is anyone there...?

well, i'll just leave a message.

if you're here, that means you've followed a link that either you found in the original undertale jump, or a link that someone gave to you.

either way, you should close this tab right now. don't open the other pdf file.

well, if i can't convince you, then i suppose i can't really stop you from trying to take that jump.

but i can warn you that if you keep going the way you are now...

You're gonna get buried.

...what, did you expect some other line?

the bad time one's gotten a bit overused.

... still applies, though.

see ya.
