[Canon Power Supplement]

This is nothing particularly special, but for those interested, here is a compiled list of all the sufficiently understood powers that appear in the canon story. In this context "sufficiently understood" just means that enough information is available to attach a hypothetical price to them. Even still, a number of these required more speculation than others. Powers that are poorly understood to the point that their stats here might as well be guesswork will be marked by an asterisk (*).

Transfer Student Powers:

Kyousuke's Unnamed Power* [200CP]:

- Stipend [+300MP]

XYZ [800CP]:

- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - When provided with the mostly preserved severed head of any other person, XYZ allows you to transform this head into a revolting bowl of "pudding", composed of strange organs and pustules.
    - This "pudding" tastes unfathomably bad, but if you can eat and digest all of it, you will be granted any supernatural abilities that person held, along with all of the original user's knowledge of how to use it.
    - You may only retain a single person's power at a time.
    - Eating a new pudding will overwrite the last. Naturally, you lose access to the benefits of your pudding if it's fully digested, or you puke it up.

Have Nothing [1100CP]:
- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - The power to increase and decrease the range of other Majin's abilities. Can not be used on self.
    - This is done by taking a map and drawing a circle on it in red pen, then giving the map to the Majin in question. Then, the range of the Majin's power and activation condition will be changed to match that circled area.
    - There is no indication that this functions on maps of anything larger than the world itself.

Special Thursday [1400CP]:
- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - You may telepathically communicate with the operator of an enormous UFO.
    - You are friends with these aliens, and they are willing to abduct targets of your choosing. The ship is the size of an entire school building, and yet it is completely imperceptible, aside from the beam it uses to abduct, and the crop circle-like pattern left behind.
    - This ship can even abduct and drop off people through solid matter, like inside a building. When a target is caught in the UFO's tractor beam, they can be rendered into a coma-like trance until they're dropped off.

    - You can even "abduct" yourself in this way to seemingly teleport across massive distances.
    - You can have the aliens implant a special probe into the brains of those you abduct. Doing this will allow you to see and hear through that person's eyes and ears from a distance, without them ever knowing.

Manashiki Chihiro's Unnamed Power* [Unpurchasable]:

- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - This power allows the user to create entire universes from their subconscious thoughts.
    - Sustaining a universe's existence requires at least two people to observe it.
    - By bringing body parts of someone to the user, that person can be recreated within the made universe to act as one of these observers.
    - When the user shows favor towards someone in particular, they get a kind of "precedence" which is the cause of the Transfer Student phenomenon.
    - This power is only balanced by the fact that the user is stuck at the mental capacity of an infant.

  - Whenever you develop a crush on someone, and they abandon or betray you [from your perspective], this power will activate automatically.
  - Your crush's sight and hearing will be affected, causing them to perceive your image and voice in everything they experience, akin to subliminal messages. This curse drives targets insane, and strongly compels them to commit suicide.
  - The user has no conscious control over the power, and cannot stop the effect.
  - This power cannot be stopped until either the user or the target dies, or some loophole is found that would cause the target to cease to be the man/woman the user fell in love with.

First strike Victory, One Strike Death [100CP]:
- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - With a sword in hand, this power automatically draws your sword and attacks anyone who is about to directly attack you. Notably, does not trigger on attacks made in your general direction.
    - Regardless of all other factors, your attack will always precede your opponent's, and aim for a killing strike.
    - If this automatic attack fails to kill your opponent, your own stomach will be cut open instead, killing you.

Myth Buster [200CP]:
- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:

    - This power enhances your physical strength enough to make you superhumanly strong, even by Majin standards.
    - When performing a spinning hammer throw [the athletic kind of hammer], the destructive force of that hammer will multiply for each revolution of your body. 10 revolutions makes it 10 times stronger, same with 100 and 1000 revolutions, etc.
    - Once the weapons destructive power has been raised enough, the weapon to explode on impact in an enormous shower of flame and shrapnel. The explosion caused by 1000 revolutions would burn most majins to ash.

- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - This power will force those you find attractive to focus the entirety of their power on you, leaving them incapable of using their abilities on anyone else.
    - This takes the form of an irresistible compulsion, so those who fall under this effect will rarely be aware that they are behaving strangely in any way.
    - This also allows you to always know if someone is using their abilities on you, and whether you'd be attracted to them or not, allowing it to activate on people you've never even seen before from a distance.

- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - Whenever you do or say anything that people should find suspicious, those around you will be strongly inclined to believe that this is completely normal, and that you would never do anything like that. Peoples trust in you will increase proportionately to how suspicious your actions are.
    - This is not an infinitely scaling effect, there is a point where your actions are clearly too suspicious to excuse, and this power's effects will cease completely in those cases. However, nothing short of explaining that you were a spy and bringing down a sword to kill your "allies" will cross this line.

Super Clean and Speedy Prosecution [700CP]:

- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - The power to instantly kill anyone within your sight
    - The power can only activate when the targeted individual has broken an established local law that would warrant the death penalty. The laws don't need to be fair or even reasonable, just legitimate.
    - If you didn't witness a crime occurring, you can still use this power on someone if enough witnesses or evidence exists to convince you that the crime occured.
    - You cannot use this ability on someone you don't know the identity of.

    - This creature is capable of smelling the presence of virginity on someone, and if it catches such a scent it will chase that person through all conceivable obstacles to bind and rape them.
    - Megid is said to embody the very concept of "binding". Once set on a target, there is absolutely no obstacle that can stop or even impede them, whether it be time, space, or the user's own death. The target won't even be able to kill themselves, until this power's effect has run its course.

- Effect [Free]:
    - The power to pull your own eyeballs out and control them telekinetically within 500 meters of yourself. You can move them fast enough to carve break concrete and even stand on them to fly. Although, without extreme training, they may not be any harder, any less sensitive, or any more durable than normal eyeballs.
    - You can still see through your eyeballs, and even save images of your choice into them like a camera.

Battle Without Honor and Humanity [500CP]:
- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - Superhuman strength [even by Majin standards].
    - Superhuman healing and constitution. Potent enough to for the user to survive countless gunshot wounds, and having their head split in half for a little while.
    - Power to freely control the user's blood outside of their body, within a limited range.

Dragon Kill* [600CP]:
- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - The power to summon a horrifically destructive dragon to fight for you.
    - It's unclear how litteral this claim is, because we only hear it described this way in the past tense.
    - At the point where we actually see the majin with Dragon Kill fight, he instead show's the power to destroy pretty much anything just by looking at it, though this ability has a significant cooldown before it can be used again. The prices will be based on the version we actually saw.
    - This also seems to grant superhuman strength and agility, and the ability to survive severe brain trauma as an lifeless husk that can't seem to do anything but automatically attack anything that gets near it.

Secret Sword-Mirror Surface Kill [700CP]:

- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - This power allows you to enlarge any sword you hold to the extent that the blade could act as a shield.
    - When this blade is used to block an attack of any kind, the entirety of the attack will be reflected off of this sword and back towards its origin in the same way that a mirror reflects light.
    - Obviously, this doesn't do anything if an attack doesn't hit the blade itself.

Perfection of Lies [1400CP]:

- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - Using nothing but your words, you may turn any attack, power, or harassment of any kind away from the target and back at its originator.
    - As long as you detect the attack in time to address it verbally, you can reflect any attack of any nature in this way.
    - Overuse of this power can cause the user's tongue to swell slightly for a bit, but that might just be because of all the talking involved.

Large Gill [1000CP]:
- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - This power allows you to temporarily erase all relationships from yourselves or others. Removing someone's relationships makes it impossible for others to perceive or interact with them in any way.
    - In this state, it is impossible for anyone to perceive or remember you, or for any power or attack to affect you. Presumably, the reverse is also true, as interacting with someone would thereby establish a relationship with them.
    - You can pick and choose what relationships you retain in this way, and therefore who can interact with you.
    - You cannot move or use any other abilities when using this power. You can still be carried by others however, even if they're under this power's effect.

Naked Gun [0CP]:
- Stipend [+300MP]
- Effect [Free]:
    - Allows you to fire off web-like "bullets" of ejaculate that can confine those hit with it like a rubbery cement.
    - This power also appears to remove the user's refractory period, let them stay erect indefinitely, and allow them to ejactlate within 0.18 seconds of touching themselves.
    - Unfortunately, since this power comes from their penis, they need to keep their genitals exposed in order to use this.

Notes:

- You don't need to take any of these as your own power, I'd honestly advice against that. It seems like a waste not to make up something totally unique. In any case, you can use this document to give you a general idea of what's possible for your own powers you make with the main document, or just to get a feel for what you're up against in this setting.
