Hololive

V 1.1 By Apocbox

In May to June 2018, COVER Corporation launches what they expect to be a virtual idol group called Hololive focusing on online streaming rather than real-life performances of the more standard idols. Their expectations and the dream of their CEO Tanigo Motoaki, soon to be known as YAGOO, will be somewhat short-lived and will be crushed by girls' overwhelming personalities as they take the world by storm as comedians, entertainers, visual artists, and gamers and many other things. Not that there aren't any of the standard idol activities like singing and dancing, mind you; they just take somewhat of a back seat for most of the time.

You can arrive in this world with the debut of any of its generations or branches and by default are a member of it.

Take this 1000 points to spend. You will stay here for 10 years.
