Explicit Earth

Combined R-Rated School Continuity

A version of Earth a lot more risqué than the one you're familiar with. Based on the school themed ‘Andavaverse’ works of the artists Andava and Mrpotatoparty, Dave Cheung's Extracurricular comics series, and the Class of ‘09 games by SBN3. The decade you spend here will no doubt be full of excitingly lewd and shockingly hilarious experiences. Take these 1000 CP and live life to the fullest.

Locations

You may freely choose your location from the options below, and by default will start in 2007.

Bluerock Bay

An affluent coastal town in beautiful Southern Florida. Host to a pair of great high-schools where a healthy rivalry is brewing between the cheerleaders of the Rhinos and the Thunderhawks.

San Francisco

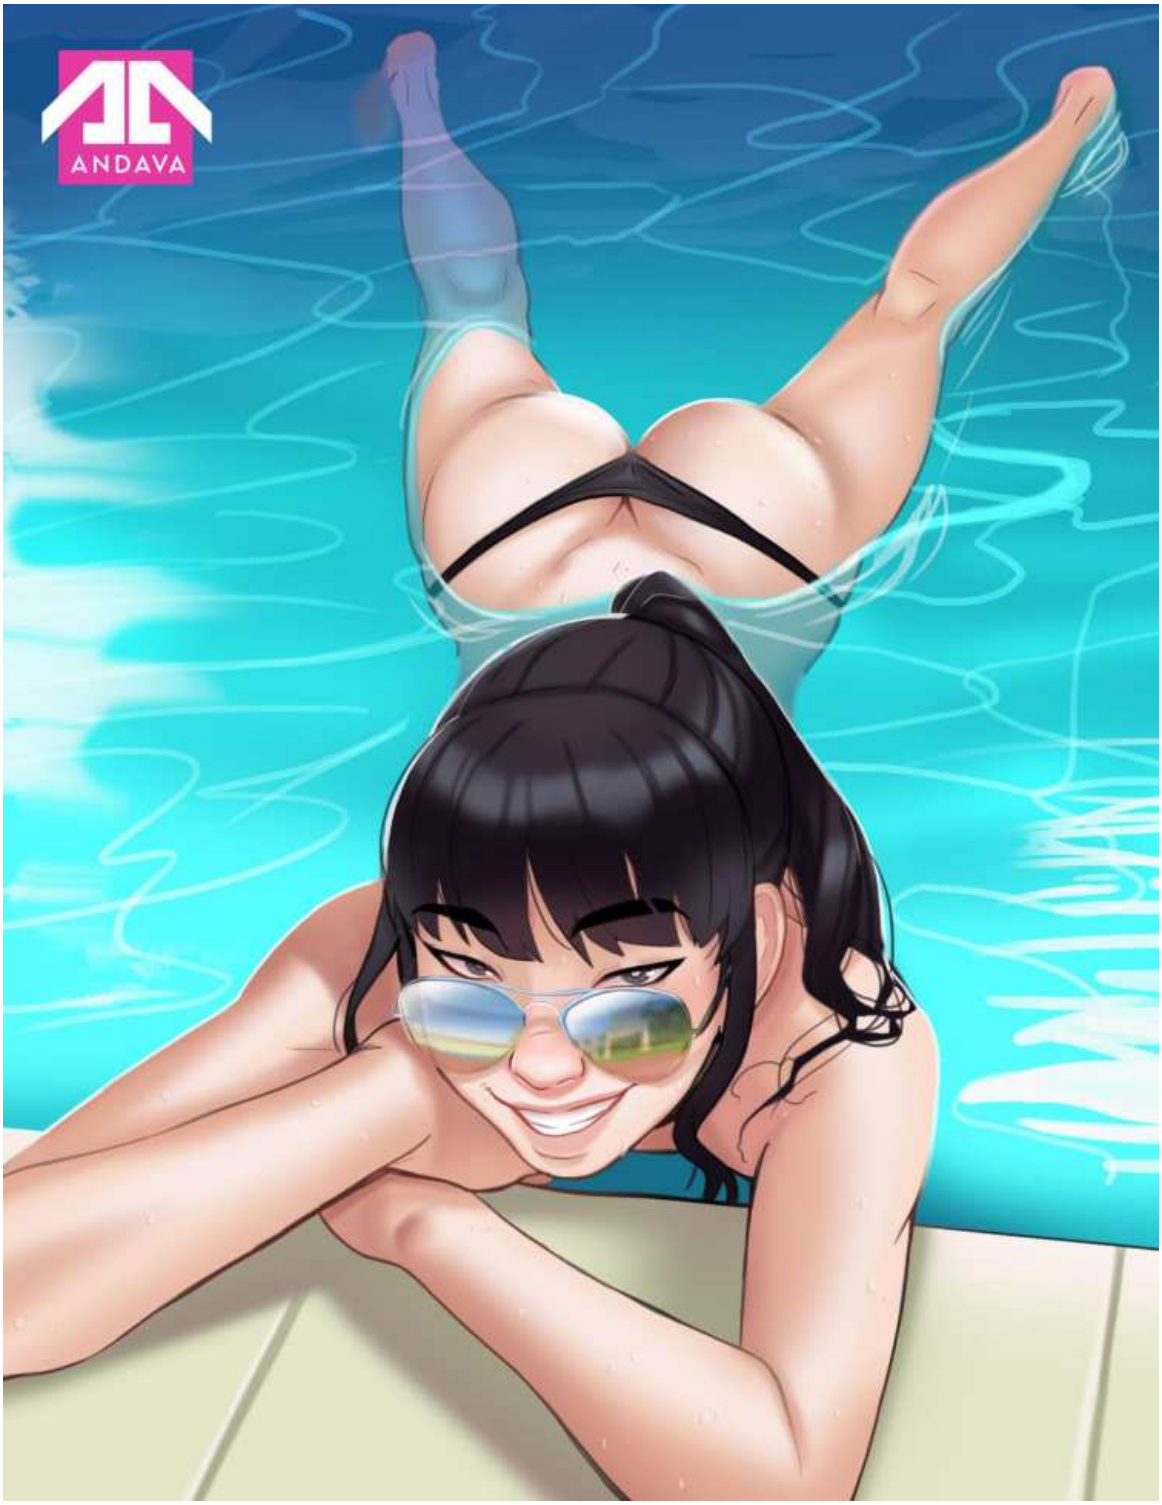

The Bay Area of sunny California. Here you'll find many attractive young college students finding their paths in life and engaging in extracurricular activities.

Suburban DC

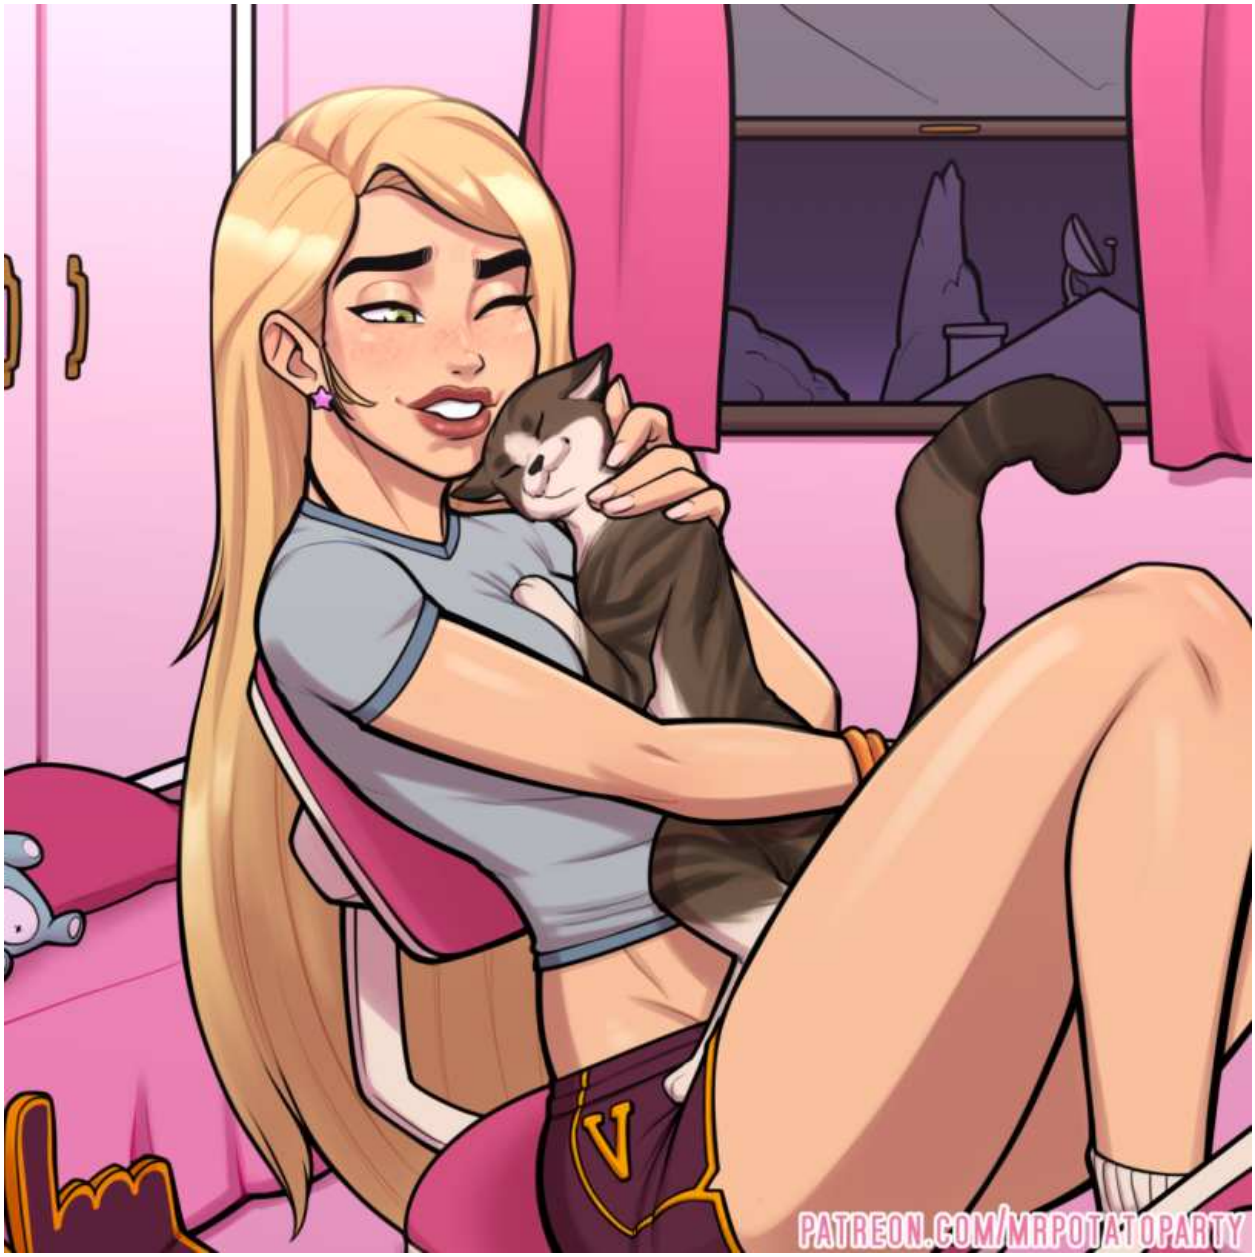

Burke, Virginia, home to LHS high-school and surrounded by Fairfax and Springfield, as well being just a stones throw away from Alexandria and Washington proper.

Free Choice

If you wish to start somewhere else you may do so, and select anywhere that is relatively nearby an educational institution.

Archetypes

Your background in this Jump is likely that of a middle class American, with your exact circumstances determined by location, age, and chance. As such what you are instead selecting here is your general archetype. You may freely choose your starting age and your gender/sex, all Archetypes may be taken as Drop-In.

Misfit

Not everyone fits cleanly into any one category, sometimes they might be a sexy bitch with a death wish, and others a petty sociopath with a surprisingly keen mind. Possibly, perhaps frequently, even being both.

Cheerleader

Everyone loves a beautiful girl jumping around in a skirt. And no one loves cheerleaders more than cheerleaders love themselves. Except maybe the people who get to fuck them, maybe.

Jock

What would school be without the Jocks? The unsung workhorses of otherwise insignificant school rivalries! And who else could possibly distribute the complementary swirlies other than these illustrious heroes?

Femboy

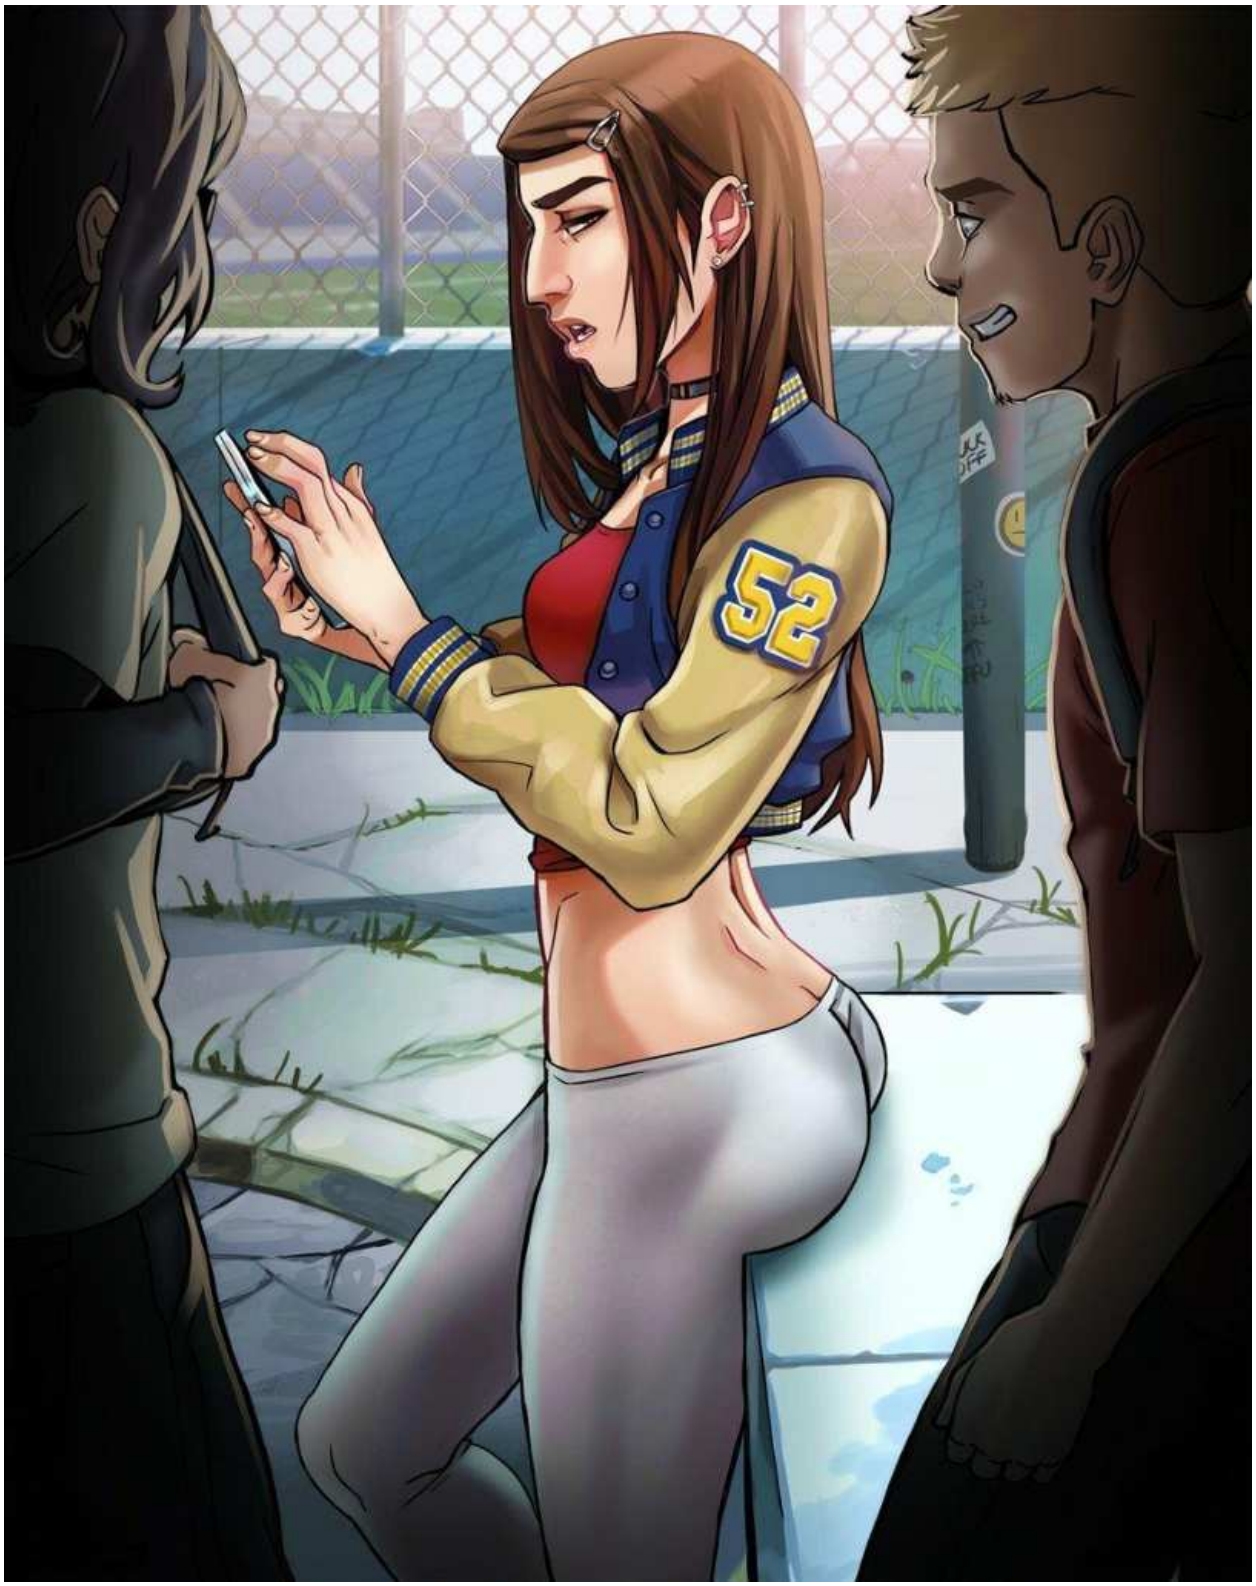

The one thing sweeter than good pussy is prime bussy. If you don't like femboys then you're probably gay. While there's not necessarily anything wrong with that, you are absolutely wrong on this matter.

Hag

Classically dubbed the MILF, nowadays referred to as “hags” these older women are the epitome of mature feminine beauty and fertility.

Perks

Perks are discounted for their Archetype, with discounted 100 CP Perks being free.

Misfit

Pretty Demanding

[100 CP]

“Just pretty enough to be demanding.” That's how jealous hoes might describe you, and it's even a little true. Your appearance is at least a solid 7 out of 10, and is raised by 1 if you are beyond that. In addition you have a natural talent for manipulating the opposite sex, easily wrapping people around your finger and keeping them there.

Nerd? Yes. Loser? To Be Determined.

[200 CP Each]

Education is important for success, but natural intelligence goes a long way too. For each purchase of this Perk your mental capabilities are multiplicatively improved by 5% in all aspects.

Medicine Rocks

[400 CP]

Jecka, it's time to cook.

You are a savant when it comes to molecular chemistry, with an encyclopedic knowledge of modern drugs and chemicals. You could freebase Crack in your kitchen, or cook up a batch of legendarily pure Meth in a desert camper.

Try Another Route

[600 CP]

Sometimes life comes at you hard, sometimes it's hard enough to be unbearable. And for those times there's this. Once per Jump you can choose to restart, returning to the beginning of your time there with your memories intact but everything else resetting. This can be triggered voluntarily if you desire, and will trigger automatically if you die with no other 1-ups available.

Cheerleader

Young And Perky

[100 CP]

Have you ever worried about whether stacking physique boosters and super serums will ruin your svelte and graceful figure, crushing the flower of your beauty? Well worry no longer, as any improvements to your body and appearance are always exactly as impactful or subtle as is necessary to bring you ever closer to your desired ideal of absolutely flawless perfection. Also gives you an incredibly cute little bubble butt and a gorgeously flawless smile, perfect for a pretty and petite cheerleader.

Girls Go To Venus

[200 CP]

Society hasn't always been kind to the fairer gender, many say it still isn't. While you may still face pushback for your gender, or even fully blown sexist discrimination. You will find that the more opposition you face in the pursuit of your dreams, the more quickly you will rise to grasp them, with study and practice paying out dividends. You will be learning faster and remembering more easily, eventually becoming the undeniable best candidate for the job. So reach for the stars and smash that glass ceiling.

Gossip Goddess

[400 CP]

The age old pass time and most widespread social tradition, gossip may as well be one of your divine domains. When it comes to navigating the perils of social interaction there are very few who could approach your abilities. Social manipulation, seduction, lying, etc, you are supremely talented at all facets of social interaction. Hell, you're even great at being a kind and honest person when you choose to be, so that's useful too, I guess.

School Princess

[600 CP]

Every kingdom has its king, and every school has its princess. Effortlessly gorgeous and naturally alluring, you might describe yourself as “a perfect 10 with a high libido”. And while that's certainly true, what's most important is that any Perks that improve your appearance (even if only as a side effect) have all of their effects increased by 25%.

Jock

Going Pro

[100 CP Each]

You have a high degree of natural talent for, and a world class potential in, any athletic field of your choice. If it's an Olympic event or professional sport you can select it, one for each purchase.

Jacked To The Tits

[200 CP]

Every athlete wishes to look like they're sculpted from marble, the really ambitious ones might even hope for Da Vinci to be said sculptor. You're in luck, as you seem to have caught Leonardo in his gooner phase. You're naturally lean and athletic, with ideal muscle definition, shapes, and proportions for your preferred build.

Also provides an upgrade to your sexual characteristics, granting a prodigiously long and shockingly girthy cock for men, or a rocking set of full perky tits and a deliciously tight little pussy for women.

Rizzler

[400 CP]

Charisma, the ephemeral key to a good social life. You are absolutely filled to the brim with it. People will be clamoring over themselves for a scrap of your attention. You could start a media craze just by standing in a store, executives will be drooling over the idea of putting your face as the flagship of their ad campaigns, late night talk shows will enter bidding wars to have you appear.

Olympic Ambitions

[600 CP]

The best athletes in history have absolutely dominated their areas of focus. Crushing the field and outperforming all their peers. Now you can do the same, by dedicating yourself to an athletic discipline you can rapidly improve your skill and conditioning until you are among the undisputed greats of all time. And unlike others, specialists who dedicate a lifetime to a single sport, you can master one in record time, as the more effort you dedicate, the more ridiculous your pace of improvement becomes. You could master a half dozen fields in the two years between each the summer and winter games, then move on to the next set to do it all again in time for the next Olympics.

Femboy

Grippers

[100 CP]

Grace and elegance is what separates the femboys from the men. With your perfect coordination, intuitively keen proprioception, flawless balance, and incredible flexibility, no one will ever mistake you for some lumbering oaf.

It should also be noted that you have the most absolutely adorable dainty little hands and feet.

Pillow Princess

[200 CP]

One might think that sex would be pretty boring when you're an obligate bottom, especially in situations where you are able to do nothing but lie there and take it. Thankfully nothing could be further from the truth for you, as your body is wired for sex. Any sexual stimulation you experience is always extremely pleasurable, with your orgasms always being toe curlingly satisfying. Even the pain that comes along with rough sex only serves to heighten the pleasure and excitement you feel, and it makes your orgasms all the sweeter.

Master Of Being A Mistress

[400 CP]

No one knows what men like better than other men. You are the most naturally talented lay on the planet, a certified throat GOAT. Nubile and on the prowl, you are an absolute expert when it comes to fashion and makeup, dolling yourself up to be the hottest thing in the club will be simplicity itself.

Twink Immortality

[600 CP]

The greatest fear of a femboy is the dreaded “Twink Death”. Thankfully bussy is eternal and so are you. Choose a period of life such as ‘teenager’, ‘young adult’, or even a specific age like 18, whatever you wish. That becomes your eternal prime, with aging halting or regressing to that point, leaving you biologically immortal and fully immune to the ravages of time or any other biological deterioration.

Your incredibly tight teen asshole and throat are going to stay that way forever.

Hag

Hag Maxing

[100 CP]

While other people might have to worry about becoming old and decrepit, you're mostly immune to those concerns. You will age like the finest wine, always being as youthful, fit, glamorous, and gorgeous as possible for your circumstances.

Crazy Bitch

[200 CP]

Like a certain set of MILFs from Bluerock Bay you have seemingly limitless stamina. You could go full tilt for hours, outfucking a dozen athletic young men and still have some energy left over. I suppose you could use this incredible stamina for other things. But why would you want to?

Mother Is Mothering

[400 CP]

Those novelty products that say “world's greatest mom”? Yeah, they're referring to you. You have peerless maternal instincts and are naturally kind, caring, and nurturing in all the best ways. It also seems that your dedication to incredible parenting inspires your partners to be their best selves. You will never have to worry about an abusive husband or deadbeat baby daddy.

Certified MILF

[600 CP]

Girl, your womb has been cooking. With perfect genetics for motherhood your pregnancy and labour will be relatively pleasant. But more importantly, all your children will always be healthy and have the best possible combination of genetics from you and their other parent. You can also choose to have them become a full Companion at birth, granting them an Archetype and a 1000 CP stipend for this Jump.

Items

You have a 200 CP stipend for use on Items, and may discount any one Item, with a discounted 100 CP Item being free.

Birthday Gift

[100 CP Each]

It seems like clockwork, every year on your birthday a distant relative that you've never met or even heard of sends you 50 thousand USD (or its equivalent) in cash. I guess they must really love you. Receive an additional 50k per year for each purchase.

The Brick

[100 CP Each]

Every month a mysterious delivery finds its way into your hands. A one kilogram brick of 100% pure, absolutely premium cocaine. Receive an extra kilogram per month for every purchase.

Sweet Sixteen

[200 CP]

A stylish vehicle in the model and colour of your choosing. It is fully street legal, self repairing, and even has unlimited fuel. It features an extremely comfortable and luxurious interior, as well as being built exclusively from durable high performance components. Miraculously it also maintains complete privacy inside, even with the windows open or the top down. Perfect for those late nights at makeout point.

SuperCruise Ticket

[200 CP]

If there's a celebrity that you really want to hang with, that's what this ticket is for. Once a year it can be redeemed for a VIP spot on a week-long SuperCruise holiday event hosted by the person of your choice. This event is guaranteed to go well and will not get canceled.

Apprenticeship

[400 CP]

Once per month you can enlist the dedicated tutoring services of a temporary follower who is a world class master in a field of your choice, in addition to being a gifted teacher. At the start of every month you can select a new topic and receive a new tutor.

Explicit Wardrobe

[400 CP]

This wardrobe doesn't lead to Narnia, instead it leads to a massive and constantly refreshing walk-in closet. Inside you'll find an infinite variety of high quality clothing, lingerie, jewelry, accessories, cosmetics, sex toys, and even bondage gear. All made with premium and luxurious materials, perfectly fitted, and incredibly stylish. The closet will always provide exactly what you're looking for and offer many other options as well.

The List

[600 CP]

An extensive archive of blackmail that details the complete criminal activity and moral failings of any persons of power. From politicians to business moguls and A-list actors, if they operate with any significant degree of influence then you can be sure this list contains what you need to thoroughly compromise them.

Updates itself to the new setting and powerful individuals with each Jump.

Crystal City

[600 CP]

An entire Mega-Mall directly attached to the Washington Metro, all as a front for the F.Y.E corporate warehouse. While this won't directly give you ownership of the Crystal City mall or the legendary warehouse of porn hidden within (a collection so vast and varied it's said to be capable of toppling governments, or propping them up), what it will do is give you a direct line to one of the shadowy heads of F.Y.E corporate.

Once per Jump you can designate any organization, whether it be a nation, a corporation, or otherwise. After selecting a target, you have a choice to make, either bolstering or sabotaging them.

A bolstered target will enter a golden age of wise leadership, political stability, economic prosperity, and expansion opportunities.

While a sabotaged target will rapidly deteriorate and collapse to internal unrest, political upheaval, economic disaster, and eventually fully balkanize and dissolve.

Companions

Import

[100 CP Each]

You can bring as many Companions into this Jump as you'd like, but must pay this price to grant them an Archetype and a 600 CP stipend.

Canon

[Free]

You may take any character as a Companion on your Chain, so long as you can convince them to join you.

Specific Companions

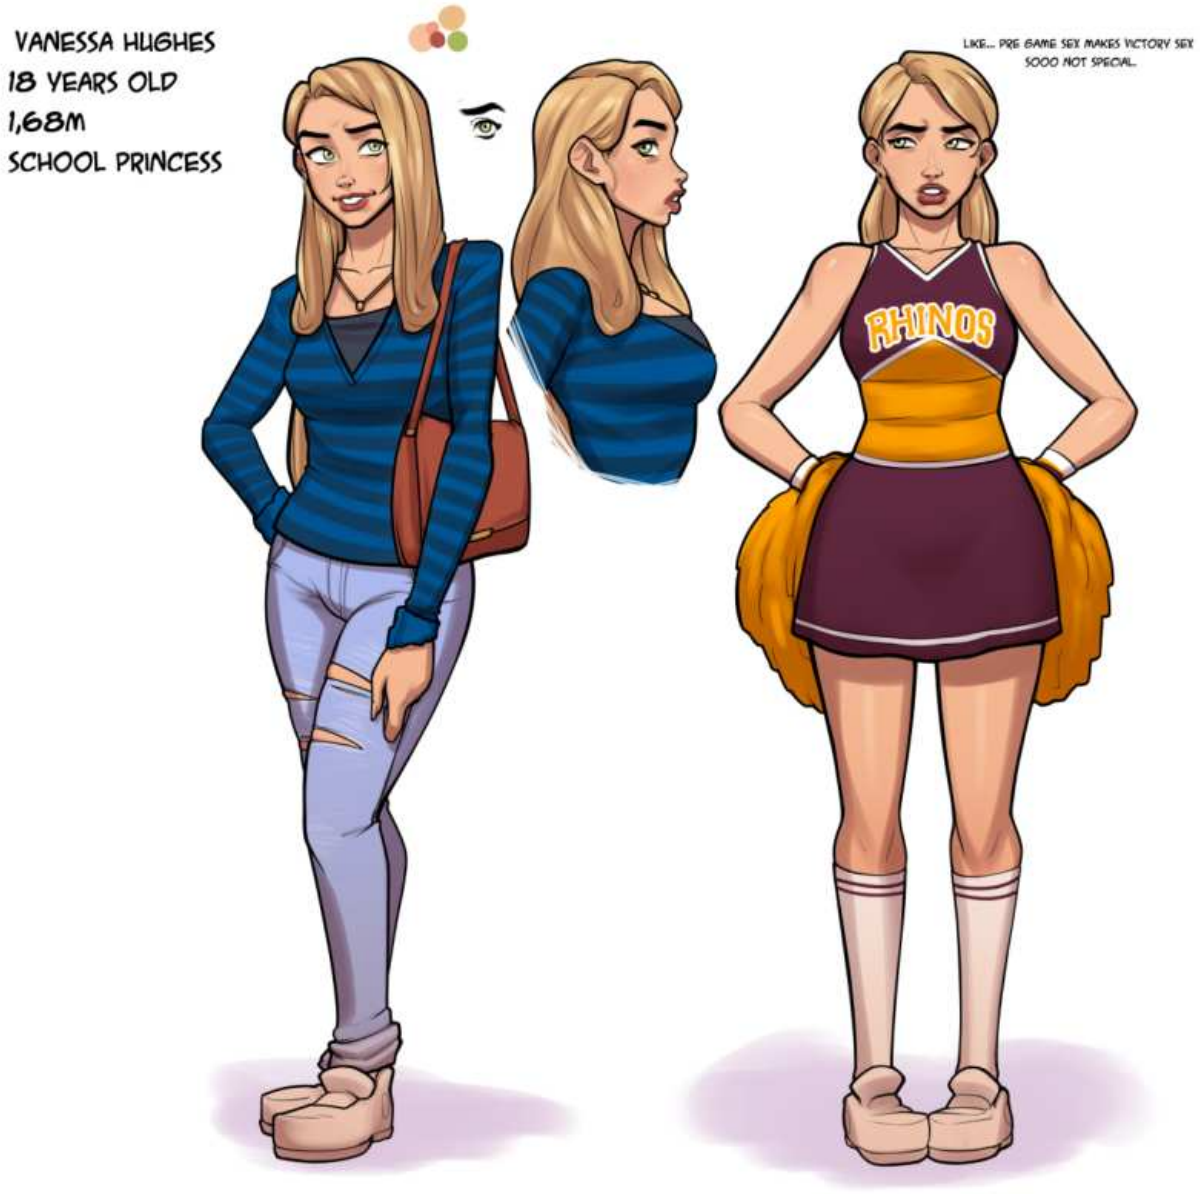

[100 CP Each]

If there's anyone listed below that you have your eyes on, you can pay CP to choose your relationship with them and to guarantee that they join you as a Companion.

Companions taken this way count as being imported, receiving their relevant Archetype, a 600 CP stipend, and being able to take Drawbacks.

Drawbacks

You can take as many Drawbacks as you like. Imported companions may take any Drawbacks that would affect only themselves.

Supplement Mode

[0 CP]

This Jump can optionally be used as a Supplement to any Jump where Earth exists and educational institutions are present, merging the settings.

New Friends

[0 CP]

Additionally merge the ‘Josie & Friends’, ‘Gingernextdoor’, and ‘Becky & Lisa Chang’ works by Sparrow into this world, adding the characters and themes to the Jump setting.

Self-Insert

[0 CP]

Sometimes you just badly want to be someone else. With this option you can choose a character to self insert as, or optionally you could instead be their twin sibling instead if you'd prefer.

Educational Era

[0 CP]

Perhaps you'd like to receive your education during a time period other than the early 21st century? Maybe you'd like to attend a Victorian university, go to high-school during the time of free love, or even attend a colonial academy in the year 2157? You may freely change the start date of the Jump, to any year, so long as institutionalized education is present at that time. The notable characters here will adjust to be present in this new time period.

Expanded Continuity

[0 CP]

If there's a setting you wish to visit but it lacks a Jump, you can merge it into this one, provided it at least features Earth and schooling somewhat prominently.

Extended Stay

[+100 CP]

You can extend the duration of your Jump by 10 years each time you take this, and may do so as many times as you wish, but you will only earn points for the first time.

Teenage Stereotype

[+100 CP]

Raging hormones are the curse and the blessing of youth. You have a very high libido, being an outlier on the higher end even among horny teenagers.

Nymphomaniac

[+100 CP]

Requires: Teenage Stereotype

Forget just having a raging teenage libido, you're a full blown nymphomaniac. Your libido is off the charts and comes paired with a nascent sex addiction. You'll probably be doing a lot of fucking and sucking.

UwU Sociopath

[+100 CP]

Like Nicole you may or may not be an actual Sociopath, but you certainly give it a good try. With a spicy blend of emotional trauma and PTSD, poor impulse control, questionable judgment, and a bad attitude, you're likely to land yourself in hot water whether socially or legally. I guess if you're hot you might get lucky and have people who will want to fix you. Just try to stay out of jail.

Clinically Diagnosed

[+100 CP]

Requires: UwU Sociopath

Congratulations on being able to afford healthcare I guess, however it's now confirmed that clinically speaking, you are in fact a sociopath. And lots of people know it. Good luck with that.

Basically Japanese

[+100 CP]

Are you a schoolgirl? Are you Japanese? Well too bad, because even if the answer to both of those questions is no, you're going to get treated like one. With it being extremely common for strangers to fetishize you, sexually harass and grope you, and possibly even worse if you're not careful.

The Feetside

[+100 CP]

You have a severe foot fetish, bad enough that it will significantly impact your financial situation. This will manifest in one of two ways, and the choice is yours.

Option one, you can't help yourself when it comes to your desperate attraction to feet, you'll be tripping over yourself for the chance to experience it. Paying large amounts of money to have people step on your face, gifting expensive shoes, even sending regular payments to those whose services you frequently purchase.

Option two, you can't seem to reliably maintain employment or make money unless it involves being a foot whore in some capacity. Additionally you will spend significantly more than you probably should on keeping your feet pampered and regularly buying expensive footwear.

It's Your Fault

[+100 CP]

Once your family was loving, nurturing, and supportive, that all changed when your dad's shotgun attacked. Your wonderful father blew his own brains out in front of you, and directly blamed you for it. Now you're traumatized, and your mother blames you for it too. She'll treat you with hate and disdain, and be extremely neglectful, abusive and exploitative of you.

Not The School, Please.

[+100 CP]

As a complete loser and social outcast, things are probably pretty rough for you. You might be tempted to lash out in extreme ways when the bullying gets harsh enough. And it will get harsh, you can trust me on that.

However I'd like you to remember that schools are an easy and overdone target, perhaps consider taking a run at the F.Y.E corporate headquarters instead?

Suspicious Staff

[+100 CP]

For some reason authority figures that you directly interact with have a habit of giving you a lot of attention. Whether it's a teacher, a manager, or something else, you can expect for them to frequently find reasons to involve themselves with you. Often this will be a pretense so they can touch you, sexually harass you, ask you out, or otherwise behave wildly inappropriately. And unfortunately you will have a difficult time in getting any of them to face consequences for this.

Surprise Necrophiliacs

[+200 CP]

Requires: Suspicious Staff

Regardless of whether you accept the advances of these figures and go out with them, or just reject them for long enough, they will gradually develop a psychotic obsession with you, inevitably trying to strangle you to death when they can get you alone and vulnerable.

You will forget you took this Drawback, allowing them to take you unaware unless you notice a pattern forming.

MS-13 Target

[+200 CP]

A powerful criminal organization believes that you have stolen a significant amount of product from them. They will attempt to retrieve it and make an example of you.

Get as many purchases of The Brick Item as you want for free, however the more you take this way the more severe the consequences of this Drawback will be.

For Your Entertainment

[+300 CP]

The F.Y.E Cabal is aware of your existence and wishes to silence you for knowing too much. They will use the full force of their international conspiracy to either capture you and sell you off as a sex slave to a middle eastern warlord, or failing that, to eliminate you.

Educational Experience

[+300 CP]

It would be difficult to focus on your education and career path while simultaneously juggling immense cosmic power. This will solve that dilemma for you, reducing you to your Bodymod and locking away your Warehouse and all outside Perks, Powers, Items, etc, that are not gained here (or in any attached Jumps if you are Supplementing).

Ending Choice

Move On

Take what you've gathered here and continue on your Chain.

Stay Here

This ends your Chain and leaves you here with all that you've earned along your journeys.

Go Home

Take what you've gathered so far and end your Chain, returning to where you began.
