Trap Master[200 CP]

Stealthy Spider! [200 CP]
You are blue now! Like the stealthy tarantula, you can blend into the forest floor! If you happen to be somewhere other than the forest floor, you'll have to hide instead, so it's a good thing you're now good at that too!

Spider silk is already an incredible ingredient, 30 times stronger than steel and at least three times stronger than Kevlar, except that this is for normal spiders, but you're a Jumper spider and your silk is much stronger in proportion to your power as a jumper, plus it has useful spatial properties for crafting.

Kumo Gassen [200 CP | Discounted for Drop in]
You are the reigning champion of the various spider fighting tournaments, not only are you incredibly skilled at fighting in arachnid form but your attacks now have the spider slayer effect giving you an advantage when fighting spiders.

Pretty as a peacock spider! [200 CP | Discounted for Drop in]
You are so pretty Jumper ! You sparkle and you dance wonderfully. You could become a great idol with singing lessons or maybe have a career in aviation because your little dance is incredibly effective at landing any kind of flying machine safely!

Web[400 CP | Discounted for Drop in]
You naturally have a web around you that's thin enough to be invisible, but you can activate it to catch prey or, if your own web is hard enough, deflect blades or even slice people and other powers linked to the property of your thread. What's more, you can increase the size of these webs over time and add new ones, invisible or not, by staying within a zone.

World Wide Web[600 CP | Discounted for Drop in]

You're the spider who spun the great web we call the internet... Or so it would seem. Not only can you go digital to explore this kind of place, which makes you a great hacker, but you've always got the internet with you wherever you are, and every time you appear in a jump you get a local unprotected copy of internet, full of juicy hidden info, even if it's far in the future, in a world where the earth and the internet have been destroyed!

Atlach-Nacha [600 CP | Discounted for Drop in]

You are an eldritch spider deity and your web is not just a simple web, but one that links dimensions and worlds together, like dreamland or your jumps, for example.

You're much better at weaving than Athena, there's no doubt about that, whether it's your own canvas, the tapestries you make or the scarves you make, anything that uses thread is much better than it should be. This advantage can also affect the items you get in the jumps, as long as they're made using thread, they'll be improved with your own skills as if you'd created them yourself.

The Spider's Thread* [600 CP | Discounted for Spider's Tales]
Maybe you've rescued or at least not killed a spider one day? In any case, once per jump, if you're stuck in a dimension or locked in a place or in a moment of great need, an unbreakable golden spider thread will appear. It's quite easy for you to climb, although it's very high, so you may need to take a few breaks, but don't let that stop other people wanting to escape too, or the thread will break.
