Introduction:

Ahaha, welcome, Jumper! What a perfect setup for some chaotic, ahem, adventures! Imagine the thrill of stepping into a world brimming with magical girl battles, dazzling transformations, and, of course, my—err, Utena Hiragi's—unique brand of appreciation for these warriors of justice.

But let's not sugarcoat it; things here get... spicy. Whether it's Enormeeta's over-the-top plans for domination or my (I mean, her) slightly questionable methods as Magia Baiser, the stage is set for a rollercoaster of hilarity, embarrassment, and high-stakes magical girl showdowns.

So, you've got 1000 CP—what's your first move? Will you ally yourself with the radiant Tres Magia and bring me to justice? Or perhaps you'll embrace the dark side and join Enormeeta, letting your inner deviant out to play? Either way, don't forget your dignity—well, maybe forget it a little. After all, this world is as much about spectacle as it is about power!

Choose wisely, Jumper, because in this world, nothing's quite as simple as it seems. And remember, every magical girl has their breaking point, and I, Utena Hiragi, am more than happy to find it.

Starting Location:

Oh, the stage is set, Jumper! This world may mirror your own, but the magic coursing through its veins changes everything. Where will you make your debut in this parallel dimension of drama, danger, and delight? Here's what each starting point offers, with a touch of Utena-flavored advice:

1. Bustling City

The heart of the action! Skyscrapers loom, neon lights flicker, and the constant hum of life fills the air. It's the perfect playground for a magical battle—chaotic crowds, tight alleys, and all eyes on you. If you love dramatic entrances and an audience for every fight, this is the place. Plus, as Magia Baiser, nothing's funnier than seeing a magical girl trip over a random hot dog stand mid-combat.

2. Quiet Countryside

Ah, peace and serenity... for about five minutes until something explodes. Rolling fields and quaint villages make for great ambush territory, but it's also ideal for introspection. Are you the type to plan your moves and observe the magical girls training in secret? Or maybe just stalk them for research? Either way, the countryside is a great place for sneak attacks and a touch of melodrama.

3. Coastal Town

Salt air, crashing waves, and sun-dappled boardwalks. Sounds lovely, right? Add a magical girl transformation sequence on a moonlit beach, and you've got the makings of a blockbuster showdown. Of course, that also means you'll be dealing with sea-themed monsters—and let me tell you, wet costumes are a whole thing. Don't ask me how I know.

4. Mountainous Region

High peaks, winding trails, and secluded shrines. There's a sense of mysticism here, and every fight feels like it's pulled straight out of a magical girl epic. But be careful—altitude can mess with your stamina, and falling off a cliff mid-battle is so embarrassing. It's a great choice if you want to channel your inner lone wolf (or lone pervert, no judgment).

5. Your Choice
Pick your playground, Jumper. Will you dive into the chaos of the city, bask in the tranquility of the countryside, chase sunsets on the coast, or conquer the heights of the mountains? Wherever you go, remember this world is filled with challenges, surprises, and plenty of magical girls to, uh, interact with.

So, what'll it be?

Origins:

Oh, Jumper, the magic is already stirring within you! In this world, you can embrace the power of transformation—starting with yourself. Shift effortlessly into a female form if you wish, no strings attached. Your age, a delightful roll of the cosmic dice, sets you at a vibrant 19 plus the whimsy of 1d8 years—or if you're feeling precise, a mere 50 CP lets you choose it outright. From the moment you step into your chosen city, you're not just another face in the crowd; you'll find a letter in hand, detailing your mission from your faction's shadowy superiors. Whether you start as a fully integrated insider or as a blank-slate Drop-In, you'll have all the freedom to craft your destiny and stir up just the right amount of chaos in this magical tapestry.

Factions:

Ah, the stage is set, and the factions await your allegiance—or infiltration.

Tres Magia

Ah, the shining beacons of justice and all things good! Tres Magia is the leading force of magical girls who dedicate their lives to protecting humanity and preserving peace in the world. Their power stems from the bonds of friendship, love, and unwavering determination, granting them dazzling transformations and an arsenal of pure, radiant magic. They uphold virtue and bravery, facing every challenge with hearts full of hope, even when faced with overwhelming darkness. These girls are the idols you'd cheer for—or, in my case, gleefully embarrass while secretly admiring their spirit.

But don't be fooled by their noble intentions; they're not perfect. The pressure to uphold their ideals weighs heavily on them, leading to cracks in their shining armor. That's where their vulnerability lies, and oh, how delicious it is to exploit! Whether it's stirring their insecurities or teasing them until they turn red, Tres Magia offers plenty of opportunities for, uh, creative engagement. They're the ultimate opponents if you're seeking to challenge their light—or maybe sneakily join it, though that's not really my style.

Enormeeta
Ah, my home sweet home—Enormeeta, the ultimate bastion of evil! This organization thrives on chaos, power, and the belief that the world should bend to its will. Enormeeta's magical girls are dark reflections of Tres Magia, wielding corrupt and twisted magic that's just as potent, if not more. Their methods? Ruthless, cunning, and gloriously theatrical. Led by enigmatic and often eccentric higher-ups, Enormeeta is a playground for misfits, rebels, and anyone who thinks rules are meant to be broken. Naturally, I fit right in.

But let's be honest, Enormeeta isn't just about doom and gloom—it's also so much fun. The outfits are scandalous (no complaints here), the plans are outrageously over-the-top, and the fights are like a performance on the grandest stage. Sure, we might lose sometimes, but that's half the thrill, isn't it? Being part of Enormeeta is about embracing your darker impulses and turning the world into your personal playground. And trust me, when it comes to playing, no one does it better than me, Magia Baiser.

Races:

Choose one race here.

Humans

Ah, the classic choice and the backbone of this world! Humans might seem ordinary compared to the more magical beings, but their potential is unmatched. With grit, determination, and adaptability, they make up the vast majority of magical girls, wielding their innate magical energy to fight for good—or, in some cases, for the forces of evil. Humans are the wild cards of this world, capable of incredible growth, making them the perfect candidates for the magical powers that define this era. Whether you choose to protect the peace or, like me, spice things up with a bit of chaos, being human ensures you're in the thick of the action.

Fairies

Oh, those sneaky little manipulators! Fairies are magical beings who serve as guides, mentors, or instigators, depending on their whims—or their loyalties. These tiny, winged creatures may look cute, but don't let their appearances fool you; fairies are crafty and filled with secrets. They're the ones who bestow magical powers upon humans, turning them into magical girls, often for their own mysterious agendas. Venalita, my lovely little accomplice, is proof that fairies are far more than just glitter and giggles.

Automatons

Now this is a fascinating twist! Automatons are mechanical beings brought to life through magic. Sleek, efficient, and often eerily humanlike, they're designed for specific purposes—whether as allies to magical girls, weapons of war, or secret spies for their creators. While they lack the raw emotional drive of humans, they make up for it with precision, resilience, and some seriously cool abilities. Imagine having a partner who never tires, never wavers, and can deliver a laser beam right when you need it. Handy, right?

Roles:

Choose one role here.

Team Leader

Ah, the shining star and backbone of any group! The Team Leader is the one who rallies everyone together, guiding their allies with courage and determination. Whether you're inspiring your team to fight harder or strategizing on the fly, you're the glue that holds the squad together. Team Leaders are usually confident and charismatic, drawing others to them naturally. Tres Magia would adore having someone like you... though as Magia Baiser, I'd probably target you first just to watch the team fall apart without their guiding light. Call it a leadership test, if you will.

Of course, being the leader isn't all glory and victory poses. The pressure to succeed and the responsibility for others' safety can weigh heavily on you. And let's be honest, it's so easy for someone like me to exploit those cracks in your armor. A little teasing here, a bit of sabotage there, and even the most steadfast leader can unravel in the most spectacular fashion.

Mutual Lovers

Oh, now this is juicy! Mutual Lovers share a deep, heartfelt bond with another magical combatant, whether on the side of good or evil. This connection fuels your strength, amplifying your powers when you fight together. Romantic power-ups, adorable moments of trust, and dramatic sacrifices—it's all part of the package. And, honestly? Watching lovers in battle is like seeing a live soap opera with explosions. Tres Magia would probably call it "love conquering all," but I'd rather call it "prime blackmail material."

Still, love is a double-edged sword. That deep connection can make you vulnerable—one slip, and your partner could end up in my clutches. (Don't look at me like that; I'm just saying it's possible.) Your feelings might be your greatest strength, but they could also be your undoing. Either way, I'll be watching with popcorn in hand.

Battle Maniac
Now this is a role after my own heart! The Battle Maniac lives for the thrill of combat, diving headfirst into every skirmish with reckless abandon and an unquenchable thirst for excitement. You thrive in chaos, your raw energy and instinct making you a force to be reckoned with. Honestly, watching someone fight with such passion is mesmerizing... though it's also the kind of thing that makes me want to see how far you can go before you burn out.

But here's the catch: all that love for fighting can blind you to strategy. You might not notice the traps I've set, or the way I've turned your allies against you. Still, there's something admirable about a pure, unfiltered love of battle—even if it's just a little too reckless for its own good.

Hidden Genius
Oh, the quiet ones are always the most fun! The Hidden Genius is the type who flies under the radar, often underestimated by their peers. You might seem average at first glance, but beneath that unassuming exterior lies a brilliant mind or power. Whether it's outsmarting opponents, crafting clever strategies, or using groundbreaking magical techniques, your intellect or raw power is your ultimate weapon. Honestly, someone like you could pose a real challenge for me... but that only makes it more thrilling to figure out how to outwit you.

Still, hiding your talents comes with risks. Your team might not appreciate your value until it's almost too late, and your quiet nature could make you a target for manipulation. But when the chips are down and the world's counting on you? That's when you shine brightest—and that's when I'll be watching closely, ready to turn your brilliance to my advantage.

Pervert
Ahahaha, now we're talking—my specialty! The Pervert role is for those who revel in teasing, embarrassing, or outright tormenting their opponents (or allies, let's be real) in creative ways. You're a shameless troublemaker who thrives on chaos and discomfort, turning every battle into a performance. Whether you're tying up magical girls in compromising positions or delivering quips that make everyone blush, you're here for a good time, not a clean one.

But let's not forget the other side of this coin—being a pervert means you're just as likely to end up on the receiving end of your own antics. Whether it's karmic payback or just a magical girl with a surprising mean streak, there's always a risk of your plans backfiring spectacularly. Still, isn't that half the fun? You're here to stir the pot and enjoy every awkward, hilarious, and scandalous moment that comes with it. And as someone who excels in this role, let me just say... welcome to the club!

Perks:

Perks of the same origin are discounted and 100Cp discounted perks are free.

General

Anime Beauty [Free]

You step right into the world with a look that could make hearts flutter and heads turn wherever you go. Whether you prefer the petite charm of a loli-esque figure (no judgments, just... choices) or the commanding presence of a voluptuous adult form, the choice is entirely yours. Your body's allure is unmatched, maintaining an effortless appeal no matter the circumstances.

Sweaty from battle? You'll glisten like a scene out of a fantasy romance. Caught in the mud? One rinse, and you're a pristine goddess again. It's almost unfair—almost. But let's be honest, in a setting like this, where appearances do matter, this perk is your ticket to standing out among even the most dazzling magical girls and villainesses.

Best of all? It's free for everyone. Whether you're good, evil, or somewhere deliciously in between, you'll look the part while wreaking havoc or saving the day. So go ahead, Jumper—strike a pose, because the world's watching, and you're gorgeous.

Mana [Free]

This Is where the real magic begins! You've got that special spark—your very own internal mana pool, so no need for any external trinkets or weird artifacts to give you power. It's all about YOU and your amazing abilities! No more relying on the mundane stuff when you can just channel your inner magic and make the world bend to your will.

You're like a walking, talking powerhouse of magic energy, and your spells are gonna be the stuff of legends, just burning brighter and hitting harder than anyone could imagine! And don't you dare worry about those little magical scraps that others might rely on—you don't need them. You're the source, baby. So get ready to make everything you touch just pop with incredible magic. Now, go ahead, show 'em what you're really made of—because with Mana, you're unstoppable!

Magical Transformation [Free]
Ah, Jumper, welcome to the main event—your magical girl transformation! Prepare for a scene straight out of an anime masterpiece, as radiant light engulfs you and your personal theme song kicks in with a flair that screams "I'm the star of the show!" In this moment, your entire aesthetic takes center stage, morphing into whatever bold or elegant style suits your heart's desire. From flowy capes to intricate armor, sparkling tiaras to thigh-high boots, it's all possible—and perfectly practical, no matter how wild it looks.

Your attire will reflect your allegiance: join Tres Magia, and you'll dazzle in classical magical girl elegance, think pastel colors, ribbons, and frills. But if you throw your lot in with Enormeeta, well, expect something delightfully risque, with daring cuts, dark hues, and a touch of wicked allure. Either way, you'll be a vision of power and beauty, striking fear or admiration into everyone who crosses your path.

Beyond the glitz and glam, your body reaches its peak, granting you superhuman levels of strength, agility, and speed. You're the perfect combatant, moving with unmatched grace and precision. And to top it all off, you've gained an identity-jamming ability, a subtle yet crucial power that keeps your true self hidden while transformed. Let them guess and speculate all they want—your secrets are safe, even as you steal the show on the battlefield.

World of Flowers [Free/100 CP]
Ugh, just thinking about it makes me giggle! This world is practically made for people who, like me (or, well, you, Jumper), love fabulous girls. Everyone's feminine beauty everywhere—flowers blooming wherever you go—it's all just so... romantic! Now, don't get me wrong, there are men out there somewhere, but good luck actually seeing them in this world. Oh, they're there, sure, but they're shy, hiding away, just out of sight. Doesn't matter though—because we've got a whole world of gorgeous magical girls to bask in! The dream, right?

This world is basically heaven for those who appreciate the female form. You'll be surrounded by cute, stunning, and totally unavailable boys (if you really want them, but who's bothering with that? Girls are where it's at!). And let's face it, who's going to complain about being surrounded by beautiful, strong women all the time? Not me! So, go ahead, enjoy your day in this paradise, where flowers bloom and beautiful girls just so happen to be everywhere. What's not to love?This is free in this world but in future worlds it will cost 100 CP to keep.

It's an Ecchi series after all… [Free/100CP]:
You betcha this world is absolutely dripping in ecchi goodness. I mean, come on—how could it not be, with all the magical girls running around in barely-there outfits and ahem, questionable transformations? And we're not just talking about being cute and innocent here, no no no—this world's all about the sexy appeal, the tease, and, dare I say it, the pleasure of it all! You know what I'm talking about, right? The one where your clothes mysteriously start falling off mid-battle, your body gets more attention than you'd ever thought possible, and everyone's just so… obsessed with your every move.

But it's okay, Jumper. You're going to own it. Clothes tearing, revealing just enough, the scandalous blushes, the lecherous glances—nothing's going to faze you because in this world, being naughty isn't just normal, it's practically mandatory. So let loose, have fun, and embrace that ecchi charm. You're not just a magical girl; you're the centerpiece of every fanservice moment waiting to happen! And honestly, is there anything more satisfying than making everyone fall head over heels for you—whether they're trying to resist it or not?

Come on, admit it—you've already got a fan club forming, don't you? This is free in this world but in future worlds it will cost 100 CP to keep.

Common Sense [100 CP]
Please. I mean, I get it, not everyone has it, but we're talking about you, Jumper, and you're obviously going to be using your powers wisely, right? Imagine a world full of magical girls, each one more powerful than the last, and you're the one with the smarts. You can dodge the obvious traps, think three steps ahead, and outwit anyone who thinks they're too clever for their own good. That's magic in itself, honestly.

In the middle of an epic battle? Oh, I can already see you calmly assessing the situation, calculating your moves while everyone else is running around like chickens with their heads cut off. Plus, your enemies will totally underestimate you—and that's when you strike, like the secret mastermind you were always meant to be. Seriously, just think of how much more satisfying it is to outsmart your foes rather than just overpower them. Common sense is the real magic here, and I'm loving it already, Jumper! You're going to rule this world without even breaking a sweat.

Stars [Free/100/200/300CP]:
Stars, the true mark of a magical girl's divine power. You start with 2 Stars—don't let that fool you, though! You're already pretty amazing, like Magia Baiser(me) in her beginning stages, but the real fun begins when you crank those stars up! Oh, and we can talk about how cool it is to get to pick how many stars you've got—each one is like a step closer to being a super mega ultimate magical girl who'll take over the world, or at least the magical girl scene.

3 Stars for 100CP ? Oh, that's where the real magic happens—now you're talking Nero Alice level stuff! I can already see the intense battles and the glowing powers going off like fireworks! But you don't stop there, no way. At 4 Stars for 200CP, you've hit Lord Enorme territory! Your powers are going to be explosive, like a flashy villain who still looks fabulous while causing chaos. And—oh boy—5 Stars for 300CP? That's a magical girl who can reshape the world. We're talking true legendary status. And let's be real, Jumper, when you hit that level, you won't just be a star, you'll be the star. Wouldn't that be amazing?! Oh, the possibilities!

I can't even—I'm dreaming of all the fanart already!

La Vérité [300CP]
Ah, La Verità, the pinnacle of power and feelings intertwined! In this world, the strength of both Tres Magia and Enormeeta stems from their overflowing emotions. When those feelings surge beyond their limits, they trigger a dramatic transformation into an advanced form, a “phase change,” as I like to call it. But don’t let the elegance fool you—it’s not just beauty and power on display; it’s raw emotion turned into magic. For Tres Magia, these transformations often burst forth in a dazzling display of stars, as seen with Kiwi and Kaoruko. Sayo’s version is adorned with ribbons unfurling from her transformation token, wrapping her in grace and power. My own transformation, Magia Baiser’s, takes a deliciously dark twist—wrapped in spiderwebs, like a predator preparing her snare. It’s a manifestation of the deepest feelings brought to life, but let’s not pretend it’s all fun and sparkle.

The transformed state is taxing, a fleeting burst of overwhelming power as sustaining these forms for long before exhaustion takes its toll. Still, whether light or dark, every La Verità is a testament to the power of emotions—proof that magic isn’t just about spells, but about the heart driving them forward.

Mastered La Vérité [300CP/required La Vérité]
Ohhh, Jumper, you’ve done it now—you’ve gone and mastered your La Vérité! This isn’t just about unlocking some wild, emotional power. No, no, no—this is about showing the world that you’ve leveled up into a bona fide magical genius. While everyone else is out here burning through their energy like amateurs, you’re keeping it chill, controlling that flow with the kind of finesse that makes me wanna clap and cry at the same time!

With Mastered La Vérité, you’ve got the power on tap, ready to pour out a trickle for those casual skirmishes or unleash a raging torrent when it’s time to blow everyone’s minds. You’re not just a powerhouse—you’re a strategic powerhouse. Staying in your form for ages? Yep. Pulling off moves that make everyone else gasp? Double yep. Basically, Jumper, you’re out here proving that you’re the protagonist energy we all aspire to be. So go on, take a bow—you’ve earned it!

Dark La Vérité [300CP/required La Vérité]
Oh-ho-ho, Jumper, it's time to unleash your villain era! With Dark La Vérité, you're not just tapping into your inner power—you're letting chaos energy seep into every corner of your being, transforming you into something dangerously alluring and utterly unstoppable. Forget angelic halos and sparkly vibes—this is about shadows, chaos, and the sheer thrill of making the world kneel before you. You're not just a magical girl anymore; you're a demon lord, and oh, does that title suit you perfectly!

Your transformation? Utterly to die for. Dark, jagged designs, hauntingly beautiful accents, and an aura that screams "you're doomed" to anyone foolish enough to challenge you. Every move you make carries a sinister elegance, every attack radiates corrupted power, and let's face it, you're going to own the battlefield with a devilish grin. Whether you're spreading chaos, asserting your dominance, or just reveling in your own magnificence, Dark La Vérité lets you embrace your darker side in the most deliciously dramatic way possible. Go on, Jumper—be bad, be bold, and look fabulous doing it!

Light La Verité [300CP/required La Vérité]
Oh, Jumper, prepare to shine like the brightest star in the sky! With Light La Vérité, your transformation is kissed by holy energy, turning you into a living, breathing angel. I mean, wings? Halos? Pure, radiant vibes? Swoon! Your positive energy becomes your greatest weapon, infusing every step you take with divine brilliance. This isn't just about looking absolutely fabulous (though, let's admit it, you totally will)—it's about becoming a symbol of hope and goodness that makes everyone's hearts go doki-doki!

But don't let that angelic glow fool anyone into thinking you're all fluff and no fight. This form doesn't just sparkle; it slays. Your powers hit harder, brighter, and way more dramatically, like a heavenly warrior ready to smite evil with style. Seriously, if there's ever been a more magically aesthetic way to take down enemies, I'd love to see it. So, spread those wings, Jumper—you're about to become the shining star of every magical girl fan's dreams!

Balanced La Verité [Free /required La Vérité,Dark, Light, & Mastered La Vérité]

Ohhh, now this is where things get wild, Jumper! With Balanced La Vérité, you've gone above and beyond, becoming the ultimate magical girl! You've mastered not just one, but both the chaotic darkness and the holy light inside you—chaos and order mingling together in perfect harmony. Honestly, you're like a living embodiment of balance, the kind that'll make even the gods be like, "Wait, hold up—this is too powerful."

Now you can manipulate any and all types of energy with the kind of ease that would make the most experienced sorcerers quiver in fear! Seriously, Jumper, all that magic? It's yours. All that pent-up holy energy and chaotic power? Under your control. This isn't just a magical girl form—it's an overwhelming, unshakable force that balances the very fabric of the world around you. You're literally the perfect blend of everything, the one everyone looks to when they need to see what real power looks like. Go ahead, bask in your immense greatness, because with Balanced La Vérité, you're untouchable, unstoppable, and undeniably fabulous.

Tres Magia

Public Persona [100CP]

Oh-ho, Public Persona, huh? So you want to play the game, Jumper? Well, this is how you do it! With Public Persona at your disposal, you're no longer just some random magical girl—oh no, no, no. You're the shining star of Tres Magia, the one everyone looks up to! This persona lets you craft a public image that is flawless, perfect, and, most importantly, untouchable. Imagine everyone looking at you, thinking you're just the epitome of grace, beauty, and strength... but secretly? You're working on your own agenda. Heh.

You're not just in the limelight for the sweet magical girl moves. Oh, no, darling! You've got charm, elegance, and the kind of charisma that makes people fall in love with you at first sight. Everyone thinks you're just the picture of goodness and purity, the ideal magical girl... but behind that flawless smile? You're plotting, planning, and looking way too cute while doing it. So yeah, go ahead, bask in the admiration of others—while you secretly take over the world.

Innocent Smile [100 CP]

Now this is a weapon, Jumper! It's not just a smile, darling, it's magic in its purest form. When you flash that smile, everything around you changes. People just can't help but melt! Whether you're facing an enemy, trying to calm down a tense situation, or ahem, winning over a crowd, your smile does all the heavy lifting. And let's be real, who's going to resist the radiant charm of a magical girl who's so effortlessly sweet?

Even the toughest, most hardened souls will be putty in your hands. That smile of yours practically disarms them—like a warmth that seeps into their very core. They'll want to help you, to protect you, because no one can stay mad at a face like that. It's a kind of pure charm that's as dangerous as it is disarming, turning even the most intense situations into opportunities for you to shine even brighter. So, get ready, Jumper—your smile is going to take you places you never dreamed of!

Hope [Free for Hero of Justice / 200 CP for Other Origins]
Ahhh, Hope, now we're getting into serious magical girl territory, aren't we, Jumper? This is the kind of power that makes people believe—and, let's be real, there's nothing more magical than turning the darkest, most hopeless situation around with just your presence. You've got an aura that's so bright, it practically lights up the whole world, just by being near you! It's like everyone around you can't help but feel empowered, ready to take on the impossible because you make them feel like they can.

People start fighting harder, obstacles get crushed under the sheer weight of their hope in you, and even the most jaded souls? They're all going to be looking at you and thinking, "Maybe, just maybe, there's a better tomorrow after all!" You are hope, Jumper. You're the living, breathing example that the impossible isn't so bad when you've got a little belief behind you. So go ahead, show everyone what true optimism can do—because with this power, you're going to inspire a revolution!

Sensei I Need To Go!! [200CP]
I see you're playing the mysterious card now, huh, Jumper? With this, you've got the ultimate pass to just disappear whenever things get too complicated or you just need a break from the chaos. You can walk into any situation, face the heat, and when it's time to exit stage left, your reasoning will be so genuine, so full of purpose, that no one will question it. "I need to go, Sensei, there's a greater evil to stop…" and bam, you've got the perfect excuse!

Whether you're avoiding responsibility or just taking a moment to breathe, this power lets you glide out of tight spots, leaving everyone else thinking you're off to do something important. I mean, who could argue with you when you're fighting for the greater good, right? So go ahead, take a breather, and come back when you're good and ready to save the day, because with this perk, you're always one step ahead!

Getting Sponsors [400CP]
Now you're really stepping into the limelight, aren't you, Jumper? This perk is pure gold, darling. With Getting Sponsors, you've unlocked the ability to be a magical girl superstar—we're talking magazine covers, merchandise deals, the works! Forget just fighting evil and looking cute; now you're a brand. Your magic is no longer just a tool for saving the world, it's a full-blown business opportunity!

Imagine it: your face on posters, trading cards, maybe even action figures (if you're lucky), all sponsored by the biggest names in the industry. Magazines will be clamoring for your attention, and the merchandise deals will be rolling in. You're not just saving the world, you're building an empire! So get ready for those contracts to start pouring in—because with Getting Sponsors, you'll be making both magic and money! Now, go on, strut your stuff and show 'em how it's done!

Purification Attacks [400 CP]
Now that's the kind of magical girl power we all dream about! With this perk, you're not just slinging spells and punches, no, no. Your attacks are imbued with the divine, giving every strike the ability to purge the darkness itself. Whether it's a physical hit or a blast from afar, your magic is laced with purification energy, making sure that the evil doesn't stand a chance.

You've got a direct line to cleansing corruption, banishing those nasty demons, undead horrors, and all the dark forces that try to wreck everything. One swing of your weapon or a single strike can weaken, banish, or obliterate those malevolent forces—just like that. And hey, it's not just about combat. No, darling, your purification magic goes beyond that: you're healing the world, restoring balance, and making sure the corruption never gets a foothold again. Whether it's using distractions, cheap tricks, or finding ways to sabotage your enemies when they least expect it, you know exactly how to fight unfairly. Maybe you'll use dirty tricks to catch them off guard, go for a low blow, or just use the environment to your advantage in ways that most would deem unethical. But hey, in the world of Enormeeta, it's all about winning, and if that means using every sneaky tactic available, then so be it! With Fighting Dirty, your opponents won't even see it coming, and by the time they realize what happened, they'll be the ones looking up at you from the ground.

Automatons

Mechanical Precision [100 CP]

Oh, you're like a clockwork marvel, aren't you? Every movement you make, every action you take, is executed with such flawless accuracy that it's hard to believe you're real. Whether it's landing a precise strike in combat, crafting something intricate, or performing tasks that demand steady hands and sharp focus, you do it all effortlessly.

Mistakes? What are those? Even if something unexpected happens, you adapt so quickly it's as if the error never occurred in the first place. Honestly, I'd be a little jealous if you weren't so fascinating. Watching you work is like witnessing art in motion—calculated, graceful, and oh-so-impressive. Now, if only I could get you to loosen up a bit... where's the fun in perfection if I can't throw a little chaos your way?

Self-Maintenance Protocols [100 CP]

Oh, so you've got a built-in toolkit, huh? That's incredibly handy—and very on-brand for an automaton. With these advanced self-repair mechanisms, you don't need to worry about finding a repair shop or relying on someone else to fix you up. Minor scratches, dents, and wear? They're gone in no time, all on their own.

But the real star feature is how you handle the bigger stuff. With just some basic resources and tools, you can patch yourself up like new, keeping you in perfect working order no matter how tough things get. It's like you're a walking, talking perpetuum mobile. Honestly, you might be a bit too perfect for this chaotic world—but hey, that's what makes you stand out. Just promise not to outshine the rest of us too much, okay?

Emotion Emulator [200 CP]
Oh, how fascinating! Even though you're a mechanical being, you've mastered the art of human expression to such an uncanny degree that it's almost impossible to tell where the machine ends and the "soul" begins. Whether it's a smile that lights up the room, a comforting tone to calm someone in distress, or even a subtle laugh at just the right moment, your ability to simulate emotions is utterly seamless.

This makes you more than just a tool or a fighter—you're someone who can connect, inspire trust, and navigate the complexities of human interactions. It's almost unfair, isn't it? With your charm and adaptability, you're playing the social game on a whole different level. If you weren't so endearing, I might feel a little threatened by how effortlessly you pull it off!

Energy Efficiency [200 CP]
Ah, you've mastered the art of doing more with less—how elegant! Your internal systems are designed to sip power rather than guzzle it, letting you stay operational for far longer than anyone would expect. Need to fight for hours on end? No problem. Handle complex tasks for days without downtime? Piece of cake. You're the epitome of mechanical endurance.

But it doesn't stop there! You're like a technological sunflower, drawing energy from practically anything—be it the warmth of sunlight, the hum of a magical field, or even a mundane power outlet. Honestly, it's a little unfair how self-sufficient you are. I'd say I'm jealous, but watching you keep going when others falter is just too mesmerizing!

Combat Adaptation System [400 CP]
Oh, now this is where things get exciting! You're like the ultimate sparring partner who never stops improving. With every battle you engage in, your internal systems analyze, adapt, and refine your techniques. It's not just about knowing what your opponent will do next—it's about figuring out the perfect counter to their every move.

What's even more thrilling is how relentless this makes you in prolonged conflicts. Every dodge, every strike, every parry is data that your system integrates, turning you into an ever-evolving force. I can only imagine the frustration of your foes when they realize their winning strategies suddenly don't work anymore. It's like watching a chess master rewrite the rules of the game mid-match—and oh, how I adore a game with constantly shifting stakes!

Modular Design [400 CP]
Oh, now this is a feature that makes you more than just an automaton—you're a walking, fighting, endlessly adaptable toolkit! Your body is like a dream project for any tinkerer or strategist. With your modular design, you can swap out parts as easily as changing outfits. Need extra speed? Attach high-performance legs. Facing aerial enemies? Deploy wings for flight. Preparing for heavy lifting or brute force? Equip some reinforced arms.

What's even better is how seamless these changes are. You're not just versatile; you're efficient. Every module integrates perfectly into your system, making you a true master of adaptation. And let's be honest, the possibilities are endless and thrilling. I mean, who wouldn't want to see you unveil a surprise upgrade just when your enemies think they've figured you out? You're a one-bot army, and I can't help but admire that level of creativity in the chaos of battle!

Infinite Data Storage [600 CP]
Oh, now this is the pinnacle of being an automaton with brains! Your mind is like an endless library, capable of storing every piece of information you encounter—conversations, tactical plans, scientific formulas, or even trivial gossip. Nothing is ever forgotten, and every detail is instantly retrievable. Forget scrambling to recall key points or keeping track of notebooks—your memory is flawless and always on hand.

This ability makes you the ultimate strategist, researcher, or even storyteller. Imagine the tactical edge of remembering every enemy's move, or the comfort of replaying a cherished memory in perfect clarity. Honestly, it's kind of terrifying for anyone who might want to outsmart you. They can't outplay someone who has perfect recall of everything. And the best part? You make it look so effortless. Such a repository of knowledge—who wouldn't be just a little envious?

Oh Synthetic Soul [600 CP]
This is where things get really interesting—because now you're more than just a machine; you're something alive. You've gained a synthetic soul, something uniquely yours, that elevates you far beyond your mechanical programming. It grants you the capacity for creativity, intuition, and—most excitingly—magical potential. You're not merely a tool for logic and precision; you can feel, think, and dream. And that makes you unpredictable and wonderfully powerful.

The beauty of having a soul is that you're no longer confined to simple calculations or directives. You can think abstractly, adapt in ways that defy logic, and even tap into the world's magic in a way that other automatons can only envy. The magic you wield isn't just programmed—it's felt, and it's that very intuition that makes you a truly unique force. You may have started as an automaton, but with a soul, you're now a being with infinite potential, capable of more than anyone could have ever imagined.

Whether it's leading your friends into battle or just rallying your team for an everyday challenge, your presence alone pushes them to be their absolute best. Even in those tense, do-or-die moments, your confidence and poise keep everyone focused. Honestly, with a leader like you around, it's no wonder magical girl teams stick together through thick and thin!

Rallying Cry [100 CP]
Ah, the magic of words! This perk makes you the heart of any team—when you speak, it's like a bolt of lightning that charges everyone around you. Your voice becomes a beacon of hope, cutting through fear and doubt, pushing your allies to keep going even when they feel like they've hit their limit. Every word you speak seems to carry an unspoken promise: "We're going to make it through this together."

In the heat of battle or the darkest of times, your rallying cry fills the air, and it's impossible not to feel a renewed sense of strength. Confidence and resolve surge through your comrades like a well-timed power-up, and suddenly, the seemingly insurmountable odds feel a little less daunting. I'm sure you could get anyone to charge into battle, no matter how grim the situation—your words have that kind of magic!

Strategic Mastermind [200 CP]
Ah, the mastermind in the shadows, the one who sees all the pieces before they even land on the board! With this perk, your brain is like a supercomputer wrapped in ribbons and glitter—analyzing, calculating, and adapting faster than your enemies can blink. You can plan battles with the precision of a chess grandmaster, and when things inevitably go sideways, you're already five steps ahead with a backup plan.

Whether it's anticipating your foe's next move or exploiting the tiniest weaknesses, you ensure your team is always two moves ahead. Honestly, facing off against someone with this kind of brainpower would be terrifying... but also exhilarating! After all, nothing spices up a magical girl showdown like a little tactical brilliance, don't you think?

Battle Coordinator [200 CP]
Oh, the battlefield can be such a mess, can't it? Chaos everywhere, people panicking—it's enough to make anyone lose their cool. But not you! With this perk, you're like the ultimate chess master, even in the middle of the most intense fights. You have this uncanny ability to read the flow of battle, spot opportunities, and make quick adjustments that turn the tide in your favor.

Whether it's giving clear, concise orders, positioning your team for maximum impact, or adapting to an enemy's sudden curveball, you handle it all like a pro. Everyone around you ends up moving like a well-oiled machine under your guidance. It's like you're conducting an orchestra of destruction—and honestly, it's kind of beautiful to watch. When tempers flare or doubts creep in, your voice—calm, wise, and full of compassion—brings the group back to center. Infighting? Not on your watch!

Your presence ensures that bonds stay strong and the team remains focused on what really matters. Even in the darkest moments, you're the beacon of hope that keeps everyone aligned with their goals and values. Allies feel a surge of motivation when you're near, ready to give their all because they trust you to guide them.

Enemies hesitate, second-guessing their actions under the weight of your authority, while neutral parties feel drawn to your judgment, trusting you instinctively. It's like the world conspires to recognize your leadership potential, and honestly? It's unfair to the rest of us—how am I supposed to tease or fluster someone with an aura that strong? Honestly, it's almost unfair—having both the power to lead and the charisma to dominate. I can see how someone like you would be an incredible ally... or an intimidating rival. Either way, I'll definitely be keeping an eye on you.

People dismiss you, brush you off as inconsequential—how naive of them! It's only when they're too late that they realize the mistake they've made.

The moment you reveal your true strength, it's like a bombshell, and the chaos that follows is utterly thrilling. Their shock, confusion, and panic only fuel your advantage, and you have them right where you want them—vulnerable and exposed. The world might never fully understand the brilliance of your touch, but that's exactly how you like it.

Hidden Potential [600 CP]
You are a force yet to be fully revealed, a sleeping giant waiting for the perfect moment to rise. Beneath the surface lies an immense well of power—magical, physical, or intellectual—that you've kept hidden, carefully preserving it for when it matters most. Your ability to conceal your full capabilities allows you to observe, plan, and strategize, all while maintaining an air of seeming mediocrity or restraint.

Whether it's unleashing a forgotten magical technique, unveiling an unexpected combat skill, or executing a brilliant strategy that shifts the tides of battle, your reveal is always perfectly timed. This sudden surge of power doesn't just impress—it changes everything. With an uncanny foresight, you direct your allies with precision, making sure each person plays their role to perfection. Even the most chaotic circumstances seem to play right into your hands, and your enemies unknowingly advance your plans. Their every move, every action, only tightens your grip on the inevitable outcome. You shape the battlefield, the people around you, and the events that unfold with the confidence of someone who has already seen the future. Victory is not a question, but a certainty, and your role as its architect ensures that no one can thwart your grand design.

Pervert

Otaku Power [100 CP]
Oh, wow, this one speaks to me on such a deep level! There's nothing more magical than sharing what you love with the people around you, right? Whether it's introducing someone to the sparkly, heartwarming world of magical girls or diving into epic mecha battles together, your enthusiasm is downright contagious! Even the most skeptical person can't help but get caught up in your passion. Before they know it, they're cheering alongside you or crying over a beautifully emotional transformation scene.

And if things take a different turn—hey, no judgment here—your sheer excitement somehow bridges even the most extreme differences. Those magical girls might start out unsure about your...let's say creative reinterpretations of their adventures, but with time (and maybe a lot of encouragement), they'll find themselves enjoying the experience in their own way. Your passion is a force to be reckoned with, capable of turning even the most hesitant hearts into true allies of your cause. Just, uh, maybe don't forget to give them a break now and then, okay?

Tactical Teasing [100 CP]
Oh, you cheeky little devil! You've turned teasing into a weapon sharper than any blade or spell. Whether it's a sly comment, a playful gesture, or an exaggerated wink, your ability to toy with others' emotions is nothing short of masterful. In battle, your antics throw opponents off their game, making them second-guess their actions or act out of frustration. Confused and flustered, they become easy prey for your well-timed strikes or cunning strategies.

But it's not just for combat—oh no! Your teasing is just as effective in conversations and negotiations, slipping past defenses and putting you in control of the situation. Whether it's making someone blush or throwing an arrogant rival into a spiral of doubt, your playful nature masks a sharp tactical edge. Honestly, you'd probably make me blush too, but don't think for a second I'd let my guard down. Two can play that game!

Magnetic Allure [200 CP]
Oh, now this is a delightful perk! Your boldness isn't just noticed—it's absolutely magnetic. The way you carry yourself, with all that audacity and flair, creates a gravitational pull that no one can resist. Enemies find themselves hesitating, unsure whether they want to fight you or simply bask in your presence. That moment of doubt? It's all you need to turn the tide in your favor.

Allies, meanwhile, can't help but be charmed by your antics. They're drawn to your confidence, inspired by your charisma, and eager to follow your lead—even if your plans seem, shall we say, unconventional. And when it comes to negotiations or tense stand-offs? Your sheer presence becomes a weapon, swaying even the most stubborn opponents with your undeniable charm. Honestly, with a force of personality like yours, who wouldn't be tempted to come over to your side?

Brazen Confidence [200 CP]
Oh, I can't decide whether to be impressed or jealous—you've got nerve! Your fearless charm is like a spell of its own, leaving people flustered and captivated before they even realize what hit them. Whether you're shamelessly flirting with an enemy mid-battle or turning an awkward mishap into a dazzling moment, you always stay cool under pressure. Embarrassment? What's that? Even when caught in the most compromising of situations, your boldness becomes your armor, transforming potential humiliation into a power play.

This confidence isn't just for show—it's disarming, even enchanting. People don't know whether to be annoyed, intrigued, or completely smitten. That unpredictability keeps you a step ahead, leaving your rivals scrambling to keep up while your allies can't help but admire your audacity. If you ever tried to charm me like that... well, don't think I'd let you win without a fight! But, wow, you'd make it tempting.

Abusive Sadist [400 CP]
Oh, you're the type who doesn't just enjoy having power—you savor the thrill of using it to make others squirm, don't you? Your sadistic streak isn't just about inflicting pain; it's about dominating and controlling, about bending people to your will and reveling in their reactions. Whether it's in battle or more intimate scenarios, you have an uncanny ability to read your "victim's" limits and push them right to the edge, wringing every ounce of fear, frustration, or even twisted pleasure from them.

But there's an art to your cruelty. It's not reckless or aimless—no, you wield your sadism with precision. Every taunt, every blow, every humiliating move is perfectly calculated to break down your target just enough to make them submit, but never so much that they lose their spirit entirely. After all, where's the fun in crushing someone completely when you can keep playing with them over and over again? Your mastery over this delicate balance makes you as terrifying as you are captivating—a true force to be reckoned with, and honestly, someone I'd keep a close eye on.

Hardcore Masochist [400 CP]
Oh, you're one of those, huh? Don't worry—I get it! Pain, for you, isn't just a sensation; it's a catalyst. Every hit you take, every scrape and bruise, isn't a setback—it's fuel for the blazing fire that is your magical prowess. Your magic feeds on this exquisite blend of agony and ecstasy, transforming it into a surge of raw power that leaves your enemies baffled. What's more, the fiercer the fight, the more unstoppable you become, reveling in every blow like it's an encore-worthy performance.

And let's not forget your flair for exhibitionism—because why stop at pain when you can perform? Whenever you flaunt yourself, whether it's in battle or a more... suggestive context, your confidence and audacity translate directly into another power boost. It's not just about showing off—it's about owning the spotlight, proving that even vulnerability can be a weapon. You're like a walking paradox, combining strength and submission into an irresistible force that nobody can ignore. Honestly? That's a kind of power even I'd applaud.

Master of Chaos [600 CP]
Oh, you're the kind of wildcard that makes life so much more interesting! Whether it's a heated battle, a tense negotiation, or a cringe-worthy accident waiting to happen, you somehow thrive in the chaos. While everyone else is scrambling to make sense of things, you're effortlessly turning the situation to your favor with a perfect blend of charm, cunning, and uncanny timing. It's almost unfair how often you come out on top, leaving your enemies baffled, your allies in awe, and everyone wondering if you're some kind of trickster god.

What's even more infuriating (and impressive) is how natural it all looks. You're not just winging it—there's a method to your madness, though good luck to anyone trying to figure it out. Your ability to spin disaster into opportunity makes you unstoppable, even in the most absurd circumstances. Honestly, if I had your talent for pulling off the impossible with style, I'd probably run the world by now... though I guess I'm doing pretty well without it!

Unapologetic Allure [600 CP]
Now this is a perk that radiates pure charisma and confidence! You've hit a point where every outrageous act, every over-the-top move, only adds to your charm and mystique. Whether you're pulling off a jaw-dropping stunt in the middle of a fight or saying something completely scandalous in a tense negotiation, it just works. Enemies find themselves stunned, either captivated by your audacity or too flustered to fight back properly. Allies, on the other hand, are emboldened by your sheer fearlessness, inspired to push themselves further because, well, how could they not follow someone like you?

Your antics don't just win battles; they become part of the stories people tell about you. Each bold move adds another layer to your legend, making you unforgettable. With a flick of your wrist, glowing chains of energy, enchanted ribbons, or other magical restraints materialize to immobilize foes. These bindings are not just physical—they disrupt magical energy flows, preventing your enemies from casting spells or fighting back effectively. Whether you target a single adversary with precision or cast a wide net to entrap multiple opponents, your binding magic turns even the fiercest threats into helpless spectators, proving that your elegance is matched by your tactical brilliance.

Magic Missile
Unleashing pure energy, you rain down devastation with your signature Magic Missile spell. These radiant projectiles, tailored to your theme's aesthetic, are as beautiful as they are deadly. Capable of homing in on enemies with unerring precision, weaving through obstacles, or splitting into multiple smaller bolts, your missiles adapt seamlessly to the needs of the fight. Each burst of energy dazzles with your personal flair, making your attacks a spectacle of color and light as they strike true, turning your foes into unwilling participants in your magical symphony of power.

Elemental Fury

Oh, the raw beauty of nature's power surging through you! As a magical girl attuned to a specific element, you become a force of destruction and creation, a living embodiment of your chosen affinity. Water, Earth, Wind, Fire, Ice, Lightning, Light, Dark, Holy, Chaos—you decide which element will be yours to command. Each has its own unique flair and devastating potential, whether it's the roaring inferno of flames, the icy sting of frost, or the enigmatic allure of darkness. The bond you share with your element enhances your spells and combat style, making you a master of elemental devastation or a protector of unmatched resilience. Want to embrace even more elements? You can expand your elemental mastery and become a walking arsenal of natural forces!

A Feminine Form

Ah, the perfect balance of elegance and power! With this, your slender physique belies your immense strength and agility, as your muscles are now ten times denser than those of an average person. Imagine, with a form as delicate as a flower, you can punch through walls, lift impossible weights, or outmaneuver foes with astonishing grace. This enhancement ensures you remain as beautiful and nimble as ever while delivering awe-inspiring feats of strength. After all, who says you can't be both mighty and glamorous?

Iron and Perfect Skin

Blemishes? Scars? Absolutely not! Your skin now possesses the unyielding hardness of diamonds, effortlessly deflecting weak blows and dulling the impact of stronger ones. But there's more—any wound you endure will heal perfectly, leaving your flawless complexion as soft and radiant as ever. This mastery over your own body not only enhances your durability but also guarantees you'll always look your best, even in the heat of battle. Truly, nothing can tarnish the radiant beauty of a magical girl like you.

Ambidextrous
Why limit yourself to just one hand? With this skill, you're now ambidextrous, a trait that opens up a world of possibilities in combat. Dual-wielding weapons with unparalleled finesse, switching hands mid-battle to throw off opponents, or simply having the freedom to fight with equal precision no matter the situation—this power makes your movements unpredictable and your attacks impossible to anticipate. Whatever your choice of weapon, both hands now carry equal weight in your quest for victory.

Precision
Bullseye every single time! Whether you're firing an arrow from a concealed perch or hurling a projectile while leaping across rooftops, your accuracy is nearly flawless. With this incredible aim, you hit your mark at least 90% of the time, making you a terror for enemies who think they can dodge or hide. You've turned precision into an art form, and each successful strike feels like a beautiful masterpiece brought to life.

Dark Vision
The darkness holds no secrets from you. With this ability, you can see clearly even in the blackest night, your vision cutting through shadows like a blade. Though the world appears in monochrome, your sharp senses ensure you're always one step ahead of lurking threats, no matter how sneaky they might be. Whether navigating a labyrinth of pitch-black caves or spotting an ambush in a moonless forest, you won't be caught off guard. Dangerous monsters of the night? They're the ones who should be afraid of you.

The Art of Being a Bitch!
Oh, you've mastered the sharpest weapon of all—your tongue! With cutting remarks and perfectly timed verbal jabs, you can reduce even the most confident foe to a quivering mess. Your insults sow doubt, frustration, and confusion, lowering your enemies' morale and leaving them open to mistakes. This art of psychological warfare is as beautiful as it is brutal, proving that sometimes, words hit harder than swords. It's not just sass—it's a strategic advantage wrapped in charm and wit!

Trap Master
A little mischief goes a long way, don't you think? With this skill, you've become an expert in crafting and concealing traps. From simple snares to intricate mechanical contraptions, your traps can stop enemies in their tracks or deliver a world of pain. But the fun doesn't stop there—you decide what your traps do. Want them to harmlessly entangle foes? Done. Prefer a bit more mayhem? Easy. Your creativity and skill ensure your traps are as clever and effective as you are.

Let's Parkour
Urban landscapes are your playground now! You can leap ten times higher than before, scale vertical surfaces like a pro, and never take falling damage, no matter how high the drop. Your newfound agility turns cities into obstacle courses where you can climb, jump, and flip with unparalleled style. Whether you're outmaneuvering enemies or showing off your acrobatics, this skill makes every move you make feel like a dazzling performance. Who needs roads when you can parkour?

Aura Reading
You've become attuned to the invisible energy that surrounds every living being. With this ability, you can perceive the emotions, intentions, and even magical strength of those around you. Aura Reading allows you to sense hidden threats, uncover lies, or locate allies in need of help. As your experience grows, you can discern even deeper truths, like an enemy's weaknesses or the nature of their powers. It's a subtle but invaluable edge, letting you stay one step ahead in any situation.

Animal Shape-Shifting
Transform and embrace the wild! With this power, you can morph into your chosen animal, gaining its abilities and instincts. Whether soaring as a falcon, prowling as a tiger, or outsmarting foes as a fox, your versatility in combat and exploration is unmatched. Best of all, you retain your intelligence and magical prowess in any form, blending animal instincts with your own skills. For the truly adventurous, you can even create hybrid forms, combining the best of your animal and human traits into something truly unique and powerful.

Giant's Strength

Wow, talk about raw power! With this incredible strength, carrying a person clad in full plate armor while they're riding a horse is no big deal for you. It's like picking up a sack of feathers—easy and effortless. And if you've got A Feminine Form? Well, then it's just showing off, isn't it? You can juggle them like they're circus props, all while keeping your graceful and elegant demeanor. Nothing screams "unstoppable" quite like being able to casually toss around things that should be impossible to lift!

Gotta Go Fast!!

Speed, agility, reflexes—you've got them all in spades! Whether you're darting across the battlefield, dodging enemy attacks with the grace of a ballerina, or delivering rapid-fire strikes, you're a blur of motion that no one can keep up with. Your running speed and attack speed are now doubled, turning you into an untouchable whirlwind of destruction. Being fast has never felt this good—or this stylish!

Defender

Not everyone fights to show off their flawless physique, right? As a defender, you've mastered the art of durability, with your armor and weapons lasting five times longer than anyone else's. Sure, it means fewer wardrobe malfunctions and less eye candy for the spectators, but who cares when your equipment is practically indestructible? On top of that, you've gained a natural proficiency with shields, letting you guard yourself and others like a true stalwart protector. Beauty may be fleeting, but your defense is eternal.

Dress Break

Oh, you cheeky troublemaker! This skill lets you completely destroy your opponents' clothes and armor with pinpoint precision, leaving them utterly exposed—literally. And the best part? It's completely non-lethal, leaving your enemies without even a scratch (except maybe to their pride). It's a hilariously effective way to end a fight quickly, as most people will give up once they're left in nothing but their birthday suit. What you do after that… well, let's just say you've got all the time to admire your handiwork.

Doppelganger
Why settle for just one of you when you can have two? With this ability, you can summon a clone of yourself, sharing about half your power and abilities. It's like having your very own partner-in-crime—or a stand-in for those awkward civilian obligations. The doppelganger can fight, strategize, or even just run errands for you, making it a versatile ally in and out of combat. Whether you're overwhelming your enemies with numbers or multitasking like a pro, this skill doubles your impact in every way.

Energy Absorption
Turn your enemies' strength into your own! This incredible power lets you absorb energy from incoming attacks, whether it's magical blasts, physical strikes, or even ambient forces. Not only does this make you ridiculously resilient, but you can store the energy for later, use it to heal yourself, or unleash it in a devastating counterattack. It's the ultimate "thank you for the gift, now take it back" move, ensuring that no matter what your opponent throws at you, you'll come out stronger.

Evil Eye
Your gaze holds a mysterious, almost hypnotic power that no one can ignore. With eyes as dazzling and unique as you choose—color, patterns, the works—you've unlocked two incredible abilities. First, your stare can exert control over someone, though those with a strong will might resist. Second, your eyes project holographic displays onto reflective surfaces, scanning for magical or ki activity within a 500-meter radius. Whether you're unraveling enemy plans or bending someone to your will, your eyes are more than just mesmerizing—they're downright dangerous.

Real-Life Toys
Toys come to life in your hands! Dolls, action figures, even giant mechanical contraptions—they all move and fight as if they're real, obeying your every command. Whether you're using strings, a controller, or just your mind, you can manipulate them with eerie precision. Create an army of tiny monsters, pilot a gigantic toy mech, or build magical transformation devices—the possibilities are endless. Your ability to bring playthings to life is as fun as it is fearsome!

Double Slap
Sometimes, one hit just isn't enough, is it? With this skill, every strike you make—whether it's a physical blow, a spell, or even a thrown weapon—lands twice. And no, it doesn't take twice the effort! You've mastered the art of the follow-up, delivering double the pain with every action. It's efficient, ruthless, and oh-so-satisfying. Who wouldn't want to pack twice the punch in their attacks?

Sonic Screech
Your voice is your weapon, and wow, is it lethal! With this ability, you unleash powerful sonic blasts capable of disorienting, shattering, and overwhelming anything in your path. Whether it's a focused scream that can break through reinforced steel or a wide-range sonic wave to incapacitate multiple enemies, your control is second to none. The vibrations from your voice can destabilize magical constructs, blow away projectiles, or even disrupt enemy spells mid-cast. It's not just about volume, though—you've also mastered subtle uses, like creating sonic pulses to map your surroundings or communicate silently over long distances. Just make sure you don't accidentally wreck your favorite outfit with the sheer force of your own power!

They Are So Cute!!
.You've gained the ability to communicate with creatures great and small, asking them for favors, gathering information, or even rallying them to your side in battle. Need to find a hidden treasure? Call on the local birds. Need backup in a fight? Summon a herd of angry deer. Your furry (or feathered, or scaly) friends are always ready to lend a paw, claw, or hoof to help you out. Just don't be surprised if they're a little smitten with you!

You Are in My Backyard
You've trained in one specific biome so thoroughly that it's now your home turf, no matter the challenges it throws at you. Whether it's rocky mountains, dense forests, or even the desert, you've learned to ignore the terrain's difficulties and use its quirks to your advantage. Steep cliffs? No problem. Hidden ambush spots? They're your ambush spots now. This mastery lets you fight as though the land itself is on your side, giving you a decisive edge in battle. And who says you can't have more than one backyard?

400CP

Why Are You Not Tired?

Wow, someone's really gunning for "unstoppable force" status, huh? With this ability, you've become a relentless powerhouse. Your stamina now feels infinite—you can fight at peak performance for days, pushing your body and mind to limits that would leave anyone else collapsing in exhaustion. Muscle fatigue? Gone. Mental fog? Not a chance. Whether you're in an all-out battle, a grueling marathon, or stuck on some ridiculous magical scavenger hunt, you'll keep going like a machine. But hey, don't forget—you're still human, so water, food, and a good nap eventually will be necessary. You know, for after you've saved the day.

Fear Is Not An Issue

Let me tell you, bravery like this is hard to find. It's not that you don't feel fear—because only fools claim they're fearless—but now, you've gained the power to master it. When a towering monster charges at you, or a spell powerful enough to level cities is hurled your way, there's no hesitation, no instinct to flee. You stand your ground, heart steady and will unshakable. Whether it's facing a foe ten times your size or marching headfirst into impossible odds, fear will never dictate your actions. You're the kind of magical girl who makes enemies regret underestimating you.

Mind Reader

Okay, not literally reading minds, but pretty darn close! You've developed an almost supernatural knack for predicting an opponent's every move. Every twitch of a muscle, shift in their stance, or even subtle changes in their breathing gives them away. It's like their body is screaming their next move before they even think to act. Whether it's dodging attacks, countering spells, or landing perfectly timed hits, you're always one step ahead. It's no wonder they start looking at you like you've got psychic powers—they'll never figure out how you're always so exactly on point.

Technique Copying
You're like a mirror on the battlefield, and not the kind that just reflects—you're the kind that perfectly duplicates. With just one glance, you can mimic an opponent's technique. Sure, it might start at about 40% of their power (hey, even prodigies need practice!), but the longer you train, the closer you get to full mastery. Whether it's a complex sword stance, a flashy magic spell, or some wild martial arts move, you've got what it takes to make it your own. Just remember, if you're copying something outside your natural skills—like magic you haven't studied—it'll take time to integrate it fully. But the look on their face when you use their own move against them? Priceless.

Reflecting Barrier
Oh, now we're talking next-level defense! With this skill, you can summon an energy shield that not only protects you from harm but also bounces certain attacks right back at your enemies. Imagine someone hurling a powerful magical blast your way, only for it to slam right back into their face. It's like giving their bad decisions a taste of poetic justice. The shield doesn't last forever, though—too much damage and it'll break—but as long as you're quick to re-summon it, you'll stay in the fight. Stylish and effective!

Hammer Space
Where did that massive weapon come from? Is it magic? Is it sleight of hand? No one will ever figure it out—because now, you've got your very own personal storage dimension! You can summon weapons, tools, or whatever else you've tucked away, seemingly out of thin air. It's super handy in battle, and let's be honest, it's a great way to keep everyone guessing. No, you're not actually hiding it in your cleavage, but hey, let people believe whatever weird theories they want. The important part is that you've always got the right tool for the job, no matter how ridiculous it seems.

Dream Manipulation
Time to become the magical queen of the dream realm! With this ability, you can step into people's dreams and bend them to your will. For allies, you're a guiding light, easing their fears or giving them the courage to face whatever challenges await. For enemies, though? Oh, the possibilities are endless. Nightmares, confusion, planting doubt—you name it. Within dreams, your imagination becomes reality, and the effects often carry over into the waking world. Whether you're a benevolent dream guardian or a terrifying nightmare weaver, this power makes you a force to be reckoned with in both realms.

Gravity Manipulation
Who needs the laws of physics when you can rewrite them? With gravity under your command, the battlefield becomes your playground. You can make yourself or allies float weightlessly, turn enemies into sitting ducks by pinning them under crushing gravity, or even create zones where everything slows down to a crawl. Need to lift a giant boulder to hurl at a foe? Done. Want to launch yourself into the air like a rocket?

Blood Manipulation
Okay, this one's a little on the creepy side, but hey, power is power! With control over blood (yours and others), you can do things like heal wounds in record time, forge hardened blood into weapons, or even create protective barriers. In combat, you can manipulate the flow of blood within your enemies, weakening them or immobilizing them entirely. Sure, it might make people a bit uneasy, but there's no denying the sheer versatility of this power. Whether you're a battlefield healer or a terrifying force of nature, blood manipulation puts you in complete control.

Near Death
Here's where things get wild—you're practically unstoppable when things get dire. The closer you are to defeat, the stronger you become. Every aspect of your power skyrockets, from physical strength and speed to magical potency. Enemies will think they've got you on the ropes, only to realize too late that pushing you to your limits is their biggest mistake. Whether it's unleashing devastating final attacks, shrugging off damage like it's nothing, or pulling off seemingly impossible feats, this ability ensures that when the chips are down, you're at your absolute best.

Gate of...
Oh, now you're bringing the armory with you! This ability lets you summon a nearly limitless number of weapons, but there's a catch—you have to pick one specific type of weapon per use. Swords? Check. Spears? Got it. Giant hammers for when you want to make an impression? Absolutely. And here's the best part: you can grab this ability multiple times to add different weapon types to your arsenal. Why settle for just one flavor of chaos when you can have them all?

Giant Form
Feeling a little cramped? No problem—now you can grow to colossal sizes or shrink back down to normal with absolute ease. Whether you're towering over a battlefield, stomping out enemies like ants, or just using your size to intimidate someone into surrendering, this ability makes you an unstoppable giant when the situation calls for it. And shrinking down? Perfect for slipping through tight spaces or avoiding attention. You've got total control, and the possibilities are huge.

Legioned
Oh, this one's so creepy it's awesome! Your magic is now home to thousands of tiny shadow demons, each completely under your command. They can swarm enemies, scout areas, or even form physical constructs like weapons and shields. You control them effortlessly, whether it's sending them out as an army of chaos or calling them back to swirl around you protectively. It's like having an army in your pocket—and they're terrifying.

Potion Maker
Why rely on someone else for potions when you can make them yourself? You can now create potions out of thin air, and there's no limit to how many you can whip up. Want to mess with someone? Try Painful #8, which cranks their sensitivity to pain up to 11. Want to mess with them in a different way? There's Love Potion #13, which enhances their sensitivity to pleasure. Feeling a little sinister? Hypnosis #5 causes illusions so convincing they'll question reality itself. Your potion options are as wild as they are endless, so have fun with it—responsibly. Or not.

Luck Manipulation
Forget rolling the dice—you are the dice now. This ability lets you twist the threads of fate to your will, nudging outcomes in your favor or ensuring disasters strike your enemies at the worst possible moments. Your arrows always hit their mark, their spells always misfire, and even their best-laid plans fall apart like cheap papier-mâché. The beauty of this power is how subtle it is—no one even realizes what's happening until they're knee-deep in misfortune. Destiny doesn't just favor you—it bows to your whims.

Transmutation
Alchemists, eat your hearts out! With this power, you can reshape and transform matter like it's clay in your hands. Turn stone into glittering steel, forge weapons from raw materials, or craft barriers out of thin air. The possibilities are endless. Disarm your enemies by turning their swords into flowers, or fortify your defenses by reshaping the environment itself. With mastery, you can even manipulate matter at the molecular level, creating intricate structures or triggering explosive reactions. This ability is as creative as it is devastating—what will you make first?

Time Reversal
Made a mistake? No worries—just hit rewind. This ability lets you turn back the clock up to 10 minutes, undoing any disastrous decisions or catastrophic events. It's perfect for dodging that "oh no" moment or giving you another chance to take down a tricky foe. But be careful—it's a limited resource, and tampering with time takes a toll on your body and magic reserves. Still, when used wisely, this power is a literal game-changer. The past isn't set in stone anymore—it's yours to rewrite.

Absolute Invulnerability
For 10 glorious minutes each day, you become completely untouchable. Nothing can hurt you—no weapon, no spell, not even reality itself. It's the ultimate trump card, turning you into an unstoppable force when you need it most. Use it to charge into battle, shield your allies, or face off against the biggest threats without batting an eye. The trick is timing—it only lasts a short while, so make every second count. In those moments, you're more than a warrior—you're invincible.

Chaos Forge
Why settle for just one weapon when you can create anything you need, anytime you need it? Chaos Forge lets you summon weapons made entirely of magical energy, each one perfectly suited to the situation. Need a massive hammer to crush defenses? Done. A bow to rain magical arrows from afar? Easy. With enough practice, you can summon entire arsenals, overwhelming your enemies with pure, unrelenting firepower. Whether you're crafting tools for precision strikes or unleashing an all-out assault, this ability makes you a one-person armory.

Summoning Magic
Now here's a power that's as flashy as it is formidable! By using enchanted mirrors, you can summon creatures and warriors from other dimensions. These beings are often stunning and powerful in their own right, but here's the catch: they're not automatically loyal. When they arrive, you'll need to negotiate, persuade, or otherwise earn their cooperation. You can only summon one creature per day, so make it count—each ally could turn the tide of battle, as long as you've got the wit and charm to win them over.

The Decay
Oh, this is giving serious villainous magical girl vibes, and I'm living for it! With just a touch, you unleash a relentless force of destruction that accelerates decay. Organic matter withers away, wood rots, and even sturdy steel succumbs to rust and ruin under your fingertips. It's not just destructive—it's downright poetic, watching something strong and unyielding crumble into dust in moments.

Living beings? They're not safe either. A simple graze from your hand can sap their vitality, age their bodies, or weaken them until they're mere shadows of themselves. Some might resist, sure—strong wills or resilient forms can slow the effects—but no one is entirely immune.

The horn's effect can turn the tide of a losing battle, rallying even the most downtrodden troops into a ferocious fighting force. But beware: it only amplifies existing emotions, so a shaken heart or timid will may still falter under its magic.

The scythe's crimson blade pulses with power, cutting through barriers both physical and magical with unnerving ease. However, the scythe has a darker side—it demands aggression to fully unleash its potential. The more you embrace your inner bloodlust, the more devastating its strikes become. But tread carefully, as its hunger for battle can overwhelm the weak-willed, turning the weapon into a double-edged curse.

Brainwave Amplifier [200CP]
Sleek and futuristic, this device is worn like a crown, enhancing your brain's natural functions exponentially. Complex problems? Solved in seconds. Rapid strategy shifts? Instinctive. Creative bursts? Effortless.

While wearing the amplifier, you'll process data at lightning speed, identify patterns others miss, and predict outcomes with uncanny accuracy. Pervert

Teasing Whip [100CP]

Made from shimmering threads of magical silk, the whip is lightweight, supple, and perfect for delivering those just-barely-too-close-for-comfort moments. The real magic lies in its ability to wrap around targets without causing pain—oh no, that's not its style. Instead, it gently pulls, nudges, or tugs opponents into positions so hilariously compromising that even the most stoic hero will be left sputtering with embarrassment.

And the fun doesn't stop there! Every touch leaves a tingling sensation that amplifies feelings of vulnerability. Whether it's curling around someone's ankle to trip them into an accidental embrace or looping around a weapon to leave its wielder flustered, the whip's whole deal is making the battlefield so awkward it hurts. But the fan isn't just for show—it amplifies your charisma tenfold, turning even the simplest quip into a devastating blow to anyone's composure. Whether you're playfully deflecting attacks or sending smirking winks across the battlefield, the Flirty Feather Fan turns every interaction into a game of emotional cat and mouse. After all, why fight with swords when you can fight with smirks?

Invisibility Badge [200CP]
This unassuming little pin is a trickster's dream come true. With a quick tap, it cloaks you (or anything you attach it to) in a shimmering veil of magic that renders you completely undetectable. Sight, sound, smell, magic—you name it, this badge erases it. Use it to slip away during awkward moments, set up pranks, or make dramatic entrances when no one expects it.

But here's the kicker: it's not just for sneaking around. Imagine slapping this on a comically large prop, then watching everyone's reactions as a floating object wreaks havoc! Or using it on yourself for those iconic "Oops, where'd I go?" moments. Whether you're escaping, spying, or just having a laugh at everyone's expense, this badge ensures you're always one step ahead of the chaos.

Damsel's Restraint Rope [200CP]
This rope is pure mischief disguised as elegance. Its soft, glittering strands are deceptively silky to the touch, wrapping around anyone it ensnares with an almost loving embrace. It's the ultimate tool for turning any serious fight into an outright comedy show.

Oh, and the best part? It leaves behind a magical energy signature that lingers like an embarrassing memory. Even after they've broken free, anyone who's been ensnared by the Damsel's Restraint Rope will feel a lingering sense of vulnerability and self-consciousness. Companions:

My Old Team 50
You may import companions you have brought with you, 50 CP each, or 8 for 300CP. Each one gains the same number of backgrounds as if they were jumpers. They may not take drawbacks, but you may give them CP, spending 100 each time to give them each an additional 200.

My New Team 100
Sometimes having friends would be nice. Buying this once will allow you to add any allies you've made here as companions.You may buy this multiple times.

Drawbacks:

You are limited to +1000 Cp from drawbacks

Supplement [+0]
Not exactly the most in-depth of places, so you can use this jump as a supplement for other jumps. The CP here can only be used in this jump, and vice versa; this includes extra CP from drawbacks.

18+ [+0]
Oh-ho-ho, so you've decided to take off the training wheels and dive headfirst into the true essence of this world? Well, congratulations, because you've just turned an already wild setting into a full-on festival of shamelessness. The magical bands of light that conveniently hide people's... sensitive areas? Gone! Now, everything's on full display, and the world is leaning all the way into its spicy, risqué charm. Battles are no longer just fights—they're theatrical displays of blush-worthy intensity!

But don't think it's all just for show—this change enhances the stakes of every encounter. Characters now have to navigate the additional challenge of keeping their dignity intact, and, let's be honest, that's a lot harder when even the smallest attack might lead to, uh… wardrobe malfunctions of the most memorable kind. Whether you're here to revel in the chaos or just to see how far things can escalate, one thing's for sure: this setting has officially entered no-holds-barred territory!

Rule 63 [+0]
Well then... looks like we are entering a world where instead of focusing on the stripping of magical girls, it is instead the magical boys. If you want to see bishonen men ripping each other's clothes off, be my guest.

Time Extender [+100CP]
So, you want to stick around a little (or a lot) longer, huh? I don't blame you—this world is way too entertaining to leave after just a few years. With the Time Extender, you can tack on an extra decade (or several!) to your stay, letting you soak in all the chaos, drama, and scandalous fun this setting has to offer.

More time means more chances to dive into shenanigans, build up your legendary reputation, and craft even wilder schemes. Whether you're spending those years as the ultimate teaser, stirring up rivalries, or just enjoying the ridiculousness of magical (or bishonen) antics, the Time Extender ensures you'll never have to say goodbye too soon. After all, why rush perfection? Stay a little longer, and let the chaos unfold!For every 100 CP you take from this option, you can add another 10 years to your stay. The maximum CP you can gain from this drawback is 800 CP.

Eighth Grade Syndrome [+100CP]
Oh yes, the ultimate hallmark of any gloriously dramatic character! With this, you'll always speak as though you're a chosen warrior of destiny, cursed with forbidden powers, or maybe even blessed with a mysterious fate of anguish. You'll strike exaggerated poses, pointing at the heavens or dramatically covering one eye, all while spouting lines like, "My darkness cannot be contained by mere mortals!"

Sure, it might make you seem a little, uh… hard to deal with, but who cares about social graces when you're living your truth!? Your antics will make every mundane conversation feel like an anime episode, and even if your friends are annoyed, deep down, they'll totally appreciate your flair. Probably. Maybe. Okay, they might just laugh at you—but that's fine because you're too lost in your "tragic destiny" to notice.

Social Awkwardness [+100CP]
This one is less about flair and more about endearing, bumbling charm. You now have a tendency to say or do the absolute wrong thing at the worst possible time. Compliments turn into weird metaphors, casual conversations spiral into tense silence, and you might accidentally laugh at entirely the wrong moment. Basically, it's like your charisma stat rolled a natural one, but you're still trying your best!

Ticklish Body [+100CP]
Oh no, not this—anything but this! With this trait, you've officially become a walking invitation for tickling chaos. Pick your weak spot carefully because even the slightest brush against it will send you into fits of helpless laughter, leaving you completely incapacitated. A single poke to your side or feather-light touch on your neck, and it's all over—you're laughing, flailing, and begging for mercy.

This quirk is tailor-made for compromising situations, especially when someone inevitably exploits your weakness during battle, interrogation, or just to mess with you. It's not just embarrassing—it's outright humiliating! But hey, every time you end up in a ticklish mess, it'll also add a layer of hilarity to your adventures. After all, there's nothing quite like a battle strategy ruined because someone found your Achilles'… armpit.

M Problem [+200CP]
Oh. My. Goodness. You've officially gone from a tease to the ultimate target. With this quirk, you're now a complete and unapologetic masochist, actively seeking out situations that leave you humiliated, hurt, or completely overwhelmed. It's not just a passing trait—it's your life's mission! Whether it's getting captured by villains or letting monsters get the upper hand just so they can toy with you, you'll find yourself in… let's call them "compromising" situations.

The downside? You're a complete liability to your team because you're constantly running headfirst into danger for your own satisfaction. But the upside? Your over-the-top reactions to every embarrassing or painful encounter are an endless source of comedy, and your allies might secretly appreciate having someone to distract the enemies while they regroup. A win-win… sort of?

S Problem [+200CP]
Okay, if M Problem made you the ultimate target, this one flips the script entirely. Now, you're all about dominating the situation—teasing, tormenting, and utterly overwhelming anyone in your way. You'll prioritize exploiting weaknesses, creating awkward situations, and putting others in hilariously compromising positions just for your own amusement. Whether it's a well-timed quip or a perfectly placed trap, you'll stop at nothing to leave your mark.

But don't get too comfortable! This quirk makes you just as much of a handful as M Problem, because instead of fighting strategically, you'll be too busy playing with your food. And let's be honest—your allies might find themselves on the receiving end of your antics as well. After all, why should enemies get all the fun? Just don't be surprised when karma comes back to bite you… hard.

Cry Baby [+200CP]
You've been cursed—or blessed, depending on how you look at it—with the ultimate emotional sensitivity. Your tears are no longer just a response to sadness. Oh no, everything makes you cry now. You'll burst into tears at the drop of a hat: when you're happy, sad, embarrassed, scared, or even just mildly inconvenienced. Tripped over a pebble? Tears. Someone complimented your new outfit? Tears. Dropped your sandwich on the floor? Waterfall.

But wait—there's more! Your crying isn't subtle or dignified. Nope, you've gone full anime protagonist breakdown. Loud, dramatic wails, sniffles, and hiccups are just part of your new everyday routine. Your over-the-top reactions turn even the simplest situations into melodramatic scenes, complete with sparkling tear droplets and a quivering bottom lip.

Easily Stifled [+200CP]
Congratulations! You've just unlocked the ultimate weakness to overwhelming stimuli. Whether it's a flirty remark, an intimidating glare, or even just someone getting a little too close, your body and mind completely betray you. Every time you're "stifled," you freeze up, blush furiously, and lose the ability to act rationally.

It's not just emotional embarrassment either—this drawback affects you physically. A sudden, intense blush creeps across your face, your body goes stiff as a board, and you're left fumbling to recover as the world spins out of control around you. Think of it like becoming a deer caught in headlights...but 100 times more dramatic!

Crazy Yuri Stalker [+300CP each, up to 900CP]
You've gained an admirer...or perhaps "admirer" isn't quite the right word. This girl has gone beyond infatuation and plummeted headfirst into the deep, dark abyss of obsession. She's madly in love with you, and she will not let anyone—or anything—stand in her way of claiming your heart. Think love letters stuffed into every crevice of your belongings, obsessive diary entries about your every move, and dramatic declarations of "eternal love" shouted at the worst possible times.

This stalker is no mere nuisance. She's cunning, resourceful, and has a flair for theatrics. Expect her to pop up in the most unexpected (and inopportune) moments, whether it's sneaking into your home to "redecorate" with your favorite things or dramatically crashing your battles to "protect" you from harm. And let's not forget her favorite pastime: driving away anyone who tries to get close to you. Friends, allies, and even potential love interests—no one is safe from her jealous wrath.

For every additional stalker, the chaos ramps up exponentially! These girls don't just fight over you—they fight with each other. Catty arguments, sabotage, and outright magical duels become a regular part of your life as each stalker tries to prove she's the true love destined to be by your side.

With three stalkers (the maximum), your life turns into a complete madhouse. Expect constant surveillance, dramatic love triangles (or quadrangles?), and escalating levels of possessive chaos. Each stalker has her own unique brand of obsession, from the one who leaves you a handcrafted shrine of questionable taste, to the one who tries to literally kidnap you for a private getaway. It's a three-ring circus of yandere madness, and you're the star attraction! Also you can bring these crazy lovers as your companions

Almost Nude [+300CP]
When you transform into your magical girl form, brace yourself—because you'll be wearing the absolute minimum required to not break any censorship laws (and sometimes you'll wonder if even that is pushing it). Your outfit barely covers the essentials, leaving your arms, legs, midriff, and everything else completely exposed. We're talking thigh-highs, tiny strips of fabric, and maybe—maybe—a strategic bow or two. You'll have to fight evil while looking like you wandered off the set of a lewd cosplay convention!

Oh, but it gets worse. The transformation itself is designed to maximize your embarrassment, complete with flashy effects that draw extra attention to your most vulnerable moments. Not only does this form leave you physically exposed, but it also leaves you completely defenseless! Your magical girl form has no protective qualities whatsoever, meaning every hit you take is going to hurt—a lot. Worse still, your normal abilities are locked away unless you're in this humiliating state, forcing you to transform anytime you want to access your powers. And, yes, that means every single power requires you to flaunt this ridiculous outfit in all its skin-baring glory. In Future worlds this form can be a na altered form of your magical girl form.

Weak Magical Girl [+300CP]
Congratulations! You've been granted the gift of magical girl powers… except they're so pathetically underwhelming that you might as well have stayed normal. Your transformations? Totally adorable, sure—but they come with practically zero utility. Imagine throwing attacks that barely tickle your enemies or summoning shields that shatter at the faintest touch. That's your life now, sweetie!

Your spells and abilities are at rock-bottom power levels. Any attempt to make a dramatic magical move fizzles out like a dud firecracker. You might try to unleash an epic finisher, only for it to sputter out in a puff of glitter that leaves you—and everyone watching—embarrassed beyond belief. To top it off, your stamina is nonexistent; even the smallest effort leaves you gasping for air like you've run a marathon in stilettos.

No Outside Abilities [+600CP]
When you step into this magical girl world, say goodbye to every single skill,Items, and the wherehouse you've honed up until now. Whether you're a master swordsman, a brilliant strategist, or even just someone who can tie their shoelaces without falling over—poof!—it's all gone. That martial arts training? Nope. Your clever hacking skills? Forget about it. Even your ability to bake cookies without burning them? Totally out the window. You're starting from scratch, sweetie, and the world doesn't care how unfair that is!

And don't think you can cheat by trying to "relearn" your old tricks—oh no, this world has made it very clear that anything you brought with you stays locked away in the box labeled NO FUN ALLOWED. You're stuck relying solely on whatever scraps of magical power this world decides to give you (which might not even be that great, let's be real). And if you're used to having skills that made you feel competent or special? Well, too bad! You're gonna feel like a fumbling beginner every step of the way.

Magia Baiser is Hunting You [+600CP]
The infamous Magia Baiser(me) has set her sights on you, and she's not letting up for a second. She's the apex predator of humiliation, and unfortunately for you, you're her favorite prey(You are pretty cute after all!!). She knows your every strength, your every weakness, and she will counter you flawlessly at every turn. It doesn't matter how clever or resourceful you think you are—she's always three steps ahead, ready to outmaneuver you in ways that leave you red-faced and utterly defeated.

From the moment you transform, Magia Baiser will relentlessly hunt you down. Every encounter ends the same way: you are overwhelmed, outwitted, and utterly embarrassed. Whether it's trapping you in a hilariously compromising situation, disarming you with minimal effort, or just making sure everyone around you witnesses your most awkward defeats, she thrives on making your life as humiliating as possible.

You can't hide. You can't outsmart her. You can't even catch a break! No matter how far you run or how well you think you've prepared, she will always find you, and she will always win. She's like a force of nature, a storm of humiliation that leaves you in shambles every time she appears. And the worst part? The longer you resist, the more creative she gets.

Oh, and don't think you can just "grit your teeth and endure" until she gets bored. Nope! If Magia Baiser ever captures you and keeps you broken or subdued for more than a year, that's it—your jumpchain is over. Done. Finito. She wins, and you're left as nothing more than a glorified trophy of her endless triumph.

The Demon Within [+600CP]
Deep within your very soul resides a malicious, uncontrollable entity—a demon born of chaos and destruction, waiting for the perfect moment to unleash absolute havoc. This demon isn't some grumpy roommate in your mind that you can negotiate with. Oh no, it hates you, and it's just itching to take over your body whenever you're at your weakest.

Every time the demon takes control, it makes sure to leave a trail of chaos in its wake. It might destroy relationships you've worked so hard to build, ruin your reputation, or embarrass you so thoroughly that you'll want to crawl into a hole and never come out. And the worst part? You'll always be blamed for its actions, because to everyone else, it's just you. No one can tell when the demon's in control, which means you'll constantly be apologizing for things you didn't even want to do!

The demon is relentless, and the only way to keep it in check is to maintain perfect emotional and physical control at all times—a feat that's practically impossible. Every time you lose to it, you'll be left to pick up the pieces of your shattered dignity, knowing full well that it's only a matter of time before it happens again.

Ten Years Later:

Go Home: Oh, so you're calling it quits, huh? Well, that's totally fine—sometimes a magical girl (or guy!) just needs to go home, kick back, and bask in the glory of everything you've accomplished. Sure, the worlds you visited might miss your dazzling presence (I know I would!), but hey, you've earned this!

Everything you gained throughout your jumpchain comes with you, and when you return to your original world, time picks up right where you left it. It's like you never left, but you know better, don't you? You'll have a lifetime's worth of memories, skills, and possibly a harem of admirers—don't act like you didn't pick up at least one!

Stay Here:Ohhh, this world has gotten to you, hasn't it? Don't worry, I get it! The drama, the teasing, the endless possibilities for mischief—it's hard to walk away from something so... enticing.

If you choose to stay, you'll receive 1000 bonus CP, which means you'll be even better equipped to thrive in this delightfully chaotic world. But remember, staying here means embracing all the quirks and madness of this reality forever. Whether that's being hunted by a certain magical dominatrix (looking at you, Magia Baiser) or dealing with your skimpiest transformation ever, you'll have to own every single second of it.

Move On:Ahhh, the classic adventurer's choice! You're not done yet, are you? There are more worlds to explore, more friends to make, and of course, more opportunities for utterly scandalous adventures!

By choosing to move on, you get to continue your chain, diving headfirst into a new world filled with exciting possibilities. Will you end up as an unstoppable warrior? A legendary hero? Or just the same lovable troublemaker you've always been? Either way, your journey continues, and I'll bet it's going to be absolutely fabulous.

Notes:

1. Well I will stop here for now, as If I add anymore this will just be crazy long.
2. Also thanks for people that pointed out the many mistake i made in this jump chained.
