Generic Western Comic Lewd by Lolo

Welcome to the world of generic adult comics. This world is inspired by Works like Kaos comic, Black and White and other western adult comics. In this world, you only have to be laid, so have fun and relax my friend. Take this 1000 CP to start your journey (10 years).

Note: Most of the wording of this document assumes a male jumper pursuing female partners purely for personal preference.

Age: Choose the age you want but at least 17 years old

Gender: Choose whatever fits your fancy. Male, female, futa, trap, doesn't matter. No charge.

Location:

Choose whatever fits your fancy, is your history. You can choose any country you want.

1) Island: a tropical island where you will spend a 10-year vacation. The most common cliche is that of the beach, tropical environment, etc. Even if you don't have sex in these 10 years, at least you will be relaxed and carefree about life.

2) Far Town: you are tired of the city and its bustle. This remote town is a quiet place for those who enjoy simple and peaceful things more. If you want it can be a town to be a farmer or another option that fits any town where simplicity is more important. Forget some city amenities.

3) Parody: there is a fiction that is to your liking, well now you will be in the fictional world of your choice. You're not guaranteed to be a wizard in the world of Harry Potter, but you can at least meet a character if you have the means to contact them.

4) Time Travel: Maybe you want to go to a different time, something older. A time where adventure, kingdoms, etc. predominate. If you want you can go further back, to the stone age, and don't worry, it's a comic jump for adults, so the beauty standards will at least be the same as in the modern age.Or maybe you want to go to the future, where robot escorts are possible. But I think you will need some knowledge to adapt to the times.

5) City: Maybe yours is the wild city. With an extensive and very diverse population, along with the number of objects, jobs, etc. that its can offer to you. But those who cannot adapt will end up in poverty and marginality.

Background (free)

Choose whatever fits your fancy, is your history, but only mundane power level.

1) Every Joe: you are the type that does not have a job but a lot of free time, so you will not be limited when it comes to going somewhere or a clock that tells you what time to get up or sleep.

2) Teacher/Student: you will enter as a teacher and/or student in the area you want, as long as it is within the limit of the mundane, your level of education will not exceed the university, so do not think that you will enter as a super genius.

3) Clerk: you are a competent clerk of any company, public office, etc. The office will be your usual place and your colleagues will be those with whom you interact most in your daily routine. Obviously, you will have all the skills to do your job but you will always be at an average level.

4) Mister Multipurpose: You are here who can do any job, gardening, construction, etc. Your services are extensive as well as your clientele. Your knowledge extends to various fields as long as they are mundane and non-academic. Your level in general is average so you are not the first choice if only your skills were taken into account.

5) Professional: It can be a lawyer, a doctor or whatever you want. As long as it is a specialized profession, you can choose any. As always your abilities will be average and within the mundane.

Setting: (free)

Choose whatever fits your fancy, is your history, but only mundane power level.

1) School: a common place in most of this kind of comics. You can choose between a high school with students as young as 18 or a university. It will be equipped with all the facilities to make it as diverse as possible, finding both sports clubs and others, a well-equipped academy, etc. I assure you that you will not get bored with so many students, teachers, mothers, etc.Normally you will spend most of your time here but that doesn't mean you can't go to other places.

2) Hospital: another cliche. This hospital that will be well equipped for the most part will come to you only people of the sex of your preference and they will not be for serious issues, but for some muscle pain or minor issues. If you want it can be just a small clinic where you are the only doctor.Normally you will spend most of your time here but that doesn't mean you can't go to other places.

3) Residential neighborhood: in this place is where you will interact with your neighbors and people who pass through the area.There is also a cultural center where various activities are carried out, such as art, sports, etc. Normally you will spend most of your time here but that doesn't mean you can't go to other places.

4) Camp: Don't worry, it's not Crystal Lake. It is a camp where you will necessarily go every summer to be an instructor or be a camper, when you are not in the camp you will be in a city or town where you will have various activities related to the camp.

5) Others: it can be an art workshop, the gym, the military, etc. You are free to choose your setting for this story.

Origin:

The only origin is drop-in. You can use two discounts in each category 100/200/400/600 in Perks and two discounts in each category in Items.100 CP options are free.

Perks

Do not disturb (Free)

It would be a waste to be in the middle of the act and be interrupted by someone you know. With this help, when you have sex with someone there will be no interruptions and your privacy will be respected. You can have sex next to your parents' room and they won't interrupt you, but that won't get rid of awkward questions later.

Porn Physics (Free)

This probably goes without saying but hentai likes to take liberties with how sex actually works. Massive cocks, cervical penetrations, men ejaculating buckets of cum and girls lactating at the drop of a hat, etc. Well with this perk all that stuff and more is perfectly possible for you and your partners because sex works however you want it to work. The only limitation is that this perk's benefits are strictly cosmetic: you might be able to cum literal buckets, but you can't make your jizz nutritious enough to live off of. In addition, just because I'm feeling nice, this perk also makes STDs just plain not exist and gives you perfect control over your fertility. For girls this includes eliminating periods. What's more, if you dial your fertility down to 0% your partner will treat sex with you as if you were using perfect birth control whether she knows about the perk or not.

Alibi (Free)

It would be a problem if he just disappears with a girl for a while and then someone asks where they've been. Now when someone asks you any answer you give, however stupid it may be, it will be credible, being the perfect alibi, ending any future questions on the subject. This does not work if you are involved in a crime.

Help a Brother (Free)

It's always good to have a little help. People are more likely to help you at a certain level, like offering you a roof over your head and three meals a day in exchange for working at home, hiring you if you're looking for a job (but they'll only offer you very low positions if you don't have any skills), etc. They are small aids that can always come in handy at the beginning of a jump.

Immaculate Image (Free)

It is not easy to live quietly when you have a very bad reputation. That is already a thing of the past. Your reputation can never be defamed, being at least null but never bad. You can work hard to improve it, but if you do something that harms it, it will only decrease to a level where it will only be neutral, never bad or negative.

Insatiable (100)

It wouldn't be a porn comic if the main character lasts only one shot. With this help you can last several rounds without getting tired and without running the risk of malnutrition, so don't worry about recharging, it will be instant. Another advantage is that you will be able to control your sexual desire, so you don't have to worry about lust being stronger than your self-control.

Beautiful world (100 CP)

The scale of beauty increases eight points. That is to say that the average beauty scale is 13/10. Another advantage is that all kinds of bad smells, dirt and anything you consider disgusting will disappear from the world, people will still need to urinate or defecate but it will not generate bad smells or leave stains, very useful for those jumpers who go to pre-modern times. The world will be very neat and there are no worldly diseases. Another benefit is that people will age in a way that they don't lose that youthful appeal, you will see many very attractive MILFs and GILFs like the ones in The Milftoons comics.

Reverse Rape (100 CP)

It will not be very rare for women of your preference to sexually abuse you, but you do not have to worry, there will be no violent or harmful sex. Although you do have to be prepared to be ambushed by a group of beautiful women and please them.

You want a job? (100 CP)

The world of porn comics is weird and this confirms it for you. Now you can hire someone to do any job (clean your house, private lessons, etc) but instead of doing that job, what they will do is have sex with you. With a payment and a fixed work schedule the person you hire will provide you with sexual services but everyone, including the person you hire, will think that they are giving you the service they agreed on, so you do not have to worry about what happens next. But do not play with your luck, if you use physical or verbal violence it would not be different from workplace violence. It would also not be a good thing to have sex in public, as well as arrange your meetings in a motel. Try to be reasonable.

Bet it (100 CP)

The classic of all comics for adults, bet, win and enjoy. When you make bets through a game or challenge, your opponent (in case of losing) will have to satisfy you sexually, fulfilling any type of fetish of your liking (as long as it is not dangerous for the person such as suffocating the person or hitting them brutally). In case you lose, you just have to admit that you lost, without having to pay anything, as long as the other person's bet is sex. This effect can be applied to other people (such as girlfriends, sisters, etc) as long as all the people involved give their consent without any kind of intimidation or threat involved.

Move you fucker (200 CP)

Being popular means that you will have all kinds of people after you, regardless of whether they are to your liking or not. Now the choice of who you want to flirt with will be yours. Only people you find attractive or likable will try to hit on you, saving you the time and emotional burden of rejecting those you are not interested in. I must clarify that this is a filter, it is not that if you buy this you will be more attractive or you will increase your charisma, this Perk only serves so that only people from your Strike Zone want to have sex with you.

Payday (200 CP)

Money is not everything in life, there is also sex. Every time you help someone, invite them, do a favor or perform any job for them, you can ask to be paid or rewarded with sex instead of money. Your sexy boss can pay you with sex every day of the month instead of the normal salary, the milf neighbor will offer you oral sex if you help her carry some boxes inside her house or a woman you gave her directions will thank you by masturbating. The possibilities are endless and the more value you have in what you do, the greater the reward.

For an additional 100 CP, you can also receive sex as an apology,as a birthday present, prizes, payment of debts or for compensation (although you will also receive the corresponding payment, so the sex is a separate payment).

No jealousy (200 CP)

It's hard to be someone decent if your lust wins you over. That is why we are going to help you with this problem. Married people or couples, as well as family and friends will have no problem that you have sex with their partners, relatives, etc. On the contrary, they will insist and assist you in everything they can do. It will be a common thing for them to feel excited knowing that you are fucking their loved ones. But this does not mean that you do not have to convince the other party, that a husband wants you to fuck his wife does not mean that the wife will accept without thinking twice, they will have to respect your decision if she is going to want to have sex with you or will reject the proposal.

Please (200 CP)

Asking for a favor is common nowadays, why would it be weird to ask someone to have sex with something weird? now you can ask any acquaintance to have sex with total normality and they will accept without any problem, as if you were asking for some money to buy something cheap. You have to keep in mind that it doesn't work with strangers, so don't expect to ask a famous actress you barely know to have sex with you without her turning you down or calling security.

Crossover (200 CP)

There are many parodies of various series as well as their crossovers. Any manga, anime, Series, Game, etc. They will combine at the jump. You can combine the universe at your jump, bring their characters, include their system (chakra, ki, mana, etc.), whatever you want. But I must warn you that the power level after these changes will remain at their current level and that if you bring these characters they will have the power level adapted to the jump in which you find yourself with some limitations. For example, if you bring Naruto into a Bob Burgers jump, he will not have his full powers, only being able to reach the power level of an Olympic athlete. Otherwise, if you bring an average person into the Dragon Ball universe, he will not have the minimum or average power of that world, he will have to train if he wants to fight Goku. The other limitation is that a character who in his fiction has powers that can destroy a world brought to a normal world will not only decrease his power to adapt to that world, but also in future jumps his level will be nerfed, without being able to return to his optimal state. With training these characters will be able to regain that power that positioned them as the strongest, but that will take a lot of time and effort with normal means.

The superiority of Black Men (400 CP)

It is popular to see in these types of comics that black men are preferred by white women when it comes to sex. No matter where you are and who they are, there will always be an irrefutable rule, the jumper is the best to have sex. All people of your preferred gender will feel a strong desire to have sex with you. That means that sex with you is the best and now you are at the top. Any person you have had sex with cannot be satisfied by other people, being addicted only to you. I suggest you be careful, it is not always good to have many people after you, like addicts after a drug.

No Consequences (400 CP)

It would be a problem if you happen to have casual sex with the mafia boss's daughter. To avoid this type of problem I will give you a little help. When you have sex with someone there will be no consequences after this, giving you the freedom of not having to worry about who you sleep with. It is important to note that this protection only works when the sexual relationship is consensual.

Stupid Porn Logic (400 CP)

As in any adult comic, having sex will not be complicated at all. Casual sex will be something of every day and you don't need to make an effort creating the situation or the environment for it. With just a five minute talk you can convince any woman (or man) to have sex. But it must be clarified that this will be something casual and not to start a relationship, unless you have some Perk that allows it.In addition, people will trust you to the point that even though you have a reputation for sleeping with other people's wives, all the husbands will continue to trust you to the point of leaving you alone with their wives for 10 days, and people will be so gullible that no matter what kind of excuse you tell them, they will believe you.Regardless of whether the evidence of this is in sight and is very explicit.

Love and Passion (400 CP)

What would happen if in a relationship you divided the duties between two people? One deals with romantic issues and the other with sex. With this little help you can now be the other in a relationship in charge of sexually satisfying your partner. Choose any couple (it can be a monogamous or polygamous couple) or several, to take the role of sexually satisfying women or men, you choose. The downside is that you have to satisfy them, if you don't it wouldn't be uncommon for them to look for other partners. You can disable this effect whenever you want. There is no limit to the number of couples you can use this Perk on.

A Few Small Adjustments (400 CP)

It is normal that in any porn parody some things are changed to fit that story. Now you can change all that to your wish. You can change the ratio of females to males, you can make the pokemons have human form with some of the characteristics of their species, change the ages of the characters, their gender and their sexual orientation. You can do all of that as long as it doesn't affect the story or the plot.

If you want you can make Harry Potter a woman and all the Hogwarts students are all of legal age and the teachers are all young, that Voldemort is a sexy beauty or that Harry's parents are alive or that Lily is not Harry's mother but another student of the course, but you cannot prevent Voldemort from existing, as well as other characters in the plot that make the story flow.

Everyday adult Comic Protagonist (600 CP)

Like the protagonists of adult comics, your sexual life is very active. It will be an everyday thing to find very beautiful women. These not only have their beauty as a strong point, they will also be very important, influential, skilled and very powerful people. They will see you as their ideal life partner or as a preferred friend with rights and will always be willing to have sex with you, prioritizing your pleasure over theirs. Just being together for a couple of days will be reason enough for them to be completely in love with you. You don't need to make any effort, just being you is enough.

As a bonus effect, they will be very loyal and any kind of corruption or mind control attempts will be useless against them. They will also have a plot armor that will protect them from any kind of danger. Post jumps this effect will be applied to companions and followers.

A little luck (600 CP)

Let's say you have luck on your side. To begin with, any disadvantageous situation in which you are involved will always end up benefiting you without having to pay a price or lose something, for example, if you end up being enslaved your new mistress will not only be a woman that you find incredibly attractive but will also take care of you and she will pamper you, treating you more as an equal or as someone who has to please. Second, you are immune to any indirect or collateral damage as long as you are not the target as well as random situations that can harm or kill you. And finally, your luck increases in such a way that there are no bad days, there are only perfect days. If you go for a walk, it is sure that you will meet important, powerful and influential people who will be very happy to help you or support you in any situation permanently. It would also not be uncommon to find a lot of money or very valuable objects very frequently and that you do not have any type of subsequent consequence, on the contrary, if that object or money belongs to someone, they will offer you a juicy reward and you will have an important contac that will help you in whatever problem you have.

Setting Changing (600 CP)

Wouldn't it be great to be able to go into the universe of Warhammer 40K without worrying about dying in a horrible way. Like any good adult comic, you can adapt the reality of a world or universe to your bewilderment. Change the tone of a universe from Grimdark to Noblebright. You can also change the genre from a comedy to a more adult or sexual or a horror to Slice of Life.

You have full control to change the tone and genre, not the story or plot. In the event that the story doesn't quite match the tone you changed from, an alternate story will be created to match that tone. For example, in Warhammer 40K, if you change it to a comedy the story of the Horus Heresy will focus more on comedy and instead of being a war that almost destroyed thousands of worlds and millions of lives, it will be more of a separation between the emperor and horus where each one went by his side because Horus liked coca cola but the emperor prefered pepsi, without victims or traumatic things. The gods of Chaos will be more benevolent and their actions less hostile and more comical for an audience of all ages.

Diplomatic Immunity (600 CP)

Wouldn't it be great to be able to do whatever you want without having to face any kind of consequence or punishment. With this Perks you will be immune to all kinds of legal, social, cultural and moral restrictions. No matter what you do, any illegal or immoral activity will not be punished or criticized by anyone. There will also be no resentment from the victims or their loved ones or close ones, so you don't need to watch your back. All these acts will be treated as something inevitable, like the destruction that a tornado brings to a town.

But you have to know that there will be some limitations, it is certain that for carrying out a robbery you will not be arrested and your face will not appear in all the media, but it is not like the victim is not going to defend himself against you. So you have to be careful who you mess with.

The Replacements (600 CP)

Do you remember the animated series The Replacements, do you remember? It is something similar. Basically you can change a person for another you want. Your teacher is a 60-year-old person who is not very attractive, change her for a beautiful 25-year-old girl with a voluptuous body, your circle of friends does not please you, so change it for one that fits your preference. Those people who replace the others will have a strong favoritism towards you, always encouraging you or helping you when you need it. You can change if you want your family or your partner (even when you don't have one), for the person you want and have the type of relationship you want with them.

You can not only change people but also your situation, for example if you don't like your job you can change it for another more profitable one, keep in mind that you would not acquire the skills to be able to do the job. If you don't like your economic situation, the place where you live, etc. You can exchange it for a better one.

If you wish you can change to take the role of a character from the universe where you are, gaining their relationships, memories and their properties but you are not gaining their abilities or skills. So, you can take his stuff for yourself. It should be noted that you cannot take drawbacks or scenarios that involve your character, for example if you switch with Superman, you cannot take drawbacks or scenarios where you have to defeat Superman. The number of changes you can make is unlimited.

Any changes you make will go unnoticed, so don't worry that someone will find it weird that your 60-year-old teacher is now a 25-year-old. They'll all come to the conclusion that it was always like that.

The requirement to use it is that you need a photo of the person, then the app gives you the option to have a clone appear but first you can modify some parts of that clone's body and personality to be your idealized partner. The downside is that the clone will only have the appearance of the cloned target, any powers or abilities they have will not be given to those clones.

The maximum number of inhabitants will be ten million, the distribution between men and women is at personal discretion. The best of all is that you impose the rules, it is an absolutist regime where all the power is in your hands. But be careful how you are going to govern your citizens, if you are a tyrant who massacres without control or does acts so heinous that they harm all the inhabitants of your country, it would not be strange that sooner or later there will be a revolt. If you are somewhat hedonistic there would be no problem with some laws like virgin women will be deflowered by the king, people will accept it as something natural and will not do anything about it, even the people involved will only see it as a civil duty. Another advantage of this item is that all the inhabitants gain the "Beautiful world" Perk, so if you haven't bought it before, it's sure that your country will have the most attractive people in the world.

Post Jump, you can import this country to other worlds if you wish, with all its inhabitants. Anyone who lives in the country or becomes a citizen will become your follower.

To keep things simple, you can customize this place to your heart's content and have the immunity to do whatever you want without any consequences. Also in this place you are invincible, so this place is also your safe place. This place belongs to a separate plane in which only you can enter, so you can access wherever you want whenever you want.The flow of time in this place is different from the world in the jump where you are. About 100 hours here are equivalent to a minute in the other world.

Powers

Remember when I said that this would be a mundane leap, I lied. Well not so much. In this section I will offer you some powers that despite not being destructive and that can be adapted in a mundane society, are so useful that they can be very effective even in a world with superpowers. These powers do not have the discount option

Invisibility 100 CP

Invisibility is the power to render oneself unseen to the naked eye, allowing users to sneak past others or take them by surprise. Unfortunately this does not cover what you are wearing or anything else you are holding. But it's useful when you have to escape from an overprotective father when he catches you having sex with his daughter.

Clean up 200 CP

A simple skill, you can clean any dirt. Not only clean, but also eliminate bad odors and eliminate any germ or pests.

Pleasant Touch 300 CP

The power to get anybody turned on with skin contact. Your body parts cause people to get turned on, which produces pleasant sensations within the other person. The duration of the touch increases the pleasure. Even liquids that come from your body have a even more effect.

Parameters 400 CP

You have the ability to see the parameters from 1 to 100 of the people but not like an RPG, but like a porn game. The parameters that you can see of each person are education, kindness, charm, dissatisfaction, wealth and honesty.

You can also see other data such as his height, weight, measurements, number of people with whom he had sex and his current situation such as his health and financial or mental situation.

You can also see the relationship they have with you or other people.

The last ability is to be able to see dialogue boxes, like in a visual novel game, where two options will appear, a good one that will increase his relationship with you or his lust towards you or a bad one that will decrease it. The numerical value that these options will give varies between 5 and 10. You can see the value of their relationship in a heart-shaped icon. Also after a certain value, a blue icon will appear that will represent the moment for them to have sex, it will show a percentage that goes from 1 to 100.

Vip Aura 500 CP

You give off a particular type of aura, one that causes people out of genuine respect or fear to give you preferential treatment. But what preferential treatment would it be? Let's say that when you meet with the leader of a nation or a very important businessman, these as a small gift for their meeting will let you have fun with their wives, daughters, themselves or anyone you want. Also in exchanges or commerce, you will have the most favorable conditions of the contract, being able to even request in the agreement that they give you any woman you choose to close the deal. Also go to a restaurant or hotel and apart from the agreed service, their employees will take care of your sexual needs.Imagine the same situations as in schools, hospitals, etc. When you visit the family of an acquaintance, it would be normal for her wife, daughter or any woman to give you oral sex or to have sex with her directly.

As a bonus, you can emit an intimidating aura that will make those within a 20 meter radius feel so intimidated that they will not want to have problems with you, nor seek to be your enemy and serve you. As apologies, they will even offer you their mothers, sister girlfriends,themselves etc. You are the one alpha dog.

Parameter remote control 600 CP

It's a skill, not to be confused with an item.

It has the appearance of a normal remote control that has an LED-type screen at the top under the on/off button that displays some things and that it has the ability to affect the objectives that the user points with the control. It must be clarified that the control can only be seen by the user and can only be touched by the user, although people other than the user can only be crossed by the control. The user can give a voice or thought command, the control can appear or disappear, he can throw it away and then order the control back to his hand.

The control has buttons but these have different abilities. The LED screen displays the following:

-Fertility on/off (on means on and off off), if it is on the person is fertile, if it is off it is not.

-Family Love: It is the family affection that the target will feel towards you, the higher the number, the higher the family affection.

-Love: It is the level of affection and love (partner or lover) that the target has for the user. When it reaches 100 the target is madly in love with the user. If it is -100 the target will feel great hatred towards the user. 0 is indifference. The target will do what the user asks.

-Lust: It is the sexual desire that the target has for the user. The higher the number, the more lust you want.

-Friendship: It is the level of friendship and camaraderie that the target has towards the user.

-Loyalty: The loyalty of the target to the user depends on the numerical value. The higher the target will fulfill any type of order and do everything the user wants and will not feel jealous when the user cheats on her.

-Increase: A number 3/3 appears. This indicates the number of times in a day (3) that the user can recharge their stamina if they are tired.

There are two buttons for each of these functions that can increase or decrease a parameter from -100 to 100.

It also has other buttons with other abilities. The pause button has the ability to stop the target's time, that is, they will not be able to move and will not know that time has stopped.

The on/off button has the ability when the off button is used the target will fall into a coma and if it is used again on the same target they will wake up.

The control effects are long lasting and you can have multiple targets at once and you can customize any target you have in your control.

Good News, you gain a Waifu/Husbando. Pick any character you like, now he/she is your life partner. If you are 18 or over 18, you are married, if you are below 18, you are engaged. Your Waifu/Husbando is completely loyal to you and you have a vainilla plot armor, so you have a total anti ntr and cheating protection. Better, their family and any people they know-approves of your relationship. But, if you want a harem, they will demand to be the top husbando/wife, and you have to persuade them to share you with other people. They have the last word when you want to add a person in your harem.

Amnesia +100 CP

Lose the memories of previous jumps, and all information you know about the setting you choose.

Ignore +200

Most of the people in this world will ignore you. No matter what you do to them, you are a ghost and not worth their time. You can gain their attention only if you gain their sympathy or if you do something that deserves their respect.

Generic +200

The world you're in is the epitome of terribly generic. This Jump is a stereotypical bad history with plain character.

Pencil dick +200

Your penis is too small. You cannot satifaced neither men and women. If you are a woman sex with you is not very pleasurable.

Not My Fetish +200

Pick something you hate. Anal. Yaoi. NTR. BBC. Whatever it is you hate. It's now the most common fetish in the world. Enjoy everyone and even your mother fully embrace the steaming pile of shit that is your anti-fetish.

Zero Privacy +400

I hope you don't mind that your private life is public, because you will have to deal with several stalkers who will make public any type of relationship you have. The worst thing is that every time you have sex it will be filmed and published on all social media or any kind of evidence will be shown that will be 100% authentic and credible.

Horrible World +400

You invest now to win in the future my dear jumper. This world is not as perfect as you think. Sexually transmitted diseases are more common than before, people will be aesthetically very ugly for your standards and finally sex will not be as pleasant as you thought.

Is not acceptable +400

People in this world only see sex only to procreate, the pleasure itself is not only impure, but also has no logical basis to be used for fun. The carnal act was replaced by artificial insemination. You can give yourself pleasure but do not expect any material to stimulate your imagination as these are non-existent. And the worst thing is that the people of this world will be on average 15/10 in appearance. Enjoy having the best delicacy in front of you but not being able to taste it.

Why Me? +400

If you thought that your stay was going to be peaceful, you are wrong, my dear friend. Every week you will have to deal with problems of any kind, be looking for something, have to avoid the fury of an overprotective family member or a jealous friend. The good side is that if they make a comic about your stay in this world it would be very entertaining.

True Harem King/Queen +600

You have to make a harem of 151 Waifu, Husbando or both. Your relationship with them has to be like lovers, not family or friends, only lovers. If you fail, you fail the chain. The good news is you gain all your harem as companions. You can have over 151 lovers if you like and gain them as companions or followers.

Power loss (+600 CP)

Lose the Perks, Powers and Items from previous jump, and can not import any companion or access to your Warehouse, at least you still have your Body Mod.

Cuck +600

All your lovers will be steal form you by others men and you have to endure watch how their fuck your love one in front of you with a sense of defeat and pleasure. You can protect them but you do not know when they embrace the arm of other men.

Notes:

A thank you to all those people who advised me to improve this jump. Being my first jump, I had several mistakes but many in the community helped me by correcting them or giving me some suggestions.

Porn Physics is from Generic Hentai World.

Not My Fetish is from Generic Hentai Modern.

Some powers were inspired from works like Sweet Guy, Love Parameter and Parameter remote control.
