Hentai Draph Bokujou

A Granblue Fantasy (NSFW) Jump by SpiritualStill

Version 1.1

Hello, Jumper, and I welcome you to a particularly unpleasant version of the Sky Realm. You see, in this version of Granblue Fantasy, our hero Gran questionably betrays Lyria, saying that he loves her, and yet goes off gallivanting with Narmaya. Unfortunately for him, his Lyria is a massive yandere, and decides that every single draph female needs to pay for this. This incredibly disproportionate response escalates even further, to the point where Lyria targets every primal and female member of Gran's crew.

You will be entering this world approximately one month before Gran makes his very severe mistake, and Lyria begins her revenge. Why don't you take this?

+1000 Choice Points (CP)

Starting Locations

You may start anywhere in the Sky Realm, or on the Grancypher.

Races

Vampire [Free/+200 CP]
An elegant yet some rare race of beings in the Sky Realms. This proud ancient race has wings on their head and fangs in their mouth. They can suck the blood of others for sustenance, but don't actually need it to love.

For +200 CP, you will find yourself weakened in the light of the sun, although it won't kill you. For Free, you may choose to remove this weakness.

Human [Free]
One of the main races of the Sky Realm. Humans are the most populous race in the Sky Realm, but do not have any special capabilities - although they can still practice magic.

Draph [Free]
Among the main races of the Sky Realm. Draphs are noteworthy for their horns, human ears, and comical size differences. Relative to humans, male draphs are large and have muscular frames, while female draphs are small with great proportions. Draphs are physically the strongest "main" race.

Erune [Free]
Among the main races of the Sky Realms. Erunes look like humans, save for their animal ears, and tails among their royalty. They are attuned to magic, and resist mind and soul manipulation.

Harvin [Free]
Among the main races of the Sky Realms. Harvin are extremely small, have pointed ears, and have a natural skill for science and technology.

Primal Beast [300/400/500 CP]
A "race" of beings that were created by the Astrals. These beings are effectively myths and concepts given a physical shape. Primals are immutable, have the power to destroy islands, are immune to reality warping, and can actualize whatever concept they embody. They lack a strong concept of death, and so cannot be destroyed unless what they embody is destroyed, or they are absorbed into another.

For 300 CP, you have the power of a "standard" primal beast - beings like Celeste, Luminiera, and Athena. For 400 CP, you are at the level of one of the Primarchs, such as Gabriel or Sandalphon. For 500 CP, you are quite at the same level of power as the Supreme Primarch, who can use the elements of Earth, Wind, Fire, and Water (Although you may choose if you want to control Light or Dark instead of another.

Dragon [300/600 CP]
Dragons are an ancient race of creatures that are said to have lived since the beginning of the Sky Realm. Even the weakest of dragons possess a sliver of power from Bahamut, so all of them are incredibly strong, and possess a menagerie of abilities, including nearly limitless mana, the power to take the form of a true element, can regenerate even their soul (so long as their core is intact), and can bless and heal others through their blood.

For 300 CP, you are at the level of a True Dragon on par with Scathacha. For 600 CP, you are around the level of one of the Wedges, such as Orologia or the Six Elemental Dragons, who embody time and the six elements. You can choose to represent a new type of Wedge, replace one of the known ones, or embody something significant from one of your previous Jumps.

Astral [600 CP]
Astrals are a race of beings created by the God of Creation, who once invaded the Sky Realm. Dwelling in the Astral Realm, they lack the concept of death, and thus cannot be killed. Due to their god, Astrals can create matter ex nihilo, and as creators of the Primal Beasts, can control most of them. Their immutable natures and connections to the Astral God make them immune to reality or temporal tampering, but also means they cannot evolve or change.

Speaker [800 CP]
The highest level of power that I feel confident in allowing you to have. You now have the power of a Speaker - one of the divine servants and representatives of the original god known as the Omnipotent. Even Lucilius the Astral was an imperfect copy of your compatriot Sahar, so you can presume the scope of your power. Should your full power be released, your godly power would let you stand above Providence - the literal laws of the world.

Age & Gender

You can choose whatever age or sex that you want, so long as it reasonably fits within the setting.

Origins

All origins may be taken as Drop-Ins, and are Free. Origins receive their 100 CP Perks for Free, with more expensive perks being discounted.

Singularity
Think you can do better than Gran, huh? You are now the Singularity, and the one whose actions precipitate the entire plot. Maybe you can be a real hero and set things right…and also create a harem along the way.

Little Blue
Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned: especially when she can summon Satan! You are now the Blue Girl like Lyria (although you can be male), allowing you to make contracts with primals, and drain the power of others. Of course, if your destined partner strays from you, I can assure you that you'll make him, his mistress, and her entire race suffer for it.

Victim
You are probably innocent, and even if you weren't, you definitely don't deserve what Lyria is going to do to you. You fall under the category of pretty much any woman that Lyria or her goons would target, including draphs, primals, humans, and even elemental dragons.

Opportunist
Oh, you are a real piece of work. Rather than being anyone important, you're just someone that Lyria has to violate all the women in Gran's life, and even Gran himself!

Two-for-One Deal [100 CP]
Well, Gran did become a Victim, didn't he? In addition to the main origin that you must now choose, you may choose a second origin in this Jump that will give you all the available perk discounts. If you cannot come up with a viable reason as to how your second origin relates to the other, then you can have this purely for the discounts. This option can only be taken once.

Perks

Undiscounted Perks

Hentai Physics [Free]
This is something that I'm sure most hentai worlds need, so I'll give it to you for free. This perk will, by default, add all the standard sorts of porn logic to a setting, such as lack of a refractory period, large insertions and cervical penetration always feeling good, and STIs simply not existing.

Obui Logic [Free/100 CP]
In the works of Obui, there are a few concepts (explicitly advertised fetishes) throughout all of them: this one being no exception. The main part of this is that breasts are really huge, and this never seems to negatively affect anyone. As a benefit(?) to this, you can nipple-fuck without any sort of obvious problem, and it will be extremely pleasurable to both you and your partner. I'll even throw in the effortless pregnancies, which are totally clean, and can be completed safely by gently but firmly pushing down on the women's belly.

This is Free for this Jump, but costs 100 CP to keep.

Sumo Warrior! [400 CP]
Disclaimer: This probably isn't actual sumo. You have a supernatural level of sumo skills, complete with a talent in grappling, pushing and throwing - along with knowing how to pull hair, ramming into your opponent and instantly flipping them on their head. Because this is a hentai, this technique works extraordinarily well on unaware targets, and you can very quickly start fucking them within a few seconds. Although very horny, it enabled Gran to pretty much instantly defeat Fediel the Black Dragon, so it's pretty damn strong.

A True Skyfarer [600 CP]
Even outside of this plot, the Sky Realm is an extraordinarily dangerous place, which is why our colorful cast of victims are actually shown to be powerful and skilled. Their defeats were because Lyria caught them off-guard, or because she was already too powerful for anyone to actually fight. With this perk, even a human could become one of the greatest skyfarers. You could cut down hordes of monsters by yourself, master any sort of magic in the Sky Realm, and instinctively know how to perfectly coordinate with your allies. Not even Satan could beat you! This power increase is proportional and scales to whatever form or power level you currently possess.

Singularity Perks

I Won't Do Anything Bad To You [100 CP]

All you have to do is not play favorites, and everything will be just fine! You will inexplicably find that any antagonistic force against you, whom you would find at least sexually attractive, becomes attracted to you. They are also interested in capturing you in as good of shape as possible, which luckily includes your mental faculties. If, for example, you broke a poor girl's heart and she decides to take it out on your friends, you can simply offer yourself up to her in exchange for their safety. You might be stuck with the villain for a while, but you can be sure that your friends will be able to escape with their lives.

Do You Want to Save Everyone? [100 CP]

It might be embarrassing, but you've got no other options. When you or your companions are in a dire situation against an antagonistic force, you may resolve it by taking on a quest from them. If you can complete said quest, then you and those you care for will be allowed to go. This quest might be humiliating or heavily rigged against you, but if you succeed, the deal will be honored both in letter and in spirit.

I Can Fix Her [100 CP]

No waifus left behind, even if they are murderously deranged. If someone you are close to has some screws loose, or otherwise has an unfortunate background, you are unusually good at helping them. Your words cut through their defenses, and they'll allow themselves to be honest and vulnerable. You don't even need to know about how bad they can be, and you'll still be able to help them be the best person they can be.

Satisfaction Guaranteed [200 CP]

Unlike those especially well-endowed male draphs, you don't need magically enforced contracts to make a woman happy! Even if you have some especially embarrassing "deficiency" when it comes to sexy time, you can always bring your partners to a mind-shattering climax. When you do this, you ensure that they can never be "taken" from you, regardless of the means they use.

Love From the Crew [200 CP]

Gran was the unfortunate victim of being a harem protagonist in a doujin where such things can be penalized. Luckily for you, that doesn't seem to be much of a problem. You've got a magnetic sort of charisma that brings all sorts of strange people to your side, and as you spend time with them, they will invariably fall for you (either as a dear friend or lovers). When someone does love you, they won't get angry that you have multiple partners. The only requirement for this, of course, is that you don't lie to them about what you desire.

No-Holds Barred [400 CP]

In a serious fight, you can't worry about things like your appearance, especially when the consequences for failure are severe. In fights, you are able to ignore anything that would be perceived as distracting, and can perform any combat style as required. Additionally, your strength gets boosted relative to how important the fight is for you.

Common Sense [400 CP]
Don't piss off the girl who can summon Satan is, as cannot be stated enough, a very real warning concerning Lyria. You will not make this mistake, because whenever you do something questionable, you experience a subtle but unmistakable hunch - not painful or intrusive, that alerts you to what type of penalties and benefits this will have for you. When facing particularly dangerous courses of action, this intuitive warning becomes more pronounced, giving you a strong sense of foreboding that grows stronger the more perilous the potential consequences become.

Everytime We Get Into Trouble, We Break Through! [600 CP]
Well, I suppose you are the Singularity, so you can have this! You are effectively a narrative singularity, as you define the fate of the world and all those around you. Conflicts that you would attempt to intervene in seem to "freeze" until you can intervene. Furthermore, so long as you make an earnest effort to do something, fate bends to ensure that you always have a real chance at succeeding.

Little Blue Perks

Cheat-Proof [100 CP]
No need to go off the deep end! Those you love will never betray you in any way, unless it is for a reason that you would consider to be fair. You'll never be cheated on, nor will your companions take an opposing side to you. This extends even to things like dating or kissing others, and can be retroactively modified.

Breaking Your Spirits [100 CP]
Every borderline invincible hentai villain seems to be really good at this. You are an expert at crushing the hopes and drive of any of your targets, knowing what to do and what to say to crush any resistance from your targets.

Targeted Spite [100 CP]
Do you really hate some specific person or group? Do you want them to suffer, but don't have time to systematically do so yourself? You are now able to mark anyone via a curse, condemning them to countless misfortunes and suffering. How intense this misfortune is and how it manifests is up to you. If desired, you can toggle its intensity later on, along with ending it.

Magical Contracts [200 CP]
It's not enough to defeat your rivals: you need to ensure that they can never oppose you again. You have a connection to Mithra and Kikuri, which allows you to forcefully create contracts upon anyone you have subdued. Lyria, for example, used their power to turn the Draphs into livestock, which reduced their ability to resist, and made them forget their lives.

Total Body Modification [200 CP]
Have you ever wondered what would happen if you modified someone's brain? Like Lyria, you possess the ability to totally modify any physiological parameters of anyone you can come into contact with and overpower. You can do small things, such as make their breasts bigger, to things like outright changing their sex and sexual desires. You are able to do this simply through touch, but you can also utilize tendrils that appear from your palms for extra range.

Plea For Life [400 CP]
Your victims trying to resist after you've already won is such a nuisance. Once you've defeated someone, they will be utterly submissive to you, and obey every demand that you make of them, even if it is humiliating. Furthermore, unless you are actively trying to kill them, your victim will never try to fight against you again, even if they are verifiably stronger.

Monster Domination [400 CP]

These monsters try their very best for you. So long as you are stronger than a creature with sub-human intelligence, you are able to enforce loyalty in them. Even if they would normally be hostile to you, they will view you as their leader, and dutifully fulfill your ambitions.

Power Drain [600 CP]
Lyria became strong enough to effortlessly defeat even Alexiel due to her stealing power from the Primals, and yet she is presumed to have lost due to being unable to properly control it. Such a fate will not befall you, because you have the ability to perfectly steal the energy of those you have subdued. You can drain power from various tendrils that your body can generate, and if you are draining women, sucking from the breasts is easiest. When you steal this power, it fully becomes yours, and will never run out of control.

Victim Perks

Unshakeable Will [100 CP]
So, you got caught, and are now about to have the most obscene gang-bang of your life. At the very least, you won't be horrifically scarred from the encounter. This ensures that, no matter how horrific or depraved your treatment is, you have an unbreakable will that keeps you sane.

Nice Body [100 CP]
I'm not sure if this would be helpful at all, but I know there are some people who would want this. You possess an idealized, beautiful form with exaggerated, attention-grabbing features - curves in all the right places, flawless skin that seems to glow with health, and proportions that practically demand a second look. Additionally, your body feels really, really good during sex. You could be laying there like a fish and your partner would be over the moon from the pleasure.

Gran's Favorite [100 CP]
I'm not sure you want to be his favorite, considering what happens, but I won't stop you. Your superiors seem to like you a lot more than others. It could just be giving you more opportunities, or it could be blatant favoritism. If you find your superior attractive, they'll also fall in love with you.

Lima Syndrome [200 CP]
Wow, how great must it be that your abductors actually like you? Sarcasm aside, anyone who captures you seems to develop positive feelings towards you. Someone looking for revenge might grow to consider you innocent, and someone who is solely looking for pleasure might genuinely fall in love. Your mileage may vary on how useful this is.

"Not As Terrible As You Could Be" Award [200 CP]
If you get captured, I'm going to go out on a limb and suggest you'd prefer your captor to not be especially terrible. Whenever someone captures you, you can be assured that they won't be that bad. At the very least, they aren't going to turn you into a pig, or dismember you.

Danger Sense [400 CP]
While the competency levels of characters are always dubious in doujinshi, it's fair to say that the vast majority of the women in this series lose because they were caught off-guard. You must be friends with Spider-Man, because you have a borderline precognitive sense for danger coming your way. You'll know if someone is trying to get the drop on you, and you also know if something is too strong for you to actually fight.

Not Quite Dead [400 CP]
It may come as a surprise in hentai-land, but getting raped by a frankenstein-esque abomination with a dick as big as your torso is very lethal. Luckily(?), you have this perk. So long as it is related to sex, you cannot die or be meaningfully harmed, no matter how horrific or rough the act actually is. You could have your limbs amputated and be turned into decor, and you spring right back up in short order.

A Fair Fight [600 CP]
Let's see how well those assholes can fight you without their fancy tricks! You've got a flat-out immunity to anything that would negatively impact you physically or mentally, with not even the most invasive magic being able to change who you are. Additionally, when you are in a fight with someone, they will be unable to beat you at all if they can't win in a fair one vs. one match.

Opportunist Perks

Always Happy to Play [100 CP]
You'd think fucking the same women every day for months on end would get tiring, and you'd be very much wrong! No matter how many times you do something, you never get tired of it at all. As a matter of fact, if something is especially pleasurable and you intentionally desire it, it only feels better as time goes on.

Small-Fry Bastard [100 CP]
You aren't a threat, you promise! People don't seem to perceive you as a real threat when it is convenient for you. You could be a bandit, and enforcers won't come after you for being so low on the totem pole. Naturally, this protection wears off when you blatantly attack someone.

Macho Man [100 CP]
Not that one. You have a well-muscled physique that most people would find to be fairly attractive. The more power you have compared to someone (be it physical power, or them simply being helpless), the more submissive they become to you.

Stockholm Syndrome [200 CP]
Wow, that's love™. When you abduct someone, or otherwise have control over them, they gradually begin to develop positive feelings towards you. You can reflavor this to not be mind control, but I'm not really sure if there are any alternatives that are much better..

First Dibs [200 CP]
Isn't it great how your boss values you so much? Within your group, you always seem to have the first call of what you want. This can include being the first to break in those slaves you got, or the first one that is called to receive some cool gift.

SSR Birthing Gacha [400 CP]
What the fuck is an SSR? Whatever the case may be, you are guaranteed to have all of your children be special. You can decide how they look, and, if consciously desired, they will always have the best traits and abilities of yourself and your partner.

Unfair Advantage [400 CP]
Let's see how tough you are…when I slap you on the tits! When you land a decisive sneak attack, you induce a strong feeling of hypersensitivity in your target (whether this is arousing or just painful is up to you), even if said target shouldn't feel such sensations. This dramatically reduces their fighting abilities, and when you fight more and more, this advantage against them grows dramatically.

Lucky Bastard [600 CP]

I’m not even sure which word to put emphasis on. You are just a supremely lucky person. You could be lamenting about not being able to get much money from banditry, and then the invincible villain will waltz in and give you literally Satan and a slate that induces hypnosis. That slate would then fuse with your arm, just in time for two insanely sexy dragon women to barge into your lair for you to capture. And then, you could locate the invincible hentai villain when she is weak, claiming her for yourself. Basically, if things can go right for you, and then some, it will.

Items

Origins may receive a 50% discount on up to four items, with 50 CP items being Free.

Binding Chains [50 CP]
These chains are quite special, although their name is quite obvious. When someone is placed within these chains, their powers are nullified, and they cannot escape unless you let them. Of course, you'd have to actually chain them up yourself.

Biological Modification Pod [50 CP]
This strange sci-fi pod has a cozy interior, and several nodes that attach to the body. When someone goes into it, you are able to change their sex, and increase the sensitivity of their body.

Draph Females Free Experience Meeting [50 CP]
A highly euphemistic term for a barnhouse whereby numerous Draph women can be used as sex slaves. You may decide if the Draph women here are canon characters from Granblue Fantasy or not. You may additionally decide if they are fully amputated or just in a pillory. Lastly, if The Whole Crew companion option was purchased, you may choose to seamlessly merge it with this option.

Pet Deathworm [100 CP]
You have a big-ass worm monster that you are able to safely enter and live in, as it burrows through the Earth, and swallows what you want. Within the Deathworm is a "flesh wall" that you can trap anyone within, where they will be then molested by a bunch of tendrils. It can also dissolve the limbs and clothes of those it absorbs selectively.

Primal Core [100 CP]
You are now ostensibly indestructible. So long as this core of yours is intact, you will be able to regenerate from all damage that you take. Unlike a standard core, you do not outright die if it is shattered, but you are able to die. If it is broken, it is repaired next Jump.

Hypnotic Stones [200 CP]
A small stone that was an experiment of Lyria's. When you place the stone in front of someone, the "eye" in the stone opens, and they will become hypnotized into being your slave. This will fail if the person either has extreme willpower, or otherwise has an immunity to mind control

Primal-Storing Stone [200 CP]
In this large stone is a primal beast of your choice. You are able to release this primal beast to do your bidding, and it will loyally obey you. You may recall it at any time you want, and if it is defeated, it will be sealed into your stone until it can "recharge", which takes one month.

The Grancypher [400 CP]
The greatest ship in the sky realm is now yours! Although currently empty, you have full access to the ship, which is self-cleaning, self-repairing, and will generate living quarters for as many people as necessary.

Companions

Import/Create Companion
For every 50 CP, you may either create or bring along any companion you want, with them getting +600 CP.

For 200 CP, you may import as many companions as you want, or create up to eight companions. Each companion receives +600 CP to spend.

Recruitment Drive [100 CP]
If you can convince them, you are able to recruit any canon characters that you want.

Goon Squad [50 CP]
Yes, I do mean this in both ways. You've got a bunch of lackeys who are unflinchingly loyal to you, and will carry out whatever you need them to do, even if (or perhaps especially if, should you be into that) it's something like sexual assault. By default, these goons will be men, but if you are into that sort of thing, they can be women, or even futanari.

The Hero(ine) [100/200 CP]
Glad to see that you are a Jumper of quality! You are able to bring along Gran with you - who will hopefully be smart enough to be honest with Lyria. You may choose if Gran is male, or female, or was a male who was transformed into a female. For another 100 CP, I'll also throw in Djeeta. How they both fit into this setting is something that I'll leave up to you. They will have all the perks down the Singularity Origin. Additionally, you are immune to the potential negative effects their perks and fiat-backing might present. Your perks on the other hand trump any protections they may have.

The Little Blue Girl [100/300 CP]
Are you sure you want her, Jumper? It seems that you now have this Jump's version of Lyria as a companion, and due to a series of events, she now cares deeply for you. Luckily, she won't go berserk if you try to get with other people…so long as you don't lie to her, and if you don't take a certain Drawback. For 100 CP, this is her at the start of the story - so while she certainly is a yandere and a threat, she isn't any more powerful than Lyria normally. For 300 CP, this is Lyria at the height of her power, where she absorbed the strength of multiple primal beasts, making her dozens of times stronger than even Alexiel. As a benefit, she has that power naturally, so the primal beasts are currently unmolested. She will have all the perks down the Little Blue Origin. Additionally, you are immune to the potential negative effects their perks and fiat-backing might present. Your perks on the other hand trump any protections they may have.

Primal Ladies [200 CP]

It seems that you now have Godsworn Alexiel and Athena as your companions. They're powerful companions, and some of the most goodhearted people you'll meet. Just…ignore the fact that Athena's armor is sort of skimpy, and Alexiel's breasts are so big that you can see the top of her areolas from her dress. They will have all the perks down the Victim Origin. Additionally, you are immune to the potential negative effects their perks and fiat-backing might present. Your perks on the other hand trump any protections they may have.

The Whole Crew [400 CP]
Gran didn't navigate the sky realm by himself, and neither should you. You have access to every member of Gran's crew that are referenced or shown within this doujin. It's mostly women, but I don't think that you mind that, do you? Should you have purchased The Grancypher, you additionally receive every playable character from the mobile game. If you have purchased the companions The Hero(ine), The Little Blue Girl, or/and Primal Ladies, then they will be seamlessly integrated into this option, and gain its effects just like every other playable character. Additionally, if you have purchased the Biological Modification Pod, you may choose if they're male, female or something else - like a futanari. Lastly, if the Draph Females Free Experience Meeting was purchased, then you may choose to have them start as sex slaves that are loyal to you.

Drawbacks

Here For the Plot [+0 CP]
Who wants to stay here for ten years? You may leave as soon as the plot is finished.

Supplement Mode [+0 BP]
Is this too short for you? You may use this document to supplement the Granblue Fantasy Jump.

Prolonged Stay [+100 CP]
Stay a while longer, why don't you? For an extra +100 CP, you stay in this Jump for an extra five years. Time will flow somewhat weirdly, which makes sure that nobody really ages, and nothing changes especially much, but you will still feel the passage of time. You may take this as many times as you want.

Huge Udders [+100 CP]
The massive titties that Obui draws will now be mildly inconveniencing. Namely, they will feel heavy and somewhat uncomfortable for everyone, so I hope you can get some halfway decent bras for your crew and/or yourself.

Which Faction Are You? [+100 CP Each]
For +100 CP each, you will have an extreme fascination and fetish for one of the races of the sky realm. Of course, you can select this for all available races, which by that point just makes you obscenely horny.

How Can I Calm Down?! [+200 CP]
As with Razia, you have something of a brazen personality that prevents you from fully thinking rationally when you see an injustice.

Please Forgive Me! [+200 CP]
You have an intense fear of death, and will give up the moment a battle doesn't go your way. If you purchased Unshakeable Will or have something similar, you will feel a strong urge to give up, but you can overcome the feeling with great effort.

Furniture Doesn't Get to Talk [+200 CP]
You aren't exactly mute, but you are unable to speak much beyond a few words per sentence, and it becomes increasingly difficult to do even that without long breaks.

Sex Work [+200 CP]
For one reason or another, you will be obligated to work as a prostitute at least one day per week, and you can be sure that you will have a lot of customers. On the bright side, your customers will at least look somewhat decent, and won't try to do any physical harm to you.

Cypher Mask [+200/+400 CP]
For +200 CP, you are changed into the sex and gender that you would rather not take, although the worst it will make you feel is embarrassment. If you take it for +400 CP, however? Your mind will not be protected from the dysphoria that you may or may not feel.

Unpleasant People [+400 CP]
I'm starting to think that Lyria found so many horrible people by just walking in the middle of town. There is a fairly disproportionate amount of "unpleasant" people in the world who would happily make all sorts of women into sex slaves if given the opportunity.

Game is Game [+400 CP]
There's a lot of people out there who are down to rape you, whether you are a man or a woman. You wouldn't like these people anyway, but now you have extra incentive to make sure they don't beat you.

Hypersensitivity [+600 CP]
What the hell did Lyria do to you, if anything? Your body is now physically sensitive, and any harsh forms of contact set it off. This is probably great for sex, but not so great for fighting.

Jelly-Like Limbs [+600 CP]
Look, it's either this, or you lose all the limbs. Your legs and arms are unusually numb, which makes it difficult for you to move around and fight, much less do things like run.

Do You Know What This Is? [+800 CP]
Within you is something akin to a primal's core, which ostensibly keeps you safe even if your body takes severe damage. I say ostensibly however, because it seems like everyone and their mother always seems to be able to take it from you. If you don't do that person's bidding, then you die. The people who take it from you won't need you to do anything too heinous, but they will expect you to have lots of sex…and this also makes sure the people who have it are fugly. Even if you kill the person who has it, someone new will eventually take the core. If you succeed with this Drawback, you receive Primal Core for free after the Jump is over.

Spooky Scary Lyria [+1000 CP]
So the good news is that Lyria is your companion for free! The bad news is that she is very much a yandere like how she is in the doujinshi. If you cheat on her, and she discovers it, there is going to be hell to pay, and you won't have any means of stopping her. To make this more difficult, there are going to be plenty of times where folks will just throw themselves at you. This won't cause a chain fail…but you can figure out how dire things are going to get for you here, yeah?

Final Choice

Your journey in this Jump is over, and now it's time to decide your next move.

Go Home: Do you feel nostalgic for home? You return to your home world with everything you've brought with you so far.

Stay Here: Were your adventures here that impactful? You now stay in this Jump, with everything that you've gained.

Move On: There's always something new to experience. You move to your next Jump.

Notes

For the sake of transparency, I made this Jump for two reasons. The first is because I absolutely love this version of Lyria, and I use a less deranged version of her archetype for heroines in my more questionable stories/fics…which honestly says a lot about me. The second is because I thought it would be funny to have one of my Jumper's Benefactors create a deranged jump specifically for him, and have that jump be a legitimate thing.

Hentai Physics/Obui Logic: These are perks that I probably should have added from the start, especially since the first one is standard, and the second one is the draw of Obui's works

Sumo Warrior!: This is not from this doujin series, but it is a reference to the seven-page omake Oppai Sumo War 3-bon Shobu, which is both about Granblue Fantasy, and by Obui.

Targeted Spite: This is the only thing that isn't really based on a thing in the actual doujinshi. I chose to add it because it makes sense to have.

Monster Domination: You can choose to have this apply automatically, or after you beat the monster in a fight.

A Fair Fight: The "fair one vs one" match assumes that both you and your opponent are at the peak of your power, with no form of outside interference on either side.

Which Faction Are You?: All the available races are:

- Humans
- Draphs
- Erunes
- Harvins
- Primal Beasts
- Astrals
- Vampires
- Dragons
