Out of Context - Digimon Story Supplement

V1 By "fanficwriter1994"

This document can be used as a supplement in any Jump including those with Digimon as long as they're not based on games of the "Digimon Story" Series of games (Digimon World games for the NDS included)
By taking this Supplement you have chosen to be a human who has acquired a Digivice of an unusual sort, able to scan Digimon and convert the data acquired into new Digimon. In essence, you're now a Protagonist of the "Digimon Story" series of video games, meaning there is now a Digital World attached to this one.
As a human with no additional powers it can be quite dangerous, and thus take these:

+1000 Choice Points

If this Supplement is instead taken as an Isolated Jump you may select a setting of your choice even if it doesn't have a Jump Document and use this document as a ten year long Jump.

Origin

Kid Tamer
You just found your way into the Digital World or become a Tamer by chance, think the same as the protagonist of Digimon World DS. You're inexperienced but you have plenty of enthusiasm.

Team Tamer
You're a human who lived and maybe was even born, in the Digital World, you have experience but aren't top-tier yet.

Hacking Cyber Sleuth
You were a normal person, but now you have been recruited into being a Cyber Sleuth, a Cyberspace Private Investigator. You may or may not have a Half-Data Body.

Secret Agent
Oh this is an unusual one, you're now a Secret Agent tasked with investigating and dealing with Urban Legends and related Paranormal Phenomena. Basically you're a 1-Man Mobile Task Force from the SCP Foundation with more morals and Digimon. Your Digivice is also a gun for some reason.

Perks:

General Perks:

Digital World - Free
This is sort of a Meta Perk, basically you can toggle whether or not any Jump you enter after obtaining this has a Digital World connected to it and thus, Digimon. You can choose between one of the three archetypes of Digital World, that being Yggdrasil which 99% of all stories take place in, Homeros, which is the Digital World Illiad where Time Stranger takes place, and finally the unnamed Server holding Witchelny. If you're wondering what the difference is, Royal Knights, Olympos XII and Magic Digimon respectively. How that would work out in each jump is up to you and you can use this to keep a connection to a Digital World you had for a previous jump as well.

Code Scan - Free (Mandatory)
An ability central to this series of games. When you encounter a Digimon your Digivice will generate an percentile amount of Scan Data. Said percentiles depend on the level (Baby + In-Training: 100%, Rookie: 50%, Ultimate: 15%, Mega: 10%, Ultra: 5%) up to a Scan Rate of 200%. In future Jumps this may be used on any other non-mundane lifeform.

Convert - Free
This is what that data is needed for: Once you have at least 100% Scan Rate on a Digimon you can convert that data into a new Digimon (or other non-Mundane creature). These creations will count as Followers for the sake of Perks and Meta Effects and will be 100% loyal to you with no chance of being turned against you. The higher the Scan Rate is (Max 200%) the stronger the new creature will be at its base.

Loading - Free
The darker side of these games, the "Loading" of Digimon into others to strengthen them. To make things less morally questionable the loaded Digimon will have its Digicore returned to the Digital World to reincarnate in a Digitama (Digi-Egg) and only its accumulated data is absorbed. Think of it as voluntary Data Absorption from Tamers.

They should make a Game out of This - Free
As a way to make raising Digimon easier there is this Perk. Basically, you can now call up basic information about any and every Digimon you have on hand and see stats and levels. While this may sound like magic, it really isn't, you're just getting a diagnostic of the program known as a Digimon. In Future Jumps this applies to every Follower and Companiono if they are in an applicable form, but not to you.

Shielded by your Friends - Free
You may wonder how come you can stand behind your small army of giant monsters and not get sniped, the answer is rather simple: This Perk. As long as there is something under your command still able to fight, nothing can target you directly, either by magic, attack or psychic manipulation. Yes they have to get through your personal array of Royal Knights before they can take a shot at you. Good luck to them.

Digimon Story Origin - Free (Cannot be taken with "Not Drop In")
This is an Out of Context Origin Perk. At the start of a Jump you can use this Narrative Perk to set your entry into the Jump Setting as if you were using this Supplement.

Dynamic Entry - Free (Requires 3 "Out of Context Origin Perks" from other Supplements)
Using this narrative perk you can dynamically craft your method of Dropping into a Jump.

Continuation of Existence -100 CP
If you get digitized, is that still you? Regardless of your Jump-chan's response, this perk ensures any instance of going digital is still considered you as long as it holds your mind in it as the primary container. So no going around making AI copies of yourself as a 1-Up stockpile.

Eternal Router Access -100 CP
This is a simple quality-of-life Perk, any device with Internet access can access the Internet of your homeworld and any other world you have visited with their last content status as a basis. They are divided but you can search all of them at once with Search Engines functioning flawlessly. You cannot post to past worlds as they're likely frozen in time, but on the flip side every piece of media will be present in its finished form, this includes all movies, TV Shows, Manga and Fanfiction, even if they were abandoned or put on indefinite hiatus, yes even if their creators are dead it will be as they would've written it, with such a version existing even if someone else continued it, the two versions co-existing.

Digiline -100 CP
The Digiline refers to a communication System found in every Digimon Story Game which allows Digimon to communicate with you remotely. In later games this is also used by pretty much everyone who has met you to send you messages. Basically, if anything interesting or relevant comes up, with this Perk you get a notification on a digital device on your person, including your Digivice, and this can even net you missions with rewards.

Gold Rank -200 CP

This may sound like a Perk that gives you a rank, but it isn't. Instead any creature you're training will grow five times faster than normal, for this jump that means Digimon and anything else that could fit the criteria of the Code Scan Perk, in future jumps this will also apply to yourself. You can buy this Perk more than once but every time you do, it only adds +5 to the multiplier, so purchases 1 to 3 will be 5, 10 and 15 times.

Evolution -200 CP

Evolution is a big part of Digimon, both the metamorphosis kind that we all know from the other franchise ending in "Mon" but also the change in allele frequencies over successive Generations. Or at least that is what it looks like given all the environment-based variations like SnowGoblimon and MoriShellmon. Anyway, we're talking about the first kind, you can now induce evolution like we see in Digimon in any creature under your command, which in this Jump means anything that falls under the influence of "They Should Make a Game Out of This" and anything under your command in the jumps after. You can also control what they evolve into. This also works on yourself after this Jump. The only restriction is that they will have certain conditions to meet before they can evolve.

Degenerate but Grow -400 CP

This Perk is linked to "They Should Make a Game Out of This" in that it allows you to make a Digimon Degenerate, the act of lowering it by one stage, which will reset its level to 1 and reduce its stats. However, with this Perk that isn't all as 1% of the stats it had in the prior form will carry over as extra points. In future jumps this applies to any "Evolving" creatures under your command. This also works on yourself after this Jump.

Evolution Booster: Slide Evolution

Now combining both forms of growth you can cause a creature under your command which can be influenced by either Perk to change from one possible form into another of equivalent power. For example, make your Greymon become Blue Greymon or Geogreymon.

Homeostasis' Sight -600 CP

Homeostasis is the supreme deity ruling the multiverse of this franchise, a supreme entity above the Hosts who house entire worlds. He rarely interferes with mortals but when he does, it tends to be quite beneficial. As such you will find yourself gain great fortune from here on out with the data of the Digital World coming to you easily, gathering Scan Data Twice as fast and granting all Digimon you create with the Convert ability to have double the stats they would normally have.

Boosted "Degenerate but Grow" Booster: Blessing of the Greater Being

Homeostasis must truly smile on you. Now when you Degenerate a partner they will carry over 10% of their stats. Furthermore when evolving their new form will start out with 10% higher stats than normal. Lastly you will no longer be limited by raw stat numbers, any time a stat reaches the final 9 they will just roll over. This applies to levels as well, meaning the hard level cap will be removed. Though Aptitude will still determine their soft level cap and be increased by the usual methods (Evolution and/or loading Digimon)

Kid Tamer Perk:

Pure of Heart -100 CP (Free Kid Tamer)
Your heart is pure, this isn't just "You're a good person", this is purity of spirit, you would be the ideal person to raise anything which develops based on who raises them and everyone can tell. In the context of Digimon World DS, this would make the ideal partner for Chronomon as it would always evolve into Chronomon Holy Mode rather than Destroy Mode, which would cut the boss fight from that story much shorter. As an added bonus, you cannot be corrupted mentally or spiritually, you can allow "Corruption" if you want, but it will be superficial at most with you just gaining the benefits and not the downsides.

Child of Merit -100 CP (Free Kid Tamer)
The early protagonists of this series of games were relatively young, so why do people so often enlist their aid in crucial matters? Well, like them you will be judged not by appearance or age, but by your merits. No matter who or what you are, people will see you for who you are and not what you appear to be. As a bit of a Meta bonus, if a Jump Document prohibits one Origin from being a certain race, you may choose to ignore that prohibition. So be the Pokemon who is also a Pokemon Trainer if you want.
