

WataMote: No Matter How I Look At It, It's You Guys' Fault I'm Unpopular!
By PsychoAnon

Story

Tomoko Kuroki is not a typical young girl. She's a loner who likes video games, horny visual novels, anime, reading and other nerdy hobbies. Tomoko is about to start high school, eager to bloom into a mature young woman, but due to her severe social anxiety and loner status it's bound to be an uphill battle for the poor girl. Tomoko is gonna do her best and come up with all sorts of schemes to ensure she becomes a popular girl - with friends, and even a boyfriend!

Tomoko is gonna enlist the help of several other characters to achieve this goal, like her best friend Yuu from middle school who has blossomed into a beautiful young woman, and her abrasive brother Tomoki who really wishes his weird sister would just leave him alone.

You arrive a week before Tomoko starts her first day of high school. Will she ever achieve her dreams? Will you help her? Maybe you'll make her worse? That's up to you.

Origins

Pick your origin. Perks are 50% off for matching origins, except 100 Point perks which are free for matching origin. You can choose to be related to any characters in the story.

Awkward Child

Much like Tomoko, you're a high school age kid who's had trouble making friends. You should end up attending the same school and likely the same homeroom as Tomoko, so maybe you could try becoming her friend?

Golden Child

You're a normal kid. In fact you're actually quite popular due to your extracurricular activities, though you're still in that middle school age where kids often pretend they're above it all and hate everyone. Keep that attitude in check!

Hot Friend

You were once a quiet, average looking child until you had a major glow up. Now that you're in high school you've had no problems finding relationships and making tons of friends, though you still remember your dorky friends and have kept contact.

Perks

Awkward Child

100 - Vivid Imagination
You may not be popular in the real world, but in your head you can be anything you want! You can get lost in vivid fantasies so easily it can often happen accidentally while you're bored. These fantasies are so clear and vivid they're almost indistinguishable from reality at times and anything you want can be made real. You're also creative at coming up with weird ideas and ridiculous schemes.

200 - Stealth Pervert
Being such a background character that you're practically a grey blob has its advantages - namely, that you can perv on people all you want without getting caught! Getting cheeky glimpses up your classmates' skirts or getting a little too handsy with your best friend's boobs will raise no suspicions, nor will any other perverse activity short of rape. You dirty gremlin.

400 - Adorkable
Failing over and over again can be painful, but even failing can be endearing in its own way. It seems like when people see you struggling and trying your best only to bumble and fail miserably, they find it not only admirable but adorable as well. Your inability to clearly speak a sentence to someone you don't know isn't creepy, but cute. People in general show you lots of pity and kindness when you're in trouble like you're some sort of lost puppy. Pretty soon you'll have more pity based relationships than you ever imagined! That's not sad at all...

600 - Try Again
You can feel it welling up again. The shame, humiliation and fear of failure. There are few things as painful, but that doesn't mean it's not worth it to fight through. You have the courage to push yourself to get outside your comfort zone and try new things along with the mental fortitude to recover after even the most devastating humiliation. The more and more you try at the same thing, the more others will notice and start to like you. It's only a matter of time until you're popular!

Golden Child

100 - Athletic
Kick that sportsball with all your might! You're in very good shape and you've got a real natural talent for sports. You could even run a marathon in a pretty good time and beat on all of your enemies. If you lean into this natural talent you could really go places, or at the very least outdo your terrible sister.

200 - Polite
It turns out that when you do good things for other people they tend to like you and want to be your friend. Who would have guessed? This seems doubly so for you. People seem to shower you in affection and praise for the nice things you do for them, treating you like a very good and special boy. Things like getting friends or even a date are super easy for you as long as you go out of your way to be good to others.

400 - Brotherly
Family bonds are special. You can never replace those familial bonds and so you have to keep those precious family bonds for the rest of your life. In your case, you have a particularly strong bond with any of your siblings. No matter how much you get on each others' nerves or fight, your siblings will always truly love you and (hopefully) vice versa. Like any good brother, you can even muster up extra strength and willpower for the sake of helping your family.

600 - Talented
It seems you have a promising future ahead of you. As long as you can remember you've always been good at anything you tried. Whether it was school work, sports, or even something as trivial as making friends it all just came naturally to you. This holds true for basically anything you try your hand at, ensuring that you could do basically anything and still be a success. Lucky you.

Hot Friend

100 - Glowup
Jumper, is that you?! Your looks have gotten a major upgrade from just a few years ago. Where once you may have been an undefined blob, you've now got a rocking bod that could make all your friends jealous. Or horny. Or both. If you were a girl you could have big bouncy boobs and a perfectly shaped butt that even other women couldn't help but molest.

200 - Best Friend
If your friend is having a tough time in life then it's your duty to guide them. You have very good social intuition and can give great advice for someone to improve themselves, especially those close to you. You could teach your unpopular friend about fashion and how to talk to boys and as long as she took your advice she'd probably have a boyfriend in no time!

400 - Innocent Charm
You're truly cute, the perfect image of a pure high school girl. Everything about you from those big puppy dog eyes, to your cute voice, to your natural sweet scent and soft skin all give off an undeniable cute feminine aura. This not only makes you very attractive to boys, but also makes them want to help and comfort you should you ever be in danger or in need. Your cute smile will be protected!

600 - Friends Forever
There's something special about those childhood friendships that manage to last. That one friend that still holds a special place in your heart no matter how long it's been since you last saw each other. Your relationship with your best friend will never fade or deteriorate no matter what. You'll always be able to get along and care for each other despite any differences. This love comes with a natural sixth sense for when your best friend needs you, whether they're in danger or just in need of guidance and emotional support you know when they need your help.

Items

One item per price tier is discounted. The 100 point discounted item is free.

100 - Porn

When you're a lonely loser there's nothing better to help you unwind than some fap material. You've got various forms of pornography including manga, audio tracks customized for you and even trashy visual novels. It's not like you were getting any action.

100 - Vidya

Many video games and various consoles as well as a gaming PC. You've got retro games like Mao and Zda, newer releases like G 5, handhelds like the P*P and everything else the gaming world has to offer. Crack open your gamer juice and let’s fucking game!

200 - Personal Portrait

This makes you feel funny. You have a very well drawn portrait of yourself here made by a surprisingly good artist. It makes you feel incredibly flattered and even loved when you look at it, seeing the (supposed) incredible amounts of passion and effort to make you look beautiful.

200 - Convenient Umbrella

How'd this get here? You've got a pretty solid umbrella in your possession. This umbrella has the special quality of always appearing whenever you need it, meaning you'll never get caught out in the rain again!

400 - A Bunch of Phones

You've got smartphones! A lot of smartphones! In fact, pretty much an unlimited supply of smartphones, where did you get these? What matters is that you can do whatever you want with your unlimited smartphones, like making a collage of yourself walking through scenes.

400 - Wardrobe

Fashion time! You've got a big wardrobe full of every type of outfit under the sun, all perfectly fit to your body. There’s even cosplay outfits of all your favorite characters in here! Get well dressed! Immediately!

600 - Family Home

The home where you grew up. This is a humble abode which is bog standard for Japan, yet has an indescribable cozy and nostalgic charm that makes it very comfortable to live in. All the utilities and Internet are paid for, so you don't have to worry about that. It’s a wonderful place for you to live.

Companions

100 - Friends
Why bother making new friends when you can buy them? You can create/import up to 2 companions per 100 points spent, giving them each an origin and 600 points to spend along with item discounts. Alternatively you can create/import just one companion per 100 points, granting them the same benefits but 1000 points to spend instead of 600.

Free - I'm Popular?!
It would be a shame to be separated from your friends after all the trouble you went through to make them. You can bring along anyone from this world as a companion as long as they agree to come with you.

Drawbacks

+100 - Cringe
Your past still haunts you. You can remember in vivid detail all the incredibly embarrassing things you've done and said in your past and these memories seem to come back to torment you on a regular basis. You shall never be from your mistakes.

+100 - Horny on Main
Keep it in your pants, pal! As would be expected of a young teen, you're extremely horny. You can't stop yourself from having erotic fantasies throughout the day and unless you sate your inner demons you may end up taking out your horny on those around you. You sick freak!

+100 - Shitty Sibling
You can pick your friends but you can't pick family. Unfortunately for you, your family is very annoying, in particular your sibling. They constantly get on your nerves, as siblings are wont to do, constantly pestering you with stupid questions, stealing your food and messing with you in any way you see fit.

+200 - Lazy Days
Doing things is haaaaaard. Why would you bother doing things when you could just sit on your ass all day playing vidya? You need to exert a surprising amount of willpower just to do basic things like cleaning your room. Get off your ass you lazy bum!

+200 - Stupid
This latest hare-brained scheme will surely make you popular... aaand it already failed. It wouldn't really be fair to call you stupid, but you have the textbook immature mindset of a child. You think real life works like fiction and that acting like an anime character could make you popular the same way it does in the anime. It may take many extremely painful experiences for you to get a clue.

+200 - Life is Pain
What's the one thing people fear even more than death? Awkward social interactions. You can expect a ton of these in your future. Embarrassing moments like calling someone by the wrong name or somehow ending up in public in a ridiculous outfit are now commonplace for you. Despite how often they happen, these never get any easier to stomach. You'll be brought either to the brink of tears or into a full crying fit from sheer embarrassment each and every time.

+300 - Anxiety
Bad news - you have extreme social anxiety. Unless it's someone you already know you can barely speak above a mouse whisper to anyone you meet. It's a Herculean task for you to even try talking to people and putting yourself out there and due to the aforementioned social anxiety it usually doesn't go well when you do. It could take you months just to make one friend with how hard you've got it.

+300 - Groped
Some believe that being molested is a sign of attractiveness. Well, be careful what you wish for. You are now a prime target for public molestation. You set one foot on a train and it's pretty much guaranteed that some pervy old man is gonna start grabbing your ass. It's not just limited to trains either. These freaks will get at you no matter where you are as long as you're in public. They won't take it much further than groping and it's possible to stop them, but you'll always have to be looking over your shoulder. It's just like one of your doujins!

+300 - Get Popular!
You are in a major predicament. You are unpopular. You have no friends, no boyfriend, absolutely nobody outside your family you're close with save for possibly one close friend you knew from middle school. Your friends/relationships from prior jumps are all mysteriously missing. Your objective is to have a group of close friends and a romantic relationship by the end of the jump. If you can't manage this seemingly simple task you will fail your chain. Purchased companions do not count, you dirty rat.

The End

You've reached the end of your time here. It's safe to say nobody learned anything, but it was probably pretty funny. Make your final choice.
