TOKYO RED HOOD

VOLUME 4

TAMAOKI BENKYO

The world... is not a nice place. It never really was, but now, it's just depravity without end. Society preys on the powerless, while the powerless prey on the helpless. Atrocities have become commonplace. All are guilty, there are no pure souls left in this world. Innocence only exists in the young and foolish, or so... that's what you'd hope.

Enter Red Riding Hood. A petite 11-year old girl, who gleefully patrols Tokyo, sleeping with pedophiles, and looking for her beloved "Mr. Wolf", to eat her alive. All who fail to meet her expectations are killed, to be sold as meat. With the little girl's talent for killing, superhuman ability, and unrelenting immortality, she finds nothing but frustration on her quest.

Beyond the world of man, the forces of Heaven and Hell have taken great interest in Little Red. Perhaps the shattered balance of good and evil will finally be mended by the total apocalypse, that only the meeting of Little Red Riding Hood and Mr. Wolf can bring about.

Origins

Choose apparent age and gender with impunity.

"Human" - Free:

Perhaps it's a stretch to call you a homo sapien, or perhaps not. You're closer to a human being than any full-blooded angel or demon. You may have grown up in this filthy world, or you've simply appeared, with no past to tie you here.

Demon - Free:

Born in the pits of Hell. Truthfully there's hardly any difference between you and a human, in body or power. You have been sent to Earth to assist in uniting Little Red and Mr. Wolf, at Lord Dantarian's behest.

Angel - Free:

A low-ranking servant of God, sent to assist the powerful and mysterious angel Theos in seizing Little Red before she can meet Mr. Wolf. Your body is no different from that of a human, in spite of your divine nature.

"Human" Perks

50% off for "humans", one 100cp perk may be taken for free.

Here Piggy Piggy - 100cp:

For the deformed and repulsive, a depraved Earth might be a step up. The more freakish you are, the more irresistibly attractive you appear to those with an eye for the strange.

Bloated Corpses & Egos - 100cp:

You've built up a talent for forming phoney cults. The more devoted they become, the more dependent and gullible they become, ready to commit any sin at your command.

Bambina Destroyer - 200cp:

Surgical engineering has made you superhuman. You're fast enough to dodge bullets, balanced enough to stand on a tightrope, and strong enough to kill with just your hands.

It's Alive-ish! - 200cp:

You're skilled in the art of necromancy. You can stitch together corpses into any shape to craft loyal drones. With the right parts, you're only limited by your creativity.

Escaped Artifact - 400cp:

The result of a failed demonic experiment. You're mostly human, save for two extra arms, and superhuman strength. You can slowly heal from anything short of dismemberment.

Wickedest Witch - 400cp:

Countless dark spells are at your beck and call. From summoning spirits to controlling elements. You possess intuitive understanding of any black magics you come across.

All the Better to Eat you With - 600cp:

Hidden somewhere in every world you go to, is your own "mother", who you'll recognize by instinct. Eating them will destroy the current world, and create a new one. You have no control over what form this new world takes.

Big Bad Wolf - 600cp:

Who would imagine that a second "Mr. Wolf" existed. You can now transform into a towering werewolf-esque demon. The special characteristic of this powerful form is being able to kill any immortal being, by eating them alive.

Demon Perks

50% off for demons, one 100cp perk may be taken for free.

Supportive Tech - 100cp:

Technology is a rare but valued skill in Hell, and one you posses. Your works convince even the most stubborn groups to begrudgingly accept the usefulness of technology.

Rotten Vessel - 100cp:

You possess a talent for acts of sin that few in this world can compare to. This nature attracts other sinners to you like a magnet. Disciples maybe? Or perhaps just victims?

What Goes Hump in the Night - 200cp:

The power of an incubus flows through you. Along with the power to enter dreams, and devour souls, your sexual skills leaves all but the most depraved as a quivering wreck.

Suffering Without Reprieve - 200cp:

Punishment need not end at death. You know a ritual to reincarnate those you kill, with their memories, power, and curses intact. Though the former two may be sealed away.

Waste of Bullets - 400cp:

Regardless of strength, you can kill members of your species with the same ease as killing a human, not accounting for powers and tools external to their own biology.

Kitty Cruncher - 400cp:

You may fully or partially transform those you physically dominate into a small furry animal, like a cat, sealing their power. You can slide them between the two forms at will.

Knocking on Hell's Door - 600cp:

From traveling between worlds, scrying, regenerating a splattered head, or engineering a spirit as powerful as "Mr. Wolf", you are a genius at demonic magic. What's more, you can seamlessly integrate magic with technology.

Red Riding Hood - 600cp:

Your body possesses horrific shapeshifting ability. You can form your body into weapons or limbs, invade someone else's body to kill them from the inside out, control detached body parts, and survive any level of physical mutilation.

Angel Perks

50% off for angels, one 100cp perk may be taken for free.

I'm All You'll Ever Need - 100cp:

You're a good shoulder to cry on, and a great instigator of suppressed desires. Your words greatly assist you in making others grow emotionally dependant on you over time.

God's Plan - 100cp:

Even the angels of this world fall to desire. As long as you continue to act on his behalf, God will never punish or disown you for any atrocity you commit in his name.

Beyond Gender - 200cp:

In defiance of man's duality, your body combines elements of both man and woman. You metaphysically count as both, and may assume this "gender" as your own in any future worlds.

Sincere Prophet - 200cp:

The voice of God may converse with you at any time. They will not share the full breadth of their omniscience, but they will advise you, and absolve you of sin when needed.

Murder of Doves - 400cp:

From certain parts of your body, you may sprout two angelic wings. You may use these to fly, but also control or launch the feathers to effortlessly mince anything in your line of sight, in less time than it takes to blink.

Undiscriminating - 400cp:

Whether angel or demon, for you, the two are mystically and physically interchangeable. You can access both Heaven and Hell, even with guests, without raising alarm.

The Huntsman - 600cp:

Like the angel Theos, your holy magic can instantly heal severed limbs, smite enemies, mimic telekinesis, teleport great distances. You can even choose to let the holy light blind anyone caught up in your spells' effects.

Happily Ever After - 600cp:

You can wholly abandon the world to enter one of your own design, with one other person of your choice. This world is spared any fate that befalls the "real" world, but anyone leaving will collapse the world, killing those left within.

"Human" Items

50% off for "humans", 100cp item may be taken for free.

First & Final Present - 100cp:

A beautiful wedding gown, that seems to alter its shape to fit even the most deformed bodies. This dress stays clean and untorn, even in combat, and never obstructs movement.

Problem-Enders - 200cp:

Guns, knives, grenades, pistols, sniper-rifles, c4 charges, an entire arsonal at your disposal. Most come with holsters, but those that don't can be transported with relative ease.

Meat is Murder - 400cp:

An odd butcher shop is under your ownership. It sells nothing less than the finest human meat. You can even buy entire corpses for ritualistic purposes. Stock is always full.

Whimpering Wallets - 600cp:

You now lead a small but gullible cult. Your followers are fully brainwashed to serve you, and though stupid, are all financially powerful in their own right.

Demon Items

50% off for demons, 100cp item may be taken for free.

Last Kiss Goodbye - 100cp:

A simple wooden shotgun. Though awkward, you can pull it out of nowhere, even when completely naked, and banish it just as easily to whatever orifice is holding onto it.

Peeping Toms - 400cp:

You possess a monitor setup that lets you magically scry on targets of your choosing, like a camera feed. This has no recording function, and must be observed in real time.

Occult Razor - 200cp:

A black demonic broadsword, lined with eyes. Powerful enough to halve a car, or deflect even God's light. The sword may summoned and banished at will.

Devilish Daycare - 600cp:

Scavenged from project "Wolf", these notes and equipment are everything you'll need to start engineering demonic beings. Usable results will require much trial and error.

Angel Items

50% off for angels, 100cp item may be taken for free.

Missionary Attire - 100cp:

A clever disguise kit, that will let you pass yourself off as any other humanoid species. You won't be uncovered right away, but don't expect to fool anyone for long.

Feeble Followers - 200cp:

This dual-purpose church and orphanage holds a christian community that will do your bidding without question. Nobody will find this secluded community unless led there.

Heavenly Chariot - 400cp:

While this looks like a luxury human car, it drives not only on roads, but between worlds. You may use this to drive to any other world you would already be welcomed to enter.

Hapless Choir - 600cp:

At your beck and call is a small group of loyal angelic warriors. Though angels, most of them are no stronger than humans, though one will always be somewhat superhuman.

Companions

No discounts.

Companion Import - 50CP each:

I should hope this is an enemy or a partner in crime. Else I can't find much justification in forcing a so-called "friend" to endure this world with you. With each purchase, you may introduce an ally from a past world into this one, with 600CP to spend as they please. If you wish, you may instead create a new ally, to the same effect.

Canon Companion - 50CP each:

In your mistaken judgement, or simply untempered libido, you have decided to take a resident of this world with you on your journey. You must gain their consent to seal this deal, but I'd imagine few would choose to stay, unless you plan to woo the single-minded Red Riding Hood, or the naive but mindlessly indulgent "Mr. Wolf".

Drawbacks

No drawback cap.

Caught a Predator - gain 100cp:

Perhaps you were better suited to this world than you thought. Not only are you an obese, hideous, perverted, rude, and impotent pedophile, you're also a harcore sadist. To the point that you're on step away from a necrophiliac.

Above All Else - gain 100cp:

You bear an arrogance and killing impulse that defies reason. You berate everyone you meet, and those you see as lower than you, you instinctually try to kill. Your shit talking has no off switch, even when you're losing.

Are you my Mr. Wolf? - gain 200cp:

Little Red Riding Hood has mistaken you for Mr. Wolf. She will seek you out, and try to force you to eat her. If she can't get what she wants, she may decide to try killing you, in hopes of awakening some dormant thanatos.

Humanity Bait - gain 200cp:

A rare instance of purity in this world. You are a child, in body and mind. You are destined to face every sin this world has to offer. None of these will kill you, but between the repeated snapping of your mind, you may wish they had.

Let me Come In - gain 300cp:

You are possessed with an irresistible urge to eat and rape your loved ones, regardless of age, gender, or relationship. If you are unable to act on your urges, you'll begin acting them out on strangers, lest you risk losing your mind.

Eat me Until I Rot - gain 300cp:

In your heart, body, and mind, you want nothing more than to be eaten by Mr. Wolf. Even if you can resist the urges to let them kill you, you won't be able to stop yourself from seeking them out. Failing to control your desires will end your chain, then and there, as will the Wolf's death. Even then, resisting will require inhuman concentration, paired with the constant emptiness that permeates your every cell.

Endings

Is it really much of a choice?

-Stay Here-

-Move On-

Notes

Jump by Stolen Gene

This is a guro manga. If you have a low tolerance for rape, mutilation, cannibalism, suicide, pedophilia, and who knows what else I forgot to mention, this probably isn't for you.
