

You've been afflicted with a terrible curse

Tired of thrusting you into world after fantastical world of power and intrigue, your benefactor has decided to test your mettle in a whole new way. Prepare to lose your abilities, your gear, even your body as your mind is transplanted into the breasts of one lucky (or unlucky!) girl. Better hope you get along, because you are going to be completely dependent on this stranger for your time in this world.

Rules: It's a gauntlet, you know the drill: no perks, no powers, no items. If you've got a body mod, feel free to use it, just remember: you're boobs! That means, you might not have a lot of use for perks built for a normal humanoid body. You can leave at any point, but your reward depends on how long you stay. Start with 0 Chest Points.

Location: Choose when and where you want! Set your Jump in the contemporary USA or the 1930s or your favorite comic. It's completely up to you!

Your Hostess

Age: 18–45 (17 + 1d10 or 25 + 2d10)

Breast Size:

Below Average: She's basically flat, so there's not much of you to pay attention too. Might make your time here a little bit underwhelming.

Average: You aren't anything spectacular, but most people aren't gonna complain. She can thank you for a well-balanced figure.

Big: She's definitely top-heavy! Expect plenty of wanted and unwanted attention.

Huge: You're really something special. Honestly, at this size, you're probably making her life a bit harder, so let's hope she doesn't resent you.

Select whichever options you prefer, or choose randomly for +100 CP

Background:

Struggling: She's decidedly lower class. Don't expect many luxuries or much pampering.

Getting By: She's middle class. Might be a college girl, with a scholarship or loans. She'll probably have to work your entire time here.

Rich: She's comfortable; probably paid for school out of pocket. She could easily afford a year abroad or some long beach vacations.

Silver Spoon: She'll never have to work a day in her life. Can buy friends, houses, fancy cosmetic treatments. Probably owns the entire beach.

Your Life as a Pair of Boobs !

Jumpable Gauntlet v0.1

Required Drawbacks

You're Boobs! [0cp, Mandatory]:

You're fully inanimate, and you're entirely reliant on your hostess for most of your needs. You can still think, feel, and sense at your body mod level (see Boobvision perk) at least. You lose consciousness whenever she does, if you're wondering how sleep works.

Part of the Whole [0cp, Mandatory]:

You're entirely dependent on your hostess for your survival. By default, your hostess is unaware of your presence, believing her breasts to be the ordinary non-sentient kind. You don't get to choose exactly who she is, but without other drawbacks neither she nor her lifestyle will be particularly anathema to you.

Not Much To Look At [100cp]: Your hostess is not so attractive, either by your standards or by the standards of society at large. You, in particular, are not among her best features. What this means could vary from instance to instance: you could be saggy and asymmetrical, or the result of a cheap and obvious boob job.

Personality Clash [100cp]: You and your hostess wouldn't exactly be friends if you didn't share a body. Whatever interests you have, you can be guaranteed that she does not share them, and vice versa. Maybe you're a total party girl, and her ideal night is a quiet evening with a good book. Maybe you're a driven workaholic and she spends her time watching bad TV. Whatever it is, expect to spend a lot of time sitting through activities you don't really care for, watching/listening to movies you don't like, etc.

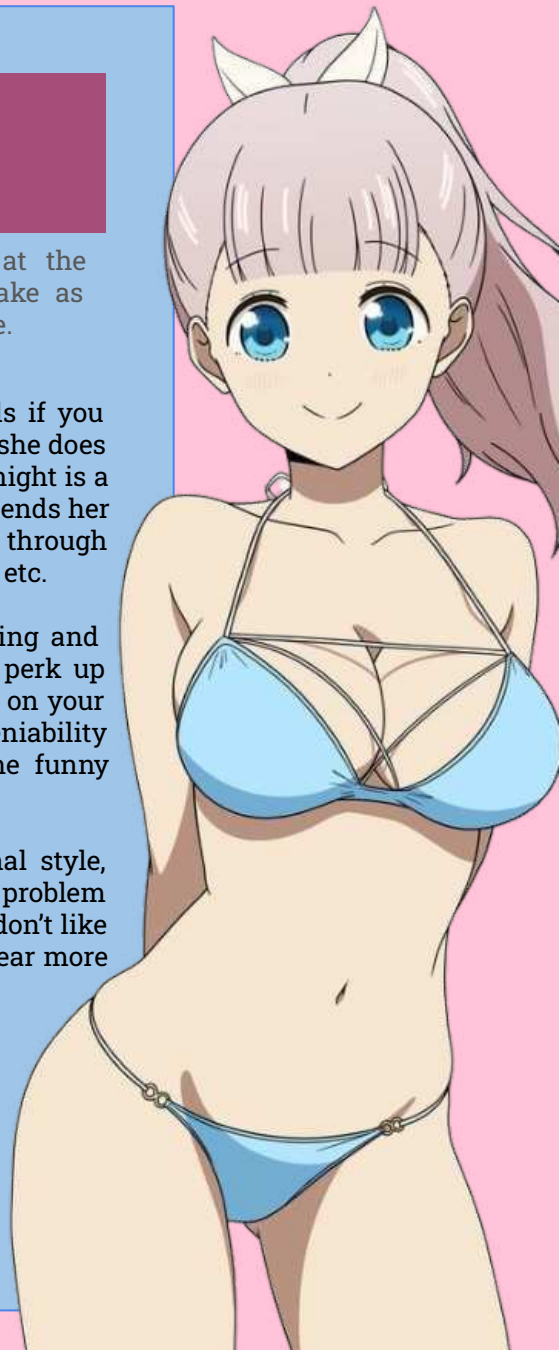

Jiggle Physics [100cp]: You aren't totally inanimate anymore, slightly moving and adjusting yourself involuntarily according to your emotions. You'll slightly perk up when you're paying attention, or sag when you're sad. You'll even jiggle a bit on your own when you get excited. This is subtle enough that there's plausible deniability about it being supernatural, but your hostess is probably gonna get some funny looks at her hyperactive chest.

Modesty Chic [100cp]: Your hostess has a well-developed sense of personal style, which unfortunately doesn't involve anything particularly revealing. This is a problem for you, because you see and hear through your skin, so cleavage is a must if don't like spending all day in the dark. It will be difficult to convince your hostess to wear more sentient-boob-friendly styles, even utilizing the "Emotionally Ample" perk.

Hard To Shop For [100cp]: Nothing quite seems to fit you right. Bras always seem to be either a little too tight, or way too big. Tops seem to hang off you in weird ways, or bunch up in the armpits, or show too much cleavage, etc. If your hostess cares about fashion, they're gonna find working around you a huge pain, and even if they don't, they'll still find their options for what to wear majorly limited. Don't expect the results of this drawback to typically be sexy skiminess either: ill-fitting clothes are much more likely to just make your hostess look awkward.

Optional Drawbacks

These drawbacks expire at the end of your time here. Take as many CP as you can tolerate.

More Drawbacks

Free The Nipple! [100/200cp]: You're never quite comfortable being covered up. For 100cp, you don't require total nudity, just a decent showing of cleavage to ensure you feel properly aired out. For 200cp, anything less than total toplessness feels distracting, stuffy, and uncomfortable. In either case, this isn't any sort of debilitating claustrophobia.

Certain Needs [100/200/300cp]: You crave human touch. It starts as a small itch after a day or two, but it grows to something pretty unbearable if you go more than a week without getting fondled by someone other than your hostess. For an additional +100cp, the touch of any particular individual has diminishing returns, meaning that any particular person can only satisfy your urges for about a month before you need to move on to someone new. For +200cp instead, any particular person is one-time-use only, meaning that you need to find a new partner every time you need your urge satisfied.

Smarter than the Average Boob [200cp]: Having boobs for brains doesn't exactly bode well for your cognitive capacity. For your time here your thoughts are sluggish and slow, and you're easily confused, to the point that you have trouble following most conversations.

Boob Sweat [200cp]: The "you can disable any of your senses" part of Boobvision no longer applies to you. Look forward to tasting soap every time your hostess takes a shower, and smelling a lot of old bras and BO.

Unwanted Houseguest [200/400cp]: Your hostess knows you're there and is NOT happy about it. She knows about the effects of any perks/drawbacks that you bought here or brought with you, and is highly resistant to any supernatural manipulation, such as through the Emotionally Ample perk. If you attempt to use such a tactic, she will be aware of it, even if it would usually be stealthy and undetectable.

For 200cp, she's creeped out and off-put by you being there. To her, you're an invasion of her privacy and a violation of her autonomy, and she will go out of her way to limit your ability to spy on or interfere with her life. Expect her to throw on an extra layer before sensitive conversations to muffle your hearing, and to shy away from touching you or having you touched. She might even wear underwear in the shower to prevent you from getting too good a look. Eventually, she might be open to compromise, if you have a way to communicate and can find a fair way for the two of you to coexist.

For 400cp, she is actively hostile to you, well beyond the point of reason. She detests your very existence and is willing to inconvenience or even mildly hurt herself if it means making your time here less bearable. Expect lots of intentionally uncomfortable bras, mild self-harm behaviors like pinching, intentional deprivation of entertainment and stimulation, etc. At this level, you are unable to disable your Boobvision senses when she is using your senses against you.

Breast Envy [200cp]: It turns out even tits can get body dysmorphia. You're going to find yourself constantly comparing yourself to other pairs, and almost always feeling deeply inadequate as a result. No amount of positive assurances can shake these feelings.

Your Life as a Pair of Boobs !

More Drawbacks

I♥Boobies [200cp]: Cancer. Half-way through your time here, your hostess will discover a lump in you, which will turn out to be a malign, yet non-fatal, tumor. Expect surgery, chemo, and several years of follow-up appointments. Painful for you, stressful for you and your hostess. There is no way for you to deal with the cancer other than sitting through the treatments, regardless of your abilities and perks.

Amnesiac [200cp]: You have no memory of your life prior to being boobs. As far as you're concerned you are simple a pair of breasts that spontaneously gained consciousness, with no prior history other than as a body part. This includes all memory of Jumpchain, other than a vague certainty that you will somehow transcend at the end of your 10 years.

Blind, Deaf, & Dumb [200/600cp]: Most boobs can't sense their surroundings so well, and originally you were gonna get off easy by being the exception to that rule. Not so much anymore. Choose sight or vision (or both for quadruple points). From now on your Boobvision can no longer emulate that sense, leaving you functionally blind or deaf for your time here.

Insomniac [300cp]: Remember that thing about losing consciousness whenever your hostess does? That no longer applies to you. Although you don't have a brain and so can't physically sleep, your hostess definitely does, so you're going to have a lot of boring nights. Oh, and any powers, perks, and abilities that might alleviate the boredom are disabled while your hostess is sleeping or unconscious.

Locked-In Syndrome [0/400cp]: You do not receive the "Emotionally Ample" perk, and cannot purchase any of its upgrades. For 0cp, you instead receive the ability to telepathically speak to your hostess, replacing your ability to emotionally influence them. For 400cp, you receive no compensation whatsoever, and are essentially unable to act or communicate at all.

Perks

Comfortably Fashionable [100cp]: Between rigid bras, tight tops, and heavy jackets there are a lot of ways that women can constrict their breasts. Luckily, you are completely comfortable in enclosed spaces, immune to claustrophobia, and unbothered by physical constraints. You are never remotely impeded by your/your hostess's clothing, no matter how tight, impractical, or weather-inappropriate.

Stress Balls [100cp]: You're REALLY nice to the touch. You find that when people get the chance to feel you up, all their worries seem to just melt away. Over time, it might even make good therapy. Post-jump, affects anyone who engages in any affectionate or intimate contact with you for more than a few minutes.

Self-Supporting [100cp]: Say goodbye to sports bras, your hostess isn't going to need them! In addition to having a subtle gravity-defying perkiness, you can take any amount of running, jumping, etc. without any boob-related discomfort for you or your hostess. Your hostess could sprint a 400m dash completely braless and you wouldn't even be sore afterwards. Post-jump this applies to your whole body: no form of non-injurious physical exertion will cause lasting discomfort or strain. This doesn't increase your stamina, but does prevent you from feeling sore the day after a workout or fight. This also has the effect of rendering you impervious to the effect of large G forces.

Big Personalities [100cp]: You lend your hostess a lot of apparent charisma. People who find you physically attractive will find her funnier, cuter, more charming or competent, etc. (whatever she happens to be going for at the time). This is worth only 100cp, so expect a fairly subtle effect, though it scales with just how attractive her conversation partner finds you. Post-jump, this applies to you directly, instead of your hostess.

Star Material [200cp]: Wow, you're photogenic! Usually, something is lost in translation between a picture and a video and between a video and real life. This is much less true for you than it is for other tits: somehow the camera seems to capture every bounce or jiggle at just the perfect angle so that it's almost better than if you were right there in the room. In addition to enhancing photos and portraits in a manner which synergizes with other beauty-enhancing perks, any vision-based power or effect which would usually require proximity can now function through recordings.

The Whole Package [200cp]: If you're gonna be relying on your hostess for everything, you might as well lend her some of your power. You may share and revoke any of your body-mod perks to your hostess, during which time they remain accessible to you. In future jumps, you can share any of your perks with anyone you are physically touching, which auto-revokes whenever contact ceases.

Chemical Being [200cp]: You have full control over your hostess's hormones, which tend to have an enhanced effect, slightly beyond what should be physiologically possible. In future Jumps, you can apply this to yourself.

Your Life as a Pair of Boobs !

Perks

Eyes Up Here [200/400cp]: People can't seem to keep their eyes off you, even if it goes against their better judgement or will embarrass them socially. Anyone who would be remotely tempted to sneak a peek at you will invariably give in every few minutes or so. They might try to hide it, by going in when your hostess is looking the other way, but even if they don't have that opportunity they eventually will let their eyes wander anyway. Toggleable, and does not function if your target isn't tempted in the first place.

For an additional +200cp, the scope of this perk expands to cover any kind of temptation concerning a physical action involving you, such as giving you a squeeze, or (post-jump) listening to you sing or shaking your hand. Careful; you could ruin your hostess's life with this.

Shoulders Back, Boobs Out [200cp]: How you carry yourself (or how your hostess carries you) has a big effect on how you're perceived. Good thing you have total effortless mastery of your hostess's posture and movements when it comes to you. You can't control her actions directly, but you can ensure that however she does move/stand brings maximum attention to you or diminishes you, at your discretion.

Post-jump, affects all aspects of your physical posture and movement and all possible ways that they can be perceived, allowing you to stand in the most intimidating possible way, walk with maximum beauty and grace, or brood with nearly supernal mystery. Requires no effort or concentration.

Perks

Pretty Privilege [400cp]: You're probably a big part of what people find physically attractive about your hostess, and for most people, that could be something of a mixed bag. Attractive people can be treated better, yes, but they also get objectified, resented, and assumed about in restricting and frustrating ways, especially if they're attractive in a particularly sexualized fashion.

Not when you're involved though. Your hostess (and you, in future jumps) only experience the good parts of physical attractiveness and none of the bad parts. Y'all could be cute as a button or the sexiest thing in the world, and it wouldn't impede your ability to be taken seriously, make friends, or even intimidate. Conversely, y'all can be as competent, crude, scary, etc, as you want without it impeding your perceived attractiveness.

Patience of the Inanimate [400cp]: Boobs can't play video games, boobs can't do crafts, and boobs don't usually have many close friends. In fact, there aren't a lot of things that boobs CAN do. So, if you're going to survive this jump without going mad, you need to be able to tolerate slow times. Hence this perk: you are absolutely immune to boredom, no ifs, ands, or buts. Post-Jump, you could sit motionless for decades at full alert doing nothing but waiting and not be negatively impacted in the least.

Wardrobe Malfunction [400cp]: You're hard to contain! Whenever someone is trying to keep you under wraps, such as by hiding you under a constricting garment, circumstances have a way of setting you free. Expect to be nearly impossible to imprison, trap, or keep out of the spotlight in future jumps, with extreme and constant diligence (or exceptional power) required for such efforts to last more than a few hours against your will. Toggleable.

Growth Overflowing [400cp]: Usually, breast growth slows down post-adolescence, after a woman's body finishes maturing. You don't have time for that! You have total control over your own growth, capping out at about one poundup or down per day, with no upper limit (though your hostess might not be happy if you take full advantage of this). Post-jump, it's not just your size that's uncapped: all your abilities and perks can be trained with no upper-limits or diminishing returns. Moreover, you can direct your abilities to grow on their own with no effort on your part, equivalent to about 3 hours per day of free practice.

Powers

Boobvision [Free / 100cp]: Ordinarily, boobs don't have the greatest sensory acuity. However, for the duration of this jump, you can treat your skin as a universal sense organ, seeing, hearing, tasting, and smelling through its surface. Of course, you are boobs, and boobs are often covered up, so some of your senses will be less useful than they usually would be. On the plus side, you can disable any of your senses at will, for when you don't want to taste your hostess's body wash or have had enough of the scent of a particular bra.

For 100cp, you can keep this effect in future jumps, allowing you to project any of your senses through your skin, such as seeing through the back of your head or tasting via touch. At this level, the synesthesiac effect is highly enhanced, as you can psychologically categorize any of your senses as any other, eg. to experience gustatory pleasure from a beautiful picture, or to avoid disgust from the smell of anything you could bear to touch or look at.

Emotionally Ample [Free/100/200/300cp]: You have emotional depth far surpassing other boobs. For the duration of this jump, you can directly transmit emotions to your hostess. These emotions can be specific (eg. craving chocolate ice cream) or powerful (eg. being absolutely famished), but usually not both, as greater specificity comes with the tradeoff of less power and vice-versa. Note that even at its most powerful, this is at most a strong suggestion.

For +100cp, you retain this in future jumps, affecting anyone you are in physical contact with. For an additional +100cp it can affect anyone who looks directly at you, even through clothing. Finally, for an additional +100cp, you can transmit complex thoughts, which are indistinguishable from the target's own (though not necessarily fully persuasive), or transmit telepathic messages as if you were speaking aloud. These upgrades can be taken independently of each other.

Hidden Figure [100cp]: Despite your actual size and shape, you seem to be able to fit into anything. A skimpy top three sizes too small could easily cover you up, like a cartoon character hiding behind a pole, or you could fill up a much-too-large bra. In essence, any article of clothing fits you perfectly, with your apparent size changing to match the ideal proportions of the garment until it's removed. This obviously only applies to tops during the jump, but afterwards applies to all clothing reasonably proportioned for an adult of your species. You hostess can also squeeze into any space as if they were flat chested. In future jumps, you can pass through any opening large enough for your head.

Entrancing Boobage [100/200/400cp]: Boobs sure are fun to look at, aren't they? Well, you take that a step farther: you are positively magnetic. Every curve, every minute jiggle is supernaturally mesmerizing, even through clothing. This can be toggled, or even targeted at specific individuals.

For 100cp, this is a minor effect, little more than distraction, or perhaps aiding your hostess with a modeling career if you also bought "Built for Video".

For 200cp, it enters the realm of titnosis, as anyone who looks upon your full uncovered shape in person is dragged into a suggestible hypnotic state. At this level, the effect is limited: it takes a few minutes for the trance to induce, during which it can be broken by willpower or distraction, and the hypnotic suggestions imparted are limited and temporary. Since you are boobs, you probably also will have to rely on your hostess to actually deliver the commands (unless you have Emotionally Ample suitably upgraded).

For 400cp, your hypnosis is far faster and more complete, nearly impossible for an ordinary individual to snap out of via willpower alone, and capable of fully reprogramming their mind once they're ensnared.

In future jumps, this perk can apply to your entire body, or merely to a particular body part at your discretion.

Items

Your hostess will come into possession of any items you buy here when the gauntlet starts, though it's you who gets to take them with you when the gauntlet ends.

The Perfect Bra [100cp]: It never fades, tears, or needs cleaning, and is somehow always the right size, even if you grow or shrink. Gives perfect support, while somehow also being fashionable and attractive in exactly the way you need at any given time. Changes color and style at your discretion. "You" means you, by the way, not your hostess.

The Fitted Dress [100cp]: A beautiful dress that is always flattering in exactly the way you want. You can change its color, style, cut, etc, though only when no one is looking directly at it. Always fits, never tears or stretches, unless you want it to for some reason, in which case it is extremely fragile in whatever places you want but repairs overnight.

The Special Vitamins [200cp]: A sizable collection of pills, each with a different breast-related effect, such as increasing or decreasing size, inducing or stopping lactation, or reversing sag. Effects are not completely instant, but usually require a day or two to fully kick into effect. Optionally, while you're in the jump, some of these even function as mild recreational drugs, giving you an alcohol-like buzz or . Restocks weekly.

The Topless Beach [300cp]: Everyone at this beach is unusually comfortable with being topless, or even in the nude. The women here naturally strip off their bikini-tops as if it's completely ordinary behavior, even if they would otherwise be insecure or embarrassed or scandalized by the activity. Plus, it's just a really good beach, with beautiful, clear water and clean, white sand. Can be public or private at your discretion, and your choice can change between jumps.

Your Life as a Pair of Boobs !

Rewards

You can choose to leave at any point, but your reward depends on how long you choose to stay in this world. The jump also automatically ends if you find any way of detaching yourself from your host, or if your host dies.

Less Than 2 Years: Sorry, it takes a little more dedication that this to earn your perks. Consider this a gauntlet fail; you move on without retaining anything you purchased here.

2 Years: Congrats, you made it! Move on to your next jump, retaining all the perks and items you acquired here.

5 Years: In addition to the benefits from the previous tier, you may now freely design your chest at the beginning of every jump, choosing anything within the natural limits of your species.

10 Years: In addition to the benefits from the previous tiers, you may possess the breasts of any woman you touch, causing your physical body (as well as clothing and equipment, within reason) to dissipate, as your consciousness enters her breasts. This functions exactly the same as in this Gauntlet, including granting you the free tiers of Boobvision and Emotionally Ample if you did not take them with you. Unlock the gauntlet, you retain all of your powers and abilities when in this form, so long as they don't require an animate body to function. You can reconstitute your body and equipment at any time.

50 Years: In addition to the benefits from the previous tiers, you may transfer your consciousness from boob-to-boob any time your current hostess touches another physically-mature female.

100 Years: In addition to the benefits from the previous tiers, you may now lock other people inside your own breasts with a touch, and can transfer the current occupants of your own breasts into the breasts of any other woman you touch, or vice versa. Any powers or abilities they might have are locked away while they are trapped in this way, except for the free tiers of Boobvision and Emotionally Ample. There is no limit to the number of occupants you can have at any given time, though they are automatically released if you ever find yourself without female breasts.

200 Years: All of the effects of the previous rewards tiers, as well as any other abilities or perks that you have that require physical touch now function with only line of sight. You CANNOT receive this tier of reward if you took "Patience of the Inanimate" during your time here.
