Somewhere in modern (well, early 2000s) Japan, lives a stout, effeminate, and weak-willed highschool boy, by the name of Ryu Ogawa. For his timid nature and innocent face, Ryu was singled out by a frightening trio of girls from his school.

Deep down, they've all already fallen for Ryu in their own way, but instead of coming to terms with their desires, they've taken to bullying and harassing young Ryu relentlessly. They make him run errands, take all his money, they beat him, strip him, make him wear girl's clothes in public, and the list goes on.

Even with the emotional support of his protective childhood friend, and his eccentric single mother, Ryu really is at his wits end. Thankfully, his suffering is not meant to last.

Even if he may not realise it for some time, one of Ryu's supporters has taken action where our protagonist could not. Though not in any way that we could have ever expected.

On one fateful day, the girls brought Ryu out to the school's equipment warehouse for their usual abusive games. While secretly admiring Ryu's peculiar charm, they violently pulled on his penis using a rope hung from the ceiling. Amidst their teasing, and Ryu's suffering, the three, put all their strength into one last tug, and well....

HUH !?
IN HERE...
HUF!
HUF!
Pyoing...

Ha ha, yeah, you saw that right. His schlong came clean off, but it's not quite as gruesome as it may seem. In fact, Ryu was completely unharmed, with nothing but smooth flesh and an ornate "S" where his penis once was. What's more, his detached penis has now taken on a number of peculiar properties, chief of which being it was still fully functional, and the sensations from it could still be fed back to Ryu from any distance, or even shared with others who attach it to themselves.

With ownership of the ultimate sex toy, Ryu's penis will be used and abused by his three bullies for the next few months, torturing him with endless pleasure almost constantly, day and night. The experiences will begin to gradually leave their mark on not only Ryu himself, but act as the catalyst for changes in the disposition of anyone who comes into possession of his dick.

You will be in this world for the next year, leaving this world on the day after Ryu's next birthday, where the mysteries surrounding this phenomenon will be answered. Not to say those answers actually explain anything, but it's the best you're going to get.

Real talk, try not to take things too seriously here, you'll be slapping yourself for it later.

Oh, before I forget, here's 1000CP for you to spend. Also, yes, the "C" does stand for "Cock". In case you were wondering.

Story Role

The scale of this narrative is practically microscopic, limited to one small city, if that. You can choose to insert yourself into the story, fitting one of the archetypes bellow. If you prefer, you can replace one of the canon characters, making their history your own. Replacing characters requires you take the corresponding story and character. Pay 50CP to change default gender.

Dick-less [Ryu]:
Like, or in place of, young Ryu, your penis was mysteriously detached, seemingly by your three female bullies. They currently have possession of your dick, and they intend to use it without mercy, and you'll feel every last second of it.
Male by default, roll 1d8+13 for age.

A-dick-ted [Mari, Akita, Megu, Mami]:
You don't understand how it happened in the slightest, but you've come into the possession of the best sex toy in the world. Even better, it belongs to that cute little weakling Ryu. It feels so good that you don't even think you can live without it, or him.
Female by default, roll 1d8+13 for age.

Re-dick-ulous [Kyoko]:
Poor little Ryu-chan was such a late bloomer, and now that he's being bullied, you just had to do something. With the help of a little bit of magic, you detached Ryu's penis so that his tormentors can train it into the manly dick he deserves.
Choose gender freely, roll 2d8+20 for age.

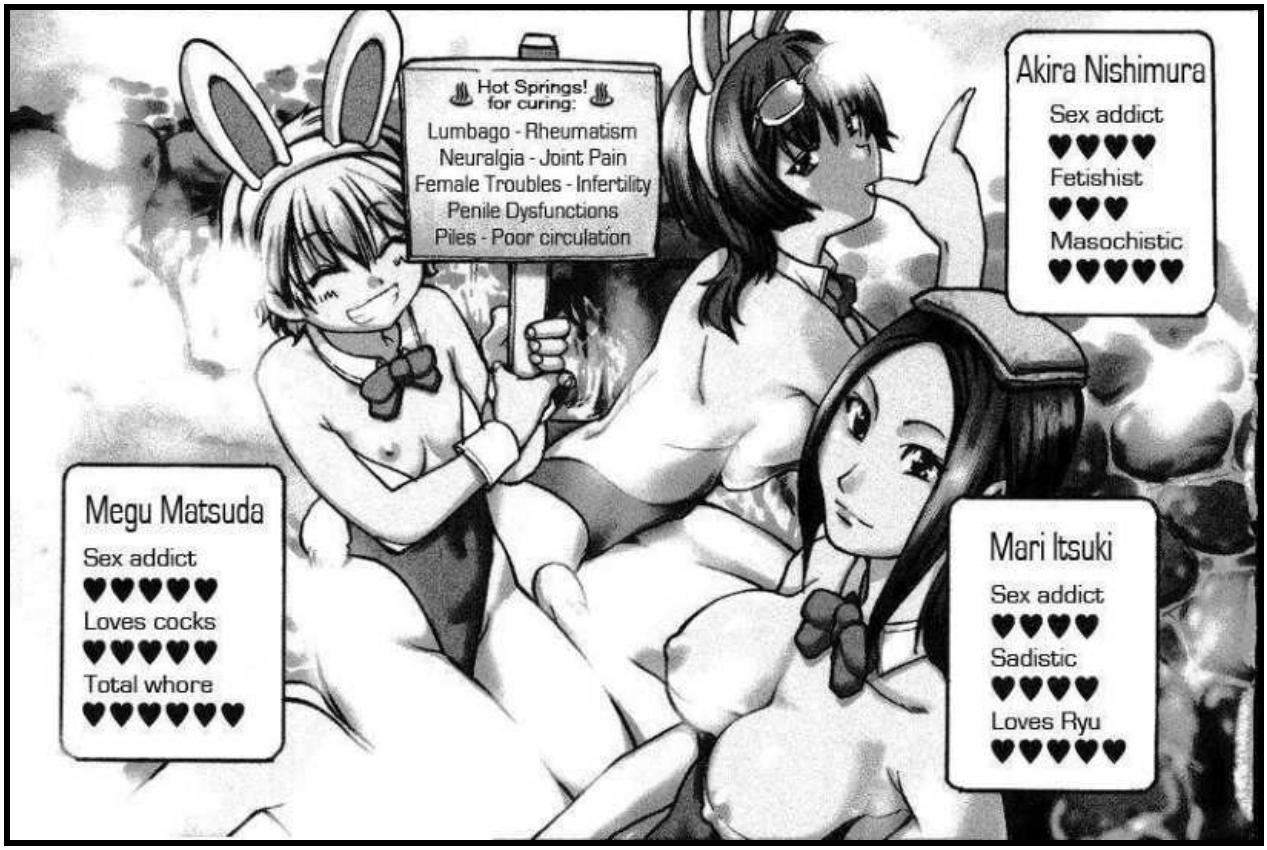

Character Role

If your last choice was about what your role is in the story, this where you decide what role you play to our not-so intrepid protagonist. To replace a canon character, you need to take both their story and character role. This is the last section where this has any effect on what options you can and can't take. Replacing characters provides no additional discounts on perks, aside from their roles.

Supporters [Ryu, Mami, Kyoko]:
Whether he's a friend, a family member, or just you, Ryu's is someone dear to you. His suffering weighs heavily on your heart, and while you may or may not be too scared to take action directly, you'll certainly try to make his life a little easier.

Tormentors [Mari, Akira, Megu]:
It may make you a "bully", or a "sadist", but teasing and harassing little Ryu just feels too good to be wrong. Maybe you have some deeply repressed feelings for him, maybe you just love the convenience of someone who's so easy to push around, but either way, you're not gonna stop anytime soon.

Dick-less Perks

50% discount for Dick-less, 100CP perk is discounted to free.

World-Class (100CP):
Seems like it wasn't just your face that won over your bullies. You have an dick that's just, well, simply perfect. It's not too big or too small, but it's shape, it's curvature, it's as if you were born for pleasuring women. Even virgins can sense this, but for the more experienced, it's downright hypnotizing. [Ryu]

Something Terrifying (200CP):
Regardless of your actual appearance, your abundance of experiences, regardless of their nature, had begun to manifest as a strange aura. The full breadth of your experience is made unmistakably clear to whoever feels this aura. If it gets strong enough, this can even manifest as vivid hallucinations. [Ryu]

Plot Twister (400CP):
You can't let yourself be someone's toy forever. You need to rise up, but when sex is your only weapon, you learn to make due. Now, you're able to flip the tables on any power dynamic, by dominating those currently above you sexually. Whether they're a sadistic bully or an unreasonable boss, they won't be able to look down on you once you put them in their place with your body. This only affects how they feel about you, this won't affect structural or systemic power they hold over you.[Ryu]

Rising Dragon (600CP):
You may be weak now, but you know that there is great potential within you. You have the ability to "level up" your natural manliness through sex. Your penis' stamina and semen production will increase without limit, as will its ability to pleasure others. When your penis reattaches to your body, you'll become more handsome, dominant, and masculine overall. This will culminate in a drastic transformation. This defaults to the body of Bob "The Beast" Sapp, but it can just be a more buff version of yourself if you want. Post-jump, you can choose to make this an altform, or new base body. [Ryu]

A-dick-ted Perks

50% discount for A-dick-ted 100CP perk is discounted to free.

Don't Mess With me, Okay? (100CP):
When you're in the act of harassing someone, you have an atmosphere around you that just screams "this doesn't concern you". People tend to look the other way, convincing themselves of whatever they need to think to not interfere with you and your victim. Similarly, said victims are just as unwilling to ask for help. You could even push teachers around, as long as you don't take this too far. If your offenses are too obvious, like punching someone in broad daylight, or stealing in front of a clerk, then obviously someone will step in to stop you. [Mari, Akira, Megu]

Special Training (200CP):
Sex is a skill that can only be improved through practice. As you have more sexual experiences, you learn more about your own preferences. You can awaken yourself or your partners to the perfect fetishes for you or them, even if you never would have thought of it otherwise. If that's not enough, you can use this insight to teach others to enjoy almost any fetish, with enough of your training. [Mari, Akira, Megu]

Skirt Chaser (400CP):
Your urges have swollen to be nigh-unbearable. Thankfully, you have the luck and talent to find an almost constant stream of easy lays, at any time, in any place. You won't find any lasting relationships this way, but you'll easily find people, or groups of people, who are down to fuck you then and there, and keep it to themselves after the fact. This also makes them willing to disregard whatever your body may be like, no matter how strange or unappealing. [Mari, Akira, Megu]

Unguilty Pleasure (600CP):
Whether it's luck, skill, or something supernatural, you are immune to any and all consequences of exhibitionism. This won't let you hide yourself as a criminal, but if your intentions are purely sexual, you can commit any lewd act in public and no one will try to stop or punish you for it. These acts will never be tied back to you or any accomplices. Even if you give your real name and don't wear a disguise, your public image will remain completely undamaged. [Mari, Akira, Megu]

Re-dick-ulous Perks

50% discount for Re-dick-ulous, 100CP perk is discounted to free.

Wanton Woman (100CP):
You haven't lived this long by pretending to be someone else, and you aren't going to start. You are rarely, if ever judged for taking life at your own pace, or being generally eccentric. You're still held to any responsibilities you may have, but other than that, who is anyone else to criticise the path you take to fulfill them. [Kyoko]

You Knew!? (200CP):
If you've lived so much of your life with powers like these, it only makes sense that your family members would catch on. In this, or any future worlds, your families are all completely accepting of you having powers, as long as you aren't using them in ways they wouldn't approve of. In fact, they're so used to it that they rarely think to tie conceivably unrelated supernatural phenomenon back to you, unless you want them to. [Kyoko]

That Was Just Magic (400CP):
You are in possession of the very spell that set this story in motion. You can harmlessly detach people's body parts, following all the same rules ar Ryu's penis. You can't use this to permanently harm people, but I'm sure you'll find some uses for it. Naturally, you can also use this power to reattach parts of people that have been removed through similar means. [Kyoko]

Mommy's a Witch! (600CP):
You've dabbled in the slightest bit of magic over the years. You know to transform the bodies of others in various ways. Your magic is limited, but you have the building blocks to eventually achieve the same feats of Kyoko Ogawa. However, with the exception of spells for restoring a target to a previous non-magical state, like healing, all magical effects are temporary, with the duration and effectiveness of spells depending on the target's affinity for the spells effects, and how explicitly sexual and harmless the effects are, with incompatible or nonsexual spells having little to no affect. [Kyoko]

Supporter Perks

50% discount for Supporters, one 100CP perk may be discounted to free.

This Brat isn't Playing Fair! (100CP):
Being this cute must be cheating, it has to be. You have an androgynous, almost childlike appearance. No matter their subjective tastes, men and women from all walks of life can't help but find this body irresistible. Though, I'm sure a portion would be turned away if you weren't quite the gender they were expecting. You can either make this into your new base body or an altform post-jump. [Ryu]

Little Miss "Goody Two-Shoes" (100CP):
You've lived a tough life, but braved through it. You have an unreal talent for perfectly suppressing your insecurities and faking fondness to seamlessly keep up your "childhood friend" persona. This also gives you an innocent-yet-curvaceous body and face to match. You can either make this into your new base body or an altform post-jump. [Mami]

Stylish Above all Others (100CP):
Over the years, you've learned how to take care of any number of your responsibilities without sacrificing your own well being or style. Gives you sexy and mature body. You can either make this into your new base body or an altform post-jump. [Kyoko]

Adorable Crybaby (200CP):
I'm sorry for being so forceful with you jumper, but it's getting harder to control myself around you. You emit a (togglable) submissive aura that makes you irresistible to sexy dominant types, drawing them towards you like moths to a whimpering flame. Their desire to have sex with you seems to be directly correlated to how dominant their outward personality is, and how outwardly submissive you behave. Does not apply to anyone you wouldn't be outwardly attracted to. [Ryu]

A Fine Man you can Protect (200CP):
Protecting those you care about it an incomparable treasure, but protecting those you don't is just a thankless chore. As you protect others, they gradually find themselves naturally maturing, both internally and externally, into a person that you can respect, or even love. They may still rely on you, even then, but it will at least be a more pleasant task. [Mami]

Yes, I Am! (200CP):
Messing with people is fun, but taking accountability is not. Whenever you do something to change someone's body, you can choose to delay the change for up to 24 hours. If those on this timer are caught in a situation where it would make someone like someone else seem responsible, the timer will end automatically. I should tell you know that this can't be used on any inherently destructive changes. [Kyoko]

Can I put it in Now? (400CP):
Aren't we the little ladies man? No matter the insane logic required, those you find attractive will almost always find some excuse to express their feelings for you, good or bad, though sexual acts. They'll fuck their suppressed insecurities or hatred out of you, or insist on immediately expressing true love through sex, things like that. It will work too. You get more out of one heartfelt fuck then a whole year of therapy. [Ryu]

Just Wait Your Turn (400CP):
What more appropriate failure is there for a betrayer, then to have their betrayal hijacked with barely any effort. When you're caught up in some betrayal, whether as the target, or just an innocent bystander, you almost always recover, physically, mentally, and emotionally, far sooner than you should, and far sooner than anyone else caught up in the betrayal. What's more, you always know if and how to steal a betrayal for yourself, using the original traitors own preparations to get up to some treachery of your own. Now, this won't do anything if no such chance exists, but if it does, you'll know how to take it, even before you have any intention to do so. [Mami]

Just as I Planned (400CP):
Even an idiot can be a master strategist with the right motivation. As long as you're acting for someone else's benefit, you can set up the most elaborate schemes without effort, regardless of the coincidences needed for success. This won't help you in the slightest if you plan or expect for your plan to cause anyone any serious harm, but otherwise, this perk will ensure that there are no such casualties. The more selfless your plan, the greater your chances of success will be. [Kyoko]

A Little Extra Help (600CP):
You are privy to magic that lets you to break yourself or others into clones that embody their various personality traits. All sensations are linked between clones, and all of their experiences and growth is merged back into the rest once they disappear. Clones burst into smoke if exhausted or injured. [Ryu, Kyoko]

Erotic Cosplay Sex Slave (600CP):
You can cast a spell on yourself or others that makes them into a cosplay sex slave. For the spell's duration, they'll become capable of summoning any cosplay scenes, props, and outfits, and are capable of playing any role perfectly in sexual roleplay. Unless you convince them to become your slave from then on, or if they just want to keep these powers, the effects are only temporary. [Mami, Kyoko]

A Nice Reward (600CP):
Between any two or more people who have had sex, you may cast a spell that forms an invisible link between them. As long as your intentions for doing so are sexual in nature, you may cast a spell that instantly teleports these sexual partners to the location of the one linked. Be mindful, if they can't be convinced to stay, you won't be able to keep them for long before they're sent back to where you got them. [Kyoko]

Tormentor Perks

50% discount for Tormentors, one 100CP perk may be discounted to free.

The Leader of the Trio (100CP):
Whether or not you're actually into that, you're a natural at sexual sadism. You know how to pile on the abuse, and make your partner want it. You're always well aware of how much is too far. You may gain a seductive body with long legs. You can either make this into your new base body or an altform post-jump. [Mari]

At Your Own Pace (100CP):
You can naturally produce a convincing facade of being extremely confident, laid-back, and disinterested. No matter how strong they may be, you can effortlessly suppress your sexual cravings outwardly. This also gets you a busty, yet not particularly slutty body. You can either make this into your new base body or an altform post-jump. [Akira]

The "Mascot" (100CP):
You have a mascot-like charm that encourages enthusiasm in others, pushing them to believe in themselves. Horrifically enough, your real talent lies in tearing the egos you've helped build to pieces in barely a fraction of the time. Buying this also gets you a petite lolita body-type. You can either make this into your new base body or an altform post-jump. [Megu]

Do You Love Me? (200CP):
Nobody ever said you were the type to play fair to get what you wanted. You can use your body as an effective bargaining chip in negotiations. People want to have sex with you that they may be willing to take it inreturn for small services, still, you won't get anything too crazy, if the other party is thinking straight. Luckily for you, deals you strike in the middle of sex, no matter how obviously short-sighted, will be treated with complete legitimacy after the fact, even if everyone knows the other party wasn't in their right mind at the time. [Mari]

Tight Lips (200CP):
Everybody has urges, but everyone has a reputation to consider too. You can't risk having any unfortunate rumors spreading around. When you have sex, you can easily convince your partner of all the horrible things that will befall them if they squeal. Even if you obviously can't have the abi act on those threats, all your fuck buddies really will keep their lips sealed on the matter, just to be safe. [Akira]

The Hunter (200CP):
Not much point in being a slut if there's nobody around to slut around with. Now, you're able to talk almost anyone into having sex with you. Teachers, classmates, your sibling's girlfriend, your girlfriend's sibling, etc. They may still resist, if this is obviously not in their best interest, but you're free to keep pushing the issue. [Megu]

Love Juices (400CP):
Is this really a thing that humans can do? It seems that all of your bodily fluids are full of pheromones that act as a potent aphrodisiac. These drive men and women alike mad with lust. You can even give it to friends to use on their own partners [Mari]

She Always Finds a Way (400CP):
It's a cruel fact of the world that nobody is innocent, everybody has their fair share of skeletons, especially now that you have this. Now, absolutely everyone around you has some kind of dirt that they cannot allow to be seen by others. Conveniently, this dirt is always in some way accessible to you. It won't just fall into your lap, but with enough searching, you can find blackmail material for anyone. [Akira]

Master Masturbater (400CP):
When things are getting this weird, you need to make sure your skills can keep up. You know have a breadth of experience when it comes to sex, and an amazing amount of natural talent for it. More impressively, when you're caught in a sexual situation with someone whose body is a little off from the norm, your skills instantly adapt to be applied without the slightest loss in effectiveness. This even tells you how these bizarre bodies can be exploited for even greater pleasure. [Megu]

Beloved Bridal Sex Slave (600CP):
You now can make use of a peculiar spell that's equal parts kind and kinky. By casting it on yourself or someone else, while someone they love is nearby, the two of them will suddenly be dressed in marriage attire. By exchanging the supplied rings, and having passionate sex, they will become magically married, in the eyes of society and the law, regardless of all other factors. Unless the love is truly mutual, the spell will only be temporary. [Mari, Kyoko]

Busty Dick-Girl Sex Slave (600CP):
Guess that name is a bit on-the-nose, huh. As you'd imagine, you can now cast a spell on yourself or others that turns them into busty futanaris. The size of their breasts or dick is up to you to decide, or you can even just chose to increase breast size without adding a penis, or vice versa. Unless those affected agree to belong to you, or would just prefer to stay that way, the spell is only temporary. [Akira, Kyoko]

Debauched Lolita Sex Slave (600CP):
If you read the rest of the capstones, I'm sure you can guess what this one does. You can cast a spell that gives others small lolita bodies. Despite being so compact, their body is made far more stretchy, allowing them to take dicks up to the size of their torso without feeling anything but pleasure. What's more, the pleasure they now feel from sex has been increased by 120%. Just as before, the effects are purely temporary unless those affected agree to become yours, or if they would simply prefer this appearance for the rest of their life. [Megu, Kyoko]

Undiscounted

Got a Red-Hot Bod-less Rod, Dog (Free*):
A pretty plonker, a scorching schlong, a daring dang-a-lang, a towering tallywacker, by any other name, what you have is a severed penis. You should have read the intro by now, you know what the general deal is. Maybe you, or possibly someone you know, was stricken with a magic spell that caused their penis to detach from their body. When attached to some surface, every sensation felt by the penis is fed back to the user, regardless of distance. What's more, when that surface is another living being, the same sensations are shared between them and the original owner.

For those who attach the penis to themselves regularly, they will gradually become more promiscuous in their own unique way. This accumulating lust will be directed at the original owner of the cock, and those said owner would find attractive.

Since having any number of horrible fates befall your male pride is, well... horrifying, a fiat safety net will be in place. For one, this penis will never be stolen, lost, injured, or placed into any particularly repulsive situation, unless such is the owner's intention. Ownership can be transferred with unambiguous verbal confirmation, but this does not account for the state of mind this consent is given in.

*Between you and your companions, you will only have one purchase of this for each individual with the Dick-less Story Role, in which case it is their dick. In such cases that you have both Dick-less and A-dick-ted roles among your team, the A-dick-ted individuals will begin this jump with ownership of one of these penises. Furthermore, if you have anyone in your group with the Re-dick-ulous role, they can be assigned to one of these penises, which they are able to reattach to the original owner, even if they lack the perk Mommy's a Witch!, but only for their assigned penis. [All]

Discounted Items

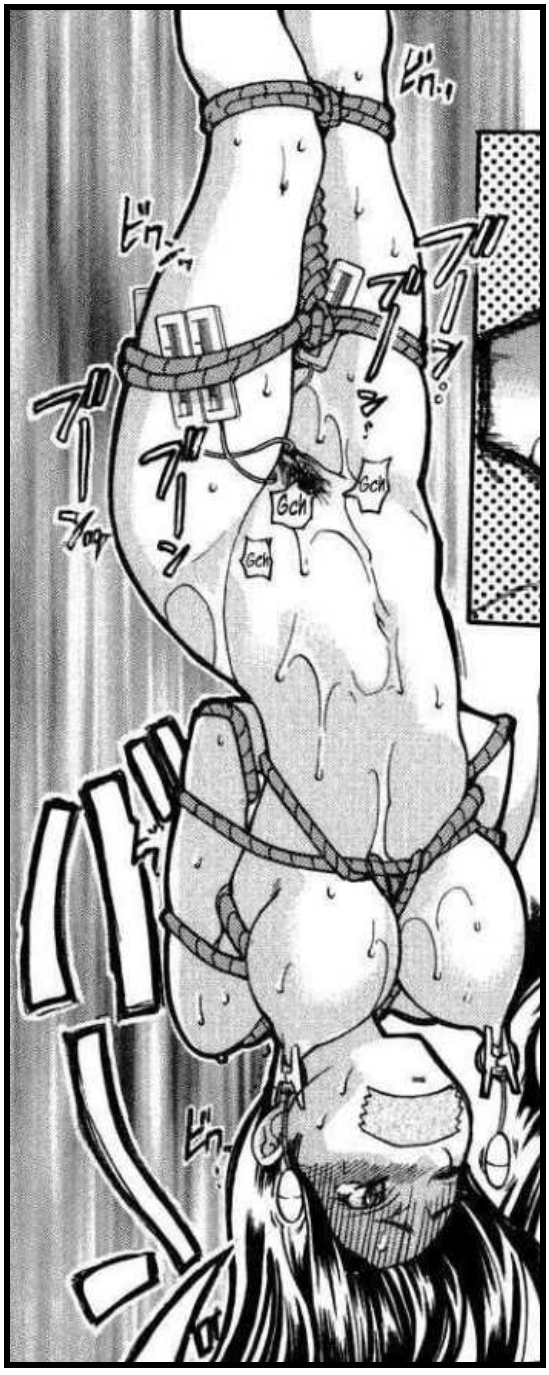

Any role may choose one item of each price tier to discount 50% off, and one 100CP item to get for free.

Spare Uniforms (100CP):
You are in possession of an endless amount of mundane school uniforms, corresponding to any school that you can think of. You can pull out any variation of the uniform, male or female, spring or winter, but oddly enough, they're always just the right size to fit any individual you have in mind. Oddly enough, this continuously expanding collection takes up very little space in your warehouse.

Up to no Good (100CP):
You seem to be able to pull any form of light bindings from seemingly nowhere. You won't have anything that can restrain superhuman strength, or even an average person flooded with adrenaline, but as long as nobody is in any serious danger, you can keep your playthings in check with these.

Shrine of "The Beast" (100CP):
What was once a shrine dedicated to a deceased relative, has been transformed into something else entirely, now that the original portrait has been lost. By using a picture of someone else in its place, the person depicted will become the image of "masculinity", or maybe even "femininity", that the shrine will now honor. Praying to the shrine with someone close to you in mind will cause them to gradually progress towards that ideal. If done in moderation, they will retain their own defining physical features, while taking on some of the positive traits of this ideal, but if you take this too far, those you pray for will quickly become physically identical to the figure in the portrait. This shrine doesn't influence how those under its effects mature mentally, but it will generally make sure that they do mature mentally in some form, along with their body.

Dom Perignon (200CP):
You are in possession of a replenishing supply of Don Perignon wine. In addition to being pretty good wine in its own right, this batch is a little special. It's laced with a fast-acting rape drug, knocking those affected unconscious after the drug has had time to circulate through their system. Conveniently enough, you seem to be able to decide on a moment's notice who gets drugged, and who is completely immune for no particular reason at a given moment.

Classroom Distractions (200CP):
In any work or classroom setting, there will always be a single unoccupied seat that everyone unquestionably agrees is your seat. This desk has the special effect that, as long as you keep up a half-assed pretense of trying to keep a low profile, the world around you will become blind to any obviously sexual acts that take place at or around this seat, as well as any evidence of such activities. No matter how disruptive or suspicious your behaviors should otherwise be, nobody will even bat an eye, as long as you aren't deliberately obvious with your activities.

Suspicious Bag (200CP):
From this small tote bag, you're able to produce any real sex toy you can imagine, in any amount, as long as it can reasonably fit through the opening. This won't produce anything where sexual pleasure is obviously the secondary function or value of the toy, like pulling out weaponized dildos, or solid-gold buttpluggs. You can even pull out mundane drugs associated with sex, like poppers, viagra, or various weak aphrodisiacs. As an extension of the "sexual purposes only" clause, this bag will stop producing drugs once it becomes a very real of overdose for you, or whoever you're sharing these drugs with.

Fellatio Research Society (300CP):
You have access to a private room in a nearby karaoke bar. Oddly enough, you never need to pay to use this room, or for any snacks you order here. The real value of this the complete indifference to anything you do in here. No matter how clearly people should hear whatever suspicious activities you get up to in here, nobody seems to notice anything odd. Now, you'll still be called out if it's visibly obvious as you're leaving or entering the bar, that you are about to, or already have done something illegal in that room, but other than that, you're in the clear. Even if the staff catch you in the act, or are forced into it themselves, they always find some reason to keep quiet. They might even come back for more.

Secret Photographs and Recordings (300CP):
A far less altruistic take on the phrase "hands-on research". You have a large supply of cameras, recording devices that you can hide in virtually any scenery, with your actors being none the wiser. Oh, sorry, did I say "place"? I meant, suddenly materialize throughout a small area of your choosing, without any need to be there in person, the same goes for collecting the recorded data. You can only prep one area at a time like this, but the cameras are always placed in obscure places with a good viewing angle. By the way, in case I was being too vague, yes, this is for blackmail.

Rape-Off Invitation (300CP):
You have a self-renewing invitation to a monthly rape-off event. In which you, and a number or other people who come to to partake in fucking one or more stunningly beautiful and willing partners. If that's not to your liking, you can chose to instead be the star of your own rape-a-thon, or act as an event organizer instead, and collect money from the participant who actually had to pay. The novelty of the rape-a-thons are the star attractions. It's always something novel, but reasonably tame, like a fully functional futanari, or a feared female gang leader, or even a famous idol. If it's in-character, you'll even get "main characters" as special guests in future worlds. No matter what happens during the rape-a-thon, nobody's reputation or social life will be impacted in any way through this.

Companions

Canon companions receive no CP, but get all the roles and purchases associated with them for free. Naturally, you can't take canon companions that you or your companions have already replaced. Companions can not spend CP for more companions.

The More the Merrier (50CP/ Per+):
You can import companions from past jumps, or make new companions entirely. They receive 500CP to spend as they please.

Mami-San (100CP, Discount Re-dick-ulous):
Ryu Ogawa's childhood friend. She has protected the weak Ryu from a young age. Despite her kind words, she resents Ryu for relying on her. She has her fair share of troubles at home, manifesting in an unhealthy obsession with Ryu's kind mother.

Ryu-Kun (200CP, Discount/Free* A-dick-ted):
The protagonist of this story. A physically and mentally weak highschool boy. He has the potential to become a strong and handsome man, but he still needs a little push. He has become the target of bullying by three forceful girls, and you know the rest.
*Ryu can be taken as a companion for free by those with the A-dick-ted role, and no other Dick-less companions.

Impudent Girls (300CP, Discount/Free* Dick-less):
Megu Matsuda, Akira Nishimura, and Mari Itsuki. The entire student body is equally terrified and infatuated with these three, and even teachers are at their mercy. These three take up one companion slot.
*These three can be taken as a companion for free by those with the Dick-less role, and no other Tormentor companions.

Kyoko-San (400CP, Discount/x2* Re-dick-ulous):
The loving but eccentric Kyoko Ogawa, the mother of Ryu ogawa. She doesn't have much common sense to speak of, but she does a fine job as a mother. Oh, she's also a witch, and was the one who removed Ryu's penis in the first place, to help him mature as a man.
*Kyoko can be discounted a second time to those with the Re-dick-ulous role, and no other Re-dick-ulous companions.

Drawbacks

You can receive up to 600 additional points by taking drawbacks.

Late Bloomer (+100CP):
Just like Ryu, you're a total wimp, physically and mentally. You don't have the nerve to assert yourself until shit has already hit the fan. Despite being a maelstrom of lust and impulse, you're inexplicably ashamed of any for of sexual indulgence. It seems that dominant types can smell these traits on you, like a shark smells blood, and can't resist harassing and teasing you for it. You will never find this enjoyable.

Your Cock Totally [XOXO], ya Know? (+100CP):
It seems you fell into Megu Matsuda's trap, and came out as a shell of a human being. As a man, you have severe erectile dysfunction, unable to get and keep it up. If you're a female... fuck if I know, I'm no doctor, whatever the closest equivalent is. In either case, your self esteem is in shambles from the start of this jump.

She's Next (+200CP):
A cautionary tale for those who can't quit while they're ahead. Those you involve yourself with tend to go way too far in their efforts to have more pleasure. Like pushing you into more and more hardcore fetishes as time goes on. To make this even worse, they always try to involve your friends, family, and generally anyone you're not comfortable with involving in these hedonistic stunts.

Some Kind of Super Hacker (+200CP):
It seems that someone with a cruel streak has some serious dirt on you that you absolutely cannot allow to be exposed to the public. They intend to use their power to work you to the bone, they may even ask you to commit small crimes, or humiliate yourself, and you can be sure they'll extort the Hell out of you. All and all, they're a selfish sadist, without the slightest concern for your situation.

Recklessly Shameless (+300CP):
Seems like the repressive Japanese sensibilities are in full force this time. For one, your sexual urges are now too strong for even you to resist for long. Unlike the hentai safety net that would ordinarily be in place, your actions do have consequences. Sexual partners are quick to brag, evidence of you in the act spreads like wildfire, and giving exhibitionism a try would be social suicide. Even the smallest slip-up has a major impact on your home and social life. It won't be long before you're sluttyness is common knowledge, and anyone with even the slightest concern for their image will cut all ties with you, even if they were once your closest friends and family.

A Boy, A Guy Named Jack, And a Soldier? (+300CP):
The wonderful thing about being a male hentai character, is that everything you're sticking your dick into is going to be conventionally attractive in some fashion. Now you lean more on the female hentai protagonist side. Everybody is hideous, some characters have their age or gender changed, just to make you more uncomfortable. No matter how much you may dislike it, the world still knows what genre it's supposed to be, and fate will contort itself in whatever fashion necessary to throw you into sexual interactions as often as possible. To add insult to injury, this doesn't make the characters that you won't fuck within this decade any less attractive.

End Choices

Go Home: End your Chain and return to your home world.

Stay Here: End your Chain and stay in this Jump for the rest of your life.

Move On: Continue on your Chain, and continue on to your next Jump.

Notes

Jump by Stolen Gene.

As far as I can tell, nobody actually knows what the title of this series translates to. The author even notes that it's unintelligible. I'm not sure it's even Japanese.

All of the Character Role capstones make reference to outright magic, something that's far from common in this world. So the way this magic manifests will differ slightly for each Story Role:

For Dick-less: The the influence of your dick is the source of your magic. You can designate certain people who will gradually come under the effects of the perk whenever they have your penis attached. This is the slowest method, but as the spells take effect, those affected gradually come to desire becoming your sex slave (not the depressing kind of slave) making the effects permanent, if you wish.

For A-dick-ted: The magic from the penis has rubbed off on your body, in a way. You may physically "train" others to enjoy acts relating to the spell's effects, putting them under the perks effects. This is the second-slowest method, but those trained quickly come to love these changes, making them permanent, if you wish.

For Re-dick-ulous: Who may already have the means to cast spells. You put others instantly under the effect of the perks, but unlike other spells you may have, you can do this without any regard to whatever "affinity" a target may have, and if you can get them to want it of their own free will, they can be made permanent.
