Houseki No Kuni Jumpchain

by Faucheusestar

In a mysterious future, a new life form called Gems inhabit a world destroyed by six meteors, leaving only a beach surrounded by ocean. The 28 active Gems must fight back against the deadly Lunarians who seek to turn the Gems into decorations. All Gems are assigned a specific role to play in their community, such as fighter, medic, weapon-smith, etc.

Though they hope to fight the Lunarians, Phosphophyllite, or Phos, is a Gem who is given no assignment due to their lack of any skills until the leader of the Gems, Kongo Sensei, asks them to make a natural history encyclopedia. Phos attempts to find a more exciting job than their currently assigned one, but quickly finds themselves in over their head.
