DEATHCLAW ですが JUMP

By Faucheusestar

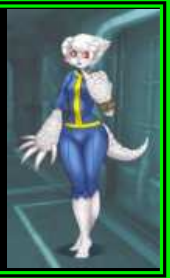

In a vault in a post-apocalyptic future a little Deathclaw girl is doing the things she does; eating cram, forcing locks, and giving out hugs!

You have 1000 Caps.

BACKGROUNDS

Any Origin can be taken as Drop in

VAULT DWELLER

You're one of the lucky few to have been born in a shelter and protected from the dangers of the wastelands, like the Deathcla... I mean raiders, why would you be afraid of adorable, cuddly creatures? Your knowledge and your life are like a time capsule from the old world.

SCIENTIST

Science! You're a scientist, the kind of reasonable person who creates adorable Deathclaws to conquer the world or 'cures' their doggo by creating a cyber doggo!

WASTELANDER

You're one of the inhabitants of the wasteland, exploring the ruins of the old world is your daily routine.

ENCLAVE

You are not like these savages of the wasteland no you are part of the elite, a descendant of the legitimate owners of these lands. So go bring democracy to all these savage communists in the name of the President Jesus!

LOCATIONS

You can choose whether to appear in the proposed locations or elsewhere in the series.

Vault 119: The place where most of the story of Deathclaw desu ga takes place, it's a bunker created by vault tech to conduct an experiment on cloning. You wake up in a cryopod just like Alpha

NO VACANCY: You appear in this colony built around Dinky the dinosaur and which even has a Saloon.

RACE

You can choose to be a human at no cost, although who wouldn't want to be a Deathclaw! Plus you can pay 200 Caps to be the pinnacle of your species. A Deathclaw would be like Rock Hardabs's sister Rex Guns, a Radroach would be his bright version.

Radroach

+ 200 Caps

Improved version: you are a Glowing Radroach immune to radiation and you deals more radiation damage

Robobrain
