Starting locations

Eggmilf Empire
The personal domain of the mad doctor Ivy 'Eggmilf' Robotnik. A human woman who's dedicated her life to conquering the world and robotizing its populace into her own army of semi-sentient sex toys. With a large army of mechanical soldiers known as the baddicks she's got the muscle she needs to win. The only thing standing in her way is the Freedom Fighters, C.U.M and her embarrassed cousin Eggman. It's a dangerous place to be without reason, the industrialised regions are effectively under martial law, intruding on the lands of the good Doctor without reason is a quick way to get robotized and turned into a vibrator for the empire's cruel mistress.

Knothole Village
The hippy-like free love mobian society, Knothole is a refugee camp turned village populated by those who fled the Robotnik family's empires. Completely open on the sexual front the knotholers will often spend each night with a different partner with few exceptions. Perfect for those who want a no strings fuck followed by a nice stroll in the woods.

Central City
Capital of the United Federation Central City is a huge population and economic centre. The nightlife of this urban hive is truly amazing. Night clubs and bars stay open for long hours and the customers party for even longer. The sex culture of the Federation is fairly open, with most kinks and tastes being generally accepted assuming they aren't too extreme.

Age & Sex

Any age between 18 and 60

Male/female/futa

Origins

Human
While not the primary race on mobius the humans are by far still the most advanced. Enjoy the wide arrange of mechanical sex toys reverse engineered from Eggman tech, plus compared to a mobian (who will most likely be half your size) you're gonna be HUGE down there.

Mobian
The generic furry option. You are one of the many anthro animal people who inhabit this world. While not as big or advanced as humans you make up for it with greater adaptability and unique abilities that your biology has granted you. Expect an exotic array of cocks and pussies to choose from.

Mad scientist
You are a jumper of vision, genius! And you're hot as well. But why can't everyone else see that? Guess you'll just have to make them. You are an evil genius akin to Eggman or his cousin Eggmilf with dreams of your own empire and theme park capital. With enough of your exceptional intellect and a little charisma you could surpass both of them and become the new ruler of Mobius.

Companions

You want some friends to bring along eh? Sure let's make it a threesome, or eightsome if you want. Each companion costs 50cp and gets a personal budget of 800cp.

50cp/400cp Export
You all came here for Rouge didn't you? Not to worry you can have her, Vanilla as well.

100cp Echidna Milf
One of the last female echidnas, this voluptuous woman has had a few children in her time. But with her race dwindling she's looking to you to provide her with more offspring in hope of saving her race. She's not just great in bed but she's got a natural mothering attitude, she doesn't mind doing the cooking or cleaning as long as you continue to pump one baby after another into her still fertile womb.

100cp The Ultimate Waifu
Created by Dr Robotnik on Space Colony Ark she was meant to be Shadow's mate but due to G.U.N interference the two were separated. After a string of events she's chosen you over Shadow (he doesn't really mind, he sees her as his sister so treat her well) naturally superior to most other lifeforms expect her to have a bit of an ego as well as a sexually dominant attitude. But regardless of her own ego she loves you dearly and would fuck up (literally if you want her to) anyone who messes with you.

100cp C.U.M agent
An eager young C.U.M agent fresh from the academy. She's trained not only in infiltration but also seduction and sexual proclivity. Lucky you jumper that she sees you and your extra dimensional nature as her ticket to the top of C.U.M's pecking order. She's perfectly willing to go along with whatever you're into but will assert herself when her interests and yours clash. Over time she'll start to fall genuinely in love with you if you treat her right, once that's done expect a loving and hard working relationship not just as lovers but partners in your future affairs.

200cp Dr Ivy Robotnik
Eggman's sexy cousin, Ivy shares both her cousin's genius and his ego. For nearly as long she's been trying to take over the world. But unlike Eggman she's fit as fuck! While she's still set on her plan to conquer this world she's more than happy to come with you and take over every world the two of you come across. Expect her to use a lot of toys.

200cp Crimson the Bat
Rouge's foxy mama.

Looking near identical to her daughter but curvier, Crimson is every sugar baby's dream. With a love for younger partners expect Crimson to spoil you sexually in exchange for your time.

She may or may not insist on you calling her Mommy.

200cp Vanilla ‘extra cream’ the Rabbit
While you can have her via the export feature, I promise paying the price will be worth it. This is the version of Vanilla from all the nsfw media you’ve seen.

By day she’s a kind and caring motherly figure to all she meets. By night she’s a S&M loving, high speed humping tall glass of bunny lovin. Hope you didn’t enjoy sleeping because she’s going to want it in the evening, noon and night. You lucky bastard.

100cp Horus the Horse
Freedom Fighter from the get go, Horus is an athletic horse-like mobian. With all that entails he is hung (like a horse) and willing to rut at a drop of a hat.

Outside of sex Horus is a fun loving young man who can fit into most social situations without trouble, being popular wherever he goes.

But that might have something to do with the eighteen inch monster in his pants.

200cp the Iron Lord
Eggboss of the Iron DOMinion, this tall, muscular bull-like mobian is a master of sexual combat, taking the dominant role in bed. But while he enjoys taking the lead he’s loyal to those he considers and equal and makes for a powerful ally.

Drawbacks

+0cp Grow Up
What do you mean most of the characters are 16!? We can’t have that, this is a Christian NSFW Jump. You can toggle the age of characters to make them of legal age. You’re welcome.

+0cp Supplement Mode
You can add this onto another Sonic jump to make it sexier.

+100cp Hair Trigger
You are a very sensitive Jumper. Not emotionally, your sexual organs are simply very easy to set off. You will climax very easily, this can be very embarrassing when you try to please your partner.

+200cp Hole in the Wall
You have a bad habit of getting stuck in a hole in the wall. This will rather result in getting raped if it was unintentional or being pulled out when you get stuck on purpose.

+200cp Canon Accurate Proportions
Oh you poor thing. You've got normal, Sonic canon body proportions. That means you'll be considered small in basically every sexual way. It won't make you unattractive, it'll just make you the least hot person in the room.

+400cp Werejumper
You are cursed Jumper. You will become a Were-whatever your race is when the moon comes up. In this state you will lose all control and become a mindless horny beast until the sun rises.

+600cp Love Potion Disaster
That game was crazy. But it's happened. A pair of scientists have created a love potion that has gone haywire. It's created a pink cloud covering the planet driving every lifeform mad with lust. To make a bad situation worse they don't exactly plan to take no for an answer.

+600cp Revenge of Eggman
Oh shit. Looks like Eggman is pissed that people are using his tech for such perverse things. Within five years he's going to attack every major population center on the planet. He can't be stopped until after the attack begins, millions of egg bots and badniks are going to swarm the planet. I'd get ready to rock because you will end up being affected by the attack regardless of what you do.
