Generic Sex World
V1.4
Made By u/Whole_Series, with help from u/Nerx, with extra special thanks to Sleeping Piranha.
Other special thanks in notes.

Welcome to a world where sex is the flavor of the day, every day in fact.
Where in hentai, there is build up, or a plot of some sort, here there isn't. Tell a girl or guy you want to fuck, and you're both naked and making the beast with two backs in less then 30 seconds.

Why? Who cares! Your here for the sex, not the plot!

Take these 1000cp (choice points), and enjoy the sex!

Origins
There aren't any origins, as there is no story.

Starting location
Doesn't matter! Pick anywhere where there are people to have sex with.

Perks

You get one 100cp perk free, and one 50% discount.

All perks are available for free during the jump.

Free/optional-Object of Desire
For the duration of the jump, you may make everyone obedient and submissive to you, making them obey any sexual commands you give them, such as striping, making out with their friend, or giving you a blowjob, regardless of orientation or relationship status. You can make people perceive your actions in different ways, such as making it nothing unusual, to the point people barely notice you, so a schoolgirl will suck your cock while doing her homework, or making everyone watch in horror as you bang the teacher, but do nothing about it, and going back to their normal day as if nothing happened, to everything in between.

Free/100cp-A Human Bull That's Hung Like a Horse.
This is a complimentary perk, granting you peak human sexual physique and performance. This ensures you will always be the best lay on any mundane earth, with sexual stamina and features, that while not superhuman, will still be more than enough to ensure your partner never leaves unsatisfied. This lets you maintain your physique with minimum exercise, and allows you to design a new body for yourself, within human limits.

However if you pay 100cp, you will be guaranteed to be THE best lay in your current multiverse, with all your sexual features being optimized in size and effectiveness for both your's and other's comfort and pleasure.

100cp-Forever Free
This isn't an ability, as much as a guarantee. No matter no matter what ability you use, no matter what perks or powers, anything you do to affect other people's decisions, is explicitly NOT MIND CONTROL. Nor is it manipulation. No matter how it was worded or stated to be, no matter how it seems, it is NEVER mind control. No more pondering over the ethics of super charisma or intimidation auras, no more wondering if you should use your social-fu to convince someone to let you do something, no more worrying if your waifu/husbando truly loves you. Any feelings someone develops or decisions anyone makes comes from them and them alone, being as true as any other emotion or thought. If you decide to, you can apply this to actual mind control powers you use.

100cp-The Fun Never Ends!
Your enjoyment of sex will never dull, with you retaining the same excitement and pleasure from your 8,745th time, as you did your first. In fact, this enjoyment only ever increases, with each successive romp feeling better than the last. Additionally, your refractory period is removed, your stamina is increased to ludicrous levels, and your ejaculate volume will never decrease either, with you not becoming dehydrated no matter how much you cum, and you do not need to eat, use the bathroom or breath while fucking.

Finally, sex is now the perfect stress reliever, and can replace sleep, with one hour of constant sex equaling one hour of the best night’s sleep, leaving you energetic and refreshed even after days of constant sex.

Just in case you were worried, you will never lose yourself to the pleasures of the flesh.

100cp-But It Feels so Good!
There are some things that you just can't do during sex. This fixes that. Now, you and your partners can indulge in any kinky sexual activity with each without fear of permenamt damage. Cutting? Asphyxiation? Impregnation? All of the lasting effects if these acts and any others will disappear after the sex is over. This also gives you the standard porn logic package. No refractory period, limitless stamina, cumming litteral gallons, breathing while deepthroating, cervical penetration, womb bashing, quadruple anal penatration, etc, etc, etc. If it can't be done due to biology or physics, you can do it anyways.

100 cp-THE Cock
There is no denying it. Your cock is the epitome of penile perfection, the perfect absolute, with no way to measure its size or describe its shape, with answer being a resounding 'Yes!' as it can change automatically to rise to, and quickly conquer, any challenge, with the mere sight of it leaving everyone in awe, their bodies wet and dripping with desire. This is the kind of cock that makes someone climax just from inserting the tip. You can, at will, change its shape and size to whatever you desire however, because no matter the size or shape of your cock, no matter the tightness of shape of a hole, it will fit perfectly, pleasantly filling them to the brim, and hitting all the right spots for both of you. Your cock can't hurt your partner in any way. You can dick as deep and hard as you want without fear of hurting them. Thrust your dick past her cervix and bash her womb, and she'll only scream cries of pleasure. Cum down her throat and over fill her stomach with cum, and she'll breath just fine.

Every hole you penetrate is perfectly lubed and cleaned, and it wracks your partner's body with pleasure and a series of orgasms, each greater than the last, regardless of the hole. The pleasure you feel is just as grand.

Additionally, you have absolute control over your cock, making it erect or flaccid at will, and keeping it erect as long as you want. It is also completely indestructible.

You may optionally gain a halo wrapped around the base of your shaft, with a heavenly light enveloping it. This halo and light signifies to all that it is a gift from above, one that is to be cherished and served, if you desire a more obvious way of showing off your cockly superiority. This can be dialed 0% to 100%, from completely off, to full blast.

100cp-THE Hole
Much like the above, your holes are universal adaptors. Perfectly accommodating any sized object, it squeezes and pleasures any cock or appendage inserted into it, granting you the benefits THE Cock but in reverse. You can take any object into any of your holes with no issues whatsoever. You also have absolutely fine control over your orifices, letting you mold them and shape them. Finally, at any time you wish, you can cause anyone who is penetrating you to cum, either instantly, or with a minute's buildup, with the pleasure they feel being the same as in THE Cock.

100cp-Semen Supreme
Your cum is the superior fluid of choice. It tastes like the most delicious of fluids, going down in a way that is both pleasurable and orgasm-inducing. It is highly nutritious and addictive, with someone being able to live off of it alone. You can cum enough to feel an olympic sized swimming pool in one shot. Your refractory period is gone, allowing you to cum continuously for days on end. Your balls are completely invincible to all damage. Your cum is potent, with one drop being able to impregnate a woman who has been sterile for years.

100cp-A Need to Breed!
This is your one stop shop for baby making. Your fertility is under your complete control, making you able to impregnate (or be impregnated) at your discretion. You can make healthy children with anything even theoretically able to reproduce, including those that are sterile, and set how much of each parent the child favors, up to 100% of one or the other, along with their sex, allowing you to break the mold with the first male of what was once an all-female species. This also ensures all pregnancies are pain and complication free, even being pleasurable if you desire, as well as letting you set the length of the pregnancy from normal to just 1 hour.

Additionally you now possess the Gate of Baby-lon! (patent pending). It allows you to store any pregnancies in babyspace (patent pending), letting you decide exactly when a baby will be born, as the babies can be allowed to continue growing and be held in stasis until wanted, as well as letting you decide who gives birth to what baby. This means that you could have someone give birth to 83 babies at once, if you wanted. This does however require that the mother possess the equipment to give birth to something.

100cp-Harem Master
You are supernaturally predisposed to stumble across potential harem members. Girls (and/or guys) just seem to fall into your lap. Regardless of your personality, looks, or status, everyone in your harem will love you deeply and truly. None of your partners will mind you sleeping with other men and/or women, nor will anyone else. If you're dating multiple people at once, they will agree to share you, or to ignore one another if they dislike each other, though this dislike will fade away within time. Over time, everyone in your harem will grow closer, and may end up in love with each other if their personalities are compatible, though you will still be their top priority.

Additionally, no matter how big your harem gets, or how generally busy you get, you'll always manage to find time to interact meaningfully with every single lover you have, even if that means that the ten minutes you can spare to have a chat somehow covers an hour of laughter over story-swapping, without actually taking more than those ten minutes, or your fifteen minute break at work gives you time for 5 rounds of fun.

100cp-Seduction
You have unfathomable skill and luck when it comes to seducing. This skill at seduction is unparalleled, allowing you to seduce anyone in a single sentence, regardless of your looks or personality, to the point that even if many others are also trying to seduce someone, they would choose you in a heartbeat. You can also seduce multiple people at once, with the same results.

You may also 'passively seduce' others so long as they view or interact with you. This yields positive results as though you were making a casual attempt at seduction using normal methods, but has no negative consequences for failure as you are not seen as doing anything abnormal.

While a given individual might justify their feeling of attraction in a variety of ways, from viewing you as having 'spirit' to seeing you tripping as you being 'adorably clumsy', these emotions arise from inside themselves rather than being imposed externally.

For an additional 100cp, you gain the ability to seduce LITERALLY anything, even things that can't feel, like doors or clouds, or those that are immune to charms or emotions. Also, this can be done with just a glance, allowing you to project your desire to anyone/anything you can see.

Thus additionally gives the ability to indulge in what after, with no unwanted consequences occurring after or during the act. This can also be applied to any other perks you have that deal with interacting with others.

100cp- Transcendentally Attractive
Your beauty transcends all, with even the most beautiful goddesses of love stopping to admire your perfection. Whether you go for tall, dark, and handsome, or heart-wrenchingly adorable, you can redesign your form once within the limit of your race(s).

This beauty transcends boundaries such as ‘personal preference’, and ‘already happily married’, forcing all in existence to admit that no one and nothing can match you.

You are, in fact, a constant unrelenting assault on every sense, as you are equally stunning to all of one’s senses. Your smell is exquisite, your voice is angelic, the taste of your lips (and more) is downright addictive, and your skin is as soft as anything can be.

100cp-Play Their Body Like a Fiddle
You possess an unmatched ability to pleasure your partner(s). Not only is this pure sexual skill, instinctually knowing exactly what to do to bring someone to a mind melting orgasm, but you posses the abilty to induce amazing pleasure by just playing with their body. For example, playing with a composed, haughty, tsundere princesses breasts is enough to cause her to orgasm multiple times in a row. You could even make someone cum just from brushing the back of their neck.

In bed you quickly prove yourself unmatched. You possess unlimited stamina, with rapid climaxes being the norm for anyone with you and you could bring someone to orgasm simply with foreplay. Even a drunken one-night stand would be an experience they’d remember for their entire life.

Additionally, you possess a limitless lifeforce that not only allows you to survive having sex with a succubus, or similar beings, but turn the tables and give them a night they won’t soon forget. You can also interact with spirits/ghosts as easily as if they were corporeal beings. For fun, or otherwise.

100cp-Tame the Beast
You have the ability to 'tame' someone's body. First this lets you ruin your partners for others, ensuring that they can never be truly satisfied by anyone except you, to the point that even the physical embodient of sexual pleasure couldn’t get so much as a gasp out of them, receiveving only groans if disapointment and a bored face instead.

This also ensures their loyalty, giving them the effect of the above loyalty perk. The speed at which this happens depends on how much pleasure you bring them, with a normally skilled person requiring months of near constant sex, whereas utilizling the perk "Play Their Body Like a Fiddle" would allow you to accomplish this in a day of nonstop sex. And if you were even better, then you could tame someone with a single thrust.

Secondly, you can 'train' them, molding their personalities and fetishes to your liking. This can be done without taming them first, though it takes significantly longer. Merely exposing them to a fetish will start the process, as anyone you get with will be willing to try anything once. How much they come to enjoy something is up to you, anywhere from mildly enjoying a breast grope, to cumming anytime you pat their head.

People talk. Specifically, people talk about your sexual escapades. Any of your past partners will spread rumors and stories that find their way to those you would be interested in, thus making them very interested in you. The rumors will only ever be good rumors, leaving people with a positive view of you, at least when it comes to sex. This includes more than just your skills in the bedroom. For instance, if you have a penchant for one night stands, then no one you bed will be upset if you are gone in the morning, as that's just what you do. If you have a habit of staring at women's breasts or groping women on a train, then no one minds, as that's just how you are. Keep in mind this doesn't affect people in relationships, unless going for those that are already taken is one of your habits as well. Also, you do have to build up the reputation first, with the worse it is the longer it takes, so expect a lot of slaps and police calls at the beginning, though this reputation does carry over to other worlds.

This also applies to outright illegal or morally reprehensible things as well, so if you have a habit of forcing yourself onto prisoners, or flashing little girls, you can rest assured that by the end of your jump no one will mind.

As an added bonus, any of your unaccepted sexual escapades now face a much lower punishment. So instead of facing life in prison, you will only get a week of community service.

100cp-Body Modding
By focusing your attention on an individual part of someone's body, you can, over the course of a week, alter that part to your exact specifications. For example, rubbing a girl's breasts repeatedly will allow you to alter their size and shape, same for a man's dick. This can also be applied to the entire body at once, such as turning a man into a femboy or trap by having him act more feminine, or making a woman into a tomboy by having her act more dominant and bro like.

100cp-Humans to Lewder Elves
You are able to either upon entering a jump or by touching an individual, change one race into another similar race, be it cosmetically or with the abilities and weaknesses of the race.
For an additional (is 200 a bit much?) you are able to make the change far more drastic, like turning a human into a dragon.

100cp-Skinsuit Creation

You are able to turn beings into empty skinsuits which can then be worn to transform the wearer into the person the skinsuit used to be. Should you desire it, this process is reversible and you can decide whether or not the subject will have memories of what had happened whilst they were a skinsuit.

100cp-Personality Extraction
You are able to generate a slime-like pudding that can be an actual slime or be moulded into sex toys which are able to transfer your conciosness into others or transfer the conciousness of someone into another's body or a vessel to inhabit. This process can be done to others as well.

100cp-Yokai Creation
Feeding an object energy or life force will turn it into a yokai. You are able to decide whether it will be a maneater or a 'man eater'.

100cp-Lewd crest
A crest of your design that when placed on a person allows you to cause them to experience pleasure at will, prevent sexual acts, prevent pregnancy an even romotely control their body.

100cp-Anthro'd/Human'd
With a touch, you can turn someone into an anthro, what kind of anthro they turn into is either up to you or is decided by whatever animal most closely matches their personality. You are also able to give animals the intellect and sapience that humans possess as well as give them an anthropomorphized form on a slider of cat girl cosplayer, to monstergirl, to furry. You are also able to give monsters a human or humanoid form similar to the aforementioned slider, but they will keep the natural disposition of the monster that they were.

50cp-Viewpoint
Upon entering a jump, you are able to choose how the world will appear to you. Such as having the world appear to be drawn like a comic/manga, be in CGI, or seem like an anime.

100cp-Sizes
When starting a jump, you can decide the average breast/cock sizes of its population and decide how large both the small and large sizes would be. Should there be more than two sexes, you are also able to decide how the sizes are for each of them.

100cp-Body-Mod Tattoos
You are able to design tattoos that are able to have an expansive effect on the person it is applied to. The part that it causes to grow can either be decided on where the tattoo is placed or how the tattoo is designed.

50cp-Unexpected Side Effects
When performing surgery or testing an experimental drug, you may decide to add the hidden side effect of the recipient being genderbent.

For an additional 100cp, you can choose to have this applied to any jump you enter in the future and are able to decide the chances for it to occur.

100cp-Loving Demographics
Upon entering a jump, you are able to choose not only the demographics of males and females, but are also able to make it so the world has futanari, cuntboys, and/or any other kind of sex you choose. You are able to, if you so desire, set the changes so that they have always been that way or have the world all of a sudden experience these changes.
As a final part of this perk, you can change the gender of any named character at the start of your jump.

50cp-Unpure Thoughts
Rather than having a dream be made of your experiences throughout the day and your life, you can choose to have a wet dream whenever you lay down on a bed. Another thing you are able to do is, when you touch a person, you can see the dream that they are having. With this information, you are able to either lewdify their dream, or weave for them a lewd dream.

100cp-Scripted Erotism
At any time, you are able to decide whether lewd mishaps occur to you or people around you. You are able to dictate what can happen, but when it will happen will always be either up to your benefactor or seemingly at random. Should you not want to risk spoiling a moment with such a thing or you simply don't want to be smothered by your secretary tripping and falling breast first onto you.

Varies-Sex crime prevention

Unlike in hentai, the police will not be lacking in the competance department when it comes to sex related crimes.

For 50cp, this merely makes the police better at catching and prosecuting perpetrators, with all legal loopholes closed, ensuring no sex crime goes unpunished. In lawless areas, this 'justice' will be carried out by a mob. This also ensures false claims of victimhood will not be believed.

For 100cp, this now directly prevents any and all sex crimes from be commited against, you, those close to you, i.e. companions, followers, family, and friends.

For 200cp, this extends to the surrounding neighborhood you are currently residing in.

300cp, effects town/city

400cp, effects country

600cp, effects world Corrupt governments will be overthrown

100cp-Cucked
Do you have a desire for your lover to cheat on you? If so, then this perk is for you. This lets you instill in someone that you are in a romantic and/or sexual relatiomship an overwhelemning desire to cheat on you. This has a dial, letting you choose how it plays out, such as your partner recording a video and sending it to you, doing it while you watch, or any other cuck fantasy you can think of. This also gives you the ability to temporarily forget you have this ability, gives you the true, authentic, NTR experience!

100cp-NTR
It sucks when you find the perfect woman, only to find out she's happily married. This perk not only gives you the skill necessary to seduce/blackmail/threaten someone into cheating on their partner, you will also never face any negative reactions from them finding out about your little trysts, with their partner either suffering in silence, or watching as they masturbate furiously. Basically, you will never face negative consequences for stealing someone's partner.

100cp-PoPs
You are now the Pimp of Pimps, possessing the knowhow and business acumen to make a profit off of convincing people to have sex for cash. This lets you convince anyone you know into selling their body for money, with all proceeds going straight to your pocket. Additionally, this prevents you and those working for you from facing legal or social trouble.

600cp-Fooling the World, and Yourself
The art of self-suggestion is a powerful one, letting you fool others into thinking you are, who you aren't, sometimes even fooling yourself. This however, goes several steps beyond that. Not only are you a masterful roleplayer, instantly getting into and staying in any character you can imagine for as long as you want, you also have the ability to impose roles onto other people, forcing them to play out the scenario with you, depending on their strength in comparison to yours, with those weaker than you being controlled completely, and those stronger that being control less and less completely as the strength gap increases, capping out in effectiveness at 5 times your strengthm This is absolute, with no scrying or mind reading abilities being able to tell that you and the others are acting. , if anything is about to happen that would be undesirable to you, you and anyone else in the vicinity will instantly snap out of their roles, becoming instantly aware of what's happening. You can also set a role for you to play in the background, allowing you to slip into and out of this role as needed.

Finally, this lets you fool requirements for using or accessing any item or place, by acting like someone who meets the requirements, such as acting like a military general to gain access to a restricted site, or using a magical girl staff by acting like a young girl. This also works for things that require something internal, such as a specific blood type or a pure soul, though in these cases you must act like someone you know, that has these prerequisites. This also requires you to at least know what the requirements are, or know someone that meets the requirements. This does not work if it requires a special power, such as super strength or flight. Paying 200 extra cp however removes this restriction.

harm you, at least in a way

but you also have the ability to physically alter your body,

600cp-Absolute Fidelity
This is THE 100% fiat-backed loyalty guarantee. No matter who or what is, any companion or follower will never betray you in any way, shape, or form. No betrayal, cheating, blackmail, cohersion, NTR, cucking, mind control, or otherwise. Not even plain old reasoned arguments can sway them away from you. They will stay loyal and loving to the very end, regardless of your actions or inactions.

This loyalty extends to anything you could conceive as betrayal as well, and can retroactively eliminate any form of past 'betrayal'. Virginity, rape, indecent thoughts, masturbation, flirting, making you jealous, you name it, it didn't happen, and can't happen.

Even with all these guarantees there is one more. Any time anyone or anything approaches them with the intent to make them betray, you will know exactly who, what, and where, and you will be guaranteed to get there in time to 'handle' it.

400cp-No Guilt
Do you want to fuck someone, or something, but dont want to feel guilty about it? If so, then this perk is for you.

Maybe you want to bed a married woman? Boom, turns out she is about to become infertile, and her husband will literally pay you to breed her. That little girl you were interested in? Turns out she is actually a 26 year old woman with a rare genetic disorder, who just loves ageplay. Your twin sister? Not blood related after afterall, somehow. Luck, fate, and reality itself will bend (if not just outright break) to allow you to to sex up whoever you want. Keep in mind that this isn't about indulging in a fetish without repercussions, this mearly ensureso if you want to engage in actual sex crimes, then this perk isn't the one do it.

400cp-No Consequences, Ever
This perk is a dangerous one. It allows you to do anything sexual to anyone and no one will bat an eye, ever. Kissing, choking, incest, flashing, public nudity, extreme public displays of affection, or even rape. No one will mind or care, not even the one you are doing it to, at least afterwards. As long as it is done with the intent to get you off, and not for the sole purpose of hurting someone, you're in the clear, with them just brushing it off as if nothing ever happened. This also gives you a permanent toggleable/dialable version of the "Object of Desire" perk.

However, this does not include murder or physical truama, unless you have some way to bring them back or heal them.

Companions

Each can be bought multiple times.

Free-Cum With Me
Anyone you have sex with can be taken as a free companion, and customized to a limited degree, such as making them a sub or dom, or removing a fetish, or altering their body some. They are guaranteed to be loyal, obedient, and submissive.

50cp-My Waifu/Husbando
This lets you import or create any one companion, including clones or expys of individuals, which can be fully customized, though any powers above street tier are nerfed. You may make anyone imported/created through this option 100% loyal and obedient.

100cp-Harem Padding

This is a collection of 100 fully customizable companons/followers/sex slaves, who can be completely loyal, obediant, and/or submissive at your discretion, which can be given any abilities at or below street tier.

100cp Pocket Pussy
No, not the toy. This is a female fairy, with a height of 6 to 12 inches, whose appearance, personality, and so on are fully customizable to your preferences, including being those of a character you like. She exists to serve you, and to provide you with discrete (or not) sexual relief, anytime, any place. She is also a maid, being able to cook and clean as well as she can fuck.

She can take in any object of any size in any (or all) of her holes with no problem, though whether she feels nothing, pleasure, pain, or something else is up to you. She can skewer herself on your massive cock all by herself, deepthroat you no problem, thrust your rod in and out of herself at extreme speeds, and can be filled with as much cum as you desire, as she is very stretchy. She is also immortal, appearing back in your pocket or by your side whenever she is lost.

She is eternally loyal, and will follow your commands, even ones you haven't thought of yet.

She also possesses a few magical abilities, including but not limited to: conjuring food and clothing out of nothing, changing her height, and a few others which help her in her maid duties.

Her sexual spells include: temporarily changing her looks and personality, decreasing your height, as well as spells thst can replicate the effects if 'THE Cock', 'THE Hole', and 'Semen Supreme', to about half effectivness, for a total of 12 hours every 24 hours.

Alternatively you can have a male fairy instead, with their sheath being replaced with a sword, or they can have both, your call.

Drawbacks

No drawbacks, you're here to have fun, remember! Only Toggles!

0cp-Setting Toggle
This lets you go to a specific setting, including any other versions of said setting, such as the anime, manga, light novel, or a specific fanfic, with the setting becomeing purely about having sex.

0cp-Character Toggle
This lets you add any characters you want to the jump, with the express intent to have sex with them. This can include every alternate version of someone, a dead historical figure, a vtuber, a pornstar as they are portrayed in the film, or even an OC you saw on Twitter/Deviantart/Youtube etc.

0cp- Supplement Mode
Instead of going to a generic sex world, you can use this jump with a base jump to turn said jump into an all you can eat buffet of sex! Depeding on the setting this will manifest in a number if ways, though the end result will be everyone willing to have sex. In case you were wondering, you do get the CP from both the base jump and this jump but they must be kept separate.

End choice.

Stay here?

You could stay here, in an endless dream of carnal pleasure, indulging in your every whim.

Go home?

Maybe there is someone back home that you want to join you in eternal pleasure?

Continue Jumping?

Or perhaps you want to spread the joy if sex to innumerable worlds?

This jump can be done multiple times, able to be taken after every other jump. Think of it as a vacation!
