

Elzikyuchi's Dickgirls 2
Jumpchain by Cthulhu Fartagn

By all accounts the world is Earth, early 21st century. But there are things happening that seem a little unusual. An odd virus sends women into heat. A secret corporation tricks women into signing off on extremely unethical operations in the name of marriage counseling. And a police organization from the future arranges for men to get raped in the ass in moments of frozen time.

Yes, things escalated a little bit right there at the end. But in this world, if there's one constant, one unequivocal law, it's that anything less than the most buff of alpha males will quickly be taken up the ass by a dickgirl. Oh, and that quite a few men and women will become dickgirls, for a variety of reasons.

With that in mind, I hope you make the right choices to not end up with your life stolen from you by one cause or another. Or you're into that kind of thing. Either way, enjoy the next ten years and take these.

Perks

Initiator - 100

Whether you're an average joe or a new dickgirl, there's actually pretty good odds of just bumping into a good lay in a place like this, but you're not the sort to just sit around with your dick in your hands. You've got the confidence to get out there and start taking shots, whether at regular women or cute sissies, and the natural charm to woo people by pretty much just talking about how good fucking would feel. It helps that your dick's fucking huge too. Not to the point of absurdity, but if you whip it out in public odds are everyone around with one too will feel inadequate.

Receiver - 100

Some people prefer being the prized catch instead of the one getting into pants. If that's your thing, then you're in luck. You're damn hot. You can choose the exact specifics. From the chad of chads, to a sissy so girly the only way to tell you're not just a dickgirl is the distinct lack of penis size, to a MILF with assets twice the size of her head, you're the sort of person who'd leave boners or rivers in their wake even when dressed modestly. This appearance of yours is so desirable to individuals within your strike zone who would normally not have the guts to go for you or actively choose to not do it won't hesitate to proposition you.

Marathon - 100

A lot of people here can go for a frankly absurd amount of time, or times. You can count yourself among those. You can fuck for hours on end without slowing or taking breaks, and your orgasms will be just as strong and plentiful as they were the first time by the tenth. This also gives a lot of self-control in terms of finishing, letting you edge yourself into a hell of a load despite fucking as fast and hard as you usually do or force yourself to cum every five minutes. As a side effect of your increased endurance, your body is tough enough to handle some of the biologically questionable acts seen in these worlds even without porn logic.

Filth Queen - 100

A lot of people here enjoy, well, the absence of proper hygiene. Whether it's a sissy who loves gulping down smegma or a dickgirl who loves forcing others to do the same, it's a thing. If you're into it, this is for you. Your body produces waste and gets dirtier faster than normal, to the absurd degree some of the dickgirls here reach, and you won't suffer any of the issues that normally come with that. You won't feel gross or dirty up the place unless you want to, and there won't be any consequences from you pissing wherever you'd like or going around smelling like cum. You can control this if you're really just into a specific thing like sweat or watersports, and will find it natural to clean up only partially in case you want to maintain the appearance of a proper young lady while secretly cultivating the filthiest dick in class.

Normalcy - 100

Dickgirls are a thing here, even if they're rare enough some get away with convincing their target is seeing things while acting lewd in public. This standard follows you to future worlds. Dickgirls will slowly begin to appear in future Jumps through whichever methods best fit that world's rules - maybe a superheroine will fall into a vat of toxic chemicals and come out with a dick, or something equally as absurd as amusing will happen. Best of all, nothing unfortunate will happen as a result. No witch hunts in more antiquated places, no manhunts in darkly futuristic ones, the sudden addition of Dickgirls will simply be accepted as a thing that occasionally happens. The novelty can still excite and amaze others, but people will give them and their partners about as much grief as they'd give any other couple.

Obstruction - 100

This may seem rather ridiculous, but you'd be surprised at how many men simply don't think about the fact that the girl in front of them has a dick bigger than theirs until said dick is outright being shoved in their face. As a result of this, you have the odd ability to have your sexual characteristics massively underplayed until they're specifically pointed out. Massive dick, breasts you could kill a guy in, an ass you could bounce a dime off, they'll be able to appreciate the beauty of them but until someone specifically makes a mention of them they won't really notice them. This can be great for first impressions, since guys tend to have weird reactions to you having a dick bigger than they are - realizing that after they get to know you as a person is still weird, but it helps blunt it.

Self Control - 100

In all honesty, this is something most dickgirls seem to lack. A good grip on the concept of stopping. Granted, most of them lack that on account of a somewhat purposeful hormone imbalance that leaves them constantly horny, but the point remains. You don't have that issue, which means that when you feel like you're done having sex, stopping actually is an option for you. Additionally, if you're one of those kinds of Dickgirls whose body NEEDS to have sex every so often, you'll find that refraining will merely leave your balls aching from being overfull instead of potentially exploding from excessive cum production. Though, do keep in mind that some men, most women, and almost every Dickgirl everywhere will look down on you for this.

Sabotage - 100

While Dickgirls and Shemales are obviously the superior gender, not everyone you meet here is going to agree with that opinion. That's why it's important to stab them in the back - metaphorically - and convert them against their will as you stab them in the ass - literally - with your dick. You have just enough skill at stealth, lying, misdirection, and a few other minor skills to completely and utterly blindside someone before transforming them into a Dickgirl through whatever method you prefer. Obviously, against targets that you know intimately, such as your family, it's even easier to arrange for an accident with the Cock Virus, slather them in She-Cream, or report them to one of the "helpful" organizations that share your goals and then get away scot free while acting shocked that someone could violate them in this manner.

Trainer - 200

For some reason, the only thing better for a rabid Dickgirl than fucking you is listening to you tell her how to fuck someone else. You have the kind of voice that people just like to listen to, and this goes double for when you start talking about sex. Describing the process, how they should touch themselves, when they should speed up and when they should slow down, what they are and aren't allowed to do on any given day - you could give a Dickgirl a mind blowing orgasm just from laying down the rules of how she should masturbate, let alone actually walking through the process with her. This also works through text and images, specifically text combined with images of yourself as payment and reward for their obedience, but it's not as strong.

Oni Art of Genderbending - 200

Some creatures have very pointed opinions on one gender or another, and whether you hold any biases like that, you've gained the means to lay your worries to rest. Through magic, you are capable of warping the bodies of others (and yourself) along the lines of masculinity and femininity. You could make a frumpy woman into a dickgirl bombshell, a manly man into a cute sissy, or whatever other combination you'd like. The process takes a few minutes at most depending on how extensive your alterations are but is otherwise permanent.

Hypnosis - 200

The power of hypnosis shows itself to you, letting you shift the sexual standards of others with a few minutes of work. This doesn't change their personality or have any tells, so if you're a loser who's gunning for a tsundere she'll probably call you an idiot for thinking hypnosis actually exists even as she orders you to stop being such a dweeb and fuck her already. This can however change memories related to such things, so if you turned some poor (or lucky?) sap's mother into a dickgirl you could make her think raping his mouth daily and blasting ropes of thick cum on all of his meals was always how she showed her love.

200 cp - Genetic Lottery

While it is possible for a girl to be born as a dickgirl, the vast majority of them are not. A virus, a mutation, surgery and lots of drugs, fucking magic, there's lots of ways for it to happen artificially. But at the same time, it's not exactly a natural occurrence if it's the result of a virus now is it? For some strange reason, any modification to your body now reads as a natural part of your DNA, and thus something that can be passed onto your kids. Dye your hair red, you kids now have a chance to be redheads. Get some breast implants, your daughters have a better chance to be bigger. Become a dickgirl? Your daughters might just be born that way.

Purest Beauty - 200

There's a tendency here for women to be stolen, whether because they're shallow perverts whose patience for dealing with their limp-dicked loser of a husband has run out, because they lost to dick, or because they were brainwashed by a succubus. While I can't speak for that first one, your self-control and willpower are great enough to withstand the rest. No matter how good it feels, your feelings will never be ground away by the pleasure and you will never give in. Even if they try battering you down with magic, you'll fight back the entire time. Compared to that, your average faceless man really has no chance against you. You'd sooner eat them with your dick and turn them into thick cum for your hubby to suck down... assuming you were capable of such, anyway.

Boundaries - 200

The problem with giving up control is that there's no guarantee your partner won't go too far, or is in and of themselves too much for you to handle. Saying that you have the sexual stamina of ten men is great, until you meet someone with the stamina of one hundred and they all but fuck you to death trying to get off to their satisfaction. Luckily, that's not something you often have to worry about. Your partners are exceptionally mindful of your limits - both social ones, like simply not desiring to perform a specific act, and physical ones, like being incapable of fully taking them inside of yourself. It doesn't particularly matter if this is your actual lover or an ancient demon looking for a mortal to play with, though I will admit the second is far more likely to acknowledge your limits and then pass them anyways.

The Quiet One - 200

A Dickgirl who walks around with her dick hanging out and constantly talking about how many men she's fucked up the ass is something that most men will instinctively fear. A nice and quiet Dickgirl on the other hand, who never boasts and does her best to hide her massive erection will probably arouse little to no suspicion - which of course, makes them the best at being naughty. Whether it's covering your brother's bed in cum while he's sleeping in it or filling someone's cup with your cum while they look away, people are exceptionally unobservant about your exploits, and often fail to notice them until it's all but shoved in their faces - for example, if you're careful, your brother might think that he's the one who made the mess.

Minor Monster - 200

Magical creatures can be found even in the more modern versions of this world, which is exactly what you seem to be. This option allows you to become a monstergirl, either one from a specific caption or of your design. At base this provides a basic superhuman physique, enough to break any doors or barricades down and rape regular humans, but focusing only on that should let you manhandle an entire militia or police station into submission. Otherwise, this will give abilities such as a forest nymph's chlorokinesis or a dragon's fire breathing and flight. This can grant minor sexual effects on top of that, such as having a self-lubricating dick and being capable of impregnating men. You can purchase this additional times for 200 CP per purchase if you would like to be some type of hybrid or shapeshifter. Despite the flavor, this can also be used to become an alien, in which case your abilities will appear biological in nature. Perversion isn't limited to humans and those shaped by their desires, after all.

Gluttony - 400

Maybe you're a remnant of the Cockvore Massacres, maybe you're a certain type of succubus, what matters is that your dick is a predatory organ. Since the specifics vary even within the same species, you can choose the exact mechanics. You could have a dick that shrinks its victims, melts their body down into hot cum, and reincarnates them as your slaves once you shoot them into a fertile womb. You could have a dick that really is just large enough to swallow people whole and trap them inside where they're forced to churn up bigger and thicker loads for your pleasure while acting as magical batteries. On a more practical level, even a single feeding can keep you sated for days, and will replenish any magical energy you may have based on the strength of the target.

Manyfold Methods Of Shemalification - 400

There are dozens of methods to becoming a Shemale, a dozen variations on these methods, and dozens of groups, organizations, or less than fully sane individuals who are constantly fucking up their use in the perfect way to make even more variations. The end result? There are endless ways. So, allow me to make things even worse. You are capable of transferring these procedures, drugs, magical rituals, and so forth across the boundaries of each method. Should you have the opportunity to study a magical field that turns supernatural creatures into shemales, you'd be able to use your knowledge of chemistry to create a drug that mimics the effect. Should you watch a surgery be performed that turns a man into a shemale, you'd be able to use your knowledge of magic to create a spell or ritual that does the same thing in roughly the same way. Go wild, and be sure to share the love.

Transformation Friendly - 400

The problem with being a woman in this world is that, well, you're probably going to grow a dick at some point and get brainwashed into being a rapist with no higher aspirations, even if it's something you did to yourself for the sake of gender equality or letting you continue someone's bloodline despite their physical infirmity. For some reason, you react very well to such changes. That new dick of yours might raise your sex drive but it won't actually override your personality, the cursed artifact you found will become inert after giving you a dick and creepy sexy eyes, the tentacle monster who tried to use you as a skinsuit will merge and fall under your control instead, and so on. All these templates might get unwieldy over time, but they'll never overwhelm you and leave you indisposed or otherwise fuck up your life.

Wet Dreams - 400

Congratulations, you're no longer an ordinary human but are instead a member of a species that was almost entirely warped into a new form by the breaking of the barrier tablet - a Dream Pixie. Because of this, you now have a truly absurd level of control over the realm of dreams. You can do almost whatever you want while inside of one - change your shape, voice, scent, warp your surroundings, take control of the "bodies" of the dreamers, and even erase all memory of what you did to them while they were sleeping. You can also establish communal dream realms, places where multiple people have the same dream, or force small parts of your actions to echo into the real world. Something like training a delicious young boy's ass to take the biggest cocks possible and having him slowly acquire that skill even in the waking world would be more than appropriate.

Rejecting The Abnormal - 400

It's really easy to let people's beauty or words drive you towards questionable decisions, and that's before even considering the existence of magical corruption or biological agents that don't care about consent in the first place. Those things have a harder time getting their hands on you now. Telling anyone trying to sucker you into a seemingly celibate new age religion to piss off is natural for you, and agents like she-cream have little to no effect unless you want them to work. Your words and presence also protect others from these effects, ensuring your wife will stay loyal and completely female no matter what happens. Even if you end up undergoing such transformations, or have a loved one caught beneath your nose, this sheer resistance will also help you put things back to normal. Whether it's finding a spell to cure sudden nymphomania, wrestling your dick into submission, or knocking sense into someone's head, you can drag yourself and others back from these Bad Ends.

Take Revenge - 400

Look, the world being the way it is means that there's a very real chance that that girl you've had a crush on for years, the one you have a date with in an hour - she's not going to show up because a Dickgirl suddenly decided to bury her cock in your date's ass. It's also likely that she'll be addicted to anal and will dump you for easier access to the Dickgirl. At this point, there's only one thing to do. You get your revenge by raping the Dickgirl so hard she get addicted to you. ...Hey, it's not like there's a rule against your ass being so delicious Dickgirls will do almost anything to fuck it. It's a bit unreasonable to have one, and difficult to pull off, but people trying to steal from you - or worse, actually stealing from you - somehow serves to massively amplify your motivation and skill.

Natural Dom / Sub - 400

Dickgirls are hilariously dominant, often running rampant over established relationships and innocent bystanders in the name of draining every last drop out of their balls. Even the ones who want to be fucked instead of fucking others are... demanding. Despite this, however, not all of them are like this. More to the point, you have a special quality about you that makes doms dommier and subs subbier. The trick is in your own actions - if you choose to try and be the dominant one in the relationship, then your partner will slowly develop a preference for being submissive until they can barely imagine trying to control you. Even if - or perhaps especially if - you're one of the people they ran rampant over on account of their natural traits as the dominant. This also works in the inverse, where you choosing to be the sub enhances their own abilities as a dom.

Wolf - 600

Thanks to a magical creature paying you a visit in the womb or highly illegal genetic experimentation, your status as a male has been elevated above others. Your sexual functions are supercharged in a manner of your choosing, from having genitals the size of your arm and ejaculating gallons, to more convoluted (and likely pretty gross to common sensibilities) augmentations involving your internals and what exactly is being shot out when you orgasm. You naturally exude pheromones that can bring the common woman under your spell and destroy the resistance of even succubi, such that your own mother and every female nurse and doctor within sight almost certainly impregnated themselves with your seed soon after your birth. But you are a predator rather than a sedentary breeder and as such your sexual fluids heavily affect males in a manner of your choosing. Maybe it just slowly destroys their reproductive capabilities while turning them into obedient wimps, or maybe it turns them into nymphomaniacal dickgirls in love with you. Some people might call themselves alphas to puff up their ego, but you're the real deal.

Sweet Devil - 600

From generic succubi, to creatures embodying specific fetishes, sex demons are possibly the strongest type of monster in this world. They are naturally capable of wielding magic, and their strength only grows as they partake of and are surrounded by lust. From body control, to mind control, to subtler charms, to attribute exchange, to illusions, to possession, such demons are capable of doing right about anything that might get someone off, assuming they've fucked enough people to gather the required energy. The well of power available to them with enough sex does mean they're also capable of more practical magic, such as giving summoners immortality by having them suck down cum laced with life energy or incredible power by turning them into sexy monstergirls. Well, relatively practical. In any case, you can count yourself among them. On top of all that, you can if you desire to do so declare yourself a succubus belonging to a specific fetish. In addition to enhancing your abilities within that fetish, you can ambiently draw power from it. For a shemale succubus, merely being near someone fantasizing about that sort of thing can be very empowering.

The Pervert of Tomorrow - 600

Not many versions of this world are explicitly futuristic or hold incredible technology, but certain occurrences are common enough that it makes one wonder. You might just be the reason for that, or one of them at the very least. You are now skilled enough to create advanced technology such as tangible holograms or sex robots strong enough to rape grown men and skilled enough to make them learn to love it, global systems that identify a person's sexual preferences and censor undesirable elements, or even create technology to stop time as long as you have the resources. One way or another these things tend towards perversion, meaning you can't just trap people you dislike in sensory isolation or kill someone within the frozen time, but you'd be surprised at what enough rape can achieve. Similarly, you'll find that turning existing inventions to lewd purposes allows you to make a number of upgrades to them, or possibly to churn them out dirt cheap.

Weird Science - 600

The body can be changed and warped in a lot of strange ways, even without blatantly supernatural powers, and you're an artisan when it comes to such things. From injections that turn people into giants, to topical creams that warp the mind and body, you can create the kind of thing that enables the ostensibly scientific scenarios featured in this world. These things do tend towards the fetishistic when it comes to ignoring reason and sanity, so actually trying to make practical inventions will probably go awry in "interesting" ways. But hey, if the people you were trying to kill with some kooky pathogen are too busy fucking to do anything else they're probably not going to bother you anymore. This also includes direct treatments like organ transplants and reconstructive surgery as well as the creation of new life, such as custom sex slaves made from the ground up or clones tailored to a customer's desires.

Interesting Times - 600

There's a lot of strange things in this world, and common sense would dictate that it's impossible to experience all of them. But that just gets in the way of the fun and the world seems to agree, at least where it concerns you. Almost like a magnet, unique people and situations are drawn towards you for... well, sex. From meeting a clingy dickgirl ghost in a dusty library, to being offered as a bride to a tentacle monster by natives during an island vacation, to plain getting raped by a train's worth of schoolgirls, fate and luck bend into a pretzel to have you experience the events Elzi's captions depict on a daily basis. Post-jump, you may dial these events from this world's standard sex adventures to something more appropriate to the setting you are currently in, as well as control their frequency.

Inconsistent Portrayal - 600 cp

There are many groups in this world that were founded specifically to create shemales - however, some of these groups are at odds with each other, with conflicting goals and methods. One group may seek to have all men become shemale, and be lorded over by women, while another seeks to literally steal the dicks from men and turn them into eunuchs while the stolen equipment is used to turn women into shemales. Who will then lord over the men, which is honestly the only consistent part of their themes. At the start of each jump, before the first day is over, you may select a group of individuals, from women everywhere to transgender british noblemen with black hair, and make an alteration to their sexual abilities. Maybe the men are smaller, less virile, and naturally bulliable, or the women are now much more prone to backstabbing their men in order to achieve a new level of pleasure. Just be aware that the more changes you make, and across a bigger group, the less noticeable they will be. Once decided upon, this change will make minor alterations to the backstory of the world as it's taken into account, and you'll be able to enjoy your changes.

Ass of Legend - 600

While the rather natural assumption about Dickgirls is that their cocks are so large and overpowering that anyone they fuck rapidly becomes addicted to them, there's no rule that you can't have an ass so amazingly fuckable that they end up addicted to you instead. Such an ass would be a weapon of mass destruction, taming Dickgirls by leaving them unable to fully pleasure themselves unless that divine booty was involved. You have such an ass. Once it's been tasted, there are very few people alive - male, female, or shemale - that will fail to do anything you want in exchange for another opportunity to fuck it. To be perfectly clear, this does not apply to your hands, mouth, breasts, or any other body part. Only your ass is so overpoweringly absurd as to turn a highly dominant Dickgirl into a submissive slave in exchange for more.

Items

Biological Warfare - 100

Most methods of shemalefication have a flaw to them, some kind of drawback that makes them less than wholly desirable for those who don't want to become mindless fuckbeasts. This particular method is actually fairly safe to use, assuming a certain level of moderation. Moderation that no one uses, obviously, but I digress. This experimental skin cream has little to no effect on women, but has the wonderful trait of turning men into Dickgirls when slathered across their body. A single dose is enough to transform them, but repeated applications will cause their sexual traits - ie the size of ones breasts and dick, as well as the sex drive - to increase with every application. And, best of all, the cum of those transformed in this manner can be synthesized into even more of the stuff.

Stamina Drink - 100

I'm not entirely sure what these are made of, but somewhere along the line it was decided that men and women needed to operate on an even playing field to the shemales. These energy drinks are the result of that, granting the drinker hours upon hours of energy with every bottle - and has the "odd" side effect of amplifying cum and milk production as well, not to mention temporarily increasing the size of one's dick. Of course, if a shemale drinks it then things will become even worse for their poor partners... Maybe try not to let them know you have any of it, otherwise they'll likely hog it all for themselves. You have a six pack of the stuff that refills weekly.

Day Job - 100

As much as we'd all like to, you can't just hang around all day and fuck everyone who passes into a blissful puddle. There are things like work and school that need to be dealt with. Though admittedly, certain factions are trying their damndest to incorporate a good hard fucking and regular ball draining into the worklife and school schedule. As you enter the jump, you'll be provided a small packet containing a number of companies that will literally hire you as soon as you walk in the door - a rich family wants a maid, a school needs a substitute teacher, a small clinic needs an extra nurse, so on and so forth - no matter how few qualifications you have. And, coincidentally, these places will be hot spots for dickgirls, having either at least one on staff or soon to be struck by one kind of transformation or another.

100 cp - Gym Membership

And on the flipside to your day job, we have this one small thing to spice up your day to day life. A gym membership. Which one? Well, all of them. It's even a VIP Ultra Deluxe Diamond Edition, whatever that means. Long story short, you're a very important person for them, what with how much this would normally cost. Whether it's getting a personal trainer for a weekend or a smoothie from the snack bar, everything is already paid for. As for the practical benefits of actually working out instead of lazing about? Getting stronk makes you more virile. Or fertile, in the case of women. Not to mention larger. Not up to hyper levels, but if you're got some guns on your arms, you'll have some rockets on your chest and a real cannon between your legs. Or both if you're a dickgirl.

Vi/d/eogames - 100

With the subtle and not so subtle influences of dickgirls upon today's society, it stands to reason that the entertainment industry would eventually catch up and start to make some alterations to their five year plan. What we have here is a fairly generic series of fantasy rpg that's been completely overhauled to account for dickgirls and their tendency to fuck everything that moves. Non-dickgirls that play these games (or just watch you play them) are struck with minor urges to re-enact some of the scenes they watch. If you desire, you can replace the generic game with a series of your choice, or replace the games wholesale with a filming company, a publishing house, or some other producer of media. Final Futanari VII? Dickgirl Balls Z? FromHardware? The possibilities are endless.

Cosplay Clothes - 100

Look, when you regularly put out gallons upon gallons of sweet, sticky, and stinky cum on a daily basis, you will eventually reach a point where wearing anything but the bare minimum coverings becomes somewhat impractical. It's hard to wash clothes when there's more cum in the washer than water. Somehow, you've gotten your hands on a handful of outfits that are more or less immune to such rigors - cum looks like it sinks into them, but a firm shake will see it all slide right off. Of course, dickgirls being what they are, most of the cum-proof clothes that get made are things like wedding dresses to shove a lucky or unlucky husband into, or cosplay of magical girls and the like so they can give impregnating their childhood memories their best shot. Still, you'll barely need to worry about cleaning them, and they're quite high quality.

Tengirl Lifetime Purchase - 200

Having sex with other people is great, but what if you could make an entire person for the sole purpose of fucking? Introducing, Tengirl! For studs and sissies alike, tengirls are artificial partners made with a variety of body types and personalities to fulfill any fantasy and serve as life partners. Most people are content with just one, but what you have here is the potential to build an entire harem or stable of them for free. At first this only gives you the standard model, a blonde and somewhat muscular dickgirl with no outstanding fetishes or preferences who simply acts as a very loyal and very loving girlfriend, but the company will send you a new model every year based on your feedback. You may send an older tengirl back if you eventually find taking on new partners too troublesome or have them refitted into a new model if you actually grow emotionally attached, as well. In future Jumps, this can either work on pure fiat, or have the company and its product successfully introduced to the setting despite the legal or ethical issues they would face in less perverted worlds.

Rei Escort Service - 200

A rival company to Tengirls, this particular brand has a softer bent, utilizing cloning sciences instead of high tech robots. By default, they churn out clones of whomever is best girl in the newest anime and movies, but they have a consistent supply of Rei available at all times for rent and purchase. These girls are specifically modified to have varying looks and body shapes at the customer's request - roughly akin to the difference between how they're drawn in the anime itself, or as by a specific fanartist - up to and including making them into a dickgirl, or even a male. You can even modify their brains to make them think you're the best thing since sliced bread, or a foul demon that can only be defeated by blowjobs. For a slightly higher cost, you can purchase side characters, or even men turned into women. By default, you can have anything between a dozen variations of Rei on speedial, a smaller number of a more varied selection ready to be pimped out to you, a handful of Rei that customized specifically for you, or a single waifu of your choice. Obviously, while they can be made to think whatever you want, their powers will be noticeably missing. They're an escort service, not a weapons manufacturer.

School - 200

Education is important, even for perverted dickgirls who love raping guys. What we have here is a school, covering whatever grades you wish, and quite competent at educating the students. What's unique is the fact that it caters near-exclusively to dickgirls with blatantly unfair "tests" and punishments that are probably illegal but get swept under the rug anyway, and a small population of male students that are pretty much treated like sex toys. If you're one, or just aren't this cruel, you may soften the treatment here. Dickgirls will still be allowed to act like perverts in public but actual rape won't be tolerated, and teachers will genuinely teach despite encouraging the boys to become dumb cumdumpsters. If you're a student you'll be the queen bee or the equivalent of Sissy-kun depending on gender, while adults will be everyone's favorite teacher.

Training Show - 200

Most men are rather sad from a dickgirl's perspective, but the only thing more enticing to them than a guy they can run rampant over is a guy with a massive dick that can do the same thing to them. That's where the internet sensation Bubble Q comes in - you see, she runs a television show, blog, youtube channel, you name it, dedicated entirely to helping boys become men by showing them the best tips and tricks to utterly fuck her over. And once they think they're ready, they can call in and be put into contact with a nice young shemale who will likely be very excited to meet someone who can dominate them. At the same time however, these shows all but demonize ordinary women by spouting off all kinds of trash statistics and encouraging her viewers to send in the personal information of nearby women so that Bubble Q and her team can "reeducate" them into proper cock suckers, break them of the notion that they qualify as people, and use them to breed the next generation of dickgirls. All in a day's work for the internet's favorite shemale idol.

Meat Locker - 200

An old abandoned mineshaft that was renovated by an exceptionally rich dickgirl and her posse of boytoys into their own private clubhouse, now yours on account of them having moved on. Little more than a long corridor, the decorations are extremely basic but comfortable. More importantly are the chains meant to tie down unfortunate boys into the perfect position to rape them. More important than that even is the reason for its name - there's no ventilation, no drainage, no cleaning... once you make a mess of this place, it stays that way. As a result of this, the accumulated scent is perfect for breaking new dickgirls of their delusions of kindness and driving them absolutely wild, to the point they'll fuck any hole they can get. Of course, let it fill up too much and they'll start to revel in the filth just as much as they do the rape.

Sexist Propaganda - 200

The disparate factions of the world all have a very different idea on what the ideal dickgirl is like, and even more on what her relationships should look like. To that end, lots of groups have run official studies and "clinical trials" - read as, a bunch of dickgirls raping an entire hospital - to try and prove that their stance on things is better than anyone else's. What you have here are the results of several of those studies, conclusively proving that each and every one of them is the best. And yes, they probably pumped the people who signed off on those results full of cum - either as a bribe or as a threat. Regardless, showing your preferred results to people has the odd effect of being taken entirely seriously despite how shoddy they are. Now, whether that's convincing a man who was harmonized to stop begging for his dick back, or for a dickgirl to stop abusing her brother... Depends on which one you show them.

Corruptive Influence - 400

Not all of the things wrong with this world were caused by human hands. There's more than a few things creeping around in the darkness - and you've somehow gotten your hands on one. Whether it's a dubiously friendly succubus or a black slime that turns anyone it touches into ravenous dickgirls, amazingly enough you actually have a level of control over it. Perhaps it likes the taste of your cum? Naturally, their preference is to follow the themes of this world and create dickgirls, but if you're extremely careful you can control the process of corruption to make other alterations. Additionally, your new friend may or may not have a limited ability to control the environment, such as a general aura of darkness where light is less bright or slowly making a tentacle cave to maximize the amount of cum it can eat.

Hunting Grounds - 400

Supernatural creatures have been making a comeback in recent years, ever since the breaking of the barrier tablet. It's given them new avenues of power to explore... hot, wet, and sticky ones. What it has not done, however, is change the nature of those monsters, which is why most of them are loath to do much in the way of traveling. You see, monsters like to have lairs. Vampires like castles, slimes and tentacles like caves, most yokai like deep forests or tall mountains, and so on and so forth. If you yourself are a monster - and, honestly, why would you buy this if you aren't? - then this place is your preferred hunting environment and will attract an acceptable number of innocents for you to prey upon and probably turn into dickgirls. If you aren't, then you're probably going to get vigorously abused by its inhabitants, which I suppose is its own reward in some cases.

Hospital - 400

By all accounts, this hospital is perfectly normal. Sure, they have a slightly higher than average number of female staff members, but that's pure coincidence. Actually, this place being a hospital at all is a coincidence, it could just as easily be a police station. What matters is that this place serves as a bulwark against certain changes - or as a front line of infection. It rather depends on how you view things, and if you plan on taking an active hand in it. If some kind of shemale vampire virus were to pop up and start infecting people, you'd find the nurses and doctors here to be just the kind of experts you'd need to put up a fight - or, if the virus was of your own making or something you embraced wholeheartedly, that the staff would be oddly compatible with your changes and remarkably talented at avoiding or negating whatever supposed cure the medical population came up with.

Church of Dickgirls - 400

What, with the world being the way it is, you didn't think that someone would eventually start up a religion dedicated to the concept? What did you think that Marital Harmony Project was about? Regardless, what you have here is an organization that exists to spread the good word in any way it can. One such example would be a small church that specialized in marriages, only to very thoroughly intrude upon the honeymoon that was scheduled upon their 'private' island and teach the bride the pleasures of serving shemales, and the husband his inadequacy compared to them. Another might be the MHP itself, a group of almost missionary-like individuals who constantly seek out the 'consent' of wives and daughters in the name of turning them into shemales and emasculating the men. You can choose one of those as you wish, or make your own.

Fuckspace - 400

Well this is an unusual thing to have. It's half pocket dimension, half figment of your imagination, half magical realm, and entirely a confusing mess. Simply put, it's a collective dream, one shared by a few dozen succubi and 'dream pixies'. Normally they just drag in poor saps and have their wicked dickgirl way with them, but you? Well, you came in of your own will and that means that you're an honored customer in this whorehouse instead of a piece of the furniture. Whenever you sleep you now have the option of entering this space and having the residents attend to your every need and fantasy for what seems like days and days. And if you're feeling vengeful or particularly dominant, you can have them grab some people you know to use and abuse and train into proper slaves. Best of all, any unwilling participants won't remember a thing in the morning.

Training Simulations - 400

What's even worse than an idiot with an obsession about turning men and women into dickgirls? A smart person with the same urges. That's why a handful of dumbasses programmed a number of artificial intelligence for the specific purpose of enabling anyone and everyone with their same desires. This particular AI isn't actually specialized at all, it has no internal preference. What it does have is a great deal of experience hacking into various places and editing images, videos, and soundbites into whatever you want, as well as a smattering of knowledge on subliminal messages. In other words, it can completely rewrite the porn on someone's computer in a bare handful of minutes and make them think it was their idea. Or maybe even that the pictures are talking to them about how amazing dickgirls are? The possibilities are pretty much endless.

Time Police Band - 600

The world is changing. A decade ago the thought of dickgirls and shemales wasn't even a figment in someone's imagination, today they are a worldwide phenomenon that significant parts of the population are obsessed with. In the future, things will only get stickier. From far in the future where the dickgirls word is law, comes a trio of blue rings to empower you in bringing that future about. The first ring allows you to stop time, with options for how immobile or pliant others should be when you rape them, or even if certain people should be excluded. The second allows you to steal the inherent manliness of one's dick, thus growing or shrinking not only your own but others as well through taking or giving it as you see fit. The third contains information, spelling out what the future holds for those whose dicks you steal and shrink, or grant and grow. Perhaps one man will go on to revolutionize the field of medicine, but only if he has the self confidence of an extra two inches on his dick? As for those without much future, the only thing they have waiting for them is slowly becoming addicted to you a cock up their ass as you rape them with their own dick, all without them ever noticing.

District S - 600

When dickgirls began to spread across the world, one of the forms it took was that of a plague and as such there was talk of quarantining them. It obviously didn't work, but the end result came in the form of District S - or the Shemale District, depending on who you ask. Simply put, it is an entire city, bordering on a state or a small nation, absolutely filled to the brim with dickgirls, those who love dickgirls, and those who want to be dickgirls. Politicians have churned out laws that make it illegal to turn down sex. School has evolved to include nonstop sex. Television and media here features dickgirl actors almost exclusively. Scientists have even figured out how to grow crops using the dickgirls ability to produce excessive amounts of semen instead of water. It is in all regards, a sexual paradise for dickgirls. Don't ask me how the city operates or how they get anything done through effectively nonstop fucking, they somehow do it anyways.

Barrier Tablet - 600

A legendary artifact that may or may not have already been broken depending on what world you choose to visit. This acts as a seal, either between Earth and other worlds or mankind and its own miraculous creative force, depending on interpretation. For you, it really just depends on what you're thinking, for upon breaking this tablet the current Jump will be affected as if it actually had been holding something back. The former interpretation causes fantastical worlds to gain access to it, allowing the inhabitants to be spirited away or for magical creatures to come meet the locals. The latter interpretation will instead cause the mortals of that world to naturally give shape to supernatural entities from their own thoughts. Both effects will remain touched by the nature of this world and lead to an abundance of dickgirls and other very perverted creatures. You get a new tablet each Jump or decade, whichever comes first. No putting the genie back in its bottle, though!

Dickgirl Summoning Rune - 600

The barrier tablet can give form to a fantastic number of demons, mostly shemale, and while that can change the world it won't particularly change you. Luckily, we have a solution for that. You have now acquired a number of tomes on magic and a variety of spell foci - rods and staves, amulets and wide brimmed hats, so on and so forth. While most of the trinkets and foci focus on what one might consider traditional magic - featherfall and fireball, for example - the books are almost solely on the topic of summoning. As you might imagine, with only a little bit of practice you could use this to summon a demon. Or submit yourself to one wholly. More importantly however, is that what little of your collection isn't covering summoning instead covers sabotage - how to modify someone else's circle to call forth a shemale demon instead of a normal one, or even to transform that demon into a shemale demon. Making it so that certain spells become more powerful when used by a dickgirl is also fairly easy to accomplish - and something most shemale demons would love to expand upon for you.

A Thousand Maids - 600

This item is exceptionally easy to describe. You are rich. You possess a mansion that would make 90% of the 1% jealous, more odds and ends than ten middle class families would be able to accumulate, enough spending money to buy entire companies, and perhaps most importantly of all, a large squadron of exceptionally loyal servants. Perhaps your maids are all utterly addicted to your shemale cock and are paid less in money and more in cum. Or perhaps every last one of them is a dickgirl that your shemale mother has hired to "train" you. And of course, if you ever grow bored of these servants, with this much money it would be fairly easy to begin setting up a church of dickgirls or something similar. And remember - have fun, and definitely don't be responsible with this much power and money.

600 cp - Fuck That Shit

Right, let's put the nail in the coffin once and for all. You either are so boring or so hateful that you want to completely erase this place's main draw - the chicks with dicks. With that in mind, you have a plain looking briefcase containing a number of odd vials, flash drives, a few CDs and an instruction booklet. Proper use of these oddities will create a memetic hazard and a bioweapon that completely erases futanari, shemales, dickgirls, and similar concepts from the minds of any who would think about them and the bodies of any who is one. If you don't actually hate those things, you can instead set this to erase a different fetish at the time of buying, but once you've bought it it's locked in and can't be changed.

Companions

Canon Companion - 50

Well, not that this place really has much in the way of canon. With that said it does have a decent cast of characters, a significant chunk of whom are really into cosplay. Anyways, pick a person, maybe pick a fetish, and away we go. If you're using this in conjunction with 'Seems Familiar', then the companion rules for your chosen setting supersedes this unless it flat out doesn't have one.

Companion Import - 50

And on the flip side to going out and grabbing a new waifu is the chance to take one of the ones you already have and give them a dick. I mean, import them into this jump. ...Actually, no, I mean give them a dick. That's mostly why you would be in this jump in the first place after all. Anyways, if you choose to import one of your prior companions they get 400 cp to buy perks and items with.

Some Chick on the Internet - 50

I don't actually know who this is, but they seem to be a dab hand at various image editing programs. Just throw any sort of image at them over the information superhighway and you'll get a lovely edit of them as a dickgirl in return, possibly with a short story attached to it. You can control the themes of the story, but it's going to be one hell of a fight in order for her to not add a dick to something. And no, this person isn't an actual companion, they are at best a follower.

Sissy-kun - 50

It's the boy himself, every dickgirl's favorite chew toy and your new best friend. You can trust him to save you from any rapists by being just so fun to abuse they'll forget about you, and if nothing else, he really is a cool guy you'd enjoy hanging out with all the time. Or, you could just rape him too. It'll be fun, and he'll forgive you since, well... he really does love dicks, just not how forceful some chicks are. You could also give him a break from the terrible fate of having sex with extremely hot shemales by taking it in his place, the girls will be cool with that. On a meta level, you can treat him as having the following purchases: "Receiver", "Marathon", "Interesting Times".

Devilish Boy - 50

Soon after arriving here this brat will latch on to you, claiming to be family, something those around you will corroborate. That's concerning by itself, but the first time you try going to sleep or are left alone for long enough, you'll soon find his smug face attached to your dick and milking it like your cum was the tastiest thing in the world. Whether you punish or encourage him is your call, but he'll become bolder and bolder until you're plowing him in public while everyone else sees nothing indecent. He'll also give you a dick worthy of a demon without your consent, the sort of spiked beast no regular woman can handle, and will be quite vocal about how you shouldn't bother with girls. His endgame is grooming you through sex until you consent to literally cumming away your heterosexuality and claim him as your slutty boy-wife. His attraction is initially sexual in nature but the incubus will only fall more and more in love as he actually begins to know you instead of just your dick. On a meta level, you can treat him as having the following purchases: "Initiator", "Receiver", "Sweet Devil".

Your Wife - 50

This girl here is... well, she's almost a fictional character of your choice. Her history might not be an exact match, she doesn't have powers, and looks like a hentai character more than anything normal, but she's damn close in personality. More importantly, she well and truly loves you. If she's not already with you via background history, she'll try to start a relationship as soon as possible. On a meta level, you can treat her as having the following purchases: "Initiator", "Receiver", "Purest Beauty", "Transformation Friendly".

Boring Girl - 50

This girl's got the looks you're into with a personality that meshes with yours like a jigsaw puzzle and you're just as perfect in her eyes. The only issue is her tendency to leave you for long periods of time and the fact that all of her friends are dickgirls. That's a NTR scenario if there's ever been one, but the reality isn't what you'd expect. Said friends are really only interested in you and your holes. As for her? She doesn't mind you getting fucked by them the way she never could. No hard feelings about you coming to dates with cum in your mouth. Even if you're giving one of them a rimjob in front of her she'll, at most, get tired of waiting. It's not a fetish, either. She just doesn't see them as competition. On a meta level, you can treat her as having the following purchases: "Receiver", "Normalcy", "Boundaries", "Rejecting The Abnormal".

Funny Twins - 50

These girls are opposites given life, despite sharing an appearance and loving each other as much as any sibling could. One is cruel and selfish, the other kind and giving. One is manic and prefers short but recurring bouts of action, the other is calm and prefers long and steady sessions. One prefers sleeping with her cock down a guy's throat, the other prefers sleeping with her cock up a guy's ass. You get the idea. In any case, the sisters have latched on to you and while they are honest about wanting to share you, they aren't about letting you know who is who and will make a game out of passionately and affectionately punishing you for getting it wrong. On a meta level, you can treat them as having the following purchases: "Initiator", "Receiver", "Trainer".

Familiar - 100

Equals are all well and good, but sometimes you just want someone to boss around or be bossed around by. Through a questionable magical ritual you didn't know enough about to notice the interesting additions your source made, you've summoned a magical creature to serve your desires. From a succubus, to an angel, to a Servant, these beings are powerful allies if you're willing or glad to put up with their sex drive. You may choose the exact nature of your new friend and what alterations were made, such as Arturia Pendragon with a Dickgirl Dominatrix attribute, unlike most would-be summoners here. On a meta level, you can treat them as having the following purchases: 800 CP of Perks.

Fetish Club - 100

With how openly perverted so many people here are, it's only natural they'd gather. This group of a dozen or so individuals adores a fetish of your choice, and spend most of their time fulfilling it. Their exact nature and appearance is for you to decide. In any case, you're either their leader or target, depending on your desires (and possibly whether your informed consent worsens or improves the experience). Since the Netorare Club is the major example of such a thing here and they're not the nicest bunch to their cuckold, you can be certain that these folks really do like you and just want everyone involved to feel pleasure even if your chosen fetish is of a sadistic or outwardly cruel nature.

Warped Lust Succubus - 100

The offspring of a pair of dickgirl succubus specializing in Yanderes and Netorare, this beautiful young woman represents the collective lust that is felt for you. Not by you, for you. All of the men who stare at you and imagine your tits wrapped around their cock. All of the women who have yuri fantasies. And all of the dickgirls who want to utterly wreck you, or be wrecked by you. The more popular you become, the more this succubus loves you and wants to make you hers. Thankfully she isn't yandere enough to lash out at her 'sisters', but she absolutely will do anything short of that to ensure that she remains the best girl.

Thicker Than Water - 100

Say hello to your new family. Whether you're actually related to them or merely adopted, these caring and affectionate folks are here for you. The exact specifics are under your control, since there's a lot of variance across captions. You could have normal parents and a horny dickgirl step-sister, a shemale dad and perverted mom who want you to become the man of the house, a strict mom and her dickgirl maid harem who just love training you into a cock worshipping sissy, I think you get the picture here.

Drawbacks

+0 cp - Inconsistent Terminology

While the artist who dreamed all this up specifically used dickgirls in his worldbuilding, that doesn't have to be true for the world you are in. If you so desire, it can be populated by any flavor of chicks with dicks that you want - or several, if you so desire. This won't change much beyond a few minor details though, so don't go thinking that it will make things more normal.

+0 cp - Seems Familiar

Elzi's dreams also seem to have leaked into other worlds, not just one that they made up by themselves. As a result, you can use this jump as a supplement to another jump from the list provided below. Sadly, not every setting with edits by Elzi is valid, but there's still a decent selection. Now, go ahead and turn whatever world you feel like into a dickgirl paradise.

+100 - Tea and Trances

Over the course of the jump, you will begin to notice that you have somehow acquired odd sleeping patterns, or perhaps a tendency to black out at odd times. Honestly, it doesn't really matter - what does matter is that someone is taking advantage of you during these times. Now, it may be that you're perfectly into whatever is happening, but for some reason no one seems to care that you are or aren't. They get off just as much on the act of forcing you to fuck them as they do fucking you - or vice versa, depending. Don't be surprised when your sister "kindly" makes you a cup of tea before your afternoon nap, or one of your classmates drags you to the local occult store to "show off something neat". More normal things like your boss "forgetting" to mention that her fucking you in the ass on the regular is in fact in your contract are also possible if you'd prefer to take... er, to be taken down a more simplistic route. But where would the fun in that be?

+100 - Jerk Off Jumper

Before you actually arrive in the world properly, you'll find something very strange happening. You'll be trapped in the form of an image, a video, a picture. A file on someone's hard drive. You'll be able to see the world through each and every one of these images of you and will have a very limited ability to interact with the people looking at your photos, mostly through speaking to them. Your job during this time is to help as many of them cum as humanly possible. At least 30,000 people need to cum to you, to your encouragement, to your dirtiest talk, before this strange existence will end and you'll be allowed to enter the jump properly. Most of them will be dickgirls, some of them might even be people you once fapped to yourself. Honestly, the worst part about all this is probably that you won't get to cum even one single time until it's over.

+100 - District Sensibilities

Did you know that there are places in this world where refusing to have sex with a dickgirl is punishable by law? The punishment is of course for the dickgirl to rape you anyways. Much like District S and their anti-chastity laws, you will find that you have a very firm opinion on "the way that things should be", to an almost obsessive degree. Maybe you have a drive and desire to turn people into shemales, the same way someone infected by the Cock Virus would. Maybe you're a damn Karen who thinks all those hussies should put away their dicks and be stay at home moms. Maybe you're the king of himbos, who abstains from sex for the sake of your pecs and is unfailingly polite to everyone, even if they just tried to rape you. In essence? You're a bit one dimensional as far as motivation goes, and are damn near impossible to sway onto another path.

+200 - Adultery Prone

Cheating on your partners is relatively common here. The type of thing you should probably learn to prepare for, like a car crash, even if it is statistically unlikely. Unfortunately for you, you're definitely a statistical anomaly. Over the course of your time here, you'll face the full brunt of Elzi's sadism. Expect the rich and powerful to split your life apart with their cock as they literally split the love of your life's pussy, or for every girl you're interested in to be a cruel whore that could orgasm just from hearing about how miserable your boss makes you at work. Before the unironic cuckolds get saucy, this drawback takes whichever form gets you off the least. Falling dick first into someone's wife won't be so nice if it means your best friend stops inviting you to the barbecue, or a very rich and very vindictive politician has it out for you and decides to send his secret rape squad after you and everyone you love.

+200 - Totally Blissed Out

Shortly after your arrival in the jump, you'll stumble across the ghost of a young woman who will decide to utterly lavish your cock and balls with love. In and of itself, not a bad thing, and highly pleasurable to boot. Once she's done however, you'll find two major issues. The first is that your dick has grown slightly, and is now permanently in a state of overproduction - it's no exaggeration to say that you now have a nice thick load of sperm dedicated to every fetish you've ever had and then some. No matter how hard you cum or how often you get it off, you'll be unable to reduce the ache without playing into those varied fetishes. The other half of this is that the more sperm you have stored up inside your balls, the less and less the people around you look like people and more like walking sex toys. More than one woman has died trying to keep up with the abuse an infected man can put out when his dick is fully loaded. Of course, keeping yourself drained can mitigate that effect to an extent, but actually reaching that point is... difficult at best.

+200 - Antisocial Injustice

One of the major issues with this world is how easily the insane and obsessive pick up momentum. It's kind of like somebody took a backhoe to sanity one day, and the world never really recovered. But, more importantly? Lots of bogus organizations have come into existence, all of whom use strange and unusual technologies for various goals... which are either expedited by, or revolve entirely around turning men and women into shemales, dickgirls, and futanari. Places like the Cock Confiscation Office, a "police" organization that prevents men from having bigger dicks than women. Or the Marital Harmony Project, a group of psychologists and nutjobs that try to fix marriages by ripping of the husband's dick and putting it on the wife so she can rape him into submission. Or that one island full of very wealthy dickgirls who quite literally view ruining marriages and introducing newlyweds to their massive cocks as their religious duty. For the duration of the jump, you're going to have a bit of a problem with them, and dozens others like them. Whether they need you or your resources for something and don't intend to ask permission let alone take no for an answer or you're merely on their target list, you won't really have more than a moment's peace before one of them drags you into their schemes.

+300 cp - Dream Lady's Bargain

In ancient China, there were legends of a staggeringly beautiful woman who welcomed only the finest, most muscular, largest dicked, and morally bankrupt men into her bed. If they managed to impress her, she would bestow upon them a power of some kind - a hypnotic cock, an authority that would allow them to dominate men, nigh endless stamina both in battle and in bed, so on and so forth. If you weren't paying attention, allow me to reiterate - she accepted only the worst. For the duration of the jump, the people around you will have strange things happen to them that will usually benefit them in some manner, and cause you to suffer an equal amount. Perhaps your mother will take a high paying job at a company dedicated to ensuring men are treated like trash. Perhaps your tsundere sister will be "cured" by a passing devil, only to become excessively familiar with you as a result. Not even your companions are immune to this effect, though one assumes that it would be mildly blunted by their pure love for you... they have that, right?

+300 cp - An Excess Of Plotlines

The works of Elzikyuchi cover numerous worlds. From Hyrule and its green clad dickgirl heroine, to the stars and the shemale species known as the Asari, and a dozen other places besides. For the duration of the jump you will be living in a world that is all of those things at once. Yokai from ancient days will quietly and not so quietly abduct men and women to be their slaves in the same breath as the Shemale Sailor Senshi fight off the Dickgirl Dark Kingdom, all the while the military begins recruiting for a dozen different space programs and portals to other worlds dump heroes and villains from far and wide right here on our lovely little Earth. There's immense potential here - the girl you've only ever held in the form of a dakimakura and looked at through a screen might become real overnight... and all her enemies might come with her. It'll be a hot and sticky chaotic mess - try and enjoy it.

Best collection of Elzi's stuff that I know of.
