Your Digivice is able to convert Control Spires into Fake Digimon, these Fake Digimon have no will of their own and dissipate after twenty-four hours, you are able to convert 1 spire into a Rookie level Fake Digimon, 10 Spires into a Champion Fake Digimon and 100 Spires into an Ultimate level Fake Digimon.

Create Dark Digimon -100 DP [Requires - Create Spire Digimon]

Your Digivice is able to convert Control Spires into Dark Digimon, these Dark Digimon can be any kind of Digimon but with the Dark attribute before their name. Unlike Fake Digimon, Dark Digimon are truly alive, you are able to convert spire's at the same ratio as Fake Digimon but are also able to convert 1000 Spires into Mega level Dark Digimon.

Digivolution:

Through Digivolution, a Digimon can develop into a more powerful being, with the Digimon's appearance changing and, in most instances, becoming significantly stronger than before.
The resultant form of the Digimon almost always has a different name than the previous form however the Digimon's consciousness remains unchanged.

Fresh Digivolution - Free

Through this function you are able to aid a Digimon in Digivolving from a Fresh level Digimon, also known as a "Baby I" Digimon into an In-Training level Digimon also known as a "Baby II" Digimon.

In-Training Digivolution - Free [Requires - Fresh Digivolution]

Through this function you are able to aid a Digimon in Digivolving from an In-Training level Digimon, also known as a "Baby II" Digimon into a Rookie level Digimon also known as a "Child" Digimon.

Your partner Digimon is able to remain in their Mega level Form without reverting back into their Ultimate level form.

Digital Crest - Free [Requires - Champion Digivolution]

Your Digivice will gain a personal Digital crest symbol of the trait that you most embody, such as Courage, Hope, Light or another non-canon Symbol though it may have slight variations to make it Unique to you. Using this feature you may physically manifest this crest in the form of small tablets which are inserted into a Tag pendant that can be worn around your neck.

Warp Digivolution -200 DP [Requires - Ultimate Digivolution]

Using this feature you are able to directly Digivolve your partner Digimon into any of its Digivolutions without needing to transition through each of its digivolution stages.

Paired DNA Digivolution -100 DP [Requires - Rookie Digivolution]

By working in tandem with another Digivice you are able to combine your partner Digimon with the other Digivices Partner Digimon causing a DNA Digivolution. Through this function the two Champion level Digimon, will combine and Digivolve into an Ultimate level Digimon with some features of its component Digimon.

Independent DNA Digivolution -100 DP [Requires - Paired DNA Digivolution]

Your Digivice no longer requires the input of another Digivice in order to perform a DNA Digivolution. You are now able to DNA Digivolve your partner Digimon with any other willing Digimon of the same level resulting in a Digimon one level above them.

Group Digivolution -200 DP [Requires - Independent DNA Digivolution]

You are now able to combine any number of willing Digimon into a singular stronger form, this is similar to Mode Changing, allowing the Digimon to rearrange their data and become body-parts or weapons for the new form. The gestalt entity is usually controlled by the most powerful Digimon.

Biomerge Digivolution -100 DP [Requires - Champion Digivolution]

With this feature the Digivice user is able to fuse with the partner Digimon allowing them to Digivolve into a Mega level Digimon with the Digivice user's features.

Bio-Hybrid Digivolution -50 DP [Requires - Biomerge Digivolution]

This function allows the Digivice user to transform into a Bio-Hybrid Digimon of a specialized Digimon form similar in appearance to a preselected Rookie level Digimon but retaining features of the user's appearance. Whilst in this state the user can be treated by the Digivice as a Parmer Digimon.

Perfect Digivolution -400 DP [Requires - Fresh Digivolution]

Whenever you Digivolve a Digimon, they will Digivolve into an optimal variation of that Digimon with greater strength than normal and additional abilities.

Multi-Digivolution -500 DP [Requires - In-Training Digivolution]

Most species of Digimon have multiple options of what Digivolutions they are capable of however the parameters determining their Digivolution are often static preventing a Digimon from Digivolving into any other type of Digimon without extenuating circumstances, such as Dark Digivolution.
With this function when Digivolving a Digimon you can view all of the viable Digivolutions for that species of Digimon and dynamically select which Digimon they will become.

Pseudo-Digivolution:

These methods of Digivolutions are not truly Digivolutions as instead of changing the level of the Digimon they alter the attributes of the Digimon or temporally integrate items into the Digimon in order for its capabilities to match Digimon of a Specific level.

Air Signal -100 DP

Your Digivice now has an Air Signal port on the side of the Digivice which can be used to transfer large amounts of energy to the Partner Digimon and create weapons to aid them in combat.

Attribute Switch -50 DP

Using this feature you are able to alter a Digimons Attribute to Data, Vaccine or Virus with each one granting strengths and weaknesses against the other types and altering their appearance slightly.
Virus Digimon have sinister appearance and are strong against Data Digimon but weak to Vaccine Digimon.
Data Digimon have a natural appearance and are strong against Vaccine Digimon but weak to Virus Digimon.
Vaccine Digimon have a benevolent appearance and are strong against Vaccine Digimon but weak to Data Digimon.

X-Antibody Switch -150 DP

Using this feature you are able to activate and deactivate the X-Antibody within your partner Digimon.
When the X-Antibody is active it modifies a Digimon, changing the Digimon into a special X-Antibody variant of itself that expresses latent data that the X-Antibody has extracted from its Digicore. This allows the Digimon to switch between its regular and X-Antibody variant even if one doesn't canonically exist.

Card Reader -150 DP

This Digivice comes with a card swiper that can be used with Digimon Digi-Battle Cards to execute Digi-Modifications giving the Partner Digimon extra attacks or effects.
Reading data from the Cards that are swiped through the card slot will produce different effects:

Digimon Cards:
Basic cards depicting individual Digimon can be slashed to allow the partner Digimon to use one of the featured Digimon's attack techniques.

Power Option Cards:
These support cards invoke additional effects depending on the type of Power Option as denoted by an icon in the top left of the card.

Equipment Cards:
These cards equip the Partner Digimon with a physical item that has abilities that the Digimon did not previously have.

Plug-In Cards:
These cards boost the attributes of the Partner Digimon, increasing their offensive, defensive or speed stats, they can recover a Digimon's energy and stamina, or can induce evolution to the Adult level.

Device Cards:
These item cards have a Wild Card effect forcing the Partner Digimon to Digivolve into a Digimon compatible with the used Digivice.

Program Cards:
These cards execute a more complex procedure involving the Partner Digimon.

A Blue Card:
This Card produces Powerful but Varied effects, usually triggering a Rookie or Champion Digimon's temporary Matrix Evolution into an Ultimate Digimon but can also be used to create a Partner Digimon.

A Red Card:
This Card enables a Partner Digimon to become temporarily immune to debuff effects.
