

Angel Academy ~ Hardcore Dorm Sex Life Jumpchain
Version 1.11

Welcome to the world of Angel Academy, an h-doujin series by Katsurai Yoshiaki. In this world's Japan there exists a prestigious boarding school for young ladies, the titular Angel Academy, where wealthy families send their daughters to be brought up in isolation from the public, and especially from men. Angel Academy is an escalator school which raises these girls from grade school all the way through college, all without ever exposing them to any noteworthy interaction with the opposite sex. After all, these young ladies are only any good for marrying off to wealthy and influential men, or so the thinking goes with these old-fashioned bluebloods, so they must be kept pure and refined into worthy brides for their eventual husbands.

Enter Kouma Yoshimi, an ambitious young man who applies for a position as a manager of the school's on-site dorms and somehow gets the job in spite of his gender. Many of the young ladies of the academy are quite taken with this handsome gentleman, and Kouma is quite taken with many of his students as well. So he does what any red-blooded young man would do in this situation: he has his way with any girl who happens to catch his eye, leaving an entire class of star-struck and sex-addicted young ladies trailing behind him!

You arrive in this jump on the same day that Kouma would first arrive at Angel Academy, either as a student of the school, transfer or otherwise, or as a young man like Kouma about to take the school by storm. You'll be here for 10 years or until you graduate, whichever comes first.

Now, take this +1000 CP and go have some fun with it.

Origins

Surprise! This jump doesn't have any of these. All jumpers and imported companions can choose freely whether they attend Angel Academy as students or teach there as instructors or faculty. Instead of origin-based discounts all characters get a set of floating discounts that they can apply to a limited number of perks and items out of the available pools. For each CP "tier" (that is, 100, 200, 400, and 600 CP) you can apply discounts to any three perks and any one item. Discounted perks and items cost 50% of their listed prices and discounted 100 CP perks and items are free, as usual.

Age & Gender

Students and faculty of any gender can attend or teach at Angel Academy, but if you choose to be male then you have the option to replace Kouma as the only male at the academy if you want. Your gender will be the same as it was in the previous jump by default but you can change it for no extra cost.

Angel Academy is home to students and faculty across a wide age range, from young girls whose flower of womanhood is yet to bloom to the aging (but like the finest wine) headmistress of the academy, and openings for young men to join the students or faculty might appear at any time. Choose whatever age suits you best.

Perks

Porn Logic (Free)

It's logically absurd that one guy could fuck his way across an entire campus without any 'problems' eventually cropping up, but that's the way this sort of world works. From now on social diseases don't exist anymore and unwanted pregnancies simply don't happen for you or your partners. "Unwanted" being the key word, of course. Your partners are also much more willing to indulge in "unprotected" sex.

Beneath the Mask (100 CP)

Society has convinced a lot of people that erotic desires are "improper" and "unbecoming of a lady" and so on, but society can't change human biology. People are naturally wired to love sex and pleasure no matter how much they might try to pretend otherwise, and you can easily see through the excuses and false fronts they put up to hide their true feelings from you. You can always sense when a person has romantic or sexual interest in you, and you have an accurate sense for the subtle tells a person gives when "no" actually means "yes". As long as you heed this unspoken consent your partners will never treat sex with you as rape after the fact, regardless of whatever protests they might make as you ravish them.

Bottomless Appetite (100 CP)

How will you ever have time to fuck every girl in school when you've only got the stamina of an ordinary man? Trick question: there's nothing ordinary about you, least of all your appetite for sex and debauchery. You have near-limitless sexual stamina, never suffering from burnout or fatigue, and you could spend hours at a time having as much sex as you could ever ask for and still have energy (and semen) to spare. Refractory period? What's that? You'll also never grow tired of your debauchery no matter how much you indulge yourself, though you can still feel sated whenever you decide you've had enough for the moment.

Heavenly Housekeeping (100 CP)

Whether you're a student, teacher, or a dorm manager, life at any school involves a lot of tedious work that will keep you away from things (or people) you'd rather be doing, and you'd better stay on top of it all if you don't want to risk getting kicked out of paradise for not doing your job. Thankfully you've got some insurance to help with that: any menial tasks that you might have, such as homework, housekeeping, or grading papers, effectively do themselves for you with the same level of care that you would have given them had you done them properly yourself, leaving you with much more time to spend on your hobbies.

Angelic Beauty (100 CP)

Angel Academy's students and faculty are made up entirely of cute girls and beautiful ladies, and even Kouma is pretty handsome as guys go. Is there something in the water or is this the true power of the education system? Either way you're quite good-looking in a manner of your choosing; you might be a ravishing beauty with curves for days or a handsome gentleman with a more athletic build, but whatever else you are you're the sort of natural beauty who can easily attract the interest of the opposite sex based on your appearance alone. Of course this perk also applies to any and all sexual characteristics that you might have, so feel free to give yourself that big fat porn star cock that you've always wanted.

Honor Student (100 CP)

The angels of this academy are elites not only in terms of their looks and their wealth but also in their natural talents, and you're no exception to that rule. You're an excellent student and can ace high school or even college-level coursework without much effort, and in one particular area you stand out as a prodigy even compared to other prodigies, such as a national-level kendoka or genius programmer. Whatever it is, in this particular area you naturally grasp advanced skills and concepts and take far less time than is normal to pick up and master related skills both here and in future jumps.

Smooth Talker (200 CP)

Getting people interested in you is only the first step: once you hook them you've got to reel them in. Not only are you charming and charismatic but your roguish charms allow you to leverage your sex appeal into a major advantage when it comes to tempting, manipulating, and seducing the opposite sex. You could easily disarm a haughty tsundere's temper and turn her into a blushing mess just by flirting with her a little, or negotiate a discount from a cute shopkeeper by offering "alternative" forms of payment. The more attracted to you a person is the more easily they can be tempted and manipulated by your charms, and those who are so far gone that they've fallen in love with you can easily be wrapped around your little finger. However those who genuinely dislike you won't be affected by this perk at all.

Bedroom Legend (200 CP)

The angels of this academy are by and large sheltered and ignorant of all things sexual, and many are so pure that they have never even masturbated or had their first orgasm. But luckily for them you possess all the skills that they're lacking, and you're ready to give them a thorough education in the erotic arts. You have become an exceptionally talented lover, easily able to bring your partners to multiple orgasms and last for hours of fun without ever stopping to rest. Even if you don't have any experience just yet you have good instincts for pleasing your partners, but with practice you can become the kind of sex god who can fuck entire harems of women into blissful exhaustion in a single night. You also have sharp instincts for figuring out what would please your partners the most, including any exotic fetishes that they might have.

King's Kendo (200 CP)

There's something to be said for keeping your promises but only so long as you don't let your sense of honor become a liability. And if someone else does, is it really your fault that it makes them so easy to exploit? When you make a bet with another person they become unable to back out or refuse to follow through on the terms of the bet once they lose (unless they're simply incapable of following through). You will have to convince the other party to take the bet before this perk will have any effect, but once they do there's no backing out for them unless they catch you cheating somehow. You on the other hand can welch on a bet whenever you like, but if you choose to do so you lose the benefits of this perk for a period of three months or until your dishonesty is forgotten, whichever comes first.

Chivalrous Pervert (200 CP)

People always say that you should be honest about your feelings, which is why you don't bother hiding how much of a horny pervert you are. But where the habits of other perverts might seem creepy and gross, yours seem benign, perhaps even endearing. After all, isn't it a compliment of sorts to show cute girls how sexy you think they are? You can get away with all kinds of perverted misbehavior that would normally be considered sexual harassment so long as no harm comes from your actions. Lewd mischief like stealing a girl's panties or copping a feel of someone in public comes across as harmless teasing instead of anything serious or offensive. Make sure you've actually got her permission before proceeding to sex though, because this perk won't allow you to go around raping people without punishment.

Old Money (200 CP)

Wealth cometh to people like you; this is the natural way of the world, your status and wealth naturally exalted by your superb lineage. Your family is wealthy, you are wealthy, and you shall remain so barring only the most extreme circumstances. Even if your wealth is somehow lost, you can easily regain it with your excellent business and investment sense. Your exact net worth will vary from jump to jump, but you will always have whatever amounts to a great deal in any given economy and be able to attract more wealth to maintain your lavish lifestyle with minimal additional effort, though your wealth can still run out if you spend it too extravagantly for your means to support.

Wedding Crasher (400 CP)

Your sexual skills are unparalleled and your partners ache for your touch, but when you're not around they might try going to others to scratch the itch you've given them. (Un?)fortunately you've already left your mark on your conquests, and nobody can satisfy them like you do anymore. The more pleasure you inflict on a partner's body the harder it becomes for them to be satisfied by anyone else, though you can limit the perk's effects to specific targets, such as only ruining your partners for other men. You can even drive a wedge between your conquest and any current partners they may have. Stronger relationships take more effort to break up: a chaste or abusive relationship might be damaged by a smouldering kiss, but True Love might need a month or two of regular cucking before you finish driving off the other guy.

Victoria's Secrets (400 CP)

How do you do it? You'd think the one guy working in a school full of girls would be monitored like a suspected terrorist in an international airport, and yet you're running a veritable parade of honeys in and out of your room every day and nobody ever seems to notice. Your sheer luck at keeping your secrets is off the charts, almost like you've got someone covering for you, cleaning up your messes and erasing all of the evidence you might otherwise have left behind. Nobody will ever blurt out your secrets by accident, walk in on you and your partner at a bad time, or leave incriminating evidence lying around for someone to find. In short, so long as you're not flaunting things in public then it's basically guaranteed that your unmentionable behavior will remain unmentioned.

Hot for Teacher (400 CP)

Few teachers are better-suited to prepare their students for the world of adulthood than you are. After all, most teachers these days completely neglect to give their students a proper course in sexual education, and that's exactly where your talents stand out the most! You're one of the best teachers a student could ask for, and those who study under you will learn as if they had a natural talent for any subject you teach them. Students of your preferred gender(s) are especially enthralled with your lessons, especially when you give them more personal incentives to excel. The more intimate you become with your students, the faster they learn and the more they can learn. You could even turn a bimbo into an honor student with enough injections of Vitamin 'D'.

The Long Con (400 CP)

Every now and then you might find a girl who's especially stubborn about her "purity", like a devout nun or disciplined swordswoman who claims to want nothing to do with your lecherous ways. That's perfectly fine though, it just means you need to crack that hard shell before you can reach the naughty slut hidden within. By spending at least a few hours a day in another person's company you can gradually zero in on all of their weaknesses, from character flaws to gaps in their fighting styles to erogenous zones that even they don't know they have. A person who is very trusting will take less time to read than someone who is wary of you but it'll never take more than a few weeks to learn all of your target's weaknesses.

Getting Your Hands Dirty (400 CP)

Most of your partners don't need to be blackmailed into doing what you want but it can't hurt to have leverage over the few who do. You've got a knack for acquiring dirt on other people, especially dirt with a sexual context. As long as you have a camera or other recording device on hand you'll automatically obtain incriminating information as it occurs around you, and you can tell instinctively when you've got something juicy enough to guarantee that your target will cooperate with you instead of calling your bluff or going to the authorities. Naturally the sexual favors you can extort out of them can then be used as even more blackmail, so once you've got them under your thumb they're never getting out again.

Love 'Em and Keep 'Em (600 CP)

Training a woman's body is quite the accomplishment, but conquering an angel's heart is an achievement even for the greatest casanova. You are blessed with such charm and charisma that your naysayers may even call you an enemy of all women, or at least they will until they've fallen for you too. Love and lust are so closely intertwined for you that you can inspire feelings of love in any of your sexual conquests, using pleasure as the kindling to ignite a flame of passion. The more time that you spend taming your partner's body the more you'll nurture that flame, feeding it until eventually it burns uncontrollably for you. Even those who hated you at first could be swayed into falling for you given enough time and effort, but those who were already compatible with you for less carnal reasons will fall for your charms especially quickly. You'll also find that your new lovers tend to be highly tolerant of your lecherous ways with other partners. With this level of charm you're certain to live out the rest of your days surrounded by vast harems of adoring concubines so long as you don't abuse or neglect them.

Supply and Demand (600 CP)

With only one boy in a school of hundreds of girls certain compromises simply have to be made. Forcing him to choose between dozens if not hundreds of girls means almost everyone loses after all, so why not simply share him instead? From now on in any social group in which your gender is outnumbered by your preferred gender, polygamy and polyamory becomes the default expectation rather than monogamy. Further, the dominant gender will become more interested in you and more competitive for your attention as the gender ratio becomes more one-sided. While this will never escalate into violence or jealousy, it does mean that you can expect to be showered with gifts and favors from the opposite sex as they try to bribe you for the chance to spend time with you. This perk works just as well if you're the only boy in a school of hundreds of girls or the only girl on a sports team of ten boys, though it will only affect people in that social group based on the group's individual gender ratio.

Breaking the Mask (600 CP)

Behind the mask of a prim and proper princess lies a horny sow begging for a dick, she just doesn't know it yet. You have ways of exposing a person's true character when you fuck them, and by this I mean that you can selectively warp a partner's personality as you seduce them, exposing their "true self" once you strip away the mask of their inhibitions. That cold fish headmistress could become a slob who ignores her responsibilities to get fucked, or she could be a closeted dominatrix ready to help you whip her students into shape. The degree to which you can warp a person's personality is directly related to how sexually repressed they were before you seduced them: the aforementioned headmistress could become wildly different and a person who is merely inexperienced could have things to learn about themselves, but a person with no hang-ups about sex would have few if any hidden desires for you to expose.

Head Master (600 CP)

So many of the girls at this school live on top of the world and most of them are convinced that they're too good for someone like you. Little do these angels know just how far you can make them fall. You have an intoxicatingly potent presence, an aura of dominance if you will, which speaks to the submissive desires in your sexual conquests. Girls who are already submissive will find you almost irresistibly charismatic but anyone can be taught the pleasures of submission should you lure them into your bed. Every orgasm wrung from your partners becomes a lesson in obedience which your lovers can't help but absorb, no matter how unwilling they might pretend to be. Strong-willed girls may need a great many lessons before they succumb to your talents, but given enough time and training eventually you can reshape even the proudest and haughtiest angels into eager slaves and adoring pets.

Industrial-Strength Chick Magnet (600 CP)

Your time at this school is going to be pretty awesome, but why should the party end after you graduate? Wherever you go from now on you'll almost always find yourself surrounded by gorgeous examples of your preferred sex(es). Transferring to a new school? Turns out it's an all-girls school that just recently turned co-ed! Joining a secret paramilitary unit? Most if not all of your coworkers are hot babes. Should you be the leader of your own organization then you can also bend this perk towards filling out your ranks with girls of your exact specification, such as filling an entire high school class with busty blondes. You can even choose to genderbend existing characters into your gender of choice, though this can only be done at the start of a new jump. Characters who've been genderbent are effectively retconned into always having been that gender.

Equipment

All items can be imported into similar items for no extra charge.

Treasure Chest (100 CP)

The essential toolkit of any aspiring pervert, this item is a chest full of quality sex toys; dildos, plugs, vibrators, harnesses, condoms, ropes and gags, and anything else you might think of that could be useful for lewd purposes. Everything here except the disposable stuff is self-cleaning and self-maintaining, and you can choose to “equip” this item, allowing you to always have some of this item’s contents on your person at your convenience; condoms materialize in your wallet at a moment’s notice, a gag and ropes just happen to be in your backpack, etc. While there’s nothing fantastical or high-tech in this lewd treasure chest, just stuff available in a modern setting, if you find or create more exotic sex toys in other settings you can add them to this item and confer its benefits to them.

Premium Allowance (100 CP)

Boy these spoiled rich girls sure have it good, don’t they? When mommy and daddy have more money in their wallets than most people see in a year, a schoolgirl’s allowance starts to look like a normal guy’s paycheck. This item is a special debit card with your allowance stored on it. How much allowance exactly? That’s not important because it’ll never run out as long as you stick to relatively small purchases. You could eat out at nice restaurants every day for the rest of your life and never go broke, but try to buy any item over $1000 in worth and you’ll come up short.

Private Dorm Room (Free/200 CP)

So here we have your living quarters for the next few years, a cozy little dorm room to call your own. Faculty and some lucky students can get whole rooms all to themselves but a student jumper can choose to bunk with a roommate if they prefer. These rooms are quite luxurious as dorm housing goes, with a private bathroom and shower, but yours has some unique extra features: not only is the room totally soundproofed, but the previous occupant left behind a self-cleaning king-sized bed large enough to host a good-sized orgy. Not that you’d ever do something like that, right...? This item is free for the duration of the jump but can be purchased on a permanent basis for 200 CP.

Club Equipment (200 CP)

Angel Academy spares no expense when it comes to supporting the interests of its student body, and every club has a well-equipped clubhouse somewhere on campus, from the tea ceremony club to the kendo club’s dojo. This place is yours, a private training ground useful for studying or honing your skills about twice as fast as they would normally develop, and also useful for avoiding any distractions or debauchery that might be occurring elsewhere on campus. Now if you deliberately let those distractions in then that’s on you, but otherwise they’ll steer clear of this safe space and leave you to conduct your studies in peace.

Co-Ed Dorms (400 CP)

A dorm room to yourself is nice enough, but how about owning the dorm completely? This item makes you the owner of a dorm for the academy’s students, and since you’re in charge of it you have the run of the place. There’s enough housing along with dining and recreational facilities to support roughly 100 students and faculty in a single building, all with rooms of similar quality as the Private Dorm Room, but additional buildings could also be added in future jumps if more housing is needed. In future jumps it works quite well for housing large numbers of companions and followers, such as the harem you’re probably going to acquire sooner or later.

Private Beach (400 CP)

Nothing beats a day at the beach, especially when you've got that beach all to yourself and your harem, am I right? You now own a strip of prime real estate right on the shore of a tropical beach where the weather is always warm and sunny and perfect swimming weather regardless of the season. The beach is your private property and you can do just about anything you want on it, but the tropical vacation atmosphere is especially great for encouraging lewdness in an outdoor setting, a sort of "when in Rome" effect where a large group of people can become randy and amorous as soon as one or two of them start stripping or fucking or what have you. For bonus points, this item is also great for acquiring a perfect tan without the risk of sunburn, heatstroke, skin cancer, or anything like that, so feel free to strip down and scorch those tan lines away.

Slave Collars (600 CP)

You know what they say about marriage, if you like it then put a ring on it. It's just a shame for all the rich bachelors out there that you're already putting rings of your own on these well-trained angels. A slave collar is the perfect mark of ownership, coming in a variety of styles from tasteful silk chokers to spiked leather dog collars. Anyone who willingly dons one of these collars while knowing what wearing them implies subtly broadcasts their status as your property in much the same way that a wedding ring drives most interested bachelors away from married women. More importantly, anyone who is still wearing one of these collars at the end of a jump can be taken with you on your journey as a follower, and can be imported into later jumps as a companion if you wish.

Angel Academy (600 CP)

Congratulations, you're now the new headmaster of Angel Academy. You'll find the former headmistress, Ryouka, waiting for you in your office: she's a free follower and she'll handle all the day-to-day affairs of running the academy for you when she's not warming your bed or sucking you off under your desk, allowing you to focus on having as much fun with the students and faculty as you like. But since you're the real headmaster you get to make all the rules. Want to implement a dress code that mandates short skirts and forbids panties? Done. Want detentions to involve troublemakers spending a night in your sex dungeon? Done. Any authorities who might object to these policies, including the parents of your students, remain blissfully oblivious to any lewdness that occurs on campus (unless you decide to directly involve them in said lewdness, of course) even if the students try to present evidence to them. In addition, when using this item in future jumps you can choose to replace an existing school, making you the headmaster of that school and claiming its existing student body. Any special types of curriculum hosted by the original school (such as a magic academy or a ninja school) will automatically be supported with appropriate facilities and teachers for the duration of the jump.

Companions

Companion Import (50 CP)

Oh? Got some friends you want to bring to school with you? Well that's fine, we can accommodate a few extras. You can choose to import up to 8 companions for 50 CP each. Imported companions gain 600 CP to spend on perks and items. They cannot take additional companions of their own, nor can they gain extra CP from drawbacks.

Angelic Accompaniment (50 CP)

Got your eye on someone in particular? For the small price of 50 CP you can bring them with you as a companion. I'll even give them a pool of 600 CP to spend on perks and items, but they can't gain any more CP from drawbacks or take companions of their own. They do have to agree to come with you before you leave the jump, but that shouldn't be difficult with the options available to you here. As a bonus, I'll give you a free destined meeting where you make a good first impression on your new friend.

Drawbacks

No drawback limits, take as much bonus CP as you think you can handle.

Supplement Mode (+0 CP)

The world outside of the Academy's walls is a total blank slate, which means this school could fit right in to any number of other worlds. But why stop there when there are so many other schools full of beautiful girls awaiting your attention? This jump may be used as a supplement to any jump whose story heavily involves the characters attending a school of some sort. For instance, Infinite Stratos, Harry Potter, or High School DxD would count, but Naruto (whose plot involves a ninja school only in the first chapter) would not. All points gained from this jump must be spent on the contents of this jump and vice versa.

Gender Flip (+0 CP)

Perhaps you would prefer a school comprised of young, innocent, nubile boys instead of young women. Or perhaps your tastes are more mixed, and would rather have both young men and women. Please feel free to decide on the specific gender ratio of the students of Angel Academy. The basic premise of the purpose of Angel Academy, to shelter their young children and keep them pure for marriage, remains the same. This may either alter the gender expectations for the jump, or could just be a weird rich-person thing if you would rather. Using this toggle will also permanently alter the effects of any perks or items which specify a particular gender so that they change to align with your preferences, and also similarly alters any drawbacks, scenarios and other text that specify gender for the duration of this jump.

Bad First Impression (+100 CP)

Kouma managed to win over a lot of positive attention with his first impression, but you're going to have a somewhat harder time of things. The girls are nervous and defensive around you at first instead of curious and impressionable, and if you want to win them over you're going to have to work to get over a mild case of androphobia with most of the girls on campus, though some will still be easier than others.

Not One Wooden Yen (+100 CP)

This school is for the wealthy and the elite, but you're the exception to the rule. You're going to be perpetually broke for the duration of this jump. You'll be living in the dorms for most of that time so you'll have a place to live, but as a student you'll have no extra spending money and as an adult you'll have just barely enough to pay your bills and stay afloat, even accounting for income from any jobs you might have.

Working Hard, Not Hardly Working (+100 CP)

You're here to learn or to work, not to fool around with the pretty girls, and that's what you're going to do even if Jump-chan has to hold your nose to the grindstone herself. It's not good enough to do the bare minimum and get by with an average grade, now you need to maintain good grades if you're a student or excel in your job in order to keep your place at this academy. If you fail you'll be ejected from the campus and lose the benefits of your perks for the remainder of the jump, though you won't fail your chain.

Can't Get Away with Nothin' (+200 CP)

Headmistress Ryouka is treating you with a suspicion that is probably wholly deserved but also very inconvenient. She has littered throughout the faculty and student body a number of spies and lackeys who will report back to her on any bad behavior you might get up to. They're not CIA operatives or anything so it's not hard to notice when you're being tailed or observed but if they catch you in the middle of doing something naughty you'll have to act fast to stop them from reporting you or else you'll suffer disciplinary action. If you purchased the Angel Academy item then she'll "discipline" you instead of actually disciplining you, but you're still going to have a bad time even if you're into that sort of thing.

Otaku Scum (+200 CP)

Are you sure this is worth it? Instead of a handsome guy like Kouma or even just being normal-looking you're an unattractive overweight schlub and most of the girls will be totally grossed out by you. If you bought this together with Bad First Impression you're going to have a reputation as a gross obese pervert and nobody's going to want to have anything to do with you.

Baka Hentai! (+200 CP)

Welcome to hell. Angel Academy isn't just full of sexually-repressed tsunderes, it's full of tsunderes who respond with violent retribution against any kind of perceived perversion, and for that matter so do most of the other girls here. You'll probably still be able to perv on these girls but be prepared for bruises, broken bones, and hospital bills out the wazoo if you're not quick on the defense, especially of the family jewels. These girls play for keeps!

School with a Dark Secret (+300 CP)

There really is a reason why you were admitted to this school but it's not one that you're going to like. It turns out there's a shady cult spread throughout the students and faculty who are using the academy as cover for some big ritual, and you happen to be just what they're looking for in a sacrificial lamb. It's possible to root out this cult and put a stop to their activities but you'll get no help from the school's administration or the local authorities, so until you do make sure to keep an eye out for people with chloroform rags. If they successfully kidnap you and perform their ritual it'll be the end of your chain.

Showdown at Angel Academy (+300 CP)

Normally you would have the option to replace Kouma as the only man at the academy, but with this drawback that's no longer an option. You and Kouma are both here simultaneously and he's decided that he wants to make you his, if you're female, or get you kicked out of school if you're male. To that end he'll use his considerable influence with the student body to make your life hell, either harassing and seducing you or just plain harassing you and trying to get you thrown out. He won't always act directly either, sometimes using his student concubines to act on his behalf to get you in trouble with the faculty. The only way to make him stop is to get him fired somehow, but he's got the protection of Victoria's Secrets under his belt so you're going to have your work cut out for you.

Men Only Want One Thing (+300 CP)

Look, we all know the reason you came here. You don't actually need all those superpowers just to get laid, especially since pulling girls in this place is about as challenging as grenade fishing in a bucket. So in return for some extra CP we can just put all those out-of-jump powers, items, and Warehouse access by the wayside for a bit. An exception is made for out-of-jump lewd abilities, of course. If taken together with Supplement Mode this won't disable whatever perks and items you take from the other jump.

Scenario: The Conquest of Heaven

Getting to live in a paradise like this for ten years is pretty sweet, but you know what would be even better? Being the guy who runs the place. Currently that spot is held by headmistress Ryouka Suouin, an ice-cold authoritarian MILF who's way better-suited to working under your desk instead of behind hers, but if you want to claim the whole school for yourself you're going to have to work a lot harder than Kouma did to pull it off.

You might think that taking over the school is as simple as fucking Ryouka into submission and making her your pet but you'd be mistaken. Ryouka may not have been able to keep you out of her academy for whatever reason but she and her informants in both the faculty and the student body will be looking for any legitimate excuse to have you removed from your current position, so you'll have to be mindful of your behavior until you can get her under your thumb. But even once Ryouka has been tamed there's still more work to do. In order to be named headmaster you'll also need to corrupt all six members of the board of directors and have them vote to appoint you to the position.

The board of directors is composed exclusively of powerful women such as CEOs, politicians, noble heiresses, law enforcement, and maybe even some royalty acting under assumed names, all of whom are Angel Academy alumni. The exact identities of those board members are a closely-guarded secret even to Ryouka but the rumor mill insists that they all have daughters attending the academy's high school or college courses. Perhaps you could start by tracking down the sources of those rumors and verifying them?

Should you manage to fuck your way to the top of the school hierarchy you'll receive the Angel Academy item free of charge.

Notes:

Industrial-Strength Chick Magnet can't be used to recruit girls based on what skills or powers they have. Girls who are recruited to work for one of your organizations will be skilled at their intended duties but you can't specify that you want every student in your school to also be a magical girl, for instance. Also, this should be obvious but you won't have any luck recruiting girls who can't possibly exist in the current jump, like mecha pilots in a medieval fantasy setting or something like that.
