Let's Make a Movie
aka
Generic Gay Porn
version 1.0

Your task in this Jump is simple: to make gay porn. That means either directing gay skin flicks, or being a model in them. The exact themes don't matter, as long as you stay within the limits of mainstream pornography—basically no death or maiming, and no animals, scat or little kids. Your work doesn't need to be widely released, but it can't be just for you and your immediate friends, either.

If you are a director, you are 25+1d8 years old, and may be of any gender or none at all. You have a budget that is sufficient to cover reasonable expenses.

If you are a model, you are enthusiastically male and 17+1d8 years old. You may be a student, otherwise employed, or between jobs right now. Whatever your circumstances, you have a few free weeks coming up to pursue your ambition. Luckily it doesn't take much time to make porn.

You start in a major U.S. city like Los Angeles or Las Vegas, or a similar center elsewhere in the world (I hear Prague is nice). The Jump start date is any time in the last few decades. You can be a drop-in, if you don't want any in-world memories.

The Jump lasts until you've made your porn debut, but you can hang around for as long as you want afterwards. If you haven't made or performed in at least one gay porno in ten years (and why haven't you? It's easy) you fail the chain.

You have 1000 cp. Easily enough for you to make a movie, sure, but also enough to make your life imitate art. Some choices in this Jump make it easier to make porn, but most of them exist to make your life run more and more on porn logic.

After choosing your role and associated perks, you will choose an orientation to complete setting up your background. This business is not just for gay boys: lots of straight dudes perform in gay porn, too!

ROLE

Director or Model

One makes the porno, the other stars in it. Which are you?

Director

You get to hire the models and produce the videos. You know or will quickly learn the practical details of filming, editing, hiring, etc.

The Full Monty (free Director)
Get paid to have strangers watch you have sex? What's the catch? You can easily sell the idea of making porn to your friends and associates, and even recruit gorgeous strangers willing to have sex on camera. It helps that your erotic films have a distinctive style that's all yours, such that models will be eager to associate themselves with your brand. You are a wizard at handling paperwork and licensing, and have easy access to almost any filming location you want, be it a luxurious mansion or a pristine wilderness.

Note: The keystone perk for each role or orientation is free to that role or orientation, and costs 200 cp for others. See also the Versatile general perk.

100 Hot Stuff (discount Director)
Although you have an eye for exceptional guys, you hardly need to use it. Every man you meet is now well above average in appearance, and with suitable equipment for work in porn. Well, 95% of them, anyway. If a setting requires someone to be less attractive or less endowed, this perk won't override it. Furthermore, guys you interact with will be significantly less likely to be camera shy. This perk applies especially to your friends: they each get another two inches (except any femboys, of course), a knack for bedroom gymnastics, an exhibitionist streak, and a very active libido.

Note: A discounted 100 cp perk is half price, not free.

100 Movie Magic (discount Director)
Everyone's skill with a camera greatly improves when you are around. Lighting, angles, pixel resolution and sound are much better than you would expect, even with fixed cams. It is trivial to edit videos in post-production and remove, say, camera operators or condoms. People tend to defer to your directions, as long as filming is going on, in order to make the best scene possible, and even without instructions will tend to do what you would have told them. The little mistakes and snafus involved in running a multi-person operation will be virtually absent, and everything happens smoothly and on schedule.

200 Lights, Camera, Action (discount Director)
Men you're filming for porn will be as slutty and shameless as you want when they know the cameras are rolling. Or shy and embarrassed if you like that better. Recording guys without permission is generally a no-no, but permission is easy with the right perks or enough cash. Guys you film will, if needed, have their acting ability raised to the standard of a Hollywood B list actor. This works with mainstream productions, too.

200 Screen Test (discount Director)
If you're making porn, you don't want to sign up a guy who can't get hard on camera. Men you interview for your porno understand this, and so asking them to undress and jerk off while being filmed will be seen as a perfectly reasonable request. You can make sex part of the interview process, too, either with you or with other candidates. They'll readily perform in an impromptu scene to try and impress you. You can somehow apply this logic to other scenarios you're involved in as well, like if you're selling a guitar on Craigslist and the guy is short of cash, or if two guys want the same instrument. Or maybe you're a coach, and some athletes need to show how much they want to be on the team... Incidentally, performance issues on camera are never actually a problem.

400 Fast or Slow (discount Director)
How do you like it? You can make an erotic film that is full of surprises and reversals, something that readily scratches that itch for novelty that motivates many viewers. Viewers of such a film get off fast, hard, and frequently, as if they had the Multiple Mike perk. Or you can craft erotica that provides a long lasting experience for your fans, effectively giving them the Edgelord perk while they're watching.

Special: Take a discount on Fast or Slow if it applies only to scenes you perform in.

Note: Discounts always stack; if you are also a Director, this perk costs only 100 cp.

400 Porn Without Plot (discount Director)
Once or twice a week you find yourself in an erotic scenario, one that could otherwise only ever occur in a porno. A spontaneous hookup on a subway car, say, or a classroom orgy, or a locker room gang bang. Participants and onlookers won't find this strange, or even worth mentioning afterwards. You may toggle this perk off if a scenario is not actually in progress, and toggle it on again when you are in the mood for adventure.

Model

You're one of the stars of the show. You like to show off your body, are easily aroused, and love (or will soon come to love) the thought of having sex on camera.

Natural Actor (free Model)
You are in the top 10% of guys your age with respect to health, fitness, stamina and flexibility. You have a prodigious appetite for sex, your body is more resilient and capable of handling abuse, soreness from sex heals faster, and saliva is for you an effective lubricant. It's up to you whether you are a muscle god or the boy next door; whether you look younger than your age or mature for your years. In any case, the camera loves you. You have nice buns, a pretty butthole, killer abs and a cock that's a work of art, great for sucking, fucking, or playing with. You're a decent actor, too: you can cry on demand, and utter realistic moans and whimpers. You can even deliver dialogue that is surprisingly convincing.

100 All Seasons (discount Model)
Neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night... will make you put your clothes on. You are comfortable in all sorts of weather, and your skin, although as soft and sensitive as ever, resists bug bites, thorns etc. as if it were rawhide. Without interfering with your enjoyment of erotic pain, of course. You are also immune to frostbite and sunburn, but still might get a bit nipply if the weather is chilly, or pleasantly flushed in the hot sun.

100 Foot in the Door (discount Model)
You know how to sell yourself. No, not that way. Well, kinda. You have contacts in your chosen industry, you know both how to find an agent and how to self-promote without one, and can even do your taxes as a freelancer. Not to mention juggling your schedule for interviews and shoots, and fitting in the workouts and beauty care you need to look your best. You can do all this and make it look easy. What's your secret?

200 Faking It (discount Model)
Did I say you were a decent actor? Actually, you are a great actor. You can do your own stunts, and playing a role on camera lets you pass as qualified in a specialized field. For example, after playing Dr. Jumper in "College Jock Physicals" you can convince even medical doctors that you are a fellow professional. Your vivid imagination ensures that when you act out a sexy fantasy it feels real to you, not just a pretense for the camera.

200 Get Ahead (discount Model)
You know the saying: to get ahead, you've got to give some head. You are adept at trading sexual favors for non-monetary, non-sexual considerations—stuff not technically for sale—but you can get a really big favor only once or twice a year. In high school this was a way of getting good grades, or obtaining the position you wanted on the varsity team. It lets you deliver an extremely convincing apology, or a very enthusiastic birthday greeting. In the workforce it can get you hired with a decent starting salary; from then on, getting a regular promotion or raise is as easy as getting down on your knees or bending over a desk. Assuming your boss doesn't want a quick poke instead. You can use your talents to get out of trouble, too, but it's more to avoid a beating from unpaid gambling debts than getting out of the debt itself, and you can't beat the rap for murder or anything serious like that. You can even trade sex for illicit merchandise, but it's not very cost effective given the effort you'll have to put in. Oh, and either the guy you're trading with has a hot body, or he'll want to watch you with someone who does.

400 Just For Fans (discount Model)
Who needs a director? You can manage a porn business perfectly well from the privacy of your bedroom. Whether it's your seductive voice or your flirty mannerisms you are able to attract—and keep—dedicated subscribers. You know all the aspects of the business, too, from basic showmanship to dealing with internet billing. And if your work is ever pirated? Well, if erotic work that features you is ever shared without your authorization, on the internet or otherwise, then not only will it not harm you financially, but it will actually attract more paying fans.

Special: Take a discount on Just for Fans if your shows always feature you with a guest.

400 No Shame Zone (discount Model)
A shared location that is typically men-only (like a frat house, cruising ground or all-male gym) can be designated by you as a No Shame Zone. Flirting, ogling and exhibitionism is practically mandatory here, and guys can explore taboos without repercussions. Furthermore, any wives or girlfriends of those who frequent a No Shame Zone will be indulgent of “boys being boys” as long as no other women are involved. You may add this designation to a new location if you haven't been to a No Shame Zone for at least a month, like if you moved to a new town or changed gyms.

Note: Sexy things are much more likely to happen in a No Shame Zone. A lot of perks in this document also make sexy things more likely to happen (e.g. CMNM, Engraved Invitation, Eye Candy, Tearoom Trade…). Rather than these perks becoming redundant, a guy who already has one or more of them will effectively gain a single high level "make sexy things happen" perk (like Butt Pirate, Cock Gobbler, Flaunt It, or Take One For the Team) while on the premises. Use your best judgment in deciding exactly which perks can be upgraded, and what the upgrade will be.

ORIENTATION

Ace, Alpha, Bent, Bicurious, Fairy or Straight

Not all of these are true orientations, but that term will do for now.
Just pick a category to get discounts in, OK?

Discounted 100 cp perks are still 50 cp, not free.

Ace

Are you really asexual, or just dedicated to your craft? And does it matter?

Prep Work (free Ace)
Don't worry about hygiene or grooming issues before sex, or the need for artificial lubrication. This is all taken care of. No one finds this strange. Of course, if you want to take it dry or make a big production of applying lube, or whatever, that's OK, too. If you are free of sexually transmitted infection, the fact that you are clean will be known for certain by anyone you play with, and no one will have any personal objection to condom-free sex with you. If you do use condoms, they will not interfere with anyone's sensations, or have any ill effects (due to allergies or friction, or whatever). And unless you want to make a show of putting on a condom, you'll suit up as if by magic. Similarly, used condoms disappear automatically, unless you want to save them for later. People near you and those you employ also benefit from this perk.

100 Healthy (discount Ace)
Gifted with glowing health, you have no need to worry about incurable sexually transmitted infections like HIV or herpes. Other STIs might be contracted, although this is much less likely than you would expect, and they will be easily treated. Their symptoms, though easily recognized, will be milder than in the actual world, and they'll go away in time even without medical attention. Your sex partners and those you employ also enjoy the preceding benefits. Finally, your mere presence promotes favorable attitudes about sex: unwanted hang-ups about "deviant" or "excessive" sex will disappear, at least temporarily, from those around you.

100 Kiss and Tell (discount Ace)
For you the rule not to kiss and tell doesn't apply to relations between gentlemen. No one minds if you talk about your same-sex encounters, and other guys are remarkably candid around you concerning their own gay experiences. In fact, many of your male friends will deliberately arrange to have material to share, so as not to feel left out when you are all together and swapping stories. And they'll share all the spicy details, too. You are also a talented writer of erotica, especially when what you write about is based on your own experience or first hand accounts of others. Your writing talent extends to writing scripts for porn that directors are eager to shoot, that models are happy to feature in, and that porn connoisseurs are willing to pay top dollar for.

200 POV (discount Ace)
You can switch your point of view to any point within 60 feet that you have a line of sight to. If you have a camera nearby it records what you see, except that you can be selective as to which of your enhancements apply: e.g. it might take advantage of your night vision, but not your ability to see auras. Even when you are not looking at a spot within range, you have a sense of whether anything there is worth seeing.

200 Spank Bank (discount Ace)
You have a perfect recall for men's bodies and all the sexy things that can be done with them and to them and by them. This makes you a natural continuity person, and reshooting a scene with your input will improve it in every way. Not only that, but you sometimes figure in the sexual fantasies of your acquaintances. They will have a very accurate idea of whether you would like what they are imagining, and the more you would like it, the more they will try to make the fantasy happen in real life.

400 Appraising Stare (discount Ace)
You have a knack for finding guys who will put out for money. As long as you have the required funds on you in cash, just glancing at someone will reveal their rates and services. You can also let a dude work off a debt to you if he is willing. You know just how to phrase things so as not to cause offense to someone who doesn't consider himself a hustler, while still making your offer clear and attractive. You can also scan for, and persuasively approach, guys who will pay for sex, either with you or someone you're pimping out. Guys who will have sex with you for free will also be revealed by this perk, and you'll know just how to proposition them successfully.

Special: Take a discount on Appraising Stare, if you only sell (rather than buy) sexual services, and charge only 10% of the going rate. This massively increases the chance of a successful transaction. Hey, twenty bucks is twenty bucks!

400 Scare the Horses (discount Ace)
The social acceptability of sexual activity, at least to the guys in your social circle, is proportional to how open someone is about it. Get buggered in front of your fraternity brothers? No problemo. Jerk off behind closed doors? That's a paddlin'. Privacy is OK if outsiders are around, of course, and heterosexual activity is also exempt from the open doors policy. Solo and gay stuff, though, should be shared, so leave that door open.

Alpha

You like to make guys submit to you. It gives you a funny feeling inside.

Dominance (free Alpha)
You cannot be swayed by outside factors like drugs, alcohol, induced lust or social pressure; your thoughts and desires are your own, and if you get into mischief, it is because of your own choice (or your perks and drawbacks, of course). Also, if you declare a preferred stance (top, bottom or verse) no one will ever try to get you to act against it, not even the most depraved director. Guys whose stance is not fiat backed will adjust to your preferences. You may declare a different stance at any time.

100 Bully (discount Alpha)
You are naturally intimidating, and can easily cow others with your presence. Maybe it's those tattoos or that psycho stare. You can tell who wants to stand up to you, who wants to submit to you, and who wants you to make them submit. You easily recognize fellow bullies, and are able to make alliances with them. This whole psychodrama doesn't have to be a solitary activity, after all, and it can be fun to share.

100 Engraved Invitation (discount Alpha)
Nothing can match the confidence with which you proudly display your bod, whether you're strutting down the hallway from the dorm showers or showing off in front of your roommate and his friends. No one will ever object to your exhibitionist ways, and you count as fully clothed if that would be to your advantage. Whenever you see a fellow exhibitionist—a dude who's willfully naked where most guys wouldn't be—you can be assured that he's willing and ready for action. But you don't have to wait until someone else strips down: just showing off your hard cock in front of a receptive audience will be enough to get the party started; your faggot roommate and his faggot friends will be on their knees in no time.

200 Hard Time (discount Alpha)
Even if you've never been in prison, you give the impression that you are experienced with situational homosexuality, and that you consider it no big deal. You are considered a safe and reliable source for anyone who wants practical knowledge of the ins and outs (ahem) of gay sex. In addition, some of the sexual frustration of prison seems to linger around you. You and those in your presence get +1 load and are much less picky about their sexual partners. No one can get more than +1 load per day from this perk. You also have an erection like a railroad spike, the better to give your partners a "hard time."

200 To the Victor (discount Alpha)
Winning is sexy. If you defeat an opponent by physical prowess or skill, you (and your teammates) become much sexier to fans and supporters, and especially to whoever was defeated. A locker room blowjob is the least you can expect, and your choice of fans to spend the night with. Your team banging the losing team is not out of the question. Everyone will consider this the natural order of the things. Go get 'em, Champ.

Special: You may choose to receive "To the Vanquished" instead of "To the Victor" and get the reverse of what is stated: e.g. instead of getting blowjobs when your team wins, you'll be giving them when your team loses. Alphas don't usually roll that way, but non-Alphas with perks from outside their orientation sometimes choose this option.

400 Leverage (discount Alpha)
You are very good at getting people to do what you want, especially sexual things, and even if it means ethical compromise on their part. If they cooperate things go well with them; you are generous with favors and influence and they will be popular and well-regarded. And if they don't, then the reverse is true. You rarely have to resort to blackmail, but when you do you'll have hard evidence of their peccadilloes, especially ones of a sexual nature, and a sense of exactly how hard you have to push to ensure their compliance. Group or filmed sex is especially easy to arrange; your target's inhibitions just melt away. In all this you handle yourself masterfully, and come across as a man exercising his natural dominion over his social inferiors.

Special: Take a discount on Leverage if you can use it only to make men participate in gay sex and/or erotic humiliation.

400 Worthy Alpha (discount Alpha)
The quality of your people reflects on you. So let's make sure they are the best they can be. Someone under your direction improves greatly in every way; in general fitness, in discipline, even academically and professionally. A pudgy nerd will be a hunk with a six-pack within six months, and a C- student will soon be on the Dean's honor roll. It's basically a x5 training booster and an uncapper in one neat package, and every year or so one of the guys under your tutelage will become an extra with a suitable perk or two. Your mentoring is less effective if divided, of course, but a posse of three or four trainees will still see excellent results.

Note: Adjust as needed if you are a "subtle alpha" who exerts leverage from behind the scenes, or prefers to help others with a discreet nudge here and there. In general, feel free to adjust the flavor of any of these perks if you keep the mechanics intact.

Bent

Queer? Gay? Whatever you call it, you are the opposite of straight.

Booty Call (free Bent)
You can easily arrange a hook up with a dude you've previously been sexual with. Even if you don't like each other. You have to be able to contact him, of course, and he can't live too far away. Oh, and while this perk can be used at will, after an encounter you have to wait at least a month before using it on the same guy again—unless you've had sex with him in the meantime. You go, stud.

100 In to It (discount Bent)
You can vividly experience a person's feelings by touch. This includes their current emotions, their state of arousal, and any bodily sensations. These shared feelings are pleasant as long as you care in the right way about the other person. For example, if you are a sadist you will enjoy the suffering of your partner even if you don't like pain yourself. You can also monitor people's emotional states by sight. This lets you intuit how horny someone is, or if they are about to freak out, and will tell you if they are genuinely unwilling as opposed to "make me do it" unwilling. So not only do you find it much easier to seduce someone and show them a good time, but you approximately double your own enjoyment too.

100 Innuendo (discount Bent)
You can make innocuous statements sound dirty or sexually charged, but in a humorous and basically inoffensive way. By carefully reading a listener's response to your banter you know how to broach (or dismiss) sexual topics without causing trouble. So if you end up making an unsuccessful pass, they might be flattered and refuse, or laugh and take it as a joke, but things won't be awkward afterwards. And, who knows? Your flirting might actually loosen them up enough to take a walk on the wild side. And since "innuendo" sounds like an Italian butt plug, this perk also makes you very proficient at ass-play, especially with tongue, fingers or sex toys.

200 For a Good Time Call (discount Bent)
By leaving contact information and an invitation in a public (or semi-public) place you are guaranteed a quick response for a safe, consensual experience with a hot date. By scanning similar ads you can screen out the creeps and crazies and ensure any encounter you have will be awesome. This works on electronic forms of communication as well as in real life. You are great at chatting in person, too, cutting through hours of bullshit in just minutes, the better to get on to the fun stuff.

200 Lavender Mafia (discount Bent)
Networking is important, and you have a great talent for it. Especially when dealing with men who like men. Members of the network exchange favors and look out for each other, and somehow even modest contributions easily keep you in the black. Favors might smooth out trouble with the law, cover up a scandal, get you inside information, or slice through bureaucratic red tape. If your contacts are members of other networks—like the real mafia—you get access to favors from that network too.

400 Butt Pirate (discount Bent)
Arrr! Prepare to be boarded! You have mastered the art of surreptitiously sticking your cock up another guy's chute. Even if it's as thick as a beer can; it just slips right in as if he were fully lubed and prepped. Awesome! Maybe you talked him into trying anal, or maybe you were both high or drunk, or maybe you've been bullying him. Like you were on a road trip and sharing a bed, and did him in his sleep. Or you cornered him in the shower and made him take it like a man. Or you pinned him while wrestling and… well, you get the idea. Anyway, plundering a guy's booty never leads to him resenting you or avoiding you afterwards. In fact, opportunities for butt piracy arise so often that it's fair to conclude that your targets are secretly into it. You may toggle this perk so you are frequently the "victim" of butt piracy instead of (or in addition to) being the perpetrator; otherwise the perk is the same.

400 Flaunt It (discount Bent)
Anyone you are interested in will discount irrelevant details like gender or gender preference in their reaction to you, provided you are open about your sexual interest in them. In fact, very little will prevent them from at least considering a quickie, and if your personalities, values and interests are otherwise compatible you may well start dating. Either of you being in an exclusive relationship or something might forestall any of this, obviously. Society won't care what you do together, no matter the existing laws and customs. When initiating sex, your partners will be surprisingly accommodating to your desires, no matter their usual preferences in bed.

Special: Take a discount on Flaunt It if your hookup is in it only for the novelty. You'll likely need a perk to ever get a second date with the same person.

Bicurious

Or heteroflexible. But you don't care much about labels, do you?

Discreet (free Bicurious)
Men who know you have sex with men will keep it a closely held secret from those not in the know. Doing porn makes complete secrecy impossible, of course, but even then the use of an assumed name provides a surprising degree of privacy: knowledge of your double life extends only to those fans of your work who also know you in real life.

100 Dancer (discount Bicurious)
They say chicks love to dance, which is why you've practiced until you are almost as good in the ballroom as you are in the bedroom. You have nearly limitless stamina when engaged in any kind of strenuous activity, and considerable gymnastic talent. You are, of course, an expert stripper, break-, lap- and pole dancer. And don't get me started on how well you can twerk!

100 Masseur (discount Bicurious)
You give the best hugs and massages, and amazing handjobs. Furthermore, any guy you massage will, if you choose, quickly develop a persistent, throbbing, rock-hard erection, along with a strong inclination to act on it. No suspicion will fall on you for instigating this; whatever happens, the other guy will think it happened by his choice and on his initiative. If and when he comes, his load will be twice the usual volume.

200 Devil's Three-way (discount Bicurious)
Who doesn't like a threesome? Men who are strictly MF will be down for MMF if you are involved, in which case they are highly likely to discover new dimensions to their sexuality. Like how awesome it is to be the filling in a Berkeley Sandwich. You can easily find girls who are into MMF threesomes to act as bait and/or beards, and you can make a persuasive case to a couple for why it's not cheating for the boyfriend to do it with another guy. Straight dudes are comfortable being naked around you, watching porn with you, comparing dick sizes with you, and so on. After all, it's just us guys, right?

200 Don't Mind Me (discount Bicurious)
Besides an infallible instinct for the local cruising zones, you have a knack for catching guys in the act. Jerking off to gay porn, making out with the neighbor's teenage son, blowing each other in a public washroom, making an amateur gay porno, whatever. I'm not saying the perk makes guys have sex just so you can walk in on them, but I'm not saying it doesn't either. And either they don't notice you, or they don't mind you watching. When something sexy is happening you will be able to enter private areas, through doors mysteriously left unlocked, without anyone objecting or maybe even noticing. And even if they do notice, they'll treat you as if you had the right to be there.

400 Kinkdar (discount Bicurious)
You have a refined form of gaydar. You can easily find guys who are willing to have sex with other guys, and even refine your search for those with a particular kink. Just think of a turn on and the relevant men will catch your attention in a crowd. Or, if you have your eye on somebody, you can determine what non-heteronormative act they'd be aroused about doing or having done to them, and by whom, and in what circumstances. Whether or not they knew it themselves. Any conversation where you touch on these interests will be taken seriously and will not freak out or frighten the guy you are talking to (unless that's what you want), but will instead intrigue and excite him.

400 Take One For the Team (discount Bicurious)
Your buddies (or fraternity, or sports team, or whatever) have agreed that if everyone needs to get their rocks off, it's only fair that one guy bottom for the rest. And that this is a totally normal thing, and not at all gay or anything to be ashamed of. Long story short, by activating this perk when you and at least two other bros are present, one out of five guys (or fraction thereof) is randomly selected to be a cumslut for the others. Assuming there are no volunteers, that is. Everyone will agree that the selection was just and fair, except possibly the cumslut(s), but they might be grumbling just for show.

Special: Take a discount on Take One For the Team if anyone in the group can activate it. You'll be teased if you end up as a cumslut, despite the "nothing to be ashamed of" part. Maybe you are just a little too enthusiastic.

Fairy

Guys who call you names turn you on. That's OK—we all have our kinks.

Stretchy (free Fairy)
You have a small mouth and a tight butthole. Luckily your mouth, throat and ass are abnormally stretchy, and can smoothly accommodate intrusions twice the length and circumference that someone would expect. Your eyes get very wide when this happens, though, and you react just as one would expect you to when being worked over by a huge tool. You may share this perk with anyone you top.

100 Bully Magnet (discount Fairy)
Some guys get off on being rough. You kind of like those rough kinds of guys, too. They easily recognize your tastes, and can get you alone with them in private, whereupon they will make you submit to them. Does this sound scary? Maybe a little intriguing? You've got the right idea, then. Don't worry; in this kind of story you'll play your part, have an intense experience, and afterwards go home safe and sound, and maybe a little sore. Rather than finding rough men to subject you to delicious torments, this perk often just encourages some of your existing acquaintances to be more dominant and sexually demanding with respect to you. Whatever suits your story best.

100 CMNM (discount Fairy)
Let's say you and a hot guy are in the same place together, and one of you is naked, the other fully clothed, and that you both get an eyeful of each other. This perk then grants the other guy the insight that you are willing to provide him certain sexual services, ones that he would like; namely, any that you are in fact willing to provide him, and that he would like. He'll thus be very confident in his dealings with you on the subject of sex. He might just enjoy possessing this knowledge rather than acting on it, of course, or he might wait for a more convenient time to let you service him. If you are (naked/clothed) in the presence of several hot (clothed/naked) guys, you can limit the insight and confidence boost to just one of them. Otherwise it applies to them all.

200 Hands Free (discount Fairy)
Stimulation to your ass or throat makes you come as if you were furiously masturbating. You can delay this orgasm for a short while, but not indefinitely. Thus if you don't have permission to come you will soon be in trouble. If you are caged or prevented from ejaculating, you will experience "dry" orgasms instead. These are more intense than regular orgasms, happen over and over again during a session, and are felt in waves over your whole body. You may share this perk with anyone you top.

200 Power of Three (discount Fairy)
If you and at least one friend (two is better) wish for something, it is very likely to come true. Well, if it's of a sexy or kinky nature, that is. Like wishing that your Alpha roommate would show up hard and naked and fuck you all silly? It could happen! It has to be somewhat plausible—movie stars won't cross the country for you, for instance—but when your neighbor's wife is away he might invite you over for a few beers, and then one thing leads to another... Such wishes will never have long term consequences; marriages won't break up, nobody will have a sexual identity crisis or anything like that. Just good, filthy fun. The longer you wait between wishes, the better it will be.

How this typically works: You store one charge every three days (to a maximum of five), and having two co-wishers makes the wish more specific and qualitatively better. A sexual encounter with a random hot jock costs one charge, but sex with that quarterback you've been getting signals from needs a charge plus two co-wishers; a gay orgy involving most of the football team will, if possible at all, require three or four charges (the effects grow exponentially), and since it's not a random group of guys you'll also need the bonus from two friends wishing it with you. Other scenarios should be priced using these examples as benchmarks. A co-wisher doesn't need to have this perk, but needs to be sincere in their wish.

400 Birthday Wish (discount Fairy)
Are you the kind of guy who gets hopeless crushes? Is there some hunk that you drool over? Well, this time the hunk is genuinely droolworthy. Once a year, on your birthday, you may grant a build from this document to a particular guy, much as if you were building a companion; you have 900 cp to spend, plus your choice of a background to determine freebies and discounts. The build you make must complement your own: the only overlap it can have in common with yours are keystone perks and purchases with a base price of 100 cp or less. The granted build cannot include a Key Location, and any perks included in purchases of Versatile fall under the "no overlap" rule. Effects that manipulate, transfer or share cp backed purchases work very poorly with this perk, and someone who already has a full build from this document cannot be its target. Any perks from this document they happen to possess (e.g. from being an extra) must be paid for in the build. Such perks are retained even if they overlap with yours.

400 Cock Gobbler (discount Fairy)
You have superb oral and deep-throating skills and amazing stamina. You are also the exception to almost every rule or circumstance that might keep your mouth off a guy's junk. You don't know how to broach the subject? Just ask: it somehow isn't awkward at all. He's straight? Well, straight dudes like blowjobs too. It weirds him out? Actually, his curiosity is stronger. In a committed relationship? He has a hall pass. It's not an automatic success, but it would be unusual to strike out with two guys in a row.

*Special: Take a discount on Cock Gobbler if a guy wanting a blowjob is likewise an exception to your rules. Expect to spend a lot of time on your knees, especially as your reputation spreads. And if you take this discount it will spread, even if you have a perk that says differently.*

Special: If this perk is taken by someone who likes to top, it may be purchased in an inverted form, "Suck It." With this variant, a surprisingly high proportion of dudes are willing to blow you, and they have insane oral skills, too. The discount version requires you to accept blowjobs even if you'd rather not. You just stand there and take it.

Straight

Is there something you're not telling us?

Sausage Party (free Straight)
It's a sad fact that young men generally prefer to go to parties where there are lots of cute girls. But now with this perk it has become very common to have social events where either the girls don't show up or they tease the boys without providing any release. The resulting surplus of testerone will definitely be a problem, but maybe the guys will find another outlet for all their sexual frustration. The event might be one you attend, or maybe you are left to deal with the aftermath.

100 In Trouble (discount Straight)
You find some kinds of pain and humiliation highly erotic. Stuff like being restrained, spanked, or forcibly stripped. Watch out, though, or those sorts of things will happen to you fairly often. And should the instigators get a little carried away… if something were to happen when you were restrained or under duress… well, no one blames a guy for what happens when he's helpless to prevent it, do they? Furthermore, when you are flogged or whipped you can ease yourself into that floating, trance-like state of mind known as subspace. It's a good place, without shame or fear of judgment. Your ability to process erotic pain greatly increases; rather than pain and danger being the spice to an erotic encounter, it is for you a dish that can be eaten in ever greater portions. You can, if you want, pretend that you hated the whole experience, and no one will call you on it.

100 Shenanigans (discount Straight)
There is safety in numbers. Whenever at least two of your bros are doing something lewd (or thinking of doing it; as long as they follow through it counts) you'll all be in the clear for it. Public nudity? It's a frat thing, or improves team spirit, or something. Involved in a circle jerk? That's totally straight. Made out with your bros? Some girls dared you to. Made gay porn? It was just for the cash. Whatever sexy or kinky thing it was, there will be no lasting negative consequences to any of you from it—either financial, legal or reputational. Minor non-sexy crimes are covered too, like breaking and entering to have sex in someone's house. But you can't get away with, say, naked bank robberies. Also note that a sexy punishment for misbehavior is awesome, and so by definition is not a negative consequence. You can suggest particular lewd activities to your buddies, and on the rare occasion you're shot down you'll be able to pass it off as a joke.

200 Blackmailed (discount Straight)
You have a secret, and someone is blackmailing you over it. Except he doesn't want money. Instead you are assigned a weekly task like something you might see in a porno, or read about in a dirty book. It's all pretty hot, and if you were into dudes you definitely wouldn't mind the things he makes you do, but as it is… well, you don't have any choice in the matter. Your secret can't get out. The tasks are easy to accomplish, but humiliating for a guy as straight as you. The tasks won't, however, interfere with high priority tasks in your day to day life, like work, school, or family emergencies. This perk can be expressed without blackmail being involved. For example, maybe sometimes you just can't refuse a sexy dare, or maybe you're the housemate of some demanding and inventive Alphas. As long as you "have to" regularly have gay sex, it's all good.

200 Gay for Pay (discount Straight)
Of course you aren't attracted to men! It's just easy money, that's all. You know where to go and how to dress and pose so you don't have any trouble finding clients. Clients who are good-looking enough that you'd do them for free—if you were gay, that is—but who will pay top dollar for someone who is undeniably and unquestionably straight, like you. And the way your body responds? Well, you're a good actor and you're imagining doing it with a chick. Or her doing it to you, obviously. Lots of guys get pegged by their girlfriends. Lots! You also have an uncanny sense that lets you avoid "bad dates." And the vice cops? Let's just say that you have an understanding with them. Similar benefits apply to "modeling" as well as escorting; you easily find work, your coworkers are awesome, you avoid directors who would cheat you, etc.

400 Man's Man (discount Straight)
It's just basic arithmetic. Two guys going at it is twice as manly as a guy and a girl. You get increased straight credibility for acting on this truth, and +1 load for the scene. Even if you're taking dick—it just shows how confident you are in your straightness! Other dudes will get +1 load for the scene if they join in. All bonus loads have twice the usual volume, and the orgasms are twice as intense. It's all just so damn sexy! Bonus loads from multiple guys with Man's Man do not stack.

400 SWM Seeks Same (discount Straight)
...for hot times. It's fine to let a faggot suck you off now and then, but sometimes you want to let loose with a straight dude like yourself. Once a week a male acquaintance of your choice will be down for an hour or two of discreet hot sex with you and up to one friend whose discretion you vouch for, no strings attached, when and where you decide. Your preference as to whether you are catching, pitching, or both; whatever you like to do, it counts as straight. Just don't talk about your feelings.

Special: Take a discount on SWM Seeks Same if you sacrifice the discretion and counts-as-straight aspects. Your bros will eventually learn all about what you did, even if you have perks that say otherwise. But not right away; until then, enjoy yourself.

GENERAL PERKS

Stuff for a general audience.
And for some very specialized audiences too.

Gaydar (free)
It's not foolproof, but you have a good idea about how guys swing. Straight guys are straight, of course, and Bicurious dudes are bi. Bent guys and Fairies register as "gay" but Alphas are pretty tricky—are they overcompensating? And is that guy Ace or just repressed? This perk also lets you know when a dude is flirting with you, and approximately how serious he is about it.

Something Special (free)
The frequency and acceptability of a particular sex thing you like is given a boost. Something minor gets the biggest boost. You think boxers are hot? That's what everyone wears. You like facials? Most dudes are into that. You're a sub? There are now more high quality doms. Other fine choices include: bad cops, big dicks, bondage, brojobs, bubble butts, chastity play, circle jerks, dildo play, handjobs, hazing, interracial, rough sex and spanking. Whatever it is, it'll be more common around you, and porn involving it will be more popular and easier to make. Something Special can be repurchased for 50 cp each time, but each purchase must be for a different thing.

50 Advanced Laundry
There's only one way to get all your clothes clean, and that's to wash clothes in the buff. And then what? This perk greatly increases the odds of a sexual encounter when you do your laundry naked, making public laundromats or dorm laundry rooms into prime cruising zones. As a side benefit, when you do your laundry in the nude you always have enough coins or tokens to do so. If you do other housework unclothed, you'll be much faster and more efficient at it.

50 Badass
You have formidable skills in survival training, CQC and marksmanship. In short, you're kind of a badass. In addition you have a lot of talent and experience with some sort of athletic activity; swimming, perhaps, or maybe wrestling or football. Basically some sport that lets you show off your body. This all adds up to a sweet, sexy package.

50 Cam Guy
Whether or not you are a director, you have amazing skills with a camera, with a special knack for candid shots. Acquaintances who learn of your talent might soon ask you to film them in progressively more explicit scenarios. You can film a shoot that would normally take a team to do professionally all by yourself, and still fully appreciate the view. After editing there will be about two hours of high quality footage per week.

50 Edgelord
By strength of will and knowing exactly when to slow down or stop, you can defer orgasms almost indefinitely, keeping yourself just at the brink of coming. The longer you edge, the longer and harder the orgasm will hit when you finally let go. This applies to your partner, too, if you are the one in the driver's seat. Or you can instead ruin his orgasm and leave him frustrated and wanting more; your choice.

50 Eye Candy
Dudes you know like to show off their bodies, especially when they're feeling horny. It's just so freeing to strip down and relax. This is especially true if you're around; their egos are stroked by the way you react to them. They'll even pose provocatively for the camera, if you ask. Maybe you could do something nice for them in exchange?

50 False Pretenses
You are great at assuming other identities for lewd purposes: it is a trivial task to impersonate a porn director on a set, or someone's lover in the dark. Conversely, someone approaching you under false pretenses will have to make good on their empty words: undercover vice cops will put out (and you won't get arrested), and no one you meet online or on a dating app will ever ghost you in real life.

50 Foreplay
You are a great kisser, and know just what you need to do to get your partner's motor running. And you find that even a selfish partner will devote at least a few minutes to that special something you like so much; it's just something they feel like doing. Generally, the more pleasure you're willing to give, the more you'll receive.

50 Forty Winks
Some nights you don't spend much time sleeping. This will help. Once per 24 hour period, you may gain the equivalent of four hours of sleep in the blink of an eye. This lets you thrive on just a few hours of shut eye, or push yourself for days with no sleep at all. Each use of this perk takes four hours off of jet lag, too. When you do sleep, you have sex dreams whenever you like, and can remember them easily when you awaken.

50 Glad Handing
Just by how someone shakes hands you will tell if they're DTF, and the two of you can even coordinate what you'd like to do together. A subsequent encounter will accomplish in five minutes what would usually take twenty, but will seem urgent rather than rushed. A few minutes of conversation, on any topic, can substitute for a handshake.

50 Like a Virgin
You can tell at a glance if a guy is new to, but curious about, some aspect of gay sex, (e.g. active/passive x anal/oral). You also know how the poor guy can best be shown what he's been missing. This might involve helping him directly; for instance, if he's received oral from a dude but has still to lose his anal virginity, you could easily get him to let you top him. If you can't or won't directly help him—like if you're white and his secret weakness is for BBC—you can be a great matchmaker and wingman instead. You can also convincingly present yourself as being sexually inexperienced, with any skills you demonstrate being chalked up to natural talent. The pretense might wear thin after the third or fourth time you lose your virginity on camera, but until then you're good.

50 Loads of Money
Whenever you are in a porn scene where you ejaculate in or on another dude, or vice versa, each of you will automatically receive a $100 (or the local equivalent) bonus payment per load. But if condoms are used you get nothing. The payment is in addition to your normal pay for the scene, or the tips for the cam show, or whatever. No one will care where this bonus comes from, but your friends might become very interested in this opportunity to make bank.

50 Musical
Not only are you now a virtuoso with the skin flute and the rusty trombone, but you also have professional level talent with at least one conventional instrument. You may pick up to four instruments to be proficient in: the more narrow your focus, the better you are. You may specialize in your singing voice if you wish. You are also skilled at meshing music with physical activities, whether it's picking the right music for a scene or ensuring that your moves complement the soundtrack.

50 Naked Chef
You are a wizard in the kitchen, capable of turning out gourmet meals with only basic ingredients and tools. Plus a special sauce that you make all by yourself. But the magic only happens if you are naked between knees and nipples, except for maybe an apron. No one finds this strange. You may take sex breaks while cooking and nothing will burn or be ruined while you are occupied.

50 Porn Star
You have a big cock and a hot body. What more do you need? Well, how about +1 load per day? But only if you're performing for an audience, like in front of a film crew or web cam. And since you can hardly be a star without a dedicated fanbase, you'll acquire legions of fans as soon as porn featuring you is available to the public. Oh, and your cum tastes really good, too—do you eat a lot of oranges?

50 Privacy
Sometimes you need your privacy. You may specify when sex or nudity on the part of you and your partner(s) will be unnoticed by others. For Privacy to work there must be at least a slight barrier—like a half open door or a piece of furniture—obscuring the action. This perk fails against anyone with voyeuristic intentions.

50 Quick Change
Get naked in a flash, and get dressed again just as quickly, no matter where your clothes have gotten to. Nothing too bulky; a bullet-proof vest is fine, but not power armor. You can only remove clothing that you could get out of normally, so you can't escape handcuffs or straitjackets this way. You can, however, perform improbable feats like taking off your pants without first removing your boots, or instantly undressing a willing associate. Anyone with you shares the ability to instantly disrobe.

50+ Real Skills
You have theoretical and practical training in a real world skill, equivalent to four years worth of education and/or work experience. Only sex skills come with credentials, unfortunately. Real Skills may be purchased multiple times for 50 cp each; you can choose a different skill each time, or deepen your knowledge of one you already have.

50 Scrum
Rather than cockblocking you, the presence of a guy's friends makes a situation feel naughty and fun, and greatly enhances your chance of scoring. One or more of the guy's buddies might be interested too, and you can include them if you like. They'll be open to your ideas, the naughtier and more taboo the better.

50 Take a Picture
…it'll last longer. Anyone who walks in on you while you're naked won't mind at all, and if you're doing something lewd they won't ask you to stop. Nothing prevents them from enjoying the view, of course, and you aren't shy about being filmed or recorded. As long as you are naked or doing something sexual, the perk is shared with everyone nearby.

50 Work and Play
No longer do you have to decide between getting off and getting stuff done. Routine chores like grocery shopping, housekeeping and paperwork—but nothing requiring significant personal interaction—will be completed at your level of ability while you are looking at porn, cruising guys, getting laid, camming, etc.

100 Autoerotica
You are unusually flexible. Like a certain young man from Nantucket, you are able to orally pleasure yourself to orgasm. Your flexibility also makes you extremely proficient with sex in automobiles. You and your partner(s) can do anything in the backseat of a car that others could in a queen-sized bed. No one finds this strange. Furthermore, sex in or against a vehicle is much more likely to be proposed or accepted if you are involved. If the vehicle is in motion this will not distract the driver, or in any way increase the risk of an accident. As long as the driver can mostly see the road, that is.

100 Full Moon
You've been seeing a lot more male ass lately. Guys mooning other guys, or walking around in jockstraps, or dropping their pants to their ankles to use public urinals. What's on display is rounder and firmer than you remember, too. And it turns out that rimming, anal sex and assturbation are all dramatically more popular than before, as is the use of butt plugs, dildoes and anal beads. If this is lunacy, you don't want to be sane!

100 Hypnotherapy
You are a talented hypnotist, able to perform party tricks or help willing subjects do things like stop smoking, sleep better, or overcome depression. However it is quicker and easier to influence someone if you also implant a compulsion to engage in gay sex. To want to suck a dick every time they crave a cigarette, say, or to enjoy life to the fullest by embracing the life of a slutty bottom. Those hypnotized won't remember receiving a compulsion, but if you overdo this shortcut it is likely that they will soon find each other, compare notes, and attempt sexy revenge on you. Compulsions wear off in a few weeks, but guys often persuade themselves that the effects are permanent.

100 Money Shot
To ensure a big cum shot for the camera, you really should abstain from sex for at least a day or two. But who has that much self control? Luckily, when you come it's like you went without sex for a week and then edged for two hours. You produce about ten times as much semen per ejaculation as usual and project it three times as far. It takes twenty to thirty seconds to shoot out, and the orgasm is more intense as well as longer lasting.

Each money shot uses up three loads, and if you don't have enough in the tank your cum shots are normal sized. Still, to manage a money shot every day—maybe even multiple times per day—is a good start to becoming a porn legend.

100 Multiple Mike
For normal guys, sex is over when they come. You are not normal. You can manage six or seven loads of cum a day, or twice your previous limit, whichever is greater. Up to half your current capacity (rounding up) can be spent before taking a break, and unless you're tapped out for the day you'll be ready to go again within fifteen minutes.

100 Purdy Mouth
There's something about your face that, for a guy who prefers girls, makes you as suitable for providing blowjobs as a pretty girl would be. Any of the guy's friends would agree. And it's not just your mouth; he wouldn't mind tapping your ass either. What you do with this information is up to you, but obviously it makes it easy to get action from dudes who prefer women. You may toggle this perk so that instead of experiencing the preceding effects personally, you transfer them to any guy you top in front of spectators, but only with respect to those watching. In other words, the dude will be seen as a prime blowjob provider (etc.) thereafter by those specific witnesses. This perk never makes anyone less attractive to guys who prefer guys.

100 Python
That's what they should call you, anyway. Prepare for jaws to drop when they see that mammoth meat! Despite its size it looks really good on your frame, and you'll never have a problem making it fit. Less well-endowed men are really impressed by your cock, and will be inclined to worship it. Expect lots of staring, and more than a few requests to touch. And by "touch" I mean "stroke." And, well, things will proceed from there. You could even start an orgy by whipping it out at the right moment! And there will be no ill feelings afterwards. After all, anyone who's seen your enormous schlong will totally understand why someone would want to play with it, and be thankful that someone as gifted as you would share his bounty with those less fortunate.

100 Tearoom Trade
Opportunities abound for sex in public areas like washrooms, locker rooms, or urban wilderness areas. Like maybe the dude in the far stall has a "wide stance," or maybe the stud at the next urinal is stroking his tool and eyeing yours. Or the guy in the change room is taking forever to get dressed, and man does he have an ass you'd like to tap. And yeah, sometimes this sort of thing would happen anyway, but it's way more common now. You also have an instinctive knack for getting away with public sex; either by finding a private corner, or by recognizing a willing audience. This is especially easy for you to do in the areas previously mentioned.

100 UST
Is the guy you're feuding with kinda hot? Wouldn't it be nice if instead of fighting you could be doing something else? Well, personal dislike is no longer an obstacle to hooking up. If anything, it increases the odds of it happening. Bitter rivals turn into frenemies with benefits, and even deadly foes will prefer to inflict erotic punishment on you rather than anything more final. Generally speaking, any hostility you encounter will just be unresolved sexual tension: so resolve it already.

100 Wallmouth
Glory holes and secluded bathroom stalls seem to be everywhere you go. Whether you want to service guys or be serviced yourself, the chance of a suitable encounter increases dramatically when you are around, and the guys will always be really hot. Some of them will be dudes you've been perving on at school, work, the gym, etc. A detailed visualization of the encounter will play in your head, allowing you to see exactly who is on the other side, but your anonymity is guaranteed unless and until you choose to reveal yourself.

200 Exempt
It turns out you don't actually want to make gay porn? Disappointing, but whatever. You count as having already done it. Once during each subsequent Jump you may choose to receive a waiver for a generic task that is otherwise within your power. For example, you could skip the thesis requirement of a PhD, or the residency requirement to become a medical doctor. You will be as skilled as if you had completed the requirement with flying colors, and no one will be concerned about you not completing it.

200 Make Me
If you are tough enough to physically subdue one or more guys, either by yourself or with the help of your associates, you'll find they'll submit to your sexual demands with at most token resistance. You don't have to hurt them; you don't even have to posture or make threats. You just have to be very firm about what you want them to do. Even Alphas will cooperate as long as they can keep their declared stance (top, bottom or verse). Afterwards everyone will find the experience at least as sexy and satisfying as you did, however much they might pretend otherwise.

200 Persuasion
New ways of thinking and acting are easy for you to adopt. Like when your high school buddy told you, "It only hurts at first; after a while, you kinda like it." You can persuade others just as easily, at least in matters involving sexuality. Like when a college friend was having girlfriend troubles, you suggested he try being gay. He's so much happier now! Whether you are the one persuading or the one being persuaded, this perk ensures that when people agree, things will change for the better. Major things, like getting someone to bat for the other team or starting a career in porn, can only be done twice a year, and have to be at least somewhat appropriate to their life situation. Minor things, like a one-time brojob or drunken hookup, can be arranged twice a week. Something intermediate, like persuading a dude that it wouldn't be gay to try taking a huge dildo up his ass, is somewhere in between. The recharge rate for these kinds of uses are in parallel; you can apply two major changes, several moderate changes and lots of minor changes per year, and can similarly be persuaded of things yourself.

200 Sodomania
Maybe it's that thing you do with your tongue, but sex with you is strangely addictive. If you want to have sex with a previous partner, only the most exigent circumstances will result in them turning you down. Yet they won't bother you unless you want them to. Additionally, anyone you have sex with becomes very horny and promiscuous (in a thoroughly gay way) for several days afterwards, if they weren't that way already.

300 Planeswalker
Congratulations, you have your Spark! Well, not really, but you can now travel at will to porn analogues of different settings and have erotic adventures. It's all simulation, so you can't cheat your way to ultimate power or gain knowledge, magic or technology you don't already have access to. But other than that, the settings are convincingly real, with real food and drink and everything. You cannot take anyone with you on your journeys across the Blind Eternities unless they have at least an ersatz Spark.

300 Versatile
Choose a single role or orientation other than your own. In this category you gain a discount on all perks and items, a 200 cp perk stipend, and your choice of either the keystone perk or one of the 100 cp perks. All perks you purchase from this category count as a single mega-perk, namely a single purchase of Versatile. You may purchase Versatile more than once, choosing a different category each time. Versatile is not available to extras. Effects that manipulate, transfer or share cp backed purchases work very poorly with this perk.

ITEMS

Besides the free items from being a Director or Model, you and your companions (but not extras) get four floating discounts. Discounts apply to an item's total cost, so a 50 cp item with a 50 cp upgrade is a total of 50 cp when purchased at a discount. After applying discounts, four items costing 50 cp (possibly due to discounts) are now free. Multiple discounts can apply to the same item (one or more floating discounts plus a background discount), and items with a final price below 50 cp are always free.

You may opt for an extra to have one or two items you purchase. The extra is friendly, so will likely use the item to help you. Only items costing 100 cp or less, though. See the companion section for more details on how extras work.

You have minor odds and ends consistent with a life in this world, but default to starting with few close friends and not much in the way of family.

Directors get a discount on all locations. All locations are private enough to shoot porn at, and you have all the necessary licenses and permissions.

(free for all) Cash
If you are a Director, you have enough to live on, plus enough to make a gay porno or three. If you are a model, you are kind of short of funds right now. Only enough for a month's expenses. If only there was something you could do to make a quick buck...

(free for all) Cell Phone
This self-charging cell phone has unlimited free minutes and data, and connects wherever there is a signal. You can shoot video with it as if it were a movie camera with automatic stabilization and light adjustment. It has the equivalent of a Grindr account in any world that is advanced enough to have social media, and an app to wirelessly control any vibrators you might own. The pictures folder will automatically populate with sexy photos of you and your adventures, and acquaintances will often send you explicit selfies "on accident." The photo gallery doesn't lock, and if you leave the phone lying around people will definitely check out your raunchy pix.

(free/50) Bow Chicka Wow Wow
What's a porno without music? You get a soundtrack appropriate for any situation. You can toggle it so it's only audible to you, but it defaults to everyone nearby hearing it. No one finds this strange. Free for a Director, 50 cp for anyone else.

(free/50) Camera
You have a camera on a lanyard, and can impress others as a photographer scouting for talent. Wherever you go, especially on beaches or college campuses, you'll run into aspiring models who are eager for a break and willing to work for exposure. Not only will they likely pose nude, but they might even be willing to have sex on camera! But even if not, hey, free eye candy from hot guys who want to make a good impression on you. It's a real camera, either old-school film or modern digital, so if you forget to get film or charge its battery it won't work. You have a great deal of skill in anything to do with photography. Free for a Director, 50 cp for anyone else.

(50/free) Clothes
A closet full of stylish clothes and drawers of sexy underwear. It includes lots of fetish wear (mostly leather, but some rubber), and can even include your choice of a furry costume or puppy gear. And while not technically clothing, you have a replenishing supply of condoms and lube, too. Clothes are always in perfect condition when you need them next. Free for a Model, 50 cp for anyone else.

(50/free) Job
You have, or can easily obtain, a legal source of income. Nothing fancy, but it covers the rent, ramen, and the occasional night out. The job won't involve sex work, but there will be plenty of opportunities for sex at work, or with customers, that won't get you fired. That pizza won't deliver itself, will it? Free for a Model, 50 cp for anyone else.

50 Booze
A supply of the really good stuff, enough to get thirty college guys thoroughly drunk and still have lots left over. Refills weekly. It's so good that dudes who normally drink little will overindulge, but nobody will drink to the point of alcohol poisoning. Unlike most alcohol, this won't impair sexual performance. It enhances effects that push boundaries, and guys who get drunk will do a lot of things they wouldn't normally do, but seem not to remember much of it. At least no one will hold their actions against them. Bottoms up!

50 Cock Cage
This is a metal or plastic tube which encloses the penis so as to prevent erections and genital orgasms, and which locks into place. Prolonged use (which is harmless) increases sensitivity to other forms of sex by about 50%. It also makes the wearer considerably more horny than usual. A cock cage inspires curiosity in those who notice it (in communal showers, say, or a change room) and the sight of someone wearing one greatly increases the chance of a quick sex act being suggested and agreed to. Comes in your choice of color, but silver, black or white are traditional. If the key is lost, a new one will show up in about a week. Two weeks at the latest.

50 Cock Ring
Wearing this allows you to maintain an erection indefinitely without any discomfort or medical issues, and makes it an inch longer than before, too. The ring is invisible unless you choose otherwise. Displaying your hard cock seems curiously appropriate if only adults or peers are around, and guys who aren't already naked will feel overdressed in your presence. Other cock rings worn nearby have the same properties as this one.

50 Couch
Always comfy, no matter what you're doing on it. Men nearby are even hornier and less inhibited than usual. Best of all, everyone accepts and approves of dudes being naked or having sex on or against it. And the guys in question won't mind an audience either. In fact, they'll like it. The Couch is self-cleaning when not in use, and usually has a sex toy hidden under the cushions.

50 Deck of Cards
With this deck it's easy to get a few guys to play a game where the loser(s) will be willing to do something kinda (or totally) gay as a forfeit. If you lose a bet you have to man up, right? You can make similar sorts of arrangements for arm-wrestling, foosball, pool, and other games with one or two guys per side. You will feel like going along with some pretty embarrassing or degrading forfeits if you lose.

50 Deep Fakes
Once a week you receive an hour of video of basically anyone doing anything to anyone. Well, anything that fits the themes of this Jump. Just provide a description of what you want to see, and a week later it’ll be ready for you to enjoy. The porn ranges from found footage quality to that of a professional studio, at your option, except that a close examination reveals something is a little off. Not that people would easily notice, but something's odd with the lighting, or the textures, or how people move. Nothing that will prevent you from enjoying the hell out of it, though.

50 Dildo Collection
This collection of toys is guaranteed to fill that dildo shaped hole in your life. Starting from the size of your little finger, they range to the size of your arm. There are double-headed dildoes, vibrators… even a few fleshlights. Some, clearly labeled, even match the equipment of those guys you're crushing on! They all fit into a surprisingly compact carrying case. All items are automatically cleaned when not in use.

50 Drugs
A supply of marijuana, hashish, ecstasy, poppers, magic mushrooms and other mildly illegal drugs, along with the appropriate paraphernalia. Easily enough of each for you and your friends. There's even a few doses of "Spanish Fly," which makes a guy crave a hard plowing for hours afterwards; it's like an itch inside that only vigorous penetration can relieve. The supply of drugs renews each week. The drugs are non-addictive, but they all make the users even more horny than usual. Bongs out, dongs out!

50 Fake ID
A very convincing fake ID that lets you pass yourself off as being a different age (your choice how much older or younger the false age is). Assume the legal age to drive is 16 (with a learner's permit at 14), with voting and legal adulthood at 18, and legal drinking at 21. Purchase of this item keeps you clear skinned and the very picture of glowing health and youth for quite a few years longer than is natural. Or the pinnacle of mature virility, if you chose to add to your years rather than cling to the first bloom of manhood.

50 Little Black Book
Need help keeping track of your hookups? This slim volume has you covered; each man listed in it has a dossier including name, photo, address, contact information, relationship status, sexual preferences, and a few notes regarding past encounters. The entry autocompletes and automatically updates for anyone you've had sex or swapped spit with. Spitting in someone's mouth counts, as does a glory hole encounter.

50 Mask
Your choice whether this is a domino mask, a ski mask, a bandanna, maybe just dark glasses. It's very comfortable, and if it covers your nose and mouth it provides perfect protection from airborne infection. While you are wearing it, you cannot be recognized except by those who witnessed you putting it on. Not even via your voice or tattoos or anything; you are completely anonymous until it is removed.

50 Porn Library
Whether it's a large collection of magazines and DVDs, or a lot of internet bookmarks and passwords for paywalled material, you have everything you need for your porn related needs. Well, as long as it would be considered mainstream today. Whether you need to get a bunch of frat boys worked up or scratch an itch of your own, this stash has got you covered. And if anyone wants to jerk off to this porn, no one will mind. In fact, they'll likely join in.

50 Private Room
A basic room in a hotel or motel, paid up for as long as you need it. There's no room service, but there are several decent porn channels to set the mood. The soundproofing is very good, so you can make a commotion without getting any noise complaints. You can instead have a rent-free dorm room or studio apartment if you like.

50 Roofies
You have three pills that replenish daily. They dissolve instantly in any drink and are tasteless, odorless and colorless when dissolved. Minutes after being consumed they will cause the imbiber to pass out for half an hour and make them completely forget the events of the two hours both before and after their nap. Someone under their influence is both highly suggestible and quite horny. You should keep an eye on these pills to prevent unauthorized use.

50 Rope
An ample supply of ropes and assorted bindings, always at hand when needed. They practically tie and fasten themselves, trussing someone snugly and securely in just a few minutes. There are never any difficulties due to restricted circulation or pinching. Anyone restrained by this item becomes significantly more likely to do what they're told.

50 Spycam
A concealed camera that automatically records any lewd behavior nearby. Changes in camera angle, closeups, etc. somehow take place as if a full film crew were present. If porn, a dildo or a fleshjack is hidden nearby, and a guy spends some time around it thinking he's unobserved, it is highly likely that he'll find the hidden material and then do what comes naturally. Spicy!

50 Two Tickets
What are you in the mood for? This set of tickets (or invitations, coupons, etc.) for you and a friend changes randomly to a different event each day. It might be for a concert, a play, or an orgy, or may just be a gift certificate for dinner and a movie, but it will always be something that you would enjoy. When used, the set is replaced in five days.

50 (100) Vehicle
A decent car, motorcycle, pickup truck or windowless van that refuels itself weekly. It has a tail or signal light that sometimes fails when sexy police officers are nearby. When it needs repairs, the local garage will accept service "in kind" in lieu of payment. You sometimes come across sexy hitchhikers who are always willing to put out (or unwilling, if you like that better). For another 50 cp the vehicle never needs refueling, repairs itself overnight and slips past police attention and traffic cameras for minor violations... but what's the fun in that?

50 Workout Guide
So you're a skinny twink who wants to be buff? Not a problem. Follow this personalized guide and you'll get the results of good genes and years of work in mere months. And if you decide you'd like to be slender? The diet guide with it can restore your twinkhood just as quickly. It's cheap and easy, too.

50 X-Ray Glasses
These appear to be an ordinary pair of dark sunglasses, but when you put them on and look at a guy for about five seconds, you will see what he looks like naked. Another five seconds, and you will see what he looks like hard. If you want to see what he looks like when he comes, though, you'll have to find out on your own. They default to only working on good looking men, so you won't accidentally get an unpleasant eyeful. If more than one cute guy is in your field of vision, you can check them all out at once. They can be adjusted to stop at "naked view" if for some reason that's all you want.

100 Blindfold (discount Bicurious or Straight)
Anonymity is a potent aphrodisiac. Whoever wears this will find everyone else quite uninhibited with respect to them. And the wearer will in turn be surprisingly open to new experiences. You also know how to tie blindfolds that are secure and lightproof. Such blindfolds share the properties of the main one as long as they are worn nearby.

100 Camping Gear (discount Ace)
Everything you need to overnight in the great outdoors. Tents, sleeping bags, even smores. Don't expect to get much sleep, though; whether it's a pair of guys in each tent or an orgy around the campfire, there's going to be a lot of "male bonding" going on. But don't worry; what happens in the woods stays in the woods, and your privacy here is assured. Except possibly for one or more sexy forest rangers, escaped prisoners, horny hikers or the like. And even if you go camping every weekend you'll always have lots of friends (or friends of friends) to go with, and somehow the weather is always great and the bugs are minimal. In the winter you have a lodge all to yourselves. So whether you need a get away from work or to bond with your bros, this is the perfect item.

100 Clothing Optional Sign (discount Ace)
This item is typically placed by a pool, on a beach, or in a bedroom or man cave. It doesn't have to be obvious to be effective. Guys near it are not shy about stripping down, as long as only guys are present. A flimsy excuse is all that is needed. Each guy who takes off his clothes makes the rest feel more and more overdressed. Best of all, if anything sexy happens, there will be no negative consequences for anyone. Just harmless fun and guys enjoying each other's bodies.

100 Cowboy Hat (discount Straight or Bent)
Save a horse, ride a cowboy. Wear this to display mastery of all cowboy related skills, including riding, rope use, and wielding a bullwhip. The cowboy hat comes with a pair of cowboy boots and assless chaps. And since you can be a hard-working country boy without owning a cowboy hat, you'll get similar results whenever you don suitable gear, such as a tool belt and work boots for expert tool use or a fireman's getup for enhanced handling of anything hose-like. The details don't really matter: just wear a clothing item (usually head gear and/or footwear; wear either or both to get the benefits) to master the related manly skills and look pretty damn sexy while you're at it. And just in case it isn't obvious, gay sex is a very manly skill.

100 Etchings (discount Bicurious or Bent)
People don't appreciate your cultured, artistic side. But have they seen your fine collection of etchings? Any acquaintance you tell about them will want to examine them with you in private. And most of them will then want to try out what is depicted there. They are very erotic etchings! Curiosity and novelty is a large component of the effect, so it only works once on a given person; after the initial exposure it's just erotic artwork.

100 Flogger (discount Straight or Alpha)
This item provides the perfect mix of sting and thud, providing exactly the amount of stimulation that your sub needs, and providing an impressive show to anyone watching. It's straightforward to find a willing sub, too. You just somehow know who to ask. Or if you want to be on the business end, that can be arranged just as easily. You know how to present an interest in erotic flogging so that it appears respectable and mainstream. Or you can make it seem kinky and perverted, if you like that better.

100 Football (discount Bicurious or Alpha)
What is more manly, or innocent, than throwing around a football? Wherever it makes sense to throw this around you soon find at least one guy to play with. And after an hour or two of friendly exertion, well, you'll have at least one guy to "play" with. Anyone you've previously "scored" with will know what usually happens afterwards, but that doesn't mean they'll say no. This item makes a handy prop, too. You, or whoever you loan it to, will naturally use it to preserve a bit of modesty while lolling around nude or close to it. Oh, purchasing this item also gives you skill with throwing and catching a football. Maybe not enough to go pro, but close.

100 Frat Invite (discount Straight or Fairy)
You have been invited to pledge for a local fraternity! If you're not a college student you can easily pass for one. Up to twice a week you can show up to be banged repeatedly and on camera by several hot upperclassmen. This is to raise funds, and each such visit adds +1 service point. After a year you can help initiate new pledges, but only as many times per year as you have service points. Or you can keep bottoming: no one will judge. You can also show up for non-banging events, of course; it's a full fraternity with all the trimmings. This item can be modified to fit other Key Locations: it can be a gym or sex club membership, a share of a ranch, or maybe you're an intern at a porn studio. Whatever the location, you will always start at the bottom, as it were, and will get to regularly have sex on camera.

100 (200) Guest Star (discount Ace)
There's a special app on your phone that lets you, once a week, schedule a scene with any guy you like. Well, with a quasi-real guy who looks, talks, acts and even smells exactly like the man you specify, age-shifted to the prime of his life (your choice if there's a range of ages), at your current location—even if that's in a virtual reality—and ready for whatever you have in mind, especially if it involves having sex in front of a camera. He'll act out any scenario you have in mind. You can choose doubles of fictional characters if, say, you'd rather film Scott McCall than Tyler Posey, or Peter Parker instead of Tom Holland, but such doubles will have special powers only in the context of bedroom activities, and won't know any secrets. Spider Man will be acrobatic, a werewolf can go wolfman if that's your thing, etc. They are just like the originals, but tweaked a bit to ensure they measure up where it matters. They have all the documentation needed to work in porn and can stay for up to twelve hours to finish shooting a long scene. You can save up to five charges to schedule more than one person in a week, or even multiple guys at the same time. For an extra 100 cp you get a new guest star every day instead of every week and can store ten charges.

100 Jockstrap (discount Alpha or Bent)
This skimpy piece of athletic attire doesn't interfere with abilities that work better when you are naked, nor does any athletic equipment you wear with it. It provides a significant boost to your strength, speed, endurance, and flexibility. More importantly, it emphasizes your bulge, accents your ass, and draws attention to your lean, muscular lines. Enjoyable activities, especially those involving hot, horny athletes or their admirers, are much more likely when this item is worn. Visible jockstraps share the properties of the main one as long as they are worn nearby.

100 Knee-Pads (discount Bent or Fairy)
This pair of knee-pads designates the wearer as willing to serve, so don't put them on if you don't mean it. Any guy who wears this will be much more receptive to anyone who wants to make use of him, especially if they don't ask nicely. Instead of knee-pads it might be a sexy slave collar, or a blindfold or something. If it is in a variant form with no visible protection, kneeling on hard surfaces still won't cause discomfort. Visible knee-pads (or copies of whatever the alt-form is) will share the properties of the main one as long as they are worn nearby.

100+ Mad Money (discount Ace)
OK, it's kinda mean to limit your income like I did. Let's fix that. You get $1,000 a day to spend on sex toys, fetishwear, etc., and on consumables and experiences—things like cover charges, drinks, meals, rent boys, cab fare and hotel rooms. If you pay a companion, they'll only squander it, and if you use it to repay a debt, or otherwise game it, it takes a month to recharge (or until whatever ineligible purchase is lost, destroyed or used up). Otherwise it's replaced within 24 hours. It can either be cash or a recharging debit or credit card at your option. Mad Money can be purchased multiple times.

100 Pheromones (discount Bicurious or Fairy)
A nice cologne that makes other men experience certain... urges. The pheromones are most effective in an enclosed space, and can take some time to work. But after breathing them in for a while, well, a guy will find himself hard as a rock and making out with you without quite knowing why. Straight dudes probably won't go all the way, but... Who knows? Stranger things have happened. If ingested instead of applied externally it makes your saliva an aphrodisiac. Just spit into someone's food or drink, and after consuming it they are affected as above. Or give them a sloppy kiss on the mouth if subtlety isn't your thing. Pheromones enhance other effects that make guys horny or lower inhibitions.

100 Straight Hell (discount Alpha or Fairy)
This item may be a spreader bar that binds both hands and feet, a pillory, a spanking bench, a sling with wrist and ankle cuffs, etc. Something that provides complete restraint. A guy locked into it temporarily loses any inclination towards gay sex he might have had, and will be very sorry about whatever choices led to this. Except that even if he begs to be let go, he will still use safewords to indicate that he is OK with going forward. In other words, it'll look as if he's deep into roleplaying a straight guy in trouble. When released he'll remember the experience as kinky and intense, but fun.

400 Dream Weaver (Jumper only)
This is a virtual reality setup the size of a shower stall. You can use it to enter a still image or video, either replacing an actor or being an addition to the scene. You can make actors and crew into extras as needed. In the VR environment you can use your perks normally, and alter the course of events as you like, as if you were the director as well as an actor. The default is that you appear in the depicted fantasy as yourself, but with the Movie Magic perk you and your companions can instead look just like the actors, or even be part of a film crew shooting the scene. Whatever your role, you'll receive a copy of the video, and if publicly distributed it will be received as a praiseworthy homage or a reimagining of the original work, never as merely a cheap imitation or infringement. Only Jumpers may purchase this item.

KEY LOCATIONS

These help set the theme(s) of your story. Locations are discounted for Directors.

400 Dungeon (location)
A well-equipped sex dungeon with a fucking bench, sling, St. Andrew's cross, stocks, fucking machine, and cages of various sizes, plus a wide variety of useful items: dildoes, butt plugs, cock rings, fleshjacks, ball stretchers, electrostim, spider gags, rope, handcuffs, blindfolds, cock cages, paddles, vibrators, nipple clamps (with weights), carved ginger root, floggers and more. All items are self-cleaning and maintenance-free, and return automatically to their assigned place when not in use. All toys are guaranteed not to cause inadvertent injuries. In addition, all endorphins released during play are significantly enhanced. The dungeon can be imported to any property you or a companion owns, or made into a warehouse extension. It defaults to being part of a private sex-club, but other forms are possible—maybe a house with an extensive basement? An office building with a secret floor? A kinky warden's prison playroom? Architectural trickery and secret doors make it surprisingly concealable.

400 Frat House (location)
A place to live, near campus and with lots of bros, and plenty of strict but somewhat arbitrary rules. It has a spacious backyard, well fenced for privacy. You don't own the building, but the rent is cheap. Most hazing will be sexual in nature, and you can choose how you participate. This might be a good place to film, or to recruit models from. If you like, there are one or more rival frats nearby, with all the opportunities for hijinks that implies. Despite all the distractions, living here guarantees that you perform at the peak of your academic ability, and halves all training times that primarily involve a mental component. This location can be imported into future Jumps, and adjusts to your circumstances. So if you are in high school, this might be Helios Academy, a prestigious private school with snazzy uniforms. If you are a CEO, this could be your corporate headquarters, full of up-and-coming young executives and eager-to-please interns. Or maybe you're the intern? It's your choice.

400 Gym (location)
Attending the Gym guarantees that you maintain peak athletic ability. It includes a sauna and communal showers, and lockers big enough to fit a person inside. And the towel boy is just your type. The Gym halves all training times that primarily involve a physical component. You have a free membership and a key for after-hours access and for the closet where all the athletic tape is stored. Somehow the equipment you want to use is always available, and the locker room, sauna or showers provide fit, horny guys or complete privacy as you desire. Some of those horny guys might even be aspiring models. The Gym can be imported into future Jumps, and, as usual, adapts to fit its context. For instance, you can drop most of the athletic equipment and make it a simple bath house, massage parlor, gay bordello or fire station.

400 Porn Studio (Jumper only, location)
Want to meet porn stars? Want to, ahem, work with porn stars? Want to watch guys have sex all day? Want to be one of the guys having sex all day? If you answered 'yes' to any of these questions you definitely want to check this place out. It's unique in that it works with other studios to access even exclusive models. Whether you want to interview new talent, produce or perform in scenes, or edit the shots into a Grabby-worthy production, you have a well-paid part-time or full-time position here alongside hot models and award winning directors. And don't be afraid that eventually it will become "just a job." By the magic of Jumpchain that won't happen; each day will be as exciting and erotic as ever. Only Jumpers may purchase this item.

400 Ranch (location)
You can work here for free room and board, but the wages are low and you only get one day off a week. Or you pay a modest sum to live here but come and go as you please. The isolation is good for any artistic, spiritual or chi-based disciplines, halving the training times of any activities for which these comprise the primary component(s). There's a nice swimming hole for skinny dipping, a St. Andrew's Cross in the barn, and a few convenient patches of stinging nettles if you can find a use for them. The ranch comes with your choice of sheep, cattle or horses (not for erotic use!). The other ranch hands might be interested in opportunities to make a little extra money. The ranch can be imported into future Jumps, and adapts to the environment. For instance, in a sci-fi setting it might be a remote space station.

A setting will generally have several instances of a purchased Key Location. You can find them if you look. Large cities will have BDSM clubs if you spent cp on the Dungeon, say, and your sci-fi setting will have remote space stations corresponding to the Ranch.

COMPANIONS

So you don't have to do it alone

(Special) Special Friends

Up to four companions may be created or imported for free. Each gets 700 cp to spend plus a role and orientation. They get discounts and freebies as you would. Additional companions cost 50 cp each. Companions may choose from the Indecisive family of drawbacks for up to +400 cp.

New companions are not necessarily friends or allies, especially at first. They may be introduced as antagonists for your enemies-to-lovers storyline or as rivals for your one true love. They'll be interested in making porn according to their role as model or director, but will use perks and items in pursuit of their own interests, not yours. Age, background, etc. are whatever is appropriate for your story.

If you create or import fewer than four companions, you may donate a 50 cp credit for each unused free companion slot to your other companions, if you have any. If you are Jumping without companions, then there will be some random civilians around who have perks and items as companions would, but who will not accompany you on your journey. Determine their number and characteristics according to the rules given here.

A maximum of 300 cp may be donated to your companions, including credits: a donation gives all imported or new companions an increase to their build equal to twice as many cp as you donated. So if you donate 50 cp (total), each eligible companion will have an additional 100 cp to spend.

(free) Extras

"Extras" are ordinary (but hot) guys who have a few perks or items from this document. A Cam Guy recording the Shenanigans at the local fraternity, say, or a dude at the gym with Python. A college student with Spy Cam and Just for Fans, or a dealer with Drugs and Roofies. An extra can have one or two perks or items, but not Versatile, nor any item with a base price over 100 cp. If the total value of his perks and items is 100 cp or less, he also has Gaydar and either Cam Guy or Porn Star for free (or another 50 cp perk if he already has one of these). Extras don't get discounts from a background, or freebies other than those just mentioned.

Feel free to spice up your world with as many extras as you need, but don't let yourself get weighed down with "extra" bookkeeping. The 400 cp properties are each stocked with several extras. Post-Jump they will be natives of the new setting.

DRAWBACKS

You may gain up to +1000 cp from drawbacks.

+0 Cherry
Is this your first Jump? Or did you take Generic First Jump just prior to or with this one? Either way, perks purchased here count as part of your body mod.

+0 High School Sucks
Your starting age is 13+1d4. If you've already determined your age, subtract 4 as many times as needed until you're under 18. The default assumption of the setting is that the age of consent is 16, with a five year "Romeo and Julien" age gap for 14 or 15 year-olds with older lovers. You also need to be at least 18 to legally perform in adult films, or else have Fake ID. You might want to wait a few years before you use your purchases. Remember, you have ten years to make that porno.

+0 Peggy Sue Got Laid
Are you already in this timeline on the day when the Jump starts? As long as other you is at least 14, you may choose to insert, Peggy Sue style, into your own life. Events will parallel the OTL if possible, except there's probably a lot more gay sex.

+0 Rerun
This isn't your first time, is it? I can tell. Well, you either give up all previous purchases and start a new build from scratch (it gets Cherry if the first version did), or just apply one or more toggles from this document to another Jump as a supplement. In either case some of the perks and items listed here will automatically appear among the locals. This makes them count as extras, as per the Companion rules.

+0 Strap On
Want to attach this Jump to another? Go for it! If the other Jump lacks a way of recording movies, you'll have to stage live performances in front of audiences instead. Fill in this Jump as you normally would and adapt the drawbacks to fit the new world. Then fill in that Jump document as you would normally. You will start with a background from the other Jump in addition to a role and orientation. The duration is the longer of this Jump and the base Jump. Use the other Jump to determine your age, but selections from this Jump are active only if you are at least 14 years old (or your species equivalent).

+0 World of Twinks
Or bears, or redheads, or muscle hunks, or whatever you like. The proportion of dudes matching your preferred aesthetic increases significantly, whether Bel Ami or Raging Stallion. Generally, if it affects only aesthetics, you can do it. If taken with Strap On this means that if the other setting is aimed at an audience with different interests (e.g. big breasts and miniskirts), you can adjust things as needed, although not in a way that resolves the plot. So if in a particular setting monster girls mate with human males because there are no monster boys… Well, now there are. But they're sterile. And very, very, gay. Or if there's a demon princess, she'll have a male altform. Or some of the female main characters might be gender flipped to male but still like men. And of course you can substitute some hot guys for various characters in ways that don't affect the plot. Want Draco Malfoy to look, sound and act like Theo Brady? And Percy Weasley to be a dead ringer for Kyle Connors? It's a done deal.

+100–400 Indecisive
So many options! How can you decide? For extra cp you may restrict your choices or surrender them to chance.

- Focus: For +100 cp, you may not purchase perks from an orientation or role other than your own.
- Choice: For +100 cp, randomly cross off one perk in each tier for any role or orientation you have a discount in; that perk cannot be purchased.
- General: For +100 cp, when purchasing general perks that cost 50 or 100 cp, select the first 200 cp worth of purchases randomly. (For example, two 50 cp perks and one 100 cp perk, or two 100 cp perks.)
- Items: For +100 cp, select your freebies by rolling d20 four times, and distribute your four floating discounts randomly among the last 20 items (roll 20+d20) in the item section. If a discount is rolled for an item that is free or ineligible, roll again. You may only buy items that are free, discounted, or that cost 50 cp.

You may pick any or all of these options for a maximum of +400 cp. For your RNG convenience there are some lists after the End Choices. For record keeping, something like this might work: +300 Indecisive (focus, general, items).

+100 NoFap
Sex by yourself just doesn't cut it. Either you can't get yourself off at all, or you feel unsatisfied afterwards, as well as guilty and depressed. This doesn't apply when you're performing for someone else.

> +100 Anhedonia (requires NoFap, incompatible with Screamer)
> When you ejaculate there is a certain release of sexual tension, but no orgasm. It's basically just a genital sneeze. It's a good thing you can act!

+100 Plus One
Any guy you have sex with will have a brother/cousin/friend who's just as hot and horny, and who happens to be up for a little fun. They're both into threesomes and group sex, too. For the next three months treat them both as if they had the Sodomania perk and had just had sex with you. This effect bypasses all mental protections. Post-Jump you may retain this drawback as a free perk.

+100 Professional
Your sex film must be of professional quality, at least 80 minutes long, and have a registered brand name. This can be through an existing company in the adult video market. A video from your phone uploaded to PornHub just won't do. You may select from the following drawbacks that add to the Jump exit requirements.

> +100–200–300 Jump Him: the Sequel (requires Professional)
> You must make (or perform in) a gay porno for each Jump you have completed prior to this one. For every ten Jumps add +100 to the total cp, to a maximum of +300 cp total for 20 or more previous Jumps.
> +100 Perfectionist (requires Professional)
> Every scene has to be just right, and so will be reshot several times before a porno is good enough. Instead of a week or less, it takes six to eight weeks to finish shooting. At least the resulting oeuvre is amazing.
> +100 Punny (requires Professional)
> The title of each qualifying porno must involve word play and/or parody a real world film. Something like Cinderfella, Shaving Ryan's Privates or The Porn Identity would do nicely. A title like Jumper's Case Files #14, not so much.
> +200 Award Winner (requires Professional)
> Not only must you make one or more gay sex videos, but you or an imported companion must also win a major industry award, such as a Grabby or GayVN award for one of them. You or your companion must either be the main actor or the director of a film for a best film award to count.

+100 Screamer (incompatible with Anhedonia)
You just cannot remain quiet when you're having sex. Even masturbation has you moaning and gasping, no matter the consequences. Maybe if you were thoroughly gagged it would help? On the plus side, you enjoy sex a lot. Like, really a lot.

+200 Inappropriate
The heart wants what it wants, and what yours wants is someone off limits due to another relationship of yours. Like your sister's boyfriend, or your current boyfriend's ex. If you're a student you'll be hot for teacher, and if you're an office drone you'll be in lust with the boss. In moments of passion you'll call people by the wrong names. Awkward!

+200/+0 Questionnaire
You thought it was a joke survey and the activities you checked off—well, maybe you've thought about them a few times, but never seriously! But it turns out it was a contract, and the guy who gave it to you must have had genie powers or something because now you're bound to do them all on camera before you can end the Jump. You may have one or more of your companions fill out similar binding contracts, if you like.

Special: In place of drawback cp you may gain the Blackmailed perk, even if another drawback prohibits it. The checked off activities will feature prominently in your assigned tasks. You may also make dub-con or coercive situations a major theme in your story. Consider starting the Jump in a prison, boarding school or other similar institution.

+200 Real Life
The minimum Jump duration is increased to five years. During this time you must pursue an education and/or find a job that does not involve sex work. You may use weekends, holidays, and days off for extracurriculars like porn, escorting or camming. Spend even a few minutes of a work day on sex work and a day will be added to the Jump duration. This continues until five years have passed, or you've completed 1200 unspoiled work days, whichever is greater. Your companions, if any, will be under the same restrictions. The Jump doesn't end for any of you until it ends for all.

+300 Powerless
Powers from most other Jumps are sealed for you and your companions for the duration of your stay. This does not include skills theoretically possible in the real world like being a fighter pilot/song writer, minor physical changes like having a great singing voice or being double-jointed, or any lewd abilities you may have picked up along the way. Your warehouse is locked, too, and your items are inaccessible, including fiat sources of cash, commodities and valuables. Nothing acquired via Strap On is affected.

END CHOICES

Your time in the Jump has come to an end. All drawbacks are revoked, and if you assigned an item to an extra, you'll get it back now. Unless you've recruited him: then he keeps it. You now have one last decision to make: what next? If you failed to make or perform in gay porn as specified in this document, you may not Continue, but must instead either Stay or Go Home. Otherwise choose from the full range of options:

Stay
Have you found your true calling here? Good for you. Time will resume for the Jumps that you've previously visited, and your affairs will be wrapped up back home.

Go Home
Have you really seen all you want of the multiverse? Taking this option will return you to the time and place you started your chain.

Continue
There is still too much more to see and do. Move on to your next Jump.

Each perk and item from this document now has an on/off switch, one which can be toggled with a thought by its owner. The owner may also, at the beginning of a Jump, lock a purchase to either on or off.

LISTS (for the Indecisive drawback)

For the second option (choice) of the Indecisive drawback, randomly cross off one perk from each row in your role and orientation. That perk cannot be purchased.

GENERAL NOTES

Orientations: Purchases don't have to match the individual's self-image. A straight guy with Cock Gobbler as a natural talent, for instance, would be totally appropriate.

Alphas: I've toned the rhetoric down considerably, but the idea is that an Alpha is a "real man" and sex with submissive guys is essentially him bullying someone at the bottom of the social hierarchy. In other words, it's not that the Alpha is erotically interested in men (heavens, no!) but that by penetrating lower status males he's expressing his natural contempt for them. I'm all for subverting this dynamic, and so this document allows much more flexibility with their sexual roles. Fairies are the natural prey of Alphas.

Fairy: This was originally "faggot," but despite the example of, say, advice columnist Dan Savage and author Thomas Carver, it still seems a bit too derogatory to use routinely. Also, the association of wishes and fairies seemed apt. "Fairy" was originally a slur, but has been partially reclaimed, much like "queer" has been.

Straight: Some of the attraction of straight guys is due to them being out of reach for the gay dudes who pine for them. Most (but not all) of the perks here that arrange sex thus either don't target a specific individual, or only improve your chances of scoring without guaranteeing it. And then there's the Dominance keystone for additional protection. This helps keep an unattainable crush on his pedestal.

Some perks potentially include females in their effect (e.g. if they say "them" instead of "him"). So if you want to be the Cam Guy for some lady friends, or if you and some buddies want to engage in Shenanigans with a chick, go for it.

All perks shared with sex partners or those nearby last until the end of the scene, unless otherwise specified. Perks shared with employees last the length of their employment.

For perks referencing loads per day, assume a base rate of three or so, or whatever you were capable of at that age; an extra day or two of abstinence might raise it another +2.

Purchases with a range of possibilities (Blackmailed, Frat Invite, etc.) can be changed as often as once per month to something else within the associated range. The premise of Blackmailed might change from you never refusing a dare to pledging at a frat to being the new hire at a startup, etc.

All discounts stack.

SPECIFIC NOTES

(pretty much in order of appearance)

Foot in the Door: This perk gives you similar skills whenever you work as a private contractor, and especially when you are promoting your own qualifications.

POV: The Spycam item can be used to record a remote view. If the Spycam belongs to someone else, they can loan it to you temporarily. Wallmouth and X-Ray Glasses count as enhancements to your vision.

Dominance trumps other people's perks (except Make Me, to an extent) and items, but not the Alpha's own perks and items. He's still subject to his own Blackmailed perk, for example, or being tied up with his own Rope. And drawbacks always trump perks.

Bully: Fellow bullies don't need to have a perk. Or one or more of them might be extras with different perks or items. Leverage, Shenanigans, Make Me, Jock Strap, etc.

Engraved Invitation: The "fully clothed if that would be to your advantage" is for when another guy has CMNM but you're both naked.

To the Vanquished: You can decide whether it's consolation blowjobs for your team, or tribute blowjobs for the victors. Or maybe it would have been the first, but your services were wagered on the game and so this time it's the second… Make something up. And of course the service need not be limited to blowjobs.

Worthy Alpha: The training boost is +400% that can be distributed among multiple guys. So you can give x5 to one protégé, or x2 to four. An extra with Birthday Wish can make Worthy Alphas on his own.

Innuendo is one of the very few perks here that can de-escalate a sexual situation. It can also encourage certain ways of thinking and acting. A perk like Glad Handing, in contrast, only helps when the other guy is already open to having sex.

Dancer: I really hope readers notice the humor in this document. Like how Bicurious dudes apparently have to rely on hearsay to know what girls like.

CMNM: A top can take this perk, even an Alpha; providing a dick is just as much a service as providing a hole. It gives the initiative to the other guy, but if you want your dick sucked and he wants to suck it, who cares who makes the first move?

Blackmailed (and any variation) is a way of getting lots of gay sex without bearing any responsibility for it. All tasks count as "awesome" for perks like Shenanigans.

Gay for Pay is another answer to why a dude who identifies as straight might be having so much gay sex. Such guys are usually willing to help their buddies earn some extra cash, too. The cognitive dissonance is optional.

Privacy: This perk is for when actually getting caught would cause too much trouble, but the thought that you might get caught is delicious. Stopping Peeping Toms from watching would be off-theme, though, which is why the perk doesn't exclude voyeurs.

Multiple Mike: This doubles bonus loads from other perks, too.

Wallmouth: If both guys have this perk, the privacy aspect makes it so that the internal view is like a scene shot so you can't see anyone's face. Besides a close-up of one guy's mouth, that is.

Exempt: The Professional drawback can't be fulfilled by this perk; you count as having made a generic porno, but not one that meets any of the listed criteria.

Planeswalker: The simulation happens in real time in an extradimensional space. It's not that different from a XXX-rated holodeck that only the Planeswalker can access.

Versatile may not be taken with the first option of Indecisive (focus), and is limited by the second option (choice).

Extras: this lets you start with a friend with Cam Guy or Porn Star. You're welcome.

Booze, drugs, etc.: Guys here are pretty good sports about stuff that would be wildly unethical in real life. Basically, as long as they get off it's all good. If a guy does object, it's usually so he can take revenge in a thematically appropriate way. Or have some friends get thematically appropriate revenge on his behalf.

Cock Ring: 5" is average for guys in the real world. A one inch bonus puts you at the 80th percentile, quite decent for porn. Camera tricks and lying can let you claim 7".

Deep Fakes: This never counts as something you've made or starred in. You can request short video clips at any time; each one takes a week to deliver, and you can make multiple requests in a week as long as the total length is less than an hour. A photo counts as a minute long clip, but you will get several shots of the scene - sorta like what a photographer might shoot in a minute.

X-Ray Glasses: The glasses do not see through the Mask item. On lower settings than "naked view" you will start to see more clothing, until the view is more M-Rated than X.

Frat Invite: this is the premise of the FraternityX porn site. Or the invite could instead provide a narrative hook to the story of a gym, ranch, etc. in financial trouble. Or forget about the fundraising - maybe you just show up after football practice or behind the barn, etc. It's basically an excuse for regular gang bangs, alright?

Guest Star: Instead of an app, you might have a hotline with an escort agency, or an amulet that summons shape-shifting incubi. Whatever you think fits the setting.

Straight Hell: Perks like Hands Free continue to work, of course, however humiliating this will be for the guy who's restrained.

Dream Weaver and Porn Studio can be used to satisfy drawbacks like Professional or Perfectionist, and can reshoot Deep Fakes to an acceptable standard.

World of Twinks: It definitely depends on the setting and the story, but this toggle—and, really, this jump—does not usually change the whole world. You just live in an unusual neighborhood in an unusual town in California, or whatever. Or maybe it works like the Erogamer quest on QQ and the eroticism propagates? Your story, your decision.

Anhedonia: Porn is at least sometimes about desire, not just getting off.

Plus One: A plus one doesn't usually have a plus one of his own: that's just your original partner. But if you want to gradually recruit the whole basketball team or something… well, that sounds pretty hot, so feel free to go for it.

Real Life is to encourage you to stay and enjoy the setting. This drawback is compatible with sex during work days, as long as it's not sex work.

Anything still unclear? Well, wanking is strongly encouraged.
