Generic Hentai Occult

On the surface, this place is just your ordinary average world. The birds are singing, flowers are blooming, fat nerds hypnotizing cute chicks…

Okay, maybe not so normal. On first glance it is so, but just underneath that are a number of devices of unusual origin slowly circulating the world. One of these devices is about to fall into your hands, an utter coincidence I'm sure. In addition, there are the last remnants of the fantasy era, the Succubus roaming about, sucking cute boys dry and 'cursing' women to be more interesting.

I'd say something like how you'd need this to survive, but you kind of don't. 'It's dangerous to go alone, take this' doesn't work either. Whatever, just take it and go.

Age

Your age is somewhat variable, though I would put 15 or 16 as the lowest, probably belonging to the loner origin. The two conspiracy origins should be 20-40, and 'monster' should either be way older because nonhuman aging, or back down with loner.

Gender

Loner receives a free swap to male, and 'monster' a free swap to female. Otherwise, stay whatever you were last jump, or pay 50 cp for free choice.

Location

Given that you might end up taking this place over, this is a very important choice. Japan is traditional as the most perverted country, but if you'd rather be neighbors with a bunch of Californian beach bunnies, or French fashion models, that's up to you.

Origins

Loner (Drop In)
Whatever powers you have found, they came to you via sheer luck and chance. If you wish to conquer the world in the name of your dick, you will need to do so on your own. Of course, a lack of allies can be solved via gratuitous mind control, so it's not a real problem right?

'Good' Conspiracy
You possess the backing on a shadowy group with no name and only a rumoured existence. Their task for you is to run damage control on the supernatural world, and prevent an upheaval in the current world order.

'Bad' Conspiracy
Let the do gooders run around playing catch up with minor talents, you have an empire to run. From the shadows of course, stepping into the limelight isn't really your style. Sometimes a firm nudge is all you need to shape an opinion - and a liberal dose of mind control never hurts.

'Monster'
I did say the world was halfway between the olden days and the days yet to come, did I not? Does it surprise you to know that some creatures survived? You are now one of them - a succubus or incubus, most likely, or possibly a half succubus/incubus half something else.

Perks

Loner

100 cp - As Luck Would Have It
People don't seem to see you as much of a threat, at least not until it's a bit too late. You've a knack for making people underestimate you, for playing the fool and the moron. And also for figuring out that patterns they live by, and cornering them in a dark alley to extract revenge. Hitting them where it hurts, as it were.

200 cp - He Must Have Some Redeeming Qualities
The fat and ugly guy with a beautiful woman on each arm'? How is that possible? Blackmail? Rape, drugs, threats? It's gotta be something like that, right? Well, people are going to ignore that for you. Even if they absolutely know that the woman flirting with you hated your guts yesterday, they won't assume the worst of you. Then again, most people wouldn't think 'mind control', they'd either go for 'he must be a decent person underneath' or 'blackmail'.

400 cp - There Is No Out
All of the best toys in this world seem to not have any limits beyond imagination - something that most people both do and do not have a whole lot of. Sadly, you don't have any of these. However, the ones you do have are now impossible to use by other people. No need to fear some meddling kids and their dog ruining your day, or your slave accidentally upsetting the new world order. Better still, someone with a device of their own will be unable to countermand your orders. Creative use could subvert it partially, but not entirely. Even if your device was destroyed.

600 cp - 'God'
You found an old abandoned idol one day and decided to pray to it for vengeance against all those who wronged you before. Somehow, it answered! The rapetech devices you posses are now heavily bolstered in strength. Something that only worked for a few hours a day now works all day, and something that capped out at a dozen people now manages to do a hundred. Time limits and range are similarly expanded. The only condition to this power? Your new gods command, 'go forth and fuck bitches'. The more you do so, the closer to 'full power' you'll reach, but if you stop or take a break it will start to fall again. Oh, and this applies to everything - looks, charisma, other mind control powers, your skill at sex, that kind of stuff.

‘Good’ Conspiracy

100 cp - Pattern Recognition
Have you ever noticed someone squeak in the middle of saying something? How about get feverish all of the sudden? Or get very nervous for no reason at all? This might be a sign that they actually have a vibrator up their ass, and that it just turned on. Or mind controled or something. Anyways, noticing these signs is the first step to either fixing them, or blackmailing them yourself, which is why you’re very good at noticing them.

200 cp - Mutual Itch Scratching.
Sometimes, you need to bypass certain policies, restrictions, or traditions. In the name of… Something presumably important, I can’t be bothered to make up a bullshit excuse for you. Anyways, people are now just a tiny bit less moral, and thus more likely to let you bypass these things. You just need to give them something in return, be it a bribe, a fake passport, or a really good dicking.

400 cp - Man Of Mystery
Don’t you know that that women just love a man of mystery? Well, you certainly are one. Simply put, you can, at any time, erase, remove, or otherwise hide any recorded information about yourself that currently exists. Security camera? Freak accident in power fluctuation erased it right before it was accessed. Yes, ‘accident’... And, as I said, women love a man of mystery. Not good for lasting relationships, but the less they know about you, the sexier you seem to them.

600 cp - Spoils Of War
Maybe you work for a shadowy conspiracy, working to remove some of the more disruptive influence from society. Maybe you work for a shadow conspiracy, working to remove anyone disruptive to their plans for society. Doesn’t really matter. Whenever you do ‘deal’ with someone, you can take something of theirs for yourself. Just think of all those neat toys that are being removed from untrustworthy hands… and then try not to become untrustworthy yourself. Oh, and the more final the ‘dealing with’ the better. After all, if you claim his life, you might as well claim his life. After all, his - I mean, your - wife is quite the looker.

'Evil' Conspiracy

100 cp - Respectable Authority Figure
First impressions are important - if they catch you perving on them, they'll hate you forever! Or at least until you get your fingers in their brain, but it'll probably take longer than it ought. You now have a fake personality that you can slip in and out of with ease. Fake you might be a polite, kind, and slightly clumsy person - it's not until you take your glasses off and slick back your hair that your raging perversion comes to the front.

200 cp - Welcome!
I do hope you enjoy your stay, and don't forget to check out the various... Services, we offer. Sometimes, when you're planning to corrupt the world, you need to lie. Or merely mislead, depending on how far down the rabbit hole you've drawn them. Regardless, you are now excellent at misdirection, euphemisms, innuendo, and flat out lying without losing your cool. Yes, this school has one of the highest overall grades per student - but what you don't tell them is that you don't grade them on math, but their sexual ability.

400 cp - Light Touch
You could modify a person into believing whatever you want, warp their body to fit your tastes... or you could make them change themselves to please you, or to pleasure themselves. You have a knack for the tools and toys that grant you your power, getting larger effects from smaller changes. Why bother dedicating any real effort towards acquiring an asset when you could issue just one or two commands, and set of a chain of dominoes that could save you days or weeks?

600 cp - World Wide Phenomenon
There's something about the way you play with your toys that just seems to get everyone else interested in them. Maybe they want one? Maybe they want to watch, or perhaps they just appreciate your style of life? Regardless, witnesses aren't a problem for you - not that they have a tendency to mysteriously vanish, but that they seem to be more interested in joining than blowing the whistle. Don't worry about showing off in public or people just wandering in, or at least not as long as you give them a little bit of time with your toys.

‘Monster’

100 cp - SHO FLUFFY
In this modern age, there really isn't much room for the truly monstrous beings that used to roam the lands. Only a very small number of monsters remain, mostly those capable of disguising themselves as human. As a result, they've become very good at this - and at portraying themselves in a good light, as compared to the “DEMONS, WE MUST BURN THEM!” response of olden days. Any non human features you let show though are now seen more as interesting, even intoxicating, rather than something to be feared - hell, you could go full monster and as long as you looked and acted non-threatening they'd probably try to cuddle with you.

200 cp - Urban Sex Fantasy
There aren't much in the way of real monsters left in this modern age. Though, Succubi are apparently thriving since the invention of pornography and the internet. As a result, while monsters such as werewolves, vampires, and various kinds of ghosts still exist, they are few and far between and the succubi are at the top of the pile. As a result of them fucking literally everything, you've gained the ability to replace your bodily needs - food, air, sleep, poop, with sex. What's more, due to latent genetics that may or may not exist, you can 'awaken' this ability in others, if you so choose.

400 cp - Sexual Magician
While arts of true power are lost, magic is not entirely gone. You now possess the ability to freely alter your body, within limit. With effort, you can affect others as well, though not as easily. In addition, said modifications need not follow the laws of physics, instead obeying porn logic. To top it off, you know a number of mind altering spells, ranging from 'suddenly very horny' to 'you were always a girl'. As you might imagine, the energy needed to cast these spells can only be obtained from sex.

600 cp - Automagic Charm
The succubus is the only real monster left, at least not beyond specific attempts at breeding. Things like certain vine based plants, or perhaps a werewolf or two. Fun recreational monsters. You however, now have an ability designed for a sexual homunculus. A unique variation of charm magic, written in microrunes across every inch of your skin. Even looking at you qualifies as a mental attack, and one that will probably leave them begging for you to fuck them. The other half is perfect knowledge on how to seduce whoever is affected by this, up to and including the perfect form to shapeshift into if you can do so.

General

100 cp - All Day Every Day
Don't you ever get bored of this? Once you've modeled the world to your liking, all the uniqueness will be gone. Hearing 'Would you like your morning blowjob master?' might get you hard the first few (dozen) times, but eventually even women screaming your praise as they faint from overstimulation must get old. You did kinda drain the originality out of them you know? ...No? Well, I guess it's just me then. Have fun with your slaves.

100 cp - Automatic Dictation
So, here's the thing. While each rapetech device is unique in it's own way, and often simply bypasses anything that should have stopped it, they tend to be physical objects. And therefore, they can be stolen. However, with this, should you buy a rapetech item, you can treat it as a 'power', rather than a 'item'. Something internalized, no longer dependant on having the item itself on you, or one being able to avoid notice while you fiddle with it. You can have a funky eye symbol if you want. Can be purchased multiple times, with the second, third, etc, costing 50 cp.

100 cp - Monthly Allowance
Whether it's from the state, your parents, a scholarship, or the lottery, you now have a monthly allowance of $5000, or the equivalent of a nice if small apartment, and then a bit of spending money on top. Not a great deal, but enough. However, if that isn't enough, you can add an extra digit onto that for 50 cp a shot.

200 cp - Broken, Yet Not
Sometimes you need to just make a few light changes, maybe reorder their priorities. But, most of the time that won't happen - your dick will get the better of you and you'll utterly break your new toy. And all the useful skills they had in their pretty little head will go down the drain. Thankfully, you don't have that problem. Your toys will bounce back somewhat from what you do to them. Slavish devotion will remain, but they could at least pretend to be normal, and would be able to spend just under a week without the D without collapsing into an undersexed wreck.

200 cp - Healthy Living
Whether you be a fat slob or a weak ass nerd, you'd think that your lack of physical fitness would impact your ability to fuck, making you a one pump chump or something. But, instead you're the exact opposite. Regardless of your actual condition, you have the appetite and stamina to go for days without end. Refractory period? What's that?

Items

Loner

100 cp - Spy Gear
Binoculars, a few cameras and recording devices, a hand drill, almost anything and not quite everything you would need to spy on the locals sights. Or, in other words, a make your own blackmail kit. Not guaranteed to actually work long term, but more than enough to force an opening if your method of control requires it. Or just something to keep you company on lonely nights, or to sell online. Up to you really.

200 cp - Haunted Television
You found this old thing at a garage sale after your old one broke. It belonged to an some highschool girl who was tragically hit by a bus. It's also haunted by the ghost of said girl. Any women who watches this television is cursed with her dying wish - not dying a virgin. As a result, they'll slowly start trying to get in your pants over the next hour or so. In addition, she can optionally strip the clothes off any character on the screen.

400 cp - Black Ooze
Did you make a deal with a 'God'? No? Then perhaps you'd like to make one with this 'demon'? This black ooze is barely alive and somehow entirely yours. It feeds by reaching inside a person and sucking them out, leaving only their skin. Speaking of, you can now slip inside of said skin, and wear them to steal their life. You can of course refill them with the ooze, but their personality will more or less be gone. You'll have to rewrite them from the ground up.

600 cp - Lust Virus
A set of three vials with light pink liquid inside. The first is a general purpose lust enhancer. Takes a few hours to incubate, easily transferred, and will leave even the most prudish with a not so easily ignored urge to have some sex at least once or twice a day. The second is similar, but even more so. It's faster, stronger, and even more easily transferable. It's only weakness is that it dies of after 72 hours - plenty of time to start a city wide orgy. The third is more like the first, but is also a zombie virus. It will remove any human limitations, such as the need for food, sleep, and how much cum you can produce. It's also even more contagious. There's also a fourth vial of white liquid, acting as a nullifier for the spread, but not the other effects if you ever need it. They refill on the hour every hour.

‘Good’ Conspiracy

100 cp - Hotel Reservations
You posses a rather simple room, on par with a decent sized hotel room. This room, while not capable of being renovated in size, is now connected to any place you might go. Stay in a hotel, the room is now your hotel room. A friends house? Even a back alley will do. Think of it as a second warehouse, devoted solely to being comfy. Granted, it’s much smaller. Self cleaning, obviously. No stains!

200 cp - Changelog
With the right techniques, it’s possible to resist the warping effect common to this world. This is not one of those ways. Instead, it merely tracks them. Any reality warping effect on the planet will be recorded, as well as fragmented information on who and where. You’ll fix the world, right? It’s not like you would ever have a use for it otherwise...

400 cp - Safe Room
A utterly massive and dusty warehouse, out in the middle of nowhere. Inside is rows upon rows of shelves, and little more. Side rooms have various forms of packing materials, and there are a few bland bedrooms near the front, but otherwise? Empty. However, this place is unique in one respect - even if specifically targeted by effects that would leave the world a very different place, this place will resist them, and it’s occupants as well to a lesser degree.

600 cp - Reset to Factory Default
A big red button that acts as a cosmic reset switch for the magical and technological alterations to the world. Obtaining the device that was used and bringing it into proximity to the switch will allow you erase both the changes and any memory of them - and if you wish, the user in extreme cases. However, this can be selective if you wish, and a minor alteration to the physique could be left intact.

‘Bad’ Conspiracy

100 cp - Censored Faces
Not quite a council of evil, but this list of contact information will allow you to get in touch with a number of people. They have excellent resources, many contacts of their own, and will pay through the metaphorical nose to have you liven up their lives with female flesh. Your ability to receive is limited by your ability to give of course, though their level of pickiness will losely scale to how widespread you've managed to make your operation.

200 cp - Marketing Campaign
You must be out of your mind. You go through all this trouble to set up a handful of women as your sex slaves... and then you whore them out? Are you nuts? They're yours, not anybody else's. Or perhaps you got bored of them, or they were spares? Regardless, you now have a mystical 'can't be found twice' website or app with which to spread the word of the things you're about to sell. Who's looking for a good time?

400 cp - Slut Sorting Algorithm
Most people will tell you that people cannot be reduced down to numbers. Most companies will try anyways, in an ever escalating and privacy invading attempt to sell you things. You, along with the council of censored faces, have pooled resource to put this together. A computer program that finds the women out there in the world who just need the tiniest push to dedicate their lives to lust. It also records the patterns of what does and doesn't work to make them fall, and will slowly learn to advise you on the process.

600 cp - Land Of Women
I'm not sure how many strings you pulled in order to get this place, or how you kept it a secret, or how you kept the locals from noticing, but you've somehow gotten your hands on an entire island - and by no means is it a small one. Due to a number of subtle manipulations, the natural perversion of the locals is through the roof, with appearances to match. Of course, they're entirely unaware of this. Sadly the men here aren't anything worth mentioning - wimps, every last one. In theory you could walk into homes and fuck every last woman here and have them beg for more - actually, I dare you to try.

‘Monster’

100 cp - String Bikini
You’ll notice that most depictions of succubus are not… well dressed. Or rather, dressed. Whether that would qualify as clothing depends on who you ask. Regardless, you now possess enough ‘clothing’ to never wear the same outfit twice for the entire ten years. On the other hand, you may occasionally find ‘ironic’ outfits in here, like a nuns habit.

200 cp - Succubus Inc
While going out and about to hunt down and suck dry some lucky virgin may be way more fun than waiting about as you leech off ambient lust, sometimes you just can't do that. Cameras, security, cellphones, police investigations... It's gotten more difficult. That’s why you've refined that ambient lust. You now own a lustful enterprise of some sort. Maybe an escort service populated by succubi, maybe a porn studio with succubi actors, maybe they're all artists and make hentai. Regardless, by allowing others more information in the form of 'art', you can aim the lust they generate at you, even if they're half the world away. If you aren't willing to share, there's always the money this is sure to produce.

400 cp - Daemon Demon
The advent of the internet, as I may have mentioned, was a miracle for succubus. However, it proved to both be not enough, and quite inspiring. Thus, the Daemon Disks, a cross between magic and technology. Attempting to use the disk would result in bad data, all static and flashes of images. However, once a certain point was reached, the user would turn into a succubus. You now possess a customized version of this, containing one of your previous altforms. However, due to the fact that this is a succubus invention and a porn jump, the race is highly sexualized, requiring a certain amount of sex to maintain the majority of the benefits.

600 cp - Genius Loci
Not so much an item as a physical location, but nevermind that. You now possess a single location where your will is… Not quite absolute, but they’d have to be hundreds of times more powerful to ignore it. Simply put, you can set rules for this area. No clothes, complimentary blowjobs, free groping, that kind of stuff. As a succubus, it should be fairly easy to set up the rules, but if you were to possess some sort of artifact with mind powers… Well, you’d have even more freedom to play with people. Comes with a nice mansion by default, but you can connect it to another property if you like.

Rapetech

All origins receive a 300 cp stipend to be used in this section only.
For a 50 cp surcharge per Rapetech Item (including some Origin Items), you may fuse them into one item with the powers of both to create a new Rapetech Item.

100 cp - X-ray Glasses
The simplest of occult rapetech, a pair of glasses that lets you see through things. Clothes being the primary thing, obviously. You can set it to 'off', 'underwear', or 'nude', and it also comes with a gender/age filter. Just try not to giggle perversely and get a boner, or everyone will stare at you weirdly. Can also be turned into a camera filter.

100 cp - Stripped Down Master PC
And when I say 'stripped down', I mean it. This thing has basically no functions. In fact, it only has one, the targeting program. Merely type in a name, and maybe some extra info in the case of people with the same name (surprisingly common) and it will spit out a 3d model of your naked target. It will also list out various physical characteristics, geographical coordinates, and even what they happen to be doing at the time.

100 cp - Service With A Smile
This one can come in a few different forms, from a camera mod to a series of stickers. Maybe a phone that 'curses' anyone you call. Anyways, what this does is convince the target they now have to have sex with you. For example, a fake memory about a dare and a 'dating' site. Either way, tag them with the item and they'll arrange to sleep with you. You can only do someone once a week though, that's pretty much the only downside.

100 cp - Queen of Hearts Cards
A mostly ordinary deck of playing cards, though the queen's are the only thing special about it. Specifically, if you pass three of the queen cards out to women, and sleep with the holder of the fourth, all four women will undergo the same things, all the way up to getting pregnant. To 'activate' a card, just get the intended women to touch it. As long as no other women touch it, it stays tuned to them. If you really wanted to be mean, you could tie three to one woman to utterly wreck her.

200/300 cp - Super Satan Bros
Like something straight out of a mario game - or a porn artists rendition of it at least. You don't just have the all around improving Super Mushroom, you have the BDSM based Domshroom and Subshroom, the cow themed Moo-Mooshroom, the robotic Mechashroom, the strength increasing Snu-Snushroom, the shrinking Minishroom, and even the dick granting Cockshroom. And then you have the slightly more odd things, such as the lust increasing Bimbo Flower and the naughty Witch Apple. For an extra 100 cp, you have even more. A bottle of breastmilk creating Booboom Milk, the nectar of shapely legs, the Thicc Shake, the animal girl creating Zoo Amulet, the slick and slimy Slime Potion, and the personality reversing Inverse Mirror. All of these last a good long while, or can be cancelled out on a whim.

200/300 cp - Magic Cock Ring
A small rubber ring, a few inches in diameter. Placing it around your cock - or over your vagina - will cause a small portal to open up. The other end can be placed anywhere you can see, from three feet away to live television. Who says long distance relationships can't work? In addition, there is a small SEP field - the portal and dick/vagina is completely ignored. The closest you'll get to them paying attention to it is a bit of repositioning into a sexy position if they were to sit on it. For an extra 100 cp however, they will unconsciously and actively fuck themselves with it. They won't ignore your reactions though.

200/300 cp - Fetish Idol
A small statuette depicting a young woman in a provocative pose. Quite possibly cursed by ancient powers, damned beyond imagination… Or maybe a prank from a bored succubus. Either way, leaving it near someone - no more than fifty feet - will slowly warp their mind to, let's say 'appreciate' whatever fetish you choose to imprint onto the statue. If applicable, it will also warp the body - Using MILFs as an example, a young girl and a teenager might be unaffected, but a elderly woman or a mother would begin to become… more like a 'prime' example of the desired form. For an additional 100 cp, you can get up to a dozen idols, either of the same kind to speed up the process, or different kinds for more variety.

300 cp - Trading Cards
A blank set of playing cards containing a mystical power - the ability to trade. Each card can be imbued with a trait, physical, mental, or spiritual, which can then be traded with another card containing the same kind of trait. Breast or dick sizes, or a specific kind of fetish for example. Traits cards do not have to be willingly created, but they do have to be traded semi equally - you can't simply take a card, but you could win it in a fair contest. Strip poker anyone?

300 cp - Real Life Dating Sim
A computer game that uses a mockup of your house, neighborhood, and even city as the focus. The PC (you) can rack up flags and rare items in game, at which point you can transfer said items into real life. This even includes the people in the game. Your cranky neighbor might have a hot daughter in game, or she could be one hell of a milf. Either way, after 'sleeping' with one of them in the game, you can apply the changes in the game to real life. Or you could instead focus on someone who does exist, and spontaneously NTR them by exporting all your relationship gains. You can only make one major change per week though.

300 cp - Watch Of Unflowing Time
A pocket watch with an unmarked button on the side. Clicking it will freeze time until it's clicked again. The watch will slowly recharge at half speed, two minutes real time for one minute frozen. If it reaches over 24 hours of use, it will be rendered inert until fully recharged. People nearby you will be relatively poseable, like a giant action figure, whereas someone a mile away or more would be utterly inflexible. As a downside, the watch is fragile. Any form of time manipulation by an outside party will break its effect and render the watch temporarily inert for 24 hours.

300 cp - VIP Menu
The VIP Menu is almost what you might expect a menu of things to buy, not offered to the ‘normal’ people. To use it, merely open it up and it will list a number of the nearby women alongside a number of rather high prices. In effect, you can force them to prostitute themselves to you. Price mostly depends on desirability, a virgin is more expensive than someone who’s not, a married woman is more expensive than someone looking for a partner, and an obvious beauty is more expensive than someone plain. The menu eats the money after you make your selections - or drains it from your bank account - and the woman makes herself available to you for whatever act or acts you paid for.

400 cp - Sweet Shop
Lollipop lollipop, Oh lolli lolli lolli, lollipop, lollipop - or, if you prefer, 'lolipop'. You now own a small sweet shop, in which all the candies are named after sex puns, such as the lolipop i just mentioned. It's also a magic candy shop, so eating the candy makes the pun come true. Lolipop decreases your cup size, devil food cakes makes you saucy and flirtatious, lemon suckers cause obsessions with blow jobs, and french vanilla ice cream spontaneously generates a maid costume.. These all wear off after a few hours, and the memories will mostly fade away. The exact stock changes often - maybe even by the time you’ve turned around, but if you can make a pun about it, it’s here.

400 cp - Gatcha System
A lovely little phone app that contains a number of nearby women as characters in a game. As a student or teacher, it would likely contain others from your school. As an adult, your place of work. Regardless, every day you will receive a character card, or a random effect to apply to your characters. Effects are far more common that characters, so customization is fairly easy, but obtaining one specific girl might take some time.

400 cp - Bystander Effect
Somehow you’ve acquired a trinket or token of some sort that allows you to give yourself a form of invisibility. Not that you are invisible, but merely that no one will give you a second thought - whatever your actions, they’re someone else’s problem. This will allow you to molest in public, walk about wearing nothing, or enjoy the fruits of your labor with the other items without reprise. The only downside is that while they won’t punish you for breaking the rules, you’ll lose the benefits of said rules - stay away from crosswalks lest you be ignored while crossing the street.

400 cp - Hypnosis Pendant
A simple chinese 5 yen coin hung on a short length of string. In theory, it does nothing. However, in actuality, it’s part of ‘do it yourself hypnosis kit’! So, wave it in front of someone's face, and their thought process will grind to a halt, allowing you to take control of their actions. If you like, you can leave things in their subconscious mind. However, you do have to pay some lip service to the whole ‘can’t make them do things they don’t want’ bit, so unless you want a dead fish, you’ll need to be creative.

400 cp - Do It Yourself Kit

All these mysterious apps, these old books and new pamphlets, all these items of power. Did you ever wonder where they were coming from? Well, the answer is now you. This box is nothing more than a mishmash of magic, science, and troll logic, but the things contained within hold potential. Instructions for certain chemical formulas, a subliminal messaging program, rituals on binding spirits to objects or borrowing power from a devil. However, this is more akin to research notes than instructions, and more a box of parts than a useable item. A significant investment of time, effort, money, and probably your own blood and tears will be necessary, but in theory you could make almost anything. A sign that forbids clothes, a dating site that encourages gangbangs, a restaurant menu that offers blowjobs, all you need is time and effort.

400 cp - Governmental Oversight

Normally you'd be thinking 'they'll try to regulate me', or something about paperwork. However, that's almost the exact opposite of what this is. Instead of being beholden to the law, the law is now beholden to you. Well, sort of. On its own, this does very little, just provide you with a political position of some power. However, it's true power shines when combined with the other rapetech items. The Fetish Idols would become a major religion, the Trading Cards could be taxed, and the Sweet Shop and Super Satan Bros could become a major part of a nations diet. Maybe the X Ray Glasses could be used to alter the entire worlds dress code, or Real Life Dating Sim could make you the new hire of a breeding program? Simply put, your item has become a fact of life. Enjoy.

Companions

100 cp - Fellow ‘King’
Perchance, did you receive more than one device? Perhaps an old friend of yours got one too, and you’ll conquer the world together. Regardless, you may import one of your fellow companions into this world with 500 cp for perks and items. The only thing they can’t buy is the 400 and 500 tiers of Rapetech. You may import a maximum of four companions with this.

100 cp - First Girl Wins (Discount ‘Loner’)
You know the Rapetech item you bought? Well, you weren’t the first person to use it. See, you have a bit of a stalker. Or maybe she’s just too shy to confess? Either way, she got her hands on your device before you could actually use it, and gave herself a few improvements, and then managed to finagle it so that you’d end up with an overwhelming desire to fuck her senseless on a regular basis. You know what they say about harem anime, first girl always wins.

200 cp - Virgin Lolicubus (Discount ‘Loner’)
A young succubus sent out into the world to fuck her first human! That said, she’s so young she doesn’t even have the bust and butt that succubus are famous for - she’s flat as a board! On top of that, she’s decided your video game collection is more interesting than sex - maybe the sent her out a bit too soon? - and refuses to actually have sex with you. On the other hand, bear with her freeloading for a year, and her sisters will send you a collar that forces her to do what you tell her too, so have fun with that!

100 cp - Coffee, Tea, Or Me? (Discount ‘Good’ Conspiracy)
Somewhere along the line this woman had probably been someone’s mother or sister. Unfortunately, someone decided that they had a ‘job’ opening, and she was perfect for it. As a result, this maid is hilariously competent at basically anything maid-like. From cleaning and cooking to minor repair work… and yes, sex. Whoever did this to her actually managed to hit her fetish dead on, so even after being deprogrammed she still struts about and ‘accidentally’ does things that make you want to bend her over.

200 cp - Childhood Friend (Discount ‘Good’ Conspiracy)
This young and mysterious beauty just showed up in your life one day and seems to be refusing to leave… and also really wants you to fuck her. As it turns out (Later. Like, way later.) she’s actually your childhood friend in disguise. I’d call her a magical girl, but that implies things like a pure heart/soul, and she really doesn’t have them. Anyways, she’s gotten her hands on a number of minor rapetech things, and, as I said before, really wants you to fuck her.

100 cp - Rich Bitch (Discount ‘Bad’ Conspiracy)
Now, what does every up and coming ‘economic titan’ need? Well, start up capital. But sometimes, taking over a company is easier than building your own. Thankfully, you’ve ‘convinced’ this young woman that she wants to spend the rest of her life with you. Not only is the sex great, but her family is… Influential, and you can use that. Need a high paying job? How about a sports car? Oh, a maid! Don’t worry, your darling fiance will weasel a few more dollars out of daddy dearest to make it happen.

200 cp - Alternate World Heroine (Discount ‘Bad’ Conspiracy)
A pure and holy princess knight from another world! And, after you and your ‘allies’ got through with her, the perfect whore. She’s capable of beating a grown man half to death despite being a teenager, but has the mannerisms of a high class prostitute. She’s also utterly convinced of the whole ‘women should serve men’ bit of her brainwashing, which makes her innocent charisma perfect for convincing young women to try out ‘new things’. Basically? She can Social-fu damn near anyone into sex.

100 cp - Ninja Clan Defector (Discount ‘Monster’)
The duty of the ninja clans is to prevent the creatures of the night - and their allies, willing or not - from ever taking control. As a result, these ninjas have grown exceedingly good at locating and combating them. Unfortunately, the same techniques that enhance their physical prowess to stand ground against the monsters leaves them weak to the weaponized pleasure a succubus wields. This one is currently stuck in a rather tsundere mindset after escaping before she could be fully broken, only to find herself ‘accidentally’ slipping up and getting caught again for a few rounds before escaping again.

200 cp - The Toymaker (Discount ‘Monster’)
Hey hey, it’s the Virgin Lolicubuss’s older sister! Well, one of them anyways. This one shares her younger sisters disdain for men, mostly because she likes women and toys better. As a result, she’s the one who made the collar designed to control her sister - and with enough time and effort, she can also make these for other people. Or something more normal like her seemingly endless supply of sex toys, regular and ‘custom ordered’.

100 cp - Sex Slave
You used your rapetech device ‘properly’ right? Took control of some nasty bitches, made them pay for being rude to you, and then had some fun with them? Of course, then they weren't really yours anymore. Who likes to share after all? With this option, you can bring along up to ten of your mind controlled sex slaves in one companion slot. You can of course individualize them later, but for now, let’s keep them as a group, yeah? You can buy this a second, third, etc time for 50 cp a pop.

Drawbacks
Max of +600

+100 cp - Dust And Cracks
Now, I know that you're to busy fucking to actually clean your room or do the dishes, but for some reason it would seem things are getting dirtier than they ought. If you aren't actively cleaning or repairing your house, it'll likely collapse on you inside of a year. And that's not to mention that the obvious state of disrepair is ugly to look at. And no, setting a few slaves as maids isn't good enough.

+100 cp - Stomp You Flat
Something about you is eminently bullyable. Whenever you go out in public, some bitch - or bastard, it might change every now and then - will show up to be an ass to you. You know, kick you in the back whilst you leer about, maybe step on a hand or two. This can obviously be solved by fucking with their heads, but doing so will just make their replacement worse.

+100 cp - Nosy Neighbors
People are now hypercompetent when it comes to notice the side effects of your control. Any change in your new girls behavior might tip of their parents/siblings/kids to be suspicious of you (and of a few others, but mostly you). Won't do more than tank your rep again and again, as they're only hyper competent when it comes to noticing, not to actually countering you at all.

+100 cp - You Ugly!
Yeah, you really are. Fat, neckbeard, the works. Basically, the kind of person who is visually unappealing in the extreme, and who no one in their right mind would ever fantasize about. And in case it wasn't obvious, you're stuck like this. No exercise, no weight loss surgery, no alt-forms.

+100 cp - Unfavorite
For some reason, you seem to be having a problem getting it on for the same thing on a regular basis. One day you could cum a dozen times from titfucks, and then a few days later you wouldn't be able to at all. Worse, it also applies to the girls you fuck. After a few days, you won't be able to get off on them again for a while. This tends to reset after a month or so, but it's a pain.

+200 cp - The Witching Hour
You know all those simple to use rapetech devices that are in the item section? You don't get those. Instead, you get things like magic rituals of binding, nanites that slowly alter the body, or a drug cocktail that doesn't kick in for hours. In effect, whatever you could have done in a hour or two now requires all day. The end result is the same, but it takes much much longer now. If you didn't buy any of the general items aka rapetech devices, you can't take this.

+200 cp - Little Richard
You know how sometimes the fat guy in hentai will say stuff like 'I saved up all my sperm for a month' or something? Well that's you now, in a roundabout way. Regardless of getting it hard and actually having sex, you can only come twice a day. Abstinence can get you more at once, but that relies on you having the self control for that.

+200 cp - Baby Maker
You have a minor obsession with pregnancy. I expect that you're going to swear off Lolis in favor of MILFs and the like, and probably leave lots of unsatisfied women with a bun in the oven. No, seriously, the thought of fucking someone and not getting them pregnant is physically painful to you. Hope you don't mind either ruining some lives or spending some time away from milfs in order to set up a fall guy to take care of them. If you're female, expect to get pregnant yourself at least once, and to probably develop a minor obsession with futanari in order to impregnate others.

+300 cp - Demon Hunting Ninja Clan
Somewhere out there is a clan of ninjas, with skills and techniques passed down for generations. They specialize in slaying the monsters of the night, and are one of the main reasons the night is so empty. And they have now noticed something… Off, about you. You might find a transfer student or a new neighbor keeping an unusually close eye one you… And another on THEM. Hope you didn't take 'Nosy Neighbors' because if you did not only are they competent in dealing with you, but also get a boost to finding you.

+300 cp - Antifact
The Anti-Artifact, or Antifact for short. A trinket of some sort that has the ability to allow the wearer to completely ignore external influences. All those mind control powers you now own? They don't work on them. In fact, during the last year of the jump, you'll find it actively nulling yours out. Hope you didn't take 'Demon Hunting Ninja Clan' because if you did the Antifact is possessed by whoever the clan has sent after you .

+400/600 cp - Kings Game
All of the items from the general section, and maybe some you did if you went crazy with the buying, have been cast out into the world. They've also combined somewhat, creating no less than a dozen people with rapetech items equal to or greater than your own, some of whom will have the benefits of 'God'. They are now competing with each other to take over the world, or at least a country or two. You can join in if you want, but your only goal here is to not lose too badly, as you and your new toys would be a very valuable asset to them. For an additional 200 cp, you now have to somehow become the ultimate authority for your home country, defend it against any attempts to control it by the others, and enslave at least one of them to your own will.

Notes.
Unless explicitly noted, all the various items and perks work equally on men and women.

Rapetech items are less effective against those with superpowers of any kind, and can completely fail against someone with enough resistance - magic against an expert magic user, for example.

Censored Faces is a request based system, while Marketing Campaign is for selling off the things you don't want. You could also sell 'half an hour of timestop' via Marketing Campaign.

For Kings Game, I'll give you a guaranteed 'move on' for the 400 cp version.

Companions can't buy more companions, or take drawbacks.

Supplement Mode

In exchange for forfeiting half of the base CP, you may use GH Occult as a supplement to an applicable jump. In other words, it should be a modern world with traces of the supernatural in it. Maybe it's a bunch of fantasy races going to highschool? Please try to avoid technology however, things like SPACE or virtual reality are a no go. Magitech is up to you. You may acquire additional points through drawbacks, up to the drawback cap. On your first use this equates to a maximum of 1100 CP, and 600 CP on each use afterwards. No, you may not take a drawback multiple times. If you run out of drawbacks, you obviously cannot take the supplement anymore.

You may change your origin with each usage of the supplement, but may only gain 1 sub-origin per usage. Additionally, companions can not be imported more than once via supplement mode, and supplement mode is incompatible with using the base GH Occult as an actual jump. Lastly, you may only spend the CP you get from drawbacks in the GH Occult jump on things from the GH Occult jump itself, as well as not spending CP from the supplement in whatever jump you are supplementing, if that wasn't already obvious. Lastly, the item stipend is reduced to 200, and is a one time deal.
