

Waifu Academy

Another beautiful day at Waifu Academy...

Once upon a time there were three clans that decided to settle among three rivers near the sea where an ancient material could be found: The Musashima, the Tendo, and the Takamura. A prosperous city grew around these three clans, and grew through the ages. However the unknown material they coveted seemed to disappear, and much of their old importance fell away and the clans began to decline. Recently the Zaibatsu have moved in and gained a stranglehold on the local economy, becoming an unofficial fourth clan and seizing control. Unknown to most there was a fourth clan that settled with the rest, but their contributions have been forgotten by nearly all, even the other clans, and their last heir died in disgrace.

A little over ten years ago the headmaster of the prestigious Sazaki Academy was accused of raping three of his students. The last second recant of testimony of one of these three students saved him from being convicted in court, but the damage to his reputation was already done. In disgrace and stripped of his family's Academy, he attempted suicide. This is where the story ends for most. However, the headmaster survived but was crippled by his suicide attempt, and his wife soon left afterwards, not wanting to take care of her husband, leaving behind her son. He grew up in squalor and filth with his harsh grandmother and dead-to-the-world father, his only friend a prostitute.

After ten long years both his grandmother and father passed away, and a man he'd learned was his stepfather approached that child at their funeral, asking if he'd like to live with his mother again. Now he returns to take revenge for being left behind, on those who caused his father to kill himself, and anyone who gets in his way.

Thankfully, all of those targets just so happen to be extremely attractive women, even those who inadvertently get in his way, and he's not against.. Harsh negotiation.

Welcome to a world much like your own, students go to school, adults go to work, and day turns to night. However, there are some subtle differences. This world is lewder, with idols openly singing about wanting to be impregnated while flashing their panties, and a chain restaurant where you are served drinks in between the breasts of the workers. Beyond that, occult tomes with working spells are hidden away, the underworld is a savage place ruled by a shadowy cabal, and perhaps there's even a sealed demon underneath a local high school. Thankfully, most of that shouldn't really bother you unless you go hunting it. Enjoy your next ten years here.

Origins:

Gender is the same as your previous jump, and your age is either 18 if you desire to be a student or 18+2d8 for an adult. Either can be changed for 50 CP.

Forgotten Child

Much like the main character of this world, you are a child abandoned by one or both parents, and forgotten to all who could have remembered you. Even people who know your parents aren't even aware you exist. As an adult you are instead homeless or otherwise one of those forgotten by the rest of society. This origin can be taken as a drop-in, how different is someone forgotten to someone without a past.

Academy Student

A normal student of Sazaki Academy, a regular citizen, or even a member of the major normal clan left from the olden days. Like most people you go about your day blissfully unaware of the darker aspects of the world around you. The daily grind has been your most consistent goal, though it doesn't have to stay that way.

Outcast

Something differentiates you from everyone else. Perhaps you're a mega-level pervert and otaku, an elite mercenary who has seen action from across the world, or a member of two of the other ancient clans that have fallen to poverty or crime. You're a player in a complex game, even as a student there are power plays being made at your school.

Zaibatsu

You're either a son/daughter of the infamous corporation that has bullied its way into being an unofficial fourth clan, or an adult member of one of the many businesses under their umbrella. You may not know of their shady dealings, or you may be deep in the hole already. Be careful around Shirohime, those who displease her have a tendency to disappear.

Location:

Regardless of your origin, there is only one location. Sazaki Academy, and the city and greater area around it. As a student you are enrolled with a family, while an adult has a job and a house in the city. Even a Forgotten Child benefits from this, perhaps you were adopted or found by those who abandoned you.

Perks:

All Origins have discounts on their respective perks, with 100 CP being free.

Forgotten Child

Twist the Knife [100 CP] - An early grounding in psychology combined with a lack of remorse and desire for revenge have culminated into an odd skill. You know exactly how to twist someone else's guilt for your own purposes. It doesn't even have to be guilt regarding you, if they feel guilty for something else you can easily manipulate it into supporting your schemes. You do at least need to know what they feel guilty about, however.

Management Club [200 CP] - You're really quite adept at managing. Managing what? Just about anything, really. From a school club, to a business, hell you could even turn a fumbling pimp's shitty prostitution ring into a thriving business. This covers actually managing the people directly, assigning efficient work schedules, balancing the books, and the rest. As a bonus, people are more willing to give you a chance to prove yourself as a manager, and once you do they will be fairly lenient with you. Just don't abuse their trust.

Schemer [400 CP] - Long years of yearning for something better have granted you the ability to plan ahead in order to achieve your goals. No matter what your goal is, as long as it is remotely realistic, you can comprehend a plan to achieve it and break it down into steps and individual objectives to accomplish. Even if things go completely tits up as they often do for men with this skill, you are quite adept at adapting your plans to unseen factors once you're given a chance to think for a moment.

Sazaki Swagger [600 CP] - Much like the men of the forgotten fourth clan 'Sazaki', something about you drives the opposite gender absolutely crazy. Even to those who should be off-limits to you by taboo. This degree of attraction even applies to forced sexual acts, as long as she is sufficiently horny or the sex is good enough the girl will find herself attracted to you after the fact. A bratty student who has every reason to hate you, that you assaulted in a locker? Now she just craves your attention, regular and sexual.

Academy Student

Waifu in Waifu Academy [100 CP] - Once you're here, you might notice

something...off. Many of the local women are ridiculously good looking. From the MILFs, to the attractive singles, hell even the school girls are walking around with dynamite bodies. Now, much like them, you are ridiculously attractive. Your body just looks absolutely amazing, even among the girls around here you are top-tier. As a male you are like a younger Thomas Faris. Even if you were good looking before, something about this makes you just 'pop'.

Sports Scholarship [200 CP] - Seems like you're in the Academy for a sports scholarship, or maybe you were even a former Olympic Contender like Harada-sensei? Either way, you're fantastic at a single sport, and are adept at just about any other, with the musculature to go along with it. While someone like Takamura can still effortlessly stomp you with raw strength, in anything that requires any technical skill you will come out on top.

Model Student [400 CP] - Much like Motoko, and to a lesser extent Asuka, you are the model of a student. Learning seems to come naturally to you, able to rapidly grasp concepts and understand whatever is being taught to you. Homework is rapidly completed, and your in-class behavior is impeccable (as long as you don't act out too much). You are easily the favorite student of any teacher, and your classmates seem to hold you in high esteem to the point you could find yourself Student Council President or Head of the Disciplinary Committee. This also makes you seem much more responsible and trustworthy outside of school. As an adult this makes you an ideal employee for any company.

Top Performer [600 CP] - You're a natural in front of a camera, baby. Singing, dancing, entertaining, you're the full package. You're about on par with the top idol Yuna, and could easily get a job as her backup dancer as a student or even a competing idol as an adult. You could instead forge your own path and be a Streamer, playing games and showing off your tits for an audience of desperate virgins who will desperately give you money by default, if you go the extra mile by actually stripping for top donors or even offer shitty advice for donations, your bank account will be very happy. As a bonus, lewd lyrics won't trigger moral outcry, and lewd actions on screen aren't penalized while streaming, unless it goes to full sex.

Outcast

Otaku-Level Stalker [100 CP] - Fancy yourself a journalist, do you? Or maybe you're just an unrepentant pervert like Otaku-san. You're a master at sneaking around, following people, listening in on conversations, and otherwise undercovering information. This even extends hidden microphone and camera usage. Use this to uncover secrets of your classmates, find out what is really going on at school, help a friend cheat at a contest, or just become a master at snagging panty shots.

How are you still in school? [200 CP] - Like a certain Otaku, or Kayane, it seems like your bad behavior doesn't really warrant discipline. You could openly snap pants shots of classmates or dress in flagrant violation of the dress code and the most you'll get is a slap on the wrist. Extends even to the workplace, who cares if you aren't following office dress code or flirting with customers on the clock. This is not total immunity though, fuck up hard enough and you will still end up thrown out of school or fired. Still, a little leeway goes a long way.

Takamura Family Style [400 CP] - Well, maybe not exactly Takamura's family style (unless you want to be Takamura's twin or older sibling, I suppose) this is an ancient martial art style and your years training in it have made you a fighting monster. Even a merc hardened on numerous battlefields isn't guaranteed to take you down. Not even getting into your unexpected strength, you go beyond the limits of what a normal person considers human. Your only equal is Takamura herself, who managed to shake an entire skyscraper with her punch when angered. You might wanna hide this from her, she is eagerly looking for a challenge.

Rule the Underworld [600 CP] - One of the three clans who settled this area, the Tendo, have always been involved with organized crime. However, a young member once went even further than the clan had ever before, ascending to the top of the hated Zaibatsu and leaving her clan behind with goals to go even further. Much like Shirohime, you have the raw ambition to reach the top of the criminal underworld, giving up even your own body if you have to. You also have her talent for the art, effortlessly outplaying your rivals, smuggling drugs, forced prostitution, and more. Just remember this city's underworld already has a Queen, and she doesn't want competition.

Zaibatsu

Definitely Qualified [100 CP] - For whatever reason, people seem to think you are qualified for any job you do. Teaching students? Both the students and other teachers seem to think you know what you are doing. Managing people? Your employees think you're doing a great job, and your boss couldn't be happier. Your complete lack of qualifications will never inconvenience you from finding work in any field you seek work. You do have to actually try to work, it's just that no one will really hold your apparent failures at the basics of said job against you.

Innocent [200 CP] - A wolf in sheep's clothing would be the best phrase to describe you. People seem to find it hard to believe you're a bad person, wanting to see the best in you. Even minor crimes will be forgiven and waved away, after all you obviously had a reason to do what you did. Major crimes may be a breaking point, however... Unless you can provide 'evidence' that you are indeed innocent. You raped a woman? No, please just watch these definitely not edited videos where she begs for it and eagerly accepts you. Then everyone will believe you are wrongly persecuted. Just be sure there isn't any unedited footage to leak.

Occultist [400 CP] - Much like a certain art teacher and goth student, you seem to be familiar with the occult. Spells actually work, assuming you know them. Much of them are hidden in ancient tomes that are hard to source, but lucky for you Sazaki Academy has quite a few hidden within its library, and even rare ones are scattered in the ancient clan compounds. These spells can be used for various rituals, like putting someone to a healing sleep, awakening them from a coma, forcing people to reveal their deepest secrets, arousing them, and more. Will you use this to investigate the mysteries here, or just for fun?

Chem Whiz [600 CP] - Like Rachel the school nurse, you're a natural at mixing chemicals and have the equivalent of a PhD in Chemistry . You can craft just about any kind of commercial drug even with subpar materials, and you are quite adept at utilizing strange materials for particularly special concoctions. Rachel, for example, has managed to make a perfume that enhances her own sex appeal by utilizing pheromones from her own sexual fluids, and can easily replicate the effect for others. Though making something like the pink pill aphrodisiacs she made you'll have to find her secret material that's hidden beneath the school. Or just use materials from other jumps, you'll be able to easily find numerous chemical properties of foreign substances.

Items:

All Origins have discounts on their respective items, with 100 CP being free.

Forgotten Child

A Strange TV [100 CP] - What seems to be a normal TV at first, but turning it on it will always show you commercials for things that seem random at the time, but as time goes on you will notice they tend to relate to places you will be visiting in the near future. Like a restaurant ad if you are going to be an impromptu judge for a contest for them, or an Idol's latest music video if you'll meet them soon. However, all the commercials are incredibly lewd.

Prostitution Ring [200 CP] - Pimpin ain't easy, huh. Well, you certainly make it look like it is. You have a group of 5 or so prostitutes that are willing to work for next to nothing and won't ever leave your business. They are decently skilled and could pull a decent income, even more if you know what you are doing. You can always recruit more if you want more money, but it is automatically reset to 5 at the start of each jump, with new natives taking the places of the old ones.

Estranged Family Home [400 CP] - A place to live, though it's not exactly welcoming. You share this with some family members you aren't close to, though the exact nature of your distance is up to you. The family changes every jump, but it will always have a sibling, a distant mother, and a busy and barely there step-father. Aside from a place to live, both your mother and your sibling will have some kind of useful skill in whatever jump you end up in, though it is up to you to do something to mend the distance between you if you want to make use of them.

'Pheromone' Spray [600 CP] - A spray similar to what Rachel uses and will eventually make for Handsome-kun. It's built off of your pheromones, and a spray of the perfume bottle it is within can cause a person of the opposite gender to become horny and subservient, with lust being somewhat retained but the subservience being permanent. Though be aware, they must already be aroused for it to work correctly. It also has a concentrated form in the liquid inside the bottle, but it has to be directly ingested. The concentrated form doesn't require them to be aroused first, and the arousal spike is much harder, as is the subservience. You have enough for three uses of either method, and it refills biweekly.

Academy Student

Yuna-brand Underwear [100 CP] - Yuna is perhaps the top Idol in this world, and she has her own insanely popular brand of underwear. Anyone who sees you wearing it will know you are a person of class and at the height of fashion, plus they are just really comfortable besides. They are, however, ridiculously slutty in nature. And only come in panty form. If you do try to wear them as a male the front will at least adjust itself so your junk isn't squeezed, instead being a snug fit.

Streamer Setup [200 CP] - A high-end computer set up, complete with dual-monitors, a webcam of unparalleled quality, and a microphone that only picks up noises you want it to. Basically everything you need to become a sensational streamer, for whatever reason it seems to work even better if you're a 'titty streamer'. Comes with a wig that is designed to perfectly stay on and somehow completely disguises you from everyone watching.

Clan Tome [400 CP] - Oh, are you perhaps from one of the ancient clans, or maybe you just found this in a pawn shop somewhere? They have been largely sold off after all. This is one of the occult tomes from the ancient clans of the area, written in multiple obscure languages that make deciphering it a true headache even for a genius. But the information within is worth the effort. History of the clan from the first settlers, spells of greater power than the average occultist has access to these days, and even a ritual to seal something extremely powerful, though only a third of said ritual is within. Would be useful to unravel the mysteries of this land, like what was the legendary material the clans originally settled here for. The Zaibatsu is also looking for these, if you just want a quick buck and some prestige.

Family Estate [600 CP] - Much like the Musashima Clan, you have your own sprawling traditional Japanese estate on the outskirts of town. A wall surrounding the property, to the numerous streams flowing through the courtyard, and a traditional Japanese manor in the middle of it all with numerous rooms and wings. This comes with several servants who will serve you and keep the grounds tidy, even offering a small income stream as they offer tours of your historic estate to the public if you wish. Even in future jumps this will mark you as a person worthy of respect, and those who wish you harm will tend to treat you marginally better than others due to respect. For example, even criminals would consider going after your kids to be taboo.

Outcast

Waifu Statue [100 CP] - How long did you stand in line for this? Is what most people would say, but thankfully you didn't have to wait. This is a perfect scale model of your favorite waifu, no matter if she is your actual companion, someone from fiction, or just from your imagination. She is fully articulate without any obvious joints, and her body is completely anatomically correct. She comes with her most iconic clothing as a high-quality miniature outfit, though you can always make more. Showing this to other nerds will make them acknowledge you as truly above them, for your dedication to your waifu is without comparison.

Stalker's Camera [200 CP] - Hey no, this isn't for stalking! It's for.. Legitimate journalism, yeah! A high quality camera that is suspiciously silent, it has unlimited memory, can easily connect with almost any computer or even TV, and a zoom that makes you think it has a telescope inside. Can even capture video footage. Inside a side compartment is a mini-camera with a week's battery that can be easily hidden in small places and has excellent video quality. J-just for helping with investigating places for a long period of time, you aren't gonna use it for impure things!

Mountain Dojo [400 CP] - On the outskirts of town is an isolated mountain, largely untouched by others, only a small hiking trail. Halfway up that trail is a dojo and house. This is now your property, both the dojo and mountain itself. Your ownership of the mountain is contingent on keeping the hiking trail clear, but luckily the trails seemingly clear themselves of any debris, and garbage just disappears. The animals that call the mountain home know you are the king of the land, and treat you with respect. Training within the dojo will see you master martial arts at a much more rapid rate, and as a bonus hidden behind your dojo is a beautiful waterfall and spring. Resting within it will see your fatigue drain away, and even wounds will heal faster.

Corporate Tower [600 CP] - You are now the proud owner of your own tower of questionable legal enterprise. While not as large as the Zaibatsu Tower, your own is still respectable and very exclusive. Home to numerous offices, VIP suites, and more. It also has amenities open for members, such as gyms, saunas, massages, and more. It even has private recording and photography studios. The tower also extends downwards, which is where you largely keep your less than legal business. Police will be disinclined to actually search these lower sections, so it is much easier to hide crimes, but this protection is limited. Some businesses on the lower levels can include strip clubs, drug factories or warehouses, or even brothels. Comes with dedicated employees, for all levels. You can import existing or future businesses into this tower, and they will seem to draw even better crowds while here.

Zaibatsu

Contacts [100 CP] - You are now the proud owner of the Contacts App! What does it do? Put simply, it's an app that will automatically install on any phone you own, and only opens for you. Within it is a list of every person you've met and learned the name of, complete with a profile picture you don't remember taking. Selecting a person in the contact app will show you all the information you know about this person, and even includes a notepad function so you can write down any thoughts or plans regarding them.

HoneyBee Restaurant [200 CP] - Congratulations, sir or ma'am! You have become a licensed franchise owner of your very own HoneyBee! What's HoneyBee? It's the premier restaurant in this world, a mix of Hooters and a Strip Club. Menu items include drinks served between your server's breasts, to an order of fries that comes with them stripping their bottom and baring their pussies for you to dip your fries in. Unfortunately all the names for these items are completely awful puns. Naturally, this will be a hit with men in just about any world you go to, and you will always have a dedicated staff of very devoted (and attractive) girls. In future jumps profits may vary depending on how lewd the world is, you will never be shut down due to the sexual activities. It also never seems to run out of supplies, and you never have to pay bills.

Pink Heart Pill & Recipe [400 CP] - One of Zaibatsu's products, now in your hands. A nondescript pill bottle with a blank label. Inside of it are thirty pills in the shape of pink hearts. These dissolved rapidly in any kind of liquid, though they tend to leave it fizzy and somewhat off tasting. At its most basic it's a potent aphrodisiac, but it is also possible to dose them with multiple in order to effectively break them with pleasure and make them crave it for the rest of their life. How do you think their brothels fill up? On the reverse side of the blank label is a recipe to make more of these pills, as well as a suggestion that they are unfinished, not granting a desired subservience effect. Perhaps, if you are skilled enough, you could complete it?

Waifu Academy [600 CP] - Congratulations, Jumper. You now own your own version of the titular Waifu Academy, or Sazaki Academy. Though it will, by default, be called Jumper Academy. No one is sure where the name comes from. It's a well off Japanese-style school with top of the line facilities no matter where you go, and beautiful grounds complete with cherry blossoms that bloom year-round on the walk from the gate to the entrance. It also has a gym, a track, numerous outdoor areas for other sports, and a pool. It comes with a full staff of your preferred gender, all beautiful and competent. The student body is composed of girls (or boys) who seem to be designed to be attractive to you, with just enough personality differences to keep things exciting. Optionally, you can also open the Academy to those from the setting you are in if you want to give them a good education. While technically co-ed, it seems like none of the students or teachers seem interested in doing anything with any of the others.

Companions:

You may change the gender of the 100 CP companions for free, if you wish.

Import [50 CP, 300 CP for 8] - If you want, you can invite others to come to school with you. No one will think it is weird that all these people are transferring in at the same time. Or perhaps they could be adults and take the place of your family? It's ultimately up to you. Each person imported gets 600 CP to spend on Perks and Items.

Canon [50 CP] - Have a favorite waifu? Of course! That's natural, after all. With a purchase of this, you are guaranteed to have a fated meeting with a person of your choice, and many future meetings. They are also predisposed to like you. From there, it is up to you to convince you to join you on your journey.

My Waifu Academia [300 CP] - Oh, perhaps you have a bit more than just one or two girls you want to bring with you? A full harem, or maybe even a large portion of a school? That's perfectly acceptable as well! With this, anyone who is a part of your harem (knowing or not of the rest of it) will be turned into companions at the end of this jump. This does not come with the fated meeting and does not make them predisposed to like you, but surely you are good enough to seduce them.

The Gyarū Ojou [100 CP, free to Forgotten Child] - You nearly walked in on this girl being blackmailed by her classmates, and either in a bout of heroism or to further your own goals you managed to turn it around and get them to back off of her. Now you have the eternal gratefulness and love of this peppy gyarū! She is secretly loaded and lives in an obscenely large mansion, and can act the part of the proper ojō-sama around people if need be, but prefers the gyarū style.

The Knightly Crossdresser [100 CP, free to Academy Student] - A noble boy who always helped those in need and was top of the class. Well, at least that is what everyone thought. After an incident where you ended up showering late in the stall next to his, you inadvertently found out that he was actually a she, pretending to be a man to get less attention from others. Now that you know her secret she seems desperate to keep you from revealing it, often sneaking into your room to do lewd things no matter how much you promise you won't tell.

The Pure Heroine [100 CP, free to Outcast] - A beautiful girl you saved from being harassed by some other thugs, and now she is convinced you are secretly hiding a heart of gold and won't leave you alone. She likes to constantly barge in on you to make sure you are taking care of yourself, or asking to follow you to inappropriate places. Push her a bit too hard, and you'll easily discover that she seems exceptionally weak to pressure and gets really excited when you take control.

The Lusty Ogre [100 CP, free to Zaibatsu] - Well this is complicated. It turns out that this girl is the reincarnation of an ancient ogress who once lived in the area and was killed by the Musashima family. This ogre was a bit different from others of her kind, and ran off of lust. As the reincarnation of this ogre, this girl will sprout an incredibly large horn when she gets aroused, and it causes her to further absorb lust from those surrounding her. The only way to get her to calm down is to isolate her from others, or rub the horn until it squirts out the concentrated lust as a liquid.

The Stalking Idol [100 CP] - Your favorite idol of all time has come to town, and for some reason she seems really into you! Really, really into you. Turns out she was actually your childhood friend from long ago, who you once told about your dream to take an idol on a date. She took that to heart and became an Idol for you, and now wants to date you. She seems to know all your hobbies, friends, and even kinks, it's like she's perfectly in tune with you. In truth, she's actually a huge stalker and has wire-tapped your room.

Drawbacks:

No limit, feel free to do what you like.

Protagonist Replacer [0 CP] - Do you want to take the place of the last Sazaki? With this, you replace Handsome-kun, awakening from a nap on a train to come live with your biological mother, step-father, and step-sister, and a mind full of plans of revenge. Will you bring those responsible to their knees or give up on such aspirations and live a relatively normal life?

Graphical Glitches [+100 CP] - The game this world is based on has some unfortunate graphical issues, and these will sadly plague your time here. Things will randomly seem to glitch out around you, from hair clipping through clothing to other oddities like a shirt you have taken off will seem to reappear, if only for a few moments. No one but you will actually notice these.

Nothing Goes To Plan [+100 CP] - Much like many planners in fiction, it seems like you are destined to constantly have even the simplest of plans fail or go awry. Nothing too crippling, but things will always seem to keep you from having a plan simply go as it is supposed to.

Not Appreciated [+100 CP] - Unless you really go above and beyond, people won't really appreciate the effort you put into things. A star athlete? You aren't an Olympic Candidate. A good student? You aren't as good as someone like Motoko. Just wanna be a good daughter? Your mom thinks you are a disappointment.

Just a Normal Student [+200 CP] - What's the fun of being a superdeity in High School? Explicitly supernatural powers, perks, and items no longer work within this world. Futuretech that you haven't built with supplies from this world also fails to function. Low level magic and occultism still work, as well as most boosts to your natural abilities, even if they don't take you as high as before.

On the Case [+200 CP] - You're a mystery jumper, and if there is one thing that seems to excite local intrepid reporter Minami, it's a mystery. She thinks that you are hiding something big, and will constantly follow you around and try to find out what you are planning, then expose whatever she finds to either her classmates or even to her father, a former journalist. If you want to get something done secretly you'll have to find a way to get her off your case, or keep your actions away from her eyes. Luckily, she's kind of dumb.

Dependent [+200 CP] - A close family member of yours is disabled to the point of not being able to take care of themselves, and will need significant care. None of your family from this jump really seems interested in helping, all having their own things going on and leaving the responsibility to you. This will heavily cut down on your free time. Nothing says you have to take care of them, but can you really live with yourself if you don't?

Dark Past [+300 CP] - Are you sure? This will make it so your family has some kind of dark past in this world. Maybe they hunted other humans, or perhaps your father was a notorious rapist. It's something that would make a lot of people turn against you if they found out, and make it much harder to do anything in this town if you were recognized. There are ways people could discover this, perhaps classified police files or hidden books in a library, but be aware that it can be found. Those who you are close to won't be put out by your past, and it won't keep you from drawing more people to you, but it will be a huge task to get them to look past it.

Narcolepsy [+300 CP] - Similar to the student Kaori, you have pretty severe narcolepsy. You will frequently fall into a restless sleep at inopportune times, even something as simple as trying to walk to school might see you stopping to nap on a bench. Due to said sleep being restless, you will be incredibly tired even when you are awake, and this will heavily impact many of your physical abilities. Medicine also does nothing to blunt this. Much like her, you do have a somewhat unorthodox treatment. Physical pleasure can mitigate these symptoms, with full on sex giving you hours of energy and keeping you awake.

Otaku's Curse [+300 CP] - Are...are you sure? I don't think 300 CP is worth this. This drawback will make it so that you need to frequently seek out the aid of Kensou, also known as Otaku. He's a perverted fat slob, and is completely insufferable on the best of days. He also seemingly can't do simple tasks without fucking up in some fashion, often causing whatever plans you needed him for to go completely off the rails. Worst of all is he sometimes gets it in his head to do something 'for both of you' and do something completely on his own. These schemes will blow up in his face even worse than they usually do, and it will be up to you to clean up after him. He also seems to think girls interested in you are somehow interested in him.

The Day Ends:

The sun sets on yet another beautiful day here at Waifu Academy, and so does your time here.

Go Back

Did the halcyon days make you yearn for what you left behind? That's okay, you are free to return with everything you've gathered from your chain so far.

Stay

Every day is beautiful here, why would you even want to leave? I understand. You are welcome to stay here for the rest of your life if you'd like. Though hopefully you've learned of the secrets of this world so you aren't blindsided in the future.

Continue

It was a nice break, but it's time to move on, isn't it?

Notes

Waifu Academy Clarifications

The functions of the Waifu Academy itself is largely left to you, so you are free to ignore any/all if you want.

- Normally coed, but you can make it single-gendered or even coed but you are the only opposite gendered student
- The students teachers will automatically change to fit the jump you are currently in
- Graduating students will go on to become normal citizens of said jump
- There is no native way to put the school into a time stasis, the only way to keep your favorite students is to make them into followers or companions.

Biweekly

Every two weeks.
