

Mizuryu Kei Land Jumpchain
By Cthulhu Fartagn

Mizuryu Kei Land, a theme park that will one day be brought into existence by a struggling ero mangaka after he buys land in texas, and finds a massive oil field after getting lost in the desert and almost dying! The theme of the park is, of course, sex! Thanks to an intense amount of devotion and an excessive amount of money that the director had for the project, the sex theme park managed to not only exist, but thrive, and to also change to world around it to be… More accommodating.

You will be spending ten years in this world (but not the park itself, sorry) so go ahead and take this +1000 cp to get you started, and enjoy the sexual liberation of Mizuryu Kei Land.

Origins

Park Guest

Maybe you're a first timer here, or maybe you're a regular. Maybe you're an ordinary high school student, or the class president, or even a very successful banker. Quite frankly, it doesn't matter one bit. Either way, you've managed to acquire a ticket - and a decent amount of money - to attend Mizuryu Kei Land over the coming weekend. Maybe it's even a family event?

Your gender is free choice, since both men and women can enjoy the park equally, and your age is set to 12 +1d8.

Park Staff

Can sex be a chore? Well, I guess you're going to find out soon, because you've been hired by Mizuryu Kei Land - or another branch of the MZR foundation, if you want - so your job will mostly involve more sex than you can shake an entire bundle of sticks at. On the other hand, the pay is amazing, and the health risk are practically nonexistent.

Your gender is the same as last jump, though it can be swapped to female for free, and your age is set to 17+1d8.

Perks

Your 100 cp perks and items are free, and the remainder of your origin is half off.

Park Guest

100 cp - Admission Test

On of the two conditions to enter Mizuryu Kei Land is that you be tested, and come up clean, for any form of STD. If you didn't have time to do so before hand, that's fine - they have a super fast testing machine on site. Anyways, as someone certified healthy, you are now certified jumper-grade healthy. Not only do you not have STDs, it is now impossible for you to contract one. On top of that, you can immediately tell whether someone else is also clean, though not what they have if they aren't.

100 cp - Sexual Education

The other requirement is that you be above the age of consent. If you aren't, then why are you here? Well, anyways, Mizuryu Kei Land offers a childcare service for those who can't leave their kids behind, but still want to come. You can guess what kind of education you'll get there, right? Anyways, as someone who has apparently attended, you now have an in depth understanding of one particular sex act or fetish, or maybe you learned a weird skill? Something along the lines of being able to deepthroat indefinitely, or maybe being an utter casanova... but only to MILFs.

100 cp - Please Come Again

Maybe this isn't your first trip? Or did you simply do research beforehand? Anyways, as you might imagine, there is a large number of people here wearing barely covering outfits who want to get laid. However, I bet you didn't know that you have to pay money to fuck the cast/staff of the park. It's the other guests that are free game. Maybe it's as simple as having found a map, but you now have an uncanny ability to find individuals who share your fetishes. For the park, that's mostly just sex sex sex, though something simpler like maybe you just really want someone good at blowjobs is also possible.

200 cp - Sexual Standards

Or maybe you DON'T want everybody who sees you to molest you? Is that in general, or just that you have a type and he isn't it? You can now create a filter of sorts that prevents certain kinds of people from noticing you. This plays nicely with the Sex Sticker perk, as you might imagine. Anyways, maybe the fat ugly bastards need to look twice as hard lets their eyes just slide past you, but all the shota's can't take their eyes of you - and the muscle builders can't/won't take their hands off you.

200 cp - Let It Go

Mizuryu Kei Land is a place with no expectations, no judgement. It's a place where you're free to be yourself. Though I will admit, this place was built on the assumption that being yourself meant being perverted. As a result, you can now just sort of shut down such things as shame and nervousness in order to just go with the flow and simply enjoy yourself. Of course, that doesn't make you obsessed with sex, or a complete slut. Just honest.

200 cp - All Day And All Night
I suppose it should go without saying that with literally dozens of opportunities to have sex just within sight, let alone within walking distance, that people who come here are prepped to go the mile. With that in mind, I grant you a body that won't quit, and a sex drive to match it. While others can go for three or four rounds before needing a rest, you can go for something like thirty five. It's not exactly infinite stamina, but you'll be going at it long after the others have knocked themselves unconscious.

400 cp - They Would Never
Of course, even with sex being far more common and acceptable than before, that doesn't mean that there aren't people who disapprove. Like you parents. Well, probably. They might be sleeping with you after all. But, anyways, you now have a sort of anti-reputation. Unless you go out of your way to inform people of your proliffic slutiness/manwhoring - or better yet, display it to them - they'll assume that you just sort of don't do that sort of thing. Kind of like the stereotypical serious student will scold you for breaking the rules, only for them to do it themselves. You would NEVER do that. Right?

400 cp - Public Indecency
The stickers of Mizuryu Kei Land aren't much use outside the park. And while there is a perk to fix that, it's still mostly illegal to do those sorts of things in public. Hence the existence of love hotels. But, anyways. You now have a sort of perception filter around you that blurs out lower level perverseness from the eyes and minds of those watching. That short skirt you're wearing looks regulation, no need to measure. That color of tan isn't a regulation shirt, but they'll let you off with a warning just for today, alright? But of course, they'll have forgotten the next day. This isn't strong enough to cover full on sex, just your non-existent style of dress and maybe some light teasing. You'll need the perk I mentioned before for that.

400 cp - Fall In Love
Is pretty much the one thing you aren't supposed to do here, not that it's an actual rule. After all, who wants to fall in love with and marry a someone who has already fucked a dozen other men, and probably will again before the day is over? In an inversion to simply letting it go, you can actually add more emotion into the most trivial of events, be it the sex you came here to have, or simply holding a door for someone. They won't quite be able to put their finger on it, but it was special for some reason, and that means that if they remember anything about their trip, it'll be you.

600 cp - Free Love Stickers
As you know, one of Mizuryu Kei Lands control methods for who has how much sex is the sticker system. Free Touch, Free Kiss, and Free Sex. Or if you prefer, second base, first base, and a home run. You now have a mental switch that allows you to swap between the three settings - well, four if you count 'off'. Anyways, while on, anyone who sees you will immediately know that they have the right/privilege/permission to touch/kiss/fuck you. You can of course say no, but that defeats the purposes of buying this in the first place.

600 cp - Can’t Steal What’s Free

Due to the mere existence of the park, public opinion and a number of laws relating to sex were changed for the lewder. However, while it might not be illegal to come here and sleep with a dozen others, that doesn’t mean your lover will appreciate it. Maybe if you brought them along? Emotions such as jealousy and feelings of inadequacy are completely removed from your lovers, allowing you much more freedom. You enjoy others, but come home to them, and that’s enough. Of course, since they’re completely gone, maybe you should try for a threesome? Or if you really want to push, they can entertain each other while you find someone else to drag into your own personal orgy.

600 cp - Free Love For Everyone

This is the most basic form of the philosophy that Mizuryu Kei Land runs on. 'Enjoy sex like a well cooked meal'. They really like that phrase. Anyways, they treat it as something everyone has a right to, and should be unashamed to want and to have. With that in mind, it's time to share the love. Any sex based perk that you posses can now be freely given out via the simple act of sleeping with someone. You really should have seen that coming. Anyways, for the most part this is designed to work with the Sticker perks, as well as it's supporting perks, but it works on any sex related perk you have. Good at sex, good at convincing people to have sex, some crazy pregnancy shenanigans, the power to share your sex based powers via sex... You know, that kind of stuff.

Park Staff

100 cp - Only The Best

It stands to reason that a sex based theme park would be at least a little bit vain. As a result, the staff of the theme park is composed of top notch beauties with big breasts and handsome men with big dicks. Even their paper pushers aren't half bad, rocking some rather sexy suits. Whatever style of beauty you want, it's yours. Now get out there and flaunt your stuff!

100 cp - Welcome!

The official greeting at the entrance of Mizuryu Kei Land is for a female attendant to go bowlegged and say 'please cum inside!'. In the vein of being welcoming and friendly, once you decide what persona you want to use, you are perfectly capable of sticking to it for days on end without dropping the act. You could flirt and fuck like a pro even if you weren't actually feeling it. Maybe you're just waiting for one particular kind of person, or it is just that particular act you don't like?

100 cp - Marcel-San

Marcel is the name of the Mizuryu Kei Land park mascot, an entrance level job you've probably held at least once or twice before. I'd be very surprised if you somehow managed to skip it… Anyways, given that having only one mascot in an entire park is a poor idea, it should come to no surprise that there are dozens of Marcel-sans at any given time. It makes it very hard to find the exact one you had sex with if you want another round for some reason. Anyways, it's now pretty much impossible for the people you sleep with to identify you via your physical features - they'd have to sleep with you a second time to really know for sure. Of course, if you want someone to recognize you, you can flip this off entirely or maybe just for them.

200 cp - Theme Branding

If you look closely at a map of the park, Mizuryu Kei Land is in the shape of cock and uterus. If that's not dedication to the theme, nothing is. Like the brilliant yet perverted minds that came up with that particular piece of architecture, you have a surprising ability to work whatever theme you want into your product. Sure you can spice up the rides by putting Dildos in the seats, or encouraging them to have sex atop the ferris wheel, but true vision is selling dicksicles instead of popsicles. Also, this isn't a single purchase, so you can change that theme on a whim.

200 cp - Put On A Show

One of the many many sexual attractions here at Mizuryu Kei Land is what amounts to an idol group. Well, several actually. Horny Sen, Babydoll, Creampie Cafe, and a few others on top. You are now a member of one of them, which means that you have the skills to sing and dance like a true professional. More importantly however, you can keep doing that even while masturbating the entire time, or even if someone were to come up on stage, bend you over, and start fucking you. Given the locale, thats most of the point, but that's no reason to stop singing!

200 cp - An Inspiration To Us All

As someone who has ‘have sex’ as a significant portion of their job, it should come as no surprise that people are a little leary of doing it with you. After all, fucking the cast costs, while the other guests are free. On the other hand, as someone whose job is to have sex, you can be damn sure that you’re amazing at it. So much so that anybody watching you while you have sex will rapidly become extremely horny. Well, they probably already were, but now they’re even more so. Just the push they need to pay for a member of the cast, no?

400 cp - Work Is Play

Do you belive sex can get boring? It's a strange thought, but maybe if you were forced to do the same act over and over and over... It's possible, I suppose? Thankfully you can skive off of work with relative ease - after all, you're here to have sex, so wandering around the park and having sex is still having sex, right? Never mind the details. Not only is it easier to get away with, and with minimal punishment, but if the closer you get to working while not working, the less of the already reduced punishment you'll actually suffer from.

400 cp - Priestess of Love

Mizuryu Kei land draws inspiration for it’s various attractions from dozens of different sources. Some are standard theme park nonsense with a sexy spin, like the ferrotic wheel, while others are quite different, like the half dozen idol groups that the park hosts and the alice in wonderland themed cafe, staffed entirely by shotas. If that’s not to your taste, how about the performance of shinto festival dances turned into an incredibly erotic strip tease? Regardless, when drawing from so many sources someone is bound to get upset for defiling the source material. Not so much anymore. Not to say that you’re immune to potential lawsuits, but people don’t seem to care how badly you mangle or ‘reinterpret’ their cultures traditions for your own use.

400 cp - Man in Uniform

Mizuryu Kei Land has a surprisingly large security force dedicated to ensuring that the park members respect the sticker system. That said, some of those members are surprisingly sneaky, and will wait just a tad bit too long in order to pull off a dramatic rescue and hopefully get laid. Maybe you’re a member of the security force, maybe not. Either way, you are now capable of abusing whatever authority you end up with to an extent far past what a more normal job would allow. The man was arrested and the woman saved, that’s what matters right? Just ignore the fact you seduced her into the exact same situation just moments later.

600 cp - Patron of the Arts
I'll tell you a secret - the story of Mizuryu Kei Land is set in the future, though I don't know how far. At one point, Japan tried to crack down on the ‘entertainment’ industry. The MZR Foundation headed the resistance against that movement, and became so successful that Japan ended up removing restrictions instead of adding them. Much like them, when you champion a cause of some kind, it gains a truly massive amount of steam with little to no effort. Even if that cause is something as simple as ‘Don’t shut down my theme park’. On top of that, if your resistance ends up saving someone - a struggling artist might be shut down by the same laws that would have shut you down - then they’ll do their best to repay that debt. A heavy discount on any service they have that you might need?

600 cp - Employee Orientation
Changing the mind of a nation is a very slow process, even with booming success of your cause. Thankfully, you can get up close and personal with your employees. Thats why your employees will slowly come to share whatever dream or vision that you started your business on. When the training to be a cast member at Mizuryu Kei Land, one of the aspects is of course, having sex. Call this a level of corruption if you like, you like sex, you teach your employees to have sex, suddenly they like sex just as much as you do, if not more. And let's be honest, if you started a sex themed theme park, you really like sex. And while I doubt you’ll actually use it for much else, this isn’t limited to just sex. Anyways, unhappy employees? A thing of the past, because they all love their jobs.

600 cp - Lost in the Desert
The director of Mizuryu Kei Land found his riches while wandering through the desert. Don’t ask me why, but he’d purchased land in Texas, gone exploring, got horribly lost, and almost died. However, his fortune turned around pretty much immediately after that, and he created he MZR Foundation. You seem to have inherited his luck, because you now experience massive upswings in good luck whenever you experience life threatening danger. Or bad luck in general, but worse circumstances lead to even greater rewards. Most of the time this luck will come in the form of money, but it’s mostly up to you for your version. It won’t be perfect, as there’s an awful lot of steps between money and opening the park, but you’ll get awful close. Maybe the person you who rescues you from the desert has a sibling that has exactly the skill set you need to begin?

Items

Park Guest

100 cp - Sticker Set

A set of stickers that the park uses to mark who is ready for sex and who isn't. Free touch, free kiss, and free sex. Most men skip directly to free sex as you might imagine. The stickers themselves work the same as the perks of the same name, though only while inside Mizuryu Kei Land. They even come with Sexual Standards perk, but again, only while inside the park. If you want them outside, or in later jumps, you'll need to buy the perks.

100 cp - Fukbuk Bracelet

A small bracelet like device with a small computer inside of it. All it really does is keep track of your location as well as your wallet. So, in a nutshell, it's just a fancy gps/credit card combo. However, this version is prepaid, for lack of a better term. Not a whole lot, but it's enough to enjoy a day or two at Mizuryu Kei Land without hurting your actual wallet. Anything more than that and you're on your own. However, as a small added bonus, you can fill it manually, and the bracelet can also serve as it's intended purpose - ID and money - anywhere and everywhere, not just inside the park.

200 cp - The Boring World

Urg, a life outside the park? Well, I suppose you did have to leave sometime. You now have a decently high paying job and a nice house that you waste your time at when not here. See? Boring! Think of all the sex you aren't having! Still, it's necessary I suppose. Optionally, this can come with a small family that you can try and drag along with you if you really want to have some fun. The more the merrier, right?

200 cp - Animal Costume

This barely qualifies as a costume, even by our standards! It's basically just some animal ears and a tail attachment. Not even an animal themed bikini or anything! Well, the purpose of the attraction this comes from is to be beastial, so I suppose less clothes fits that part. Anyways, wearing this costume causes the wearer to temporarily develop an intense petplay fetish. Speaking is kept to the minimum, while doggystyle is at an all time high, and yes that was a pun. You get the idea, right?

400 cp - Delightfully Fuckable and Unrefined

Previously, Mizuryu Kei Land held a collaboration with any number of other artists and businesses, in an effort to spread the lewdness into the realm of 'normality'. This restaurant is one such endeavor. Simply put, the all female staff is on the menu, with various extremely lewd acts being for sale. Normally one thinks of a 'shot' as a small glass of alcohol. Here however, it represents the waitress giving you a handjob, collecting your sperm in a glass, and then drinking it. The other menu items are similar. Full on sex is extremely expensive, but there are several alternatives. That said, this particular branch of the business is now yours to do with as you please.

600 cp - VIP Ticket
A ticket proclaiming your entrance to Mizuryu Kei Land! Or rather, entrances. See, with this super special ticket, not only are you invited to come inside, but to come again and again. If you want hard numbers, the ticket entitles you to two days inside the park per week - the weekend, to be specific. And yes, you can save those for a week long vacation later if you want to. All expenses paid to boot - well, more like an allowance - so don't worry about your wallet. And of course, since this is VIP and not an ordinary ticket, you're entitled to a number of 'backdoor' options that would never normally be on offer. In future worlds, this applies to any theme park at all, since it's unlikely Mizuryu Kei Land will be there.

Park Staff
100 cp - Endless Outfits
The staff of Mizuryu Kei Land all wear dramatically different outfits, with very little level of standardization between them. Some colors and patterns are more common, those being the parks colors and logo, but otherwise the only difference between what a guest might wear and a staff member would wear is a red armband. From boobplate to bunnyboy, from full body fishnet to wedding miniskirts, and many more besides. The variety and amount of clothing inside this wardrobe is truly astounding. I wouldn't call any of this modest, however.

100 cp - Mizuryu Condom
You wouldn't really expect groundbreaking technological advancements to come about in order to have more sex, but this one did. This special condom is super thin to the point you can barely feel it, and sterilizes your sperm as it passes through. In order words, it feels like it's not there and even lets you give/get a creampie. No wonder the guests love it compared to regular condoms, eh? Anyways, you now have a functionally infinite supply of them, in case of emergency.

200 cp - Photo Booth
Mizuryu Kei Land has a number of cameras that it uses to take photographs of the customers. Some of them are mid ride, the standard hands in the air scream as you go down the roller coaster. Others are more focused right on your face as you cum. Anyways, as an employee you don't need to pay to have these. In effect, you have as much photographs, video, professionally crafted porn, of yourself as you could ever want. Or you could offer this same service to others in later jumps?

200 cp - Traditional Rides
I believe I've mentioned them before, but the park has a large number of attractions, and all of them with a sexy spin to them. Things like wonderland themed cafe staffed entirely by shota, or an idol group that wears sheer lingerie instead of miniskirts. Anyways, you can now pick on of those and declare it yours. Enjoy it's fruits for free, make money off of it, enjoy the police in later jumps wonder how the fuck you got a permit for this... Because yes, it follows you. For those with a specific fetish, and don't want to dole out for the entire park.

400 cp - MZR Foundation

What is the MZR Foundation, you may ask. Well, for all intents it's the park. However, it's more like the legal team. It's the company that the director himself made after his happy accident in texas, with the goal of eventually creating his sexual wonderland. It's as much a company as it is a political movement. And as you might guess, it's now yours. For the sake of simplicity, it represents a chance to erase some inconvenient laws and add in some sexier ones, as well as a defense against those who would try and make trouble for you on the field of law.

600 cp - Water Dragon Palace

And here we are, having come full circle. This is the park itself. By now I'm sure it needs no introduction, and i'm not sure any I came up with could do it honors. You are of course free to change the name, but that doesn't mean it isn't the sexual paradise it was made to be. ...Well. Actually, if you really wanted it to, you could center the park around another theme. Please keep in mind however, that it will be stuck that way until the next jump, so please be careful. And of course, why would you ever want to deprive the world of such a wonderful place? As an added bonus, this place qualifies as a place even your inactive companions can enter. If you're the jealous sort you may not want to, but I give you the option.

Companions

50 cp - Standard Import
Despite the assumption you might make, very few people actually attend the park alone. Groups of two are more common that groups of three, but both are more common than groups of one. With that in mind, you may take a maximum of eight companions into the world (and the park). Each companion gains a total of 500 cp to buy perks and items with, though I have a bit of an odd restriction on them. You are a guest, so are they. If you are staff, so are they. That said, you may have a single companion of the opposite origin.

50 cp - Canon Companion
Or maybe you'd rather take someone with you when you leave? Don't you know the one thing you aren't allowed to do is fall in love? Well, regardless. For 50 cp a head, you may take someone with you when you leave. The lot of them are lookers at worst, but please don't expect faithfulness from them for quite a while - that concept got thrown under the bus to bring Mizuryu Kei Land into existence. Then again, if their primary problem is the lack of sex, I'm sure you can solve that.

100 cp - Kitsune Miko
A silver haired woman wearing a pair of fox ears, and as you might imagine, little else. This woman works here at the park, but claims that she never has time to actually enjoy the park itself due to her job being one of the more popular ones. If you're willing, you could take her with you for the day and show her a good time? If you manage to go above and beyond what she's expecting, she'll come with you. She has the perks 'An Inspiration To Us All', 'Work Is Play', and a stronger version of 'Only The Best'.

100 cp - Oversexed Idol
I guess the answer to the question of "Is it possible to have too much sex" is yes, because this idol has long since stopped enjoying the massive amounts of sex her jobs gets her. It's pleasurable, yes, but not to the same extent it used to be. To be honest, she'd kind of become a dead fish. Anyways, there seems to be something about you that totally flipped her switch, because when you fucked her she came back to life. Keep her motivated long enough to get back on top of the rankings and she'd probably come with you. She has the perks 'Put On A Show', 'Sexual Standards', and a stronger version of 'Marcel-San'.

100 cp - Student Council President
Ah, the stereotypical serious student who harshly berates you for any breach of the schools decorum. She even had the gall to invite herself along to Mizuryu Kei Land in order to keep an eye on you and prevent you from getting laid! ...Wait, what do you mean she's a regular? Well then. Okay. Anyways, it would seem that the prez has a crush on you, hence her inviting herself along. Anyways, she has the perks 'Let It Go', 'They Would Never', a strengthened 'Please Come Again', and is excellent at pretending to have 'Public Indecency'.

Drawbacks

+0 cp - Age Old Question
Can sex get boring? Well, if you're taking this drawback, I suppose it must. You see, if you take this option, then instead of spending ten years here, you'll only spend one. Personally I can't imagine why you would ever want to do that, but the option is on the table.

+100 cp - Bitchhiker
Strictly speaking this was a publicity stunt, but without the reward attached to it it's a half decent drawback all on it's own. You can't drive. Or rather, not that you can't, but that you aren't allowed. You cannot control any form of vehicle in any manner, and must remain as a passenger the entire time. Paying your cab fare in sex optional, but encouraged.

+100 cp - Disneyland
You're somewhere between gullible, unobservant, and directionally challenged. With that in mind, if you were to ever to try and go to Disneyland on a pure and wholesome family vacation, you would probably end up at Mizuryu Kei Land. And if you were to try and go to Mizuryu Kei Land, you would probably get thrown out of Disneyland for public nudity. And no, you can't game your horrible sense of direction and general bad luck with reverse psychology.

+100 cp - Extremely Out There
You have a new fetish. I'm not going to flat out tell you what it is, but it's kind of obscure and far out there. Like, how is this even a fetish? Anyways, as a result of being so far into left field, nobody ever really caters to your fetish. Even Mizuryu Kei Land, with its dozens of attractions has nothing for you. I'm sure you can get your rocks off to something else, but for the time being you'll be left with a bone deep dissatisfaction at the lack of material.

+200 cp - Fukbroke
Fukbucks are Mizuryu Kei Lands sub-currency of choice. A special non-denomination to try and cheat their customers out of that leftover 73 cents. Which, everyone does it. However, what's more relevant is your lack of it, something that naturally stems from your lack of money in general. You now live the life of plain rice and instant ramen. Now, that's not to say you aren't the CEO of a multimillion dollar company, because that's entirely possible. But, in the event you have enough money to go to Mizuryu Kei Land, you'll lose that money in a string of increasingly unlikely circumstances. Sucks to be you I guess?

+200 cp - Free Lust
There seems to have been a malfunction with the sticker system, because every fat ugly bastard in existence seems to think of it as their god given right to rape you. Well, maybe not rape - I'm sure they can be perfectly kind lovers… You never insulted them, right? Or sent a look of disgust their way? They usually take extreme umbrage to that. ...Oh dear. Anyways, you are now stuck on free sex with no ability to turn it down, and attract people you consider disgusting like flies to honey. If taken with 'Porn is Outlawed', this instead translates to attempted murder from a significant portion of the fat ugly demographic.

+300 cp - Porn is Outlawed
I do believe I mentioned that the director of Mizuryu Kei Land saved porn from greater restrictions at some point in the past. The kind of restrictions that would have killed the industry. And unfortunately for you, the world you now live in is one where the director died in the desert. Those laws passed, and porn all but vanished. The government imposed public morals committee went even farther, and began to arrest and erase individuals deemed excessively lewd. Basically, you live in Shimoneta, except worse. I would tell you to enjoy, but this is hell you're walking into.

Notes

Free love stickers is a perk form of the sticker set, and works outside the park.
