

Huniepop v1.0
By Orz

Why, hello there cutie! My name is Kyu, Love Fairy extraordinaire and your Benefactor has asked me to run you through your options before you enter this world. It's quite an interesting world with aliens and cat girls hiding in plain sight. Interesting enough that beings like my boss have been paying attention to it for a long time, but the most exciting part in my humble opinion is just how many attractive girls make the place their home. And I'm talking girls of all types, adorable virgins, sexy milfs, bratty shortstacks, this place has it all. I can see you're excited already, but there's a few things we need to figure out before I send you off on your way..

You have 1000 HP (Hunie Points) to spend on things to get you started.

Instead of choosing a specific Origin, you may choose two perks and a single item from each price tier to gain a discount on, with 100 HP perks/items becoming free as per usual.

You may choose your age and gender freely.

Perks

Limber (100 HP): Just how long have you been doing Yoga? Because you have the body of someone that's been having regular sessions for years. Your flexibility can help you with all sorts of things, both in and outside the bedroom.

Gamer (100 HP): Heh, I guess all that time cooped up in your room was good for something after all. But why play games when you can play with something a lot more fun. Not only are you quite good at actually playing video games, but your 'training' has given you a great deal of finger dexterity.

Schrodinger's Pussy (100 HP): What? Did the Huniebee just glitch out for a moment? Oh, you're one of those. Don't look so offended, I didn't mean anything bad by it. You are one of the few people in this world with a very rare gift: the ability to switch out your genitals like someone else might switch out their clothes. With a few moments to focus, you can change your gender from male to female, vice versa, or even something in between~. Note that this doesn't change the rest of your body, just what's on your crotch, so you might want to learn how to use makeup.

Party Hard (200 HP): Your body is well-suited for the rave lifestyle. You can handle alcohol and even drugs far better than most, able to keep your cool even after winning a drinking contest or doing coke off a stripper's tits, without any risk of nasty side effects like blacking out or addiction. Naturally, you can toggle this off if you'd like to get a bit stupid, though the side effects protection will remain.

Gym Bunny (200 HP): Looks like I'm not the only one to like being surrounded by sweaty girls. You know how to use even the most complicated gym equipment both efficiently and safely, and any efforts to give yourself your perfect dream body are increased threefold, both through dieting and exercise. If you work hard enough, you can even make a few more interesting changes to your body, like increasing the size of your dick or breasts.

Fashionista (200 HP): You have an impeccable sense of fashion, able to throw together an outfit that looks amazing even with limited resources. Obviously, this is great when you want to bring a girl to a party a bit more high-class then a club, or just when you want to make a fabulous impression.

Honor Student (400 HP): Looks like someone's a real teacher's pet. When you focus on studying or learning in class, that brain of yours absorbs knowledge like a sponge, learning the curriculum in a fraction of the time it takes others. Naturally, this perk also works on much more interesting subjects, like how to find a girl's clit in record time or make that same girl squirt all over the covers.

Sensei of Love (400 HP): But wouldn't it be fun if you were the one doing the teaching? With this perk, you have a knack for teaching even the most unattentive of students, whether it's about quantum physics or how best to suck a cock. Even better, adding a lewd component to a mundane subject will let you teach your cute little students other things, like how wonderful it feels to obey your orders or how to please your body in particular. Do this for long enough and you'll have a whole class of loyal 'teacher's pets'.

Hands-On Search (400 HP): Ha! It seems that you have a whole lot of desires bottled up inside you if you're letting them leak into your work this much. Thankfully, no one's going to call you out on it. As long as you're doing it in pursuit of doing your job, no one will try to stop you from acting in the lewdest manner possible, like groping someone during a search or even taking pictures of a particularly sexy scene you stumble on. The worst thing that might happen is a bit of grumbling from the people involved at most.

Spiritually Attuned (600 HP): I guess all those weird crystals are good for something after all. You are naturally in tune with the strange and mystical around you, with the more powerful or noteworthy things showing up 'louder' to your senses even through something like a glamor, and enchanted or otherwise supernatural objects working with great efficiency and skill when in your hands, as if eagerly revealing their secrets to you. You also have prophetic dreams, with greater clarity the more important the event is. Something like, say, the destruction of the world would show up clear as day.

A Sexy Star (600 HP): When it comes to all things sexy, you aren't just experienced, you're a professional. From stripping, flirting, and seduction to filming or performing in an actual AV, you have the skills to pay the bills. Like flipping a switch, you can turn up the charm, all but emanating a physical aura of sexuality that's sure to make all but the most frigid of girls soaking their panties, even if they might refuse to admit it at first.

A Pinch of Pixie Dust (600 HP): Well, would you look at that! It seems that you aren't human after all, but a Love Fairy like me! It's a pretty sweet gig, giving you a whole host of neat toys to play with. For starters, those wings on your back aren't for show. You can fly with them, though it might take a bit of practice. You can disguise yourself with glamor, giving yourself a nondescript if still quite sexy form while hiding your inhuman features, or even hiding yourself entirely from anyone you don't want seeing or hearing you, though they will still react if you walk up and touch them, or if you decide to play poltergeist. Beyond that, you are naturally talented at spreading love in all its forms, be it through helping estranged family members reconnect or something much funner like turning a virgin loser into a walking babe magnet.

Items

Tasty Treats (100 HP): This fridge is a godsend for anyone that's woken up in the middle of the night with a case of the munches. It has all kinds of things for you or your dates to snack on, from carrots to sundaes and everything in between. If you somehow manage to eat your way through the entire stock, don't worry, it restocks itself at the stroke of midnight.

Booze Stash (100 HP): Unlike the one mentioned above, this fridge comes fully stocked with all kinds of alcohol, both in straight and cocktail form. Perfect for loosening the inhibitions of someone you have your sights on, or just to have fun after a long day. Like the other one, it restocks itself at the stroke of midnight, so feel free to enjoy it to the fullest.

Gift Bag (200 HP): The insides of this bag are always pitch black, as if the light can't reach inside it, but if you put your hand in and think about a specific person (other than yourself), you are guaranteed to pull out something that the person in question will like as a gift. Usually something only moderately useful at most, but it can sometimes be stuff like musical instruments. The bag's power requires a day to recharge after each use, so try to save it for the right moment.

Panty Collection (200 HP): This empty briefcase seems completely pointless at first, but when you place the underwear of the people you've had sex with inside, you'll find yourself growing in attractiveness and charisma. It starts out barely noticeable at first, but as more underwear is added, you will slowly find yourself becoming the chaddest of chads.

Trait Fruit Seeds (400 HP): The fruits that grow from these seeds are very special. Making them into smoothies and drinking them will increase your ability with a given trait for a month or so. The available fruits are Sexuality, Flirtation, Romance, and Talent and all you need to grow them is shove them in some dirt and water them around once a week. They'll grow to full size in a month, but any successful dates and seductions you achieve will cause them to grow much faster. You can pull more seeds from the fruits when you're making them into smoothies, but if you run out you will receive replacements in about a week.

Cam Studio (400 HP): You really want something like this? Ok, suit yourself. This small building contains everything that you need to run a successful Camgirl business, from the actual equipment needed to record everything, to lewd toys and outfits, to cheap alcohol and cigarettes to calm the performers' nerves. The studio comes staffed with a few generic girls to start with, but if you do some recruiting yourself you could make this place really shine.

Huniebee (600 HP): Oh yeah, here's the good stuff. This little device is about the size of the smartphone and is jam-packed with all kinds of useful features for the player on the go. From its menus you can buy date gifts of all sorts for a fair price and get them delivered in the blink of an eye, track the contents of your Warehouse or inventory if you have one and send and receive messages like an actual smartphone without ever losing signal. It also automatically registers the information of new girls you meet and can even track their location. What do you mean that's creepy? Just don't think about it too hard, I'm sure it's fine. If you already happen to have a smartphone or similar, you can choose to import the functionality of the Huniebee into a suitable device.

Vacation Island (600 HP): Ah, Inna De Poona, a tropical paradise of white beaches, blue skies and fancy resorts. A hit vacation spot the world over, it naturally attracts hot chicks like moths to the flame. As the new owner of the island, you can make use of any of its various amenities and attractions for free, and can even extend that same right to your dates. There's still a volcano at the center of the island, but this particular version of Inna De Poona lacks the connection to an apocalyptic threat that the original has…unless you take the relevant drawback, anyway. Each time you enter a new jump you can choose to place it in a fitting place in the world, where it will promptly start attracting hot bitches for you to seduce into bed, or you can choose to keep it as a warehouse attachment, a private getaway for you and your companions holding only the friendly if boring staff that keeps everything running smoothly.

Companions

Import (50 HP each / 300 for 8): Have one or more of your companions join you here. They gain an Origin and 600 CP to spend on Perks and Items. Companions cannot buy companions or take drawbacks.

True Luv (100 HP each): Sure no-strings-attached fun is good, but what if you want to bring your new girlfriend with you? For 100 CP each, you may take with you any one person that you can convince to come with you on your journey. This might be easier for some than others.

The Harem (300 HP): A bulk order, huh? That's fine. For 300 CP you may choose up to five people that you can convince to come with you. I recommend letting the girls know that you've been dating other people before you're already in another world, for the sake of your health if nothing else.

Drawbacks

Himbopop (+0): Would you prefer to date hot guys than girls? No problem. Taking this 'drawback' will switch the gender of all relevant characters so feel free to start as many sausage parties as you want. Alternatively, you can choose to only swap around half of the bachelorettes genders, for those who bat for both teams like myself~.

Self-Insert (+0): If you want, I can have you take the place of a certain client of mine. One you might remember as the main character of Huniepop 1 and 2. At least you won't be as much of a loser as they were at the start (unless you pick the drawback below of course).

Absent-Minded (+100 HP): Man, it just goes in one ear and out the other with you, doesn't it. For some reason you easily forget small but important details like your date's favorite color or birthday. You better write down plenty of reminders for yourself.

Mundane Concerns (+200 HP): Now normally, I would handle all the small details like being able to afford a reservation at that fancy restaurant you're bringing your date to. Not anymore. You'll actually have to worry about things like running out of money and might even need to gasp get a real job.

Loser (+300 HP): Wow, you are just a mess, aren't you? Just seeing a cute girl is enough for you to completely lose your cool, sweating up a storm and trembling in place like some kind of newborn deer. Actually talking to them is a near insurmountable challenge, likely to make you forget your own name in a fit of absolute social catastrophe. Expect to make an ass out of yourselves several times before you finally pull yourself together, but with enough hard work we might be able to turn this lump of coal into a diamond.

The Nymphojinn (+500 HP): Deep within the endless sea of stars stirs an ancient evil forgotten by time. Spirits of limitless lechery, they awake only once every ten thousand years by a cosmic super-period of unspeakable PMS with symptoms so severe and desires so destructive that entire galaxies have been consumed in the chaos. Unfortunately for you, they're scheduled to wake up a few years into your time here, and if that happens you can kiss your ass goodbye. In order to prevent that, you must travel to the island of Inna De Poona and have lots of double dates and threesomes, both to gather the Fairy Wings needed to make the volcano erupt early to summon the Nymphojinn, and to train yourself for the coming challenge: a double date with the Nymphojinn themselves, who will take control of the girls you've had threesomes with up to this point (potentially including your Companions) in order to date you by proxy. If you somehow manage to get through that, the Nymphojinn will descend to handle you themselves in the manner of spirits of unbound lust and desire. Suffice to say, such an encounter is not for the faint of heart, but if you somehow manage to satisfy them, they'll return to their slumber peacefully and you can even take them with you as Companions if you really want to. Good luck, because you are definitely going to need it.
