

Generic norithics Jumpchain

(Jumpable 1.00001)

Hello, Jumper. You found yourself in the realm created by the artist known as Norithics Kusemurai.

Of course they don't really have much of a consistent setting outside of that one story they did, but they do have plenty of recurring characters, tropes, and shenanigans going on that don't conflict with each other, so that might as well be considered a setting which is one of the places you might find yourself in this Jump! So whether it's the far-flung future of Partners volumes 1 and 2 or the "setting" implied by his various gags and recurring characters, your "adventures" for the next 10 years will be drawn from the art of Norithics.

You now have +1000 CP

Background

You may freely choose your age.

Free choice of sex change be it male, Nullo, female or hermaphrodite.

You become any of the races depicted in the works of norithics except for succubi, rubber people, and vampires for free. Bear in mind that all such races are roughly human levels of power unless the perk A Super-Powered Porn Star is taken.

You may have a memory of your past and history in this world or not as you desire.

Perks

You may discount 1 perk of each price tier.

Discounted 100 CP perks are Free.

Lolidonk* Free

What you probably came here for. With this perk in this and every other world you encounter, you will find that regardless of age people of any sex wind up developing exaggerated asses, ranging from what one might find on a female rap star to mild hyper hiney that can barely squeeze between doorways. Anyone with a penis is similarly blessed with a big beautiful bulge that ranges between 15 inches in length and the thickness of a soda can to rockhard rods that can be mistaken for extra legs and scrotums like volleyballs. Nullos sporting sensitive squeezable nulllges nearly the size of their heads unless they go for the bussy nullge option in which case it will only be the size of an adult's fist. With all the sensitivity being moved to the sphincter, Rectum and prostate. Of course since this is a porn setting no one ever has any serious trouble penetrating or being penetrated by anyone else and neither will anyone with this perk. Hermaphrodites and females can likewise be extremely endowed with gravity defying breasts the size of their torsos if not larger without having to worry about back pain. Do note that this operates off of convenience/porn logic so there shouldn't be any trouble with chafing or permanent damage to your partners from suffocating them with your massive endowments, etc.

I'm Somebody's Fetish* -100 CP (Free for this jump)

This artist is known for their love of extremely geeky dorks with braces, thick glasses and argyle sweater vests, suspenders etc. and boys with big bellies which as it may not surprise you is not what most people find attractive but in their works such folk have no trouble whatsoever finding partners. With this perk you'll find that whatever your appearance may be it's actually a prominent fetish with a very large following of devotees ensuring you'll never be short of people willing to pound or be pounded by you.

Author Appeal -100 CP (Free for this jump)

Bisexual/Biromantic versatile is the default for everyone, sure some people might be monosexual but that doesn't mean other genders are something they can't be tempted by or pressured into exploring. And if you take this free perk you'll find that in future jumps the same fact of life holds true for everyone else, orientation will never be a serious obstacle to charming your way into someone else's underwear again. Just be aware that more people might be trying to charm their way into yours.

"Fun for all Ages!"* -100 CP

Now, there are some very good reasons why having sex before you're both physically and mentally ready for it is a terrible idea... luckily, it just so happens that none of that really matters anymore. If you're old enough to want sex, you're old enough to have sex without causing any problems, which is probably a considerable relief for any Jumpers that might be stuck in the body of a perpetually horny tween. The flip-side to this though, is that this affects everyone, not just you and your Companions, making the now constantly horny adolescents even more of a pain to deal with than they would be normally. Thankfully, this protection also extends to matters of legality. So long as everything was consensual, or at least, enjoyable enough that nobody really minds anyway. You won't ever really get into trouble for your various shenanigans and acts of sexual misconduct. Though this effect alone won't stop a jealous boyfriend from punching you in the face, or an angry dad from giving you the infamous 'shovel speech'.

Pierre's Own Luck -200 CP

It's one thing to charm yourself into somebody's pants it's another thing to have the kind of charisma and sex appeal to easily talk your way into into a threesome even with people who aren't necessarily a couple or don't swing towards your gender, or who hate each other or have some other kind of sexual taboo that prevents them from sleeping with each other. In addition to being so massively charming and sexy you can do that. Whether individually or two at a time, you're able to use threesomes as a "loophole" to convince nearly any two people to sleep with you.

Rubber Person -200 CP

The politically correct way to refer to intelligent living blowup sex dolls rubber people are literally made for sex with amazingly elastic bodies if you'll pardon the pun and not only biologically immortal, ceasing to age once you hit your peak. but incredibly regenerative given sufficient food. Blessed with removable orifices they are still able to experience the sensations of from anywhere in the same planet they have a natural knack for sex with penis owners easily able to bring anyone with a Dick to a massive orgasm at the drop of a hat which is handy since as constructs they feed exclusively on latex and the life energy in sperm. Do note that after the jump this becomes an alternate form.

Vampires are Alive -200 CP

You are a vampire, gifted with numerous dark abilities such as hypnotism Powerful enough to make your blood slaves orgasm from simply your command, the ability to command and create fog, shape changing to and from various feral animals such as bats and wolves or even fog. Eternal life frozen at whatever age you were changed into a vampire at Along with potent regeneration. Of course all this is fueled by your need to drain the living of their life essence be it sperm or blood be careful you can kill someone by draining them either way so if you love someone layoff the blow jobs. Thankfully with this perk you are a daywalker you suffer none of the traditional vampire weaknesses save silver stakes and garlic. Thankfully after the jump if you wish to suppress your dark hunger you may treat this as an alternate form although be aware that your vampire abilities are fueled by the life force you consume and will wane if you don't keep yourself fed. And that wounds received before becoming a vampire will not be healed

Precocious Prodigy -400 CP

You're one of the most intellectually gifted people in the world, learning at an astounding rate of speed you can easily study and test out of grade school within two years and complete college with an advanced degree such as Dr. of psychiatry or mathematics in another three. It'll still be a fair amount of work but it will be work you can handle.

Cartoon Casanova* -400 CP

You are a master of seduction and sex to the degree that it is literally funny how easy it is for you to seduce someone. Whether it's simply pointing out the erection a person gave you or receiving a surprise sex session by bending over to pick up the books you dropped in your school hallway, your ability to entice others into erotic situations is literally ludicrous. Likewise, your sex skills are on the level of delivering nearly instant mind breaking orgasms as if you were the antagonist of a instant loss comic. Best of all, all the shenanigans are just seen as "you being you", and if you have committed romantic partners they won't mind other committed romantic partners or any physical or romantic infidelity on your part.

A Super-Powered Porn Star -400 CP

You can fly faster than a speeding bullet, are more powerful than a steaming locomotive, and are more durable than a tank! You also look damn good in swimwear! Long story made short; you're just all-around better and more capable than any singular person can possibly be (even in comics) using largely mundane, twentieth century equipment. This defaults to you being a classic 'flying brick' with all the necessary secondary powers to let you act like a dollar store Superman without screwing it up, including the ability to dial back your strength and speed to appear more normal, as well as the ability to somehow use your powers without wrecking everything, and everyone around you, I.E. like catching people at jet-level speeds without shattering every bone in their bodies, or using your super-strength to put down a Villain without reducing them to chunky salsa from the sheer force of your blows, alternately you can receive a power set based on your species or Pokémon type with a similar set of "required secondary powers" This also translates to your powers having some rather fun applications in the bedroom as well, imagine that. Comes free with a standard 'heroic' physique, like any proper Nineties-inspired Superhero (bulging muscles optional) that, in true Superhero fashion, you never have to put in effort to maintain, and a downright inhuman level of stamina and rate of recovery for both in and out of the bedroom. Perfect for those long nights on patrol, and even longer nights spent at home.

Pornographic Yonkoma -400 CP (Booster perk)

Don't want the fun to end do you? It's easy to get spoiled by how accessible the most enjoyable of lewd activities are in a place like this and now you don't have to give give them up, you'll find your further travels are as erotically charged and filled with the same kind of playful humping and childish flirting that you find here. The line between outercourse and cuddling disappears, sex is no longer considered a taboo but something rambunctious kids engage in. Elementary schools start forming "urban glee clubs" i.e. twerk teams and hebophiles will find that the preferred treatment is exposure therapy, and high school football teams will find the opposing side's cheerleaders waiting to be ravished in their locker room after a win. Synergizes with the perks And items marked with an asterisk

Fantastical Curiosities -600 CP (Can be purchased multiple times, only one discount applies.) Beyond the mundane there are some truly fantastical things people can do in this world, and by purchasing this you can become one of their number. Perhaps you'll become a true genius on par with Norithics Kusemurai; able to whip up various comic book clark tech implants such as clone tank inducing testicles, spacesuits durable and with enough haptic feedback to let someone have sex with the outer layer of a star, or counted among the most brilliant minds in the far flung future. Giving you a firm grounding in the wide variety of technology available in the year 2541. In either case, your miraculous inventions push the boundaries of what people think is possible in the world; freeze rays, "smart" clothing, and handheld scanners being par for the course. Though you truly excel in projects that align themselves with your more... personal interests; easily being recognized among your peers, and giving so called super heroes something to take seriously. However, should you be more of a mystical sort the path of magic can open to you; with rituals, potions and more being at your beck and call. Of course, your talents will truly shine within a narrow field of spellcraft; perhaps taking after Alexander Salome, and her own talents in enchantments and transformations to fulfill your desires. Whatever your specialty you also have the power and knowledge of the techniques used in transforming someone's genitals into a nullbulge, whether it's the insensitive skin of the lock type the hypersensitive but conditionally orgasmic heart lock type or the pleasure rerouting Bussy Nulge (with the arrow going into the top of the heart) which pulls all primary sexual gratification into the ass, making it the new primary sexual orifice.

Succubutt -600 CP

You are a succubus/incubus as appropriate to your gender and so your demonic nature gives you several abilities. Not only are you fireproof and much physically tougher than most humans but killing you in the mortal world merely returns you to hell waiting to be summoned again. Bear in mind this effect can Only save you from death once per jump Until you spark. Furthermore you have a field that makes people around you horny for you, which grows in power relative to how long it's been since you fed. However you do not actually steal people souls, instead by draining them of their energy you can use them as an anchor point to return to them from hell wherever they are.

Clone Tanking -600 CP

Instead of having kids like normal you instead give birth/sire to hive mind clones of yourself these clones aren't entirely accurate having a fair share of the other parents DNA with your mind and personality, conception guaranteed every time regardless of sex, developmental stage or species and the resulting pregnancies don't last longer than a week. Unlike the titular tanuki this can be adjusted so that you don't necessarily overwrite your kids unless you decide to. Unfortunately if a continual effect targets and binds to your soul it will follow you to your next body, since your soul and mind subsume the spirits and mind of your children when you take them over.

Consequences Aren't Sexy -600 CP

So now you'll have to deal with fewer of them. People just won't take the stuff you do as seriously as long as it has a strong sexual component to it. Whether it's forced shifting, brainwashing or out and out rape as long as you're doing it out of sheer horniness nobody not even those affected will see it as any worse than a tasteless but harmless prank.

Items

Items Are not discounted

Fashion Backward Free

This is a vast collection of retro 90s and pride flag themed apparel ranging from Day-Glo neon wedge sneakers to movie theater carpet print tops to Memphis inspired one piece swimsuits, to a wide variety of pride flag themed underwear. Even EGL dresses with petticoats & argyle pattern sweater vests with button up shirts and pants with suspenders and taped up glasses. Even includes full-body latex suits with zippers in all the right places in a variety of sizes and colors as well as Hello Kitty themed BDSM getups. If you have any special clothing you may import it here for free to get it re-stylized. Cleaver sleeves and special cut inseams to hold massive scrotums comfortably around.

Loli-pop Soda -100 CP

You know what can never be big enough? Asses. This flavorless, odorless and completely "safe" liquid food additive is incredibly fattening and can fatten someone up in a matter of seconds. The thing is the fact only gathers in one area, the derrière, thus giving anyone who drinks it a behind worthy of the most lurid rap video.

Retro Videogame Arcade -100 CP

No matter how endowed and horny they are, kids are still kids, and kids like to play video games. This is an arcade filled with a wide variety of both popular and rare video games from around the world guaranteed to become a popular hangout spot for all the kids in town whether it's a working cabinet for Golly! Ghost! or a two player variation of Manx TT: SuperBike with upgraded with haptic feedback to make it extra romantic to play with each other. You're guaranteed to make a decent chunk of change and meet plenty of cuties at this arcade

BDSM Farm -200 CP

You own a small boy/girl milk farm somewhere out in the countryside now what do I mean by boy/girl milk? Well simple the animals being milked are in fact fully intelligent people this highly secure facility with many discrete and well-trained guards and "ranch hands" is perfectly capable of imprisoning and milking dozens of people long-term supplying enough fresh breast milk to resale at the rates you would expect for cow's milk and that's not even counting the money you can make selling the semen of the livestock here.

Understicker Stuff* -200 CP

Understickers! The literal underwear of the future! These thin smart material garments painlessly and nearly seamlessly attach to nearly any body type, no matter how hairy or scaly! Although they cover little more than the genitals, anal sphincter and nipples the real fun part of them is not the wide variety of styles they come from or how they are able to redirect erections to hide them or be suitable for swimwear for any depth a body can survive at, nor their ability to contain even very large ejaculations without so much as a wet spot. No, what people love them for is their ability to not only selectively transmit sensory data from their surface allowing for sanitary rimming but their ability to simulate and stimulate almost any kind of sensation that would happen with the areas they are in contact with to a variety of programmable degrees with not only flexible and solid constructs made from the sticker material but personal resonance fields capable of simulating almost any kind of sex organ or toy to themselves with another sticker or compatible computer program to a degree of accuracy that normal touch is unable to distinguish it! Go ahead and use the PRF strapon to bang your girlfriend on the train ride home, both of you fully dressed and undetectable by anyone else on the train! Understickers were a godsend for boys as well making anal painless, rimming became hygienically sound, and the whole affair got a lot less messy! Of course, there's plenty of augmented reality and holographic vanity effects if you just like the visual of the shot. Furthermore they are the ultimate in Teledildonics enabling lonely nerds to bang each other across great distances via humping pillows with stickers on them in games connected to the Internet. A new generation of porn stars has been born by having their sensitive parts heavily scanned and mapped to enable not just simulations of them in software and telepresence but allow both solid and PFR sticker constructs to mimic them allowing anyone to experience using their endowments. Purchasing this grants you not just a wide range of understickers in a variety of styles but also a technical database to teach you everything you need to make and program them as well as a development kit to help design compatible software.

Rubber Ray Gun -200 CP

A ray gun that "turns" people into rubber Sex doll people by transferring their consciousness into one that it generates temporarily, great if you want to really nail that cutie who won't give up her orifices. Automatically reverses in a couple of days if not transferred back sooner or the permanent setting isn't used. Includes blueprints and technical details to make more. Be warned most superpowers will transfer with the swap.

The Shota/Lolifier -400 CP

A ray gun that physically age regresses people except it doesn't work on their reproductive system due to delicate hormonal changes so they maintain their libido and endowments. Can also be used to make super people more manageable since age is usually proportionate with strength. Includes blueprints and technical details to make more. Good for therapy, work out issues stemming from childhood by doing childhood all over again. Perfectly reversible simply by switching the setting on the gun.

Secret Base -400 CP

A technologically/mystically advanced super villain base perfect for housing lots of minions/harems and packed with booby-traps, both erotic and deadly. Fairly fortified against assaults by state agents and superheroes/villains and well hidden. Contains a great workshop perfect for your use whether it's scientific or mystical.

Dweebinator -400 CP

A simplistic Ray gun marked with an argyle pattern. This device has several effects which take place instantly on zapping somebody with it. The effects are permanent until you reverse them with the reverse setting but why would you change them back?

1. A notable increase in intelligence correlating directly with sesquipedalian loquaciousness i.e. use of foot and a half long words

2. A proportionate decrease in height, musculature, strength and endurance.
3. Suppression of physical superpowers
4. Misalignment of teeth combined with the addition of braces
5. Transformation into/addition of clothes stereotypical nerd outfits, i.e. belt and suspenders high pants, argyle sweater vest and socks, giant taped up prescription glasses
6. Myopia

In short it makes someone a nerd who's easy to bully and pick on. Do note that vastly powerful beings may be immune to it, it's only been tried on augmented mortals so far.

Companions

No discount on companions

Canon Companion -50 CP

Choose one of the original characters depicted by norithics; you can take them with you after your jump.

The Harem Option -300 CP

As above but instead of choosing one you may instead take as long as many as you can convince to come with you.

Companion Import -100 CP

you may import up to eight companions each of whom gains the same discounts and free options as you and 600 CP to spend how they please, imported companions may not purchase companions.

Literal Companion -50/200 CP

A former member of the Guild until you bought out their contract, this Companion has agreed to join you on your journey throughout the Multiverse to offer you... well, companionship. Both that of the more carnal variety as well as full-on emotional support. These Guild Companions are friendly, amiable, and incredibly skilled prostitutes who take their contracts very seriously and are extremely loyal to their employer, which is now you. Which is not to say they're your perfectly obedient slaves or anything, they're still people who want plenty of attention, affection, as well as creature comforts, and are unlikely to be very happy with you if you force serious hardship on them unnecessarily. They won't sleep with other people if you don't want them to, but keep in mind that that means you're going to be the one who takes care of their libido full-time, and some of these people are extremely horny. Standard Guild members are 50 CP a piece, whereas families like the Turnbaums are a 'package deal', I.E. 150 CP for all three of them. Superhuman members of the Guild like Cherry Bomb are 200 CP a pop, and Alexandra Salome and her full family (including her wife and two daughters) is 600 CP.

Return of the Clone Saga -50 CP

Instead of making a Companion of one of Nori's characters, this Companion is a clone of one of those same characters created specifically to be your loyal minion/Companion. These clones can be made of any version of any character that has ever been drawn by Nori (and/or a canon character if this Jump is being used as a Supplement). Though they lack any powers or special abilities the original might have, they're 'born' knowing well enough how to take care of themselves and assist you in a variety of tasks, be they sexual, mundane, or even related to super-villainy. By default they resemble the original in both looks and personality (well, aside from their loyalty and subservience to you anyway), but you can make minor tweaks over the original, such as 'Alexandra Salome, but a bunny instead of a cat', or 'Gwen, but older', 'Nori, but female', 'Rip Slyme, but not a Rubber Person', etc. If you want a clone to actually be a Rubber Person, Demon, Superpowered person, Succubus or vampire, that costs an extra 50 CP.

Drawbacks

You may choose Up to 3 drawbacks, not counting +0 CP drawbacks.

Crossover +0 CP

Norithics The real person is a very generous artist known for accepting a wide variety of commissions and drawing a lot of his friends' characters, as well as letting other people use his OCs. with this any character that has crossed over with a character he has drawn be it an OC or one of his friends can be considered canon or not as you desire.

Supplement Mode +0 CP

Rather than using this as a jump into itself, you may instead take this jump as a supplement. however by doing so you may not take drawbacks or companions from this document and all CP gained from this document must be spent in this document.

Jury NULLification +100 CP

As in, you were found guilty and the judge decided to get creative and nullify you. You have your genitals sealed in a penile nudge - yes, even if you have a pussy. This is different from most nullges and that rather than rerouting sensitivity to your sphincter or functioning as a different kind of pleasure center, this allows you to literally be teased and edged endlessly and your horniness and sensitivity to build beyond the normal limits of your anatomy. Sounds great, right? The catch is you can only ever orgasm with explicit verbal consent of a living sapient partner and even then nothing comes out since there's nowhere for anything to come out. Fortunately, the Magic behind it will keep you from having to use urethra for anything really.

Temptation +200 CP

You're really open to what attractive people propose to you; such as a superhero being strongly tempted to job so they can get captured and milked by their fetching nemesis. Nothing that forces you to say yes; but in a porn world like this you must face constant temptation, or risk going along with whatever others want to do with you as it all sounds real fun and the threat of over indulgence is always present. Almost as if you're the focus character of a new set of pics, and there's many times where you're one choice away from being pulled into a day of debauchery instead of whatever your plans may have been.

Instant Erection/Moisture +200 CP

You get horny at the drop of a hat; making it hard to focus on other things unless you get your rocks off to satisfaction every few hours at least.

Semi-dweebified +200 CP

You've been dweebified; but with none of the benefits of increased intelligence that come from that. Expect to get a lot less action from anyone who isn't summarily socially disadvantaged for the duration of this jump as people without dweeb fetishes find you very unappealing.

Warehouseless +300 CP

Apparently you have annoyed your benefactor because your warehouse and all out of jumpitems are unavailable to you.

Are You New Here? +300 CP

Because this seems to be your first jump, all out of jump and perks aside from your body mod are locked for the duration of your stay.

Damsel/Dude in Distress +300 CP

You start the jump captured by some Supervillain you must find a way to escape their secret layer and evil henchpeople or else spend the jump as their prisoner/sex toy. Though as a small mercy, spies or super villains might attack the fortress infrequently; giving you an opportunity to escape with their help, at the risk of being "punished" if you get caught bare in mind that your powers are suppressed in the layer so you won't be at your full strength until you finally make your escape.

Dick Sucking Monsters +400 CP

Vampires and succubi find you extremely attractive not just for your body, but for the life energy your body produces, that is, yours being exquisite "tasting" with them remarking that your vital fluids are the most delicious they've ever had. Naturally since succubi and vampires tend to form cliques with their own and gossip word is going to get around about how good you taste. Leading to more and more of them seeking you out. I do hope you have the willpower to resist more than occasional indulgence in better oral sex than any mortal could possibly give from people who are able to teleport directly to you or you might wind up as a pile of ash.

Livestock +400 CP

You have been sent to a BDSM farm as an animal to "pay back your debt". Unfortunately the handlers and security systems scale with you, all the better to keep you there. Fortunately you're not going to get slaughtered unless you've really managed to act up, but you'll be injected with hormones to keep you "producing efficiently" for your time here whether that's sperm, milk or both.

Earlenmacher State Penitentiary For Problematic Entities +400 CP (Incompatible with other situation drawbacks) You have been forcibly shota/lolified and your powers locked. You find yourself on the way to your new "boarding school" Earlenmacher State Penitentiary. When you're not in your dorm expect to be led by well trained and heavily augmented guards to classes on such topics as Ethics, how to talk to People, and when it's not appropriate to cause a scene with your terrifying godlike powers or chaotic new transmogrification ray. Fortunately for you the student body is a bunch of bizarre, foul-mouthed, horny little "gremlins", and the staff long ago decided that simply letting them play games, throw sleepovers in the dorms and have lots of loud, filthy underage sex with each other was preferable to what happens when this kinder-tinder box of freakshows gets bored.

Nori Hates You +400 CP

This is not great the rambunctious raccoon is going to do their Clark Tech best to constantly prank you, send their minions to harass and rob your businesses if any to financially ruin you it's pretty rough having a super villain out to get you but at least his wrath is almost never fatal.

Nori is Really Horny for You +600 CP

And this is even worse, expect to be tricked into bondage at least once a week, made into a clone tank at least twice a month, spied on and surprised with sex if you ever so much as undress to take a bath or shower.

Ending

Continue? 9..8..

You continue on to the next jump, taking with you what you got here.

Go Home

Cease jumping, taking everything you gained so far and returning to your original world.

Stay Here

Stay in this jump, spending the rest of your life in this pervert's paradise.

Just Can't Stay Away

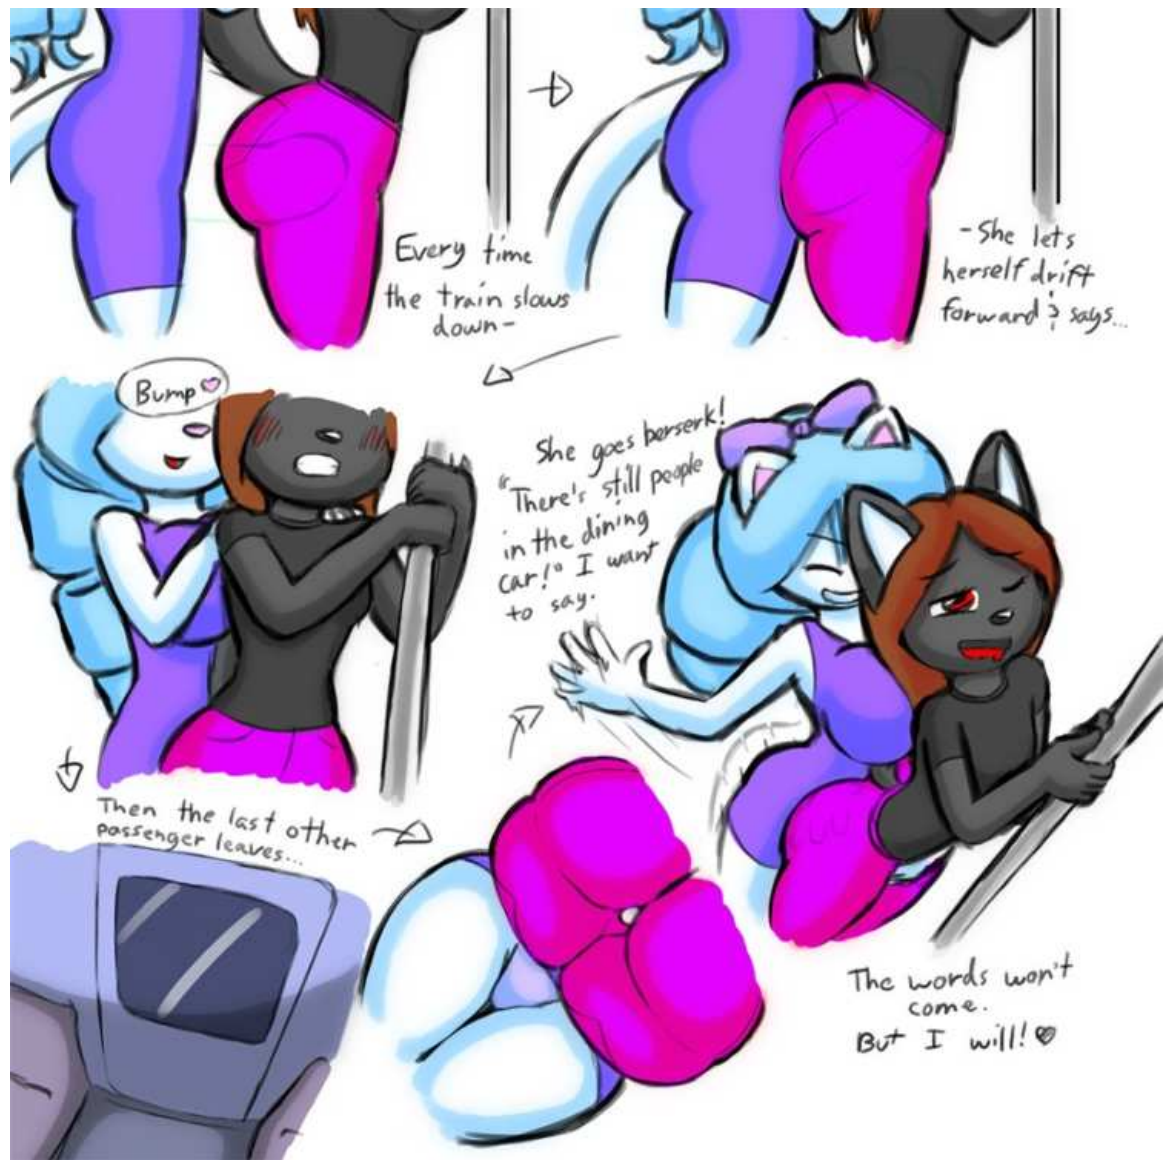

After each Jump, you have the option of returning to this world for a six month "vacation", allowing you to continue your adventures here. Does not stack with similar "vacation" options.

Notes

Thanks to backgroundnoise & Regalus for the help with fluffing/crunching Perks and suggestions. And basically the entirety of the Companion section.

Synergies

Please note all synergies are optional and not automatic consequences of taking both perks

Lolidonk + Pornographic Yonkoma

These synergize to make horny well endowed tweens, teens and adults a prominent feature in your future travels.

I'm Somebody's Fetish + Pornographic Yonkoma

The normal version of this simply makes you other people's fetish the boosted version of this perk ensures that you encounter plenty of people you find to be "your type" whatever type that may be along your travels even going so far as to adapt cultural and legal clothing prohibitions if you like bimbos in slutwear in predominantly covered women settings or simply redistributing average portions and causing food booms if you like SSBHM/BBWs in a setting that has less than adequate agriculture to support such people

"Fun for all Ages!" + Pornographic Yonkoma

This extends the perk to everyone; it might affect blending hard-core humping and childhood games, expect school bus rides to turn into orgies and a fair bit of mutual masturbation at sleepovers.

Cartoon Casanova + Pornographic Yonkoma

You are full-stop an instant loss antagonist. Anyone who has the potential of even mildly disagreeing with your attempts at seduction or flirtation failing at all the speed they can muster as your amazing sex skills break them into your loving cumdumps. Even things like using a rubber person as a condom to non-consensually NTR them with their own Dick Would result in the couple becoming your loyal toys rather than anyone getting upset.

Under Sticker Stuff + Pornographic Yonkoma

This causes understickers to be the default underwear/Swimwear in future worlds and most adult marketed games and VR experiences will have understicker integration. If you also took 'Lolidonk' and 'Fun for all Ages!' forget the adult part, almost every VR chat space and MMO will have understicker integration. And you can expect to see plenty of people performing OC whenever you're in a public space.
