

Ishuzoku Reviewers

By Zenaku82

For as long as nerds have existed, they have argued the important topics of their generation. Which girl is ‘Best Girl’? What makes the best fapping material and what is a shit-tier fetish? And most importantly? Why their waifu is the best and yours belongs in the trash.

Welcome to a fantasy world that is straight out of these nerd’s fantasies. Where there is little danger from rampaging monsters. Because prostitution is legalized! That’s right! As long as a person is a succubi, they are allowed to sell their services for sex. The catch is, everyone has at least a little succubus in their heritage somewhere! So, everyone is able to sell sex!

Course, with there being little need for subjugation quests, a lot of adventurers find themselves needing to make some extra cash on the side. And what better way is there than reviewing these sex workers and their places of business? This world is filled with a multitude of different races and species, ith new ones being discovered every day. And there are always those who are curious about how sex with these different races would be. Just how good are certain species at sex with other races? What kind of special services are there to look forward to when purchasing the services of these succubi? And what should a potential customer look out for when dealing with a different race?

These reviews tend to rate the businesses on a scale of 1 to 10. As well, adventurers being creatures of habit, they tend to hit the brothels in parties of four. So, the best score a brothel can hope for, is a perfect 40.

What role will you play in this world? Will you be an adventurer, questing by day and hitting up brothels by night? Or will you be a succubi, selling sex to these horny adventurers? Or will you actually run a brothel, working as the go-between for these two groups?

You have 1000CP.

Races:

Human: Your typical vanilla species. Humans are easy to please as they seem to be fixated on outer looks. They have no special strengths, but no real weaknesses either.

(100 cp) Elf: Your typical fantasy elf. They are practically biologically immortal, living for over a thousand years. However, their appearance doesn't change as they age, making them very popular succubi. Being more magically oriented, they tend to be drawn to younger species, who typically have fresher mana. As a person gets older, so too does their mana, leaving it appearing 'rotten'.

Demi-humans: Also known as Beastmen or Hybrids, these are humanoid animals. You've got Dogs, Cats, Horses and others. All look similar to their animal counterpart, other then being humanoid in shape and stature. Most have some sharpened sense, which can lead to differences in taste. Their fur is also quite soft and fluffy when properly taken care of, making them fun to stroke and cuddle. It's not uncommon for a brothel to specialize in one type of demi.

(100 cp) Angel: The only angels you see are those with a broken halo. Due to this, they have lost all their powers other than flight, as well as the ability to return to heaven. Angels are an effeminate looking race and, despite gender orientation, have both sets of sexual organs.

(200 cp) Other: The world is full of many, many different races, with many more being seen everyday. This option allows you to pick any race. Note that this will leave you only around as strong as a human, no matter what race you pick.

Origins

Adventurer: It's a fantasy world. Of course there are going to be adventurers. Though, things are somewhat calm. The fights aren't that bad. And the Demon Lord? Is trying to get elected as the Ruler of the World. Thankfully, you'll be able to supplement your income.

Brothel Owner: Someone has to run the joint, and that's you. Recruit employees, deal with the customers. The money is good, and the fringe benefits aren't bad as well.

Succubus: Technically, everyone has some succubus blood in them. The term, however, has come to refer to girls/guys working at the many brothels in the world. Enjoy your work and get paid for fucking. What's not to like?

Perks:

Perks are discounted for those of that origin. 100CP perks are free for those of that origin.

(100 cp) Succubus Street: Ah. Succubus Street. The lovely home of the red light district in this world. Here you can find the brothels and the succubi who work them. So what does this perk do exactly? Well, post jump, you'll always be able to find a Succubus Street in any major city in any world you visit, with brothels waiting to be used. As well, there will be no legal issues to using, working or running a brothel.

(100 cp) Sexual Compatibility: You know what sucks? Heading to a brothel only to discover that you can't use their services. Oh it's not that they're racist or anything its just… Have you ever been with a dragon girl? They are hot hot hot! And I'm not talking about their looks. You'd burn your little fellow off trying to bang one of them. And don't get me started on the hundreds of sub-species of Myconids (aka Mushroom Girls). Pick the wrong ones, and you'll be pushing up daisies before you know it.

Well, now there isn't a problem with that. You can enjoy the services of any type of succubi without damaging yourself or your partner. Bang that dragon girl. Stick it in that pixie without worrying about tearing her apart. Hell, jump into that pit full of Lilim! You'll be fine! A little sore, but fine.

Post jump, this will allow you and your partner to get as kinky as you want without hurting each other. Asphyxiation? Child's play. Cutting? Those wounds will heal up without a scar after your done. Note that this miraculous power only works during sex, and stops working soon after you stop banging.

(100 cp) Masturbation Count: This changes the world, allowing everyone to see just how many times everyone has masturbated, displaying the number over their head. Uncover the clerics dark secret: that she has masturbated twice! Or find out that the Demon Queen is actually a super freak in need of some loving, with a masturbation count of 6,899,423. Can be toggled at will, without others noticing that there has been a change.

(100 cp) Rainbow: Most people are only interested in the opposite gender. Some are interested in their own gender. And then there are those rare Rainbows. Those who don't care what gender they have sex with. This perk makes it so that more of these kind of people show up, allowing you to enjoy a wider variety.

(free/100 cp) Magic Sense: Quite a few races here have an extra sense. The ability to sense mana. Now I'm not just talking about how much mana a person has, but the quality of it too. This can tell you some things about them. Like how healthy they are or how old they are (the mana of those over 600 years old tends to be 'rotten'). This also affects your other senses. Food cooked over fire gems has a better taste due to the mana inside of it. Food cooked on the skin of a salamander girl tastes even better!

This perk is free during the jump to any race other than humans (sorry humans). If you wish to keep this perk post jump, you will have to pay 100 cp. Humans who want this perk and want to keep it post jump only have to pay once.

Adventurer

(100 cp) Eye of the Beholder: You know what they say about beauty? Well, it's no less true when you are dealing with a world as vast and different as this one. Different races means different standards of beauty. For a human, an 800 year old elf woman is gorgeous. For an elf, an 80 year old human woman is gorgeous. Now, no matter where you go, you'll be able to find people you consider beautiful. Whether they are an elf, a demon or a one-eyed cyclops.

(200 cp) Technically An Adventurer: Sure, we all know how you are going to be spending most of your time here. But you are still an adventurer. You'll be expected to head out and fight rabid monsters, even if you spend the night at a brothel. And so, you're tougher than the average person. Strength, speed, and definitely stamina. You're not superhuman, but you're at the peak.

As well, you'll be able to choose just what kind of role you'll play in the party: Close Quarters Combat, Ranged Combat, Thief, Healer, or Magic. You'll get the basic skills to handle the job.

(400 cp) Paid for Sex: Well, kinda. I mean, how great is this business? You go to a brothel, pay for their services and then write a review. You get paid for your work and people get to find out how sex with these races is. If your reviews are popular enough, you might even get commissioned to write reviews on specific species or brothels. Completely compensated of course, with other bonuses.

Post jump, you'll still be able to do this. And somehow, people will get copies of these reviews. Let them read the sordid sex lives of their favourite super heroines. Or just how kinky those aliens really are. And you'll still end up getting paid.

(600 cp) Top Notch Reviewer: It takes skills to be a proper reviewer. Anybody can go into a brothel and fuck. But not everyone can write a review that gets others interested. But you? You've got the skills. You can write a review that will leave them hard and rushing to not burst their pants. Your words are like poetry and grab their attention. Expect to receive high praise for anything you write and your reputation as such to grow quickly. With all the benefits that comes with.

Brothel Owner

(100 cp) The Pitch: You aren't going to run the brothel by yourself. For that you need employees. As well as customers. And the best way to get these? Recruit them yourself.

You now have a silver tongue and a way with words. Perfect for convincing those lovely young ladies to come work for you. Or for those horny adventurers to come spend their hard earned gold at your place of business.

(200 cp) Location, Location, Location!: Anyone will tell you that the most important part of running a successful business is having the proper location! Pick the wrong place, and your would-be-customers won't be.

You now have the ability to look at a place and pick out not only if it would be good for your business, but the best way to use the location to your benefit. Not only that, but when you find the perfect location for your brothel, if you do not already own it, you will find yourself with an almost preternatural luck at acquiring the location.

(400 cp) Eye for Needs: Not all customers have the same taste. Or for that matter, the same biology. While some may find one girl attractive, another may find her literally hazardous to their health.

You are now able to tell, simply by looking at a customer, which of your girls would be perfect for them, and if any of your girls would be a problem for them. This way, you can quickly handle any business with them, and make sure they have a good time. And not end up needing a cleric.

If you so desire, you may choose to actually have this be a 'mystic eye' power, choosing which eye has the ability.

(600 cp) Eye for Talent: Any perv can just look at someone and go 'Wow! They're hot!'. However, it takes a real eye for talent to be able to look at a person, and know they have what it takes to make it in the sex business.

You now have that ability. You can tell at a glance what someone's sexual skill is. What their specialities and fetishes are. If they are a diamond in the rough, or if you shouldn't waste your time with them. Perfect for snatching up that undiscovered talent.

If you so desire, you may choose to actually have this be a 'mystic eye' power, choosing which eye has the ability. As well, you can turn this on or off, or set it to only work on a specific gender.

Succubus

(100 cp) Sexy bitch: You are gorgeous. Among your own species, you are easily a 10/10. Your prominent features are spectacular. But more than that, other species recognize your beauty as well. Of course, for some races you are only an 8/10. But there will still be those who recognise your beauty for what it truly is. A work of art.

(200 cp) Know your wares: There is an ancient magical law. "If you can think of it, someone out there is turned on by it". This is no less true here. Almost everything exists to be sold. And if you are willing to sell it, you can exploit it.

Are you of a species that lay eggs? There are people that get off on that. Go ahead and sell shows whenever you feel the need to do so. Have feathers? There are those who would love to sleep on a pillow made from the feathers of a beautiful woman such as yourself. Or perhaps your appearance is perfect for a little 'captured knight' roleplay.

Even better: not only will you know what you have to sell, but you will always know where you can sell it. You'll easily find the nearest brothel offering their customers egg laying shows. Or shops offering body pillows stuff with beautiful women's feathers.

(400 cp) Sex Sells: Your body is your livelihood. You get paid for sexual services. But why stop there? Why not pay with sex? Blow the waiter to pay for your meal. Fuck the landlord to pay for your rent. The more expensive something is, the longer you need to have sex with them and the harder it will be to please them.

(600 cp) Half-Succubi: Technically, everyone in this world has succubus blood in their ancestry. Thanks to that and the ancient rules, it's fine for just about anyone to work in a brothel. You… just show it a bit more than everyone else. Your skills at sex are top-notch and you can go at it for hours.

But most importantly, you have the most powerful tool in the true Succubus toolbox: the ability to shapeshift! While you can't change your species, you can change nearly every aspect of your appearance. Become taller or shorter. Skinny or thicc. Flat justice or deep plot. Your customers will love how they can custom order their experience.

Items:

Items are discounted for those of that origin. 100CP items are free for those of that origin.

Adventurers:

(100 cp) Bag O' Gold: Your typical bag of gold. Contains about 30,000 pieces of gold. Enough to support you for a while. Or pay for 6 trips to a brothel. Can be purchased multiple times, but repeated purchases are full price.

(200 cp) Writing supplies: If you're going to write reviews, you'll need the proper supplies. This pouch contains ink wells that won't spill, writing utensils, parchments and tubes to store them in. All in a nice pouch that is resistant to fluids of all kinds. Fresh supplies will be delivered to you once a month

(400 cp) Equipment: While the previous item covers your reviewing supplies, this covers your actual adventuring. A weapon, armor and a small supply of potions. Perfect for a beginning adventurer to sharpen their fangs with.

(600 cp) Gender Swap Inn: A special inn run by a witch that offers a service like none other. You rent a room and are given a potion which will reverse your gender for a period of time. The Inn has a deal with local brothels, allowing your pick of succubi, and incubi who are willing to service your swapped gender. Do note that customers are not allowed to leave the inn while under the effect of the potion, in order to prevent any mischief and shenanigans.

Brothel Owner:

(100 cp) Business Cards: You have to get your name out there, and what better way than with a business card? These cards are professionally designed, laminated, and have a minor enchantment to draw the eye whenever they are held.

Besides including your name and the name of your brothel/business, these cards are also magically enchanted to remain up-to-date with your place of business's address as well as all ways to contact you in regards to business matters. Perfect for the up and coming brothel owner.

If you run out of cards, new ones will be delivered to you the next day.

(200 cp) Business Suit: Clothes make the man. Or… the whatever-you-are. And what you have here is a top-of-the-line suit made by the famous designer Succi. Hand-tailored to fit your perfectly. With a promise that if it doesn't, you can get it fixed in moments at their nearest shop (which will always be within a block or two). Stain resistant, this suit gives off an aura of confidence and larger-than-life, that will guarantee you respect from clients and employees.

If damaged or torn, you can easily take it in to get repaired at no cost. That's the Succi guarantee.

(400 cp) Advertisements: You are only one person. You can't draw in the customers on your own. That's where this comes in. Free advertisements at your local inns and taverns. Guaranteed to show off the best features of your brothel, as well as highlight your best girls. The perfect way to bring in those thirsty adventurers.

Post jump, these can be placed in any location you see fit.

(600 cp) Brothel: And what kind of brothel owner would you be, without an actual brothel. Well, here you have it. YOUR brothel. Designed to your specifications to draw the eye and let people know just what you have to offer. Inside you have the front counter, where you or someone of your employ will handle the day-to-day transactions with the various customers. As well as a side office for the other transactions you need to handle.

In the back are rooms for each and everyone of your employees, with new ones magically appearing when you hire new girls. Designed to automatically clean themselves when a customer leaves. As well, the brothel is fitted with whatever 'props' fit with your business. Running a dairy minotaur brothel? The rooms will be set up with milk machines. Or perhaps rather then running a brothel based on a species, you're running one based on a certain kind of play? From stages to present certain kinds of shows, to outfits for role play. Your brothel is set up to support your business.

Post-jump, your brothel can be attached to your warehouse, or it can be placed in any location you see fit, magically making room between any already existing buildings.

Succubus

(100 cp) Contraceptives: Lets face it. Getting pregnant would REALLY suck. It could ruin your body, your career, as well as your life. Thankfully, there's these beauties. Magical contraceptives that have a 110% chance to prevent any and all pregnancies, as well as STIs. No matter how fertile a match the two of you are, these babies will stop you from ending up with a baby. They'll also warn you if your partner happens to be using some kind of magic or enchantment to boost the chance of getting you pregnant. So you can deal with those idiots who have an impreg fetish.

Comes in versions for any and all genders.

(200 cp) Sexy Outfits: You've got a whole chest full of seductive and skimpy outfits. Perfectly designed to flaunt what you've got and draw the eye to you. Magically enchanted to change shape to fit whatever species you are when you put them on, as well as being damage and stain resistant. Will quickly repair themselves if a careless customer should rip it off.

(400 cp) Magical Toys: Sometimes, you need a little something-something to help spice up the ol' sex life. Thats where these babies come in. A collection of some of the best sex toys money can buy. From Magical Holes that feel like you are actually inside a mouth, vagina or anus; to dildos that feel like a real cock is pounding the shit of you. Or for the truly adventurous, there's Tentacles in a Bottle. Or the Ovipositor toys.

(600 cp) Airtight Contract: Written by some of the Demon race's best lawyers (because why would you hire any but the best?), this contract is airtight and written to give you the edge. While making sure that you get the best deal at any brothel you choose to make your main place of business, it also has clauses to permit you to moonlight in another shop, or do some business on the side.

Post-jump, this contract can be changed for any type of business you choose to work in, again allowing you great latitude.

Companions:

(100 cp) Import: Bring a friend along for the fun! They get an origin and 600 cp for perks/items.

(200 cp) Form a party: Bring in three friends to share in the revelry. They each get an origin and 600 cp.

(300 cp) Raid Call: Sometimes, you need more 'man'-power. So why not form a raid? Now seven of your friends join you in the adventures. Perfect for challenging that Lilim brothel. Each get an origin and 600 cp.

(100 cp) Build-A-Waifu: Congratulations. What you've got there is your typical Golem creation kit. Complete with every part you'll need to craft a golem with the looks you desire. Note that first timers may have a little trouble piecing together their perfect waifu, so you may want someone with an eye for artistic detail to help. Thankfully, every piece is in a specially marked slot. Simply write down the combinations used for your golem, and you'll know how to rebuild them back to exactly how they appeared

This also contains parts for other species. Cloacas, tails, insect legs. Truly, you can customize your golem to look however you like. And after you are done, simply insert the personality core of your choice. There is a wide selection to choose from, including all the most popular personality archetypes.

If a part of your golem (or the whole thing) should get damaged, have no fear. Simply mark down the required parts on the order form. Send it in with the gold cost, and you will receive your replacement parts in the morning.

(100 cp) Minos: Minos is a Minotaur. However, unlike the big, buff minotaur most expect, she's a Dairy Cow. Meaning she looks less muscular and has ginormous tits! She has the kind of body one would expect of a succubus girl, but is actually an adventurer. Her favoured weapon is a large two handed axe that could fell a tree in a single swing. However, she has a gentle nature and loves kids.

Minos has never been pregnant. However, for some reason, she still lactates. This leads to swelling and soreness of the breasts. She might sometimes ask you to milk her, and will be more than willing to return the favor. Her fetishes include milk play, and gentle sex.

(100 cp) Lily-chan: Lily-chan is a Lilim succubus, which should send up red flags to any adventurer wanting to keep his pelvis intact. Lilim are notorious for being low class demons: 6 out of 10 at best and sexually voracious. And Lily-chan is no different. While a beauty amongst lilim (Meaning she's a 7 out of 10), she can still suck a golf ball through a straw and your soul out through your dick (not literally). You could do anything you want to her and she'd likely cum. Just so long as you fuck her.

Lily-chan has a condition called 'neoteny'. While a fully developed adult, she looks like she could be someone's child. And of course, she gets off on this. Calling her clients Daddy while spewing the vilest language you could ever hear. Her kinks include Age Play and Everything.

(100 cp) Stal Liéon: Stal Liéon is a demi-human incubus. For those who don't know, an incubus is a male version of a succubus. Basically, a male prostitute. He is a horse demi-human, and a perfect gentleman. He is also a rainboi, meaning he's willing to take males or females as clients. He tends towards romantic gestures and whispering comforting, sweet nothings, before taking his client's hand leading them to the bedroom, where they will make sweet passionate love all night long.

(100 cp) Mr. Pig: Mr Pig is an Orc brothel owner. He is a businessman first and a businessman second. He knows what is trending right now and what adventurers like. He knows the perfect spots on Succubus Street to set up business and how to advertise.

If you're an adventurer, he'll make sure you are treated right in his place of business. If you are a fellow brothel owner, he'll share his bounty of knowledge with you. And if you are a succubus, he'll be willing to offer you a place to work, bringing you clients that will make the most of your abilities and bring you two the most profit. His turn-ons are money and money.

Drawbacks:

(100 CP) You Ugly: Damn. You didn't just get hit with the ugly stick. You were dropped from the top of the ugly tree, hit every branch on the way down, and smacked your face on the roots. Beauty may be in the eye of the beholder, but everyone can tell you ugly.

(100 cp) Come on: You're a bit of a quick shot. A one pump chump. A 'Wham-bam-thank you Ma'am' kind of guy/girl. And multiple times? Out of the question. Some will label it as effecient sex. Your partners will simply give you a disappointed look.

(200 cp) Incompatibility: You have a problem with other races. I don't mean that you are racist! Rather, your problem is more… biological. Basically, whenever you come in physical contact with some other race, you or they will have some form of allergic reaction. Perhaps your sweat is too acidic for them. Or their fur will cause you to develop a rash. This will make your day-to-day interactions difficult enough. Sex with other species? Pretty much impossible short of wearing a full body condom. And that's just gonna be weird.

(200 CP) She ugly: Oh god why! This world was a paradise of beautiful monster girls! But now… Now they are all hideous! Disgusting! Though that zombie brothel doesn't seem to have been changed much… Good luck finding anyone you can stomach having sex with.

(300 CP) Let's Get Real: Things are getting dangerous. Real monsters are terrorizing the world. Wild magics are causing dangerous climate changes. And the end of the world is being prophesied on every street corner by dozens of homeless bearded men. The amount of time you and everyone else will be able to spend in brothels is about to be cut short as your fun fantasy world gets grim and serious. Hope you can deal with that.

(300 CP) Politics: For too long, the Orc party has kept taxes low, pushing their agenda of cheap food and short working hours. It's begun to negatively affect society. Things are starting to get real and it's time for a serious political party to step up and fix things. Unfortunately, all the various races are only concerned with what they view as important. Meaning, you're going to have to run for office. If you don't get elected, it's game over. And once you do? You'll have to spend the rest of your ten years here in office, fixing everyones problems and getting blamed for everything that goes wrong.

Author Notes:

There are a huge variety of races in this world and new ones being discovered all the time. Feel free to have an encounter with whatever kind of creature you can imagine.

Some notes on some of the brothels that have popped up:

- Human: The vanilla of the brothels. A lot of the succubi who work here are older, like 60+.

- Elves: While mostly an unpopular choice, they have become more popular amongst humans. Most of those employed are over 700 years old, making them unpopular amongst species with additional senses, who can detect a 'foulness' or decay about their mana. However, as they do not physically age past their primes, they are still quite physically attractive.

- Beast-men: aka Demi-humans. Fun to cuddle with and appealing to the furries.

- Minotaurs: Quite muscular and usually flat. They are quite domineering.

- Dairy Minotaurs: While still as muscular as their brethren, Dairy Minotaurs show it less. And have HUGE breasts. Note that typically, they only lactate after having children, but do so in abundance afterwards. They are quite caring and nurturing.

- Pixie: Pixie brothels require special registration, and thus a special fee. First time male customers will have to drop trou and get erect. They are then measured. They will be given a special membership card with said measurement on them. Based on their size, they will be limited to certain pixies who are able to take them. As well, Pixie brothels smell flowery, thanks to the nectar they feed on and sell.

- Yuki-Onna: While quite beautiful, Yuki-Onna are also known to be complete sadists. As cold as ice.

- Lilim: A lower class subspecies of demons, Lilims are somewhat unattractive but extremely, constantly horny. Lilim brothels tend to keep them together in a group and separated from the rest of the brothel in a walled off secure room. Customers are warned that they will not be brought out until another group of customers comes in. They are cheap, because both the customers and the Lilim themselves are charged for the sex.

- Cyclops: Among Cyclops, a bigger eye is more attractive. They are measured in letters, similar to how most races do with breasts. It is not uncommon for a small eyed girl to be self conscious about it.

- Salamander: Salamanders are full of fire magic. To the point that those without some kind of resistance will find them too hot to handle. However, the brothels tend to have a secondary service of being a BBQ joint, with the food being cooked on the skin of the naked succubi. Their inner fire magic imbuing mana into the food, improving the taste for those who are sensitive to such things.

- Myconids: There are as many different subspecies of these fun-gals as there are actual mushrooms. Quite a few of them actually toxic, and some downright lethal. As such, the brothel owner will usually choose a girl for the customer. They tend to have good eyes, picking girls who are not only safe for the customer, but also will suit their tastes.

- Undead: These creatures always top the list of any ‘Race You’d Least Like To Be In a Relationship With’ poll. Most smell of decay, even if they aren’t visibly decaying. The ones that don’t are usually the ones who don’t have flesh, like ghosts or skeletons. Course, its hard to have sex with any of those.
