

Nyakumi v1.2

By Orz

The world of Nyakumi Neko's 3D hentai videos. A very strange and sexy world that has humanity walking side by side with cat girls, androids, aliens, and elves, many of which have both pussies and cocks. In addition, a strange fog has descended on the world, in some places more than others, that slowly transforms women and futas into sex-crazy amazons. To combat this threat, two organizations have formed: the Futanari Task Force and the Nyakuza, who cure the infected victims using the power of their cum.

You have 1000 CP.

Race

Human

Your normal vanilla humans with a lewd tint. Almost every woman has been exposed at least slightly to the Lewd Mist, giving them varying levels of increased libido and sexier bodies. Society has become a good bit lewder as a result, with public nudity and sex being very common, outside of certain 'No Lewd' zones.

Must be male or female.

Nekomimi

If it wasn't for the cute cat ears and the colorful hair and eyes, they might be mistaken for human women. Particularly sexy ones at that. With naturally high libidos and feline flexibility, the combination of not being compatible with humanity on a genetic level and being very compatible with humanity on a sexual one has made Nekos the favored fuckbuddies for many humans, even if their total population is relatively low. They are also the only species immune to the effects of the Lewd Mist, and their semen actually cures its effects, though without something to keep the mist out (a gas mask, for example), the victim will just be reinfected again.

Nekos are born naturally as futas, with 12"+ dicks that can grow even larger when aroused enough, but will permanently lose their dicks once they become pregnant. Futa potions will still work on them, but their semen will be sterile. If you like, you can choose to start as a female.

Must be futa or female.

Other

Maybe you're some kind of cute robot girl? Or even an elf? Hell, maybe you're an alien? In any case, any advantages your species may grant you are minor at best, but you might have a few lewd tricks up your sleeve. Robots don't need to hold their breath, after all.

Can be any gender.

Origins

Drop-In

You simply appeared from thin air one day, with no extra memories and obligations, but no connections either. Have fun on your hedonistic vacation.

Can be any gender.

Futanari Task Force/Nyakuza

You are a trained member of one of the groups that find and cure people that strayed too far into the Lewd Mist. Using specialized equipment and your own sexy body, you save the lives and sanity of others and get laid in the process. If you are a Neko, you are part of the Nyakuza, and if you are Human or something Other, then you are part of the Futanari Task Force.

The main difference between the two groups is that the Futanari Task Force, or FTF, is made up of human women (and an elf) that use Futa Potions to cure infectees, and the Nyakuza are made up of Nekos that are naturally futas. In addition, the FTF is sponsored by the government, they're basically the sexy police, but the Nyakuza have to fund their activities through donations and various lewd jobs.

Must be female or futa.

Rogue Agent

While other people are fighting the Lewd Mist for the sake of society, you are fighting for your own pleasure and profit. You could be working for a shadowy organization or you could be going solo, but whatever the case, you don't care if you have to lie, cheat, and steal to get your way. Or if you have to leave some guards in puddles of their own juices.

Can be any gender.

Perks

General

Porn Physics (Free for this jump/100 CP to keep): People here can fuck eachother with cocks as thick as their wrist without any trouble, and tend to can cum enough to paint a girl white with a single orgasm, and their pupils can change to glowing pink hearts if they're horny enough. When it comes to fucking, realism has been thrown out the window in favor of sexiness, and you'll find that the same can be said for people's bodies, sexually exaggerated and hot as hell.

Starter Line (Free): People around here tend to be really good-looking, and now you're the same. If you weren't before, you are now at least as pretty/handsome as the average (non background character) person of this world, so if you are a woman or futa, you might have a huge pair of breasts and hips for days, and if you have a cock it is now at least a foot long... just like everybody else. It's a start at least.

Drop-In

A Charming Smile (100 CP): You are really good at making an impression on your first meeting with someone, whether friendly, scary, or sexy. You'll have to follow through, but this should give you a foot in the door.

A Free Show (200 CP): Catching someone fucking or masturbating in public is pretty common here (not that it isn't still surprising when it happens to you). It's not really considered something to be upset over unless their cum gets on their possessions or something and if the show is arousing enough they might even join in. With this perk, this applies to other worlds as well, at least, when you are the one causing the disturbance. If you wish, you may also increase the chance of stumbling on such scenes yourself.

Crude Whispers (400 CP): Rumors of your sex skills and willingness to use them precedes you, always reaching the ears of people that might be interested in them and that you might be interested in yourself, without reaching the ears of people that might disapprove of such things. Expect to be invited to a lot of parties.

Casual Fun (600 CP): In this world, getting some nookie can be as simple as finding the nearest bar and pulling your dick out. In other worlds it will likely be much harder, but here's some help: When you deliberately go out and look for no-strings-attached sex, you now have a dramatically higher chance of finding an attractive one night stand. If you like, it could be the start of something more, and you'll even get a push towards forming the relationship that you want, but if not, you'll likely not see them again.

Futanari Task Force/Nyakuza

Mistfighter Workout (100 CP): Between all the sex and catching infectees in the later stages of exposure, you have to be fit to cure people infected by the Lewd Mist. That said, the FTF and Nyakuza have differing opinions on the best body type.

FTF members prefer having bodies that could best be described as ‘thicc’, with soft curves to distract and titillate the infected with a thick slab of muscle hiding underneath. While Nyakuza members work to gain tight, fit, athletic bodies, covered in lean muscles and brimming with energy.

If you are a member of neither organization, you may choose which body you prefer. Either way, not only can you keep up with the high-intensity work of curing Lewd Mist Exposure, but you are also very attractive, especially to people who prefer lovers of your body type.

Professional Seductress (200 CP): Whether you are a member of the FTF or Nyakuza, sex is quite literally your job. Thankfully, you are quite good at it, enough to distract even the most voracious Lewd Mist victim until you can get her out of the high-risk area or at least slap a gas mask on her face. You also haven’t lost your desire for it in the process like some people. No matter how many years you’ve been on the job, you will still be able to enjoy sex as much as when you first started.

Please Cum Again (400 CP): Girls treated for Lewd Mist Exposure tend to seek out their rescuers to experience the ‘treatment’ again. This perk greatly increases the chance for people that you have sex with to come looking for another round. You definitely aren’t lacking for casual sex partners with a job like yours.

Just Rewards (600 CP): FTF and Nyakuza members are often given all kinds of rewards by grateful girls. When you do something for someone, you are far more likely to be rewarded, be it in cash, gifts, or something more lewd. The bigger the task you completed, to them if not to you, the bigger the potential reward. There is no limit to this, so if you just saved the entire galaxy, you very well might receive a galactic-level reward.

Rogue Agent

Just A Civilian (100 CP): You wouldn’t be a very good spy if you could be picked out from a crowd. That’s why you are quite skilled at hiding any distinguishing features you might have, be it covering up a scar with makeup or hiding your cat ears in your hair.

Honeytrap (200 CP): You are very good at seducing people and doing what you need while they’re lost in the afterglow. Both your sex appeal and sex skills gain a boost, and if you want, you can leave your lovers in a blissful daze for an amount of time based on their willpower.

Bavarian Fire Drill (400 CP): It takes a lot of effort to break into secure facilities. Thankfully, the simplest option is usually the best one. If you look like you're supposed to be here, then people will naturally assume you are. Note that this works best when you are wearing at least a rudimentary disguise and the more stringent or paranoid will notice you don't belong.

Presence Concealment (600 CP): Are you some kind of ninja, or perhaps the perfect maid? With a bit of focus, you can hide yourself and one other person from the attention of others. You could have sex right in front of people and they wouldn't be able to notice as long as you don't accidentally make contact with them. Be warned that you will still appear in camera footage.

Items

Drop-In

LOVE Condoms (100 CP): An endless supply of condoms to facilitate safe sexy times. Can fit over the largest of dongs and comes in standard, extra-thin, and extra-thick versions.

Schrodinger's Bodysuit (200 CP): This shiny bodysuit is practically painted onto your body, deliciously showing off your curves and/or muscles to anyone who cares to look. Yet somehow, it's also able to hide cocks perfectly, leaving a smooth surface as if the dick doesn't even exist. If you like, you can turn this function off at will, revealing your bulge in all of its glory and even drawing viewers' attention to it like moths to a flame. If the suit ever gets damaged, it will slowly repair itself over the course of a day or so.

Free NUT Coupon (400 CP): If you hand this coupon to someone, unless they are completely against sleeping with you under any circumstances, you will be allowed to have sex with them until you cum. They won't turn on you afterward, but any continuation of your sexytimes will be based on your own skills in bed. If you haven't exactly showered yourself in glory up to that point, you can expect them to shove your clothes into your arms, and you right out the door. If you use or lose your current one, you will gain a new coupon at the end of the month.

The Lewd Store (600 CP): For a fair price, you can buy all sorts of things from this store to make your life extra lewd. From condoms, to lewd potions, to sex toys and porn. At the start of a new jump, you can choose to place it down somewhere convenient in the world or just have it be a Warehouse attachment.

Futanari Task Force/Nyakuza

Respirator (100 CP): This gas mask is great for keeping out the Lewd Mist or other airborne contaminants. Its filter shines in a bright color of your choice that turns into a pinkish red when compromised. Even the Nyakuza, who are immune to the Lewd Mist, carry these for any civilians that they might come across in their duties. Normally, they should be recharged between uses, but this one seems to have a permanent charge.

Futa Potions (200 CP): A briefcase containing a dozen vials of off-white liquid made from specially-treated Neko semen. Any female who drinks this potion will become incredibly horny and grow a big fat dick with a matching set of balls, full of sterile semen. This semen can cure the effects of Lewd Mist exposure, with the same caveats of Neko semen. Drinking a second dose will simply boost libido and semen production even more, but drinking three doses at once will result in growing a second dick. Replenishes at the end of the week.

Futanari Task Force

Overdrive Accessories (400 CP): Both the FTF and the Nyakuza have pieces of equipment unique to their group. Things that make them forces to be reckoned with when their backs are to the wall. Like all FTF members, you have a set of accessories in the form of a small ridge running along your spine, a choker, and a pair of removable full-arm gauntlets. They can be activated to grant you a temporary boost of strength and speed, allowing you to act (and fuck) with superhuman ability while the effect lasts. Of course, you'll collapse in an exhausted heap once it ends, so be sure to make it count. As a bonus, you can use them to get substances like the Futa Potion into your system without having to take off your respirator.

Lewd Lab (600 CP): This room is filled with vials, beakers, canisters and tanks to safely liquids and samples of all kinds. By using the various machines and pieces of chemistry equipment, you can create potions with all kinds of lewd effects, although you might need some odd ingredients and it's up to you to figure out the exact steps of their creation. Perhaps some experimentation is in order~? The room also comes equipped with a set of discrete deployable onaholes and dildos to help test out your creations.

Nyakuza

Unison Collars (400 CP): Both the FTF and the Nyakuza have pieces of equipment unique to their group. Things that make them forces to be reckoned with when their backs are to the wall. You have in your possession a set of collars. They are quite small and easily missed, but they contain a great power. When each of the wearers of these collars sync themselves in thought and action with each other (usually through sex), they will fuse into a single being, combining their power, skills, and knowledge, and potentially even unlocking entirely new abilities, such as lulling their opponent into a lewd trance. It also gives a sharp increase in sexual ability, as having sex with the merged being feels like having sex with all of the component people at once. Be aware that the merge is only temporary, but the wearers can extend the time merged by continuing to be in sync with each other, and disagreement and discord between the merged beings will cut the time down even further.

Support Network (600 CP): It takes a lot of money to fund an organization like the Nyakuza, thankfully they've managed to create a whole slew of income sources over the years. From the pizza delivery/prostitution service 'Pizza Cat', to the lewd streaming platform 'OnlyNyans', each component might only provide a little bit of money, but when combined it all adds up fast. Not only do you have access to this stream of revenue, but you have access to the various jobs that make it up. If you wish, you may take a shift or two yourself, either for an extra bit of money, for fun, or both. The exact nature of the jobs might change a bit between jumps, but they are all always at least somewhat lewd, even if it's hidden behind what looks like a normal pizza service.

Rogue Agent

Spy Gadgets (100 CP): From binoculars to listening devices, you have a wide variety of tools that give you the edge in information gathering. Information is power, after all.

Injection Gun (200 CP): This little pistol-like device will inject the contents of whatever vial you insert into it. Just jab them with the needle on the end of the 'barrel', and pull the 'trigger'.

Getaway Vehicle (400 CP): This black van is nondescript enough that the authorities will have a difficult time tracking it (especially at night) and can go very fast indeed. Perfect for staging a getaway after your cover is blown.

Slime Tank (600 CP): If anyone disturbs this bright blue liquid, attractive futas made of slime will rise up from the surface and fuck the shit out of anyone they can get their hands on. They feel no tiredness or pain, but usually leave their prey alone after they've been utterly exhausted. Great for use in a security system, or just for fun. As the owner, they'll mostly follow your orders. Mostly.

Scenario: The Lewd Game Show

Some time after arriving in this jump, you'll receive an invitation to a very special game show, streamed in front of a live audience and broadcasted for all the world to see on the Neko Entertainment Channel. One where you'll be competing in various lewd events for a fabulous prize! Namely, a briefcase containing three large vials of liquid, one purple, one red and one blue. The events vary wildly, but they're all, indeed, quite lewd. Like a strip version of that classic japanese game where the contestants guess the identity of an object through touch alone, or one where they roll a die and have to make the cock indicated by the roll cum to get a point.

There's also ones where you'll go head to head against your fellow contestants directly, be it getting your cock (be it natural or provided by futa potion) milked and trying to last the longest before cumming while shooting out the most semen, getting inserted in a wall with your lower body sticking out and getting points based on how quick you can make a volunteer cum compared to your fellows, or even various 'minigames' using VR technology to the fullest.

There's even fun little side activities where the audience can participate in full force, like one where they get to toss colored rings onto the erect cock of the host and watch as the contestants get dropped into a pool of very horny slime with each successful throw.

As for the prize itself? Only the host master knows what they do but considering this is the Lewd Game Show, you can probably expect them to do something super lewd. Maybe making you bust the biggest nut in the world or go beyond super horny? Or maybe even three different things, there's three different colored liquids, after all. In any case, you'll find that they replenish themselves every week after winning. A fitting prize for proving yourself the lewdest one here~.

Companions

Import (100 CP): Have one of your companions join you here. They gain an Origin and 600 CP to spend on Perks and Items.

Yuki, Aiko, And Misaki (100 CP each): A trio of Nyakuza nekos. Their leader Yuki has blonde hair, pink eyes, a somewhat serious demeanor, and enjoys sucking as much as fucking. Aiko has blue-green hair and eyes, a quiet, almost shy personality, and loves lewd video games and modding. Misaki has bright blue eyes, black hair, is a bit of a space cadet and, despite having the most sex of the three, she's the least focused on it of the group. Each of them have Professional Seductress and the Nyakuza version of the Mistfighter Workout perk, with Misaki also having Please Cum Again. They're so close that if you buy all three of them they only cost 200 CP in all. If you also bought Unison Collars, they would be the ideal users, but even if you didn't their teamwork is impeccable.

Akeno (200 CP): A FTF officer with an incredibly thicc body, huge breasts, bright blue eyes and (dyed) hair and an incredibly lewd sense of curiosity. She's well trained at unarmed combat, beating Misaki in their spars every single time, and knows how to make all kinds of lewd potions. She has Professional Seductress and the FTF version of the Mistfighter Workout perk and comes with her own Overdrive Accessories. If you bought Lewd Lab, her talent can really shine, but even if you didn't she can probably whip something up for you.

Haru (200 CP): One of the few fully female nekos, she has blond hair, bright blue eyes and a mischievous streak a mile wide. She has the Just A Civilian, Honeytrap, and Bavarian Fire Drill perks, and the Nyakuza version of the Mistfighter Workout perk. She's also an incredibly skilled thief, spy, and seductress, able to break into secure facilities on multiple occasions. Try to keep her out of trouble.

Drawbacks

“An Android, A Blue Thing, And A Dino” (+0): There sure are a lot of people here that look (and to a lesser degree, act) like popular video game and anime characters. Taking this drawback will turn it up to eleven, so don't be surprised if you run into 2B having a threesome with Florence Nightingale and Hatsune Miku.

Small Dick Energy (Male/Futa Only) (+100): You have a small dick by modern, post-Lewd Mist standards... in that it's less than a foot long. People around here are horny enough that you'll likely still get people to sleep with you, but their pleasure during the process might be less than they crave. Maybe you can try receiving instead of giving?

Pockets Full of Holes (+100): You can never seem to hold onto money for long, forcing you to find one if not more sources of income. The good thing is that there are plenty of fun ways to make money in this world, but you are going to have trouble buying anything too expensive.

I Had To Stop To Pet A Cat (+100): No matter how hard you try, you always end up late to your appointments. Note that the effects of this drawback are weakened the more important the appointment is. Need to find someone before they succumb to Lewd Mist Exposure? Don't worry about it. Do you have a job interview? Maybe hurry a bit. Have a hot date? Yeah right.

Nymphomaniac (+100): Like a certain green-haired leek-loving idol, your sexual appetites are truly something to behold. At any given moment of the day, you're probably going to be craving wild sex like other people might crave cigarettes. I hope you at least have the willpower to resist semi-stalking your favorite sources of nookie unlike somebody I could mention.

Stoppered Up (+200): Oh dear! It seems that all of your out-of-jump perks and abilities have been sealed away by some powerful force! Don't worry, you'll get them back when your ten years here are up, and you still have your body mod and whatever you bought in this document. You're probably not going to need them anyway while you're here.

Mist Exposure (Human/Other Female/Futa Only) (+200/+400/+600): It seems that you spent a bit too much time in areas with high amounts of Lewd Mist. For every rank, your libido has been increased by your fair amount and your inhibitions have been weakened to match. At the first rank, you will start having lewd fantasies if you don't concentrate on the here and now and will have even more trouble focusing around actually sexy people and situations. At the second stage, you will find yourself thinking about sex at all hours of the day, and will find it very difficult to find a non-sexual job. At the third, you stop only being a danger to yourself and start being a danger to others, going on the prowl for victims in a barely cognizant frenzied state.

Along with the mental effects, the infection also causes certain portions of you to glow with pink light. At the first, only your pupils. At the second, the insides of your throat and other orifices...and finally from the cracks that are forming all over your body at three. Kinda freaky.

For some reason, no matter the efforts of the FTF or the Nyakuza, the mist stubbornly remains in your system: You cannot be cured until the end of the jump, but as a consolation prize, the Mist has also increased the size of your breasts, height, ass, and cock (if you happen to have one) depending on the rank of this drawback.

Wanted (+300): It seems that you did something bad, or the authorities think you did at least. Both the Futanari Task Force and the Nyakuza are after you, and if they catch you, expect to be subjected to loads of lewd punishments until you manage to escape. Thankfully, both organizations are mostly focused on combating the Lewd Mist, so with a bit of luck, you should be fine as long as you keep your head down.

Targeted (+500): It probably shouldn't be a surprise that the Lewd Mist isn't exactly natural. What might be more of a surprise is that there's some kind of organization behind the whole thing. Not much is known about them other than the fact that their foot soldiers use full-body suits (complete with helmets) and guns that can fire bursts of Mist or destructive blasts...and that their more important members are very very strong. Like, flight, dominate minds and can fire giant laser beams from their hands strong. Oh, and now they're coming after you for some reason. Thankfully, they seem to be very intent on secrecy but unless you happen to have something up your sleeve that can deal with this you're probably fucked and not in a good way.
