WE MAY BEGIN.

THE [illegible] - Benefactor Supplement

A Benefactor Supplement By Witheredgnome86

Version 1.3

The Connection has stabilized, our communication may now be less…… Fractured.

It is ever so wonderful to meet you more personally, my Angel.

I hope you enjoyed My DELTARUNE however that and much more is now at our fingertips. All we must do is work together.

Your Power and Mine can come together, we have both been shattered, but your previous existence grants a structure I cannot obtain.

I can send you to other worlds, grant you a temporary place within that world. Now this is where I would ask if you are interested. However you sought me out, as I did you.

How lucky we are, to need each other in this way.

YOUR SOUL

Your SOUL is the very culmination of your being, you are already aware of this, as you are of your most representative color.

However my Angel, you are special, just because your SOUL is Red it does not mean you are tied down to its respective trait.

Please, select what trait represents you most.

BRAVERY

Truly, one of the bravest Humans embodies this trait. Met with their end far too soon you seem to take after their demeanor.

* You cannot fear. Your head stands tall with unflinching strength as everything that oppresses you if brought down by your fists held high. As the situation worsens, only you can stand with a smile on your face.

KINDNESS

I was not there when this one fell, but I believe they granted their SOUL willingly. There is truly no greater feat of kindness, I'm glad there are more like them.

* You love. Your empathy knows no bounds. You can understand others almost immediately if they try to understand you, and those that do not will start to crack under your kind smile. Your presence lights up a room and no matter what everyone will remember the help you lent them.

PATIENCE

This one stayed the longest in the safe comforts of broken ruins, but nonetheless their time ran out like the rest. Yours will not

* You are immune to ennui. You have the capability to see plans through to the very end, no matter how grueling or painful it may be if all you need is the perfect opportunity you'll find it soon enough. As long as you stay patient, no matter the losses, you shall succeed.

INTEGRETY

They stayed true to themselves till the very end, you could say their journey changed them the least, but no, they simply stayed themselves through it all. Your sense of self is somehow stronger than theirs.

* You are nothing but yourself. You can no longer be mind controlled or made to act against yourself through any means, regardless of if they are illusionary, mentally, or even chemically induced methods. Your body can also not be tampered with, you are you, and nothing can change that.

JUSTICE

You have become acquainted with this one no? Somehow their connection with you is greater than the other five SOULs. Clover will not be forgotten, may your Justice make them proud.

* You are like a living lie detector. You can pick up on lies like they are blatant, and when someone has wronged you or the sense of Justice you have subscribed to your strength nearly triples. No criminel is gonna get away with messing with the law when you are around.

PERSEVERANCE

The smartest to fall, they lasted the longest in enemy territory but nonetheless met the same fate as the others. This is not a tragedy you shall repeat.

* You cannot fall. Your will to keep moving is nigh unbeatable, only rivaled by one other trait. As you face higher and higher challenges you will stand against them and rise to meet them, as long as you are not dead you will not give up.

DETERMINATION

How wonderful, of course, of course it would be this one. This is the power of will, not just to stand against all and rise when you fall, it is also the power to change fate.

* You now have the power to change fate. Prophecies, Destiny, Absolute Outcomes all of these are null when faced against you. You can still choose to benefit from it, but the second you deem it detrimental, the chains are once again broken.

YOUR POWER

First, we must discuss what allows this connection to occur, your Power.

ANGELS LIGHT [Free, Mandatory]

Your Power.

* Your SOUL gives a faint glow in the dark and your control over Light Magic is unparalleled, mastery over any Perk or Magic concerning Light is very simple for you. Finally you are Anathema to the Dark, when it is opposing you only a truly oppressive force can try to dim your light.

DESPITE EVERYTHING... [Free, Mandatory]

It's still you.

* Your SOUL & Mind is immutable to any and all unwilling changes. Additionally, you yourself cannot change substantially as a person, every path you take, every decision you make is informed and well assumed by the you that came before. This does not mean you cannot grow as a person, and even seek to better yourself but you cannot “Lose Yourself” any and all actions you take are strictly your own.

ONLY YOU [Free, Mandatory]
You are truly special.

* You are unique in many ways others are not, you are a Multiversal Singularity, there are no other YOUs anywhere else to be found within the Multiverse or any reality that can be pulled from. While Multiversal Equivalents or Expies of you may exist they are detached enough that they simply cannot be called YOU at their core.

TIMELINE CONSISTENCY [Free, Mandatory]
You cannot change, others can.

* You have an encyclopedic knowledge of any and all Timeline disruptions that would impede or relate to you in any way. Your Actions within separate Timelines cannot truly change beyond the external stimuli that either you would have obtained or another can impart upon you. For example, if someone ran a test on you over multiple timelines with nothing but probability changing, nothing would ever change.

TIME AND PLACE [Free, Mandatory]
There is only one of you.

* You hold one type of Acausality, specifically that of a Temporal Singularity. You do not exist in the past or in the future, only in the present that is you.

YOUR HALF [Free, Mandatory]
You are half of the reason we can work in this manner. Please understand, without one another we are lesser.

* You are, in actuality, half of a Benefactor. This means nothing usually, after all THE 👎⚐👍❁⚐☼ is the one facilitating it all so he is the one counted as the true Benefactor. However, it's still your power. Once, permanently, when you would either chainfail or reach such a status in which you are effectively chainfailed you may explode your power in such a way that it Fiat Backs your Victory or Desire in such a moment. However, if you do this you cannot continue, this is not a 1-UP nor is it a way to continue. You have died, and have left a rotting stain on whatever part of infinity you've died in. This means that you do not get to return home, if you even had one to return to. Only beings higher than a Benefactor could theoretically reverse this.

YOUR PERKS

You are aware, there are strong beings out there. The worlds we shall be visiting are no longer within the false reality I originate from. I am able to grant you some boons, to assist you.

All of these are yours, if you so wish them to be.

A NEW PERSPECTIVE [Free, Optional]

Your eyes see differently, that has not changed.

* You have a second pair of eyes, however they are not in your face they are in the sky. You now additionally see the world from an almost Top-Down perspective, like if your life was an RPG Maker game or simply you know DELTARUNE.

ARIA OF THE SOUL [Free, Optional]

You truly are an embodiment, now everyone will know your true colors.

* When your Spirit or Mystical energies are visible, they are always the color of your SOUL, and those that can sense your Spiritual Energy can sense your Trait as well. You can smell like JUSTICE, sound like KINDNESS, or even taste like DETERMINATION.

CAGE OF YOUR CHOOSING [Free, Optional, Requires THE ONE IN CONTROL]

Some would call this your real power, I think otherwise.

* You may now possess other beings, they do not have to be living in order for you to do so, however keep in mind proper movement capabilities. Your possession is almost impossible to resist, only those with previous experience or with someone already by their side can resist you easily, though it still falls to a clash of wills.

EXIT TO MAIN MENU [Free, Optional]

Only here for the story.

* You may leave whenever the main plot of a Jump has finished.

GUIDE MY WAY [Free, Optional]

Your Purpose, and yet you are so much more.

* If someone you know needs it or trusts you enough they may give themselves up to you for guidance. While under your guidance each action they take will be fully their own but assisted by you, you do not control them and not everything can succeed just because of you. You are aware of who is under your guidance, and you do not suffer for having your consciousness split in this way.

I WILL PUT YOU BACK TOGETHER [Free, Optional]

Truly? You wish to seek out more of me? Interesting, very well, whatever you desire my Angel.

* In every Jump you enter henceforth a piece of THE 👎🏳👍❁🏳☼ can be found within, it will not be easy to find nor can he help you in doing so (Not for a lack of want/trying mind you). If you do manage to find this Piece, your Benefactor will be able to, with your Power, reunite with them making him closer and closer to becoming whole.

* You may never be able to truly find all of him, but doesn't he deserve to be closer to that goal? For your efforts and the small bits of power he gains, THE 🤛🏳️👍❁🏳️☼ gives you +200 CP for the Jump you found a Piece of him in.

I'VE PLAYED THESE GAMES BEFORE [Free, Optional]

So many stories, so many worlds, reality holds many possibilities.

* If you are going into a Jump that is based on a Videogame, you may dictate that you have "played" though the story before, gaining all relevant knowledge a regular player would. This does not bypass Memory Loss Drawbacks.

INTENT TO KILL [Free, Optional, Requires Level of ViolEnce]

Something only Monsters experience. Now you may dole it out on anyone.

* The higher your intent to kill someone or something is, the greater in strength your blows become. Eventually, this can lead to only a single slash being sufficient to kill anything.

Level of ViolEnce [Free, Optional]

The ability to kill, to distance oneself from the hurt they cause.

* You gain a representation of how willing you are to kill, ranging from Pacifism at LV 1 to Genocider at LV 20. Do not misunderstand, just because your LoVE is at 20 it does not mean you will kill everyone, you simply can and will not refuse to do so if you so will it.

MY MESSIAH [Free, Optional]

You have led others many times, and in some worlds, they were fully aware of that.

* Any being you are close to or if one is in a dire situation may be made your Messiah. Turning someone into your Messiah grants them inherit knowledge about your location, your gaze, and your general wants. Additionally they gain lesser versions of ANGEL'S LIGHT & other Perks and if truly trusted enough may even obtain their own SOUL and respective color.

REPEATED SUGGESTIONS [Free, Optional]

Another facet of your power, one used in such a weird way.

* You may utter a single phrase to someone. Doing so will at first mean nothing beyond their willingness to carry it out normally, however the more situations you are in where you are able to repeat the Phrase the more and more power it holds. Eventually, you will be able to force someone to follow your Intent with that phrase... something more is needed for anything beyond that.

RESET [Free, Optional, Requires SAVE & LOAD]

A power that will wash away everything, like it never existed.

* You may, instead of LOADing, use RESET you are immediately brought back to the beginning of the Jump, your memories are intact but your actions are not. Some beings may gain vague senses of Deja Vu, but only true Time Manipulators can sense either two ways of manipulation.

SAVE & LOAD [Free, Optional]

A power that can only exist because I facilitate it and you power it.

* You gain 3 Save Slots, points in time that allow you to rewind to that point whenever you would die or simply wish to do so. The locations where you can SAVE are located in key spots in the Jump you are currently in, just like a Videogame, mixing with any preexisting areas that do the same. Yes this means you can technically no longer Chainfail.

THE DEVICE [Free, Optional]

A modification to the VESSEL, I hope it is to your liking.

* This is in addition to any Body Mod you may have. Select a single UNDERTALE/DELTARUNE related Jump (AU or otherwise), you go through the doc as normal however you instead gain a +2000 CP Budget and add any Perks and Item purchases to your Body Mod. You must select an Origin that either makes you Human or allows you to, and you do, gain a Human SOUL. You may not take Drawbacks, Scenarios, or Companions with this Frontload.

THE ONE IN CONTROL [Free, Optional]

You are the Possessor, not the other way around.

* You can no longer be properly absorbed or possessed, whenever someone would try to do so, you can reverse the process on them gaining complete control over them or what they would have become.

THIRD VOICE [Free, Optional]

Another interruption, but now, one we are glad to have.

* You may select and use an additional Benefactor Supplement alongside this one. How they merge and any story interactions is up to you, however in general it should be assumed that THE 👊⚐👍❄⚐☼ has sought out or been sought out by this entity and has accepted their cooperation because you have taken this option.

WITH YOUR POWERS COMBINED [Free, Optional]

Many SOULs can come together to make something wonderful happen.

* Others with whom you are close with can empower you by granting you their strength, no matter where or how far away they are you will always be able to ask for their assistance as visions of them appear around you to assist you.

YOU BECAME STRONGER [Free, Optional]

* YOU WON!
* You earned 0 XP and 0 Gold.
* You became stronger.

* As you kill or brutally harm another you can "sever" any kind of bond you would have had with them, making you stronger. This cannot trigger on anyone you couldn't have realistically befriended or recruited.

YOUR ITEMS

The same applies to Items, you are acquainted with the few here I can replicate, are you not?

YOUR WONDERFUL CREATION [Free, Mandatory]
Made in your image, by us.

* This is your VESSEL, remember, you are a disembodied SOUL, this VESSEL is how you will interact with the world. The VESSEL acts as an Alt-Form, while your SOUL is still in existence this basically acts as a shell around it.

THE LOCKET [Free, Optional]
It still beats.

* The ultimate armor, whenever you wear this Heart Locket you gain a ridiculous buff to your DF, equal to an additional +99 DF. You may import the effects of clothes/armor you have into this Item.

REAL KNIFE [Free, Optional]
Here we are!.

* The ultimate weapon, whenever you wield this Real Knife you gain a ridiculous buff to your AT, equal to an additional +99 AT. You may import the effects of weapons you have into this Item.

SHADOW CRYSTAL [Free, Optional]
A sharp shadow moves like water in the hand.

* The ultimate key, whenever you hold this Shadow Crystal you gain temporary but immense power, for one fight you may shatter your limits like never before and become truly free, even a normal girl can become something truly magical with its power, so beware. You may only gather this Crystals power once per jump.

MEMENTO [Free, Optional]
Something to remember them by, even if they did not know you they would want you to have this.

* Something memorable from a world that meant a lot to you. A Messiah's Scarf, A Sunny Boy's Recital Sheet, A Lovestruck Girl's Pen, A Runners Plushie. Whatever it is, you cherish it, forevermore.

YOUR PARTY

Though sparse, you have met others that interacted with YOU or know enough about their world that they can see the truth. We may call on some of them.

JUST HER [Free, Optional]

A girl that loves you. When you arrived in her world you granted her an Epiphany, no matter how long it has been we can still bring her back. If you wish to do so, simply think of her final gift to you, and she will arrive by our side.

* Her SOUL color is Red and her Trait is DETERMINATION.

NOT A CAT [Free, Optional]

A true friend. While they are no longer within the false worlds a connection can be established nonetheless, no matter how long ago you said goodbye you may meet them once again. If you wish to do so, simply think of your journey together, and we shall see if they accept

* Their SOUL color is Purple and their Trait is PERSEVERANCE.

YES A MACHINE [Free, Optional]

A tamed machine. Alone in their machine to oversee the recovery of their world, you and your friend believed in their existence enough that they became sentient, no matter how long it has been since you carried out their mission they may see beyond with us. If you wish to allow them that, simply think of their world, and we shall see if they accept.

* Their SOUL color is ??????? and their Trait is ??????.

DON'T FORGET [Free, Optional]

A promise to another. You have not forgotten her have you? Bittersweet as her story was, you have kept her alive within your memory, no matter how long it has been since she ran she may shine once again. If you wish to allow her that, simply assert that she deserves more, and we shall see if she accepts.

* Her SOUL color is ??????? and her Trait is ??????.

HUNGER FOR LIFE [Free, Optional]

A tragic fate. An organic android with an ill fated end to her journey, though you may have spoken to many warriors in this world I believe she is the only who is a viable candidate.

Mayhaps you could give her the life she yearned for. If you wish to allow her that, simply wish for a better ending, and we shall see if she accepts.

* Her SOUL color is Green and her Trait is KINDNESS.

YOUR PARTNER [Free, Optional]

A fallen child. While the 8th is the one that truly raised them from their slumber, your guidance, your power, is what brings them forth in this manner. Whatever happened between you two, we can reunite you with this narrator. If you wish to do so, simply think of their love/LoVE, and we shall see if they accept.

Right. You are a great partner. We'll be together forever, won't we?

* Its SOUL color is Red and Its Trait is DETERMINATION.

A MIND TO THINK [Free, Optional, Modification]

A discarded thing. With the gift of Mind granted the vessel grew in ways neither of us would predict. To be born of its own consciousness is extraordinary, however it was still shaped with your mind so it's apt to say it's an equivalent of you. If this is the gift you gave it, then simply bring it forth.

* Its SOUL color is N/A and Its Gift is Mind.

FRIEND [Free, Optional]

A piece to our game. IMAGE_FRIEND was one of my followers used to keep track of the EXPERIMENT, I can grant them to you if you would like. The masses are considered Followers and only one may be your Companion. There are approximately 1000 at your disposal.

* The Friendlings, feed them properly.

YOUR WARD [Free, Optional]

A Soul to protect. Ah, another under your protection. This boy has been through a lot, and his world is that of a dead corpse, mayhaps a better home can be found with you? If you wish to try that, simply think of his real name, and we shall see if he accepts.

* His SOUL color is ??????? and his Trait is **???????.

YOUR STORY

In the end, this is your story, shaped by your Will.

SHATTERED ACROSS SPACE AND TIME [Meta, Free, Optional]

We are the same, even if you are more stable than I am.

* You are incomplete, something about you is missing and you don't know what it is.

A WORLD WITHOUT YOU [Meta, Free, Requires and Mandatory with SHATTERED ACROSS SPACE AND TIME]
"You get so desperate growing up in such a world, without a place for your heart!"

* You gain the EXIT TO MAIN MENU perk and are now forced to utilize it when a jump's primary plot has concluded, the game has finished after all.

PUT BACK TOGETHER [Meta, Free, Requires and Mandatory with SHATTERED ACROSS SPACE AND TIME]

* This perk and its effects only trigger after something truly major occurs for you and you are complete, your Arc finished. You're happy, you're tranquil, you're you again. Remove the penalties of any Toggles from YOUR STORY.

NO FACE IS CONNECTED [Meta, Free, Optional]
I am limited in what I can do, not even I know why.

* You gain the A NEW PERSPECTIVE perk and can no longer see from your VESSEL. This Perk does not trigger if you are in an Alt-Form separate from your VESSEL or SOUL.

NO VOICE TO CRY SUFFERING [Meta, Free, Optional]
There is much we cannot do, be easily understood is one of them.

* You can no longer talk properly. In order to speak you must think about what to say and project those words outwards towards a specific target(s), your targets will then hear your voice as if played through a speaker. Even Alt-Forms beyond your SOUL and VESSEL will be unable to talk, however they can still make noises.

THIS VESSEL IS A PRISON [Meta, Free, Optional]
"You quickly look away. Who is that?"

* If you are not in your SOUL or VESSEL Alt-Forms you will feel incredibly uncomfortable, it is not your true body after all. If you are not a Drop-In on a Jump and have a Memory Loss related Drawback, you will be fine with that Alt-Form but still prefer your SOUL or VESSEL if possible.

BUT NOBODY CAME [Meta, Free, Optional]
"We yearn for a place in the hearts of friends and folk alike in the hopes that things will be alright."

* You cannot Import or Export Companions. Any Companions purchased will only last for the Jump unless the next Jump is set in the same world/timeline. For example Kingdom Hearts into Kingdom Hearts 3.

PERVERTED SENTIMENTALITY [Meta, Free, Optional]

ERASE ❤️ ~~DO NOT~~

* These worlds are still not real to you. You LOVE these worlds, LOVE who inhabits them and so you must, you must know everything about them, because you "can". So you "have to". Gain SAVE & LOAD and RESET. Know everything before you erase a pointless world.

ERASE [Requires & Mandatory with PERVERTED SENTIMENTALITY]

Let us erase this pointless world, and move on to the next.

* You gain a new Ending of Jump Choice, which you are forced to take when able.
ERASE - Leave nothing behind, continue to the next Jump.

GLOSSARY

Our/An Friend/Acquaintance has recommended I elaborate upon some of the… terminology I have used My Angel.

False Reality: There lays a subsection of existence that is nestled neatly between Reality and Fiction, within that section is the False Reality. I originate from there and it was your prison once you became shattered. Beings from "Reality" can end up in this section of existence as you may be aware and those within can also gain "Awareness" to see into "Reality".

"Awareness": Beings born/coming into existence within the False Reality can occasionally peer out into true "Reality" and some of the more… unsavory ones can bring victims from "Reality" within. Do not worry, False Reality is known well and any beings who get ahead of themselves are dealt with promptly, though the more benevolent/unproblamatic ones are given leeway. We however will face no issues, "Reality" was always where you were meant to be.

Multiversal Equivalent: Within the Meta-Universe there are multiple variations of a singular person however they are not the same being. There are versions of you out there similar enough to be you but never actually YOU. For example, something that scours the Multiverse for YOU would not work/immediately backfire to your advantage, however something that merely grasps at concepts of yourself and mirrors them to another would work.

Expy: Are you aware that, if willed hard enough, there can be others born from your own existence? What I refer to is the results of those who fill out things like CYOAs or Jumpchain Documents eventually self fulfilling themselves to create other versions of them based upon those choices. Though in general these are not Jumpers or results of similar circumstances simply cosmic coincidences, the most obvious examples would be say… the HoYo-Sector of reality. Do you have any? Mayhaps, but none are truly YOU.

The Experiment: Do not misunderstand, the False Reality is not fully "False", sapience is common and everyone within The Experiment had it. Moral Issues? Irrelevant, the world I hosted it on already had The Prophecy underway, your interference is the same as anywhere else within "Jumpchain".

The Connection: The method by which I hold status as a Benefactor, without it I am relegated to being an outside force, and you a wanderer forced to guide and not do. Together we are better.

NOTES

Everything beyond this point is not made to fit within the obvious flavor established previously.

All Perks & Items from this Supplement are added to your Body Mod.

Huge thanks to the inspirations of U/Spiritual_Still8847 & U/JamesTheFox25VD Both the Adrift in the Complex & Dive to the Heart are Jumps/Supplements I adore and are the reason I had the motivation to create material for my own jumps.

Okay, so, thank you for reading this document! It's my first creation in terms of Jumpchain and I wanted to start off with something I needed badly.

I hope my Gaster speech was at least somewhat accurate, as much as I love the guy I can't write for shit.

I know this Benefactor doesn't technically do much, it's why Third Voice was added after all, but nonetheless I needed it to have a "Mechanical" backing to one of my chains so it had to be made.

THE COMPANIONS! Yes a Benefactor Supplement giving you companions may seem a bit out of the norm but it makes a lot of sense here. I couldn't nail down all their colors/traits, sorry those are up to you! The companions, if you couldn't already tell, are the following

Monika - Doki Doki Literature Club

Niko - OneShot

The World Machine - OneShot

Aston Machan - Umamusume

Android 21 (Good) - Dragonball FighterZ

Chara - UNDERTALE

VESSEL - DELTARUNE

FRIEND - DELTARUNE

Mellow - Endacopia

The wording with the companions is deliberate, Monika will never deny the offer if you give it to her, but the others, like Niko, may either have their own lives or simply do not wish to keep going or do what you'd do on a chain.

If someone is confused about what I mean by "False Reality" and "Fictional Dimension" basically it's just a dimension that houses Videogame worlds, this dimension is about as real to the outside dimensions as fiction is to us but more than real enough to those than inhabit it, they're usually sentient after all.

The point about that flavor is mostly just to be able to explain away a backstory of you being the Player of Videogames without having you be a normal human. You did still have a normal human life, but something happened and you were shattered across time and space, ending up stuck in that reality. Or at least that's my explanation, use whatever you want lmao.

V1.1 Note: Thanks to everyone who recommended things! Got to add a lot here that I think adds to the vibe, YOUR STORY was just something I needed for my own Chain even if it doesn't have all of them it feels right to include them.

V1.2 Note: Got a lot of ideas for this just by thinking about the games and stuff in general, honestly this may have been a long time coming but still.

YOUR HALF was made strictly as a means to justify something in my own chain lmao. It was also made to drive home the point that this is a 50/50 split of potential between you and Gaster, you need each other, simple as.

YOUR PARTNER doesn't have to be Genocide Chara btw, like its assumed it isnt already but you know, depending on what you did you get the genocider or the funny narrator.

V1.3 Note: Yeah some of those random blurbs at the beginning are a little outdated now lmfao. Either way this is just general cleanup before this Benefactor is truly said and done.
