The specifics are up to you, but they won't have any abilities they didn't have before. Turning humanity into dragons won't suddenly have them breathing fire.

Exotic 200- You're an odd customer, aren't you? Something about your appearance, your height for example, is far above average. Perhaps your eyes glow, maybe your assets are much bigger than average, no matter what you choose, this will make you stand out. Not only that, but things natural to your species, such as breathing fire or incredible strength are now unlocked for you.

Visitor

Not only that, but your physical stamina keeps up just as well. Thrust as hard as you want, you won't get tired.

Irresistible Force 400- People want you to want them. Nerdy Mouse-
“You’ve been a bad boy… D-did I say that right?”

Some people find that their passions in life don’t exactly line up with their current skill set, and this mouse right here is a prime example of this fact. This mousey little lady has some incredibly wide hips, a modest chest, and the cutest chubby cheeks you ever did see. It’s a wonder how she even got in here, what with her big round glasses, freckled features, jumpy demeanor, and the fact that her room in the resort is FILLED with action figures, mostly from animated series designed to sell toys of giant robots, and commissioned posters of all of her favorite characters. Though, the strangest part about her is that, as far as everybody else knows, she’s a dominatrix, and her outfit certainly matches the description.

It’s such a shame that she has no idea how to actually dominate anyone.

See, while her family may be a rich conglomerate with enough fingers in everyone’s pies to pretty much never run out of money, and of course that certainly helped, that’s not the reason she managed to become a VIP in High Tail Hall. She managed to get in because she advertised herself as a sultry Dominatrix on the internet in an attempt to get laid, as she had never actually had sex before and wasn’t particularly confident enough to just tell people she was a nerd with social anxiety who wanted somebody to hold at night. In a seriously unlucky series of events, or lucky depending on who you ask, word of her existence spread at High Tail Hall, and it seems like quite a few popular regulars wanted a taste of this “Mysterious Mouse Dominatrix” from the interwebs.

Of course, she panicked. She was neither brave enough to tell them she lied, nor was she brave enough to just decline the invitation. With all the work her father’s connections put into making her look good from a PR standpoint, though they didn’t have to do much to make her look good physically, there was no way out of this for her. She’d have to fake it till she makes it, and it turns out no amount of reading could turn a virgin who’d never even kissed someone in her life into the masterful dominatrix she invented on the internet.

Luckily, she met you before really talking to anyone else, as there’s only so much acting aloof can do before someone would call her bluff. You easily figured her out, and the fact that you didn’t immediately write her off gave her hope, and a hell of a crush as well. In her eyes, you had everything figured out. You could talk to people, understand people, and had a confidence that she could only dream of, the perfect dominant, at least to her. It was no surprise that she begged you to teach her how to be a proper dom, so that she wouldn’t make herself look like a fool in front of everyone.

Normally, just from looking at her you wouldn’t be blamed for writing her off as a lost cause, but if you do decide to help her, she is an incredibly fast learner, and the simple act of giving her the time of day once you learned the truth made her your biggest fan for life. With earnest guidance and some patience, you could have her become the legendary Short-Stack dom she pretended to be, and a loyal friend/lover. Oh, also don't be surprised if some of her latest commissioned lewd posters look suspiciously like you, I'm sure it's just a coincidence.

Equine Mama-
"Don't be shy, come give mama a kiss."

Some women were built for motherhood, and none embody this more than this lady right here. This woman is built thick, with breasts that'd look small on a cow, the curviest hips, and an ass so round and bouncy that it's almost hypnotizing when she walks. She's a single mother who is currently living in a nice beautiful neighborhood with her three twenty year old daughters, all of whom inherited her midnight black fur and striking blue eyes, while also having some ever so slightly more exaggerated aspects of their mother's figure. This kind, soft spoken, and motherly woman is well off, with a nice car for each of her daughters and herself, numerous quite revealing designer clothes, and a three story house with the nicest furniture you ever did see.

Though don't be fooled by her soft blue eyes and kind stare, she came to this resort for a reason, and she's not shy about making it known. She came here to get fucked, bred, knocked the fuck up. Before she set foot on this island, there was always a sense of nymphomania being held back just beneath the service, a horny lonely woman just one step away from snapping. When she finally got off the boat, the whole island could probably hear that last tiny bit of restraint in her shatter.

This hooved momma is horny and she wants fuckin meat, and when she found you you looked like a damn fine slab of fuck. She's unrepentantly horny but no less motherly, and she's gonna fuckin smother you in her love. She will insist on having you call her mommy during sex, hell even when you're not fucking she gets off hard on hearing you call her that. If her utter lack of filter when it comes to speaking wasn't enough, handsy doesn't even begin to describe horny pent up milf. She can barely keep her hands off you, completely unafraid to just straight up put your head between her massive, sensitive breasts and fondle you at a moment's notice. She'll entice you to suck on her tits anytime you look thirsty, and boy oh boy does she make a lot of milk.

If you have balls she'll drain them with a religious fervor, if you have a pussy she'll eat you out like you're her last meal. When she met you she wanted you bad, and she wasn't in the mood to be coy about it like she used to.

Now you may ask, what about her three daughters? Well, let's just say mama's nymphomania runs in the family. While they aren't as filled out as their mother, they certainly take after her in many ways. As far as they're concerned, in the bedroom you're their new daddy/mommy, and trust me, you better be prepared to hear that name all the time. Oh, did I mention they're just as baby crazy as their mother?

Sexy German Shepherd-
“A threesome? That’s small time, let me hook you up babe.”

This gal right here is the best damn wingwoman you could ask for. She doesn’t exaggerate when she says she’ll have the whole club in your lap by the end of night. A true party girl, this shapely lass has charisma, connections, and a libido that just won’t quit, and she’s putting everything she’s got into getting you all types of laid. Whether it’s guys, gals, or futas, she’ll have them buying YOU drinks all night long.

Now, this doesn’t mean she has no interest in you, quite the opposite in fact. If you show any type of interest in getting her into bed she’ll be diving into your crotch like a rocket. That hourglass figure isn’t just for show, and she sure as hell has the skill and the eagerness to keep you coming back for seconds. A wild night is a guarantee with her, especially if you let her drag you to clubs she’s been to in the past. Don’t be surprised if she knows the owner of a brothel and gets you the VIP treatment, or gets you going on a night of adventure that begins with you fucking a friend of hers.

Trust me, when it comes to getting you laid, that smug smirk of hers can work wonders. It's a learned skill too, considering her past running with gangs and such. The gang she grew up with were a bunch of hellions, partying, vandalism, all of that mess. They weren't doing anything too bad, never hurt anybody too bad or killed a person, but they were the rowdiest motherfuckers in their city. If you see graffiti somewhere there's a chance her or one of her flings in the gang put it there. She was also the best out of all of them when it came to talking to people, even being able to butter up a cop enough to let her go when she got caught. Almost every connection her gang had was because of her, and the more you hang out with her the more you'll start to run into people who know her.

Sure, she's not doing much of that anymore, hell, most of the old gang has gone on to do bigger and better things, like run clubs or bars. Still, that rowdiness of hers never left, it's just put towards more... reproductive uses. Every day is an adventure with her, and she's dying to bring you on each and every one of them. Oh, and fuck you in the back room of a club with about ten of her friends and the owner's wife of course, gotta love that group sex.

Soft Bunny-

"Oh, come here hun, let me sit in your lap so you can tell me all about your day."

The perfect sub, the cutest rabbit, the most loving and innocent looking lagomorph you ever did see. All of these accolades are well earned by this little bunny. His fluffy white fur and innocent sparkling blue eyes brought him many admirers back home in the city, where he is most often seen wearing a cute little sundress that rides up just high enough to give you a perfect view of that cute little powderpuff tail while he's watering his lovely little flowers. Speaking of flowers, he runs a tiny yet beautiful little flower shop on the corner, just as radiant and inviting as himself.

With a voice as soft as the flower petals he nurtures, the femboi bunny would do his best to make you feel at home, bringing you tea and some pleasant conversation. His legs crossed, accentuating his slender legs, curvy hips, and cute pink little panties. His cute little giggles and soft gaze, that soft, round, pinchable bottom right below that twitchy exciteable powderpuff tail as he reaches down to get that piping hot apple pie out of the oven. Such wholesome perfection right before your eyes, just begging to be taken.

Which makes one wonder, how does such a person get involved with High Tail Hall of all places? Well it's surprisingly simple.

He's a total buttslut.

This soft little bunny will do anything to get his cheeks groped and his hole filled, and he's scarily good at getting those he sets his eyes on to indulge his desire for some good old fashioned butt rutting. It's almost hypnotic the way he works his way into someone's pants, there's no aggression, no demands, or even begging. It starts with him innocently talking to you, then complimenting you, asking for permission to simply touch your muscles or give you a nuzzle for good luck, and before you know it he's in your lap snuggling into your chest, cute little bunny butt perched right on your crotch. Once you're at this point all you've got to do is take him, he's yours already, anything you want, he wants.

From that point on he'll practically drown you in what some affectionately call sexy cuteness. His cock and balls might as well be vestigial, and he knows it, being less than an inch in length and with balls that could be compared to tiny marbles. He'll shower you in cute lovey-dovey pet names, lovingly encouraging you to glaze his "Bunny Buns" with your "Honey." He'll worship your body, he'll wiggle his cute little butt on you until you ravage him and make him yours. He'll cum if you spank him, grope him, kiss him, his cheeks are beyond sensitive, and he loves nothing more than letting somebody just use his stretchy little bunny hole.

Taking him with you of course brings his little Flower Shop with him, and he'd be absolutely overjoyed if you took an interest in gardening with him, and if you by any chance decided to propose marriage to this little ray of sunshine, well, let's just say you probably won't be wearing clothes for a while.

Femboy Otter-

"Give it to me, mmph~"

This little otter right here was raised on the coast, palm trees and movie stars as far as the eye could see, with some pretty rich parents and a love of the ocean. His parents gave him damn near everything he ever wanted, expensive clothes, expensive jewelry, a cute car, his mom even got him that buttplug he wanted when he was old enough for it. The little brat has practically never heard somebody say the word "No" to him in his entire life.

At about 5'3", he's not the tallest otter around, but he makes up for it with his slender form, beautiful curves, and plush perky rear. He's no slouch up front either, with a rather hefty cock of about ten inches, his preference for the tiniest booty shorts really showing off his beauty front and back. His midriff exposed at nearly all times, a pink lollipop held softly between even softer lips, a sultry glint in his eye and a smug lustful grin upon his face.

He's flexible, fuckable, and ready for you to ravage him on the way to the mall with your credit card in his purse.

The boy is a slutty little brat, plain and simple. He hates not getting what he wants, almost never says please, and thinks if he shakes his rump around just enough he can get a guy to buy him those cute little panties that say "Fuck Toy" on them. The worst part is he's pretty much always right about this, getting almost everything he could ever want with a kiss, a lapdance, maybe a sucked cock here or there. It's no wonder the spoiled slut is so, well, spoiled.

Or at least he was, until he met you.

Something popped in that little brain of his the second you told him "No." It was as if he had a factory reset in his little mind at the mere idea that somebody would dare tell his bratty little ass no, to not demand, but command respect from him. Not only did this just not compute in his cute little head, it also seemed to make him insanely horny for you. For the first time in many years, he didn't want to fuck for an ulterior tangible motive, he just wanted to be held, to be dominated, to be told what to do.

Of course, this doesn't make him less bratty, in fact he may be even more of a brat now just to get you to put him in his place. He's going to pretend he doesn't like being your little bitch, but the second you've got him on his back his words will go from "Fuck you" to "Fuck me daddy!"

Subby Dalmation-

"Mmm~, yes sir, I'll lick your cock clean."

This dark blue hoodie wearing dog is a bitch, and not in the way you'd think. He's a total pushover, he does what he's told, when he's told, never voicing a single complaint nor moving to stop anything anybody does to him. You could shove your fingers in his holes in public and he'll do nothing but try and stifle his moans, not even attempting to stop you in the slightest. Call him a whore, spank his ass, drop ten pounds of musky cock on his face, he won't stop you.

In fact, he loves it.

He's a college student, and it wouldn't be too far off to say he only enrolled to get fucked silly at parties, and besides, why else would he spend his break at High Tail Hall? It's not like he doesn't ask for it, with how he's practically hypnotized by the sight of a heavy, thick, flaccid cock swaying back and forth in front of his eyes, or how his back instinctively arches when your hand touches his lower back. He could spend days just shoving his sensitive nose into a big hunky male's nutsack and huff it all day, everyday.

As far as he's concerned, he belongs to you now, The meaner you are to him, the more it gets him off. Treat him like a cumrag, sit on his face, call him as many raunchy insults as you can while you make drink a dog bowl filled with cum for dinner, he'll cum hands free from the sheer powerlessness he feels, unless you order him not to cum that is. He also loves your scent, and can't get enough of it. Work out for an hour or so and let him sniff you, his tail will be wagging so fast it'll look like he's about to start flying.

Of course that doesn't mean he won't dislike it if you show him a bit of love and affection from time to time of course. Give him some genuinely loving aftercare after you completely and utterly ruin him and he will without a doubt be your bitch, period. He will worship the ground you walk on, beg for you to step on him and call him your useless little fucktoy, whereas before he'd simply just let you do that, now he's fucking begging for it.

He'll fuck who you tell him to, he'll cum when he's allowed to. He's your bitch, do whatever you want with him.

Wrestler Wolf-

"Ya know, the Gym's always more fun with a friend. How 'bout I spot for ya?"

Oh yeah, it's the man of the hour, six foot four, packed with lean muscle, and an oh so dazzling smile. Known around the globe as one of the greatest heels in wrestling history, suave, witty, and merciless on the mic, and sure as hell able to throw down with the best of the best in the ring. Everyone loves to hate him, men want to be him, women(and quite a few men) want him, this grey wolf is a natural threat in the ring. Egos and bodies leave bruised, battered, and humiliated if he gets his way, and maybe he'll steal their girlfriend in the process. A true star in the ring, pure charisma in every inch of his body.

So, you may ask, "why the hell is he being so nice to me?"

Well you see, that stuff is all kayfabe. He plays a convincing heel, really convincing in fact, but outside of the ring you'd barely even recognize him! He's polite, exciteable, and naturally just seems to enjoy hanging out with people in the gym, laughing and having a good time. Matter of fact, he spends most of his time in the gym, not just working out for himself but helping others on their journey to the body they truly want. Despite being both in body and mind a bit of a Himbo, he's extremely knowledgeable about the body, what it can and can't handle, what does and does not encourage the gains a person wants, and what diet is best for an individual. He's a savant when it comes to anything involving improving the body, and should you follow his directions you'll get the body you want, guaranteed.

However, what's most important is why he even comes to High Tail Hall. For him, it's a place where he can be himself, the happy and upbeat wolf you see around the resort is in stark contrast to the bad boy you see in the ring. In the ring he has to be mean, ruthless, fearless, the big bad wolf that takes what he wants when he wants, but in the bubble of High Tail Hall he doesn't need to play up a character.

Don't get it twisted however, he LOVES his job, it was his biggest dream since he was a kid to be one of the greatest wrestlers to ever grace the ring. In fact he might just let out a little bit of a brag here and there about just how good he is in the ring, ya know, to get you interested. Did I mention he likes you? He really likes you, like a lot. Something about you just draws him in and he can't get enough. He might just try and seduce you, but since playing up a character is something he saves for the ring, he's gonna try it the natural way. Besides, why would he want you to love the character rather than the man behind it?

That isn't to say he wouldn't enjoy playing up a character in the bedroom. Should you ask, he would be oh so ready to bring out the big bad wolf for a tasty little morsel like yourself. He's got thirteen inches of dick to sling around and he's definitely not shy about showing it off, and if ass is more your style he can wring you dry with that perfectly sculpted musclebound bubble butt he's got back there.

Oh, and if you show any interest in actually becoming a wrestler yourself, oh boy, you better prepare yourself. This big boy is an exciteable puppy when it comes to his dream job, and for somebody he likes, dare I say loves, to take an interest in joining him in his favorite thing ever is like injecting caffeine into a squirrel. He'll go out of his way to teach you everything, from how to sell a hit, building up that charisma on the mic, and even how to build your own style from the ground up, something that is completely unique to you!

You have no idea how happy he'd be for you to be the baby face to his heel. If you're really serious about it, he'll go to every show you're at. Every indie wrestling promotion, every side hustle, he'll be there to cheer YOU on, because he can see your potential, and even if it ain't much he can drag potential you didn't even know you had out of you. Once you reach the big leagues, the ring with the eyes of the whole world on you, he's not gonna hold back on you, he'll give you everything he's got, every verbal jab on the mic, every badass crowd pleasing move, all of the star power he can muster, because he knows you can handle it.

And once it's over, the crowd goes home, and the cameras turn off? Oh man, the after show sex is gonna be fucking amazing.

Prudish Panther-

"That's so uncouth, degenerate, brutish, I... Fuuuck~ get that thing inside me."

Temptation can claim even the most prudish of people, and this lusty kitty is no different. This tall and curvaceous Black Panther is a rather well off politician, who had made her opinion on the debauchery of this island quite clear. She despised it, and wished to pass legislation that would damage and eventually shut down High Tail Hall and all places similar to it. However, as she had never been to the island, she decided to visit, in the certainty that all of her suspicions and biases could be proven.

Of course, she wasn't visiting this island completely on a whim. She had a plan, a long game she intended to continue playing even after she passes away. The other board members were surprised by her extremely unorthadox plan, but trusted her judgement. What was her plan you may ask? Well it's simple. Nobody lives forever, and one woman cannot change the minds of entire countries all on her own, especially not when she's up against something as prolific as High Tail Hall. So, what better way to spread her ideals than to get knocked up and spread her agenda through generations?

Of course, this plan did meet some backlash from her fellow moral guardians, and yet she was undeterred. She needed a suitable candidate to get her gravid however, and while she despised that little resort she knew it'd be the best place to find somebody with good genes to add to her bloodline. It'd be almost poetic, wouldn't it? The very fruits of that degenerate little island, resulting in its inevitable downfall at the paws of her very own offspring. The very thought of it warmed her heart. All she had to do was go in, find a suitable horny idiot, get knocked up, and the rest would solve itself with her oh so subtle guidance. She certainly had enough control over her urges to not fall into the utter depravity that was High Tail Hall, back straight and nose turned up high. She almost took pleasure in turning down the over eager islanders.

Then she met you.

What was once a condescending, up-tight politician who preached that rampant lewdness was a danger to society, had her icy exterior melt away to reveal the lusty whore beneath the surface after one evening with you. At first she'd barely even look at you past that upturned snout of hers, now she can't keep her hands off you if she tried. A dry wit once used to admonish and degrade those she considered degenerate was now turned to getting your pants off as fast as possible, her charisma enough to build an entire political party used to turn those who once followed her prudish ways into open-minded and lustful people.

No longer the repressed and prudish, she'll start to wear less and less, showing off more and more fur with an almost voracious freedom in her willingness to embrace her body. Her tall, curvaceous form that was once hidden behind those stuffy suits that covered far too much is that of a true bombshell finally exploding out of her shell. Where once she was ashamed of her big fat kitty titties, now she can't imagine not feeling the wind against the fur of her breasts.

Drawbacks

Every Pit Stop's a Party 0- Did you think High Tail Hall was the only place like it? Did you want to visit some of the other places out there? Well, with this toggle you can now visit other settings in the same vein as this one, like Tail Underground, Bad Dog Animation's The Penthouse, Palmarianfire's No Vacancy, and more! Best of all, you can merge them into this jump, since them existing in the same universe is honestly not that hard to believe.

Free Version 100- Seems like somebody didn't pay for that Gold Room Access. For your entire stay a lot of content will be locked away for you. The Gold Room will be out of your reach, and many ladies won't give you the time of day, or at least not the type of day you truly wanted.

Missionary Not Included 100- Guess creativity isn't exactly on the menu this time around, huh? For your entire stay, everyone has an incredibly limited amount of positions they can perform when it comes to sex, and only you seem to notice this. Want to push that foxy lady against the wall and go wild on her? Sorry, she can only do Missionary and Oral. How about that Zebra? Nope, doggystyle and oral only. You won't even be able to suggest an alternative, you'll just end up in one of the available positions without fail!

Burned A Hole In Your Pocket 200- You might have to hold off on buying any of these beautiful ladies some drinks, because your pockets are about as empty as your wallet, which is also empty. You're also gonna have a lot of trouble holding onto the money that you earn while you're here. Sorry.

No Pay, No Say 200- You don't seem to have a voice anymore, almost like you weren't voice acted. You can still technically speak, but not being able to hear your own voice when you talk is going to be hard to not notice.

Coming Soon 200- You don't really feel motivated to finish what you start anymore. Prepare to leave a lot of things unfinished.

Coming Later 300- Is it just you, or does everything feel… Incomplete? Well that's because they are, and will remain that way for your entire stay. Everywhere you visit you will always find something you'd be incredibly interested in, only to find that it is currently under construction, most likely indefinitely.

Flash Player 300- Seems a little jank here doesn't it? Similar to some flash games of old, every once in a while things just feel a little off, like something wasn't animated right. Maybe the frame rate is jittery, or hands look weird, or maybe movements look weirdly stiff. Either way, you'll notice, and you'll be the only one who does.

A Party Of Some 300- Where the heck is everybody? Seems like there aren't that many people here, every single party has like two or three people, tops. Might want to see if you can fill these rooms up somehow.

Scenario

World Tour(Requires Every Pit Stop's A Party): Of course, High Tail Hall isn't the only place with horny men and women looking for a good fuck. From the highest heights to the backest of back roads, there's many similar establishments just waiting to be discovered, and a certain somebody wants to get a taste of as many of these places as possible. Of course, this somebody doesn't just want to fuck, though that is a major plus for them, they want to make a Documentary.

There's beauty hidden all over the world and they want to show it off for the world to see! However, getting somebody to watch a documentary about sexy people fucking, while it sounds easy, isn't as simple as one would think. So, while they were prowling around at High Tail Hall for ideas, they spotted you, and with that came INSPIRATION! People love game shows and reality TV, or at least that's what the ratings say. So, why not turn this supposedly thought provoking documentary into an entertaining show?

The way it was described to you was simple, after getting a favor or two from Zig Zag herself, they'd have a camera crew dedicated to following you around the world for eighty days! The two of you would be rivals, both of you attempting to have sex with more people in total than the other, in numerous beautiful locations. From the oceans, the open road, to even space, you'll be fucking your way through as many beautiful people as you can find, all recorded for an audience of course! Your rival is none other than the one who suggested this idea to you over a drink and a nice meal, the specifics of what they look like being left up to you, though they will certainly be whatever you'd find attractive. Why? Well nobody said the two contestants couldn't fuck each other! It also makes good TV.

They'll be just as good as you at getting people into bed with them as you are, with their final tally being at least 100 partners at the end of this challenge. If you can surpass at least 100 partners before the season is over you win, as you will have beaten your rival handily. Your reward? Well, here it's a million dollars and the ability to watch an entertaining show of your sexy shenanigans with your new equally sexy rival/friend, but in terms of the chain itself you'll be handsomely rewarded.

First reward, you now have a perk that guarantees the existence of High Tail Hall style establishments in every setting. Take a road trip and every pitstop on the road is a den of sexy people desiring a sexy time. A motel will have a sexy receptionist and sexy tenants ready for steamy nights of passion, a hotel will have complimentary lube and sex toys with their beautiful room service, you'll never find yourself wanting for such places no matter where you go.

The second reward, your very own TV Channel, with no censorship of any kind and a mainstream appeal that cannot be denied. Not only will reruns of your World Tour be aired many times due to its inevitable massive popularity, you can have many more seasons of this show put together for everyone to see, and some to participate in! This isn't just limited to this show either, your new companion certainly has a knack for lewd TV programs, and if you desire something different they can put it together in a flash. Want sex wrestling on national TV? Boom, you've got it. Want a game show that makes contestants have mind shattering orgasms when they get a question wrong? No problem.

And last but not least, free transportation to any lewd establishment forever! That nice little deli with that cute fuckable panda waitress? Don't worry about gas, you won't even burn any getting there. That bar downtown with those high tech glory holes? Bus fare costs nothing. The cruise ship that might as well have been an orgy on the waves? Completely free.

The End

Go Home: Ah, you want to go home? I'm sure the people here will miss you, but hey, maybe you want to bring the fun home with you! Wouldn't blame ya!

Stay: Ah, you want to stick around? I don't blame you, this place does make a nice place to settle down.

Move On: More adventure? Sounds like a good time!

Notes

- There's a few overlapping perks. Gonna have to troubleshoot that later, but right now getting it mostly complete and jumpable is the priority.
- Any entries with [ ] on them are definitely not final, and mostly there to help me come up with ideas to fix it later.
