

Bloom, Pirate Hooker! Bloom! Jumpchain
By Cthulhu Fartagn

The Story Thus Far

The Archaeologist of the Straw Hat Pirates, Devil Child Nico Robin, with a bounty of 80,000,000 Berri, has been captured and taken to the underwater prison, Impel Down! The head jailer, Domino, is ready and waiting to give her a warm welcome. Why? Well, as it turns out, Domino specializes in the 'care' and management of a special kind of pirate - dickgirl pirates. And Nico Robin is one of them. In order to better understand her foe, she's even acquired a futa dick of her own!

As such, Domino will spend the next few years raping Nico Robin until she enjoys it. In fact, Robin will end up as a pirate hooker, sleeping with various marines as sexual relief. Nami and Boa Hancock will also be joining somewhere along the way, and the eternally sadistic Sadie, chief guard of Impel Down, will be there to berate Dominos gentle treatment of the girls.

And since this is likely important, the time and date is after Enies Lobby, but before Fishman Island. Beyond that? Not a clue. Go ahead and take these to help get yourself sorted out for the next ten years

An important not about the setting and story is that this version exists solely for the sake of lewds. Please do not come here assuming that the full might offered by the tg One Piece jump is also available - it is not.

Do not intentionally involve yourself in the plot, and it will pass you by.

Origins

Impel Down Guard

Your hand is the iron fist of justice, a member of the Marines. Well, maybe - Impel Down is pretty separate from the rest of the command structure. Anyways, you'll be the dominant one here for the most part. Since Impel Down Prides itself on being as hellish as possible, that leaves you with quite a bit of leeway on how you treat the prisoners.

Your age is mostly irrelevant, and your gender is the same as last jump, though there is a free swap to female if you want it. Seriously, I don't think a single male character gets shown.

Dickgirl Pirate

Alas, it would seem that your grand adventure is over. You've been caught and banished to the hell below hell below hell below hell below hell below hell below hell. Yeah, Impel Down is really hellish to its prisoners. Anyways, you will now be tortured until the government thinks you've learned your lesson or been redeemed somehow. Protip, thats never in their eyes.

Your age is still irrelevant, and your gender is set to female or futanari - word of warning, while pure female is an option, don't expect it to last very long.

Perks

Impel Down Guard

100 cp - Pure Sadist
One of the three chief guards of Impel Down, Sadie, is a massive sadist. As her equal in skill if not in rank, you are now extremely skilled in all manner of tortures. From traditional methods that cause pain, to the… less traditional, that cause pleasure. Everybody expects pain, but so few people train themselves to resist pleasure after all.

100 cp - Body Check
Welcome to Impel Down, prepare to be thrown into a pot of boiling oil. It's your baptism into hell! Also for the lice and other things a filthy pirate like you obviously has. Anyways, that's only the beginning. But, on another note, you also know how to frisk the prisoner for any hidden items they might be trying to sneak around. And by frisk, I mean grope them inappropriately until they can barely stand straight.

200 cp - The Hidden Dick
It would seem that lots of women here secretly have a dick that only shows itself under certain circumstances. With that in mind, you can now retroactively declare women a futanari. That said, you do need an excuse of some kind. Did they get cursed? Clearly growing a dick is a part of that. How about them being able to shapeshift? It's only natural they'd grow one. The power to create iron bars? Rod of iron is a great name for a dick!

200 cp - Bitch Breaker
It's one thing to know the rote mechanics behind something. It's another entirely to actually be good at it. With that in mind, you've learned to put a personal touch on the situation, making it hurt more and be oh so delicious to watch. Doesn't matter if it's cooking a meal or flaying someone alive, you can put just a tiny bit of oomph into it than a normal person can. Your torture is personalized. It's how you show you care.

400 cp - Forget Your Friends
Given enough time, even the most stubborn of souls will give into despair. Of course, why wait? You should be giving them a helping hand instead! When you overload someone - it makes no difference if this is with pain or pleasure - they'll very slowly forget that things other than that sensation exist. Enough pain would make them forget their happy memories… Enough pleasure would make them forget they ever loved anyone who wasn't you. Of course, if they just stand up and walk outside, that ruins everything. Best to keep them on lockdown.

400 cp - No Distractions
But of course, sleeping with the enemy comes with it's own risks. What if they somehow get the upper hand, they fake their defeat, try and woo out some critical information from you? Thankfully, those are concerns for other people. But you? You always know when the person you've been working over the coals is actually ready to talk, or if they're lying to save their skin. A subtle difference in the way a proper sex slave walks and how someone who'd only pretending walks. Even the tiniest flame of rebellion is like the dawn itself to you - you'd have to be blind to miss it.

600 cp - How Is This Legal?
Something worth considering is that Impel Down as a whole is a massive violation of what we'd call civil rights violations. I guess The Grand Blue has different laws, what with the World Nobles' arrogance. What the guards do to the dickgirl pirates takes the cake though. Thankfully, you are utterly immune to such allegations of excessive violence. Or abuse. As long as it's your job to mistreat someone, you can do whatever you want to them with no repercussions. Stop right there criminal scum, you violated the law. Now I'll violate you.

600 cp - One Month Later
The power of friendship is a dangerous thing. It inspires people to be more than themselves, to become better than they are. It gives them strength in times of need. But most importantly, it doesn't work on you. Normally if you capture one person, their friends go on a roaring rampage of revenge. With you however, those friends instead become shaken and lackluster, weaker instead of stronger. Give it a bit of time and you could pick them off like flies.

Former Pirate

100 cp - Dickgirl Pirate
I don't know if this is something that every woman suffers from, or just a fact of life that has always been there. Regardless, you are now a futanari. Your choice on balls or not, but despite the blurring of genders, you're fully functional as both a man and a woman. On top of that, you have the ability to sort of suck your dick back inside you, to better hide it. That said, if you get to horny it'll pop back out without your permission. Have fun.

100 cp - The Pirate Life
Military regulations suck don't they? Thankfully, you aren't bound by any such laws! As a result, your body is just absolutely rocking. If you're wondering about the connection, it's because the marines would probably try to feed it's sailors some kinda protein gruel, whereas you can eat whatever. And let me tell you, it all went to your boobs and ass. In effect, you have an eminently lewdable body, hard on all the right places and soft in all the rest. Optionally comes with a line-free tan, because sunshine and open air.

200 cp - Ultimate Blowjob
A blowjob is nice. A double blowjob is even better. Having her use her power to create more tongues and give you a deca-blowjob and a full body massage at the same time? Heaven. As you might imagine, you are now exceedingly skilled at using your powers for the sake of lewdness. Sadly, you probably don't have that particular power, so it's not quite that easy, but otherwise? The sky, and your imagination, is the limit.

200 cp - No Need For Cuffs
Bit of an odd doctrine for a prison to have, don't you think? They don't cuff you until after you throw up a fuss or try to escape. Or maybe they're just convinced you won't try after they fuck you? Regardless, even if you were supposedly one of the most dangerous people in the world, as long as you surrender gracefully and don't fight back, they won't truss you up under enough restraints to hogtie an army. Being a sore loser and abusing this 'freedom' forfeits your kind treatment, obviously.

400 cp - Sweet Saliva
Using the skills you already have for the sake of lewdness is all well and good, but what happens when you run out of tricks? Well, you create new ones. Devil Fruits are extremely open ended, after all. Do you have frog powers? Well, one kind of frog is so toxic it can kill 1000 people. Another kind of frog can swap its own gender. Still others can breathe and drink through their skin. Now, not all of those are directly applicable to sex, but with a little bit of creativity, and this sex based learning boost, i'm sure you can pull something out of your ass to rekindle your sex life.

400 cp - Everything For You
And this is just a bit silly. You may be a prisoner, but have you ever actually been in a cell? Or restrained at all? What do you mean they didn't cut off your access to your powers?!? ...Oh, it's because you're such a model prisoner. Or the fact that you have yourself draped all over one of the guards. That level of buttkissing would get you a lot of perks. This takes your lack of cuffs up a notch - for all intents and purposes, you might as well have switched sides. Just don't try to leave without permission. Or mention that you want to.

600 cp - Rabu-Mero Resistance
Now, why on earth are there two Love Love Fruits? Although they don't really do the same thing… Translation error, maybe? Regardless, the Mero Mero Fruit turns anyone who loves you into stone, while the Rabu Rabu Fruit makes anyone you touch love you. And, at least mostly, they cancel each other out. With that in mind, the more of a particular power you possess, the harder you are to effect with that power. And yeah, you'd think the fire logia was already fireproof, but it is possible if you cheat. Also, keep in mind this is cumulative. Two people of equal might cancel each other out. Add in a third and the balance is broken.

600 cp - What Is Sex?
So, funny story. The most beautiful woman in the world and Queen of Amazon Lily, Pirate Empress Boa Hancock, has no idea what sex is. Neither do her sisters, and the three of them used to be slaves to the world nobles. Pretty girl, slave, arrogant noble… How do they not know this? Regardless, Boa Marigold was quickly educated by the Soul Pirates on the intricacies of sex after seeing their copy of 'Midarezaki Joshuu Kaizoku' and wondering what it was. It was porn. Much like the Soul Pirates, with even the vaguest hint of innocence, you can turn any woman - or man, though they tend to dislike dickgirls for some reason - into functionally whatever you want. And of course, once you have your claws - or dick, as the case may be - in her, you can retain that control. Want her to spend years as a high class hooker, only to turn into your blushing bride? You can do that.

Items

Impel Down Guard

100 cp - Sea Stone Cuffs
In this world, there is a material known as Sea Stone. It's a mineral that can be forged like metal exactly once before becoming hard as diamonds. It also has what I'll refer to as an 'affinity' for water, as it is fully capable of restraining someone who has eaten a devil fruit. In effect, it has the same result as submerging them in water. You now have a few sets of cuffs made from that material, and of course the keys to open them.

200 cp - Tenryūbito Toys
Not entirely sure how you convinced them to give you these, but you've managed to acquire several toys belonging to the world nobles. The first is of course their seal of carnal desire, an upgrade to turn their slaves into futanari sex slaves. Or if you prefer, womb tattoo number 398.5. Anyways, mark someone with this, and after swallowing the cum of their masters (ie the government/law and or their actual master) they'll grow a futa cock. The second item is a simple black ring meant to go around the base of said futa cock. While worn, they'll find themselves unable to cum without your permission. What a fun combination.

400 cp - Koala Blowgun
I can't tell if this is a blowgun that at the Koala Koala fruit, or a Koala that ate the Blowgun Blowgun fruit. On top of that, it seems to have eaten the Love Love Fruit, something that is actively in use by someone else. That said, ever heard of cupid's arrows? That's what this does. Anyone you shoot falls in love with you for a short time, no more than a few days. On top of that, and I have no idea why, it can also be used to view the memories of the last person it shot.

600 cp - Impel Down Level 7
The super secret seventh level of Impel Down, the dickgirl level. Housing a total of one million dickgirl pirates, this place is their personal hell! Or it would be if the guards idea of torture wasn't to try and oversex them until they couldn't take anymore. Anyways, you now have a truly ludicrous number of prisoners - all of whom are chicks with dicks - with which you can do fundamentally whatever you please. In later worlds, they won't have any devil fruits, but some of them will still have powers appropriate to the setting.

Dickgirl Pirate

100 cp - Contraceptives And Aphrodisiacs

What's a dickgirl pirate with the sex drive of three men to do on the open ocean? Well, fuck like nuts. But of course, the open ocean is no place to get pregnant. You can do that after reaching Raftel! That's why you have a supply of these two drugs. The first is of course the solution to the vigorous impregnation you'll be giving or receiving - or maybe both? - on a regular basis. The other is a contact based 'mood setter'. Not that you'll actually NEED one, but it's good for keeping things going, you know?

200 cp - Top Quality Protein Rinse

I'm not sure what use you could have for this, but you now have a collection of bottles, jars, and other containers. What's inside them? Cum. Lots and lots of cum. For whatever reason, this cum has the odd property of being incredibly healthy. You could eat it for every meal and have no issues. You could use it as a skin cleaner and have the softest skin around. You could use it as a suntan lotion and come out beautifully bronze. You get the idea, right?

400 cp - Devil Fruit

Ah, it would seem you've traded the ability to swim for power beyond the human body. As a general rule, these come in three forms. The elements, the animals, and the rest. You have now acquired (though eating is not mandatory) one such fruit. Sadly, the fruit comes with a crippling weakness to water. As for which one? You may choose any devil fruit present in the pages of this story. The Flower Flower fruit, able to spawn extra limbs? The Ox Ox fruit, able to turn into what can only be described as a were-ox? I won't bother explaining in too much detail. On top of that, the exact details are up to you - is it a copy? Did you steal it? All of these are supposed to be a one of a kind, after all.

600 cp - Amazon Lily

My my my, it would seem you've somehow managed to acquire the second island of women, Amazon Lily. The first is… debately an island of women, being full of okama. Regardless, this island is a kingdom unto itself, and as you might imagine, filled to the brim with women of all shapes and sizes, and all of them beautiful. Sadly, the vast majority of them are completely uneducated in the ways of love - comes from never having seen a man, let alone slept with one. Please be gentle with them, okay?

Companions

50 cp / 300 cp - Nakama
Family isn't blood, but who you choose. Insert other feel good tripe about friendship here. Anyways, you can now import up to eight companion into the world with you. 50 cp per 1, or a bulk purchase of 300 cp for eight. Each companion gets an origin and 300 cp to spend, though they cannot buy companions or take drawbacks.

50 cp / 200 cp - Shipmates
Perhaps you'd rather make a new friend - read as, sex slave - instead of having more fun with an old one? Well, you can now take any character shown in the Bloom Pirate Hooker Bloom doujin as a canon companion. Since that's such a small list, you can also take anyone from the Marines or Amazon Lily. However, there is a catch. See, the people in this doujin don't really display much in the way of raw power - sexy usage of power sure, but not actual power. As a result, your new companion is somewhat nerfed. However, for 200 cp instead of 50 cp, you can have them in their full glory and potential.

100 cp - Cow Cow Girl
Deep in the depths of Impel Down, on the seventh floor, Dickgirl Hell, there lies a certain crew of pirates. Their name is the Milktank Pirates. So named, presumably, for their big udders. Their captain posses the Ox-Ox fruit, and is one hell of a big dicked futa. This girl - and yes, I do mean normal female - is apparently her apprentice. She has the Ox Ox Fruit Model Cow… which is a female ox. Well, I guess that explains why the captain is a futa if her animal form is male. Anyways, she's a half decent medic to balance out the fact that she isn't as strong as her teacher. In addition to that, when she gets horny, she gets exceedingly… Wet.

100 cp - Frost Frost Futa
Once masquerading as a group of traders, the Soul Pirates would rob merchants at sea and then sell their cargo as their own. This particular young woman was their scout, responsible for finding merchants to follow and marking the good marks. She possesses the Frost Frost fruit, and is a capable swordswoman. Her fruit is extremely slow to build up, leaving her with bursts of frost and periods of nothing. On the other hand, three story iceberg and walking on water are nothing to laugh at. As for her personality? Well, she's kind of uptight and haughty, but is also fond of having others do her work and then taking the credit.

100 cp - Heart Heart Futa
Fully fledged medic of the Soul Pirates, the wielder of the Heart Heart Fruit, this futanari wears her heart on her sleeve. And yes that is a bad pun. Regardless, she's a bit of a crybaby, freaking out over even the smallest would and generally being sad on your behalf. On the other hand, she's also very physical with her affections and 'nursing', which pairs well with her devil fruit. Specifically, the connected your hearts are, the faster she can heal you. Don't ask how that works, just know that once she gets handsy, your wounds vanish as if they never happened.

Drawbacks

+100 cp - Why Do You Have A Mushroom?
It would seem that you are exceedingly naive about the matters of the bedroom. Maybe you've just never had sex before, maybe your parents told you a tall tale instead of giving you the birds and the bees, or maybe you live on Amazon Lily and have literally never seen a man before. Regardless, I can only describe your attitude as a blushing virgin. And that is AFTER you get introduced to sex. Sorry, but this isn't something a good fucking can solve.

+100 cp - You Can Never Leave
You might be wondering why such a wide and magnificent world doesn't have a location roll. Well, it's because Impel Down is the only location that matters. To drive that point in further, you are now completely incapable of leaving the prison. Before you could have busted out or maybe been busted out, but now? The opportunity will never come, sadly. You get caught, your powers fail.. Just give up, you can never leave.

+200 cp - Endless Lust
Ah, the real reason that dickgirls have their own section of the prison is that they wouldn't stop raping the other prisoners. Not that the staff of Impel Down cares about the other prisoners, but it was making the dickgirls too happy and so it had to stop. Regardless of your gender, you now have an endless font of lust at the core of your genitals, often to the detriment of your own health. As in, you would rather fuck than eat. Or sleep.

+200 cp - Rabu-Mero Overload
It seems that your own love based powers have instead backfired on you. Instead of granting you resistance, you can no longer offer any resistance at all. For the sake of simplicity, you can now no longer turn down sex. Doesn't matter who, or if you hated them five minutes ago. Hell, your even somewhat compelled to offer yourself to them - those eyes were definitely the eyes of someone who wanted to fuck you, after all.

+300 cp - THE PAIN
With this, you will never get laid. Whatever policy lead to the dickgirl pirates being raped as punishment never came to pass. Instead, you'll be receiving some good old fashioned Impel Down love. Stabbing, mauling, starvation, boiling, and freezing. No sex allowed. In fact, if you're a guard instead of a prisoner, you literally cannot have sex. At least the prisoners can try. Not recommended to take with Endless Lust.

+300 cp - Jump-Stone Cuffs
Sea Stone Cuffs nullify devil fruits by being both water and stone. Somehow. Well, I don't know what these are made from, but they're blocking off your out of jump powers. They aren't actually binding you at all, just a pair of odd metal rings around your arms, but you can't use your powers while they're on. And they aren't coming off for the full ten years. You can keep them afterwards if you want, but why would you?

Notes
Devil Fruits will act the same as the base tg jump after the jump is over. You lose the crippling weakness to water, but you still won’t be able to use your fruit given powers while underwater.

What about haki/other devil fruits?
This is a porn jump, stop asking about power levels.
