, you could make your partners cum in less than a minute if you so chose.

Unbound Male Specific Perks:

Batting Eyelashes: 100 CP
You're an expert at making yourself look dumber than you really are. This may not seem like much, but people always tend to underestimate just how dangerous, powerful, or skilled you really are. Right up until it's too late. You may toggle this effect on and off as you see fit.

The Good Ones: 300 CP
You're lucky, Jumper. You just never seem to attract those terrible mistresses they talk about on the news. The people interested in you just always seem to be genuinely sweet, caring people. At least deep down. On the surface they might still be rough, sure, but even just a few brief conversations will lay bare a soft, genuine person ready and eager to give you a happy life.

The Flower of the Goddess: 600 CP
Males are the Flower of the Goddess's seed and must be protected from any who seek to harm them! In nearly any situation, people will show an extreme reluctance to harm you directly. Capture you, kidnap you, lock you away, certainly, but people just tend to instinctively see you as someone who should be protected and loved at any cost. Even the cruelest villain would feel a pang of guilt at seeing tears streaming down your face.

Male Independence Faction Specific Perks:

Stronger Than You Seem: 100 CP
Males are usually regarded as the weakest gender, but you're most definitely an exception to that rule. In any setting you find yourself in, you tend to be at least as physically strong as the baseline normal for that setting, even if that means a normal human competing on the level of gods.

Underground Organizer: 300 CP
You're a born collaborator. You know exactly how to manage and organize groups that would be otherwise illegal in your setting in such a way as to spread support, get plenty of members, and have multiple fallback plans, all without alerting authorities.

Isolated Cells: 600 CP
Nobody knows exactly how far the MIF spreads, how many members it has, and how dangerous they really are. This is by design. You're a genius at damage control, and any movements you start or participate in will always find themselves incredibly difficult to infiltrate. Your movements will always be easy to conceal, and espionage carried out against you will inevitably come back incomplete at best.

Female Perks:

Surprise!: 100 CP

People always seem to make the wrong assumption about you! No, you don't actually have a dick. Yes, you do actually have a degree. Yes, you are fluent in five languages. At first this might be tiring, but you've found ways to bend this to your advantage. You're always able to keep the misinformation flowing, and you're always finding ways of using that to get a leg up on just about any situation you find yourself in.

2nd Class: 200 CP

Women don't have the same rights and privileges as futas, but at least they're not males. No matter what situation you find yourself in, you will never be the bottom rung of the ladder. You will never have it the worst of anybody. In any social hierarchy you find yourself in, events will always conspire to keep you at least squarely in the middle.

Still Here: 300 CP

You didn't forget about us, did you? Despite everything, women are still here. With this perk, you will find any group you belong to is far more resistant than you would expect. While things might change, your people will always find a way to remain relevant, no matter how far from the spotlight you become.

Free Woman Specific Perks:

Perpetually Competent: 100 CP

You never seem quite entirely out of your depth. No matter where you are, you always have the basic knowledge and skills required to get by and survive. This isn't anything earth shattering, but you'll always make rent, always pay your bills, and you'll never burn down your apartment while trying to make dinner.

Family Time: 300 CP

Family is everything, and you've taken that to heart! So long as you genuinely care for your family, in any setting they always seem an engaged and important part of your life. No matter where you are, what you're doing, your family will be cheering you on, helping you out, and just generally giving it their all to make sure you have a good life. In addition, your family always seems just that littlest bit better at working out issues, finding common ground, and maintaining healthy relationships with each other. No matter what, your family will always seem to be good at staying friends.

This perk can be toggled on and off.

Switch: 600 CP

You're flexible, in ways both literal and figurative. You're excellent at adapting to just about any situation, and you're a damn quick learner. You're always able to quickly and painlessly figure out anything you need to do not just to survive, but to thrive. This also applies to any sexual situations you find yourself in. You're always able to figure out just how to slip into any sexual role you find yourself in. And, of course, you're double jointed. Just as a cherry on top.

Dairy Cow Specific Perks:

Too Dumb to Care: 100 CP

Sure, as a dairy cow your brain is pretty well fucked out of your skull you're so hopped up on futa cum, but who cares? You're having fun! This perk allows you to always find a bright side to just about any situation you find yourself in. No matter what, you'll never give in to despair, never become so frustrated you give up. After all, just being alive is fun! This is so much fun!

Delicious and Refreshing: 300 CP

Any excretions or bodily fluids you release from your body are staggeringly delicious, extremely healthy, and entirely safe to eat in any situation. They also smell surprisingly pleasant. Your cum, your breastmilk, your blood, and just about anything else you can think of is affected. If you really wanted to, you could use this to make it so that your shit quite literally does not stink, though that's not the intended effect.

Endless Supply: 600 CP

Your body is, somehow, able to break every known law of thermodynamics and just… produce. Any fluid or excretion covered by Delicious and Refreshing can now be produced at literally impossible rates. You can now produce more calories than you intake my orders of magnitude, with no negative effects to your health whatsoever. At absolute maximum output, you are able to excrete or lactate at a rate of roughly one gallon every half hour, while during sexual climax you can actually triple that number.

Futa Perks:

Binding Fluids: 100 CP

Your sexual fluids now contain binding chemicals, meaning that anyone who absorbs them, either orally, analy, or vaginaly, will become naturally more subservient, obedient, and addicted not just to your fluids but to you in particular. While this is the norm for futa, you may purchase any of the following effects to modify your cum. You may purchase binding fluids as a male or female, but they will be disabled during this jump. With a second purchase, you may receive them early.

Binding Fluid Customization:

If you've taken the Binding Fluids perk, you may choose any of the following subperks to affect them. Futas may receive two of these for free, but all other origins must pay up front. All binding fluid subperks cost 50 CP.

Brain Food:

Unlike most binding fluids, your cum does not seem to cause any significant mental degradation. While your cum causes people to become addicted to serving you, they don't necessarily lose any of their mental acuity and can still think and perform at top condition. For a second purchase, those bound by you will actually find themselves becoming measurably smarter.

Service In All Its Forms:

Those you have bound will not find themselves necessarily wanting to submit to you, but to make you happy. If that means protecting you, working for you, or even domming you, they're more than capable and more than willing to oblige. So long as they get to see a smile on your face, they're more than happy. For a second purchase, those bound by you will be able to psychically anticipate your needs up to a day beforehand and will instinctively prepare accordingly.

Universal Effectiveness:

Your cum doesn't just bind males and females, but futas as well. In future jumps you'll find that your cum's effects work even on those who should be resistant or even totally immune to such effects will face the full brunt of your cum's alterations. For a second purchase, your cum can even affect deities and other entities who should be totally immune to physical alteration.

Gastric Realignment:

While some experience this when bound, those you bind will experience it universally. Anyone you bind will find themselves able to survive and even thrive on nothing but your cum, if given anally or orally. While they will still be capable of eating food, they will receive no nutrition from it. For a second purchase, those bound by you will be able to receive nutrition either by eating or through your cum.

Protein Shake:

Those you bind will find themselves becoming increasingly physically fit, losing excess weight and gaining muscle in its place. For a second purchase, those you bind will become almost inhumanly strong.

Diet Drink:

Those you bind will find it much easier to reach and desired body shape. For a second purchase, those you bind will slowly develop into their idea body shape regardless of their health habits. For a third purchase, they grow into whatever body shape you desire, rather than their ideal.

Beauty Cream:

Those you bind will naturally become more attractive. While this won't turn an ugly person beautiful, it definitely will enhance and focus any attractive features they already have. With a second purchase, those you bind will gradually become stunningly beautiful, enhancing their existing features in ways that you in particular find especially attractive.

Estrogen Supplements:

Those you bind will find themselves increasingly feminized, becoming more and more elegant and feminine over time. For a second purchase, they may instead slowly take on the appearance of any gender you are attracted to.

Total Obsession:

While those you bind will always find themselves naturally drawn to you, this purchase allows you to push that over and into a complete obsession with you, with them constantly dwelling on how they can make your life better. With a second purchase, those you bind will be unable to think of you as anything less than a literal deity who must be served by anyone and everyone.

Health Potion:

Those you bind will find themselves healthier, happier, and more stable than they were before. With a second purchase, any mental health issues they suffer will practically dissipate, and they will be almost inhumanly hale, able to heal from wounds within months.

Skilled Subs:

By purchasing this, you'll find those you bind are able to learn to skills markedly quickly. While they may not necessarily be smarter, those bound by you will be able to pick up just about any skill you point them to. For a second purchase, their capacity to pick up new skills will border on the inhuman, and they will never fall out of practice with disuse.

Nonstandard Base:

Your binding chemicals are, uniquely, not just present in your cum. For one purchase, they are now present in one other bodily fluid or excretion. For a second purchase, they are present in any of your bodily fluids or excretions.

Pathogen Makeup:

Those bound by you will find that they themselves gain any and all of your binding fluid subperks. And those they bind will similarly have the same subperks. On and on, in a pyramid all leading up to you.

Citizen Specific Perks:

Seductive Sweetness: 100 CP

Futas are known for being shockingly attractive, but you go beyond this. You move with a seductive air that reeks of sex, that oozes sensuality, that makes people go week at the knees. While no one is going to fall in love at first sight, you're able to make most anyone question their sexuality.

Manipulative Slut: 300 CP

You know exactly how to get your way without ever lifting a finger. So long as someone is even remotely attracted to you, you can play them like a fiddle. This needn't be malicious, as you could use this for positive reasons as well, but you naturally know just how to act and speak, just how to move and just what to say and when, so that your mark does just about whatever you want them to. While this does have its limits, only those with incredible social awareness would ever be able to piece together that you've been twisting them for your own aims.

Justified Rule: 600 CP

Whenever you are in a position of power over others, be it explicit or implicit, those under your power instinctively will try to justify your position. Perhaps you deserve it because of your achievements, or your hard work, or because you're good to them, or smart, or because you're just so damn pretty. Whatever the reason, the longer people think of you that way the harder it will be to shake. Raise a family and your children will defer to you for the rest of their lives. Raise an empire, and earn a place as an immortal god-queen.

MREA Specific Perks:

Air of Authority: 100 CP

Futas are on top for a reason, and you are a walking embodiment of that reason. Everyone around you instinctively recognizes you as someone to be respected and feared in equal measure, and you know exactly how to put your intimidating aura to good use.

Strength of the Goddess: 300 CP

Futas are strong. Almost unnaturally so. And you are almost unnaturally strong even for a futa. A single punch from you is nearly able to crack solid concrete. Best learn your strength fast, if you don't want to hurt anyone.

Religiosity: 600 CP

The MREA is part police-force, part special agency, and part religious inquisition. This perk gives you all the tools and knowledge to manipulate theology and mythology to your advantage, helping you set up any cults, philosophies, or other religious or ideological institutions you desire. While this alone won't necessarily mean you can set yourself up as a god to be worshipped, it's a damn good start for the aspiring deity.

Items:

Undiscounted:

The Cat that Surfs: 50 CP

Wait, you own the cat that surfs? Well he's not all he's cracked up to be. He's a bit of a fat, lazy bastard and he likes to bite. He can barely surf either. At least he's a good conversation piece? Comes with a free, self-cleaning litter box and an endless bag of mid-range cat food.

Endless Contraceptives: 50 CP

It wouldn't be a lewd jump without the requisite infinite supply of mediocre contraceptives. Go wild kid. Have as much fun as you want. This pack contains 30 mid-range condoms, 20 dental dams, 5 morning after pills, and a cheap pair of fluffy pink handcuffs, and refreshes each week.

Aftercare Kit: 50 CP

A high-quality selection of numbing lotions, ointments, and other tools for post-sex care. Respawns after one week.

Futa-Built condoms: 50 CP

Futas can cum a lot. You know. A lot. Thankfully, these industrial strength condoms can handle anything you throw at them. Anything. With an upper capacity of a cubic mile of liquid volume, you may never need to clean up again. Good luck finding a place to dispose of them though. This pack contains 10 condoms, and refreshes each week.

Self-Altering Outfit: 50 CP

This cute set of clothes will shapeshift depending on your size, shape, appearance, style, and where you go. Hanging out at home? They'll shift into something cute and casual. Going to work? They'll look smart and professional. Going clubbing? They'll look just right for the occasion. This outfit is always sparklingly clean, well pressed, and perfectly tailored to you no matter what form you take. In addition, a small SEP field will ensure that no one ever questions the shifting clothes. For whatever reason though, the outfit refuses to have pants. Only ever skirts, dresses, or robes. If damaged or destroyed, it will respawn in your warehouse after one week.

Tear-Proof Wardrobe: 100 CP

Considering a jumper's lifestyle, how easy is it to go out and get a new set of clothes every time they get torn off by some ferocious opponent, or riled up lover? This wardrobe can help. First off, the wardrobe is able to change appearance to fit any room's aesthetic, no matter how exotic. But far more importantly, any clothes stored within it will reappear, clean and fresh as they day they were made, should they be destroyed or damaged after being removed. The wardrobe itself with reform after one day if it is destroyed. Great for making sure that those cute, mundane outfits you purchase in-jump will always be with you!

Male Items:

Perfect Makeup: 100 CP

Never underestimate a good makeup kit. This palette contains everything you could ever want. Everything. It always blends perfectly with your skin tone, and comes with as many brushes, sponges, and other tools as you could possibly ever need. If lost, damaged, destroyed, or depleted, it respawns after a week.

Dick For Dummies, Volumes 1 - 69: 200 CP

A veritable library on how to best serve and care for your mistress. Chapter upon chapter of how to best please a dick, how to bottom in such a way as to make someone cum quickly and easily, and entire volumes on how to dress, act, move, and talk in order to be seductive, cute, alluring, and just the best partner you can be. But that's not all. The mere act of reading these texts will subconsciously affect the reader, causing them to become more submissive and feminized. If lost or damaged, they will respawn after a week.

Red Light: 300 CP

No means no, and thanks to this little tool you can enforce that. This small, red, handheld lantern can fit inside a pocket with little trouble, and when turned on, no one will ever make a sexual advance on you, under any circumstance. Even if you're in the middle of sex, flipping the switch on this will mean your partner will immediately back off and give you as much space as you need. Never worry about pushy futas again! If lost or damaged, it will respawn after a week.

Unbound Items:

Something Pretty: 100 CP

Well aren't you just the cutest thing? Let's get you something nice. This item can take the form of any kind of jewelry you like, be it earrings, a locket, rings, bangles, or something else entirely, although it's always somewhat understated. However, whenever worn, this pretty little thing will cause people to be deeply enamoured of you. Free drinks, a little hand across the street, a seat on the metro, small gestures abound. If lost or damaged, it will respawn after a week.

Salacious Mirror: 300 CP

Getting in shape, taking care of your body, dealing with everything you need to in order to be the sexiest little thing you can be, it's so much work, isn't it? However, by looking into this mirror you'll immediately know exactly what you need to do in order to make yourself look flawless, and you'll always have the motivation to do it. This also makes any actions you need to take, be they exercise, makeup work, or any other form of bodily maintenance, as quick and easy as it can possibly be, with no hiccups or issues along the way.

Sex Bike: 600 CP

This bizarre little exercise device can have a person strapped inside, enabling them to act as a source of encouragement for anyone using the machine. Popular in certain futa communities, this bike not only is guaranteed to provide a pleasurable experience for everyone involved, but to burn more calories and build more muscle than any mundane exercise machine ever could.

MIF Items:

Coat of Hidden Pockets: 100 CP

A smuggler's dream. This oversized jacket, while hardly attractive, is absolutely covered in pockets. Pockets which people just never seem to check. No matter what sort of trouble you get into, people will just always forget to look quite as closely as they should.

Manifestos: 300 CP

These pamphlets espouse your own personal beliefs, be they in-line with the MIF, the Futa Empire, or something else entirely. But regardless of what they espouse, they're shockingly well written and incredibly convincing. Even your most diehard opponents will be left scratching their heads for a very, very long time after giving these a quick readthrough.

Holdout Holster: 600 CP

This holster fits easily on a hip or thigh, and for whatever reason seems virtually undetectable at a distance. No matter how ridiculous the size of the weapon contained within, it always manages to slim down just enough to squeeze into the thing, and let you keep yourself armed even in the most tightly controlled areas.

Female Items:

Modern Medicine: 100 CP

It's been many, many years since the dawn of the Futa Empire. In that time, technology, especially pharmacological technology, has advanced considerably. This little pill bottle is a perfect example of the progress the Empire has brought humanity. Just a few tablets can cure most any ailments you suffer. While any major diseases will still need proper medical treatment, you can rest easy knowing you'll never suffer the flu again!

Hookup App: 200 CP

This app is universally compatible with any mobile device or similar tool you may pick up over the course of your chain. When activated, it will list any and all people within a ten mile radius who you are sexually compatible with, and will give you detailed information on everyone it detects, from fetishes to favorite food. With the press of a button, it can also ensure that you bump into them in the perfect meet-cute.

Breast Pumps: 300 CP

While these might look like any mundane breast pumps, these puppies have a little magic in them. Whenever you use these pumps, you'll find that any fluid contained within, provided it came from your body, has some mild, positive effects when consumed. These effects differ depending on your state of mind when you were using the pumps. If aroused, they'll act as an aphrodisiac. If you were relaxed, anyone drinking these fluids will calm down and release all their tension. Even negative emotions can lead to positive effects, such as using the pumps while angry meaning creating an excellent all-natural energy drink!

Free Woman Items:

Formal Wear: 100 CP

This sharp dress gives off a constant air of authority and respect, and receives all the same benefits of the Self-Altering Outfit. However, in addition to the mild SEP field that the outfit gives off, the Formal Wear causes anyone who looks at its wearer to subconsciously treat them with respect and as an authority, trusting their advice and suggestions above and beyond what they normally would. This compounds with any similar effects, meaning that with enough subservience-boosters you could have people absolutely obsessing over your words. Perfect for starting cults.

Day Planner: 300 CP

You're a busy woman, and busy women need to stay organized. Thankfully, this little tool can help you with that. By writing down any appointment or scheduled event into this little personal calendar, that event is far more likely to go in your favor. Job interview? You're all but guaranteed to get it. Date? You're sure to have a fantastic time. While this can't change the nature of anyone involved in the events written, it can manipulate events while you're there. So that date might be a dumbass either way, but at least this way you'll be sure that the dinner is excellent.

Lover's Collar: 600 CP

When wrapped around someone's neck, this collar causes them to become gradually more and more attracted to, and enamoured of, you. It's a slow process at the best of times, but over the course of a few months any friend who regularly wears it will find themselves crushing on you. Use it as a slave collar, and even the most ardent and rebellious individuals will begin questioning their resistance to you.

Dairy Cow Items:

More Cowbell: 100 CP

What's a dairy cow without a cute gettup? This little cowbell collar is sure to show what an adorable milk-slut you are. When worn, you'll find that you always seem to be the centre of attention, and always in a way you find pleasant. In addition, you never seem to end up in any physically uncomfortable positions. Alternatively, this item can take the form of a pair of false cow ears and horns, or a cow tail butt-plug.

Milking Machine: 300 CP

This industrial monster has been built for one purpose: Get as much fluid as possible, while keeping those inside it as comfortable as possible. The specifics of its design and appearance are up to you, but it will always be a massive, unwieldy thing, no smaller than a forklift. It can be designed to focus on extracting anything affected by the Delicious and Refreshing perk, and retrofitted for something else on the fly quite easily. Using it is an all-consuming process, completely drawing your attention in a constant, mind-shattering orgasm that can quintuple your natural output.

Birthing Bed: 600 CP

Dairy Cows aren't just there for the dairy. This item will help cover the breeding aspect of your job. A complex contraption, similar in size to the Milking Machine, this all-in-one medical marval will take care of any and all pregnancy related medical needs quickly and painlessly. Everything from routine checkups to complicated births are made not merely easy, but extremely sexually pleasurable by this automatic midwife!

Futa Items:

Festival Supplies: 100 CP
Happy Goddess Day, Jumper! This box will contain everything you need to make any festival, holiday, or other major public event you attend just the best ever! Just open it up and reach inside! You'll always pull out just what you were looking for, be that a festive wreath or a bottle of lube!

Pumping Irons: 200 CP
Futas are known for their incredible strength, and with these you'll be well on your way above and beyond this. While visually no different from any other training weights, anyone using these regularly will find training tires them considerably less than it should, and that they grow muscle and lose weight much faster than normal. Over time, their stamina will rapidly increase to well beyond superhuman levels.

Mommy's Money: 300 CP
You already know what this is. With this, any jump you enter will have a small fortune waiting for you. Nothing so insane as to be world-shaping, but more than enough to completely dwarf the average citizen's income.

Citizen Items:

Employment Ticket: 100 CP
This slip of paper will get you where you need to go. Should you ever find yourself down on your luck, this small note will give you instructions to someplace nearby hiring. It'll never be a dream job, but it'll always be decent work and more than enough to live off of. You'll always have a safetynet.

Bustling Business: 300 CP
You've always wanted to be an entrepreneur, right? Well now you are! Be it a bar, a farm, a workshop, or a store, this little business will always be there for you. It might be struggling a bit, but you'll always manage to keep it from going under, even if only barely. With a little time and elbow grease, the capitalist dream is within your reach!

Quality Content: 600 CP
This unassuming thumb drive contains something worth more than gold. Any time you open it, its files will contain something new; a game, or a film, or a text file, or something else entirely, guaranteed not merely to cater to your tastes but to be so good as to almost shape them. Maybe you'll find a stunningly well-written lewd game which hits almost all of your favored fetishes. Maybe a book which totally changes your perspective on things. Maybe a weird, niche show which introduces you to a new and exciting hobby! Never underestimate the power of a good work of art.

MREA Items:

Restraints: 100 CP

Any profession has the tools of its trade, and these are yours. A good set of handcuffs, some strong rope, and all the equipment you need for some more… exotic setups as well. Not only that, but you'll find that while getting someone into these restraints might be a bit of a challenge initially, once they're secured, these restraints are completely inescapable. An undead god from beyond the farthest stars will still find themselves at the mercy of your fluffy pink handcuffs. Only you can choose to let someone loose once captured.

Living Furniture: 300 CP

Slaves are odd things. So needy, so whiny. Better to just make them what they are, what they were meant to be: Something pretty to look at, a tool to use, a toy to play with, but nothing more. With this, you'll be given all the tools necessary to make a slave nothing more than an object. Latex sheets, perfectly molded scaffolding, all perfectly easy to arrange to turn a restrained plaything into whatever it is you want, be it a footstool, a sex doll, or almost any other form of furniture or common object you can think of. And once inside, you'll never need to let them out. A slave built into your furniture could stay bound and unfed, squirming alone in the dark for years at a time, and suffer no physical or mental degradation upon release.

Altered Textbooks: 600 CP

This conservatively sized, yet infinite bookshelf contains sets of textbooks on virtually any subject you could imagine being taught in a school. From basic maths to arcane alchemical ritualism to flawless anal sex techniques, these books will always give an extremely high-quality grounding in their subject matter. What's the catch? Well woven into each and every one is subtle, almost magical propaganda supporting the ideology or belief structure of your choice. Anyone relying on these books for educational purposes will find their beliefs shift slowly but steadily as they study, becoming more and more in line with your own.

Companions:

Best Futas Forever: 50 CP/ 200 CP

Design or import a companion of your choice. They receive a free origin of your choice, along with 600 CP to spend on perks and items. Each companion you create or import costs 50 CP, or you may pay 200 CP in order to bring all eight companions with you.

Canon Companion: 100 CP

Did you find your dream girl has a dick? For 100 CP, any of the characters (even relatively minor or background characters) from Futadom World: Binding Sim will come with you on your jumpchain adventures! Of course, you'll need to convince them to come with you first.

Drawbacks:

You may take as many drawbacks as you care to!

Long Haul: +50(+) CP

Looking for a longer stay? Looks like you're stuck here for a while longer. For a benefit of 50 CP per decade, you can stay here for up to a century longer than normal, maxing out at +500 CP.

Stutter: +100 CP

You have a minor speech impediment, like a stutter or a lisp. It's not enough to be a major deal in your life, but it'll always be a little embarrassing.

Scarred: +100 CP

Whether by an accident or something more sinister, you've been visibly, physically scarred in a way that significantly impacts your life. It might not necessarily detract from your beauty, but it'll always be a major topic of conversation, and it'll always be a little distracting for anyone you're with. Tragic backstory optional.

Yes, I've heard about the damn cat: +100 CP

People seem to get more than a little repetitive around you. Expect to hear about the same subjects long after the joke's worn off.

Amputee: +200(+) CP

You've lost at least one limb in your life, receiving an additional 200 CP for each limb you sacrifice. During this jump, any ability you previously had to heal it or entirely replace it with cybernetics or some other augment. While prosthetics do exist in this world, it'll always be awkward, inelegant, and have no real sense of touch.

Sexually Impaired: +300 CP

You struggle to some degree with some sort of sexual impairment which makes sex much more difficult. While still possible, sex will always be a crapshoot for you. Here's hoping you can make it in a world like this.

Yandere: +400 CP

Someone's taken a liking to you. Someone with connections. Unfortunately, she doesn't seem to know how to take no for an answer, and from the way she talks about you it sounds like happily ever after might get sour quick if she has her way. She's smart, subtle and well connected enough that she'll be able to manipulate situations to bring you closer together. And should you upset her, those connections could prove a massive obstacle in your life. Good luck.

Institutional Inefficiency:+500 CP

In a nation as large as the Futa Empire, there's bound to be some stifling bureaucracy, but this is just ridiculous. Wherever you go, from corporate towns to temple-cities to the simplest suburbs, you'll find yourself forced to spend a frankly inordinate time filling out paperwork, managing ID cards, and otherwise slamming your head against a truly arcane bureaucratic system.

Author Inconsistency: +500 CP

Sometimes things turn out beautiful. The world is full of distinct and interesting people, beautiful vistas, and gorgeously sexy people. Other times? Less so. With this drawback, you'll find that you seem to have a 50/50 chance for your experiences with something to be the former, or the be something decidedly blander, more awkward, or downright poorly written.

Hunted: +600 CP

Some major faction of this world, such as the Temple of the Goddess, the MREA, or the MIF has decided that you're a problem. A problem they'll need to dispose of. You're going to be hunted down by some of the most dangerous radicals in the world. Good luck.

Powerless: +800 CP

For the duration of the jump, you'll lose access to your warehouse any powers you received from other jumps. Minor boosts to things like luck, intelligence, willpower, or appearance are fair game, so long as they not exceed the general power level of the jump.

Topsy-Turvy +800 CP

Something's gone wrong. Maybe futacum is no longer binding those who imbibe it. Maybe futas are no longer being born. Maybe a major terrorist threat have gotten their hands on deadly weapons, or a disease is spreading through one particular gender of the population. Whatever it is, it's becoming a major crisis. You're going to find yourself in the midst of unrest, confusion, and fear. Regardless of your allegiances, this is guaranteed to change your life for the worse.

Crumbling Empire: +1000 CP

The Futa Empire was always built on an understanding of a social supremacy which takes an enormous amount of propaganda to enforce. Unfortunately for its inhabitants though, you'll find that it's not going to pass slowly and quietly into the history books. No, wealthy oligarchs, bloodthirsty warlords, and fanatical zealots of all genders and ideologies are coming out of the woodwork to pick and claw at the dying giant. Sooner or later, the whole thing is going to collapse. And when it does, it's going to be bloody.
