Boku To Nottori Villain Nakademia 1.2
By Orz

This is a world that might be familiar to you, a world of Heros, Villains and the Quirks they use to shape society. Here, however, one small encounter spirals into something utterly massive and sinfully lewd.

During a random patrol, Midoriya, Uraraka and Yaoyorozu run into a Villain with a very peculiar Quirk, a slimelike body that he uses to hijack the bodies of the two Heroines, and then their female classmates, teachers and even Pro Heroines as the villain falls utterly in love with Deku's dick.

Combine that with some odd details that might imply that the girls have more of an effect on this sex-obsessed evildoer then he realizes, and you get a recipe for some incredibly immoral fun.

Good Luck!

You have 1000 Choice Points, and you'll awaken in this world a few hours before that fateful patrol. Not enough to stop it without some real effort, but enough to join in on the fun right away if you so wish…

Origin

All Origins may choose to be Drop-ins, with no new memories or connections to draw from. They can also be any age/gender you want (Self-Insert Drawback, aside), although that might get very strange indeed depending on the combination.

Deku
You are either Midoriya himself or someone of similar caliber. Whatever the case may be, you have an extreme untapped potential for all things lewd and a strong moral compass that'll have you resisting any awful scheme a villain might confront you with…unless someone's life was on the line, of course.

Victim
You are one of the incredibly attractive female students of UA Academy, or maybe even a full-on Licenced Heroine! You might be small-time for now, but you have a bright potential and an even brighter future ahead of you as one of the pillars that holds up society in this superpowered world. It sure would be such a shame if a villain stepped in and ruined that…

Possessor
There's no sugar-coating it. You're a vile fiend, out for your own gain and willing to do all manner of awful twisted things to fulfill your desires. Whether or not you actually have a Quirk that revolves around it, you are a master at manipulating others, turning them into slaves at your command. They won't know what hit them…

Perks

General

Porn Physics (0/100 CP): Normally, spending most of your time having massive amounts of wild unprotected sex is a pretty bad plan when it comes to your future career prospects, to say nothing of the dangers of taking a cock the size of your forearm. Thankfully, you don't have to worry about any of those things. Unwanted pregnancies just don't happen, STDs are a thing of the past and all matter of hentai-logic actions like getting your cervix fucked not only don't cause pain and damage but are actually as pleasurable as the porn claims they are. You gain this perk for free during this jump, but must pay 100 CP if you want to keep it.

Deku

One Cock For All (100 CP): Be it Incredible strength, extreme intelligence or unimaginable wealth, you might or might not be blessed with many things, but the truth is that your best weapon was hidden inside your pants all around. Your dick is the ur-example of compatibility, no matter the shape or size of your partner they'll always find themselves gaining the most pleasure possible, be it through full-on sex, a quickie or even just from rubbing their hands all over it and giggling. In fact, it's so compatible that a villain might just throw out all their plans just to spend more time getting acquainted…

A Hero's Iron Will (200 CP): Within your chest beats the heart of a hero, and no-one will be able to change that! In the face of adversity and temptation, you can draw on your sense of justice to strengthen your willpower. As long as that hero's heart beats true, then no matter the incredible pleasures that others might put in your path, the only way you'll be led astray is if you truly wish to be. It doesn't matter if they've staged a week-long campaign to break your self-control, you won't budge an inch in the face of lust.

A Hero's Gentle Fall (200 CP): In situations like this, you can't be blamed if you slip a little and enjoy yourself if the other option is someone losing their life, right? Right! In situations where you've been trapped in a metaphorical corner, where the only options are morally dubious at best, you'll find that as long as you were genuinely forced into the situation, others won't hold it against you for…getting a little carried away. Pumping your puppeted (and very attractive) class president full of semen without the original owner of the body's consent won't have your other female classmates calling for your arrest in disgust. After all, it wasn't your fault.

Just Rewards (400 CP): You really are just a beacon of goodness, huh? So much so that not only does this make girls (or others of your preferred gender) see you with a great deal of respect and not-so-secret lust, but even evildoers who take control of them will find themselves tempted to use that control to sate that lust using their puppeted bodies rather than…whatever they were planning on originally. Naturally, the effect stacks for every girl they take control of, as you become more and more 'distracting' to the so-called puppet master.

Las Vegas Smash (600 CP): If you want to be a hero, you'll have to deal with some incredibly taxing situations, both in and out of the bedroom (and on the desks, the walls, the floor…)! Good thing you are well-prepared for any such sexy shenanigans. Not only do you have a baseline level of stamina and libido that others might call awe-inspiring, but when faced with a seemingly insurmountable challenge, such as having to fuck a whole classroom of fit future heroines into the ground, you'll find those traits strengthening even further as you rise to the occassion. Heck, you might even find your body physically changing slightly in the process, with your cumshots or even your cock itself increasing in size. When you're done with them, their evil intentions will be just as shattered as someone who took one of All Might's full-power punches!

Victim

Flower of Youth (100 CP): For someone who's supposed to be a heroine, you sure have an indecent body! You might be voluptuous and stacked, tomboyish and athletic or something in between, but whatever the case your body is fit, attractive and sexy as all hell!

Unintended Uses (200 CP): People here sure have some strange bits of biology compared to the human norm, from extra-long fingers to having a cactus for a head. Whatever the heh, quirks of your own body, you'll always find ways of using those traits during your adult fun. Be it using your invisibility to show off the fat dick and virile semen filling your womb, or using a pair of literal ear-jacks as a makeshift vibrator, your partners are always in for a good time when you get creative.

Tempting Target (200 CP): When it comes to possessing entities and other such puppet masters, you're the honey to other people's vinegar. You'll find that they practically come out of the woodwork to get their hands (claws, tentacles, non-euclidean body parts with no name, etc.) you, and are far more likely to focus on you in particular rather than someone more unprepared for such an experience. Naturally, you can toggle this off if it gets a bit too much.

Forbidden Fruit (400 CP): It's oftentimes the most taboo that's the most pleasurable and that's never been more true then when it comes to you. You don't just look nice, having sex with you is a full sensory experience that's sure to drive all but the most iron-willed of studs absolutely wild. Your touch feels like the softest of velvet and sets nerves alight with sensitivity, your smell is full of pheromones capable of activating the primal mating instincts of your partners and your taste is even more so as well as being lewdly delicious to boot. And that's not even mentioning your natural talent when it comes to the actual act!

Comfy Puppet (600 CP): Within your chest beats the heart of a heroine, capable of fighting off all manner of villainous control…but why would you do that when you're being 'forced' to do all the things you've always wanted to but were too scared to try? You'll find that when others take control of you your desires bleed through the connection. The longer they control you, the more they'll find themselves using your body to act out your fantasies without even realizing it. And even from the start, no matter the method of control you'll find that you're fully conscious and lucid of what your body's doing, even as the controller thinks otherwise. Even better, when you finally decide that you've had your fun, you'll find that your efforts to break free from your metaphorical strings to be greatly enhanced even when you really shouldn't be able to.

Possessor

From The Shadows (100 CP): It doesn't matter how strong they are in a fair fight if you never give them one! You have a knack for surprise attacks if not true stealth, capable of striking when your target's guard is dropped the most and you have the best chance of succeeding in your goals. They'll never see it coming!

Maniacal Mimic (200 CP): Of course there's nothing wrong, Officer. In fact, are you up for a bit of fun~? Be it through mundane skill or some kind of special ability, you have a true skill in copying the behavior, looks and even voices of other people. The more you know about your target, the better your disguise will be. Even someone who knows what's happening might start doubting themselves eventually…

Gaslighting Galore (200): What are you talking about? You've always been like this~. You know how to make someone question their reality, from their relationships to their own personality traits. Naturally this is more effective if you have your target alone for a long length of time, but even a moment of doubt can do wonders during a fight.

Tweaks And Tune-Ups (400 CP): It could be a Quirk, it could be magic, but whatever the case it's certainly bullshit. You have the power to make slow subtle changes in other people's bodies. Nothing too big, but a little shoulder devil in their brain that pokes them when they do something you don't like, or maybe just amping up their libido and sexual attributes by messing with their hormones, is completely fair game. You'll need time to make these changes, so maybe wait until your target's tuckered themselves out a bit first~.

Puppet Master (600 CP): Here it is, the Quirk that started this entire debacle. Your body is made up of a viscous dark-blue gel, capable of taking hits from a normal human without effect but splattering when it goes up against a real threat. Its true power is the ability to hijack the bodies of females by physically inserting your gooey form into their various orifices and turning them into your puppets. Naturally, this feels incredibly pleasurable for all parties involved. You actually have two methods of doing this, based on the two main interpretations of the villain's quirk in the original Doujin.

The first method is to simply use them as literal puppets. All you have to do is get rid of the original owner's personality and go from there! You'll have access to any and all of their memories when you wish, to better let you blend in, and there's nothing they can really do about it as you play with them as you see fit. The main limitation of this method is your multi-tasking ability. You'll have to control all of your bodies without any support and that can be a real headache.

The second method is to lean on what's already there. Instead of getting rid of the original personality, you suppress it while inserting a linked copy of yourself into the driving seat, relying on the host's memories and skills to act as them. This can cause a bit of bleedthrough if you're not careful. Not in morals or goals, but something like Likes, Dislikes…or a secret crush, are totally possible. The main limitation of this is your own willpower, as the bleedthrough from your puppets affects your main body more and more, but surely you'll be fine. As a bonus, this method will let you have conversations with yourself to help you come up with plans!

Items

Deku

All Might Hoodie (100 CP): Supremely comfortable, warm, and never seeming to get dirty, this limited edition paraphernalia that slightly resembles the number 1 Hero of Japan is sure to draw the eyes of those around you…oddly enough those eyes mostly belong to the fairer gender admiring your physique but occasionally you do meet some dudes who just think your hoodie's cool. If damaged or destroyed a new one is sent to your current residence/storage.

Plus Ultra Undies (200 CP): The problem with being in such enticing situations is how your pants tend to get very uncomfortable very quickly. Say no more! This set of underwear decorated with All Might's face (How did that get past legal!?) is rated for Plus-Ultra size erections, able to contain them without crushing pain or broken waistbands! It can also highlight them in very tempting ways, even through clothing.

Hang In There! (400 CP): This poster with an inspiring hero's face (All-Might by default, but you can change it if you want) always seems to make you feel better when you're at your lowest. Just looking at it will recharge your mental batteries, allowing you to face the world with renewed courage and willpower!

Training Plan (600 CP): This set of papers contain a personalized diet and workout schedule, allowing you to gain a fit, temptingly athletic body with a particular focus on stamina and staying power. You could go from a string-bean to a buff stud in only a handful of months! Just make sure to stick to the plan because you'll definitely need it!

Victim

Spandex And Latex (100 CP): Every heroine needs a unique outfit and this one is yours. The specifics are up to you but whatever the case this thing is sexy as all hell, and easy to slip off for some quick fun with a lover~. Even better, the immense eroticism of this outfit is only apparent to those you want to notice, with others not giving it a second glance.

Handy Cellphone (200 CP): A smartphone with all the latest apps. It can take and send calls from anywhere and has a high-definition camera with plenty of storage. For some reason, it always seems to find itself in a perfect position to subtly record events around you when you want it to, without you needing to distract yourself to put it there. Whether you use that evidence for good or to just get yourself off at a later date is up to you.

Out of Order (400 CP): Want your rendezvous to go uninterrupted? This handy sign adapts to the entry-way you place it at and has a powerful effect on people who see it. Only someone with a strong and present need to enter will be able to muster the will to cross that line, giving you some much-needed privacy.

Lover's Den (600 CP): This room comes equipped with all the mood-enhancers you'll ever need, such as candles, rose-petals and aphrodisiacs, along with a whole walk-in closet of sexy outfits and sex toys, from dildos, onaholes and vibrators to elaborate fucking machines and electro-stim devices. It's also completely soundproof, so feel free to go wild!

Possessor

Restraints of No-Restraint (100 CP): A whole pile of various pieces of bondage equipment, from gags, handcuffs and spreader-bars to actual rope made of silk, nylon and other materials. Perfect for spicing up your dubiously consensual sexy funtimes!

Teaching Aid (200 CP): Do you know what happens to female heroes when they're caught by villains? It's important to prepare aspiring heroines ahead of time. That's why you have a set of transparent stocks made of some kind of incredibly tough material, still somehow padded enough to avoid injury no matter how thoroughly they're used. When sealed, they can only be opened via a remote control, although they might still be broken if they're subjected to truly stupendous levels of force.

Hidey Hole (400 CP): And I don't mean one of your puppets! This location is quiet, out-of-the-way and seemingly completely off the radar. Perfect for someone looking to go to ground after attracting unwelcome attention. It could be a warehouse, an abandoned apartment complex or even just a particularly clean piece of the sewer system. Even better, it always seems to be the very last place that people look, if they even know of its existence at all.

Stalker's Friend (600 CP): I really don't know how you managed to get your hands on these, but these dossiers contain all kinds of information of each and every female student and staff member at UA Academy. It lists weaknesses, their usual schedule and even things that are really odd to know like their most sensitive body parts and kinks. Outside this jump, you can attune this item to another organization, causing it to generate similar information on any attractive members that make it up.

Companions

Import (50 CP each / 300 for 8): Have one or more of your companions join you here. They gain an Origin and 600 CP to spend on Perks and Items. Companions cannot buy companions or take drawbacks.

Canon Character (100/200 CP each): Have you fallen head-over heels with one of the characters here? Maybe you too have grown too addicted to Deku's dick to ever let it go? For 100 CP each, you can bring any one person depicted in the Doujin, or 200 each for ones that weren't in the Doujin but are in the original series. That said, convincing them to come along is all on you. I'm sure you'll think of something~.

My Other Me's (200 CP, Requires Puppet Master Perk): It would be a shame to leave behind your puppets after you've spent so much time and effort getting hold of them in the first place. For 200 CP, you can take any of them with you on your chain. Have fun with your new toys!

Drawbacks

Self-Insert (+0 CP): If you wish, you may choose to replace one of the existing characters, be it Deku himself, one of his classmates or even the nameless villain that caused all this. You'll find that even as their quirk works perfectly for everyday use, that their combat abilities are much reduced compared to the original show while you're here… but you didn't come here for that sort of thing anyway. Right?

Pink Thoughts (+100 CP): Or, well, violet. Just like a certain midget you are very horny and will often find yourself daydreaming about your fetishes. You won't act on them as long as you have self-control but it could still push you to take some unsafe and unwise decisions.

Quirky Quirks (+100 CP): It seems that even with good control over them, your powers tend to cause some lewd shenanigans. Maybe it's teleporting that occasionally ignores clothing, maybe fires generated by you sometimes makes you hot in the other sense, maybe your long earlobe-jacks tend to touch and vibe inappropriately when ignored. If you don't have any powers, you will be assigned one, seemingly useful only for triggering the effects of this drawback (although maybe you can use it for something else if you pick a certain perk). You can even keep it after this jump if you really want to.

Obsessive Fans (+200 CP): Congratulations, you have a fan-club and they are even attractive…but say goodbye to any possibility of your plans ever working as intended. Have you wanted to date that hot heroine? You may find her quite eager, but with some dark-blue streaks on her skin. Or just tied and gagged in your room, throwing herself onto you with unnatural desire moments after being untied. Have you wanted to stalk some unsuspecting Deku while in a new body, so you can hit him at the perfect moment? You can swear this fangirl appeared out of thin air and now Deku is very suspecting. You can convince them to get off of you for some time, but this will cost you. Maybe specific photos of you, maybe some clothing that you've worn before, maybe even a night with you…Oh, and don't try to make them "disappear". This seems to attract the survivors (and new ones) even more.

Competence (+300 CP): Whatever side you happen to be on, be it Deku or one of ~~the Victims~~ his classmates or a conniving Possessor, you will find that people on the opposing side have actual skills, be it in protecting the students and investigating crimes or sliming through security and being just so seductive. After all, this is supposed to be a school for Heroes. It would just be silly for anyone expected to protect or infiltrate this place to not have the skills to pull it off…

Kono Plot Da (+500 CP): Normally, you could spend your entire time here without encountering the scheming supervillains and disastrous events that make this world so dangerous. The one's that don't get ignored completely just get dealt with in the background. Not any more! Now, the plot is coming to you! Even if you aren't a member of UA, you'll find the bad guys trying to recruit you or maybe just rob and/or murder you for the hell of it, and if you choose to join them you'll have to deal with the heroes. Depending on your choices, this could be anywhere from incredibly dangerous to…basically suicidal. Good luck?
