Your strikes are surgical, finding weaknesses in even the most well-armored opponents, and your ability to chain actions gives you a significant edge in the chaos of battle.

This skill is more than just physical speed—it reflects an instinctual understanding of combat. You read the flow of battle with uncanny accuracy, positioning yourself where your strikes will have the greatest impact. Their eerie design unnerves all who encounter them, leaving an oppressive sense of being constantly observed, which weakens their resolve and sows paranoia within their ranks.

Deceptive Movements [100CP]
Your combat style is an intricate dance of misdirection and illusion. Every step, feint, and strike is designed to confuse your opponents, making them second-guess their every move. They often find themselves striking at empty air or recoiling from attacks that never come. On the battlefield, your fluid and unpredictable movements turn you into an untouchable enigma.

Hallucinatory Presence [100CP]
Your very presence is a weapon, radiating an aura that twists the perceptions of those around you. Enemies within your vicinity begin to question their senses, seeing allies as foes, walls where there are none, or shadows that seem alive. This dissonance saps their confidence and coordination, making them hesitant and prone to mistakes. As they falter, you take full advantage, weaving through their ranks with ease and manipulating their confusion to your advantage. Against you, reality becomes an uncertain and treacherous landscape.

Matchless Acrobats [200CP]

This ability showcases your skill as a tactician, enabling you to protect your team, reinforce key points, or orchestrate perfectly timed strikes. Under your guidance, the chaos of battle becomes a calculated dance of victory.

Shattered Sanity[200CP]
Your voice carries the weight of chaos, each word a subtle needle piercing the minds of those who hear it. You can sow discord and paranoia within enemy ranks, leaving them questioning their loyalties, their leaders, and even their senses. Through whispered doubts and carefully chosen words, you unravel the cohesion of groups, eroding their confidence and unity. Entire squads can crumble under your influence, their morale shattered as they fall into confusion and madness. Against such psychological warfare, few remain untouched.

Mark Of Pure Chaos [400CP
You possess a rare connection to the chaotic essence worshipped by the Cypher Lords, allowing you to receive cryptic whispers and visions from the formless entities they revere. These insights guide your every action, revealing enemy plans, uncovering hidden truths, and offering glimpses of possible futures. This combination of speed, precision, and overwhelming force not only devastates your target but also demoralizes nearby foes. Your movements are mesmerizing, a dance of destruction that leaves your enemies awestruck and your allies inspired.

Low Sweeping Blow[400CP
With a calculated and devastating strike, you swing your weapon in a wide arc at the legs of your enemies, aiming to sweep them off their feet. This maneuver is especially effective against groups, disrupting their formation and leaving them vulnerable to follow-up attacks. The chaos you create gives your allies an opportunity to press the advantage, while your enemies struggle to regain their footing. It is a perfect blend of power and strategy, allowing you to control the battlefield with precision.

Master of Illusions [400CP]
Reality itself bends to your will as you weave illusions so convincing that even the most disciplined minds falter. Phantom images and false movements blur the line between truth and deception, causing your enemies to strike at shadows and hesitate in the face of imagined threats. Your mastery of misdirection makes you nearly untouchable, as foes cannot trust their senses to locate or strike you. On the battlefield, you are an enigma, a shifting mirage of chaos and control that turns every engagement into a waking nightmare for those who dare oppose you.

Avatar of Chaos [600CP]
Your bond with the formless and infinite Lords of Chaos has transformed you into a living embodiment of their terrifying essence. Wherever you tread, an aura of despair radiates from you, warping the minds of those nearby. Enemies in your presence are overcome with visions of their darkest fears and most crippling doubts. Their resolve crumbles as the whispers of Chaos gnaw at their sanity, reducing even the strongest to quivering wrecks. The battlefield becomes a domain of dread, with your foes unable to muster the courage to stand against you.

But this power is more than intimidation—it is an unraveling force. As you move through enemy ranks, the madness you inspire spreads like a plague, consuming all in its path. Friends turn on one another, commanders lose control, and organized resistance dissolves into chaos. To face you is to face the embodiment of despair, a figure whose mere presence promises doom and obliteration.

Ultimate Deceiver [600CP]
You are the ultimate manipulator, weaving deception so intricate that entire armies are brought to their knees by your schemes. With words as sharp as blades, you infiltrate the minds and ranks of your enemies, planting seeds of doubt and discord. Rival factions crumble under the weight of betrayal as allies turn against one another, their unity shattered by your cunning. Even the most stalwart leaders are reduced to second-guessing every decision, unable to discern friend from foe in the web of lies you spin.

On the battlefield, your deceptions take a more immediate toll. Your enemies fall prey to phantom attacks, non-existent reinforcements, and fabricated weaknesses in your forces. They move where you want them, attack where you are strongest, and retreat when they might otherwise win. Your mind games lead to catastrophic missteps, leaving foes vulnerable to devastating counterattacks. By the time they realize the extent of your manipulation, it is far too late to recover from the chaos you've sown.

Chaos Puppeteer [600CP]
Your command over the minds of others is absolute, reducing individuals to little more than puppets dancing on strings you control. With a mere gesture or a whispered phrase, you can seize the will of your enemies, compelling them to obey your commands. Those under your thrall become instruments of chaos, fighting their allies, sabotaging plans, or carrying out your orders without question. Your control is so profound that even the strongest-willed opponents find themselves unable to resist the insidious pull of your influence.

This power is not limited to individuals. Entire squads can fall under your sway, turning the tide of battle in an instant. Chaos reigns as your puppets act against their comrades, unraveling carefully coordinated strategies and leaving devastation in their wake. It is a sound that echoes through the battlefield, signaling to both friend and foe that you are a force to be reckoned with, and nothing will stop you from achieving victory.

Unstoppable Force [600CP]
Your power is a force of nature, an overwhelming presence that crushes anything in its path. When you charge into battle, it’s not just the single opponent you’re focusing on, but everyone in your vicinity. The raw energy you unleash as you charge sends shockwaves through the air, knocking back enemies and leaving destruction in your wake. Your impact is so fierce that any enemies within a 2-meter radius of your target feel the force, often finding themselves stumbling or being knocked aside.

This destructive power makes you a terrifying figure on the battlefield—nothing can stand in your way when you unleash the full extent of your fury. Your presence becomes a symbol of overwhelming power, a force that turns the tide of combat in an instant. Whether it’s a street brawl, a warzone, or any other chaotic situation, those around you can only brace themselves as you barrel through them, unstoppable and relentless.

Bloodied Dominance [600CP]
There's a saying that the bloodier the battle, the stronger the warrior, and for you, it holds true. Every wound you take, every drop of blood you spill, only fuels your inner strength. The more damage you sustain, the more you tap into a well of power that others can't comprehend. For each significant blow you endure, you feel a surge of energy, a strength that makes you more formidable. Whether it's from physical injury, the toll of battle, or the bruises accumulated over time, your body adapts and grows stronger.

For every major wound you take, you can choose to increase your resilience or strike with greater force, making you more dangerous as the fight wears on. Your enemies grow increasingly wary as you persist, for they know that each injury you endure only brings you closer to your peak power, and by the end of the battle, they may be facing someone far more dangerous than they ever anticipated.

Arena's Reign [600CP]
You've earned your place as a king of the arena, and now, that dominance extends to any battlefield you find yourself on. When you step into the fray, your very existence commands attention, and those who stand against you feel a deep, instinctual fear. Enemies within a 6-meter radius of you must steel themselves, as they can sense your aura and the threat it poses. Those who lack the courage to stand firm will falter—either retreating from the overwhelming pressure or suffering penalties to their actions, unable to perform as effectively.

This power is not just a display of brute strength but a psychological weapon, asserting your reign over the battlefield. Whether it's in a street confrontation, a high-stakes negotiation, or even a heated argument, your confidence and presence can break down the resolve of others, forcing them into submission or retreat. You are not just a participant in the conflict; you are the one who dictates the terms of engagement.

When used in forges, the Core generates constant, intense heat, enabling blacksmiths to craft weapons and armor with unmatched efficiency and precision.

Beyond its industrial applications, the Core of Endless Forge possesses unique benefits for its wielder. When held or temporarily fused to your body, it channels its immense energy into you, granting a surge of superhuman strength, endurance, and stamina. This enhancement allows you to perform feats of power that would normally be impossible, from lifting massive weights to enduring prolonged combat without fatigue. However, the Core’s energy is intense, and prolonged exposure requires careful control to prevent overexertion.

You may import or create companions you have brought with you, 50 CP each, or 8 for 300CP. Each one gains a free background. and 600 CP to spend. They may not take drawbacks, but you may give them CP, spending 100 each time to give them each an additional 200.

My New Team 100
Sometimes having friends would be nice. Buying this once will allow you to add any allies you've made here as companions.You may buy this multiple times.

Drawbacks:
You are limited to +1000 Cp from drawbacks.

Fickle Fate [+100CP]
You might find yourself at the mercy of fate, with events turning against you in the most unexpected ways. Whether it's a sudden change in fortune, an unexpected betrayal, or a catastrophic failure in the middle of a plan, things often seem to spiral out of control at crucial moments. Your attempts to predict or manipulate outcomes often end in chaos, and even the most straightforward tasks can quickly become far more complicated than anticipated.

Weight of Legacy[+100CP]
No matter how much you succeed, you will constantly feel the pressure of your predecessors' deeds and the shadows of those who came before you. This weight can be paralyzing, causing you to second-guess your every move or feel obligated to repeat history. The constant pull of the past limits your freedom and makes you a mere puppet to the legacy of your faction, trapped in a cycle of repetition where your true self can hardly be found.

Addiction [+100CP]
You have a debilitating addiction to one substance, either alcohol or drugs, making you intoxicated around 90% of the day. Unfortunately, you cannot control your urges.

Burnout [+200CP]
The constant use of your faction's powers comes at a great cost to your energy reserves. While initially invigorating, over time, the toll on your body and mind becomes overwhelming. You may experience periods of extreme exhaustion, loss of motivation, or complete mental and physical burnout. The more you push yourself to use your powers or further your faction's goals, the harder it becomes to maintain even a semblance of stability. Your performance drops during these episodes, and it becomes harder to recover from each successive burnout.

Chronic Instability[+200CP]
While your faction grants you incredible power, it also makes your very existence unstable. Your mind and body often experience unpredictable fluctuations that render you unreliable. You might find yourself suddenly weakened, physically or mentally, without explanation, or even suffer from dangerous mood swings. This instability makes it difficult to maintain consistency in your abilities, and it's hard to know when you'll be able to perform at your best. You are often haunted by the idea that at any moment, everything could come crashing down—your abilities, your health, your stability.

Physical Deterioration[+200CP]
While your abilities might provide immense power, they come at a great cost to your physical health. Whether it's the constant strain of controlling intense forces or the wear-and-tear from engaging in brutal combat, your body suffers from chronic pain, stiffness, and fatigue. Your movements are slower, and you find it more difficult to recover after exertion, making long-term battles or strenuous tasks significantly harder to endure. Over time, you may begin to feel the effects more intensely, eventually causing your body to become a fragile shell of its former self.

Isolation of the Strong [+300CP]
As your abilities grow, so too does the gap between you and those around you. People find it difficult to relate to you, and the very strength that has helped you rise to power becomes the thing that pushes others away. You may find it harder to form lasting bonds or keep allies who once stood by your side. Your faction, though powerful, may only add to this isolation, as you're expected to take on more and more responsibility, leaving less time for personal connections or free time. In the end, you might find yourself at the top of a mountain of power, but with no one to share it with.

Unending Vulnerability[+300CP]
Your enemies, both within and outside of your faction, begin to target you more directly. Assassins, traitors, and even rogue factions will seek to exploit your weaknesses, turning even minor flaws into life-threatening threats. You will never truly feel safe, always looking over your shoulder as those around you plot your downfall. Your survival becomes less about your strength and more about your ability to stay one step ahead.

Unstable Power[+300CP]
The abilities you wield are volatile and unpredictable, often leading to unintended consequences. Spells might backfire, physical abilities might overextend, or your mind could slip into an uncontrollable frenzy. This instability leads to unpredictable bursts of uncontrollable energy, leaving you vulnerable or harming allies in the process. It becomes a game of constant caution, as every action carries the risk of catastrophic failure.

Endless Conflict [+400CP]
Your life becomes one of endless battle, and even moments of victory are fleeting. You might win a skirmish, but another threat is already looming. This constant state of warfare chips away at your peace of mind, and the lack of respite wears you down mentally and emotionally. There is no peace—only the never-ending grind of conflict.

No Outside Power [+400CP]
All powers and resources gained outside of this jump, including your warehouse, have been sealed away.

Easily mutated [+400CP]
Your body is now susceptible to daily mutations. Every day, you will receive a new mutation that replaces the previous day's. These mutations will consistently hinder your daily life, and no countermeasures will be effective against them.

Chaos Spawn [+600CP]
Your body has now been heavily mutated, making you a Chaos Spawn. Covered in grotesque growths and lacking much intelligence, you are treated as one of the expendable minions in battle.

Sealed Away [+600 CP]
It seems you're facing a challenging situation where you're confined to one location due to the other factions , and your usual perks and abilities from outside this scenario are inaccessible. However, you're not alone in this predicament, and your companions and followers can provide support and assistance as you work together to find a solution and break free from these constraints

Targeted by Belakor [+600 CP]
It appears you've drawn the attention of Be'lakor. He will continuously send armies to challenge you throughout your entire tenure in this jump, armed with potent weaponry and magic specifically designed to counter your abilities. As the 10-year period draws to a close, the leader of the faction—whether it be the Queen of Fairies, the most elite magical girls, or even the demon lord—will personally confront you in a final showdown. This ultimate battle will push you to your limits, demanding the full extent of your strength, intelligence, and determination to emerge victorious. Choose wisely, for the fate of this world hangs in the balance.
